

The Harvester's Prayer

My Covenant

To bring Joy to my Father's Heart

To fulfill the intimate desires of Jesus Christ to lead many from destruction to salvation

Father, Lord Almighty, I Love You, You are worthy of all my praise, honor & adoration.
Lord I want to be close to You, full of Your Spirit & made into the image of Your Son Jesus.
Jesus, I want to be fully Yours, to give You all my life & to have all of You; Your will, Your thoughts & Your emotions.
May my love for You grow stronger each day.

Lord, help me become a fruitful Harvester, sowing Your seeds & bringing many people to Salvation, use me, I want to advance Your Kingdom and serve You everyday, give me many opportunities to bring You glory.

Lord, help me do something profound for You everyday, impacting eternity & not wasting time.
Help me recruit others, to train & equip them & send them out. Yet may I not lose anyone You give me.

Lord, use me to bring Unity to Your body & Healing to those You love.

Please send out many workers into the harvest field.

Lord, I pray for spiritual growth and maturity; to become a humble & hard working child of God, who bares Your fruit.

Lord, please give me a wise & encouraging tongue, one that brings life, healing & understanding.

Help me become a disciple with great faith, yet void of pretence, presumption & pride.

Lord, help me develop a disciplined mind, a crucified flesh & a loving compassionate heart.

Lord, encourage & motivate me, so that I may continually serve You with a passion.

Teach me to listen to Your Holy Spirit, that I may always know Your will & follow Your lead.

Lord, judge me severely, correct me ruthlessly, discipline & refine me thoroughly, that I may serve You more perfectly, being void of hypocrisy, yet meek & lowly of heart, able to come to You as a little child.

Lord, give me an intense & awesome fear of the Lord, knowing Your kindness & severity, Your mercy, judgments & justice.

Lord, I want to master Your Word. Please, bless me with Wisdom, Vision, Revelation, Knowledge, Understanding, Discernment & Discretion. And please remove falsehoods & foolishness from me.

Lord, help me become a mighty prayer warrior, one who can move mountains in Your name.

Lord, teach me to be fierce in battle, to bring down principalities & powers that work against Your Kingdom, able to wisely & efficiently use all the gifts You've blessed me with.

Lord, please help me overcome temptation & don't let the devil have any foothold in me.

Lord, break every stronghold in me, so that Your Holy Spirit may freely flow in my life.

Lord, help me recognize Your glory, Lead me to Your books and revelations but away from man's wisdom.

Lord, please bless my family, give grace to my wife & help her grow closer to You, please strengthen our marriage & help us raise our son the way You want, that he may be a child of God.

Lord may my whole family be ready for Your return, & help us to prepare multitudes for that day.

Lord, set my sights on the highest goal, I want to seek the greatest treasures in Heaven & to find Your Heart, Lord, help me fully experience the Christian life & to manifest Jesus in every aspect of my life.

Most Holy and Righteous Father, thank You for everything You have done.

Lord, help me become a true worshiper of You, the kind You sought after.

Fill my cup with Your tears, that I may know the depths of Your Love & the glory of Your Cross.

May I Love those You Love & hate what You hate.

I am truly nothing without You, may my life bring You joy, glory and honor.

Lord, don't let me forget my utter dependence on You, don't let me drift away or become self-reliant, but help me finish strong in the Lord.

I surrender all to You, please make me into Your image,

In JESUS name, Amen
