 24He will flee from an iron weapon;
- a bronze arrow will strike him through.

 25 It is drawn forth and comes out of his body;
 the glittering point comes out of his gallbladder;
- terrors come upon him.

 26Utter darkness is laid up for his treasures;
 a fire not fanned will devour him;
 what is left in his tent will be consumed.

²⁷The heavens will reveal his iniquity, and the earth will rise up against him.
²⁸The possessions of his house will be carried away,

away,
dragged off in the day of God's [44] wrath.

the heritage decreed for him by God."

Job Replies: The Wicked Do Prosper

21:1 Then Job answered and said:

²"Keep listening to my words, and let this be your comfort.

³Bear with me, and I will speak, and after I have spoken, mock on.

As for me, is my complaint against man?
 Why should I not be impatient?
 Look at me and be appalled, and lay your hand over your mouth.

6When I remember, I am dismayed, and shuddering seizes my flesh.

7Why do the wicked live, reach old age, and grow mighty in power?

 Their offspring are established in their presence, and their descendants before their eyes.
 Their houses are safe from fear, and no rod of God is upon them.

10 Their bull breeds without fail; their cow calves and does not miscarry.

- 11 They send out their little boys like a flock, and their children dance.
 12 They sing to the tambourine and the lyre and rejoice to the sound of the pipe.
- 13They spend their days in prosperity, and in peace they go down to Sheol.
- 14 They say to God, 'Depart from us!
 We do not desire the knowledge of your ways.

Eliphaz Speaks: Job's Wickedness Is Great

- 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:
- ²"Can a man be profitable to God?
 Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.

Job Replies: Where Is God?

23:1 Then Job answered and said:

Job Continues: I Will Maintain My Integrity

- 27:1 And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
- ²"As God lives, who has taken away my right, and the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter,

Job Continues: Where Is Wisdom?

- 28:1 "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold that they refine.
- ²Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted from the ore.
- ³Man puts an end to darkness and searches out to the farthest limit the ore in gloom and deep darkness.
- ⁴He opens shafts in a valley away from where anyone lives;

Job's Summary Defense

- 29:1 And Job again took up his discourse, and said:
- ²"Oh, that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me,
- ³when his lamp shone upon my head,
- and by his light I walked through darkness,

 4as I was in my prime. [62]
- when the friendship of God was upon my tent,
- 5when the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were all around me,
- ⁶when my steps were washed with butter,
- and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!
- ⁷When I went out to the gate of the city, when I prepared my seat in the square,
- ⁸the young men saw me and withdrew, and the aged rose and stood;
- ⁹the princes refrained from talking and laid their hand on their mouth;
- ¹⁰the voice of the nobles was hushed,

- and their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth. ¹¹When the ear heard, it called me blessed, and when the eye saw, it approved, ¹²because I delivered the poor who cried for help,
- and the fatherless who had none to help him. ¹³The blessing of him who was about to perish came upon me.
- and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy. ¹⁴I but on righteousness, and it clothed me;
- my justice was like a robe and a turban. 15 was eyes to the blind
- and feet to the lame. ¹⁶I was a father to the needy,
 - and I searched out the cause of him whom I did not

 - they have cast off restraint [64] in my presence.
- 12On my right hand the rabble rise; they push away my feet;

they cast up against me their ways of destruction.

they need no one to help them.

14 As through a wide breach they come;
amid the crash they roll on.

15 Terrors are turned upon me;
my honor is pursued as by the wind,

13 They break up my path; they promote my calamity:

- my honor is pursued as by the wind, and my prosperity has passed away like a cloud.

 16"And now my soul is poured out within me;
- days of affliction have taken hold of me.

 17The night racks my bones,
- and the pain that gnaws me takes no rest.

 18With great force my garment is disfigured;
- it binds me about like the collar of my tunic.

 19God 651 has cast me into the mire.
- and I have become like dust and ashes.

Elihu Rebukes Job's Three Friends

- 32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes. ²Then Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite. of the family of
- Ram, burned with anger. He burned with anger at Job because he justified himself rather than God.
- ³He burned with anger also at Job's three friends because they had found no answer, although they had declared Job to be in the wrong. ⁴Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because they were older than he. ⁵And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, he burned with anger.
- ⁶And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said:
- "I am young in years, and you are aged; therefore I was timid and afraid
- to declare my opinion to you.

 7I said, 'Let days speak, and many years teach wisdom. ⁸But it is the spirit in man, the breath of the Almightv, that makes him understand.

⁹It is not the old⁷³ who are wise. nor the aged who understand what is right. 10 Therefore I say, 'Listen to me;

let me also declare my opinion.' ¹¹"Behold, I waited for your words,

I listened for your wise sayings, while you searched out what to say. 12 gave you my attention, and, behold, there was none among you who refuted Job or who answered his words. ¹³Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom; God may vanguish him, not a man.'

and I will not answer him with your speeches.

¹⁴He has not directed his words against me,

15"They are dismayed; they answer no more;

they have not a word to say.

16 And shall I wait, because they do not speak, because they stand there, and answer no more?

¹⁷I also will answer with my share; I also will declare my opinion. ¹⁸For I am full of words;

the spirit within me constrains me. ¹⁹Behold, my belly is like wine that has no vent;

like new wineskins ready to burst. ²⁰I must speak, that I may find relief;

I must open my lips and answer. ²¹I will not show partiality to any man or use flattery toward any person.

²²For I do not know how to flatter, else my Maker would soon take me away.

Elihu Rebukes Job

- 33:1 "But now, hear my speech, O Job, and listen to all my words.

 ²Behold. I open my mouth;
- the tongue in my mouth speaks.
- ³My words declare the uprightness of my heart, and what my lips know they speak sincerely.
- ⁴The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
 ⁵Answer me, if you can;
- set your words in order before me; take your stand. ⁶Behold, I am toward God as you are;
- I too was pinched off from a piece of clay.

 Behold, no fear of me need terrify you;
- my pressure will not be heavy upon you.

 8"Surely you have spoken in my ears, and I have heard the sound of your words.
- and I have heard the sound of your words.

 9You say, 'I am pure, without transgression;
 I am clean, and there is no iniquity in me.
- ¹⁰Behold, he finds occasions against me,

- he counts me as his enemy, 11he puts my feet in the stocks and watches all my paths.'
- 12"Behold, in this you are not right. I will answer you, for God is greater than man.
- 13Why do you contend against him, saying, 'He will answer none of man's [74] words'? [75]
- ¹⁴For God speaks in one way, and in two, though man does not perceive it.
- and in two, though man does not perceive it.

 15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
 - when deep sleep falls on men, while they slumber on their beds,
- 16then he opens the ears of men and terrifies them with warnings, 17that he may turn man aside from his deed
- and conceal pride from a man; ¹⁸he keeps back his soul from the pit, his life from perishing by the sword.
- ¹⁹"Man is also rebuked with pain on his bed

let him return to the days of his youthful vigor'; ²⁶then man^[76] prays to God, and he accepts him;

he sees his face with a shout of joy, and he restores to man his righteousness.

Elihu Asserts God's Justice

34:1 Then Elihu answered and said:

- ²"Hear my words, you wise men, and give ear to me, you who know;
- ³for the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.
- ⁴Let us choose what is right;
- let us know among ourselves what is good. ⁵For Job has said, 'I am in the right,
- and God has taken away my right;

 6in spite of my right I am counted a liar;
- oin spite of my right I am counted a liar; my wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.'
- ⁷What man is like Job,
- who drinks up scoffing like water,
- ⁸who travels in company with evildoers and walks with wicked men?
- ⁹For he has said, 'It profits a man nothing that he should take delight in God.'

- 10 "Therefore, hear me, you men of understanding: far be it from God that he should do wickedness, and from the Almighty that he should do wrong.
 11 For according to the work of a man he will repay and according to his ways he will make it befall him.

- him.

 12Of a truth, God will not do wickedly, and the Almighty will not pervert justice.
- 13Who gave him charge over the earth, and who laid on him [77] the whole world?
 14If he should set his heart to it and gather to himself his spirit and his breath,
- 15 all flesh would perish together, and man would return to dust.
 16 "If you have understanding, hear this;
- listen to what I say.

 17 Shall one who hates justice govern?
 - Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty,
- 18 who says to a king, 'Worthless one,' and to nobles, 'Wicked man,' nor regards the rich more than the poor, for they are all the work of his hands?

20 In a moment they die;

¹⁹who shows no partiality to princes,

- at midnight the people are shaken and pass away, and the mighty are taken away by no human hand.
- 21"For his eyes are on the ways of a man, and he sees all his steps.
 22There is no gloom or deep darkness
- where evildoers may hide themselves.

 23 For God [78] has no need to consider a man further,
- that he should go before God in judgment.

 24He shatters the mighty without investigation and sets others in their place.
- ²⁵Thus, knowing their works, he overturns them in the night, and they are
- he overturns them in the night, and they are crushed.

 26He strikes them for their wickedness
- in a place for all to see,

 27because they turned aside from following him and had no regard for any of his ways,

28 so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heard the cry of the afflicted—

When he hides his face, who can behold him, whether it be a nation or a man?—

30 that a godless man should not reign, that he should not ensnare the people.

²⁹When he is quiet, who can condemn?

31"For has anyone said to God,
'I have borne punishment; I will not offend any more; 32teach me what I do not see;

if I have done iniquity, I will do it no more'?

33Will he then make repayment to suit you, because you reject it?
For you must choose, and not I;

therefore declare what you know. [79]

34Men of understanding will say to me, and the wise man who hears me will say.

and the wise man who hears me will say: ³⁵'Job speaks without knowledge;

his words are without insight.'

because he answers like wicked men.

³⁷For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands among us and multiplies his words against God."

Elihu Condemns Job

35:1 And Elihu answered and said:

- ²"Do you think this to be just?
 Do you say, 'It is my right before God,' ³that you ask, 'What advantage have !?
 How am I better off than if I had sinned?'
 ⁴I will answer you and your friends with you.
- Look at the heavens, and see;
 and behold the clouds, which are higher than you.
 If you have sinned, what do you accomplish against him?

And if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?

you do to him? ⁷If you are righteous, what do you give to him?

Or what does he receive from your hand?

8Your wickedness concerns a man like yourself, and your righteousness a son of man.

⁹"Because of the multitude of oppressions people they call for help because of the arm of the mighty. [80]

10But none says. 'Where is God my Maker, cry out;

- who gives songs in the night,

 11 who teaches us more than the beasts of the earth and makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?'
- 12There they cry out, but he does not answer, because of the pride of evil men.
- 13Surely God does not hear an empty cry, nor does the Almighty regard it.
 14How much less when you say that you do not see
- him,
 that the case is before him, and you are waiting for him!
- 15 And now, because his anger does not punish, and he does not take much note of transgression, [81]
- 16 Job opens his mouth in empty talk; he multiplies words without knowledge."

Elihu Extols God's Greatness

36:1 And Elihu continued, and said:

- ²"Bear with me a little, and I will show you, for I have yet something to say on God's behalf.
 ³I will get my knowledge from afar
- and ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

 ⁴For truly my words are not false;
 - one who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
- ⁵"Behold, God is mighty, and does not despise any; he is mighty in strength of understanding.
- ⁶He does not keep the wicked alive, but gives the afflicted their right.
- ⁷He does not withdraw his eyes from the righteous, but with kings on the throne he sets them forever, and they are exalted.

The LORD Answers Job

38:1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said:

²"Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
 ³Dress for action^[86] like a man;

I will guestion you, and you make it known to me.

Job Promises Silence

³Then Job answered the LORD and said:

I lay my hand on my mouth.

The LORD Challenges Job

- ⁶Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind and said:
- ⁷"Dress for action^[93] like a man; I will question you, and you make it known to me.

11Who has first given to me, that I should repay him? Whatever is under the whole heaven is mine.

Who then is he who can stand before me?

12"I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, or his mighty strength, or his goodly frame.

13Who can strip off his outer garment?

14Who can open the doors of his face?
Around his teeth is terror.

Who would come near him with a bridle?

15His back is made of 101 rows of shields, shut up closely as with a seal.
16One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

17 They are joined one to another;

they clasp each other and cannot be separated.

18His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the dawn.

19Out of his mouth go flaming torches;

sparks of fire leap forth.

20Out of his nostrils comes forth smoke, as from a boiling pot and burning rushes.

22In his neck abides strength, and terror dances before him.

23The folds of his flesh stick together, firmly cast on him and immovable.

24His heart is hard as a stone.

 29 Clubs are counted as stubble;
 he laughs at the rattle of javelins.
- he laughs at the rattle of javelins.

 30His underparts are like sharp potsherds;
 he spreads himself like a threshing sledge on the mire.

³¹He makes the deep boil like a pot; he makes the sea like a pot of ointment. ³²Behind him he leaves a shining wake;

one would think the deep to be white-haired.

33On earth there is not his like, a creature without fear.

³⁴He sees everything that is high; he is king over all the sons of pride."

Job's Confession and Repentance

42:1 Then Job answered the LORD and said:

- ²"I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.
 ³'Who is this that hides coursel without knowledge?'
- 3'Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand,
- things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

 4'Hear, and I will speak;
- I will question you, and you make it known to me.'

 I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,
- but now my eye sees you;
- ⁶therefore I despise myself, and repent^[103] in dust and ashes."

The LORD Rebukes Job's Friends

⁷After the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite: "My anger burns against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has. 8Now therefore take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves. And my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept his prayer not to deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has." 9So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went and did what the LORD had told them, and the LORD accepted Job's prayer.

The LORD Restores Job's Fortunes

- ¹⁰And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job, when he had prayed for his friends. And the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. ¹¹Then came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and ate bread with him in his house. And they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil^[104] that the LORD had brought upon him. And each of them gave him a piece of money^[105] and a ring of gold.
- ¹²And the LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning. And he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 yoke of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. ¹³He had also seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴And he called the name of the first daughter Jemimah, and the name of the second Keziah, and the name of the third Keren-happuch. ¹⁵And in all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters. And their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. ¹⁶And old man, and full of days.

after this Job lived 140 years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, four generations. ¹⁷And Job died. an

BOOK ONE

The Way of the Righteous and the Wicked

1:1 Blessed is the man^[1] who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; 2but his delight is in the law^[2] of the LORD, and on his law he meditates day and night.

planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

³He is like a tree

⁴The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.

Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;
 for the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish.

The Reign of the LORD's Anointed

- 2:1 Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?
- ²The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against his Anointed, saying.
- 3"Let us burst their bonds apart and cast away their cords from us."
- ⁴He who sits in the heavens laughs; the Lord holds them in derision.
 - ⁵Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury, saying,
- ⁶"As for me, I have set my King on Zion, my holy hill."
- ⁷I will tell of the decree:
- The LORD said to me, "You are my Son; today I have begotten you.
- ⁸Ask of me, and I will make the nations your

and the ends of the earth your possession.

9You shall break [4] them with a rod of iron and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

10 Now therefore, O kings, be wise;

be warned, O rulers of the earth.

11 Serve the LORD with fear, and reioice with trembling.

12Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

Save Me, O My God

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

- 3:1 O LORD, how many are my foes!

 Many are rising against me;

 2many are saying of my soul, there is no salvation for him in God. Selah^[5]
- ³But you, O LORD, are a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head.
- ⁴I cried aloud to the LORD, and he answered me from his holy hill. Selah
- 5I lay down and slept;
 I woke again, for the LORD sustained me.
 6I will not be afraid of many thousands of people who have set themselves against me all around.
- ⁷Arise, O LORD! Save me, O my God!

For you strike all my enemies on the cheek;

you break the teeth of the wicked.

8 Salvation belongs to the LORD; your blessing be on your people! Selah

Answer Me When I Call

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments.
A Psalm of David.

4:1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!
You have given me relief when I was in distress.
Be gracious to me and hear my prayer!

²O men, ⁶ how long shall my honor be turned into shame?
How long will you love vain words and seek after lies? *Selah*³But know that the LORD has set apart the godly for himself; the LORD hears when I call to him.

⁴Be angry,^[7] and do not sin; ponder in your own hearts on your beds, and be silent. Selah ⁵Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the LORD. good?
Lift up the light of your face upon us, O LORD!"

⁶There are many who say, "Who will show us some ⁷You have put more joy in my heart than they have when their grain and wine abound.

⁸In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Lead Me in Your Righteousness

To the choirmaster: for the flutes. A Psalm of David.

- 5:1 Give ear to my words, O LORD; consider my groaning.
 ²Give attention to the sound of my cry, my King and my God,
- for to you do I pray.

 3O LORD, in the morning you hear my voice; in the marning I prepare a pacifica for you^[8] an
- in the morning I prepare a sacrifice for you^[8] and watch.
- ⁴For you are not a God who delights in wickedness; evil may not dwell with you.
- ⁵The boastful shall not stand before your eyes; vou hate all evildoers.
- ⁶You destroy those who speak lies; the LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

I will bow down toward your holy temple in the fear of you.

8Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies:

make your way straight before me.

10 Make them bear their guilt, O God;

⁷But I. through the abundance of your steadfast love, will enter your house.

- ⁹For there is no truth in their mouth; their inmost self is destruction; their throat is an open grave; they flatter with their tongue.
- let them fall by their own counsels; because of the abundance of their transgressions cast them out, for they have rebelled against you.
- ¹¹But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy, and spread your protection over them,
- that those who love your name may exult in you. ¹²For you bless the righteous, O LORD;

O LORD, Deliver My Life To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments;

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments according to The Sheminith. [9] A Psalm of David.

- David.

 6:1 O LORD, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath.
- ²Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am languishing; heal me, O LORD, for my bones are troubled.

 ³Mv soul also is greatly troubled.
- But you, O LORD—how long?
- ⁴Turn, O LORD, deliver my life;
 save me for the sake of your steadfast love.
 ⁵For in death there is no remembrance of you;
 in Sheol who will give you praise?
- 6 I am weary with my moaning;
 every night I flood my bed with tears;
 I drench my couch with my weeping.
 7 My eye wastes away because of grief;

it grows weak because of all my foes. ⁸Depart from me, all you workers of evil, for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping. ⁹The LORD has heard my plea;

the LORD accepts my prayer.

¹⁰All my enemies shall be ashamed and greatly troubled: they shall turn back and be put to shame in a moment.

In You Do I Take Refuge

A Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning the words of Cush, a Benjaminite.

- 7:1 O LORD my God, in you do I take refuge; save me from all my pursuers and deliver me, ²lest like a lion they tear my soul apart, rending it in pieces, with none to deliver.
- ³O LORD my God, if I have done this, if there is wrong in my hands, ⁴if I have repaid my friend^[11] with evil or plundered my enemy without cause, ⁵let the enemy pursue my soul and overtake it, and let him trample my life to the ground
- ⁶Arise, O LORD, in your anger; lift yourself up against the fury of my enemies; awake for me; you have appointed a judgment.

and lay my glory in the dust. Selah

⁷Let the assembly of the peoples be gathered about you; over it return on high. ⁸The LORD judges the peoples; judge me, O LORD, according to my riahteousness and according to the integrity that is in me. ⁹Oh, let the evil of the wicked come to an end, and may you establish the righteous you who test the minds and hearts.[12] O righteous God! ¹⁰My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

¹¹God is a righteous judge, and a God who feels indignation every day. ¹²If a man^[13] does not repent, God^[14] will whet his

he has bent and readied his bow:

sword: 13 he has prepared for him his deadly weapons, making his arrows fiery shafts. ¹⁴Behold, the wicked man conceives evil and is pregnant with mischief and gives birth to lies.

15He makes a pit, digging it out.

and falls into the hole that he has made.

16His mischief returns upon his own head,
and on his own skull his violence descends.

17 I will give to the LORD the thanks due to his righteousness, and I will sing praise to the name of the LORD, the Most High.

How Majestic Is Your Name

To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. [15] A Psalm of David.

8:1 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. ²Out of the mouth of babies and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, ³When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, to still the enemy and the avenger.

⁴what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him?

⁵Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings^[16] and crowned him with glory and honor.

⁶You have given him dominion over the works of your hands: you have put all things under his feet, ⁷all sheep and oxen.

and also the beasts of the field. ⁸the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas.

⁹O LORD, our Lord,

how majestic is your name in all the earth!

I Will Recount Your Wonderful Deeds

- [17] To the choirmaster: according to Muth-labben. [18] A Psalm of David.
- 9:1 I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart;
 I will recount all of your wonderful deeds.
- ²I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.
- When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish before^[19] your presence.
 For you have maintained my just cause;
- *For you have maintained my just cause; you have sat on the throne, giving righteous judgment.
- ⁵You have rebuked the nations; you have made the wicked perish;
- you have blotted out their name forever and ever. ⁶The enemy came to an end in everlasting ruins;
 - their cities you rooted out;

- ⁷But the LORD sits enthroned forever;
- he has established his throne for justice,

 8 and he judges the world with righteousness;
 he judges the peoples with uprightness.
- The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble.
 And those who know your name put their trust in you, for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who
- ¹¹Sing praises to the LORD, who sits enthroned in Zion!

seek you.

- Tell among the peoples his deeds!

 12For he who avenges blood is mindful of them; he does not forget the cry of the afflicted.
- ¹³Be gracious to me, O LORD!
 See my affliction from those who hate me,
 O you who lift me up from the gates of death,

- 14that I may recount all your praises, that in the gates of the daughter of Zion I may rejoice in your salvation.
- 15The nations have sunk in the pit that they made; in the net that they hid, their own foot has been caught.
 16The LORD has made himself known; he has
- executed judgment; the wicked are snared in the work of their own hands. Higgaion. [20] Selah
- 17 The wicked shall return to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.
- ¹⁸For the needy shall not always be forgotten, and the hope of the poor shall not perish forever.
- ¹⁹Arise, O LORD! Let not man prevail; let the nations be judged before you!
- ²⁰Put them in fear, O LORD!
- Let the nations know that they are but men! Selah

Why Do You Hide Yourself?

- 10:1 Why, O LORD, do you stand far away? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- ²In arrogance the wicked hotly pursue the poor; let them be caught in the schemes that they have devised.
- ³For the wicked boasts of the desires of his soul, and the one greedy for gain curses^[21] and renounces the LORD.
- ⁴In the pride of his face^[22] the wicked does not seek him;^[23]
- all his thoughts are, "There is no God."
- ⁵His ways prosper at all times;
 - your judgments are on high, out of his sight; as for all his foes, he puffs at them.
- ⁶He says in his heart, "I shall not be moved; throughout all generations I shall not meet
- adversity."

 ⁷His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression;

in hiding places he murders the innocent.
His eyes stealthily watch for the helpless;

⁹he lurks in ambush like a lion in his thicket;
he lurks that he may seize the poor;
he seizes the poor when he draws him into his net.

under his tongue are mischief and iniquity.

⁸He sits in ambush in the villages; and fall by his might.

11He says in his heart, "God has forgotten, he has hidden his face, he will never see it."

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up your hand; forget not the afflicted.

¹⁰The helpless are crushed, sink down,

- 13Why does the wicked renounce God and say in his heart, "You will not call to account"?
 14But you do see, for you note mischief and vexation, that you may take it into your hands;
- you have been the helper of the fatherless.

 15Break the arm of the wicked and evildoer;
 call his wickedness to account till you find none.

to you the helpless commits himself;

¹⁶The LORD is king forever and ever; the nations perish from his land. ¹⁷O LORD, you hear the desire of the afflicted;

you will strengthen their heart; you will incline your ear ¹⁸to do iustice to the fatherless and the oppressed, so that man who is of the earth may strike terror no more.

The LORD Is in His Holy Temple

To the choirmaster. Of David.

- 11:1 In the LORD I take refuge;
 how can you say to my soul,
 "Flee like a bird to your mountain, 2for behold, the wicked bend the bow;
 they have fitted their arrow to the string to shoot in the dark at the upright in heart; 3if the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?" [24]
- ⁴The LORD is in his holy temple; the LORD's throne is in heaven; his eyes see, his eyelids test the children of man.
- ⁵The LORD tests the righteous, but his soul hates the wicked and the one who loves violence.
- ⁶Let him rain coals on the wicked; fire and sulfur and a scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.

⁷For the LORD is righteous;

The Faithful Have Vanished

To the choirmaster: according to The Sheminith. [25] A Psalm of David.

- 12:1 Save, O LORD, for the godly one is gone; for the faithful have vanished from among the children of man.
- ²Everyone utters lies to his neighbor; with flattering lips and a double heart they speak.
- May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, the tongue that makes great boasts, those who say, "With our tongue we will prevail,
 - our lips are with us; who is master over us?"
- 5"Because the poor are plundered, because the needy groan,
 - I will now arise," says the LORD;
 - "I will place him in the safety for which he longs."
- ⁶The words of the LORD are pure words, like silver refined in a furnace on the ground,

⁷You, O LORD, will keep them;

purified seven times.

you will guard us [26] from this generation forever. ⁸On every side the wicked prowl, as vileness is exalted among the children of man.

How Long, O LORD?

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

13:1 How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?

How long will you hide your face from me?

²How long must I take counsel in my soul and have sorrow in my heart all the day?

How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?

 Consider and answer me, O LORD my God; light up my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death, lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over him," lest my foes rejoice because I am shaken.

 ⁵But I have trusted in your steadfast love; my heart shall rejoice in your salvation.
 ⁶I will sing to the LORD,

Time to the LORD, because he has dealt bountifully with me.

The Fool Says, There Is No God

To the choirmaster. Of David.

- 14:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they do abominable deeds, there is none who does good.
- ²The LORD looks down from heaven on the children of man,
 - to see if there are any who understand, [27] who seek after God.
- ³They have all turned aside; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one.
- ⁴Have they no knowledge, all the evildoers who eat up my people as they eat bread and do not call upon the LORD?
- ⁵There they are in great terror,

for God is with the generation of the righteous. ⁶You would shame the plans of the poor, but [28] the LORD is his refuge.

⁷Oh, that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion! When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

Who Shall Dwell on Your Holy Hill?

A Psalm of David.

- 15:1 O LORD, who shall sojourn in your tent? Who shall dwell on your holy hill?
- ²He who walks blamelessly and does what is right and speaks truth in his heart;
- ³who does not slander with his tongue and does no evil to his neighbor, nor takes up a reproach against his friend;
- ⁴in whose eyes a vile person is despised, but who honors those who fear the LORD; who swears to his own but and does not change
- who swears to his own hurt and does not change; 5who does not put out his money at interest
- and does not take a bribe against the innocent.

He who does these things shall never be moved.

You Will Not Abandon My Soul

A Miktam^[29] of David.

- 16:1 Preserve me, O God, for in you I take refuge.
- ²I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you."
- ³As for the saints in the land, they are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight. [30]
- ⁴The sorrows of those who run after^[31] another god
- shall multiply; their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names on my lips.
- ⁵The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot.
- ⁶The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.
- ⁷I bless the LORD who gives me counsel;

in the night also my heart instructs me. [32]

8I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

⁹Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being ^[33] rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.

10 For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption.

11 You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

In the Shadow of Your Wings

A Prayer of David.

- 17:1 Hear a just cause, O LORD; attend to my cry!
 Give ear to my prayer from lips free of deceit!
 ²From your presence let my vindication come!
 Let your eyes behold the right!
- ³You have tried my heart, you have visited me by night, vou have tested me, and you will find nothing;
- I have purposed that my mouth will not transgress. With regard to the works of man, by the word of your lips
- I have avoided the ways of the violent.
- ⁵My steps have held fast to your paths; my feet have not slipped.
- ⁶I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God; incline your ear to me; hear my words.
 ⁷Wondrously show 35 your steadfast love, O Savior of those who seek refuge

- from their adversaries at your right hand.
- ⁸Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings, ⁹from the wicked who do me violence, my deadly enemies who surround me.
- 10 They close their hearts to pity;
 with their mouths they speak arrogantly.
 11 They have now surrounded our steps;
 - they set their eyes to cast us to the ground.

 12He is like a lion eager to tear, as a young lion lurking in ambush.
 - ¹³Arise, O LORD! Confront him, subdue him! Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword.
 - 14 from men by your hand, O LORD, from men of the world whose portion is in this life. [36]

You fill their womb with treasure; [37] they are satisfied with children, and they leave their abundance to their infants.

when I awake, I shall be satisfied with your

The LORD Is My Rock and My Fortress To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, the servant of the LORD, who addressed the words of this song to the LORD on the day when the LORD rescued him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said:

18:1 Hove you, O LORD, my strength.

The LORD is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer.

my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

³I call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised, and I am saved from my enemies.

⁴The cords of death encompassed me; the torrents of destruction assailed me; ^[38] ⁵the cords of Sheol entangled me;

the snares of death confronted me.

- ⁶In my distress I called upon the LORD; to my God I cried for help.
- From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him reached his ears.
- ⁷Then the earth reeled and rocked; the foundations also of the mountains trembled and quaked, because he was angry.
- and devouring fire from his mouth; glowing coals flamed forth from him.

⁸Smoke went up from his nostrils, [39]

- He bowed the heavens and came down;
 thick darkness was under his feet.
 He rode on a cherub and flew;
- he came swiftly on the wings of the wind.
- ¹¹He made darkness his covering, his canopy around him,
 - thick clouds dark with water.
- ¹²Out of the brightness before him hailstones and coals of fire broke through his clouds.

13The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.
14And he sent out his arrows and scattered them; he flashed forth lightnings and routed them.

15Then the channels of the sea were seen, and the foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
16He sent from on high, he took me;

17He rescued me from my strong enemy and from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.
18They confronted me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my support.
19He brought me out into a broad place;

he drew me out of many waters.

he rescued me, because he delighted in me.

20 The LORD dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he

- rewarded me.

 ²¹For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
- For all his rules 40 were before me, and his statutes I did not put away from me.
 Was blameless before him.
- and I kept myself from my guilt.

 24So the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his
- sight.

 25With the merciful you show yourself merciful;
- blameless;

 26 with the purified you show yourself pure;
 and with the crooked you make yourself seem with the blameless man you show yourself

- tortuous.

 For you save a humble people,
- but the haughty eyes you bring down. ²⁸For it is you who light my lamp;
- the LORD my God lightens my darkness.

- and by my God I can leap over a wall. 30 This God—his way is perfect: [41] the word of the LORD proves true;
- he is a shield for all those who take refuge in him. ³¹For who is God, but the LORD?
- And who is a rock, except our God?— ³²the God who equipped me with strength and made my way blameless.

²⁹For by you I can run against a troop,

- 33He made my feet like the feet of a deer and set me secure on the heights.
- ³⁴He trains my hands for war, so that my arms can bend a bow of bronze.
- ³⁵You have given me the shield of your salvation, and your right hand supported me, and your gentleness made me great. ³⁶You gave a wide place for my steps under me,
- and my feet did not slip. ³⁷I pursued my enemies and overtook them,
 - and did not turn back till they were consumed.
- 38 I thrust them through, so that they were not able to they fell under my feet.

39 For you equipped me with strength for the battle; you made those who rise against me sink under me.

rise:

- 40 You made my enemies turn their backs to me, and those who hated me I destroyed.
 41 They cried for help, but there was none to save; they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer.
- they cried to the LORD, but he did not answer them.

 42I beat them fine as dust before the wind;
- I cast them out like the mire of the streets.

 43You delivered me from strife with the people;
- you made me the head of the nations; people whom I had not known served me.

 44As soon as they heard of me they obeyed me; foreigners came cringing to me
- foreigners came cringing to me.

 45Foreigners lost heart and came trembling out of their fortresses.
- 46The LORD lives, and blessed be my rock, and exalted be the God of my salvation—and subdued peoples under me,

48who delivered me from my enemies;

yes, you exalted me above those who rose against

⁴⁷the God who gave me vengeance

- me;
 you rescued me from the man of violence.
- ⁴⁹For this I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations, and sing to your name.
- 50 Great salvation he brings to his king, and shows steadfast love to his anointed, to David and his offspring forever.

The Law of the LORD Is Perfect

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 19:1 The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above [43] proclaims his handiwork.
- ²Day to day pours out speech, and night to night reveals knowledge.
- ³There is no speech, nor are there words, whose voice is not heard.
- whose voice is not heard.

 4Their voice [44] goes out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world.
- In them he has set a tent for the sun,

 ⁵which comes out like a bridegroom leaving his chamber.
- and, like a strong man, runs its course with joy. ⁶Its rising is from the end of the heavens, and its circuit to the end of them, and there is nothing hidden from its heat.
- ⁷The law of the LORD is perfect, ^[45] reviving the soul; the testimony of the LORD is sure,

⁸the precepts of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the LORD is pure. enlightening the eyes: ⁹the fear of the LORD is clean, enduring forever: the rules 46 of the LORD are true. and righteous altogether. ¹⁰More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and drippings of the honeycomb. ¹¹Moreover, by them is your servant warned; in keeping them there is great reward. 12Who can discern his errors? Declare me innocent from hidden faults. ¹³Keep back your servant also from presumptuous making wise the simple:

let them not have dominion over me!
Then I shall be blameless, and innocent of great transgression.

sins:

14Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,

O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

Trust in the Name of the LORD Our God

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 20:1 May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble!
- May the name of the God of Jacob protect you!

 May he send you help from the sanctuary and give you support from Zion!
- ³May he remember all your offerings and regard with favor your burnt sacrifices! *Selah*⁴May be grant you your heart's desire
- ⁴May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans!
 ⁵May we shout for joy over your salvation, and in the name of our God set up our banners!
 May the LORD fulfill all your petitions!
- ⁶Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed; he will answer him from his holy heaven with the saving might of his right hand.
 ⁷Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the LORD our God.

⁸They collapse and fall,

⁹O LORD, save the king!

May he answer us when we call.

but we rise and stand upright.

The King Rejoices in the LORD's Strength

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 21:1 O LORD, in your strength the king rejoices, and in your salvation how greatly he exults!
 2You have given him his heart's desire and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah
- ³For you meet him with rich blessings; you set a crown of fine gold upon his head.
- ⁴He asked life of you; you gave it to him,
- length of days forever and ever.

 5His glory is great through your salvation;
- splendor and majesty you bestow on him.
- ⁶For you make him most blessed forever; [47] you make him glad with the joy of your presence.
- ⁷For the king trusts in the LORD, and through the steadfast love of the Most High he shall not be moved.
- 8Your hand will find out all your enemies; your right hand will find out those who hate you.

when you appear. The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath, and fire will consume them.

10 You will destroy their descendants from the earth, and their offspring from among the children of man.

¹¹Though they plan evil against you, though they devise mischief, they will not succeed.

¹²For you will put them to flight; you will aim at their faces with your bows.

¹³Be exalted, O LORD, in your strength! We will sing and praise your power.

⁹You will make them as a blazing oven

Why Have You Forsaken Me?

To the choirmaster: according to The Doe of the Dawn. A Psalm of David.

- 22:1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?

 ²O my God. I cry by day, but you do not answer.
- ²O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.
 ³Yet you are holy.
- enthroned on the praises^[48] of Israel.

 ⁴In you our fathers trusted;
- they trusted, and you delivered them.
- ⁵To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame.
- ⁶But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by mankind and despised by the people.
- ⁷All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;

- ⁸"He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!" ⁹Yet vou are he who took me from the womb; you made me trust you at my mother's breasts.
- ¹⁰On you was I cast from my birth, and from my mother's womb you have been my God.
- ¹¹Be not far from me, for trouble is near. and there is none to help.
- 12 Many bulls encompass me; strong bulls of Bashan surround me:
- ¹³thev open wide their mouths at me, like a ravening and roaring lion.
- ¹⁴I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax;
 - it is melted within my breast;

and my tongue sticks to my jaws;

¹⁵mv strength is dried up like a potsherd,

16 For dogs encompass me;
 a company of evildoers encircles me;
 they have pierced my hands and feet [49] 17 I can count all my bones—

they stare and gloat over me;
they divide my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.
But you, O LORD, do not be far off!

O you my help, come quickly to my aid!

you lay me in the dust of death.

Deliver my soul from the sword,
 my precious life from the power of the dog!
 Save me from the mouth of the lion!
 You have rescued [50] me from the horns of the wild.

22| will tell of your name to my brothers:

 in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
 You who fear the LORD, praise him!

All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him, and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!

24For he has not despised or abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, and he has not hidden his face from him, but has heard, when he cried to him.

²⁵From you comes my praise in the great

- congregation;
 my vows I will perform before those who fear him.

 26 The office of 1511 about and the continuous first and
- The afflicted [51] shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the LORD! May your hearts live forever!
 All the ends of the earth shall remember
- and all the families of the nations shall worship before you.

 28 For kingship belongs to the LORD, and turn to the LORD.

- and he rules over the nations.
- ²⁹All the prosperous of the earth eat and worship; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, even the one who could not keep himself alive. ³⁰Posterity shall serve him;

it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation;

31 they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn, that he has done it.

The LORD Is My Shepherd

A Psalm of David.

23:1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²He makes me lie down in green pastures.

He leads me beside still waters. [52]

³He restores my soul.

He leads me in paths of righteousness^[53] for his name's sake.

⁴Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,^[54]

I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

⁵You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

⁶Surely^[55] goodness and mercy^[56] shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell^[57] in the house of the LORD forever.^[58]

The King of Glory

A Psalm of David.

- 24:1 The earth is the LORD's and the fullness thereof, ^[59] the world and those who dwell therein,
- ²for he has founded it upon the seas and established it upon the rivers.
- Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD?
 And who shall stand in his holy place?
 He who has clean hands and a pure heart,
 - who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully.
- ⁵He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
- ⁶Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. [60] Selah
- ⁷Lift up your heads, O gates!
 And be lifted up, O ancient doors, that the King of glory may come in.

⁸Who is this King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!

And lift them up, O ancient doors,

⁹Lift up your heads, O gates!

The LORD of hosts.

that the King of glory may come in.

he is the King of glory! Selah

10 Who is this King of glory?

Teach Me Your Paths

[61] Of David.

- 25:1 To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul.
- ²O my God, in you I trust; let me not be put to shame; let not my enemies exult over me.

treacherous.

- ³Indeed, none who wait for you shall be put to shame; they shall be ashamed who are wantonly
- ⁴Make me to know your ways, O LORD;
- teach me your paths.

 5Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all the day long.
- ⁶Remember your mercy, O LORD, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old.
- ⁷Remember not the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for the sake of your goodness, O LORD!

therefore he instructs sinners in the way.
He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.
All the paths of the LORD are steadfast love and faithfulness, for those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

⁸Good and upright is the LORD;

¹¹For your name's sake, O LORD, pardon my guilt, for it is great.

12Who is the man who fears the LORD?

Him will he instruct in the way that he should choose.

13His soul shall abide in well-being, and his offspring shall inherit the land.
 14The friendship 62 of the LORD is for those who fear him.

and he makes known to them his covenant.

- ¹⁵My eyes are ever toward the LORD, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.
- 16Turn to me and be gracious to me, for I am lonely and afflicted.17The troubles of my heart are enlarged;
- bring me out of my distresses.

 18 Consider my affliction and my trouble,

¹⁹Consider how many are my foes,

- and forgive all my sins.
- and with what violent hatred they hate me. ²⁰Oh, guard my soul, and deliver me!
- Let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.
- ²¹May integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.
- 22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

I Will Bless the LORD

Of David.

- 26:1 Vindicate me, O LORD, for I have walked in my integrity, and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
- ²Prove me, O LORD, and try me; test my heart and my mind. [63] ³For your steadfast love is before my eyes,
- For your steadfast love is before my eyes and I walk in your faithfulness.
- 4I do not sit with men of falsehood, nor do I consort with hypocrites.
 5I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I will not sit with the wicked
- ⁶I wash my hands in innocence and go around your altar, O LORD, ⁷proclaiming thanksgiving aloud, and telling all your wondrous deeds.
- ⁸O LORD, I love the habitation of your house

⁹Do not sweep my soul away with sinners. nor my life with bloodthirsty men, ¹⁰in whose hands are evil devices, and the place where your glory dwells.

¹¹But as for me, I shall walk in my integrity;

redeem me, and be gracious to me.

in the great assembly I will bless the LORD.

¹²Mv foot stands on level ground;

The LORD Is My Light and My Salvation

Of David.

27:1 The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

to eat up my flesh,
my adversaries and foes,
it is they who stumble and fall.

Though an army encamp against me,

²When evildoers assail me

my heart shall not fear; though war arise against me, yet^[65] I will be confident.

⁴One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire [66] in his temple. ⁵For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble:

he will conceal me under the cover of his tent: he will lift me high upon a rock. ⁶And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me. and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy; I will sing and make melody to the LORD.

⁷Hear. O LORD, when I cry aloud; be gracious to me and answer me!

⁸You have said. "Seek^[67] my face." My heart says to you,

"Your face, LORD, do I seek." [68] ⁹Hide not your face from me.

Turn not your servant away in anger, O you who have been my help.

Cast me not off: forsake me not.

- O God of my salvation! ¹⁰For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me in
- and lead me on a level path because of my enemies. ¹²Give me not up to the will of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me.

¹¹Teach me your way, O LORD,

- and they breathe out violence.
- 13 believe [69] that I shall look upon the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living!
- 14Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage;
- wait for the LORD!

The LORD Is My Strength and My Shield

Of David.

28:1 To you, O LORD, I call; my rock, be not deaf to me, lest, if you be silent to me. I become like those who go down to the pit. ²Hear the voice of my pleas for mercy, when I cry to you for help. when I lift up my hands toward your most holv sanctuarv. [70]

with the workers of evil. who speak peace with their neighbors while evil is in their hearts. ⁴Give to them according to their work or the work of his hands.

³Do not drag me off with the wicked,

and according to the evil of their deeds; give to them according to the work of their hands; render them their due reward.

⁵Because they do not regard the works of the LORD

he will tear them down and build them up no more.

6Blessed be the LORD!

For he has heard the voice of my pleas for mercy.

The LORD is my strength and my shield;

in him my heart trusts, and I am helped; my heart exults, and with my song I give thanks to him.

⁸The LORD is the strength of his people: [71]

he is the saving refuge of his anointed.

9Oh, save your people and bless your heritage!
Be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Ascribe to the LORD Glory

A Psalm of David.

- 29:1 Ascribe to the LORD, O heavenly beings, ^[72] ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- ²Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness. [73]
- ³The voice of the LORD is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the LORD, over many waters.
- ⁴The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
- the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon.

 ⁶He makes Lebanon to skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young wild ox.

⁵The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars:

- ⁷The voice of the LORD flashes forth flames of fire.
- 8The voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

⁹The voice of the LORD makes the deer give hirth^[74] and strips the forests bare,

10 The LORD sits enthroned over the flood;

and in his temple all crv. "Glorv!"

the LORD sits enthroned as king forever.

¹¹May the LORD give strength to his people! May the LORD bless^[75] his people with peace!

Joy Comes with the Morning

A Psalm of David. A song at the dedication of the temple.

- 30:1 I will extol you, O LORD, for you have drawn me up and have not let my foes rejoice over me.
- ²O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you have healed me.
- ³O LORD, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; you restored me to life from among those who go down to the pit. [76]
- ⁴Sing praises to the LORD, O you his saints, and give thanks to his holy name. [77]

 ⁵For his anger is but for a moment, and his favor is for a lifetime. [78]

 Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes with the morning.
- ⁶As for me, I said in my prosperity,

⁷Bv vour favor, O LORD, you made my mountain stand strong; you hid your face; I was dismayed.

"I shall never be moved "

⁸To vou, O LORD, I cry, and to the Lord I plead for mercy: 9"What profit is there in my death, [79] if I go down to the pit?[80] Will the dust praise you?

Will it tell of your faithfulness? ¹⁰Hear. O LORD, and be merciful to me! O LORD, be my helper!"

11 You have turned for me my mourning into dancing;

you have loosed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, 12that my glory may sing your praise and not be silent.

O LORD my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Into Your Hand I Commit My Spirit

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 31:1 In you, O LORD, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame; in your righteousness deliver me!

 2Incline your ear to me;
- rescue me speedily!

 Be a rock of refuge for me,
 a strong fortress to save me!

 3For you are my rock and my fortress;
- and for your name's sake you lead me and guide me;

 ⁴you take me out of the net they have hidden for me,
- for you are my refuge.

 5Into your hand I commit my spirit;
 you have redeemed me, O LORD, faithful God.
- ⁶I hate^[81] those who pay regard to worthless idols, but I trust in the LORD.
- ⁷I will rejoice and be glad in your steadfast love,

you have known the distress of my soul,

8 and you have not delivered me into the hand of the enemy;

you have set my feet in a broad place.

because you have seen my affliction;

and my years with sighing;

⁹Be gracious to me, O LORD, for I am in distress; my eye is wasted from grief; my soul and my body also.
¹⁰For my life is spent with sorrow,

- my strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones waste away.

 11Because of all my adversaries I have become a reproach,
- especially to my neighbors, and an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street flee from me
- those who see me in the street flee from me.

 12 have been forgotten like one who is dead;
- I have become like a broken vessel.

 13For I hear the whispering of many—terror on every side!—

15My times are in your hand;
rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from my persecutors!
16Make your face shine on your servant;

as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life.

save me in your steadfast love! ¹⁷O LORD, let me not be put to shame, 14But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, "You are my God."

for I call upon you;
let the wicked be put to shame;
let them go silently to Sheol.

18 Let the lying lips be mute, which speak insolently against the righteous in pride and contempt.

19 Oh. how abundant is your goodness,

in the sight of the children of mankind!

20 In the cover of your presence you hide them which you have stored up for those who fear you and worked for those who take refuge in you, from the plots of men; you store them in your shelter from the strife of tongues.

²¹Blessed be the LORD. for he has wondrously shown his steadfast love to me when I was in a besieged city. 22 I had said in my alarm. [82] "I am cut off from your sight."

But you heard the voice of my pleas for mercy when I cried to you for help.

²³Love the LORD, all you his saints!

all you who wait for the LORD!

The LORD preserves the faithful but abundantly repays the one who acts in pride.

²⁴Be strong, and let your heart take courage,

Blessed Are the Forgiven

A Maskil^[83] of David.

32:1 Blessed is the one whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

- ²Blessed is the man against whom the LORD counts no iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no deceit.
- ³For when I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.
- ⁴For day and night your hand was heavy upon me; my strength was dried up^[84] as by the heat of summer. Selah
- ⁵I acknowledged my sin to you, and I did not cover my iniquity; I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,"
 - and you forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

- Therefore let everyone who is godly offer prayer to you at a time when you may be found; surely in the rush of great waters, they shall not reach him.
- ⁷You are a hiding place for me; you preserve me from trouble; you surround me with shouts of deliverance. Selah
- ⁸I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go:
- I will counsel you with my eye upon you.

 Be not like a horse or a mule, without understanding.
 - understanding,
 which must be curbed with bit and bridle, or it will not stay near you.
- ¹⁰Many are the sorrows of the wicked, but steadfast love surrounds the one who trusts in the LORD.
- ¹¹Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, O righteous, and shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

The Steadfast Love of the LORD

- 33:1 Shout for joy in the LORD, O you righteous! Praise befits the upright.
- ²Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre; make melody to him with the harp of ten strings! ³Sing to him a new song;
- Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts.
- ⁴For the word of the LORD is upright, and all his work is done in faithfulness.
- ⁵He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the LORD.
- ⁶By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, and by the breath of his mouth all their host.
- ⁷He gathers the waters of the sea as a heap; he puts the deeps in storehouses.
- ⁸Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him!

- ⁹For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm.
- 10 The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing;
 - he frustrates the plans of the peoples.
- 11 The counsel of the LORD stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations.
- ¹²Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen as his heritage!
- 13 The LORD looks down from heaven;
 he sees all the children of man;
 14 from where he sits enthroned he looks out
- on all the inhabitants of the earth,

 15he who fashions the hearts of them all
- and observes all their deeds.

 16The king is not saved by his great army;
- a warrior is not delivered by his great strength.
- 17 The war horse is a false hope for salvation, and by its great might it cannot rescue.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his steadfast love, 19 that he may deliver their soul from death and keep them alive in famine.

²⁰Our soul waits for the LORD; he is our help and our shield.

For our heart is glad in him, because we trust in his holy name.
 et your steadfast love. O LORD, he upon us

²²Let your steadfast love, O LORD, be upon us, even as we hope in you.

even as we hope in you.

Taste and See That the LORD Is Good

[85] Of David, when he changed his behavior before Abimelech, so that he drove him out, and he went away.

- 34:1 I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
- ²My soul makes its boast in the LORD; let the humble hear and be glad.
- ³Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt his name together!
- ⁴I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
- ⁵Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.
- ⁶This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him and saved him out of all his troubles.
- ⁷The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.

Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him!

Oh, fear the LORD, you his saints, for those who fear him have no lack!

⁸Oh. taste and see that the LORD is good!

- 10 The young lions suffer want and hunger; but those who seek the LORD lack no good thing.
 11 Come. O children, listen to me;
- I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

 12What man is there who desires life and loves many days, that he may see good?
- 13Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit.
 14Turn away from evil and do good;
- seek peace and pursue it.
- ¹⁵The eyes of the LORD are toward the righteous and his ears toward their cry.
- 16The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
 17When the righteous cry for help, the LORD hears and delivers them out of all their troubles.

- ¹⁸The LORD is near to the brokenhearted and saves the crushed in spirit.
- ¹⁹Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all
- ²⁰He keeps all his bones; not one of them is broken.
- ²¹Affliction will slay the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be condemned
- 22 The LORD redeems the life of his servants:
- none of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Great Is the LORD

Of David.

35:1 Contend, O LORD, with those who contend with me;

fight against those who fight against me!

²Take hold of shield and buckler and rise for my help!

³Draw the spear and javelin^[86] against my pursuers!

Say to my soul, "I am your salvation!"

⁴Let them be put to shame and dishonor who seek after my life! Let them be turned back and disappointed who devise evil against me!

⁵Let them be like chaff before the wind, with the angel of the LORD driving them away!

⁶Let their way be dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them! For without cause they hid their net for me; without cause they dug a pit for my life. [87]
 Let destruction come upon him when he does not know it!

And let the net that he hid ensnare him; let him fall into it—to his destruction!

Then my soul will rejoice in the LORD, exulting in his salvation.
 All my bones shall say,
 CLORD, who is like you, delivering the poor from him who is too strong for him, the poor and needy from him who robs him?"

11 Malicious [88] witnesses rise up; they ask me of things that I do not know.

12 They repay me evil for good; my soul is bereft. [89]
13 But I when they were sick—

13But I, when they were sick—I wore sackcloth;I afflicted myself with fasting;

I prayed with head bowed [90] on my chest.

14 I went about as though I grieved for my friend or my brother;
as one who laments his mother,
I bowed down in mourning.

they gathered together against me; wretches whom I did not know tore at me without ceasing;

16like profane mockers at a feast, [91]

¹⁵But at my stumbling they rejoiced and gathered;

they gnash at me with their teeth.

How long, O Lord, will you look on?
Rescue me from their destruction,

my precious life from the lions!

18 I will thank you in the great congregation; in the mighty throng I will praise you.

¹⁹Let not those rejoice over me who are wrongfully my foes, and let not those wink the eye who hate me without cause.

- ²⁰For they do not speak peace, but against those who are quiet in the land they devise words of deceit.
 ²¹They open wide their mouths against me;
 - 'They open wide their mouths against me; they say, "Aha, Aha! Our eyes have seen it!"
- 22You have seen, O LORD; be not silent!
 O Lord, be not far from me!
 23Awake and rouse yourself for my vindication,
- for my cause, my God and my Lord!

 24Vindicate me, O LORD, my God,
 - according to your righteousness, and let them not rejoice over me!
- ²⁵Let them not say in their hearts,
- "Aha, our heart's desire!"
 Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."
- Let them not say, "We have swallowed him up."

 26Let them be put to shame and disappointed
- altogether
 who rejoice at my calamity!
 Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves against me!

²⁷Let those who delight in my righteousness shout for joy and be glad and say evermore, "Great is the LORD.

who delights in the welfare of his servant!" ²⁸Then my tongue shall tell of your righteousness and of your praise all the day long.

How Precious Is Your Steadfast Love

To the choirmaster. Of David, the servant of the LORD.

- 36:1 Transgression speaks to the wicked deep in his heart; [92] there is no fear of God before his eyes.

 ²For he flatters himself in his own eyes
- that his iniquity cannot be found out and hated. ³The words of his mouth are trouble and deceit;
- he has ceased to act wisely and do good.

 He plots trouble while on his bed;
 he sets himself in a way that is not good;
 he does not reject evil.
- ⁵Your steadfast love, O LORD, extends to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.
- ⁶Your righteousness is like the mountains of God; your judgments are like the great deep;

- man and beast you save, O LORD.
- ⁷How precious is your steadfast love, O God!
 The children of mankind take refuge in the shadow of your wings.
- ⁸They feast on the abundance of your house, and you give them drink from the river of your delights.
- ⁹For with you is the fountain of life; in your light do we see light.
- ¹⁰Oh, continue your steadfast love to those who know you,
- and your righteousness to the upright of heart!

 11Let not the foot of arrogance come upon me, nor the hand of the wicked drive me away.
- 12There the evildoers lie fallen; they are thrust down, unable to rise.

He Will Not Forsake His Saints

[93] Of David.

- 37:1 Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers!
 ²For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb.
- ³Trust in the LORD, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness. ^[94] ⁴Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.
- ⁵Commit your way to the LORD; trust in him, and he will act.
 ⁶He will bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday.
- ⁷Be still before the LORD and wait patiently for him; fret not yourself over the one who prospers in his way, over the man who carries out evil devices!

Fret not yourself; it tends only to evil.

For the evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the ⁸Refrain from anger, and forsake wrath!

- ¹⁰In just a little while, the wicked will be no more; though you look carefully at his place, he will not be there.
- ¹¹But the meek shall inherit the land and delight themselves in abundant peace.
- 12The wicked plots against the righteous and gnashes his teeth at him, 13but the Lord laughs at the wicked,
- for he sees that his day is coming.

 14The wicked draw the sword and bend their bows to bring down the poor and needy,
- to slay those whose way is upright;

 15their sword shall enter their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.

- 16Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked.
 17For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.
- 18 The LORD knows the days of the blameless, and their heritage will remain forever;
 19 they are not put to shame in evil times; in the days of famine they have abundance.
- ²⁰But the wicked will perish; the enemies of the LORD are like the glory of the pastures; they vanish—like smoke they vanish away.
- 21The wicked borrows but does not pay back, but the righteous is generous and gives;
 22for those blessed by the LORD [95] shall inherit the land, but those cursed by him shall be cut off.
- ²³The steps of a man are established by the LORD,

²⁴though he fall, he shall not be cast headlong, for the LORD upholds his hand.
²⁵I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken when he delights in his way;

or his children begging for bread.

²⁶He is ever lending generously, and his children become a blessing.
²⁷Turn away from evil and do good;

so shall you dwell forever.

28 For the LORD loves justice;
he will not forsake his saints.

They are preserved forever,
but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.

29The righteous shall inherit the land and dwell upon it forever.

30 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom,

The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, and his tongue speaks justice.
 The law of his God is in his heart;

his steps do not slip.

- ³²The wicked watches for the righteous and seeks to put him to death.
- ³³The LORD will not abandon him to his power or let him be condemned when he is brought to trial.
- 34Wait for the LORD and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land; you will look on when the wicked are cut off.
- 35I have seen a wicked, ruthless man, spreading himself like a green laurel tree. [96] 36But he passed away, [97] and behold, he was no more; though I sought him, he could not be found.
- ³⁷Mark the blameless and behold the upright,
- for there is a future for the man of peace.

 38But transgressors shall be altogether destroyed; the future of the wicked shall be cut off.
- $^{\mathbf{39}}$ The salvation of the righteous is from the LORD;

he is their stronghold in the time of trouble. ⁴⁰The LORD helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them.

because they take refuge in him.

Do Not Forsake Me, O LORD

A Psalm of David, for the memorial offering.

- 38:1 O LORD, rebuke me not in your anger, nor discipline me in your wrath! ²For your arrows have sunk into me,
- ³There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; there is no health in my bones and your hand has come down on me.

- because of my sin. ⁴For my iniquities have gone over my head; like a heavy burden, they are too heavy for me.
- ⁵My wounds stink and fester because of my foolishness, ⁶I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; all the day I go about mourning.
- and there is no soundness in my flesh. ⁸I am feeble and crushed:
- ⁷For my sides are filled with burning,

⁹O Lord, all my longing is before you; my sighing is not hidden from you.

I groan because of the tumult of my heart.

- 10 My heart throbs; my strength fails me, and the light of my eyes—it also has gone from me.
 11 My friends and companions stand aloof from my
- 11My friends and companions stand aloof from my plague, and my nearest kin stand far off.
- 12 Those who seek my life lay their snares; those who seek my hurt speak of ruin and meditate treachery all day long.
- ¹³But I am like a deaf man; I do not hear, like a mute man who does not open his mouth.
- 14 have become like a man who does not hear, and in whose mouth are no rebukes.
- ¹⁵But for you, O LORD, do I wait; it is you, O Lord my God, who will answer.
- ¹⁶For I said, "Only let them not rejoice over me, who boast against me when my foot slips!"

¹⁷For I am ready to fall, and my pain is ever before me.

¹⁸I confess my iniquity:

I am sorry for my sin.

¹⁹But my foes are vigorous, they are mighty, and many are those who hate me wrongfully. ²⁰Those who render me evil for good accuse me because I follow after good.

²¹Do not forsake me, O LORD! O my God, be not far from me!

²²Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation!

What Is the Measure of My Days? To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of

- To the choirmaster: to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.
- 39:1 I said, "I will guard my ways, that I may not sin with my tongue; I will guard my mouth with a muzzle,
- so long as the wicked are in my presence."

 2I was mute and silent:
- I held my peace to no avail,
- and my distress grew worse.

 ³My heart became hot within me.
- As I mused, the fire burned; then I spoke with my tongue:
- ⁴"O LORD, make me know my end and what is the measure of my days:
 - let me know how fleeting I am!

 5Behold, you have made my days a few handbreadths,
 - and my lifetime is as nothing before you. Surely all mankind stands as a mere breath! Selah ⁶Surely a man goes about as a shadow! Surely for nothing [98] they are in turmoil; man heaps up wealth and does not know who will gather!

My hope is in you. ⁸Deliver me from all my transgressions. Do not make me the scorn of the fool!

7"And now, O Lord, for what do I wait?

⁹I am mute: I do not open my mouth. for it is you who have done it. ¹⁰Remove your stroke from me;

I am spent by the hostility of your hand. 11 When you discipline a man with rebukes for sin.

you consume like a moth what is dear to him; surely all mankind is a mere breath! Selah 12"Hear my prayer, O LORD, hold not your peace at my tears! For I am a sojourner with you, a guest, like all my fathers.

and give ear to my cry;

13Look away from me, that I may smile again, before I depart and am no more!"

My Help and My Deliverer

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 40:1 I waited patiently for the LORD;
 he inclined to me and heard my cry.

 2He drew me up from the pit of destruction, out of the miry bog,
 and set my feet upon a rock, making my steps secure.

 3He put a new song in my mouth,
 a song of praise to our God.
 Many will see and fear,
 and put their trust in the LORD.
- ⁴Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, who does not turn to the proud, to those who go astray after a lie!

 ⁵You have multiplied, O LORD my God, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us; none can compare with you!

 I will proclaim and tell of them,

⁶In sacrifice and offering you have not delighted, but you have given me an open ear.^[99] vet they are more than can be told.

- Burnt offering and sin offering you have not required.
- ⁷Then I said, "Behold, I have come; in the scroll of the book it is written of me:
 ⁸I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."
- in the great congregation; behold, I have not restrained my lips, as you know, O LORD.

⁹I have told the glad news of deliverance [100]

- 10 I have not hidden your deliverance within my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your steadfast love and your faithfulness
- from the great congregation.

 11 As for you, O LORD, you will not restrain your steadfast love and your faithfulness will ever preserve me!

12For evils have encompassed me beyond number;
my iniquities have overtaken me.

your mercy from me;

and I cannot see; they are more than the hairs of my head; my heart fails me.

13Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me!
 O LORD, make haste to help me!

 14Let those be put to shame and disappointed altogether who seek to snatch away my life;
 let those be turned back and brought to dishonor

let those be turned back and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt!

15Let those be appalled because of their shame who say to me, "Aha, Aha!"

¹⁶But may all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; may those who love your salvation say continually, "Great is the LORD!" ¹⁷As for me, I am poor and needy, but the Lord takes thought for me. You are my help and my deliverer; do not delay, O my God!

O LORD. Be Gracious to Me

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 41:1 Blessed is the one who considers the poor![101]
- In the day of trouble the LORD delivers him:
- ²the LORD protects him and keeps him alive; he is called blessed in the land:
- you do not give him up to the will of his enemies.
- ³The LORD sustains him on his sickbed;
 - in his illness you restore him to full health. [102]
- ⁴As for me, I said, "O LORD, be gracious to me; heal me. [103] for I have sinned against you!"
- ⁵My enemies say of me in malice,
- "When will he die, and his name perish?" ⁶And when one comes to see me, he utters empty words.
 - while his heart gathers iniquity;
- when he goes out, he tells it abroad.
- ⁷All who hate me whisper together about me;

they imagine the worst for me. [104]

8 They say, "A deadly thing is poured out [105] on him;

he will not rise again from where he lies."

⁹Even my close friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread, has lifted his heel against me.

- ¹⁰But you, O LORD, be gracious to me, and raise me up, that I may repay them!
- 11By this I know that you delight in me: my enemy will not shout in triumph over me.
 12But you have upheld me because of my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.
- ¹³Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! Amen and Amen.

Why Are You Cast Down, O My Soul?

To the choirmaster. A Maskil [106] of the Sons of Korah

- 42:1 As a deer pants for flowing streams, so pants my soul for you. O God.
- ²My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?[107] ³Mv tears have been my food

- day and night, while they say to me all the day long. "Where is your God?"
- ⁴These things I remember, as I pour out my soul:

how I would go with the throng and lead them in procession to the house of God with glad shouts and songs of praise, a multitude keeping festival.

⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation ^[108] ⁶ and my God.

My soul is cast down within me; therefore I remember you from the land of Jordan and of Hermon. from Mount Mizar. ⁷Deep calls to deep at the roar of your waterfalls; all your breakers and your waves have gone over me. ⁸By day the LORD commands his steadfast love, and at night his song is with me. a prayer to the God of my life.

⁹I say to God, my rock: "Why have you forgotten me?

Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?"

¹⁰As with a deadly wound in my bones, my adversaries taunt me, while they say to me all the day long,

"Where is your God?"

¹¹Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me?
Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation and my God.

Send Out Your Light and Your Truth

43:1 Vindicate me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people, from the deceitful and unjust man deliver me!

²For you are the God in whom I take refuge;
why have you rejected me?

Why do I go about mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

3Send out your light and your truth;
let them lead me;
let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling!

⁴Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy, and I will praise you with the lyre, O God, my God.

⁵Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him,

Come to Our Help

To the choirmaster. A Maskil [109] of the Sons of Korah.

- 44:1 O God. we have heard with our ears, our fathers have told us. what deeds you performed in their days, in the days of old: ²vou with your own hand drove out the nations, but them you planted; you afflicted the peoples. but them you set free; ³for not by their own sword did they win the land, nor did their own arm save them. but your right hand and your arm, and the light of your face,
- You are my King, O God;
 ordain salvation for Jacob!
 Through you we push down our foes;

for you delighted in them.

⁶For not in my bow do I trust, nor can my sword save me.

⁷But you have saved us from our foes and have put to shame those who hate us.

through your name we tread down those who rise

⁸In God we have boasted continually, and we will give thanks to your name forever. Selah ⁹But you have rejected us and disgraced us and have not gone out with our armies.

¹⁰You have made us turn back from the foe, and those who hate us have gotten spoil.

11 You have made us like sheep for slaughter and have scattered us among the nations.

12 You have sold your people for a trifle, demanding no high price for them.

13You have made us the taunt of our neighbors, the derision and scorn of those around us.

14You have made us a byword among the nations, a laughingstock [110] among the peoples.

- All day long my disgrace is before me, and shame has covered my face at the sound of the taunter and reviler, at the sight of the enemy and the avenger.
- 17All this has come upon us, though we have not forgotten you, and we have not been false to your covenant.
- 18 Our heart has not turned back,
 nor have our steps departed from your way;
 19 yet you have broken us in the place of jackals
- and covered us with the shadow of death.

 20 If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a foreign god,

- would not God discover this?
 For he knows the secrets of the heart.
 Yet for your sake we are killed all the day long;
- we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.

 23 Awake! Why are you sleeping, O Lord?
 - Rouse yourself! Do not reject us forever!
- ²⁴Why do you hide your face?

Why do you forget our affliction and oppression? ²⁵For our soul is bowed down to the dust;

our belly clings to the ground.

²⁶Rise up; come to our help! Redeem us for the sake of your steadfast love!

Your Throne, O God, Is Forever

To the choirmaster: according to Lilies. A

- Maskil^[111] of the Sons of Korah; a love song.
- 45:1 My heart overflows with a pleasing theme; I address my verses to the king; my tongue is like the pen of a ready scribe.
- ²You are the most handsome of the sons of men; grace is poured upon your lips; therefore God has blessed you forever.
 ³Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one,
- *Gird your sword on your thigh, O mighty one, in your splendor and majesty!
- ⁴In your majesty ride out victoriously for the cause of truth and meekness and righteousness;
 - let your right hand teach you awesome deeds!
- 5Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; the peoples fall under you.

⁶Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.
The scepter of your kingdom is a scepter of uprightness;

God Is Our Fortress

To the choirmaster. Of the Sons of Korah. According to Alamoth. [114] A Song.

- 46:1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present [115] help in trouble. ²Therefore we will not fear though the earth gives way,
- though the mountains be moved into the heart of the sea.
- ³though its waters roar and foam, though the mountains tremble at its swelling. Selah
- ⁴There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God. the holy habitation of the Most High.
- ⁵God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved; God will help her when morning dawns. ⁶The nations rage, the kingdoms totter;
 - he utters his voice, the earth melts.

⁷The LORD of hosts is with us;

the God of Jacob is our fortress. Selah

⁸Come. behold the works of the LORD, how he has brought desolations on the earth. ⁹He makes wars cease to the end of the earth: he breaks the bow and shatters the spear; he burns the chariots with fire. 10"Be still, and know that I am God.

I will be exalted in the earth!" 11The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress. Selah

I will be exalted among the nations,

God Is King over All the Earth

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

- 47:1 Clap your hands, all peoples!
 Shout to God with loud songs of joy!
 ²For the LORD, the Most High, is to be feared, a great king over all the earth.
 ³He subdued peoples under us, and nations under our feet.
 ⁴He chose our heritage for us,
- *He chose our heritage for us, the pride of Jacob whom he loves. Selah
- ⁵God has gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
- ⁶Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
- ⁷For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a psalm! [116]
- ⁸God reigns over the nations;

God sits on his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples gather as the people of the God of Abraham.

For the shields of the earth belong to God; he is highly exalted!

Zion, the City of Our God

A Song. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

- 48:1 Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God!
 His holy mountain, ²beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth,
- Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.
- ³Within her citadels God has made himself known as a fortress.
- ⁴For behold, the kings assembled; they came on together.
- ⁵As soon as they saw it, they were astounded; they were in panic; they took to flight.
- ⁶Trembling took hold of them there, anguish as of a woman in labor.
- ⁷By the east wind you shattered the ships of Tarshish.
- ⁸As we have heard, so have we seen

- in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God, which God will establish forever. Selah
- ⁹We have thought on your steadfast love, O God, in the midst of your temple.
- ¹⁰As your name, O God, so your praise reaches to the ends of the earth. Your right hand is filled with righteousness.
- ¹¹Let Mount Zion be glad!
 Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of your judgments!
- ¹²Walk about Zion, go around her, number her towers,
- 13 consider well her ramparts, go through her citadels.
- that you may tell the next generation ¹⁴that this is God.
- our God forever and ever.
 - He will guide us forever.[117]

Why Should I Fear in Times of Trouble?

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

- 49:1 Hear this, all peoples!
- ²both low and high, rich and poor together!

Give ear, all inhabitants of the world.

- My mouth shall speak wisdom;
 the meditation of my heart shall be understanding.
 Will incline my ear to a proverb;
- I will solve my riddle to the music of the lyre.

 5Why should I fear in times of trouble,
- when the iniquity of those who cheat me surrounds me,

 6those who trust in their wealth
- and boast of the abundance of their riches?

 ⁷Truly no man can ransom another, or give to God the price of his life,
- ⁸for the ransom of their life is costly and never see the pit.

God Himself Is Judge

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 50:1 The Mighty One, God the LORD, speaks and summons the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
 2Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines forth.
- ³Our God comes; he does not keep silence; [120] before him is a devouring fire, around him a mighty tempest.
- ⁴He calls to the heavens above and to the earth, that he may judge his people:
- who made a covenant with me by sacrifice!"

 ⁶The heavens declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge! Selah
- 7"Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, I will testify against you. I am God, your God.

5"Gather to me my faithful ones,

- Not for your sacrifices do I rebuke you; your burnt offerings are continually before me.
 I will not accept a bull from your house or goats from your folds.
- ¹⁰For every beast of the forest is mine, the cattle on a thousand hills.
- 11 know all the birds of the hills, and all that moves in the field is mine.
- 12"If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for the world and its fullness are mine.
- ¹³Do I eat the flesh of bulls
- or drink the blood of goats?

 14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving, [121] and perform your vows to the Most High,
- and perform your vows to the Most High,

 15 and call upon me in the day of trouble;

 I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me."
- 16But to the wicked God says:

 "What right have you to recite my statutes or take my coverant on your line?
- or take my covenant on your lips?

 17For you hate discipline,

- and you cast my words behind you.

 18 If you see a thief, you are pleased with him, and you keep company with adulterers.
- 19"You give your mouth free rein for evil, and your tongue frames deceit.
 20 You sit and speak against your brother;
- you slander your own mother's son.

 21 These things you have done, and I have been silent:
- you thought that I¹²² was one like yourself. But now I rebuke you and lay the charge before you.
- But now I rebuke you and lay the charge before you.
- 22"Mark this, then, you who forget God, lest I tear you apart, and there be none to deliver!
 23The one who offers thanksgiving as his sacrifice glorifies me;
- glorifies me; to one who orders his way rightly I will show the salvation of God!"

Create in Me a Clean Heart, O God

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

51:1 Have mercy on me, [123] O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions.

²Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!

³For I know my transgressions, and my sin is ever before me.

⁴Against you, you only, have I sinned and done what is evil in your sight, so that you may be justified in your words and blameless in your judgment.

⁵Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity, and in sin did my mother conceive me.

⁶Behold, you delight in truth in the inward being,

- and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart.

 7Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
- wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

 8 Let me hear joy and gladness;
- let the bones that you have broken rejoice.

 9Hide your face from my sins.
- and blot out all my iniquities.

 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
- and renew a right spirit within me.

 11 Cast me not away from your presence,
- and take not your Holy Spirit from me.

 12Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and uphold me with a willing spirit.
- 13Then I will teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will return to you.
 14Deliver me from bloodquiltiness. O God.
- 14Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, O God of my salvation, and my tongue will sing aloud of your righteousness.
- ¹⁵O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.

16 For you will not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;

you will not be pleased with a burnt offering.

¹⁷The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

18 Do good to Zion in your good pleasure;
 build up the walls of Jerusalem;
 19 then will you delight in right sacrifices, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings; then bulls will be offered on your altar.

The Steadfast Love of God Endures To the choirmaster. A Maskil [125] of David.

when Doeg, the Edomite, came and told Saul, "David has come to the house of Ahimelech."

52:1 Why do you boast of evil, O mighty man?
The steadfast love of God endures all the day.
²Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, you worker of deceit.
³You love evil more than good, and lying more than speaking what is right. Selah

O deceitful tongue.

5But God will break you down forever;
be will spatch and toar you from your tont:

he will snatch and tear you from your tent; he will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah ⁶The righteous shall see and fear, and shall laugh at him, saying,

7"See the man who would not make God his refuge.

⁴You love all words that devour, but trusted in the abundance of his riches and sought refuge in his own destruction!" [126]

in the house of God.

I trust in the steadfast love of God forever and ever.

⁸But I am like a green olive tree

9I will thank you forever, because you have done it.

I will wait for your name, for it is good, in the presence of the godly.

There Is None Who Does Good

To the choirmaster: according to Mahalath. A Maskil [127] of David.

- 53:1 The fool says in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, doing abominable iniquity; there is none who does good.
- ²God looks down from heaven on the children of man to see if there are any who understand, [128] who seek after God.
- ³They have all fallen away; together they have become corrupt; there is none who does good, not even one.
- ⁴Have those who work evil no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and do not call upon God?

where there is no terror! For God scatters the bones of him who encamps against you; you put them to shame, for God has rejected them.

⁵There they are, in great terror,

⁶Oh. that salvation for Israel would come out of Zion!

When God restores the fortunes of his people. let Jacob rejoice, let Israel be glad.

The Lord Upholds My Life To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments.

A Maskil^[129] of David, when the Ziphites

A Maskil of David, when the Ziphites went and told Saul, "Is not David hiding among us?"

54:1 O God, save me by your name, and vindicate me by your might.
2O God, hear my prayer; give ear to the words of my mouth.

³For strangers^[130] have risen against me; ruthless men seek my life; they do not set God before themselves. Selah

Behold, God is my helper; the Lord is the upholder of my life.
He will return the evil to my enemies; in your faithfulness put an end to them.

⁶With a freewill offering I will sacrifice to you;

I will give thanks to your name, O LORD, for it is good.

For he has delivered me from every trouble, and my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Cast Your Burden on the LORD

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments.

A Maskil^[131] of David.

- 55:1 Give ear to my prayer, O God, and hide not yourself from my plea for mercy!

 ²Attend to me, and answer me;
 I am restless in my complaint and I moan,

 ³because of the noise of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked.

 For they drop trouble upon me, and in anger they bear a grudge against me.
- My heart is in anguish within me;
 the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
 Fear and trembling come upon me,
- and horror overwhelms me.
- ⁶And I say, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly away and be at rest;
 - ⁷yes, I would wander far away; I would lodge in the wilderness; Selah

- 8 I would hurry to find a shelter from the raging wind and tempest."
 9 Destroy, O Lord, divide their tongues;
- for I see violence and strife in the city.

 10 Day and night they go around it on its walls.
- and iniquity and trouble are within it;

 11ruin is in its midst;
 oppression and fraud
 do not depart from its marketplace.
- 12For it is not an enemy who taunts me then I could bear it; it is not an adversary who deals insolently with me then I could hide from him.
- then I could hide from him.

 13But it is you, a man, my equal,
 my companion, my familiar friend.
- 14We used to take sweet counsel together;
- within God's house we walked in the throng.
- 15 Let death steal over them; let them go down to Sheol alive; for evil is in their dwelling place and in their heart.

and the LORD will save me.

from the battle that I wage,

16But I call to God,

17 Evening and morning and at noon
I utter my complaint and moan, and he hears my voice.

18 He redeems my soul in safety for many are arrayed against me.

19 God will give ear and humble them, he who is enthroned from of old, *Selah*because they do not change and do not fear God.

20 My companion [132] stretched out his hand against his friends;

he violated his covenant.

21 His speech was smooth as butter, yet war was in his heart;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.

²²Cast your burden on the LORD,

he will never permit the righteous to be moved.

and he will sustain you;

²³But you, O God, will cast them down into the pit of destruction;

men of blood and treachery shall not live out half their days. But I will trust in you.

In God I Trust

To the choirmaster: according to The Dove on Far-off Terebinths. A Miktam of David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

56:1 Be gracious to me, O God, for man tramples on me; all day long an attacker oppresses me; ²mv enemies trample on me all day long,

for many attack me proudly.

³When I am afraid, I put my trust in you.

⁴In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid.

What can flesh do to me?

⁵All day long they injure my cause; [134] all their thoughts are against me for evil.

⁶They stir up strife, they lurk; they watch my steps,

- ⁷For their crime will they escape? In wrath cast down the peoples, O God!
- ⁸You have kept count of my tossings; [135] put my tears in your bottle.
 Are they not in your book?

 ⁹Then my enemies will turn back
 - in the day when I call.

 This I know. that [136] God is for me.

as they have waited for my life.

- ¹⁰In God, whose word I praise,
- in the LORD, whose word I praise, ¹¹in God I trust; I shall not be afraid.
 - What can man do to me?
- 12 must perform my vows to you, O God;
- I will render thank offerings to you.
- ¹³For you have delivered my soul from death, ves, my feet from falling.
- that I may walk before God in the light of life.

Let Your Glory Be over All the Earth

To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Miktam of David. when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

57:1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me, for in you my soul takes refuge; in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge. till the storms of destruction pass by. ²I crv out to God Most High, to God who fulfills his purpose for me. ³He will send from heaven and save me; he will put to shame him who tramples on me. Selah

God will send out his steadfast love and his faithfulness!

⁴My soul is in the midst of lions; I lie down amid fiery beasts the children of man, whose teeth are spears and arrows.

5Be exalted, O God, above the heavens!

Let your glory be over all the earth!

my soul was bowed down.
They dug a pit in my way,

⁷My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast!

but they have fallen into it themselves. Selah

I will sing and make melody!

8Awake, my glory![138]

Awake. O harp and lyre!

⁶They set a net for my steps:

I will awake the dawn!

9I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples;

I will sing praises to you among the nations.

10 For your steadfast love is great to the heavens, your faithfulness to the clouds.

11 Be exalted, O God, above the heavens! Let your glory be over all the earth!

God Who Judges the Earth

To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Miktam of David.

- 58:1 Do you indeed decree what is right, you gods? [140]

 Do you judge the children of man uprightly?
- ²No, in your hearts you devise wrongs; your hands deal out violence on earth.
- ³The wicked are estranged from the womb; they go astray from birth, speaking lies.
- ⁴They have venom like the venom of a serpent, like the deaf adder that stops its ear,
- 5so that it does not hear the voice of charmers or of the cunning enchanter.
- ⁶O God, break the teeth in their mouths; tear out the fangs of the young lions, O LORD!
 ⁷Let them vanish like water that runs away; when he aims his arrows, let them be blunted.

⁸I et them be like the snail that dissolves into slime, like the stillborn child who never sees the sun. ⁹Sooner than your pots can feel the heat of thorns, whether green or ablaze, may he sweep them awav![141]

vengeance: he will bathe his feet in the blood of the wicked. ¹¹Mankind will say, "Surely there is a reward for the ¹⁰The righteous will rejoice when he sees the riahteous: surely there is a God who judges on earth."

Deliver Me from My Enemies

To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Miktam of David, when Saul sent men to watch his house in order to kill him.

59:1 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God; protect me from those who rise up against me; ²deliver me from those who work evil, and save me from bloodthirsty men.

³For behold, they lie in wait for my life; fierce men stir up strife against me.
For no transgression or sin of mine, O LORD,

⁴for no fault of mine, they run and make ready.
Awake, come to meet me, and see!

⁵You, LORD God of hosts, are God of Israel.
Rouse yourself to punish all the nations; spare none of those who treacherously plot evil.

Selah

howling like dogs and prowling about the city.

7There they are, bellowing with their mouths with swords in their lips for "Who," they think,^[143] "will hear us?"

⁶Each evening they come back,

⁸But vou, O LORD, laugh at them;

you hold all the nations in derision. ⁹O my Strength, I will watch for you, for you, O God, are my fortress.

10 My God in his steadfast love [144] will meet me;
God will let me look in triumph on my enemies.

11Kill them not, lest my people forget;

make them totter^[145] by your power and bring them down, O Lord, our shield!

¹²For the sin of their mouths, the words of their lips, let them be trapped in their pride.
For the cursing and lies that they utter.

For the cursing and lies that they utter,

13consume them in wrath:

consume them till they are no more, that they may know that God rules over Jacob to the ends of the earth. Selah 14Each evening they come back, howling like dogs and prowling about the city.

15 They wander about for food and growl if they do not get their fill.

16But I will sing of your strength;
I will sing aloud of your steadfast love in the morning.
For you have been to me a fortress and a refuge in the day of my distress.

17O my Strength, I will sing praises to you, for you, O God, are my fortress, the God who shows me steadfast love.

He Will Tread Down Our Foes

To the choirmaster: according to Shushan Eduth. A Miktam of David; for instruction; when he strove with Aramnaharaim and with Aram-zobah, and when Joab on his return struck down twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

60:1 O God, you have rejected us, broken our defenses;

you have been angry; oh, restore us.

²You have made the land to quake; you have torn it open;

repair its breaches, for it totters.

³You have made your people see hard things; you have given us wine to drink that made us stagger.

⁴You have set up a banner for those who fear you, that they may flee to it from the bow. [147] Selah

- ⁵That your beloved ones may be delivered, give salvation by your right hand and answer us!
- ⁶God has spoken in his holiness: [148]
 "With exultation I will divide up Shechem and portion out the Vale of Succoth.
- Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine;
 Ephraim is my helmet;
 Judah is my scepter.
 Moab is my washbasin;
 - upon Edom I cast my shoe; over Philistia I shout in triumph." [149]
- ⁹Who will bring me to the fortified city? Who will lead me to Edom?
- 10 Have you not rejected us, O God? You do not go forth, O God, with our armies.
- 11Oh, grant us help against the foe, for vain is the salvation of man!
- 12With God we shall do valiantly;
 it is he who will tread down our foes.

Lead Me to the Rock

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. Of David.

- 61:1 Hear my cry, O God, listen to my prayer; ²from the end of the earth I call to you
- when my heart is faint. Lead me to the rock
- that is higher than I,

 for you have been my refuge,
 a strong tower against the enemy.

your name.

Let me dwell in your tent forever!
 Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings!
 Selah
 For you, O God, have heard my vows;
 you have given me the heritage of those who fear

⁶Prolong the life of the king; may his years endure to all generations! ⁷May he be enthroned forever before God; appoint steadfast love and faithfulness to watch over him!

8So will I ever sing praises to your name, as I perform my vows day after day.

My Soul Waits for God Alone

To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

- 62:1 For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation.

 ²He only is my rock and my salvation,
- my fortress; I shall not be greatly shaken.

 3How long will all of you attack a man to batter him, like a leaning wall, a tottering fence?
- ⁴They only plan to thrust him down from his high position.
 They take pleasure in falsehood.
- They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse. Selah
- ⁵For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him.
 ⁶He only is my rock and my salvation,
 - He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be shaken.

- On God rests my salvation and my glory; my mighty rock, my refuge is God.
- Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your heart before him; God is a refuge for us. Selah
- Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath.
 Put no trust in extortion;
 - set no vain hopes on robbery; if riches increase, set not your heart on them.
- 11 Once God has spoken; twice have I heard this: that power belongs to Go.
- that power belongs to God,

 12 and that to you, O Lord, belongs steadfast love.
- For you will render to a man according to his work.

My Soul Thirsts for You

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

- 63:1 O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you; my soul thirsts for you; my flesh faints for you,
- as in a dry and weary land where there is no water. ²So I have looked upon you in the sanctuary,
- beholding your power and glory.

 Because your steadfast love is better than life,
- my lips will praise you.

 4So I will bless you as long as I live;
 - in your name I will lift up my hands.
- My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food, and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips,
 When I remember you upon my bed,
- and meditate on you in the watches of the night;
- ⁷ for you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I will sing for joy.

⁸Mv soul clings to you; vour right hand upholds me. ⁹But those who seek to destroy my life shall go down into the depths of the earth; 10 they shall be given over to the power of the sword;

they shall be a portion for jackals. ¹¹But the king shall rejoice in God; all who swear by him shall exult, for the mouths of liars will be stopped.

Hide Me from the Wicked

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 64:1 Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint; preserve my life from dread of the enemy.

 Hide me from the secret plots of the wicked, from the throng of evildoers, who whet their tongues like swords, who aim bitter words like arrows, shooting from ambush at the blameless, shooting at him suddenly and without fear.

 They hold fast to their evil purpose; they talk of laying snares secretly, thinking, "Who can see them?"
- ⁶They search out injustice, saying, "We have accomplished a diligent search." For the inward mind and heart of a man are deep!
- they are wounded suddenly.

 8They are brought to ruin, with their own tongues

⁷But God shoots his arrow at them;

all who see them will wag their heads. ⁹Then all mankind fears;

turned against them;

they tell what God has brought about and ponder what he has done.

¹⁰Let the righteous one rejoice in the LORD and take refuge in him!

Let all the upright in heart exult!

O God of Our Salvation

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A Song.

65:1 Praise is due to you, [150] O God, in Zion, and to you shall vows be performed.

²O you who hear prayer, to you shall all flesh come.

When iniquities prevail against me, you atone for our transgressions.
 Blessed is the one you choose and bring near,

to dwell in your courts!
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house,

the holiness of your temple!

⁵By awesome deeds you answer us with righteousness,
O God of our salvation,

the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas;

⁶the one who by his strength established the being girded with might; ⁷who stills the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, the tumult of the peoples. ⁸so that those who dwell at the ends of the earth are in awe at your signs. You make the going out of the morning and the evening to shout for joy. ⁹You visit the earth and water it: [151] vou greatly enrich it: the river of God is full of water: you provide their grain, for so you have prepared it. 10 You water its furrows abundantly, settling its ridges. softening it with showers, mountains.

11You crown the year with your bounty;
your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.

12The pastures of the wilderness overflow,

the hills gird themselves with joy,

13 the meadows clothe themselves with flocks, the valleys deck themselves with grain, they shout and sing together for joy.

How Awesome Are Your Deeds

To the choirmaster. A Song. A Psalm.

- 66:1 Shout for joy to God, all the earth;
 ²sing the glory of his name; give to him glorious praise!
 ³Say to God, "How awesome are your deeds! So great is your power that your enemies come cringing to you.
- and sings praises to you;
 they sing praises to your name." Selah

 5Come and see what God has done:
- he is awesome in his deeds toward the children of man.
- ⁶He turned the sea into dry land; they passed through the river on foot.

⁴All the earth worships you

There did we rejoice in him,

⁷who rules by his might forever, whose eyes keep watch on the nations—
let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah

⁸Bless our God, O peoples; let the sound of his praise be heard. ⁹who has kept our soul among the living and has not let our feet slip. 10 For you, O God, have tested us;

you laid a crushing burden on our backs;

you have tried us as silver is tried. 11 You brought us into the net;

12 vou let men ride over our heads; we went through fire and through water: yet you have brought us out to a place of abundance.

¹³I will come into your house with burnt offerings; I will perform my vows to you, 14that which my lips uttered and my mouth promised when I was in trouble.

¹⁵I will offer to you burnt offerings of fattened animals. with the smoke of the sacrifice of rams: I will make an offering of bulls and goats. Selah

¹⁶Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell what he has done for my soul.

17 I cried to him with my mouth, and high praise was on [152] my tongue. [153]

¹⁸If I had cherished iniquity in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.
¹⁹But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer.

20Blessed be God, because he has not rejected my prayer because he has not rejected my prayer or removed his steadfast love from me!

Make Your Face Shine upon Us

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments. A Psalm. A Song.

- 67:1 May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, Selah ²that your way may be known on earth, your saving power among all nations.

 ³Let the peoples praise you, O God;
- let all the peoples praise you!

 4Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,
- for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. Selah ⁵Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you!
- ⁶The earth has yielded its increase; God, our God, shall bless us.
- ⁷God shall bless us; let all the ends of the earth fear him!

God Shall Scatter His Enemies

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David. A Song.

68:1 God shall arise, his enemies shall be scattered; and those who hate him shall flee before him!

²As smoke is driven away, so you shall drive them away;
as wax melts before fire.

so the wicked shall perish before God!

But the righteous shall be glad;

they shall exult before God; they shall be jubilant with joy!

4Sing to God, sing praises to his name; lift up a song to him who rides through the deserts; his name is the LORD; exult before him!

⁵Father of the fatherless and protector of widows is God in his holy habitation.

⁶God settles the solitary in a home;

he leads out the prisoners to prosperity, but the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

⁷O God, when you went out before your people,

- when you marched through the wilderness, *Selah*8the earth quaked, the heavens poured down rain, before God, the One of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

 9Rain in abundance, O God, you shed abroad;
- in your goodness, O God, you provided for the needy.

 11The Lord gives the word;
 the women who approvince the news are a great

you restored your inheritance as it languished;

10 your flock [154] found a dwelling in it:

- the women who announce the news are a great host:

 12"The kings of the armies—they flee, they flee!"
- The women at home divide the spoil—

 13though you men lie among the sheepfolds—the wings of a dove covered with silver,
- its pinions with shimmering gold.

thousands upon thousands;

let snow fall on Zalmon

16Why do you look with hatred, O many-peaked mountain, at the mount that God desired for his abode, yes, where the LORD will dwell forever?
 17The chariots of God are twice ten thousand, the Lord is among them; Sinai is now in the sanctuary.

18 You ascended on high, leading a host of captives in your train and receiving gifts among men.

leading a host of captives in your train and receiving gifts among men, even among the rebellious, that the LORD God may dwell there.

God is our salvation. Selah

¹⁹Blessed be the Lord,

20 Our God is a God of salvation, and to GOD, the Lord, belong deliverances from death.

21 But God will strike the heads of his enemies, the hairy crown of him who walks in his guilty ways.

25the singers in front, the musicians last, between them virgins playing tambourines:

²⁶"Bless God in the great congregation, the LORD, O you^[157] who are of Israel's fountain!"
 ²⁷There is Benjamin, the least of them, in the lead, the princes of Judah in their throng, the princes of Judah in their throng, the princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.

²⁸Summon your power, O God, [158]

22The Lord said,

the power, O God, by which you have worked for us.

29Because of vour temple at Jerusalem kings shall bear gifts to you. 30 Rebuke the beasts that dwell among the reeds, the herd of bulls with the calves of the peoples.

Trample underfoot those who lust after tribute; scatter the peoples who delight in war. [159]

31 Nobles shall come from Egypt;
Cush shall hasten to stretch out her hands to God.

32O kingdoms of the earth, sing to God; sing praises to the Lord, Selah 33to him who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; behold, he sends out his voice, his mighty voice.
 34Ascribe power to God, whose majesty is over Israel, and whose power is in the skies.

35 Awesome is God from his [160] sanctuary; the God of Israel—he is the one who gives power and strength to his people.

Save Me, O God

To the choirmaster: according to Lilies. Of David.

69:1 Save me, O God!

For the waters have come up to my neck. [161] ²I sink in deep mire.

where there is no foothold;

I have come into deep waters, and the flood sweeps over me.

³I am weary with my crying out; my throat is parched.

My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God.

⁴More in number than the hairs of my head are those who hate me without cause; mighty are those who would destroy me, those who attack me with lies.

What I did not steal must I now restore?

⁵O God, you know my folly;

- the wrongs I have done are not hidden from you.

 ⁶Let not those who hope in you be put to shame
- through me,
 O Lord GOD of hosts;
- let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me,
 - O God of Israel.
- ⁷For it is for your sake that I have borne reproach, that dishonor has covered my face.
- ⁸I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's sons.
- ⁹For zeal for your house has consumed me, and the reproaches of those who reproach you have fallen on me.
- 10When I wept and humbled [162] my soul with fasting, it became my reproach.
- 11When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.
- 12I am the talk of those who sit in the gate, and the drunkards make songs about me.

- ¹³But as for me, my prayer is to you, O LORD. At an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of your steadfast love answer me
- in your saving faithfulness.

 14Deliver me
 from sinking in the mire:
- let me be delivered from my enemies and from the deep waters.

 15
 Let not the flood sweep over me,
- or the deep swallow me up, or the pit close its mouth over me.

 16 Answer me, O LORD, for your steadfast love is
- good; according to your abundant mercy, turn to me.
- according to your abundant mercy, turn to me.

 17Hide not your face from your servant;

 for low in distress; make best to appear me
- for I am in distress; make haste to answer me.
- ¹⁸Draw near to my soul, redeem me; ransom me because of my enemies!
- 19 You know my reproach, and my shame and my dishonor; my foes are all known to you.

I looked for pity, but there was none, and for comforters, but I found none. ²¹They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me sour wine to drink.

²⁰Reproaches have broken my heart,

so that I am in despair.

- 22Let their own table before them become a snare; and when they are at peace, let it become a trap. [163]
- ²³Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see, and make their loins tremble continually.
- 24Pour out your indignation upon them, and let your burning anger overtake them.
- ²⁵May their camp be a desolation;
 let no one dwell in their tents.
 ²⁶For they persecute him whom you have struck
- down, and they recount the pain of those you have wounded.
- ²⁷Add to them punishment upon punishment;

may they have no acquittal from vou. [164] ²⁸Let them be blotted out of the book of the living; let them not be enrolled among the righteous.

²⁹But I am afflicted and in pain; let vour salvation, O God, set me on high! 30 will praise the name of God with a song;

³¹This will please the LORD more than an ox or a bull with horns and hoofs. 32When the humble see it they will be glad;

I will magnify him with thanksgiving.

you who seek God, let your hearts revive. ³³For the LORD hears the needy and does not despise his own people who are prisoners.

³⁴Let heaven and earth praise him,

35 For God will save Zion and build up the cities of Judah.

36the offspring of his servants shall inherit it, the seas and everything that moves in them. and people shall dwell there and possess it;

O LORD, Do Not Delay

To the choirmaster. Of David, for the memorial offering.

- 70:1 Make haste, O God, to deliver me!
 O LORD, make haste to help me!

 Let them be put to shame and confusion who seek my life!

 Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt!
- ³Let them turn back because of their shame who say. "Aha, Aha!"
- May all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you!
 May those who love your salvation say evermore, "God is great!"
 But I am poor and needy; hasten to me, O God!
 You are my help and my deliverer; O LORD, do not delay!

Forsake Me Not When My Strength Is Spent

- 71:1 In you, O LORD, do I take refuge; let me never be put to shame!
- ²In your righteousness deliver me and rescue me; incline your ear to me, and save me!
- ³Be to me a rock of refuge, to which I may continually come; you have given the command to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.
 - ⁴Rescue me, O my God, from the hand of the wicked,
 - from the grasp of the unjust and cruel man.
 - ⁵For you, O Lord, are my hope,
 - my trust, O LORD, from my youth.
- ⁶Upon you I have leaned from before my birth; you are he who took me from my mother's womb. My praise is continually of you.
- my praise to continually or you.
- ⁷I have been as a portent to many,

for there is none to deliver him."

12O God, be not far from me;
O my God, make haste to help me!

but you are my strong refuge.

8My mouth is filled with your praise, and with your glory all the day.

¹¹and say, "God has forsaken him;

pursue and seize him.

⁹Do not cast me off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength is spent.
 ¹⁰For my enemies speak concerning me; those who watch for my life consult together

- ¹³May my accusers be put to shame and consumed; with scorn and disgrace may they be covered who seek my hurt.
- 14But I will hope continually and will praise you yet more and more.
- and will praise you yet more and more.

 15My mouth will tell of your righteous acts,
- of your deeds of salvation all the day, for their number is past my knowledge.
- ¹⁶With the mighty deeds of the Lord GOD I will come; I will remind them of your righteousness, yours alone.

17O God, from my youth you have taught me, and I still proclaim your wondrous deeds.
18So even to old age and gray hairs, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim your might to another generation, your power to all those to come.

reaches the high heavens.
You who have done great things,
O God, who is like you?

You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again;

from the depths of the earth

you will bring me up again.

21 You will increase my greatness and comfort me again.

19 Your righteousness, O God,

²²I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, O my God; I will sing praises to you with the lyre, O Holy One of Israel. ²³My lips will shout for joy.

when I sing praises to you; my soul also, which you have redeemed.

²⁴And my tongue will talk of your righteous help all the day long, for they have been put to shame and disappointed who sought to do me hurt.

Give the King Your Justice

Of Solomon.

- 72:1 Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the royal son!
 May he judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice!
- ³Let the mountains bear prosperity for the people, and the hills, in righteousness!
- ⁴May he defend the cause of the poor of the people, give deliverance to the children of the needy, and crush the oppressor!
- May they fear you 165 while the sun endures, and as long as the moon, throughout all generations!
 May he be like rain that falls on the mown grass,
- ⁷In his days may the righteous flourish, and peace abound, till the moon be no more!
- ⁸May he have dominion from sea to sea, like showers that water the earth!

and from the River[166] to the ends of the earth! ⁹May desert tribes bow down before him, and his enemies lick the dust! ¹⁰May the kings of Tarshish and of the coastlands render him tribute: may the kings of Sheba and Seba bring gifts! ¹¹May all kings fall down before him, all nations serve him! ¹²For he delivers the needy when he calls, the poor and him who has no helper. ¹³He has pity on the weak and the needy, and saves the lives of the needy. ¹⁴From oppression and violence he redeems their life. and precious is their blood in his sight. 15 Long may he live; may gold of Sheba be given to him! May prayer be made for him continually, and blessings invoked for him all the day!

¹⁶May there be abundance of grain in the land; on the tops of the mountains may it wave: may its fruit be like Lebanon: and may people blossom in the cities like the grass of the field! ¹⁷Mav his name endure forever, his fame continue as long as the sun! May people be blessed in him, all nations call him blessed! ¹⁸Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous things. ¹⁹Blessed be his glorious name forever; may the whole earth be filled with his glory! Amen and Amen!

²⁰The prayers of David, the son of Jesse, are ended.

Book Three

God Is My Strength and Portion Forever

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 73:1 Truly God is good to Israel, to those who are pure in heart.
- ²But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled, my steps had nearly slipped.
- ³For I was envious of the arrogant when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
- ⁴For they have no pangs until death; their bodies are fat and sleek.
- ⁵They are not in trouble as others are; they are not stricken like the rest of mankind.
- ⁶Therefore pride is their necklace; violence covers them as a garment.
- Violence covers them as a garment.

 7Their eyes swell out through fatness;
- their hearts overflow with follies.
- ⁸They scoff and speak with malice; loftily they threaten oppression.
- ⁹They set their mouths against the heavens,

10 Therefore his people turn back to them, and find no fault in them. [167]
11 And they say. "How can God know?

and their tongue struts through the earth.

- Is there knowledge in the Most High?"

 12Behold, these are the wicked;
- always at ease, they increase in riches.

 13All in vain have I kept my heart clean
- and washed my hands in innocence.

 14For all the day long I have been stricken and rebuked every morning.

 15If I had said, "I will speak thus,"
- children.

 16But when I thought how to understand this,

I would have betraved the generation of your

- it seemed to me a wearisome task, 17 until I went into the sanctuary of God; then I discerned their end.
- ¹⁸Truly you set them in slippery places; you make them fall to ruin.

- swept away utterly by terrors!

 20 Like a dream when one awakes,
 O Lord, when you rouse yourself, you despise them as phantoms.
- When my soul was embittered, when I was pricked in heart,
 Was brutish and ignorant;
- I was like a beast toward you.

 23 Nevertheless, I am continually with you;

¹⁹How they are destroyed in a moment,

- you hold my right hand.

 You auide me with your counsel,
- and afterward you will receive me to glory.

 25Whom have I in heaven but you?
- And there is nothing on earth that I desire besides you.

 26Mv flesh and mv heart may fail,
- but God is the strength^[168] of my heart and my portion forever.
- ²⁷For behold, those who are far from you shall you put an end to everyone who is unfaithful to you.

28But for me it is good to be near God;
I have made the Lord GOD my refuge.

perish;

I have made the Lord GOD my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

Arise, O God, Defend Your Cause

A Maskil^[169] of Asaph.

74:1 O God, why do you cast us off forever?

Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?

²Remember your congregation, which you have purchased of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your heritage!

Remember Mount Zion, where you have dwelt.

³Direct your steps to the perpetual ruins; the enemy has destroyed everything in the sanctuary!

⁴Your foes have roared in the midst of your meeting place;

they set up their own signs for signs.

⁵They were like those who swing axes in a forest of trees. [170]

⁶And all its carved wood

⁷They set your sanctuary on fire; they profaned the dwelling place of your name, bringing it down to the ground.

they broke down with hatchets and hammers.

- ⁸They said to themselves, "We will utterly subdue them"; they burned all the meeting places of God in the land
- We do not see our signs; there is no longer any prophet, and there is none among us who knows how long.
 10 Low long. O Cod is the fee to coeff?
- How long, O God, is the foe to scoff?
 Is the enemy to revile your name forever?
 Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?
- destroy them!

 12Vot Cod my King is from of old

Take it from the fold of your garment [171] and 12 Yet God my King is from of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

13 You divided the sea by your might; you broke the heads of the sea monsters [172] on the waters.

- 14 You crushed the heads of Leviathan;
 you gave him as food for the creatures of the wilderness.
 15 You split open springs and brooks;
- you dried up ever-flowing streams.

 16 Yours is the day, yours also the night;
 you have established the heavenly lights and the sun.
- 17You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth; you have made summer and winter.
- 18 Remember this, O LORD, how the enemy scoffs, and a foolish people reviles your name.
 19 Do not deliver the soul of your dove to the wild
- beasts;
 do not forget the life of your poor forever.
- ²⁰Have regard for the covenant,
- for the dark places of the land are full of the habitations of violence.
- ²¹Let not the downtrodden turn back in shame; let the poor and needy praise your name.

remember how the foolish scoff at you all the day! ²³Do not forget the clamor of your foes, ²²Arise. O God, defend your cause;

the uproar of those who rise against you, which goes up continually!

God Will Judge with Equity

To the choirmaster: according to Do Not Destroy. A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

- 75:1 We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your name is near. We^[173] recount your wondrous deeds.
- ²"At the set time that I appoint I will judge with equity.
- ³When the earth totters, and all its inhabitants,
- it is I who keep steady its pillars. Selah ⁴I say to the boastful. 'Do not boast.'
- and to the wicked, 'Do not lift up your horn; ⁵do not lift up your horn on high,
- or speak with haughty neck."
- ⁶For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up,
- ⁷but it is God who executes judgment, putting down one and lifting up another.

⁸For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup with foaming wine, well mixed. and he pours out from it. and all the wicked of the earth shall drain it down to the dregs.

⁹But I will declare it forever: I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. ¹⁰All the horns of the wicked I will cut off, but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Who Can Stand Before You?

To the choirmaster: with stringed instruments.

A Psalm of Asaph. A Song.

76:1 In Judah God is known:

²His abode has been established in Salem, his dwelling place in Zion.

³There he broke the flashing arrows,

the shield, the sword, and the weapons of war. Selah

⁴Glorious are you, more majestic than the mountains of prey.

⁵The stouthearted were stripped of their spoil; they sank into sleep; all the men of war were unable to use their hands.

⁶At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, both rider and horse lay stunned.

⁷But you, you are to be feared!

his name is great in Israel.

when once your anger is roused?

8 From the heavens you uttered judgment; the earth feared and was still.

Who can stand before you

⁹when God arose to establish judgment, to save all the humble of the earth. Selah

10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise you; the remnant [174] of wrath you will put on like a belt.

¹¹Make your vows to the LORD your God and perform them;

let all around him bring gifts to him who is to be feared,

12 who cuts off the spirit of princes, who is to be feared by the kings of the earth.

who is to be feared by the kings of the earth.

In the Day of Trouble I Seek the Lord

To the choirmaster: according to Jeduthun. A Psalm of Asaph.

77:1 I cry aloud to God, aloud to God, and he will hear me.
²In the day of my trouble I seek the Lord;
in the night my hand is stretched out without wearying;
my soul refuses to be comforted.

³When I remember God, I moan; when I meditate, my spirit faints. Selah

⁴You hold my eyelids open;
 I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
 ⁵I consider the days of old,
 the years long ago.

⁶I said, [175] "Let me remember my song in the night; let me meditate in my heart."

Then my spirit made a diligent search:

⁷"Will the Lord spurn forever,

Are his promises at an end for all time?

9Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he in anger shut up his compassion?" Selah 10Then I said, "I will appeal to this, to the years of the right hand of the Most High."

and never again be favorable?

8Has his steadfast love forever ceased?

11 will remember the deeds of the LORD;
 yes, I will remember your wonders of old.
 12 will ponder all your work, and meditate on your mighty deeds.

13 Your way, O God, is holy.
What god is great like our God?
14 You are the God who works wonders; you have made known your might among the peoples.

15 You with your arm redeemed your people, the children of Jacob and Joseph. Selah

¹⁶When the waters saw you, O God, when the waters saw you, they were afraid;

¹⁷The clouds poured out water; the skies gave forth thunder:

indeed, the deep trembled.

¹⁸The crash of your thunder was in the whirlwind; vour lightnings lighted up the world: the earth trembled and shook. ¹⁹Your way was through the sea, your path through the great waters; yet your footprints were unseen.[177] ²⁰You led your people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Tell the Coming Generation

A Maskil^[178] of Asaph.

- 78:1 Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth!
 2I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, 3things that we have heard and known, that our fathers have told us.
 4We will not hide them from their children, but tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the LORD, and his might, and the wonders that he has done
- ⁵He established a testimony in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers to teach to their children, ⁶that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and arise and tell them to their children, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments; ⁸and that they should not be like their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose heart was not steadfast,

⁷so that they should set their hope in God

⁹The Ephraimites, armed with the bow, turned back on the day of battle.

whose spirit was not faithful to God.

- ¹⁰They did not keep God's covenant, but refused to walk according to his law.
- 11 They forgot his works and the wonders that he had shown them.
 12 In the sight of their fathers he performed wonders in the least of Town.
- in the land of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.

 13He divided the sea and let them pass through it, and made the waters stand like a heap.
- ¹⁴In the daytime he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a fiery light.
- ¹⁵He split rocks in the wilderness and gave them drink abundantly as from the deep.

- 16He made streams come out of the rock and caused waters to flow down like rivers.
- 17Yet they sinned still more against him,
 rebelling against the Most High in the desert.
 18They tested God in their heart
 - by demanding the food they craved.
- 19 They spoke against God, saying,
 "Can God spread a table in the wilderness?
 20 He struck the rock so that water gushed out
- and streams overflowed.
 Can he also give bread
- or provide meat for his people?"

 21 Therefore, when the LORD heard, he was full of
- wrath;
 a fire was kindled against Jacob;
- his anger rose against Israel,

 22because they did not believe in God
- and did not trust his saving power.

 23 Yet he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of heaven,

- ²⁴and he rained down on them manna to eat and gave them the grain of heaven.
 ²⁵Man ate of the bread of the angels;
- he sent them food in abundance.

 26He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens, and by his power he led out the south wind;
- ²⁷he rained meat on them like dust, winged birds like the sand of the seas;
 ²⁸he let them fall in the midst of their camp, all around their dwellings.
- And they ate and were well filled, for he gave them what they craved.
 But before they had satisfied their craving,
- while the food was still in their mouths, ³¹the anger of God rose against them, and he killed the strongest of them and laid low the young men of Israel.
- 32 In spite of all this, they still sinned;
- despite his wonders, they did not believe. ³³So he made their days vanish like [180] a and their years in terror.

34When he killed them, they sought him; they repented and sought God earnestly.

wilderness

⁴²They did not remember his power [182]

or the day when he redeemed them from the foe. ⁴³when he performed his signs in Egypt and his marvels in the fields of Zoan 44He turned their rivers to blood, so that they could not drink of their streams. 45He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them. and frogs, which destroyed them. ⁴⁶He gave their crops to the destroying locust and the fruit of their labor to the locust. ⁴⁷He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamores with frost. ⁴⁸He gave over their cattle to the hail and their flocks to thunderbolts. ⁴⁹He let loose on them his burning anger, wrath, indignation, and distress, a company of destroying angels. ⁵⁰He made a path for his anger; he did not spare them from death. but gave their lives over to the plague. ⁵¹He struck down every firstborn in Egypt, the firstfruits of their strength in the tents of Ham.

53He led them in safety, so that they were not afraid, but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.

⁵²Then he led out his people like sheep

⁵⁵He drove out nations before them;

- 54And he brought them to his holy land, to the mountain which his right hand had won.
- he apportioned them for a possession and settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
- ⁵⁶Yet they tested and rebelled against the Most High God
- and did not keep his testimonies,

 57but turned away and acted treacherously like their fathers;

 they twisted like a descrift I how
- they twisted like a deceitful bow. ⁵⁸For they provoked him to anger with their high places;
- they moved him to jealousy with their idols. ⁵⁹When God heard, he was full of wrath,
- and he utterly rejected Israel.

 60 He forsook his dwelling at Shiloh,

the tent where he dwelt among mankind, ⁶¹and delivered his power to captivity, his alory to the hand of the foe. 62He gave his people over to the sword and vented his wrath on his heritage. ⁶³Fire devoured their young men, and their young women had no marriage song. 64Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows made no lamentation. ⁶⁵Then the Lord awoke as from sleep, like a strong man shouting because of wine. ⁶⁶And he put his adversaries to rout; he put them to everlasting shame. ⁶⁷He rejected the tent of Joseph; he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim. 68but he chose the tribe of Judah, Mount Zion, which he loves. ⁶⁹He built his sanctuary like the high heavens, like the earth, which he has founded forever.

70He chose David his servant and took him from the sheepfolds;

⁷¹from following the nursing ewes he brought him to shepherd Jacob his people, Israel his inheritance.

⁷²With upright heart he shepherded them and guided them with his skillful hand.

How Long, O LORD?

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 79:1 O God, the nations have come into your inheritance;
- they have defiled your holy temple; they have laid Jerusalem in ruins.
- ²They have given the bodies of your servants to the birds of the heavens for food, the flesh of your faithful to the beasts of the earth.
- ³They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there was no one to bury them.
- 4We have become a taunt to our neighbors, mocked and derided by those around us.
- ⁵How long, O LORD? Will you be angry forever? Will your jealousy burn like fire?
 ⁶Pour out your anger on the nations that do not know you, and on the kingdoms
 - that do not call upon your name!

⁷For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his habitation.

⁸Do not remember against us our former let your compassion come speedily to meet us, for we are brought very low.

Restore Us, O God

To the choirmaster: according to Lilies. A Testimony. Of Asaph, a Psalm.

80:1 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock! You who are enthroned upon the cherubim, shine forth.

²Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might and come to save us!

³Restore us, [184] O God; let your face shine, that we may be saved!

⁶You make us an object of contention for our neighbors,

 4O LORD God of hosts, how long will you be angry with your people's prayers?
 5You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in full measure.

- ⁷Restore us, O God of hosts; let your face shine, that we may be saved!
 ⁸You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.
- ⁹You cleared the ground for it; it took deep root and filled the land.

and our enemies laugh among themselves.

- it took deep root and filled the land.
 10 The mountains were covered with its shade, the mighty cedars with its branches.
- 11 It sent out its branches to the sea and its shoots to the River. [185] 12 Why then have you broken down its walls,
- so that all who pass along the way pluck its fruit?

 13The boar from the forest ravages it, and all that move in the field feed on it.
- 14Turn again, O God of hosts!
 Look down from heaven, and see;
 have regard for this vine, 15the stock that your right hand planted, and for the son whom you made strong for yourself.

may they perish at the rebuke of your face! ¹⁷But let vour hand be on the man of your right hand, the son of man whom you have made strong for

Let your face shine, that we may be saved!

Oh, That My People Would Listen to Me

To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. [186] Of Asaph.

81:1 Sing aloud to God our strength; shout for joy to the God of Jacob!

Raise a song; sound the tambourine, the sweet lyre with the harp.

Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast day.

⁴For it is a statute for Israel, a rule^[187] of the God of Jacob. ⁵He made it a decree in Joseph when he went out over^[188] the land of Egypt. I hear a language I had not known: ⁶"I relieved your^[189] shoulder of the burden:

your hands were freed from the basket.

7 In distress you called, and I delivered you;
I answered you in the secret place of thunder;
I tested you at the waters of Meribah. Selah

- 8Hear, O my people, while I admonish you!
 O Israel, if you would but listen to me!
 9There shall be no strange god among you; you shall not bow down to a foreign god.
 10I am the LORD your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- 11"But my people did not listen to my voice; srael would not submit to me.
- 12So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts, to follow their own counsels.
- 13Oh, that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!
- 14I would soon subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their foes.
 15Those who hate the LORD would cringe toward
- him, and their fate would last forever. ¹⁶But he would feed you^[190] with the finest of the
- wheat, and with honey from the rock I would satisfy you."

Rescue the Weak and Needy

A Psalm of Asaph.

- 82:1 God has taken his place in the divine council; in the midst of the gods he holds judgment:

 2"How long will you judge unjustly
- and show partiality to the wicked? *Selah*³Give justice to the weak and the fatherless;
- Give justice to the weak and the fatherless;
 maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute.
 4Rescue the weak and the needy;
- deliver them from the hand of the wicked."

 5They have neither knowledge nor understanding,
- they walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
- ⁶I said, "You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you; ⁷nevertheless, like men you shall die, and fall like any prince."
- ⁸Arise, O God, judge the earth;

O God, Do Not Keep Silence

A Song. A Psalm of Asaph.

- 83:1 O God, do not keep silence; do not hold your peace or be still, O God! ²For behold, your enemies make an uproar; those who hate you have raised their heads. ³They lay crafty plans against your people; they consult together against your treasured ones. ⁴They say, "Come, let us wipe them out as a nation; let the name of Israel be remembered no more!" ⁵For they conspire with one accord; against you they make a covenant— ⁶the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, Moab and the Hagrites, ⁷Gebal and Ammon and Amalek, Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre; ⁸Asshur also has joined them;
- they are the strong arm of the children of Lot. Selah

- ⁹Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera and Jabin at the river Kishon, ¹⁰who were destroyed at En-dor, who became dung for the ground.
 ¹¹Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb,
- all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna, ¹²who said, "Let us take possession for ourselves of the pastures of God."
- 13O my God, make them like whirling dust, [192] like chaff before the wind.
 14As fire consumes the forest,
 - as the flame sets the mountains ablaze,

 15 cm av you pursue them with your tempest
- 15so may you pursue them with your tempest and terrify them with your hurricane!
- 16Fill their faces with shame, that they may seek your name, O LORD.
 17Let them be put to shame and dismayed forever; let them period in diagraps.
- let them perish in disgrace,

 18 that they may know that you alone,
 whose name is the LORD,

are the Most High over all the earth.

My Soul Longs for the Courts of the LORD

To the choirmaster: according to The Gittith. [193] A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

84:1 How lovely is your dwelling place,
O LORD of hosts!

2My soul longs, yes, faints for the courts of the LORD;
my heart and flesh sing for joy to the living God.

³Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, at your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.

⁴Blessed are those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise! Selah

⁵Blessed are those whose strength is in you,

⁶As they go through the Valley of Baca they make it a place of springs; the early rain also covers it with pools.
 ⁷They go from strength to strength;

in whose heart are the highways to Zion. [194]

⁸O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer; give ear, O God of Jacob! Selah ⁹Behold our shield. O God:

each one appears before God in Zion.

- look on the face of your anointed!

 10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
- than a thousand elsewhere.

 I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God
 than dwell in the tents of wickedness.
- than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

 11For the LORD God is a sun and shield;
 the LORD bestows favor and honor.
- No good thing does he withhold from those who walk uprightly.
- 12O LORD of hosts, blessed is the one who trusts in you!

Revive Us Again

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of the Sons of Korah.

- 85:1 LORD, you were favorable to your land; you restored the fortunes of Jacob.
 2You forgave the iniquity of your people; you covered all their sin. Selah 3You withdrew all your wrath; you turned from your hot anger.
- ⁴Restore us again, O God of our salvation, and put away your indignation toward us!
 ⁵Will you be angry with us forever?
 Will you prolong your anger to all generations?
 ⁶Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?
 ⁷Show us your steadfast love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.
- ⁸Let me hear what God the LORD will speak,

but let them not turn back to folly.

Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints;

Steadfast love and faithfulness meet;
 righteousness and peace kiss each other.
 Faithfulness springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.

12Yes, the LORD will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.
 13Righteousness will go before him and make his footstens a way.

and make his footsteps a way.

Great Is Your Steadfast Love

A Prayer of David.

- 86:1 Incline your ear, O LORD, and answer me, for I am poor and needy.
- ²Preserve my life, for I am godly; save your servant, who trusts in you—you are my God.
- ³Be gracious to me, O Lord, for to you do I cry all the day.
- ⁴Gladden the soul of your servant, for to you, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
- ⁵For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, abounding in steadfast love to all who call upon you.
- ⁶Give ear, O LORD, to my prayer; listen to my plea for grace.
- ⁷In the day of my trouble I call upon you, for you answer me.
- ⁸There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours.

9All the nations you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord, and shall glorify your name.

10For you are great and do wondrous things; you alone are God.

11Teach me your way, O LORD, that I may walk in your truth; unite my heart to fear your name.

and I will glorify your name forever.

13For great is your steadfast love toward me;
you have delivered my soul from the depths of Sheol.

¹²I give thanks to you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart.

14O God, insolent men have risen up against me; a band of ruthless men seeks my life, and they do not set you before them.
15But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

faithfulness.

16 Turn to me and be gracious to me;

and save the son of your maidservant. ¹⁷Show me a sign of your favor, give your strength to your servant, comforted me.

that those who hate me may see and be put to shame because you, LORD, have helped me and

Glorious Things of You Are Spoken

A Psalm of the Sons of Korah. A Song.

- 87:1 On the holy mount stands the city he founded;
 2the LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwelling places of Jacob.
 3Glorious things of you are spaken.
- ³Glorious things of you are spoken, O city of God. Selah
- ⁴Among those who know me I mention Rahab and Babylon;
 - behold, Philistia and Tyre, with Cush [195]—"This one was born there." they say.
- ⁵And of Zion it shall be said, "This one and that one were born in her":
- for the Most High himself will establish her.
- ⁶The LORD records as he registers the peoples, "This one was born there." Selah
- ⁷Singers and dancers alike say, "All my springs are in you."

I Cry Out Day and Night Before You

choirmaster: according to Mahalath Leannoth.

A Maskil [196] of Heman the Ezrahite.

I cry out day and night before you.

Let my prayer come before you;
incline your ear to my cry!

For my soul is full of troubles.

88:1 O LORD, God of my salvation;

- and my life draws near to Sheol.

 4I am counted among those who go down to the pit;
- I am a man who has no strength,

 Slike one set loose among the dead,
- like the slain that lie in the grave, like those whom you remember no more, for they are cut off from your hand. ⁶You have put me in the depths of the pit,
- in the regions dark and deep.

 7Your wrath lies heavy upon me, and you overwhelm me with all your waves. Selah

⁸You have caused my companions to shun me;

you have made me a horror [197] to them. I am shut in so that I cannot escape;

⁹my eye grows dim through sorrow.

Every day I call upon you, O LORD;
I spread out my hands to you.

10 Do you work wonders for the dead?

- Do the departed rise up to praise you? Selah

 11 Is your steadfast love declared in the grave, or your faithfulness in Abaddon?

 12 Are your wonders known in the darkness, or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
- in the morning my prayer comes before you. ¹⁴O LORD, why do you cast my soul away?
- Why do you hide your face from me? ¹⁵Afflicted and close to death from my youth up,
- I suffer your terrors; I am helpless. [198]

 16 Your wrath has swept over me;

13But I, O LORD, cry to you;

your dreadful assaults destroy me. ¹⁷They surround me like a flood all day long;

they close in on me together. ¹⁸You have caused my beloved and my friend to shun me:

my companions have become darkness. [199]

I Will Sing of the Steadfast Love of the LORD

A Maskil^[200] of Ethan the Ezrahite.

89:1 I will sing of the steadfast love of the LORD, forever;

with my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.

²For I said, "Steadfast love will be built up forever; in the heavens you will establish your faithfulness."
 ³You have said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one:

I have sworn to David my servant:

4'I will establish your offspring forever, and build your throne for all generations.'" Selah

⁵Let the heavens praise your wonders, O LORD, your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones!
⁶For who in the skies can be compared to the LORD?

Who among the heavenly beings [201] is like the

LORD,

⁷a God greatly to be feared in the council of the holy ones, and awesome above all who are around him?

⁸O LORD God of hosts,

⁹You rule the raging of the sea; when its waves rise, you still them.
¹⁰You crushed Rahab like a carcass;

who is mighty as you are, O LORD, with your faithfulness all around you?

¹¹The heavens are yours; the earth also is yours; the world and all that is in it, you have founded them.

12 The north and the south, you have created them; Tabor and Hermon joyously praise your name.

you scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

13 You have a mighty arm; strong is your hand, high your right hand.
 14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;
 steadfast love and faithfulness go before you

steadfast love and faithfulness go before you.

15Blessed are the people who know the festal shout,

16who exult in your name all the day and in your righteousness are exalted.
17For you are the glory of their strength;

who walk, O LORD, in the light of your face.

¹⁸For our shield belongs to the LORD, our king to the Holy One of Israel.

by your favor our horn is exalted.

- ¹⁹Of old you spoke in a vision to your godly one, ^[202] and said:
 - "I have granted help to one who is mighty; I have exalted one chosen from the people.
- ²⁰I have found David, my servant;
 - with my holy oil I have anointed him,
- 21 so that my hand shall be established with him; my arm also shall strengthen him.
- ²²The enemy shall not outwit him;
- the wicked shall not humble him.

 23 will crush his foes before him
 - and strike down those who hate him.

 24My faithfulness and my steadfast love
- ²⁴My faithfulness and my steadfast love shall be with him.

and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

25 I will set his hand on the sea and his right hand on the rivers.

²⁶He shall cry to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.'
²⁷And I will make him the firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.
²⁸Mv steadfast love I will keep for him forever, and my covenant will stand firm^[203] for him.

²⁹I will establish his offspring forever and his throne as the days of the heavens.

30 If his children forsake my law and do not walk according to my rules,

31 if they violate my statutes and do not keep my commandments,

32 then I will punish their transgression with the rod and their iniquity with stripes.

and their iniquity with stripes,
 33but I will not remove from him my steadfast love or be false to my faithfulness.
 34I will not violate my covenant or alter the word that went forth from my lips.

or alter the word that went forth from my lips.

35Once for all I have sworn by my holiness;

I will not lie to David. ³⁶His offspring shall endure forever, his throne as long as the sun before me.

³⁷Like the moon it shall be established forever, a faithful witness in the skies." Selah

³⁸But now you have cast off and rejected; you are full of wrath against your anointed. ³⁹You have renounced the covenant with your servant: you have defiled his crown in the dust.

40 You have breached all his walls; you have laid his strongholds in ruins.

41 All who pass by plunder him; he has become the scorn of his neighbors.

42 You have exalted the right hand of his foes; you have made all his enemies rejoice. 43 You have also turned back the edge of his sword, and you have not made him stand in battle.

44 You have made his splendor to cease and cast his throne to the ground. 45 You have cut short the days of his youth;

How long will your wrath burn like fire? ⁴⁷Remember how short my time is!

forever?

mocked.

For what vanity you have created all the children of man!

you have covered him with shame. Selah

46 How long, O LORD? Will you hide yourself

- 48What man can live and never see death?
 Who can deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?
 Selah
- ⁴⁹Lord, where is your steadfast love of old, which by your faithfulness you swore to David?
 ⁵⁰Remember, O Lord, how your servants are
- and how I bear in my heart the insults^[205] of all the many nations, 51 with which your enemies mock, O LORD, with which they mock the footsteps of your

- anointed.

 52Blessed be the LORD forever!

Amen and Amen.

Book Four

From Everlasting to Everlasting

A Prayer of Moses, the man of God.

- 90:1 Lord, you have been our dwelling place in all generations.
- ²Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever you had formed the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.
- ³You return man to dust and say, "Return, O children of man!" [207] ⁴For a thousand years in your sight are but as yesterday when it is past, or as a watch in the night.
- ⁵You sweep them away as with a flood; they are like a dream, like grass that is renewed in the morning:
 ⁶in the morning it flourishes and is renewed;
- ⁷For we are brought to an end by your anger;

in the evening it fades and withers.

- by your wrath we are dismayed.

 8You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.
- ⁹For all our days pass away under your wrath; we bring our years to an end like a sigh.
 ¹⁰The years of our life are seventy,
- or even by reason of strength eighty; yet their span^[208] is but toil and trouble; they are soon gone, and we fly away. ¹¹Who considers the power of your anger,
 - and your wrath according to the fear of you?
- 12So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.
- 13 Return, O LORD! How long? Have pity on your servants!
- 14Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
- ¹⁵Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us,
 - and for as many years as we have seen evil.

16Let your work be shown to your servants, and your glorious power to their children.
17Let the favor [209] of the Lord our God be upon us, and establish the work of our hands upon us; ves. establish the work of our hands!

My Refuge and My Fortress

- 91:1 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty.
 2 I will say^[210] to the LORD, "My refuge and my fortress,
 - my God, in whom I trust."
- ³For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence.
 - ⁴He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness is a shield and buckler.
- ⁵You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day,
- ⁶nor the pestilence that stalks in darkness, nor the destruction that wastes at noonday.
- ⁷A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.
- ⁸You will only look with your eyes

⁹Because you have made the LORD your dwelling place—and see the recompense of the wicked.

- the Most High, who is my refuge^[211]

 10 no evil shall be allowed to befall you, no plague come near your tent.
- ¹¹For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways.
- ¹²On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone.

13 You will tread on the lion and the adder:

- the young lion and the serpent you will trample underfoot.

 14"Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver
- 14"Because he holds fast to me in love, I will deliver him;
 I will protect him, because he knows my name.
- 15When he calls to me, I will answer him;
 I will be with him in trouble:
 - I will rescue him and honor him.
- ¹⁶With long life I will satisfy him

How Great Are Your Works

A Psalm. A Song for the Sabbath.

- 92:1 It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; 2to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night,
- ³to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.
- ⁴For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work;

at the works of your hands I sing for joy.

- ⁵How great are your works, O LORD! Your thoughts are very deep!
- ⁶The stupid man cannot know; the fool cannot understand this:
- ⁷that though the wicked sprout like grass and all evildoers flourish.
- they are doomed to destruction forever;
 - ⁸but you, O LORD, are on high forever.

- ⁹For behold, your enemies, O LORD, for behold, your enemies shall perish; all evildoers shall be scattered.
- 10 But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox;
- you have poured over me^[212] fresh oil.

 11 My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;
- my ears have heard the doom of my evil assailants.
- 12 The righteous flourish like the palm tree and grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
- 13 They are planted in the house of the LORD; they flourish in the courts of our God.
- 14They still bear fruit in old age;
 they are ever full of sap and green, 15to declare that the LORD is upright;
 he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

The LORD Reigns

- 93:1 The LORD reigns; he is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed; he has put on strength as his belt.
- Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved.
- ²Your throne is established from of old; you are from everlasting.
- ³The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their roaring.
- ⁴Mightier than the thunders of many waters, mightier than the waves of the sea, the LORD on high is mighty!
- ⁵Your decrees are very trustworthy; holiness befits your house, O LORD, forevermore.

The LORD Will Not Forsake His People

- 94:1 O LORD, God of vengeance, O God of vengeance, shine forth!
- ²Rise up, O judge of the earth;
- repay to the proud what they deserve!

 3O LORD, how long shall the wicked.
- how long shall the wicked exult?

 ⁴They pour out their arrogant words;
- all the evildoers boast.

 They crush your people, O LORD,
- They crush your people, O LORD, and afflict your heritage.
 They kill the widow and the sojourner,
- and murder the fatherless;

 7 and they say, "The LORD does not see;
- the God of Jacob does not perceive."
- ⁸Understand, O dullest of the people! Fools, when will you be wise?
- ⁹He who planted the ear, does he not hear?
- He who formed the eye, does he not see?

 10 He who disciplines the nations, does he not

He who teaches man knowledge—

11the LORD—knows the thoughts of man, that they are but a breath.[213]

12Blessed is the man whom you discipline, O L rebuke?

12Blessed is the man whom you discipline, O LORD, and whom you teach out of your law, 13to give him rest from days of trouble, until a pit is dug for the wicked.

14 For the LORD will not forsake his people; he will not abandon his heritage;

15 for justice will return to the righteous, and all the upright in heart will follow it.
16 Who rises up for me against the wicked?

Who stands up for me against evildoers?

17 If the LORD had not been my help, my soul would soon have lived in the land of silence.

When I thought, "My foot slips," your steadfast love, O LORD, held me up.

¹⁹When the cares of my heart are many,

Can wicked rulers be allied with you,
 those who frame injustice by statute?
 They band together against the life of the righteous your consolations cheer my soul.

and condemn the innocent to death. [214]
 But the LORD has become my stronghold, and my God the rock of my refuge.

and my God the rock of my refuge.

23He will bring back on them their iniquity and wipe them out for their wickedness;
the LORD our God will wipe them out.

Let Us Sing Songs of Praise

- 95:1 Oh come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
- ²Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!
- ³For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
- ⁴In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.
- ⁵The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land.
- ⁶Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!
- ⁷For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand
- and the sheep of his hand. Today, if you hear his voice,
- ⁸do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah,

⁹when your fathers put me to the test and put me to the proof, though they had seen my as on the day at Massah in the wilderness.

10 For forty years I loathed that generation and said, "They are a people who go astray in their heart, and they have not known my ways."

11 Therefore I swore in my wrath,
"They shall not enter my rest."

Worship in the Splendor of Holiness

- 96:1 Oh sing to the LORD a new song; sing to the LORD, all the earth!
- ²Sing to the LORD, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day.
- ³Declare his glory among the nations, his marvelous works among all the peoples!
- ⁴For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods.
- ⁵For all the gods of the peoples are worthless idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
- ⁶Splendor and majesty are before him; strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- ⁷Ascribe to the LORD, O families of the peoples, ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!
- ⁸Ascribe to the LORD the glory due his name; bring an offering, and come into his courts!
- bring an offering, and come into his courts!

 9Worship the LORD in the splendor of holiness;[215] tremble before him, all the earth!

10 Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns! Yes, the world is established; it shall never be moved; he will judge the peoples with equity."

11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
12 let the field exult, and everything in it!

12 let the field exult, and everything in it!

Then shall all the trees of the forest sing for joy

13 before the LORD, for he comes, for he comes to judge the earth. He will judge the world in righteousness, and the peoples in his faithfulness.

The LORD Reigns

- 97:1 The LORD reigns, let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad!
- ²Clouds and thick darkness are all around him; righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne
- ³Fire goes before him and burns up his adversaries all around.
 ⁴His lightnings light up the world;
- the earth sees and trembles.

 5The mountains melt like way before the LC
- ⁵The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth.
- ⁶The heavens proclaim his righteousness, and all the peoples see his glory.
- ⁷All worshipers of images are put to shame, who make their boast in worthless idols; worship him, all you gods!
- ⁸Zion hears and is glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoice, because of your judgments, O LORD.

9 For you, O LORD, are most high over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.

He preserves the lives of his saints; he delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

11 Light is sown [216] for the righteous, and joy for the upright in heart.

¹²Rejoice in the LORD, O you righteous, and give thanks to his holy name!

¹⁰O vou who love the LORD, hate evil!

Make a Joyful Noise to the LORD

A Psalm.

- 98:1 Oh sing to the LORD a new song, for he has done marvelous things! His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.
- ²The LORD has made known his salvation; he has revealed his righteousness in the sight of the nations.
- ³He has remembered his steadfast love and faithfulness to the house of Israel.
- All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth;
 break forth into joyous song and sing praises!
 Sing praises to the LORD with the lyre,
- with the lyre and the sound of melody!

 6With trumpets and the sound of the horn make a joyful noise before the King, the LORD!

Let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
 the world and those who dwell in it!
 Let the rivers clap their hands:

let the hills sing for joy together 9before the LORD, for he comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

The LORD Our God Is Holy

- 99:1 The LORD reigns; let the peoples tremble! He sits enthroned upon the cherubim; let the earth quake!
- ²The LORD is great in Zion; he is exalted over all the peoples.
- ³Let them praise your great and awesome name! Holy is he!
- ⁴The King in his might loves justice. [217]
 You have established equity;
- you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.
- ⁵Exalt the LORD our God; worship at his footstool! Holy is he!
- ⁶Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel also was among those who called upon his name.
 - They called to the LORD, and he answered them.
- ⁷In the pillar of the cloud he spoke to them;

and the statute that he gave them.

80 LORD our God, you answered them;

you were a forgiving God to them, but an avenger of their wrongdoings. ⁹Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy mountain; for the LORD our God is holy!

they kept his testimonies

His Steadfast Love Endures Forever

A Psalm for giving thanks.

- 100:1 Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth!
 - ²Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing!
- ³Know that the LORD, he is God!

 It is he who made us, and we are his;^[218]
 we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
- ⁴Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name!
- ⁵For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

I Will Walk with Integrity

A Psalm of David.

- 101:1 I will sing of steadfast love and justice; to you, O LORD, I will make music.
- ²I will ponder the way that is blameless.
- Oh when will you come to me? I will walk with integrity of heart
- within my house;
- ³I will not set before my eyes anything that is worthless.
- I hate the work of those who fall away; it shall not cling to me.
- ⁴A perverse heart shall be far from me;
- I will know nothing of evil.
- Whoever slanders his neighbor secretly

 I will destroy.

 Whoever has a haughty look and an arrogant heart

 I will not endure.
- ⁶I will look with favor on the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me; he who walks in the way that is blameless shall minister to me.

shall dwell in my house; no one who utters lies shall continue before my eyes.

⁷No one who practices deceit

⁸Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked in the land, cutting off all the evildoers from the city of the LORD.

Do Not Hide Your Face from Me

A Prayer of one afflicted, when he is faint and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

102:1 Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry come to you! ²Do not hide your face from me in the day of my distress! Incline your ear to me; answer me speedily in the day when I call!

- ³For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like a furnace.
- ⁴My heart is struck down like grass and has withered;
- I forget to eat my bread.
- ⁵Because of my loud groaning my bones cling to my flesh.
- ⁶I am like a desert owl of the wilderness, like an owl^[219] of the waste places:

- I am like a lonely sparrow on the housetop.

 8All the day my enemies taunt me;
 those who deride me use my name for a curse.

 9For Leat ashes like bread
- and mingle tears with my drink,

 10 because of your indignation and anger;

 for you have taken me up and through me down
- for you have taken me up and thrown me down.

 11My days are like an evening shadow;
 I wither away like grass.
- ¹²But you, O LORD, are enthroned forever; you are remembered throughout all generations.
- you are remembered throughout all generation: 13 You will arise and have pity on Zion;
- it is the time to favor her; the appointed time has come.

⁷I lie awake:

- 14 For your servants hold her stones dear and have pity on her dust.
- 15 Nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will fear your glory.
- ¹⁶For the LORD builds up Zion;
 - he appears in his glory;

- ¹⁷he regards the prayer of the destitute and does not despise their prayer.
- ¹⁸Let this be recorded for a generation to come, so that a people yet to be created may praise the LORD:
- LORD:

 19
 that he looked down from his holy height;
 from heaven the LORD looked at the earth,
- ²⁰to hear the groans of the prisoners, to set free those who were doomed to die,
- ²¹that they may declare in Zion the name of the LORD,
- ²²when peoples gather together, and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

and in Jerusalem his praise,

- ²³He has broken my strength in midcourse; he has shortened my days.
- 24"O my God," I say, "take me not away in the midst of my days—you whose years endure throughout all generations!"

²⁵Of old you laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands.
²⁶Thev will perish, but you will remain;

they will all wear out like a garment. You will change them like a robe, and they will pass away, 27 but you are the same, and your years have no end.

28The children of your servants shall dwell secure; their offspring shall be established before you.

Bless the LORD, O My Soul

Of David.

- 103:1 Bless the LORD, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name!
 2Bless the LORD, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, 3who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, 4who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, 5who satisfies you with good
- 5who satisfies you with good so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- ⁶The LORD works righteousness and justice for all who are oppressed.
- ⁷He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel.
- 8The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

nor will he keep his anger forever.

10 He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities.

⁹He will not always chide,

- 11 For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;
 12 as far as the east is from the west,
- so far does he remove our transgressions from us. ¹³As a father shows compassion to his children, so the LORD shows compassion to those who fear
- him.

 14For he knows our frame; [220]
 he remembers that we are dust.
- he flourishes like a flower of the field;

 16 for the wind passes over it, and it is gone, and its place knows it no more.

 17 But the steadfast love of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting on those who fear him, and his righteousness to children's children,

¹⁵As for man, his days are like grass;

and remember to do his commandments.

19 The LORD has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all.

²⁰Bless the LORD, O you his angels, you mighty ones who do his word, obeying the voice of his word!
²¹Bless the LORD, all his hosts,

¹⁸to those who keep his covenant

²¹Bless the LORD, all his hosts, his ministers, who do his will!
 ²²Bless the LORD, all his works, in all places of his dominion. Bless the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD My God, You Are Very Great

104:1 Bless the LORD, O my soul! O LORD my God, you are very great!

You are clothed with splendor and majesty,

²covering yourself with light as with a garment, stretching out the heavens like a tent.
 ³He lays the beams of his chambers on the waters; he makes the clouds his chariot; he rides on the wings of the wind;

⁴he makes his messengers winds, his ministers a flaming fire.

⁵He set the earth on its foundations, so that it should never be moved.

⁶You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
 the waters stood above the mountains.
 ⁷At your rebuke they fled;

at the sound of your thunder they took to flight.

⁸The mountains rose, the valleys sank down to the place that you appointed for them.

⁹You set a boundary that they may not pass,

10 You make springs gush forth in the valleys; they flow between the hills;
 11 they give drink to every beast of the field;

so that they might not again cover the earth.

- the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

 12Beside them the birds of the heavens dwell; they sing among the branches.

 13From vour loftv abode you water the mountains;
- the earth is satisfied with the fruit of your work.

 14You cause the grass to grow for the livestock
- and plants for man to cultivate, that he may bring forth food from the earth ¹⁵and wine to gladden the heart of man, oil to make his face shine
- and bread to strengthen man's heart.
 The trees of the LORD are watered abundantly, the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.
- 17 In them the birds build their nests;
 the stork has her home in the fir trees.
 18 The high mountains are for the wild goats;

- the rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.

 19He made the moon to mark the seasons; [221]
- the sun knows its time for setting.

 20
 You make darkness, and it is night,
- when all the beasts of the forest creep about.

 21The young lions roar for their prey, seeking their food from God.
- 22When the sun rises, they steal away and lie down in their dens.
- ²³Man goes out to his work and to his labor until the evening.
- ²⁴O LORD, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
- ²⁵Here is the sea, great and wide, which teems with creatures innumerable, living things both small and great.
- ²⁶There go the ships, and Leviathan, which you formed to play in it. [222]
- ²⁷These all look to you, to give them their food in due season.

28When you give it to them, they gather it up; when you open your hand, they are filled with good things.

29When you hide your face, they are dismayed; when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.

30When you send forth your Spirit, [223] they are and you renew the face of the ground.

31 May the glory of the LORD endure forever;

created.

may the LORD rejoice in his works, 32 who looks on the earth and it trembles, who touches the mountains and they smoke! ³³I will sing to the LORD as long as I live;

I will sing to the LORD as long as Hive;
I will sing praise to my God while I have being.

May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.
 Let sinners be consumed from the earth, and let the wicked be no more!

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

Tell of All His Wonderful Works

- 105:1 Oh give thanks to the LORD; call upon his name;
- make known his deeds among the peoples!
- ²Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works!
- ³Glory in his holy name;
- let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice! ⁴Seek the LORD and his strength;
- *Seek the LORD and his strength; seek his presence continually!
- ⁵Remember the wondrous works that he has done, his miracles, and the judgments he uttered,
- children of Jacob, his chosen ones!

 7He is the LORD our God;

⁶O offspring of Abraham, his servant,

- his judgments are in all the earth.
- ⁸He remembers his covenant forever, the word that he commanded, for a thousand generations,
- ⁹the covenant that he made with Abraham,

10 which he confirmed to Jacob as a statute, to Israel as an everlasting covenant, 11 saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan as your portion for an inheritance."

his sworn promise to Isaac,

12When they were few in number, of little account, and sojourners in it, 13wandering from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people, 14he allowed no one to oppress them; he rebuked kings on their account, 15saying, "Touch not my anointed ones,

16When he summoned a famine on the land and broke all supply 224 of bread,

17he had sent a man ahead of them,
Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

¹⁸His feet were hurt with fetters; his neck was put in a collar of iron;

do my prophets no harm!"

¹⁹until what he had said came to pass, the ruler of the peoples set him free; ²¹he made him lord of his house the word of the LORD tested him. ²⁰The king sent and released him:

- and ruler of all his possessions,

 22 to bind [225] his princes at his pleasure and to teach his elders wisdom.
- 23 Then Israel came to Egypt;
 Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
 24 And the LOPD made his popula york free
 - And the LORD made his people very fruitful and made them stronger than their foes.
 He turned their hearts to hate his people, to deal craftily with his servants.
 - ²⁶He sent Moses, his servant,
- and Aaron, whom he had chosen.

 27 They performed his signs among them and miracles in the land of Ham.
- ²⁸He sent darkness, and made the land dark; they did not rebel^[226] against his words.
- ²⁹He turned their waters into blood

30 Their land swarmed with frogs, even in the chambers of their kings.

and caused their fish to die

31He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and gnats throughout their country.
 32He gave them hail for rain, and fiery lightning bolts through their land.

33He struck down their vines and fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.

34He spoke, and the locusts came, young locusts without number, 35which devoured all the vegetation in their land and ate up the fruit of their ground.
 36He struck down all the firstborn in their land,

37Then he brought out Israel with silver and gold, and there was none among his tribes who stumbled.

³⁸Egypt was glad when they departed, for dread of them had fallen upon it.

- ³⁹He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light by night.
 ⁴⁰They asked, and he brought quail,
- and gave them bread from heaven in abundance.

 41He opened the rock, and water gushed out; it flowed through the desert like a river.
- ⁴²For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham, his servant.
- ⁴³So he brought his people out with joy, his chosen ones with singing.
- And he gave them the lands of the nations, and they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' toil, 45that they might keep his statutes

45that they might keep his statutes and observe his laws.
Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD!

Give Thanks to the LORD, for He Is Good

106:1 Praise the LORD!

or declare all his praise?

- Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good. for his steadfast love endures forever! ²Who can utter the mighty deeds of the LORD,
- ³Blessed are they who observe justice, who do righteousness at all times!
- ⁴Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people; help me when you save them. [227]
- ⁵that I may look upon the prosperity of your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
- that I may glory with your inheritance. ⁶Both we and our fathers have sinned; we have committed iniquity; we have done
- wickedness.

⁷Our fathers, when they were in Egypt,

did not consider your wondrous works; they did not remember the abundance of your steadfast love, but rebelled by the sea, at the Red Sea. 8Yet he saved them for his name's sake.

⁹He rebuked the Red Sea, and it became dry, and he led them through the deep as through a desert.

and redeemed them from the power of the enemy.

¹⁰So he saved them from the hand of the foe

¹¹And the waters covered their adversaries; that he might make known his mighty power.

12Then they believed his words; they sang his praise.

13But they soon forgot his works;
they did not wait for his counsel.
14But they had a wanton craving in the wilderness, and put God to the test in the desert;
15

15 he gave them what they asked, but sent a wasting disease among them. 17the earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
18Fire also broke out in their company; the flame burned up the wicked.

16When men in the camp were jealous of Moses and Aaron, the holy one of the LORD.

- 19 They made a calf in Horeb and worshiped a metal image.
 20 They exchanged the glory of God
- for the image of an ox that eats grass.

 21 They forgot God, their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt.
- wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 and awesome deeds by the Red Sea.
 Therefore he said he would destroy them—
- had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him, to turn away his wrath from destroying them.
- 24Then they despised the pleasant land, having no faith in his promise.

and did not obey the voice of the LORD.

26Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would make them fall in the wilderness.

²⁵They murmured in their tents,

- ²⁷and would make their offspring fall among the nations, scattering them among the lands.
- Then they yoked themselves to the Baal of Peor, and ate sacrifices offered to the dead;
 they provoked the LORD to anger with their deads
- ²⁹they provoked the LORD to anger with their deeds, and a plague broke out among them.
- ³⁰Then Phinehas stood up and intervened, and the plague was stayed.
- 31 And that was counted to him as righteousness from generation to generation forever.
- 32They angered him at the waters of Meribah, and it went ill with Moses on their account, 33for they made his spirit bitter, [228] and he spoke rashly with his lips.

- 34They did not destroy the peoples,
 as the LORD commanded them, 35but they mixed with the nations and learned to do as they did.
- ³⁶They served their idols, which became a snare to them.
- ³⁷They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons;
- 38they poured out innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters.
- whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, and the land was polluted with blood.

 39Thus they became unclean by their acts, and played the whore in their deeds.

- ⁴⁰Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against
- his people, and he abhorred his heritage;
- ⁴¹he gave them into the hand of the nations, so that those who hated them ruled over them.
- ⁴²Their enemies oppressed them,
- and they were brought into subjection under their

- power.

 Many times he delivered them,
 - but they were rebellious in their purposes and were brought low through their iniquity.
- 44Nevertheless, he looked upon their distress, when he heard their cry.
 45For their sake he remembered his covenant,
- and relented according to the abundance of his steadfast love.
- 46He caused them to be pitied by all those who held them captive.
- ⁴⁷Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the nations, that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praise.
- ⁴⁸Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting!
 And let all the people say, "Amen!"
 Praise the LORD!

Book Five

Let the Redeemed of the LORD Say So

- 107:1 Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!
- ²Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he has redeemed from trouble^[229]
- ³and gathered in from the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
- finding no way to a city to dwell in; 5hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted within them.

⁴Some wandered in desert wastes,

- ⁶Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.
- ⁷He led them by a straight way till they reached a city to dwell in.
- ⁸Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man!
- ⁹For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good things.

- 10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, prisoners in affliction and in irons, 11 for they had rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High.
 12 So he bowed their hearts down with hard labor;
- they fell down, with none to help.

 13Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.
- 14He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and burst their bonds apart.
 15Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love,
- for his wondrous works to the children of man!

 16For he shatters the doors of bronze and cuts in two the bars of iron.
- 17Some were fools through their sinful ways, and because of their iniquities suffered affliction;
 18th and particular of food
- 18 they loathed any kind of food, and they drew near to the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.

and delivered them from their destruction.

21 Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man!

22 And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving.

²⁰He sent out his word and healed them, doing business on the great waters;

- And let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving, and tell of his deeds in songs of joy!
 Some went down to the sea in ships,
- they saw the deeds of the LORD,
 his wondrous works in the deep.
 For he commanded and raised the stormy wind,
- which lifted up the waves of the sea.

 26 They mounted up to heaven; they went down to the - depths;
 their courage melted away in their evil plight; ²⁷they reeled and staggered like drunken men and were at their wits' end. [230]
- and were at their wits' end. [230]
 Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them from their distress.
- ²⁹He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

- 30 Then they were glad that the waters [231] were quiet, and he brought them to their desired haven.
- 31Let them thank the LORD for his steadfast love, for his wondrous works to the children of man!
 32Let them extol him in the congregation of the people.
- and praise him in the assembly of the elders.

 33He turns rivers into a desert,
- springs of water into thirsty ground, ³⁴a fruitful land into a salty waste, because of the evil of its inhabitants.
- 35He turns a desert into pools of water, a parched land into springs of water.
- ³⁶And there he lets the hungry dwell, and they establish a city to live in;
 ³⁷they sow fields and plant vineyards
- and get a fruitful yield.

 38By his blessing they multiply greatly,
- By his blessing they multiply greatly, and he does not let their livestock diminish.

- When they are diminished and brought low through oppression, evil, and sorrow, be pours contempt on princes
- and makes them wander in trackless wastes;

 41 but he raises up the needy out of affliction and makes their families like flocks.

 42 The upright see it and are glad,
- and all wickedness shuts its mouth.
- 43Whoever is wise, let him attend to these things; let them consider the steadfast love of the LORD.

With God We Shall Do Valiantly

A Song. A Psalm of David.

108:1 My heart is steadfast, O God! I will sing and make melody with all mv being![232] ²Awake, O harp and lyre!

I will awake the dawn! ³I will give thanks to you, O LORD, among the peoples: I will sing praises to you among the nations. ⁴For your steadfast love is great above the heavens;

vour faithfulness reaches to the clouds. ⁵Be exalted, O God, above the heavens!

Let your glory be over all the earth! ⁶That your beloved ones may be delivered, give salvation by your right hand and answer me!

"With exultation I will divide up Shechem and portion out the Valley of Succoth.

⁷God has promised in his holiness: [233]

⁸Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine;

Judah my scepter.

9Moab is my washbasin;

upon Edom I cast my shoe:

Ephraim is my helmet.

over Philistia I shout in triumph."

10Who will bring me to the fortified city?

Who will lead me to Edom?

11 Have you not rejected us, O God?

You do not go out, O God, with our armies. ¹²Oh grant us help against the foe, for vain is the salvation of man!

13With God we shall do valiantly;
it is he who will tread down our foes.

Help Me, O LORD My God

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 109:1 Be not silent, O God of my praise!
- ²For wicked and deceitful mouths are opened against me, speaking against me with lying tongues.
- ³They encircle me with words of hate,
- and attack me without cause.

 4In return for my love they accuse me,
- but I give myself to prayer. [234]

 5 So they reward me evil for good,
- and hatred for my love.
- ⁶Appoint a wicked man against him; let an accuser stand at his right hand.
- When he is tried, let him come forth guilty; let his prayer be counted as sin!
- ⁸May his days be few;
- may another take his office!
- ⁹May his children be fatherless

10 May his children wander about and beg, seeking food far from the ruins they inhabit!

¹¹Mav the creditor seize all that he has;

and his wife a widow!

may strangers plunder the fruits of his toil!

12Let there be none to extend kindness to him, nor any to pity his fatherless children!

¹³May his posterity be cut off; may his name be blotted out in the second generation!

14May the iniquity of his fathers be remembered before the LORD, and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out!

¹⁵Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth!

¹⁶For he did not remember to show kindness, but pursued the poor and needy and the brokenhearted, to put them to death.

and the prokennearted, to put them to death.

17He loved to curse; let curses come [235] upon him!

He did not delight in blessing; may it be far [236]

from him!

18 He clothed himself with cursing as his coat; may it soak [237] into his body like water, like oil into his bones!

like a belt that he puts on every day!

20 May this be the reward of my accusers from the LORD.

19 May it be like a garment that he wraps around him, of those who speak evil against my life!

 ²¹But you, O GOD my Lord, deal on my behalf for your name's sake; because your steadfast love is good, deliver me!
 ²²For I am poor and needy, and my heart is stricken within me. ²³I am gone like a shadow at evening;

I am shaken off like a locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting;

my body has become gaunt, with no fat. ²⁵I am an object of scorn to my accusers; when they see me, they wag their heads.

²⁶Help me, O LORD my God! Save me according to your steadfast love!

Let them know that this is your hand;
 you, O LORD, have done it!
 Let them curse, but you will bless!

They arise and are put to shame, but your servant will be glad!

²⁹May my accusers be clothed with dishonor; may they be wrapped in their own shame as in a cloak!

may they be wrapped in their own sname as in a cloak!

30With my mouth I will give great thanks to the

LORD;
I will praise him in the midst of the throng.

31For he stands at the right hand of the needy one,

³¹For he stands at the right hand of the needy one to save him from those who condemn his soul to death.

Sit at My Right Hand

A Psalm of David.

110:1 The LORD says to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool."

²The LORD sends forth from Zion your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of your enemies!
³Your people will offer themselves freely on the day of your power, [238] in holy garments; [239] from the womb of the morning, the dew of your youth will be yours. [240]
⁴The LORD has sworn and will not change his mind,

"You are a priest forever

after the order of Melchizedek."

⁵The Lord is at your right hand; he will shatter kings on the day of his wrath. ⁶He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; he will shatter chiefs^[241] over the wide earth.

7He will drink from the brook by the way; therefore he will lift up his head.

Great Are the LORD's Works

111:1 [242] Praise the LORD!

- I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.
- ²Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them.
- ³Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.
 ⁴He has caused his wondrous works to be - remembered;
 - the LORD is gracious and merciful.
- ⁵He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever.
- ⁶He has shown his people the power of his works, in giving them the inheritance of the nations.
- ⁷The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy;
- 8they are established forever and ever, to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.
- ⁹He sent redemption to his people; he has commanded his covenant forever.

Holy and awesome is his name! 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom;

all those who practice it have a good understanding.

His praise endures forever!

The Righteous Will Never Be Moved

112:1 [243] Praise the LORD!

Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who greatly delights in his commandments!

²His offspring will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.

Wealth and riches are in his house, and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴Light dawns in the darkness for the upright; he is gracious, merciful, and righteous.

⁵It is well with the man who deals generously and lends; who conducts his affairs with justice.

⁶For the righteous will never be moved; he will be remembered forever.

⁷He is not afraid of bad news;

his heart is firm, trusting in the LORD.

8His heart is steady; he will not be afraid, until he looks in triumph on his adversaries.

⁹He has distributed freely; he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever;

his horn is exalted in honor.

10 The wicked man sees it and is angry; he gnashes his teeth and melts away;

the desire of the wicked will perish!

Who Is like the LORD Our God?

- 113:1 Praise the LORD!
- Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD!
- Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore!
 From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the LORD is to be praised!
- ⁴The LORD is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens!
 ⁵Who is like the LORD our God,
- who is seated on high, ⁶who looks far down
- on the heavens and the earth?
- ⁷He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap,
- ⁸to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people.
- ⁹He gives the barren woman a home, making her the joyous mother of children. Praise the LORD!

Tremble at the Presence of the Lord

- 114:1 When Israel went out from Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of strange language,
- ²Judah became his sanctuary, Israel his dominion.
- ³The sea looked and fled; Jordan turned back.
- ⁴The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs.
- ⁵What ails you, O sea, that you flee? O Jordan, that you turn back?
- ⁶O mountains, that you skip like rams? O hills. like lambs?
- ⁷Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob,
 - ⁸who turns the rock into a pool of water, the flint into a spring of water.

To Your Name Give Glory

- 115:1 Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name give glory, for the sake of your steadfast love and your faithfulness!
- Why should the nations say,
 "Where is their God?"
 Our God is in the heavens;
- he does all that he pleases.

 Their idols are silver and gold,
 - the work of human hands.
- ⁵They have mouths, but do not speak; eyes, but do not see.
- ⁶They have ears, but do not hear; noses, but do not smell.
- ⁷They have hands, but do not feel; feet, but do not walk; and they do not make a sound in their throat.
- ⁸Those who make them become like them;

⁹O Israel, [244] trust in the LORD!

He is their help and their shield.

so do all who trust in them

- 10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
 He is their help and their shield.
 11 You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!
 He is their help and their shield.
- 12The LORD has remembered us; he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron;
 13he will bless those who fear the LORD, both the small and the great.
- you and your children!

 15 May you be blessed by the LORD,
 who made heaven and earth!

¹⁴May the LORD give you increase,

- ¹⁶The heavens are the LORD's heavens, but the earth he has given to the children of man.
- but the earth he has given to the children of man. ¹⁷The dead do not praise the LORD, nor do any who go down into silence. ¹⁸But we will bless the LORD

Praise the LORD!

from this time forth and forevermore.

I Love the LORD

- 116:1 Hove the LORD, because he has heard my voice and my pleas for mercy.
- ²Because he inclined his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.
- ³The snares of death encompassed me; the pangs of Sheol laid hold on me; I suffered distress and anguish.
- ⁴Then I called on the name of the LORD: "O LORD, I pray, deliver my soul!"
- ⁵Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; our God is merciful.
- ⁶The LORD preserves the simple; when I was brought low, he saved me.
- ⁷Return, O my soul, to your rest; for the LORD has dealt bountifully with you.
- ⁸For you have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling;

- ⁹I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
- ¹⁰I believed, even when ^[245] I spoke, "I am greatly afflicted";
- ¹¹I said in my alarm, "All mankind are liars."
- 12What shall I render to the LORD for all his benefits to me?
 13I will lift up the cup of salvation
- and call on the name of the LORD, 14 will pay my vows to the LORD
 - in the presence of all his people.
- 15Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.
- ¹⁶O LORD, I am your servant;
 I am your servant, the son of your maidservant.
- You have loosed my bonds.

 17 will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.

¹⁸I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, ¹⁹in the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Praise the LORD!

The LORD's Faithfulness Endures Forever

117:1 Praise the LORD, all nations! Extol him, all peoples!

²For great is his steadfast love toward us, and the faithfulness of the LORD endures forever.

Praise the LORD!

His Steadfast Love Endures Forever

- 118:1 Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!
- ²Let Israel say,
 "His steadfast love endures forever."
- ³Let the house of Aaron say,
- "His steadfast love endures forever."
- ⁴Let those who fear the LORD say,
- "His steadfast love endures forever."
- Out of my distress I called on the LORD; the LORD answered me and set me free.
- ⁶The LORD is on my side; I will not fear.
- What can man do to me?
- ⁷The LORD is on my side as my helper; I shall look in triumph on those who hate me.
- ⁸It is better to take refuge in the LORD than to trust in man.
- ⁹It is better to take refuge in the LORD

¹⁰All nations surrounded me; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!

than to trust in princes.

- 11 They surrounded me, surrounded me on every side; in the name of the LORD Lout them off!
- 12They surrounded me like bees; they went out like a fire among thorns; in the name of the LORD I cut them off!

 13I was pushed hard, [246] so that I was falling, but the LORD helped me.
- 14The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation.
- 15Glad songs of salvation are in the tents of the righteous:
- "The right hand of the LORD does valiantly,

 16 the right hand of the LORD exalts,
 the right hand of the LORD does valiantly!"
- ¹⁷I shall not die, but I shall live, and recount the deeds of the LORD.

- 18 The LORD has disciplined me severely, but he has not given me over to death.
 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness,
- that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD.

 20 This is the gate of the LORD;
- the righteous shall enter through it.

 21 I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation.
- ²²The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. [247] ²³This is the LORD's doing;
- it is marvelous in our eyes.

 24This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.
- ²⁵Save us, we pray, O LORD! O LORD, we pray, give us success!
- ²⁶Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD!

We bless you from the house of the LORD.

and he has made his light to shine upon us. Bind the festal sacrifice with cords, up to the horns of the altar!

²⁷The LORD is God,

²⁸You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God; I will extol you.

²⁹Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good; for his steadfast love endures forever!

Your Word Is a Lamp to My Feet

Aleph

119:1 [248] Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD!

- ²Blessed are those who keep his testimonies, who seek him with their whole heart.
- ³who also do no wrong, but walk in his ways!
- ⁴You have commanded your precepts to be kept diligently.
- Oh that my ways may be steadfast in keeping your statutes!
- ⁶Then I shall not be put to shame, having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.
- ⁷I will praise you with an upright heart, when I learn your righteous rules. [249]
- ⁸I will keep your statutes; do not utterly forsake me!

Beth

- ⁹How can a young man keep his way pure? By guarding it according to your word.
- 10With my whole heart I seek you; let me not wander from your commandments!
- 11 have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.
- ¹²Blessed are you, O LORD; teach me your statutes!
- 13With my lips I declare
 - all the rules [250] of your mouth.
- 14 In the way of your testimonies I delight as much as in all riches.
- 15 will meditate on your precepts and fix my eyes on your ways.
- ¹⁶I will delight in your statutes; I will not forget your word.

¹⁷Deal bountifully with your servant,

that I may live and keep your word.

18 Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law.

19 am a soiourner on the earth;

- hide not your commandments from me! ²⁰My soul is consumed with longing
- for your rules [251] at all times.

 21 You rebuke the insolent, accursed ones, who wander from your commandments.
- 22 Take away from me scorn and contempt, for I have kept your testimonies.
- ²³Even though princes sit plotting against me, your servant will meditate on your statutes.
 ²⁴Your testimonian are my delicate.
- 24Your testimonies are my delight; they are my counselors.

Daleth

25My soul clings to the dust;
 give me life according to your word!
 26When I told of my ways, you answered me;
 teach me your statutes!

- ²⁷Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wondrous works.
 ²⁸My soul melts away for sorrow; strengthen me according to your word!
- ²⁹Put false ways far from me and graciously teach me your law!

³⁰I have chosen the way of faithfulness;

- I set your rules before me.

 31 I cling to your testimonies, O LORD;
 let me not be put to shame!
- ³²I will run in the way of your commandments when you enlarge my heart! [252]

He

³³Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes; and I will keep it to the end. [253] ³⁴Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart.

and observe it with my whole heart.

35Lead me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in it.

³⁶Incline my heart to your testimonies,

- and not to selfish gain!

 37

 Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things; and give me life in your ways.

 38

 Confirm to your servant your promise,
- ³⁹Turn away the reproach that I dread, for your rules are good.
 ⁴⁰Behold, I long for your precepts; in your righteousness give me life!

that you may be feared.

Waw

- ⁴¹Let your steadfast love come to me, O LORD, your salvation according to your promise;
 ⁴²then shall I have an answer for him who taunts me, for I trust in your word.
- ⁴³And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth, for my hope is in your rules.
- ⁴⁴I will keep your law continually, forever and ever,
- 45 and I shall walk in a wide place,

- ⁴⁶I will also speak of your testimonies before kings and shall not be put to shame, ⁴⁷ for I find my delight in your commandments, which Hove.
- ⁴⁸I will lift up my hands toward your commandments, which Hove. and I will meditate on your statutes.

Zavin

49Remember your word to your servant, in which you have made me hope. ⁵⁰This is my comfort in my affliction, for I have sought your precepts.

- that your promise gives me life. ⁵¹The insolent utterly deride me,
- but I do not turn away from your law. ⁵²When I think of your rules from of old, I take comfort. O LORD.
- ⁵³Hot indignation seizes me because of the wicked, who forsake your law.
- 54 Your statutes have been my songs

- in the house of my sojourning.

 55 I remember your name in the night, O LORD, and keep your law.
- 56This blessing has fallen to me, that I have kept your precepts.

Heth

- 57The LORD is my portion;
 I promise to keep your words.
- ⁵⁸I entreat your favor with all my heart; be gracious to me according to your promise.
- ⁵⁹When I think on my ways,
- I turn my feet to your testimonies; 60 hasten and do not delay
- to keep your commandments.

 61 Though the cords of the wicked ensnare me,
- I do not forget your law.

 62At midnight I rise to praise you,
- because of your righteous rules.
- 63 am a companion of all who fear you, of those who keep your precepts.

⁶⁴The earth, O LORD, is full of your steadfast love; teach me your statutes!

Teth

- 65 You have dealt well with your servant, O LORD, according to your word.
- ⁶⁶Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in your commandments.
- ⁶⁷Before I was afflicted I went astray, but now I keep your word.
- 68 You are good and do good; teach me your statutes.
- ⁶⁹The insolent smear me with lies, but with my whole heart I keep your precepts;
- 70 their heart is unfeeling like fat, but I delight in your law.
- but I delight in your law. 71# is good for mo that I w
- 71 It is good for me that I was afflicted, that I might learn your statutes.
- 72The law of your mouth is better to me than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

Yodh

- ⁷³Your hands have made and fashioned me; give me understanding that I may learn your commandments.
- 74Those who fear you shall see me and rejoice, because I have hoped in your word.
- ⁷⁵I know, O LORD, that your rules are righteous, and that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.
- ⁷⁶Let your steadfast love comfort me according to your promise to your servant.
- ⁷⁷Let your mercy come to me, that I may live; for your law is my delight.
- ⁷⁸Let the insolent be put to shame, because they have wronged me with falsehood; as for me, I will meditate on your precepts.
- ⁷⁹Let those who fear you turn to me, that they may know your testimonies.
- ⁸⁰May my heart be blameless in your statutes, that I may not be put to shame!

Kaph

I hope in your word.

82 My eyes long for your promise;
I ask, "When will you comfort me?"

83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke,

81 My soul longs for your salvation;

yet I have not forgotten your statutes.

84How long must your servant endure? [254]

When will you judge those who persecute me?

85 The insolent have dug pitfalls for me;
they do not live according to your law.
86 All your commandments are sure;

they persecute me with falsehood; help me!

87They have almost made an end of me on earth, but I have not forsaken your precepts.

⁸⁸In your steadfast love give me life, that I may keep the testimonies of your mouth.

Lamedh

89 Forever, O LORD, your word is firmly fixed in the heavens.

90 Your faithfulness endures to all generations;

⁹¹By your appointment they stand this day, for all things are your servants.
⁹²If your law had not been my delight, I would have perished in my affliction.
⁹³I will never forget your precepts, for by them you have given me life.
⁹⁴I am yours; save me,

you have established the earth, and it stands fast.

⁹⁵The wicked lie in wait to destroy me, but I consider your testimonies.
⁹⁶I have seen a limit to all perfection,

for I have sought your precepts.

but your commandment is exceedingly broad.

Mem

- 97Oh how I love your law!
 It is my meditation all the day.
 98Your commandment makes me wiser than my enemies, for it is ever with me.
 - 99I have more understanding than all my teachers,

- for your testimonies are my meditation. ¹⁰⁰I understand more than the aged, ^[255] for I keep your precepts.
- 101 hold back my feet from every evil way, in order to keep your word.
 102 do not turn aside from your rules, for you have taught me.
- 103 How sweet are your words to my taste, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
 104 Through your precepts I get understanding;
- therefore I hate every false way.

Nun

- 105 Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.
- 106 have sworn an oath and confirmed it, to keep your righteous rules.
- 107 am severely afflicted;
- give me life, O LORD, according to your word!
- 108 Accept my freewill offerings of praise, O LORD, and teach me your rules.

109 I hold my life in my hand continually, but I do not forget your law.
110 The wicked have laid a snare for me, but I do not stray from your precepts.
111 Your testimonies are my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.
112 I incline my heart to perform your statutes forever, to the end. [256]

Samekh

but I love your law.

114 You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in your word.

113 hate the double-minded,

- 115 Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of my God.
 116 Uphold me according to your promise, that I may
- 116 Uphold me according to your promise, that I may live, and let me not be put to shame in my hope!
 117 Hold me up, that I may be safe and have regard for your statutes continually!

- 118 You spurn all who go astray from your statutes, for their cunning is in vain.
 119 All the wicked of the earth you discard like dross, therefore I love your testimonies.
- 120 My flesh trembles for fear of you, and I am afraid of your judgments.

Ayin

- 121 have done what is just and right; do not leave me to my oppressors.
- 122 Give your servant a pledge of good; let not the insolent oppress me.
- 123My eyes long for your salvation
- and for the fulfillment of your righteous promise.

 124 Deal with your servant according to your
- steadfast love, and teach me your statutes.
- 125 am your servant; give me understanding,
- that I may know your testimonies! 126It is time for the LORD to act,
 - for your law has been broken.

- 127 Therefore I love your commandments above gold, above fine gold.
 128 Therefore I consider all your precepts to be right; I hate every false way.
 - Pe
- therefore my soul keeps them.

 130 The unfolding of your words gives light; it imparts understanding to the simple.

 131 I open my mouth and pant, because I long for your commandments.

 132 Turn to me and be gracious to me, as is your way with those who love your name.

 133 Keep steady my steps according to your 129 Your testimonies are wonderful; and let no iniquity get dominion over me. ¹³⁴Redeem me from man's oppression, promise,

that I may keep your precepts.

135 Make your face shine upon your servant, and teach me your statutes.

136 My eyes shed streams of tears, because people do not keep your law.

Tsadhe

137 Righteous are you, O LORD, and right are your rules.
138 You have appointed your testimonies in righteousness and in all faithfulness

and in all faithfulness. ¹³⁹My zeal consumes me, because my foes forget your words.

140 Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it.

141 am small and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts.

142 Your righteousness is righteous forever, and your law is true.

143 Trouble and anguish have found me out, but your commandments are my delight.

144Your testimonies are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.

Qoph

- 145With my whole heart I cry; answer me, O LORD! I will keep your statutes.
- 146 call to you; save me, that I may observe your testimonies.
- 147 I rise before dawn and cry for help;
 - I hope in your words.
- ¹⁴⁸My eyes are awake before the watches of the night,
 - that I may meditate on your promise.
- 149Hear my voice according to your steadfast love;
- O LORD, according to your justice give me life.
- ¹⁵⁰They draw near who persecute me with evil purpose;
 - they are far from your law.
- ¹⁵¹But you are near, O LORD,
 - and all your commandments are true.
- 152 Long have I known from your testimonies that you have founded them forever.

Resh

153Look on my affliction and deliver me, for I do not forget your law.

154Plead my cause and redeem me;
give me life according to your promise!
155Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek your statutes.

156Great is your mercy, O LORD; give me life according to your rules.
157Many are my persecutors and my adversaries, but I do not swerve from your testimonies.

158 look at the faithless with disgust, because they do not keep your commands.

159 Consider how I love your precepts!

Give me life according to your steadfast love.

¹⁶⁰The sum of your word is truth, and every one of your righteous rules endures forever.

Sin and Shin

161 Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words. 162 I rejoice at your word like one who finds great spoil.
163 I hate and abhor falsehood, but I love your law.
164 Seven times a day I praise you for your righteous rules.
165 Great peace have those who love your law; nothing can make them stumble.
166 I hope for your salvation, O LORD, and I do your commandments.
167 Mv soul keeps vour testimonies;

Taw

169 Let my cry come before you, O LORD; give me understanding according to your word!
170 Let my plea come before you; deliver me according to your word.

¹⁷¹My lips will pour forth praise,

I love them exceedingly.

168 keep your precepts and testimonies, for all my ways are before you. for you teach me your statutes.

172 My tongue will sing of your word, for all your commandments are right.

173Let your hand be ready to help me,

for I have chosen your precepts.

174 I long for your salvation, O LORD, and your law is my delight.

175Let my soul live and praise you, and let your rules help me.

and let your rules help me.

176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek your servant.

for I do not forget your commandments.

Deliver Me, O LORD

A Song of Ascents.

- 120:1 In my distress I called to the LORD, and he answered me.
- ²Deliver me, O LORD, from lying lips, from a deceitful tongue.
- ³What shall be given to you, and what more shall be done to you, you deceitful tongue?
- ⁴A warrior's sharp arrows, with glowing coals of the broom tree!
- ⁵Woe to me, that I sojourn in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
- ⁶Too long have I had my dwelling among those who hate peace.
- ⁷I am for peace, but when I speak, they are for war!

My Help Comes from the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

- 121:1 Hift up my eyes to the hills.
 From where does my help come?
 My help comes from the LORD,
 who made heaven and earth
- ³He will not let your foot be moved; he who keeps you will not slumber.
- ⁴Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
- ⁵The LORD is your keeper; the LORD is your shade on your right hand.
- ⁶The sun shall not strike you by day, nor the moon by night.
- ⁷The LORD will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
- 8The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in

Let Us Go to the House of the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

- 122:1 I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go to the house of the LORD!"
- ²Our feet have been standing within your gates, O Jerusalem!
- within your gates, O Jerusalem!
- ³Jerusalem—built as a city that is bound firmly together,
- 4to which the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD,
- as was decreed for [257] Israel,
- to give thanks to the name of the LORD.

 There thrones for judgment were set,
 the thrones of the house of David.
- ⁶Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!
- "May they be secure who love you!

 Peace be within your walls
- and security within your towers!"

 8 For my brothers and companions' sake

I will say, "Peace be within you!" ⁹For the sake of the house of the LORD our God,

I will seek your good.

Our Eyes Look to the LORD Our God

A Song of Ascents.

123:1 To you I lift up my eyes, O you who are enthroned in the heavens! ²Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maidservant to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till he has mercy upon us. ³Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us. for we have had more than enough of contempt.

⁴Our soul has had more than enough of the scorn of those who are at ease, of the contempt of the proud.

Our Help Is in the Name of the LORD

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

124:1 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side—

let Israel now say—

2if it had not been the LORD who was on our side

when people rose up against us,

3then they would have swallowed us up alive,

when their anger was kindled against us;

4then the flood would have swept us away,
the torrent would have gone over us;

⁵then over us would have gone the raging waters.

⁶Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as prey to their teeth!

7We have escaped like a bird from the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken, and we have escaped!

⁸Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

The LORD Surrounds His People

A Song of Ascents.

125:1 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but abides forever.

²As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people, from this time forth and forevermore.

³For the scepter of wickedness shall not rest on the land allotted to the righteous, lest the righteous stretch out their hands to do wrong.

⁴Do good, O LORD, to those who are good, and to those who are upright in their hearts!

⁵But those who turn aside to their crooked ways the LORD will lead away with evildoers! Peace be upon Israel!

Restore Our Fortunes, O LORD

A Song of Ascents.

126:1 When the LORD restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream.

²Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then they said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."

³The LORD has done great things for us; we are glad.

Restore our fortunes, O LORD, like streams in the Negeb!
 Those who sow in tears shall reap with shouts of joy!
 He who goes out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, bringing his sheaves with him.

Unless the LORD Builds the House

A Song of Ascents. Of Solomon.

127:1 Unless the LORD builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.
Unless the LORD watches over the city, the watchman stays awake in vain.

2It is in vain that you rise up early.

²It is in vain that you rise up early and go late to rest, eating the bread of anxious toil; for he gives to his beloved sleep.

³Behold, children are a heritage from the LORD, the fruit of the womb a reward.

⁴Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children [258] of one's youth.

⁵Blessed is the man who fills his quiver with them! He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate. [259]

Blessed Is Everyone Who Fears the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

- 128:1 Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways!
- ²You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be blessed, and it shall be well with you.
- ³Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house; your children will be like olive shoots around your table.
- ⁴Behold, thus shall the man be blessed who fears the LORD.
- The LORD bless you from Zion!
 May you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life!

 May you see your children's children!

Peace be upon Israel!

They Have Afflicted Me from My Youth

A Song of Ascents.

129:1 "Greatly^[260] have they afflicted me from my youth"—

let Israel now say-

²"Greatly have they afflicted me from my youth, yet they have not prevailed against me.

The plowers plowed upon my back; they made long their furrows."

⁴The LORD is righteous;

he has cut the cords of the wicked.

⁵May all who hate Zion be put to shame and turned backward!

⁶Let them be like the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up,

With which the reaper does not fill his hand nor the binder of sheaves his arms,

⁸nor do those who pass by say,

"The blessing of the LORD be upon you! We bless you in the name of the LORD!"

My Soul Waits for the Lord

A Song of Ascents.

- 130:1 Out of the depths I cry to you, O LORD!
 - ²O Lord, hear my voice!
- Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my pleas for mercy!
- ³If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?
- ⁴But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.
- ⁵I wait for the LORD, my soul waits, and in his word I hope;
- ⁶my soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.
- ⁷O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is steadfast love, and with him is plentiful redemption.

⁸And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

I Have Calmed and Quieted My Soul

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

- 131:1 O LORD, my heart is not lifted up; my eyes are not raised too high;
 I do not occupy myself with things too great and too marvelous for me.
 ²But I have calmed and quieted my soul,
 - But I have calmed and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with its mother; like a weaned child is my soul within me.
- ³O Israel, hope in the LORD from this time forth and forevermore.

The LORD Has Chosen Zion

A Song of Ascents.

- 132:1 Remember, O LORD, in David's favor, all the hardships he endured,
- ²how he swore to the LORD and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob,
- ³"I will not enter my house or get into my bed,
- ⁴I will not give sleep to my eyes or slumber to my eyelids,
- ⁵until I find a place for the LORD, a dwelling place for the Mighty One of Jacob."
- ⁶Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah; we found it in the fields of Jaar.
 ⁷"Let us go to his dwelling place:
- 7"Let us go to his dwelling place; let us worship at his footstool!"
- ⁸Arise, O LORD, and go to your resting place, you and the ark of your might.

- ⁹Let your priests be clothed with righteousness, and let your saints shout for joy.
 ¹⁰For the sake of your servant David, do not turn away the face of your anointed one.
- 11 The LORD swore to David a sure oath from which he will not turn back:
 "One of the sons of your body [261]
- I will set on your throne.

 12 If your sons keep my covenant and my testimonies that I shall teach them, their sons also forever
 - shall sit on your throne."
- he has desired it for his dwelling place: 14"This is my resting place forever;
- here I will dwell, for I have desired it.
- 15 will abundantly bless her provisions; I will satisfy her poor with bread.

¹³For the LORD has chosen Zion:

¹⁶Her priests I will clothe with salvation, and her saints will shout for joy. 17 There I will make a horn to sprout for David;
I have prepared a lamp for my anointed.
18 His enemies I will clothe with shame, but on him his crown will shine."

When Brothers Dwell in Unity

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

133:1 Behold, how good and pleasant it is when brothers dwell in unity! [262]

2It is like the precious oil on the head, running down on the beard, on the beard of Aaron, running down on the collar of his robes!

3It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of Zion!

For there the LORD has commanded the blessing, life forevermore.

Come, Bless the LORD

A Song of Ascents.

134:1 Come, bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of the LORD!

²Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless the LORD!

³May the LORD bless you from Zion, he who made heaven and earth!

Your Name, O LORD, Endures Forever

135:1 Praise the LORD!

- Praise the name of the LORD, give praise, O servants of the LORD,
- ²who stand in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God!
- ³Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; sing to his name, for it is pleasant! [263]
- ⁴For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel as his own possession.
- ⁵For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.
- ⁶Whatever the LORD pleases, he does, in heaven and on earth, in the seas and all deeps.
- ⁷He it is who makes the clouds rise at the end of the earth.
 - who makes lightnings for the rain and brings forth the wind from his storehouses.

- ⁸He it was who struck down the firstborn of Egypt, both of man and of beast;
 ⁹who in your midst, O Egypt, sent signs and wonders against Pharaoh and all his servants:
- 10who struck down many nations and killed mighty kings, 11Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan,
- 12 and gave their land as a heritage, a heritage to his people Israel.
 13 Your name, O LORD, endures forever,

and all the kingdoms of Canaan,

- your renown, [264] O LORD, throughout all ages.

 14For the LORD will vindicate his people and have compassion on his servants.
- 15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands.
- 16 They have mouths, but do not speak; they have eyes, but do not see;

- nor is there any breath in their mouths.

 18Those who make them become like them, so do all who trust in them!
- 19O house of Israel, bless the LORD!O house of Aaron, bless the LORD!

¹⁷thev have ears, but do not hear,

- 20O house of Levi, bless the LORD!
 You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD.
- You who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!

 21Blessed be the LORD from Zion, he who dwells in Jerusalem!

 Praise the LORD!

His Steadfast Love Endures Forever

- 136:1 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.
- ²Give thanks to the God of gods, for his steadfast love endures forever.
- ³Give thanks to the Lord of lords, for his steadfast love endures forever;
- 4to him who alone does great wonders, for his steadfast love endures forever;
- ⁵to him who by understanding made the heavens, for his steadfast love endures forever:

How Shall We Sing the LORD's Song?

there we sat down and wept, when we remembered Zion.

²On the willows [266] there

137:1 By the waters of Babylon,

- we hung up our lyres.

 For there our captors required of us songs,
- and our tormentors, mirth, saying,
 "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

 4How shall we sing the LORD's song
- in a foreign land?

 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill!
- ⁶Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth, if I do not remember you, if I do not set Jerusalem above my highest joy!
- ⁷Remember, O LORD, against the Edomites the day of Jerusalem, down to its foundations!"

8O daughter of Babylon, doomed to be destroyed, blessed shall he be who repays you with what you have done to us!

how they said, "Lay it bare, lay it bare,

with what you have done to us!

9Blessed shall he be who takes your little ones and dashes them against the rock!

Give Thanks to the LORD

Of David.

- 138:1 I give you thanks, O LORD, with my whole heart;
- before the gods I sing your praise;
- ²I bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name for your steadfast love and your faithfulness,
 - for you have exalted above all things your name and your word. [267]
- ³On the day I called, you answered me; my strength of soul you increased. [268]
- ⁴All the kings of the earth shall give you thanks, O LORD,
- for they have heard the words of your mouth,
- ⁵and they shall sing of the ways of the LORD, for great is the glory of the LORD.
- ⁶For though the LORD is high, he regards the lowly, but the haughty he knows from afar.

you preserve my life; you stretch out your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and your right hand delivers me.

⁷Though I walk in the midst of trouble,

⁸The LORD will fulfill his purpose for me; your steadfast love, O LORD, endures forever. Do not forsake the work of your hands.

Search Me, O God, and Know My Heart

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 139:1 O LORD, you have searched me and known me!
- ²You know when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar.
- ³You search out my path and my lying down and are acquainted with all my ways.
- ⁴Even before a word is on my tongue, behold, O LORD, you know it altogether.
- ⁵You hem me in, behind and before,
- and lay your hand upon me.
- ⁶Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high; I cannot attain it.
- ⁷Where shall I go from your Spirit?
 Or where shall I flee from your presence?

 ⁸If I ascend to heaven, you are there!
 If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there!

 ⁹If I take the wings of the morning

- and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

 10 even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me.

 11 ft I sav. "Surely the darkness shall cover me,
- and the light about me be night,"

 12 even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you.
- 13For you formed my inward parts;
 you knitted me together in my mother's womb.
 14I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
- Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well.
- ¹⁵My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret,
- intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

 16Your eyes saw my unformed substance;
 in your book were written, every one of them,
 the days that were formed for me, when as yet there was none of them.

How vast is the sum of them!

18 If I would count them, they are more than the sand.
I awake, and I am still with you.

¹⁷How precious to me are your thoughts, O God!

- Oh that you would slay the wicked, O God!
 O men of blood, depart from me!
 They speak against you with malicious intent; your enemies take your name in vain!
- your enemies take your name in vain!^[270]

 ²¹Do I not hate those who hate you, O LORD?

 And do I not loathe those who rise up against you?

 ²²I hate them with complete hatred;
- 23Search me, O God, and know my heart!

I count them my enemies.

Try me and know my thoughts!^[271]
²⁴And see if there be any grievous way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!^[272]

Deliver Me, O LORD, from Evil Men

To the choirmaster. A Psalm of David.

- 140:1 Deliver me, O LORD, from evil men; preserve me from violent men,
- ²who plan evil things in their heart and stir up wars continually.
- ³They make their tongue sharp as a serpent's, and under their lips is the venom of asps. Selah
- ⁴Guard me, O LORD, from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from violent men,
- who have planned to trip up my feet.

 The arrogant have hidden a trap for me, and with cords they have spread a net;[273]
- and with cords they have spread a net;^[273] beside the way they have set snares for me. *Selah*⁶I say to the LORD. You are my God:
- give ear to the voice of my pleas for mercy, O LORD!

 70 LORD, my Lord, the strength of my salvation.
- ⁷O LORD, my Lord, the strength of my salvation, you have covered my head in the day of battle.

- ⁸Grant not, O LORD, the desires of the wicked; do not further their [274] evil plot, or they will be exalted! Selah
- ⁹As for the head of those who surround me, let the mischief of their lips overwhelm them!
- 10Let burning coals fall upon them!
 Let them be cast into fire, into miry pits, no more to rise!
 11Let not the slanderer be established in the land;
 let evil hunt down the violent man speedily!
- 12| know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the - afflicted,
 and will execute justice for the needy.

 13Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name;
 the upright shall dwell in your presence.

Give Ear to My Voice

A Psalm of David.

- 141:1 O LORD, I call upon you; hasten to me!
 Give ear to my voice when I call to you!
 2Let my prayer be counted as incense before you, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice!
- ³Set a guard, O LORD, over my mouth; keep watch over the door of my lips!
- ⁴Do not let my heart incline to any evil, to busy myself with wicked deeds in company with men who work iniquity, and let me not eat of their delicacies!
- ⁵Let a righteous man strike me—it is a kindness; let him rebuke me—it is oil for my head; let my head not refuse it.
- Yet my prayer is continually against their evil deeds.

 ⁶When their judges are thrown over the cliff.

 [275]
 - then they shall hear my words, for they are

⁷As when one plows and breaks up the earth, so shall our bones be scattered at the mouth of Sheol. [276] pleasant.

⁸But my eyes are toward you, O GOD, my Lord; in you I seek refuge; leave me not defenseless!^[277]

⁹Keep me from the trap that they have laid for me and from the snares of evildoers!
 ¹⁰Let the wicked fall into their own nets, while I pass by safely.

You Are My Refuge

A Maskil^[278] of David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

- 142:1 With my voice I cry out to the LORD; with my voice I plead for mercy to the LORD.
 2 I pour out my complaint before him; I tell my trouble before him.
- When my spirit faints within me, you know my way!
 In the path where I walk they have hidden a trap for me.
- 4Look to the right and see: there is none who takes notice of me; no refuge remains to me; no one cares for my soul.
- ⁵I cry to you, O LORD; I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

⁶Attend to my cry, for I am brought very low! Deliver me from my persecutors. for they are too strong for me!

⁷Bring me out of prison. that I may give thanks to your name!

The righteous will surround me,

for you will deal bountifully with me.

My Soul Thirsts for You

A Psalm of David.

- 143:1 Hear my prayer, O LORD; give ear to my pleas for mercy! In your faithfulness answer me, in your righteousness!
- ²Enter not into judgment with your servant, for no one living is righteous before you.
- ³For the enemy has pursued my soul; he has crushed my life to the ground; he has made me sit in darkness like those long dead.
- Therefore my spirit faints within me; my heart within me is appalled.
- ⁵I remember the days of old; I meditate on all that you have done; I ponder the work of your hands.
- ⁶I stretch out my hands to you; my soul thirsts for you like a parched land. Selah

My spirit fails!
Hide not your face from me,
lest I be like those who go down to the pit.

8I at me hear in the morning of your stead fact love.

⁸Let me hear in the morning of your steadfast love, for in you I trust.

Make me know the way I should go, for to you I lift up my soul.

⁷Answer me quickly, O LORD!

Deliver me from my enemies, O LORD!
 I have fled to you for refuge! [279] Teach me to do your will.

for you are my God! Let your good Spirit lead me on level ground!

¹¹For your name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life! In your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble!

12 And in your steadfast love you will cut off my enemies, and you will destroy all the adversaries of my soul, for I am your servant.

My Rock and My Fortress

Of David.

- 144:1 Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who trains my hands for war, and my fingers for battle;
 2he is my steadfast love and my fortress, my stronghold and my deliverer, my shield and he in whom I take refuge, who subdues peoples [280] under me.
- O LORD, what is man that you regard him, or the son of man that you think of him?
 Man is like a breath; his days are like a passing shadow.
- ⁵Bow your heavens, O LORD, and come down!
 Touch the mountains so that they smoke!

 ⁶Flash forth the lightning and scatter them; send out your arrows and rout them!
 ⁷Stretch out your hand from on high; rescue me and deliver me from the many waters, from the hand of foreigners, ⁸whose mouths speak lies and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

⁹I will sing a new song to you, O God; upon a ten-stringed harp I will play to you, ¹⁰who gives victory to kings, who rescues David his servant from the cruel and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood. 12 May our sons in their youth be like plants full grown, our daughters like corner pillars cut for the structure of a palace;

¹³may our granaries be full. providing all kinds of produce; may our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields:

¹⁴mav our cattle be heavy with young, suffering no mishap or failure in bearing:[281] may there be no cry of distress in our streets! ¹⁵Blessed are the people to whom such blessings fall! Blessed are the people whose God is the LORD!

Great Is the LORD

[282] A Song of Praise. Of David.

- 145:1 I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever.

 ²Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever.
- ³Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.
- ⁴One generation shall commend your works to another,
 - and shall declare your mighty acts.
- ⁵On the glorious splendor of your majesty, and on your wondrous works. I will meditate.
- ⁶They shall speak of the might of your awesome deeds,
 - and I will declare your greatness.
- ⁷They shall pour forth the fame of your abundant goodness
 - and shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

⁸The LORD is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

⁹The LORD is good to all,

and his mercy is over all that he has made.

- ¹⁰All your works shall give thanks to you, O LORD,
- and all your saints shall bless you!

 11 They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom and tell of your power,
- 12to make known to the children of man your [283] mighty deeds,
- and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

 13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.
- [The LORD is faithful in all his words and kind in all his works.] [284]
- 14The LORD upholds all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.
- 15The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season.

you satisfy the desire of every living thing.

17The LORD is righteous in all his ways and kind in all his works

16 You open your hand;

- 18 The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.
 19 He fulfills the desire of those who fear him;
- he also hears their cry and saves them.

 20The LORD preserves all who love him,
- but all the wicked he will destroy.
- ²¹My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD, and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and ever.

Put Not Your Trust in Princes

- 146:1 Praise the LORD! Praise the LORD, O my soul!
- ²I will praise the LORD as long as I live; I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.
- ³Put not your trust in princes,
- in a son of man, in whom there is no salvation.

 When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; on that very day his plans perish.
- ⁵Blessed is he whose help is the God of Jacob, whose hope is in the LORD his God, ⁶who made heaven and earth, the appropriate the state of the s
- the sea, and all that is in them,
 who keeps faith forever;

 7who executes justice for the oppressed, who gives food to the hungry.
- The LORD sets the prisoners free;

 8the LORD opens the eyes of the blind.

The LORD lifts up those who are bowed down;

⁹The LORD watches over the sojourners; he upholds the widow and the fatherless. but the way of the wicked he brings to ruin.

¹⁰The LORD will reign forever, your God, O Zion, to all generations.

the LORD loves the righteous.

Praise the LORD!

He Heals the Brokenhearted

- 147:1 Praise the LORD!
- For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, [285] and a song of praise is fitting.
- ²The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
- he gathers the outcasts of Israel.

 3He heals the brokenhearted
- and binds up their wounds.
- ⁴He determines the number of the stars;
 he gives to all of them their names.
 ⁵Great is our Lord, and abundant in power;
- his understanding is beyond measure. ⁶The LORD lifts up the humble; [286]
- he casts the wicked to the ground.
- ⁷Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; make melody to our God on the lyre!
- ⁸He covers the heavens with clouds; he prepares rain for the earth; he makes grass grow on the hills.
- ⁹He gives to the beasts their food,

- and to the young ravens that cry.

 10 His delight is not in the strength of the horse, nor his pleasure in the legs of a man,

 11 but the LORD takes pleasure in those who fear
- him, in those who hope in his steadfast love.
- ¹²Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem! Praise your God, O Zion!
- 13For he strengthens the bars of your gates; he blesses your children within you.
- 14He makes peace in your borders;
 he fills you with the finest of the wheat.
 15He sends out his command to the earth;
- his word runs swiftly.

 16He gives snow like wool;
- he scatters hoarfrost like ashes.

 17He hurls down his crystals of ice like crumbs;
- 18He sends out his word, and melts them;

who can stand before his cold?

he makes his wind blow and the waters flow. ¹⁹He declares his word to Jacob, his statutes and rules^[287] to Israel.

20 He has not dealt thus with any other nation; they do not know his rules.^[288]

Praise the LORD!

Praise the Name of the LORD

- 148:1 Praise the LORD!
- Praise the LORD from the heavens; praise him in the heights!
- ²Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his hosts!
- ³Praise him, sun and moon, praise him, all you shining stars!
- ⁴Praise him, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens!
- ⁵Let them praise the name of the LORD! For he commanded and they were created.
- ⁶And he established them forever and ever; he gave a decree, and it shall not pass away. [289]
- ⁷Praise the LORD from the earth, you great sea creatures and all deeps, ⁸fire and hail, snow and mist, stormy wind fulfilling his word!

fruit trees and all cedars! 10 Beasts and all livestock, creeping things and flying birds!

⁹Mountains and all hills.

¹¹Kings of the earth and all peoples, princes and all rulers of the earth! 12 Young men and maidens together, old men and children!

¹³Let them praise the name of the LORD, for his name alone is exalted: his majesty is above earth and heaven. ¹⁴He has raised up a horn for his people, praise for all his saints, for the people of Israel who are near to him. Praise the LORD!

Sing to the LORD a New Song

- 149:1 Praise the LORD!
- Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the godly!
- ²Let Israel be glad in his Maker; let the children of Zion rejoice in their King!
- act the children of Zion rejoice in their King!

 3 Let them praise his name with dancing.
- making melody to him with tambourine and lyre! ⁴For the LORD takes pleasure in his people;
- he adorns the humble with salvation. ⁵Let the godly exult in glory;
- let them sing for joy on their beds.
- ⁶Let the high praises of God be in their throats and two-edged swords in their hands,
- and two-edged swords in their hands,

 7to execute vengeance on the nations
- and punishments on the peoples, ⁸to bind their kings with chains
- and their nobles with fetters of iron,

 9to execute on them the judgment written!
 - This is honor for all his godly ones.
- Praise the LORD!

Let Everything Praise the LORD

150:1 Praise the LORD!

Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heavens! [290]

²Praise him for his mighty deeds; praise him according to his excellent greatness!

³Praise him with trumpet sound; praise him with lute and harp!

⁴Praise him with tambourine and dance; praise him with strings and pipe!

⁵Praise him with sounding cymbals;

praise him with loud clashing cymbals!

⁶Let everything that has breath praise the LORD! Praise the LORD!

Praise the LORD!

The Beginning of Knowledge

- 1:1 The proverbs of Solomon, son of David, king of Israel:
- ²To know wisdom and instruction, to understand words of insight, ³to receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness, justice, and equity;
 ⁴to give prudence to the simple, knowledge and discretion to the youth—⁵Let the wise hear and increase in learning, and the one who understands obtain guidance, ⁶to understand a proverb and a saving.
- ⁷The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and instruction.

the words of the wise and their riddles.

The Enticement of Sinners

- ⁸Hear. mv son, your father's instruction, and forsake not your mother's teaching. ⁹ for they are a graceful garland for your head and pendants for your neck. ¹⁰My son, if sinners entice you,
- do not consent. ¹¹If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for
- blood: let us ambush the innocent without reason:
 - ¹²like Sheol let us swallow them alive, and whole, like those who go down to the pit;
 - 13we shall find all precious goods,
 - we shall fill our houses with plunder:
 - 14throw in your lot among us; we will all have one purse"-
 - ¹⁵mv son, do not walk in the way with them; hold back your foot from their paths, ¹⁶for their feet run to evil,
 - and they make haste to shed blood. 17 For in vain is a net spread ¹⁸but these men lie in wait for their own blood; they set an ambush for their own lives. ¹⁹Such are the ways of everyone who is greedy for in the sight of any bird, unjust gain; it takes away the life of its possessors.

The Call of Wisdom

- Wisdom cries aloud in the street, in the markets she raises her voice;
 at the head of the noisy streets she cries out;
- at the entrance of the city gates she speaks: 22"How long, O simple ones, will you love being simple?
- How long will scoffers delight in their scoffing and fools hate knowledge?
- ²³If you turn at my reproof, [1] behold, I will pour out my spirit to you;
- I will make my words known to you.
- ²⁴Because I have called and you refused to listen, have stretched out my hand and no one has heeded,
- ²⁵because you have ignored all my counsel and would have none of my reproof,
- ²⁶I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when terror strikes you,
- ²⁷when terror strikes you like a storm
- and your calamity comes like a whirlwind,

²⁸Then they will call upon me, but I will not answer; they will seek me diligently but will not find me.

when distress and anguish come upon you.

 ²⁹Because they hated knowledge and did not choose the fear of the LORD, ³⁰would have none of my counsel and despised all my reproof,

31 therefore they shall eat the fruit of their way, and have their fill of their own devices.

32 For the simple are killed by their turning away, and the complacency of fools destroys them;

³³but whoever listens to me will dwell secure and will be at ease, without dread of disaster."

The Value of Wisdom

- 2:1 My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you, ²making your ear attentive to wisdom
 - fmaking your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding;
- ³yes, if you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, ⁴if you seek it like silver and search for it as for hidden treasures,

- 5then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God.
 6For the LORD gives wisdom:
- from his mouth come knowledge and understanding;

 he stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
- he is a shield to those who walk in integrity, ⁸guarding the paths of justice
- and watching over the way of his saints.

 Then you will understand righteousness and justice and equity, every good path;
- ¹⁰for wisdom will come into your heart,

- and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul;

 11 discretion will watch over you, understanding will guard you,

 12 delivering you from the way of evil,
 from men of perverted speech,

 13 who forsake the paths of uprightness to walk in the ways of darkness,

 14 who rejoice in doing evil and delight in the perverseness of evil.
- 15men whose paths are crooked, and who are devious in their ways.160
- 16So you will be delivered from the forbidden^[2] woman, from the adulteress^[3] with her smooth words.
- 17who forsakes the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God; 18for her house sinks down to death,
- and her paths to the departed; ^[4]

 19 none who go to her come back, nor do they regain the paths of life.

²⁰So you will walk in the way of the good and keep to the paths of the righteous. ²¹For the upright will inhabit the land, and those with integrity will remain in it, ²²but the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the treacherous will be rooted out of it.

Trust in the LORD with All Your Heart

- 3:1 My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments, 2for length of days and years of life and peace they will add to you.
- ³Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴So you will find favor and good success^[5] in the sight of God and man.
- ⁵Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding.
- ⁶In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths.
- ⁷Be not wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD, and turn away from evil.
- ⁸It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment to your bones.

and with the firstfruits of all your produce: ¹⁰then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine.

⁹Honor the LORD with your wealth

- ¹¹My son, do not despise the LORD's discipline or be weary of his reproof,
- ¹² for the LORD reproves him whom he loves, as a father the son in whom he delights.

Blessed Is the One Who Finds Wisdom

- 13Blessed is the one who finds wisdom, and the one who gets understanding, 14for the gain from her is better than gain from silver and her profit better than gold.
- ¹⁵She is more precious than jewels, and nothing you desire can compare with her.
- 16Long life is in her right hand;
 in her left hand are riches and honor.
 17Her wavs are wavs of pleasantness,
 - and all her paths are peace.
- ¹⁸She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her; those who hold her fast are called blessed.
- ¹⁹The LORD by wisdom founded the earth;
 by understanding he established the heavens; ²⁰by his knowledge the deeps broke open,
 and the clouds drop down the dew.
- ²¹My son, do not lose sight of these keep sound wisdom and discretion, and adornment for your neck.

23Then you will walk on your way securely, and your foot will not stumble.

²²and they will be life for your soul

- 24 If you lie down, you will not be afraid;
 when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
- 25Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the ruin [8] of the wicked, when it comes,
- 26 for the LORD will be your confidence and will keep your foot from being caught.
- ²⁷Do not withhold good from those to whom it is due. [9]
 - when it is in your power to do it.

 28Do not say to your peighbor "Go, and come again
- ²⁸Do not say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, tomorrow I will give it"—when you have it with you.
 ²⁹Do not plan evil against your neighbor,
- who dwells trustingly beside you.

 30Do not contend with a man for no reason,
 - when he has done you no harm
 - when he has done you no harm.
- ³¹Do not envy a man of violence and do not choose any of his ways,

³²for the devious person is an abomination to the LORD, but the upright are in his confidence.

The LORD's curse is on the house of the wicked, but he blesses the dwelling of the righteous.
 Toward the scorners he is scornful.

³⁴Toward the scorners he is scornful, but to the humble he gives favor.^[10] ³⁵The wise will inherit honor, but fools get[11] disgrace.

A Father's Wise Instruction

- 4:1 Hear, O sons, a father's instruction, and be attentive, that you may gain insight, ²for I give you good precepts; do not forsake my teaching.

 ³When I was a son with my father,
- "Let your heart hold fast my words; keep my commandments, and live.

tender, the only one in the sight of my mother,

⁴he taught me and said to me,

- ⁵Get wisdom; get insight; do not forget, and do not turn away from the words of my mouth.
- ⁶Do not forsake her, and she will keep you; love her, and she will guard you.
- ⁷The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight.
 ⁸Prize her highly, and she will exalt you;
- she will honor you if you embrace her.

 ⁹She will place on your head a graceful garland;
- she will bestow on your nead a graceful garland she will bestow on you a beautiful crown."

- Hear, my son, and accept my words, that the years of your life may be many.
 I have taught you the way of wisdom;
 I have led you in the paths of uprightness.
- 12When you walk, your step will not be hampered, and if you run, you will not stumble.
 13Keep hold of instruction; do not let go;
- guard her, for she is your life.

 14Do not enter the path of the wicked, and do not walk in the way of the evil.
- Avoid it; do not go on it;
 turn away from it and pass on.
 For they cannot sleep unless they have done
- wrong;
 they are robbed of sleep unless they have made
- they are robbed of sleep unless they have made someone stumble.

 17 For they eat the bread of wickedness
- and drink the wine of violence.

 18But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn.
 - which shines brighter and brighter until full day.

- 19 The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble.
- My son, be attentive to my words;
 incline your ear to my sayings.
 Let them not escape from your sight;
- keep them within your heart.

 22 For they are life to those who find them, and healing to all their [13] flesh.
- Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life.
 Put away from you crooked speech,
- and put devious talk far from you.

 25Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.
- ²⁶Ponder [14] the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure.
 ²⁷Do not swerve to the right or to the left; turn your foot away from evil.

Warning Against Adultery

- 5:1 My son, be attentive to my wisdom; incline your ear to my understanding,
- ²that you may keep discretion, and your lips may guard knowledge.
- ³For the lips of a forbidden^[15] woman drip honey, and her speech^[16] is smoother than oil, ⁴but in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
- sharp as a two-edged sword. ⁵Her feet go down to death;
- her steps follow the path to [17] Sheol;

 6she does not ponder the path of life;
 her ways wander, and she does not know it.
- ⁷And now, O sons, listen to me,
- and do not depart from the words of my mouth.

 8 Keep your way far from her,
- ⁹lest you give your honor to others and your years to the merciless, and do not go near the door of her house,

¹⁰lest strangers take their fill of your strength,

12and you say, "How I hated discipline, and my heart despised reproof!
13I did not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.
14I am at the brink of utter ruin in the assembled congregation."
15Drink water from your own cistern, flowing water from your own well.

¹⁶Should your springs be scattered abroad, streams of water in the streets?

17 Let them be for yourself alone, and not for strangers with you.

and your labors go to the house of a foreigner.

11 and at the end of your life you groan, when your flesh and body are consumed.

18Let your fountain be blessed, and rejoice in the wife of your youth, 19a lovely deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts fill you at all times with delight; be intoxicated [18] always in her love.

²⁰Why should you be intoxicated, my son, with a forbidden woman and embrace the bosom of an adulteress?^[19] ²¹For a man's ways are before the eyes of the LORD, and he ponders^[20] all his paths.

22The iniquities of the wicked ensnare him, and he is held fast in the cords of his sin.

²³He dies for lack of discipline, and because of his great folly he is led astray.

Practical Warnings

- 6:1 My son, if you have put up security for your neighbor, have given your pledge for a stranger.
- ²if you are snared in the words of your mouth, caught in the words of your mouth,
- ³then do this, my son, and save yourself, for you have come into the hand of your neighbor: go, hasten,^[21] and plead urgently with your neighbor.
- ⁴Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber;
- ⁵save yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter. [22]
 - like a bird from the hand of the fowler.
- ⁶Go to the ant, O sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise.
- ⁷Without having any chief, officer, or ruler,
- ⁸she prepares her bread in summer

⁹How long will you lie there, O sluggard? When will you arise from your sleep? 10A little sleep, a little slumber, and gathers her food in harvest.

- a little folding of the hands to rest. ¹¹and poverty will come upon you like a robber, and want like an armed man.
- ¹²A worthless person, a wicked man, goes about with crooked speech, ¹³winks with his eyes, signals [23] with his feet. points with his finger,
- ¹⁴with perverted heart devises evil, continually sowing discord;
- ¹⁵therefore calamity will come upon him suddenly; in a moment he will be broken beyond healing.
- 16 There are six things that the LORD hates, seven that are an abomination to him:
- ¹⁷haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood.
- ¹⁸a heart that devises wicked plans,

feet that make haste to run to evil,

19a false witness who breathes out lies,
and one who sows discord among brothers.

Warnings Against Adultery

- My son, keep your father's commandment, and forsake not your mother's teaching.
 Bind them on your heart always;
- tie them around your neck.

 22When you walk, they 24 will lead you:

bread.[27]

- when you lie down, they will watch over you; and when you awake, they will talk with you.

 23For the commandment is a lamp and the teaching
- a light, and the reproofs of discipline are the way of life, ²⁴to preserve you from the evil woman, ^[25]
- from the smooth tongue of the adulteress. [26]

 25Do not desire her beauty in your heart,
- ²⁹Do not desire her beauty in your heart, and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes; ²⁶for the price of a prostitute is only a loaf of
- but a married woman^[28] hunts down a precious life.
- ²⁷Can a man carry fire next to his chest and his clothes not be burned?

- ²⁸Or can one walk on hot coals and his feet not be scorched? ²⁹So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife; none who touches her will go unpunished.
- ³⁰People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry,
- ³¹but if he is caught, he will pay sevenfold; he will give all the goods of his house. ³²He who commits adultery lacks sense;
- he who does it destroys himself. ³³He will get wounds and dishonor,
 - and his disgrace will not be wiped away.
- ³⁴For jealousy makes a man furious,
- and he will not spare when he takes revenge. ³⁵He will accept no compensation;
- he will refuse though you multiply gifts.

Warning Against the Adulteress

- 7:1 My son, keep my words and treasure up my commandments with you;
- ²keep my commandments and live; keep my teaching as the apple of your eye;
- ³bind them on your fingers; write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴Say to wisdom, "You are my sister," and call insight your intimate friend,
- ⁵to keep you from the forbidden^[29] woman, from the adulteress^[30] with her smooth words.
- ⁶For at the window of my house
 I have looked out through my lattice,
- ⁷and I have seen among the simple, I have perceived among the youths,
- a young man lacking sense,
- ⁸passing along the street near her corner, taking the road to her house
- ⁹in the twilight, in the evening,
 - at the time of night and darkness.

And behold, the woman meets him, dressed as a prostitute, wily of heart.
She is loud and wayward;

her feet do not stay at home; 12 now in the street, now in the market, and at every corner she lies in wait.

13She seizes him and kisses him, and with bold face she says to him,

14"I had to offer sacrifices, and today I have paid my vows;

15so now I have come out to meet you, to seek you eagerly, and I have found you. ¹⁶I have spread my couch with coverings, colored linens from Egyptian linen;

17I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18Come, let us take our fill of love till morning; let us delight ourselves with love.

¹⁹For my husband is not at home; he has gone on a long journey;

²⁰he took a bag of money with him;

- at full moon he will come home " ²¹With much seductive speech she persuades him;
- with her smooth talk she compels him. ²²All at once he follows her,
- as an ox goes to the slaughter, or as a stag is caught fast[33] ²³till an arrow pierces its liver;
- as a bird rushes into a snare; he does not know that it will cost him his life.
- and be attentive to the words of my mouth. ²⁵Let not your heart turn aside to her ways;
- do not stray into her paths, ²⁶ for many a victim has she laid low,

²⁴And now, O sons, listen to me,

- and all her slain are a mighty throng.
- ²⁷Her house is the way to Sheol, going down to the chambers of death.

The Blessings of Wisdom

- 8:1 Does not wisdom call?
 - Does not understanding raise her voice?
- ²On the heights beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; ³beside the gates in front of the town,
- at the entrance of the portals she cries aloud: 4"To vou, O men, I call,
 - and my cry is to the children of man.
- ⁵O simple ones, learn prudence;
- O fools, learn sense.

 ⁶Hear, for I will speak noble things,
- and from my lips will come what is right,

 7for my mouth will utter truth;
- wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
- ⁸All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them.
- ⁹They are all straight to him who understands, and right to those who find knowledge.
- 10 Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold,

11 for wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her.

 12"I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion.
 13The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil.

Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate.

 23 Ages ago I was set up,
- at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

 24When there were no depths I was brought forth,
- when there were no springs abounding with water.

 25Before the mountains had been shaped,
- ²⁶before he had made the earth with its fields, or the first of the dust of the world.
 ²⁷When he established the heavens, I was there;

before the hills, I was brought forth,

- when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, ²⁸when he made firm the skies above, when he established [37] the fountains of the deep, ²⁹when he assigned to the sea its limit,
- so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, 30then I was beside him, like a master workman, and I was daily his [38] delight. rejoicing before him always, ³¹reioicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the children of man.

32"And now. O sons, listen to me: blessed are those who keep my ways.

³³Hear instruction and be wise, and do not neglect it. ³⁴Blessed is the one who listens to me, watching daily at my gates, waiting beside my doors.

35For whoever finds me finds life and obtains favor from the LORD. ³⁶but he who fails to find me injures himself;

all who hate me love death."

The Way of Wisdom

- and bread eaten in secret is pleasant." ¹⁸But he does not know that the dead [42] are there.
- that her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

The Proverbs of Solomon

10:1 The proverbs of Solomon.

- A wise son makes a glad father, but a foolish son is a sorrow to his mother.
- ²Treasures gained by wickedness do not profit, but righteousness delivers from death.
- ³The LORD does not let the righteous go hungry, but he thwarts the craving of the wicked.
- ⁴A slack hand causes poverty,
 but the hand of the diligent makes rich.
 ⁵He who gathers in summer is a prudent son,
- ⁵He who gathers in summer is a prudent son, but he who sleeps in harvest is a son who brings shame.
- ⁶Blessings are on the head of the righteous, but the mouth of the wicked conceals violence.
- ⁷The memory of the righteous is a blessing, but the name of the wicked will rot.
- ⁸The wise of heart will receive commandments, but a babbling fool will come to ruin.
- ⁹Whoever walks in integrity walks securely,

¹⁹Whoever loves transgression loves strife;

he who makes his door high seeks destruction.

20 A man of crooked heart does not discover good, and one with a dishonest tongue falls into calamity.

21 He who sires a fool gets himself sorrow, to pervert the ways of justice.

24The discerning sets his face toward wisdom, but the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.

25A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to her who bore him. ²⁶To impose a fine on a righteous man is not good, nor to strike the noble for their uprightness.

²⁷Whoever restrains his words has knowledge, and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding. ²⁸Even a fool who keeps silent is considered wise;

when he closes his lips, he is deemed intelligent. 18:1 Whoever isolates himself seeks his own desire: he breaks out against all sound judgment.

²A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.

³When wickedness comes, contempt comes also, and with dishonor comes disgrace.

for the food of your household and maintenance for your girls.

28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues, but the righteous are bold as a lion.

²⁷There will be enough goats' milk for your food, and the goats the price of a field.

- ²When a land transgresses, it has many rulers, but with a man of understanding and knowledge, its stability will long continue.
- is a beating rain that leaves no food.

 Those who forsake the law praise the wicked,

³A poor man who oppresses the poor

- but those who keep the law strive against them.

 ⁵Evil men do not understand justice, but those who seek the LORD understand it completely.
- ⁶Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a rich man who is crooked in his ways.
- ⁷The one who keeps the law is a son with understanding, but a companion of gluttons shames his father.
- but a companion of gluttons shames his father.

 8Whoever multiplies his wealth by interest and
- profit^[106] gathers it for him who is generous to the poor.
- ⁹If one turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.
- 10Whoever misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit,

¹¹A rich man is wise in his own eyes, but a poor man who has understanding will find him out. ¹²When the righteous triumph, there is great glory, but the blameless will have a goodly inheritance.

but when the wicked rise, people hide themselves. ¹³Whoever conceals his transgressions will not prosper.

but he who confesses and forsakes them will obtain mercy. ¹⁴Blessed is the one who fears the LORD always, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into calamity. ¹⁵Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over a poor people. ¹⁶A ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but he who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.

¹⁷If one is burdened with the blood of another, he will be a fugitive until death:[107] let no one help him.

¹⁸Whoever walks in integrity will be delivered, but he who is crooked in his ways will suddenly fall.

but he who follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

20 A faithful man will abound with blessings, but whoever hastens to be rich will not go unpunished.

¹⁹Whoever works his land will have plenty of bread,

- ²¹To show partiality is not good, but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.
 ²²A stingy man^[108] hastens after wealth and does not know that poverty will come upon
- him.

 23
 Whoever rebukes a man will afterward find more favor
- than he who flatters with his tongue.

 24Whoever robs his father or his mother and says. "That is no transgression."
- and says, "That is no transgression," is a companion to a man who destroys.

 25A greedy man stirs up strife,
- but the one who trusts in the LORD will be enriched.
- 26Whoever trusts in his own mind is a fool, but he who walks in wisdom will be delivered.

but he who hides his eyes will get many a curse.

28When the wicked rise, people hide themselves, but when they perish, the righteous increase.

²⁷Whoever gives to the poor will not want,

- 29:1 He who is often reproved, yet stiffens his neck, will suddenly be broken beyond healing.
 When the righteous increase, the people rejoice,
- but when the wicked rule, the people groan.

 ³He who loves wisdom makes his father glad, but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
- ⁴By justice a king builds up the land,
- but he who exacts gifts^[109] tears it down.

 ⁵A man who flatters his neighbor
- spreads a net for his feet.

 6An evil man is ensnared in his transgression,
- but a righteous man sings and rejoices.

 A righteous man knows the rights of the poor;
 a wicked man does not understand such

10 Bloodthirsty men hate one who is blameless and seek the life of the upright.

11 A fool gives full vent to his spirit, but a wise man quietly holds it back.

12 If a ruler listens to falsehood.

⁹If a wise man has an argument with a fool, the fool only rages and laughs, and there is no all his officials will be wicked.

13The poor man and the oppressor meet together;
the LORD gives light to the eyes of both.

14lf a king faithfully judges the poor, his throne will be established forever.

15The rod and reproof give wisdom, but a child left to himself brings shame to his mother.

¹⁶When the wicked increase, transgression increases, but the righteous will look upon their downfall.

¹⁷Discipline your son, and he will give you rest; he will give delight to your heart.

 $^{18}\mbox{Where there is no prophetic vision the people cast}$

19By mere words a servant is not disciplined, for though he understands, he will not respond.
 20Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.
 21Whoever pampers his servant from childhood will in the end find him his heir. [112]

22A man of wrath stirs up strife, and one given to anger causes much transgression.

23One's pride will bring him low,
but he who is lowly in spirit will obtain honor.

but blessed is he who keeps the law.

off restraint.[111]

24The partner of a thief hates his own life;
 he hears the curse, but discloses nothing.
 25The fear of man lays a snare,

but whoever trusts in the LORD is safe.

26 Many seek the face of a ruler, but it is from the LORD that a man gets justice.

²⁷An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous, but one whose way is straight is an abomination to the wicked.

The Words of Agur

30:1 The words of Agur son of Jakeh. The oracle. [113]

The man declares, I am weary, O God;
I am weary, O God, and worn out. [114]

Surely I am too stupid to be a man.
I have not the understanding of a man.

I have not learned wisdom,
nor have I knowledge of the Holy One.

Who has ascended to heaven and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?

Who has wrapped up the waters in a garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?

What is his name, and what is his son's name?

⁵Every word of God proves true; he is a shield to those who take refuge in him. ⁶Do not add to his words, lest he rebuke you and you be found a liar.

Surely you know!

deny them not to me before I die: ⁸Remove far from me falsehood and lying: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with the food that is needful for me, ⁹lest I be full and deny you and say, "Who is the LORD?" or lest I be poor and steal and profane the name of my God. ¹⁰Do not slander a servant to his master, lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.

⁷Two things I ask of you;

11 There are those [115] who curse their fathers and do not bless their mothers.
12 There are those who are clean in their own eyes but are not washed of their filth.
13 There are those—how lofty are their eyes,

13There are those—how lofty are their eyes, how high their eyelids lift!
 14There are those whose teeth are swords, whose fangs are knives, to devour the poor from off the earth, the needy from among mankind.

Give and Give. [116]
Three things are never satisfied;
four never say, "Enough":

¹⁵The leech has two daughters:

16G Hever say, Energin.
16Sheol, the barren womb,
the land never satisfied with water, and the fire that never says, "Enough."

17The eye that mocks a father and scorns to obey a mother will be picked out by the ravens of the valley and eaten by the vultures.

18 Three things are too wonderful for me; four I do not understand:

19 the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a serpent on a rock, the way of a ship on the high seas, and the way of a man with a virgin.

20 This is the way of an adulteress: she eats and wipes her mouth ²¹Under three things the earth trembles; under four it cannot bear up: ²²a slave when he becomes king, and says, "I have done no wrong."

- and a fool when he is filled with food: ²³an unloved woman when she gets a husband, and a maidservant when she displaces her mistress.
- ²⁴Four things on earth are small,
- but they are exceedingly wise: ²⁵the ants are a people not strong, yet it is in kings' palaces.

- yet they provide their food in the summer; ²⁶the rock badgers are a people not mighty,
- yet they make their homes in the cliffs; ²⁷the locusts have no king, yet all of them march in rank; ²⁸the lizard you can take in your hands,
- ²⁹Three things are stately in their tread; four are stately in their stride:

30 the lion, which is mightiest among beasts and does not turn back before any;
31 the strutting rooster, [117] the he-goat, and a king whose army is with him. [118]

³²If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil, put your hand on your mouth.

33 For pressing milk produces curds, pressing the nose produces blood, and pressing anger produces strife.

The Words of King Lemuel

- 31:1 The words of King Lemuel. An oracle that his mother taught him:
- ²What are you doing, my son?^[119] What are you doing, son of my womb?
 What are you doing, son of my vows?
- ³Do not give your strength to women,
- your ways to those who destroy kings.

 ⁴It is not for kings, O Lemuel,
 - it is not for kings to drink wine, or for rulers to take strong drink,
 - ⁵lest they drink and forget what has been decreed and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.
- ⁶Give strong drink to the one who is perishing, and wine to those in bitter distress:^[120]
- ⁷let them drink and forget their poverty and remember their misery no more.
- ⁸Open your mouth for the mute, for the rights of all who are destitute. [121]
- ⁹Open your mouth, judge righteously,

The Woman Who Fears the LORD

- 10[122] An excellent wife who can find?
- She is far more precious than jewels.

 11The heart of her husband trusts in her,
- and he will have no lack of gain.
- 12 She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.
- 13She seeks wool and flax, and works with willing hands.
- 14She is like the ships of the merchant; she brings her food from afar.
- 15 She rises while it is yet night and provides food for her household and portions for her maidens.
- 16She considers a field and buys it; with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
- 17She dresses herself^[123] with strength and makes her arms strong.
 18She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
- Her lamp does not go out at night.
- ¹⁹She puts her hands to the distaff,

²¹She is not afraid of snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet [124] and reaches out her hands to the needy.

and her hands hold the spindle. ²⁰She opens her hand to the poor

²²She makes bed coverings for herself; her clothing is fine linen and purple. ²³Her husband is known in the gates when he sits among the elders of the land. ²⁴She makes linen garments and sells them;

she delivers sashes to the merchant. ²⁵Strength and dignity are her clothing, and she laughs at the time to come.

²⁶She opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.

²⁷She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

²⁸Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her: ²⁹ Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all."

³⁰Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

31Give her of the fruit of her hands, and let her works praise her in the gates.

All Is Vanity

- 1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
- Vanity^[2] of vanities, says the Preacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity.
 What does man gain by all the toil
- at which he toils under the sun?

 A generation goes, and a generation comes, but the earth remains forever.
- ⁵The sun rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens [3] to the place where it rises.
- ⁶The wind blows to the south and goes around to the north; around and around goes the wind, and on its circuits the wind returns.
- ⁷All streams run to the sea, but the sea is not full; to the place where the streams flow, there they flow again.
- ⁸All things are full of weariness;

the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

a man cannot utter it:

⁹What has been is what will be, and what has been done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰Is there a thing of which it is said, "See, this is new"? It has been already in the ages before us. ¹¹There is no remembrance of former things, [4] nor will there be any remembrance of later things yet to be among those who come after.

The Vanity of Wisdom

- ¹²I the Preacher have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³And I applied my heart ^[6] to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven. It is an unhappy business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with. ¹⁴I have seen everything that is done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind. ^[7]
- 15What is crooked cannot be made straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.
 16I said in my heart, "I have acquired great wisdom,
- surpassing all who were over Jerusalem before me, and my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge." ¹⁷And I applied my heart to know wisdom and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is but a striving after wind.
- ¹⁸For in much wisdom is much vexation, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

The Vanity of Self-Indulgence

2:1 I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure; enjoy yourself." But behold, this also was vanitv. ²I said of laughter, "It is mad," and of pleasure, "What use is it?" 3 searched with my heart how to cheer my body with wine-my heart still guiding me with wisdom—and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was good for the children of man to do under heaven during the few days of their life. 4I made great works. I built houses and planted vinevards for myself. ⁵I made myself gardens and parks, and planted in them all kinds of fruit trees. 61 made myself pools from which to water the forest of growing trees. ⁷I bought male and female slaves, and had slaves who were born in my house. I had also great possessions of herds and flocks, more than any who had been before me in Jerusalem. 81 also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasure of kings and provinces. I got singers, both men and women, and many concubines, (B) the delight of the children of man.

before me in Jerusalem. Also my wisdom remained with me. ¹⁰And whatever my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I kept my heart from no pleasure, for my heart found pleasure in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil. ¹¹Then I considered all that my hands had done and the toil I had expended in doing it, and behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was nothing to be gained under the sun.

⁹So I became great and surpassed all who were

The Vanity of Living Wisely

¹²So I turned to consider wisdom and madness and folly. For what can the man do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done. ¹³Then I saw that there is more gain in wisdom than in folly, as there is more gain in light than in darkness. ¹⁴The wise person has his eyes in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. And yet I perceived that the same event happens to all of them. 15Then I said in my heart, "What happens to the fool will happen to me also. Why then have I been so very wise?" And I said in mv heart that this also is vanity. 16For of the wise as of the fool there is no enduring remembrance, seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. How the wise dies just like the fool! ¹⁷So I hated life, because what is done under the sun was grievous to me, for all is vanity and a striving after wind.

The Vanity of Toil

¹⁸I hated all my toil in which I toil under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man who will come after me. 19 and who knows whether he will be wise or a fool? Yet he will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. 20 So I turned about and gave my heart up to despair over all the toil of my labors under the sun, ²¹because sometimes a person who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave everything to be enjoyed by someone who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. 22What has a man from all the toil and striving of heart with which he toils beneath the sun? ²³For all his days are full of sorrow, and his work is a vexation. Even in the night his heart does not rest. This also is vanity.

24There is nothing better for a person than that he should eat and drink and find enjoyment in his toil. This also, I saw, is from the hand of God. 25for apart from him[10] who can eat or who can have enjoyment? ²⁶For to the one who pleases him God has given wisdom and knowledge and joy, but to the sinner he has given the business of gathering and collecting, only to give to one who pleases God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

A Time for Everything

- 3:1 For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
- ²a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
- ³a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up:
- ⁴a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
- a time to mourn, and a time to dance:
- a time to mourn, and a time to dance
- ⁵a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from
- embracing; ⁶a time to seek, and a time to lose;
 - a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
 - ⁷a time to tear, and a time to cast away,
 - a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
- ⁸a time to love, and a time to hate;
- a time for war, and a time for peace.

The God-Given Task

⁹What gain has the worker from his toil? ¹⁰I have seen the business that God has given to the children of man to be busy with. ¹¹He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also, he has put eternity into man's heart, yet so that he cannot find out what God has done from the beginning to the end. ¹²I perceived that there is nothing better for them than to be joyful and to do good as long as they live; ¹³also that everyone should eat and drink and take pleasure in all his toil—this is God's gift to man.

¹⁴I perceived that whatever God does endures forever; nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it. God has done it, so that people fear before him. ¹⁵That which is, already has been; that which is to be, already has been; and God seeks what has been driven away. ^[11]

From Dust to Dust

¹⁶Moreover. I saw under the sun that in the place of justice, even there was wickedness, and in the place of righteousness, even there was wickedness. ¹⁷I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked, for there is a time for every matter and for every work. ¹⁸I said in my heart with regard to the children of man that God is testing them that they may see that they themselves are but beasts. 19 For what happens to the children of man and what happens to the beasts is the same; as one dies. so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and man has no advantage over the beasts, for all is vanity. 20 All go to one place. All are from the dust, and to dust all return. ²¹Who knows whether the spirit of man goes upward and the spirit of the beast goes down into the earth? ²²So I saw that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his work, for that is his lot. Who can bring him to see what will be after him?

Evil Under the Sun

- 4:1 Again I saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun. And behold, the tears of the oppressed, and they had no one to comfort them! On the side of their oppressors there was power, and there was no one to comfort them. ²And I thought the dead who are already dead more fortunate than the living who are still alive. ³But better than both is he who has not yet been and has not seen the evil deeds that are done under the sun.
- ⁴Then I saw that all toil and all skill in work come from a man's envy of his neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.
- a striving after wind.

 5The fool folds his hands and eats his own flesh.
- ⁶Better is a handful of quietness than two hands full of toil and a striving after wind.
- ⁷Again, I saw vanity under the sun: ⁸one person who has no other, either son or brother, yet there is no with riches, so that he never asks, "For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?" This also is vanity and an unhappy business.

9Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil. 10For if they fall, one will lift up end to all his toil, and his eyes are never satisfied his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up! ¹¹Again, if two lie together, they keep warm, but how can one keep warm alone? ¹²And though a man might prevail against one who is alone, two will withstand him—a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

¹³Better was a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knew how to take advice.

¹⁴For he went from prison to the throne, though in his own kingdom he had been born poor. ¹⁵I saw all the living who move about under the sun, along with that ^[12] youth who was to stand in the king's ^[13] place.

16There was no end of all the people, all of whom he led. Yet those who come later will not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Fear God

5:1 [14] Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. To draw near to listen is better than to offer the sacrifice of fools, for they do not know that they are doing evil. ^{2[15]} Be not rash with your mouth, nor let your heart be hasty to utter a word before God, for God is in heaven and you are on earth. Therefore let your words be few. ³For a dream comes with much business, and a fool's voice with many words.

⁴When you vow a vow to God, do not delay paying it, for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay what you vow. ⁵It is better that you should not vow than that you should vow and not pay. ⁶Let not your mouth lead you^[16] into sin, and do not say before the messenger^[17] that it was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice and destroy the work of your hands? ⁷For when dreams increase and words grow many, there is vanity: ^[18] but God is the one you must fear.

The Vanity of Wealth and Honor

⁸If you see in a province the oppression of the poor and the violation of justice and righteousness, do not be amazed at the matter, for the high official is watched by a higher, and there are yet higher ones over them. ⁹But this is gain for a land in every way: a king committed to cultivated fields. ^[19]

- ¹⁰He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves wealth with his income; this also is vanity. ¹¹When goods increase, they increase who eat them, and what advantage has their owner but to see them with his eyes? ¹²Sweet is the sleep of a laborer, whether he eats little or much, but the full stomach of the rich will not let him sleep.
- ¹³There is a grievous evil that I have seen under the sun: riches were kept by their owner to his hurt, ¹⁴and those riches were lost in a bad venture. And
- he is father of a son, but he has nothing in his hand. ¹⁵As he came from his mother's womb he shall go go, and what gain is there to him who toils for the wind? ¹⁷Moreover, all his days he eats in darkness in much vexation and sickness and anger.

¹⁸Behold, what I have seen to be good and fitting is to eat and drink and find enjoyment [20] in all the toil with which one toils under the sun the few days of his life that God has given him, for this is his lot.

¹⁹Everyone also to whom God has given wealth and possessions and power to enjoy them, and to accept his lot and rejoice in his toil—this is the gift of God.

20 For he will not much remember the days of his life because God keeps him occupied with joy in his

6:1 There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it lies heavy on mankind: ²a man to whom God gives wealth, possessions, and honor, so that he lacks nothing of all that he desires, yet God does not give him power to enjoy them, but a stranger enjoys that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not satisfied with life's good things, and he also has no burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he. ⁴For it comes in vanity and goes in darkness, and in darkness its name is covered. ⁵Moreover, it has not seen the sun or known anything, yet it finds rest rather than he. ⁶Even though he should live a them. This is vanity; it is a grievous evil. ³lf a man fathers a hundred children and lives many vears. so ⁷All the toil of man is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied. ^[22] ⁸For what advantage has the wise man over the fool? And what does the poor man have who knows how to conduct himself before the living? ⁹Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the appetite: this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

10Whatever has come to be has already been named, and it is known what man is, and that he is more words, the more vanity, and what is the advantage to man? ¹²For who knows what is good for man while he lives the few days of his vain life, which he passes like a shadow? For who can tell man what will be after him under the sun?

not able to dispute with one stronger than he. ¹¹The

The Contrast of Wisdom and Folly

- 7:1 A good name is better than precious ointment, and the day of death than the day of birth.
- ²It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, for this is the end of all mankind, and the living will lay it to heart.
- ³Sorrow is better than laughter, for by sadness of face the heart is made glad.
- ⁴The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.
- 5It is better for a man to hear the rebuke of the wise than to hear the song of fools.
- ⁶For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fools;
 this also is vanity.
- ⁷Surely oppression drives the wise into madness, and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- ⁸Better is the end of a thing than its beginning, and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

for anger lodges in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not, "Why were the former days better than these?"

For it is not from wisdom that you ask this.

⁹Be not quick in your spirit to become angry,

- 11Wisdom is good with an inheritance, an advantage to those who see the sun.
 12For the protection of wisdom is like the protection of money.
- and the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

 13 Consider the work of God:
- who can make straight what he has made crooked?
- ¹⁴In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider: God has made the one as well as the other, so that man may not find out anything that will be after him.
- ¹⁵In my vain life I have seen everything. There is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who prolongs his life in

Why should you die before your time? ¹⁸It is good that you should take hold of this, and from that withhold not your hand, for the one who fears God shall come out from both of them.

¹⁹Wisdom gives strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city.

his evildoing. ¹⁶Be not overly righteous, and do not make yourself too wise. Why should you destroy yourself? ¹⁷Be not overly wicked, neither be a fool.

- ²⁰Surely there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.
- ²¹Do not take to heart all the things that people say, lest you hear your servant cursing you. ²²Your heart knows that many times you yourself have cursed others.
- ²³All this I have tested by wisdom. I said, "I will be wise," but it was far from me. ²⁴That which has been is far off, and deep, very deep; who can find it out?

seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know the wickedness of folly and the foolishness that is madness. ²⁶And I find something more bitter than death: the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and whose hands are fetters. He who pleases God

²⁵I turned mv heart to know and to search out and to ²⁷Behold, this is what I found, says the Preacher, while adding one thing to another to find the scheme of things— ²⁸which my soul has sought repeatedly, but I have not found. One man among a thousand I found, but a woman among all these I have not found.

escapes her, but the sinner is taken by her.

²⁹See, this alone I found, that God made man upright, but they have sought out many schemes.

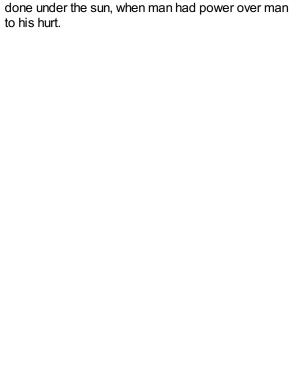

Keep the King's Command

8:1 Who is like the wise?

And who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.

²I say: [23] Keep the king's command, because of God's oath to him. [24] ³Be not hasty to go from his presence. Do not take your stand in an evil cause, for he does whatever he pleases. ⁴For the word of the king is supreme, and who may say to him, "What are you doing?" 5Whoever keeps a command will know no evil thing, and the wise heart will know the proper time and the just way. ⁶For there is a time and a way for everything, although man's trouble [25] lies heavy on him. ⁷For he does not know what is to be, for who can tell him how it will be? 8No man has power to retain the spirit, or power over the day of death. There is no discharge from war, nor will wickedness deliver those who are given to it. ⁹All this I observed while applying my heart to all that is

Those Who Fear God Will Do Well

10 Then I saw the wicked buried. They used to go in and out of the holy place and were praised in the city where they had done such things. This also is vanity. It Because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the heart of the children of man is fully set to do evil. It Though a sinner does evil a hundred times and prolongs his life, yet I know that it will be well with those who fear God, because they fear before him. It will not be well with the wicked, neither will he prolong his days like a shadow, because he does not fear before God.

Man Cannot Know God's Ways

- 14There is a vanity that takes place on earth, that there are righteous people to whom it happens according to the deeds of the wicked, and there are wicked people to whom it happens according to the deeds of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity.
- ¹⁵And I commend joy, for man has no good thing under the sun but to eat and drink and be joyful, for this will go with him in his toil through the days of his life that God has given him under the sun.
- 16When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on earth, how neither day nor night do one's eyes see sleep, ¹⁷then I saw all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun. However much man may toil in seeking, he will not find it out. Even though a wise man claims to know, he cannot find it out.

Death Comes to All

9:1 But all this I laid to heart, examining it all, how the righteous and the wise and their deeds are in the hand of God. Whether it is love or hate, man does not know: both are before him. 2It is the same for all. since the same event happens to the righteous and the wicked, to the good and the evil. [27] to the clean and the unclean, to him who sacrifices and him who does not sacrifice. As the good one is, so is the sinner, and he who swears is as he who shuns an oath. ³This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that the same event happens to all. Also, the hearts of the children of man are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live, and after that they go to the dead. ⁴But he who is joined with all the living has hope, for a living dog is better than a dead lion. ⁵For the living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing, and they have no more reward, for the memory of them is forgotten. ⁶Their love and their hate and their envy have already perished, and forever they have no more share in all that is done

Enjoy Life with the One You Love

- ⁷Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart, for God has already approved what you do.
- ⁸Let your garments be always white. Let not oil be lacking on your head.
- ⁹Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your vain life that he has given you under the sun, because that is your portion in life and in your toil at which you toil under the sun. ¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might, [28] for there is no work or thought or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, to which you are going.

Wisdom Better than Folly

swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to the intelligent, nor favor to those with knowledge, but time and chance happen to them all. ¹²For man does not know his time. Like fish that are taken in an evil net, and like birds that are caught in a snare, so the children of man are snared at an evil time, when it suddenly falls upon them.

¹¹Again I saw that under the sun the race is not to the ¹³I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed great to me. ¹⁴There was a little city with few men in it, and a great king came against it and besieged it, building great siegeworks against it. ¹⁵But there was found in it a poor, wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city. Yet no one remembered that poor man. ¹⁶But I say that wisdom is better than might, though the poor man's wisdom is despised and his words are not heard.

¹⁷The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the shouting of a ruler among fools. ¹⁸Wisdom destroys much good.

10:1 Dead flies make the perfumer's ointment give off a stench; so a little folly outweighs wisdom and honor.

²A wise man's heart inclines him to the right, is better than weapons of war, but one sinner

but a fool's heart to the left.

³Even when the fool walks on the road, he lacks sense,

and he says to everyone that he is a fool.

⁴If the anger of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your place, for calmness^[29] will lay great offenses to rest.

⁵There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, as it were an error proceeding from the ruler: ⁶folly is set in many high places, and the rich sit in a low place. ⁷I have seen slaves on horses, and princes walking on the ground like slaves.

⁸He who digs a pit will fall into it,

⁹He who quarries stones is hurt by them, and he who splits logs is endangered by them. ¹⁰If the iron is blunt, and one does not sharpen the edge, and a serpent will bite him who breaks through a wall

but wisdom helps one to succeed. [30]

11 If the serpent bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage to the charmer.

he must use more strength,

- 12The words of a wise man's mouth win him favor, [31]
- but the lips of a fool consume him.

 13The beginning of the words of his mouth is
- foolishness, and the end of his talk is evil madness.
- and the end of his talk is evil madness.

 14 A fool multiplies words,
- though no man knows what is to be, and who can tell him what will be after him?
- and who can tell him what will be after him 15The toil of a fool wearies him, for he does not know the way to the city.
- ¹⁶Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes feast in the morning!

17
Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of the nobility, and your princes feast at the proper time, for strength, and not for drunkenness!

18Through sloth the roof sinks in, and through indolence the house leaks.

19Bread is made for laughter, and wine gladdens life.

and money answers everything.

20 Even in your thoughts, do not curse the king, nor in your bedroom curse the rich, for a bird of the air will carry your voice, or some winged creature tell the matter.

Cast Your Bread upon the Waters

- 11:1 Cast your bread upon the waters, for you will find it after many days.
- ²Give a portion to seven, or even to eight, for you know not what disaster may happen on earth.
- ³If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth, and if a tree falls to the south or to the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it will lie.
 ⁴He who observes the wind will not sow, and he who regards the clouds will not reap.
- ⁵As you do not know the way the spirit comes to the bones in the womb [32] of a woman with child, so you
- do not know the work of God who makes everything.

 ⁶In the morning sow your seed, and at evening withhold not your hand, for you do not know which will withhold not your hand, for you do not know which will prosper, this or that, or whether both alike will be good.

⁷Light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun.
 ⁸So if a person lives many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember that the days of darkness will be many. All that comes is vanity.

⁹Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth. Walk in the ways of your heart and the sight of your eyes. But know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

10 Remove vexation from your heart, and put away pain [33] from your body, for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

Remember Your Creator in Your Youth

12:1 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come and the years draw near of which you will say, "I have no pleasure in them": ²before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened and the clouds return after the rain, ³in the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men are bent, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those who look through the windows are dimmed, ⁴ and the doors on the street are shut—when the sound of the grinding is low, and one rises up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song are brought low-⁵they are afraid also of what is high, and terrors are in the way; the almond tree blossoms, the grasshopper drags itself along. [34] and desire fails. because man is going to his eternal home, and the mourners go about the streets— ⁶before the silver cord is snapped, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is shattered at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. ⁷and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it. 8 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; all is vanity.

Fear God and Keep His Commandments

- ⁹Besides being wise, the Preacher also taught the people knowledge, weighing and studying and arranging many proverbs with great care. ¹⁰The Preacher sought to find words of delight, and uprightly he wrote words of truth.
- ¹¹The words of the wise are like goads, and like nails firmly fixed are the collected sayings; they are given by one Shepherd. ¹²My son, beware of anything beyond these. Of making many books there is no end, and much study is a weariness of the flesh.
- ¹³The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man. [35] ¹⁴For God will bring every deed into judgment, with [36] every secret thing, whether good or evil.

The Bride Confesses Her Love

She^[1]

²Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth!
 For your love is better than wine; ³your anointing oils are fragrant;
 your name is oil poured out;
 therefore virgins love you.
 ⁴Draw me after you; let us run.
 The king has brought me into his chambers.

Others

We will exult and rejoice in you; we will extol your love more than wine; rightly do they love you.

She

⁵I am very dark, but lovely, O daughters of Jerusalem, like the tents of Kedar, ⁶Do not gaze at me because I am dark, because the sun has looked upon me. My mother's sons were angry with me;

like the curtains of Solomon.

they made me keeper of the vineyards, but my own vineyard I have not kept! ⁷Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where you pasture your flock, where you make it lie down at noon; for why should I be like one who veils herself beside the flocks of your companions?

Solomon and His Bride Delight in Each Other

He

8If you do not know, O most beautiful among women, follow in the tracks of the flock, and pasture your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

⁹I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariots.

The Bride's Dream

3:1 On my bed by night

I sought him whom my soul loves; I sought him, but found him not.

²I will rise now and go about the city, in the streets and in the squares; I will seek him whom my soul loves.

I sought him, but found him not.

³The watchmen found me as they went about in the city.

"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

Scarcely had I passed them when I found him whom my soul loves.

I held him, and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her who conceived me.

⁵I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles or the does of the field, that you not stir up or awaken love until it pleases.

Solomon Arrives for the Wedding

⁶What is that coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all the fragrant powders of a merchant?

⁷Behold, it is the litter^[10] of Solomon! Around it are sixty mighty men, some of the mighty men of Israel, and expert in war,

each with his sword at his thigh, against terror by night.

9King Solomon made himself a carriage from the wood of Lebanon.

10 He made its posts of silver, its back of gold, its seat of purple; its interior was inlaid with love by the daughters of Jerusalem.

11Go out, O daughters of Zion,

He

- ⁴You are beautiful as Tirzah, my love, lovely as Jerusalem, awesome as an army with banners.
- ⁵Turn away your eyes from me, for they overwhelm me—
- Your hair is like a flock of goats leaping down the slopes of Gilead.
- ⁶Your teeth are like a flock of ewes that have come up from the washing; all of them bear twins; not one among them has lost its young.
- ⁷Your cheeks are like halves of a pomegranate behind your veil.
- ⁸There are sixty queens and eighty concubines, and virgins without number.
- ⁹My dove, my perfect one, is the only one, the only one of her mother,

- pure to her who bore her.

 The young women saw her and called her blessed;
 the queens and concubines also, and they praised her.
- 10 Who is this who looks down like the dawn, beautiful as the moon, bright as the sun, awesome as an army with banners?"

She

11 went down to the nut orchard to look at the blossoms of the valley, to see whether the vines had budded, whether the pomegranates were in bloom.

12Before I was aware, my desire set me among the chariots of my kinsman, a prince. [19]

Others

13[20] Return, return, O Shulammite, return, return, that we may look upon you.

He

Why should you look upon the Shulammite, as upon a dance before two armies?^[21]

7:1 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O noble daughter! Your rounded thighs are like jewels.

the work of a master hand.

2 Your payel is a rounded bowl that never lacks mixed wine. Your belly is a heap of wheat, encircled with lilies.

³Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle.

4Your neck is like an ivory tower.

Your eyes are pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bath-rabbim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon, which looks toward Damascus.

⁵Your head crowns you like Carmel, and your flowing locks are like purple; a king is held captive in the tresses.

- ⁶How beautiful and pleasant you are, O loved one, with all your delights!^[22]
- Your stature is like a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters.
 I say I will climb the palm tree
- and lay hold of its fruit.

 Oh may your breasts be like clusters of the vine, and the scent of your breath like apples,
- and the scent of your breath like apples, and your mouth like the best wine.

She

It goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding over lips and teeth. [24]

10 am my beloved's, and his desire is for me.

The Bride Gives Her Love

- 11Come, my beloved, let us go out into the fields and lodge in the villages;[25]
- ¹²let us go out early to the vineyards and see whether the vines have budded, whether the grape blossoms have opened and the pomegranates are in bloom. There I will give you my love.
- 13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance, and beside our doors are all choice fruits, new as well as old,
- which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Longing for Her Beloved

8:1 Oh that you were like a brother to me who nursed at my mother's breasts! If I found you outside, I would kiss you, and none would despise me.

and none would despise me.

I would lead you and bring you into the house of my mother—she who used to teach me.

I would give you spiced wine to drink, the juice of my pomegranate.

³His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me!

⁴I adiure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you not stir up or awaken love until it pleases.

⁵Who is that coming up from the wilderness, leaning on her beloved?

Under the apple tree I awakened you.

There your mother was in labor with you;
there she who bore you was in labor.

Get me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm, for love is strong as death, jealousy [26] is fierce as the grave. [27] Its flashes are flashes of fire, the very flame of the LORD.

Many waters cannot quench love, so that one floods drown it.

neither can floods drown it.

If a man offered for love
all the wealth of his house, he^[28] would be utterly despised.

We have a little sister, and she has no breasts.
What shall we do for our sister on the day when she is spoken for?
If she is a wall, we will build on her a battlement of silver, but if she is a door, we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

She

The Wickedness of Judah

- ²Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the LORD has spoken:
 "Children^[1] have I reared and brought up, but they have rebelled against me.

 ³The ox knows its owner.
- and the donkey its master's crib, but Israel does not know, my people do not understand."
- ⁴Ah, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, offspring of evildoers, children who deal corruptly! They have forsaken the LORD, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are utterly estranged.
- ⁵Why will you still be struck down? Why will you continue to rebel? The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

there is no soundness in it, but bruises and sores and raw wounds; they are not pressed out or bound up or softened with oil.

⁶From the sole of the foot even to the head, your cities are burned with fire; in your very presence foreigners devour your land; it is desolate, as overthrown by foreigners.

⁸And the daughter of Zion is left like a booth in a vineyard, like a lodge in a cucumber field, like a besieged city.

⁷Your country lies desolate;

⁹If the LORD of hosts had not left us a few survivors, we should have been like Sodom, and become like Gomorrah.

¹⁰Hear the word of the LORD, you rulers of Sodom! Give ear to the teaching of our God. you people of Gomorrah! 11 "What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says the LORD; I have had enough of burnt offerings of rams and the fat of well-fed beasts: I do not delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs, or of goats. 12"When you come to appear before me, who has required of you this trampling of my courts? ¹³Bring no more vain offerings; incense is an abomination to me. New moon and Sabbath and the calling of convocations— I cannot endure iniquity and solemn assembly. 14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts they have become a burden to me; I am weary of bearing them.

my soul hates:

15When you spread out your hands, even though you make many prayers. I will not listen: vour hands are full of blood. ¹⁶Wash vourselves; make yourselves clean; remove the evil of your deeds from before my eves: cease to do evil, ¹⁷learn to do good: seek justice.

I will hide my eyes from you;

correct oppression; bring justice to the fatherless, plead the widow's cause.

¹⁸"Come now, let us reason [3] together, says the LORD:

though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool. ¹⁹If you are willing and obedient,

you shall eat the good of the land;

²⁰but if you refuse and rebel,

you shall be eaten by the sword; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

The Unfaithful City

²¹How the faithful city has become a whore. [4]

she who was full of justice!

Righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers.

 Your silver has become dross, your best wine mixed with water.
 Your princes are rebels and companions of thieves. Everyone loves a bribe and runs after gifts.

They do not bring justice to the fatherless, and the widow's cause does not come to them.

24Therefore the Lord declares,
the LORD of hosts,
the Mighty One of Israel:
"Ah, I will get relief from my enemies and avenge myself on my foes.

²⁵I will turn my hand against you and will smelt away your dross as with lye and remove all your alloy. ²⁶And I will restore your judges as at the first, and your counselors as at the beginning. Afterward you shall be called the city of righteousness. the faithful city." ²⁷Zion shall be redeemed by justice, and those in her who repent, by righteousness. ²⁸But rebels and sinners shall be broken together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed ²⁹For thev⁵ shall be ashamed of the oaks that you desired: and you shall blush for the gardens that you have chosen.

30 For you shall be like an oak whose leaf withers, and like a garden without water.

³¹And the strong shall become tinder, and his work a spark, and both of them shall burn together, with none to quench them.

The Mountain of the LORD

- 2:1 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
- ²It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be lifted up above the hills; and all the nations shall flow to it, ³and many peoples shall come, and say:
- "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths."

 For out of Zion shall go the law, [6]
- and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

 4He shall judge between the nations, and shall decide disputes for many peoples;
- and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.

⁵O house of Jacob, come, let us walk in the light of the LORD.

The Day of the LORD

⁶For you have rejected your people, the house of Jacob, because they are full of things from the east and of fortune-tellers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of foreigners.

⁷Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures; their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots. ⁸Their land is filled with idols;

they bow down to the work of their hands, to what their own fingers have made.

9So man is humbled.

and each one is brought low—do not forgive them!

¹⁰Enter into the rock and hide in the dust from before the terror of the LORD.

and from the splendor of his majesty.

¹¹The haughty looks of man shall be brought low,

- and the lofty pride of men shall be humbled, and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
- 12For the LORD of hosts has a day against all that is proud and lofty, against all that is lifted up—and it shall be brought low;
 13aaainst all the cedars of Lebanon,
 - lofty and lifted up; and against all the oaks of Bashan;
- 14 against all the lofty mountains, and against all the uplifted hills;
 15 against every high tower,
- and against every fortified wall; ¹⁶against all the ships of Tarshish,
- and against all the beautiful craft.

 17 And the haughtiness of man shall be humbled,
- and the lofty pride of men shall be brought low, and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.

 18 And the idols shall utterly pass away.
- ¹⁹And people shall enter the caves of the rocks and the holes of the ground, [7]

from before the terror of the LORD, and from the splendor of his majesty, when he rises to terrify the earth.

²⁰In that day mankind will cast away their idols of silver and their idols of gold, which they made for themselves to worship, to the moles and to the bats.

²¹to enter the caverns of the rocks and the clefts of the cliffs.

from before the terror of the LORD. and from the splendor of his majesty. when he rises to terrify the earth. ²²Stop regarding man in whose nostrils is breath. for of what account is he?

Judgment on Judah and Jerusalem

- 3:1 For behold, the Lord GOD of hosts is taking away from Jerusalem and from Judah support and supply, all support of bread, and all support of water;
- ²the mighty man and the soldier, the judge and the prophet, the diviner and the elder,
- ³the captain of fifty and the man of rank, the counselor and the skillful magician and the expert in charms.
- ⁴And I will make boys their princes, and infants^[9] shall rule over them.
- ⁵And the people will oppress one another, every one his fellow and every one his neighbor; the youth will be insolent to the elder, and the despised to the honorable.

⁶For a man will take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saving: "You have a cloak: you shall be our leader, and this heap of ruins shall be under your rule"; ⁷in that day he will speak out, saying: "I will not be a healer:[10] in my house there is neither bread nor cloak; you shall not make me leader of the people." ⁸For Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen.

because their speech and their deeds are against the LORD. defying his glorious presence.[11]

⁹For the look on their faces bears witness against them: they proclaim their sin like Sodom;

they do not hide it. Woe to them!

For they have brought evil on themselves.

- 10 Tell the righteous that it shall be well with them, for they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
 11 Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him, for what his hands have dealt out shall be done to
- him.

 12
 My people—infants are their oppressors, and women rule over them.
 O my people, your guides mislead you
- and they have swallowed up^[12] the course of your paths.

 13The LORD has taken his place to contend;
- he stands to judge peoples.

 14The LORD will enter into judgment
- with the elders and princes of his people:

 "It is you who have devoured [13] the vineyard,
 the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

 15What do you mean by crushing my people
- the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

 15What do you mean by crushing my people, by grinding the face of the poor?"

 declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

¹⁶The LORD said: Because the daughters of Zion are haughty glancing wantonly with their eyes, mincing along as they go, tinkling with their feet, ¹⁷therefore the Lord will strike with a scab the heads of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will lay bare their secret parts.

¹⁸In that day the Lord will take away the finery of the and walk with outstretched necks.

anklets, the headbands, and the crescents; ¹⁹the pendants, the bracelets, and the scarves; ²⁰the headdresses, the armlets, the sashes, the perfume boxes, and the amulets; ²¹the signet rings and nose rings; ²²the festal robes, the mantles, the cloaks, and the handbags; ²³the mirrors, the linen garments, the turbans, and the veils.

²⁴Instead of perfume there will be rottenness; and instead of a belt, a rope; and instead of well-set hair, baldness; and instead of a rich robe, a skirt of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

- 25 Your men shall fall by the sword and your mighty men in battle.
 26 And her gates shall lament and mourn;
- empty, she shall sit on the ground.
- 4:1 And seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, "We will eat our own bread and wear our own clothes, only let us be called by your name: take away our reproach."

The Branch of the LORD Glorified

²In that day the branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be the pride and honor of the survivors of Israel. ³And he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who has been recorded for life in Jerusalem. 4when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning. [14] 5Then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over her assemblies a cloud by day, and smoke and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory there will be a canopy. ⁶There will be a booth for shade by day from the heat, and for a refuge and a shelter from the storm and rain.

The Vineyard of the LORD Destroyed

5:1 Let me sing for my beloved my love song concerning his vineyard:
My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

2He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines;
he built a watchtower in the midst of it.

 and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.
 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, and hewed out a wine vat in it;

judge between me and my vineyard.

What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it?

When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

⁵And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. and it shall be devoured;^[15]
I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

6I will make it a waste;
it shall not be pruned or hoed,
and briers and thorns shall grow up;

I will remove its hedge,

I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Iudah.

and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; [16] for righteousness, but behold, an outcry! [17]

Woe to the Wicked

Woe to those who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is no more room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land.
The LORD of hosts has sworn in my hearing:

"Surely many houses shall be desolate, large and beautiful houses, without inhabitant.

¹⁰For ten acres^[18] of vineyard shall yield but one bath, bath, and a homer of seed shall yield but an ephah."^[19]

11Woe to those who rise early in the morning, that they may run after strong drink, who tarry late into the evening as wine inflames them!

12They have lyre and harp, tambourine and flute and wine at their feasts, but they do not regard the deeds of the LORD, or see the work of his hands.

- 13Therefore my people go into exile for lack of knowledge; [20] their honored men go hungry, [21] and their multitude is parched with thirst.
- 14Therefore Sheol has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure, and the nobility of Jerusalem [22] and her multitude will go down, her revelers and he who exults in her.
- ¹⁵Man is humbled, and each one is brought low, and the eyes of the haughty^[23] are brought low.
 ¹⁶But the LORD of hosts is exalted^[24] in justice,
- and the Holy God shows himself holy in righteousness.

 17Then shall the lambs graze as in their pasture,
- and nomads shall eat among the ruins of the rich.

¹⁸Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of

- falsehood,
 who draw sin as with cart ropes,
- ¹⁹who say: "Let him be quick, let him speed his work that we may see it;

let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near, and let it come, that we may know it!"

20Woe to those who call evil good and good evil.

and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, who put darkness for light and shrewd in their own sight!

22Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, and valiant men in mixing strong drink, 23who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of his right!

24Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble.

and as dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom go up like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and have despised the word of the Holy One of ²⁵Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he stretched out his hand against them and struck them, and the mountains guaked;

Israel

in the midst of the streets.

For all this his anger has not turned away,
and his hand is stretched out still.

and their corpses were as refuse

26He will raise a signal for nations far away, and whistle for them from the ends of the earth; and behold, quickly, speedily they come!
27None is weary, none stumbles,

²⁷None is weary, none stumbles, none slumbers or sleeps, not a waistband is loose, not a sandal strap broken;
²⁸their arrows are sharp, all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs seem like flint, and their wheels like the whirlwind. ²⁹Their roaring is like a lion, they growl and seize their prey; they carry it off, and none can rescue.

30 They will growl over it on that day, like the growling of the sea.

like young lions they roar;

And if one looks to the land, behold, darkness and distress; and the light is darkened by its clouds.

Isaiah's Vision of the Lord 6:1 In the year that King Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and the train^[25] of his robe filled the temple. ²Above him stood the seraphim. Each had six wings: with two he covered his face, and with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. ³And one called to another and said:

"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts:

the whole earth is full of his glory!"[26]

4And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. ⁵And I said: "Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!"

⁶Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having in his hand a burning coal that he had taken with tongs from the altar. ⁷And he touched my mouth and said:

"Behold, this has touched your lips; your guilt is taken away, and your sin atoned for."

Isaiah's Commission from the LORD

⁸And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here am I! Send me." ⁹And he said, "Go, and say to this people:

this people:

"Keep on hearing,^[27] but do not understand; keep on seeing,^[28] but do not perceive.'

¹⁰Make the heart of this people dull,^[29] and their ears heavy, and blind their eyes; lest they see with their eyes.

and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts,
and turn and be healed."

11Thon I said "How long O Lord?"

¹¹Then I said, "How long, O Lord?"
And he said:
"Until cities lie waste

without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is a desolate waste,

¹²and the LORD removes people far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land ¹³And though a tenth remain in it, it will be burned [30] again, like a terebinth or an oak, whose stump remains when it is felled."

The holy seed [31] is its stump.

Isaiah Sent to King Ahaz

7:1 In the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, son of Uzziah, king of Judah, Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the son of Remaliah the king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to wage war against it, but could not yet mount an attack against it. ²When the house of David was told, "Syria is in league with [32] Ephraim," the heart of Ahaz [33] and the heart of his people shook as the trees of the forest shake before the wind

³And the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out to meet Ahaz, you and Shear-jashub^[34] your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool on the highway to the Washer's Field. ⁴And say to him, 'Be careful, be quiet, do not fear, and do not let your heart be faint because of these two smoldering stumps of firebrands, at the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria and the son of Remaliah. ⁵Because Syria, with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah, has devised evil against you, saying, ⁶"Let us go up against Judah and terrify it, and let us conquer it [35] for ourselves. and set up the son of Tabeel as king in the midst of it." 7thus says the Lord GOD:

⁸For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin

"It shall not stand.

and it shall not come to pass.

And within sixty-five years Ephraim will be shattered from being a people.

⁹And the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. If vou^[36] are not firm in faith, vou will not be firm at all."

The Sign of Immanuel

- ¹⁰Again the LORD spoke to Ahaz, ¹¹"Ask a sign of the LORD your God; let it be deep as Sheol or high as heaven." 12 But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, and I will not put the LORD to the test." 13And he [38] said. "Hear then, O house of David! Is it too little for you to weary men, that you weary my God also? ¹⁴Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. [39] 15He shall eat curds and honey when he knows how to refuse the evil and choose the good. ¹⁶For before the boy knows how to
- refuse the evil and choose the good, the land whose two kings you dread will be deserted. ¹⁷The LORD will bring upon you and upon your people and upon your father's house such days as have not come since the day that Ephraim departed from Judahthe king of Assyria."

18 In that day the LORD will whistle for the fly that is at the end of the streams of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. ¹⁹And they will all come and settle in the steep ravines, and in the clefts of the rocks, and on all the thornbushes, and on all the pastures. [40]

20 In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired beyond the River—with the king of Assyria—the head and the hair of the feet, and it will sweep away the beard also.

²¹In that day a man will keep alive a young cow and two sheep, ²² and because of the abundance of milk that they give, he will eat curds, for everyone who is left in the land will eat curds and honey. ²³In that day every place where there used to be a thousand vines, worth a thousand shekels[41] of silver, will become briers and thorns. 24With bow and arrows a man will come there, for all the land will be briers and thorns. ²⁵And as for all the hills that used to be hoed with a hoe, you will not come there for fear of briers and thorns, but they will become a place where cattle are let loose and where sheep

The Coming Assyrian Invasion

- 8:1 Then the LORD said to me, "Take a large tablet and write on it in common characters, [42] 'Belonging to Maher-shalal-hash-baz.' [43] ²And I will get reliable witnesses, Uriah the priest and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah, to attest for me."
- ³And I went to the prophetess, and she conceived and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz; ⁴for before the boy knows how to cry 'My father' or 'My mother,' the wealth of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away before the king of Assyria."
- ⁵The LORD spoke to me again: ⁶"Because this people has refused the waters of Shiloah that flow gently, and rejoice over Rezin and the son of Remaliah, ⁷therefore, behold, the Lord is bringing up against them the waters of the River, mighty and many, the king of Assyria and all his glory. And it will rise over all its channels and go over all its banks, ⁸and it will sweep on into Judah, it will overflow and pass on, reaching even to the neck, and its outspread wings will fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel."

⁹Be broken. [44] you peoples, and be shattered: [45]

give ear, all you far countries; strap on your armor and be shattered; strap on your armor and be shattered. 10 Take counsel together, but it will come to nothing; speak a word, but it will not stand, for God is with us. [46]

Fear God, Wait for the LORD

¹¹For the LORD spoke thus to me with his strong hand upon me, and warned me not to walk in the way of this people, saying: ¹²"Do not call conspiracy all that this people calls conspiracy, and do not fear what they fear, nor be in dread. ¹³But the LORD of hosts, him you shall honor as holy. Let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. ¹⁴And he will become a sanctuary and a stone of offense and a rock of stumbling to both houses of Israel, a trap and a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁵And many shall stumble on it. They shall fall and be broken; they

¹⁶Bind up the testimony; seal the teaching [47] among my disciples. ¹⁷I will wait for the LORD, who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob, and I will hope in him. ¹⁸Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are signs and portents in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion. ¹⁹And when they say to you, "Inquire of the mediums and

2^[52] The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who dwelt in a land of deep darkness, on them has light shined.

³You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as they are glad when they divide the spoil.

you have broken as on the day of Midian.

For every boot of the tramping warrior in battle to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore.

The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Judgment on Arrogance and Oppression 8The Lord has sent a word against Jacob, and it will fall on Israel;

and all the people will know,

Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart:

10"The bricks have fallen, the sycamores have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."

¹¹But the LORD raises the adversaries of Rezin against him, but we will build with dressed stones:

and stirs up his enemies.

12The Syrians on the east and the Philistines on the west devour Israel with open mouth.
For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

¹³The people did not turn to him who struck them, nor inquire of the LORD of hosts.

14So the LORD cut off from Israel head and tail,

15the elder and honored man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail;
16for those who guide this people have been leading them astray, and those who are guided by them are swallowed up.
17Therefore the Lord does not rejoice over their young men, and has no compassion on their fatherless and widows:

palm branch and reed in one day—

for everyone is godless and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. [55]
For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

and his hand is stretched out still.

18 For wickedness burns like a fire; it consumes briers and thorns;

it consumes briers and thorns; it kindles the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.

19 Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts the land is scorched.

and the people are like fuel for the fire;

- no one spares another.

 20 They slice meat on the right, but are still hungry, and they devour on the left, but are not satisfied; each devours the flesh of his own arm,
- ²¹Manasseh devours Ephraim, and Ephraim devours Manasseh; together they are against Judah.
- For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

 10:1 Woe to those who decree iniquitous decrees,
- and the writers who keep writing oppression, to turn aside the needy from justice and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be their spoil,

- and that they may make the fatherless their prey!

 3What will you do on the day of punishment, in the ruin that will come from afar?

 To whom will you flee for help,
- and where will you leave your wealth?

 Nothing remains but to crouch among the prisoners or fall among the slain.

For all this his anger has not turned away,

Judgment on Arrogant Assyria

 ⁵Ah, Assyria, the rod of my anger; the staff in their hands is my fury!
 ⁶Against a godless nation I send him, and against the people of my wrath I command him, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.

7But he does not so intend,
and his heart does not so think;
but it is in his heart to destroy,

and to cut off nations not a few; ⁸for he says:

"Are not my commanders all kings?

⁹Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad?

to take spoil and seize plunder.

Is not Samaria like Damascus?

¹⁰As my hand has reached to the kingdoms of the idols.

whose carved images were greater than those of Jerusalem and Samaria, as I have done to Samaria and her images?" 12When the Lord has finished all his work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, he^[56] will punish the speech of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the

I remove the boundaries of peoples. and plunder their treasures; like a bull I bring down those who sit on thrones. ¹⁴My hand has found like a nest the wealth of the peoples;

and as one gathers eggs that have been forsaken, so I have gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved a wing 16Therefore the Lord GOD of hosts will send wasting sickness among his stout warriors, and under his glory a burning will be kindled.

or as if a staff should lift him who is not wood!

like the burning of fire.

17The light of Israel will become a fire, and his Holy One a flame, and it will burn and devour his thorns and briers in one day.

18 The glory of his forest and of his fruitful land
the LORD will destroy, both soul and body.

the LORD will destroy, both soul and body, and it will be as when a sick man wastes away.

and it will be as when a sick man wastes away.

19 The remnant of the trees of his forest will be so few that a child can write them down.

The Remnant of Israel Will Return

²⁰In that day the remnant of Israel and the survivors of the house of Jacob will no more lean on him who struck them, but will lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. ²¹A remnant will return, the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. ²²For though your people Israel be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. Destruction is decreed, overflowing with righteousness. ²³For the Lord GOD of hosts will make a full end, as decreed, in the midst of all the earth.

²⁴Therefore thus says the Lord GOD of hosts: "O my people, who dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrians when they strike with the rod and lift up their staff against you as the Egyptians did. ²⁵For in a very little while my fury will come to an end, and my anger will be directed to their destruction. ²⁶And the LORD of hosts will wield against them a whip, as when he struck Midian at the rock of Oreb. And his staff will be over the sea, and he will lift it as he did in Egypt. ²⁷And in that day his burden will depart from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck; and the yoke will be broken because of the fat." [57]

he has passed through Migron;

the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.

32 This very day he will halt at Nob;
he will shake his fist
at the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

33Behold, the Lord GOD of hosts will lop the boughs with terrifying power; and the lofty will be brought low. ³⁴He will cut down the thickets of the forest with an

The Righteous Reign of the Branch

11:1 There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots shall bear fruit.

²And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

³And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear,

4but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
and he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.

5Righteousness shall be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his loins.

⁶The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. ⁸The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra,

13The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, and those who harass Judah shall be cut off;
Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not harass Ephraim.

They shall put out their hand against Edom and

They shall put out their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt, and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching breath, 60 and strike it into seven channels, and he will lead people across in sandals.

¹⁶And there will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that remains of his people, as there was for Israel

when they came up from the land of Egypt.

The LORD Is My Strength and My Song

- 12:1 You⁶¹ will say in that day:
- "I will give thanks to you, O LORD, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me.
- ²"Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD^[62] is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation."
- ³With joy you^[63] will draw water from the wells of salvation. ⁴And you will say in that day:
- "Give thanks to the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted.
- 5"Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously;

let this be made known^[64] in all the earth.

⁶Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your^[65] midst is the Holy One of Israel."

The Judgment of Babylon

- 13:1 The oracle concerning Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw.
- On a bare hill raise a signal; cry aloud to them; wave the hand for them to enter the gates of the nobles.
 I myself have commanded my consecrated ones,
- and have summoned my mighty men to execute my anger,
 my proudly exulting ones. [66]

The LORD of hosts is mustering

- ⁴The sound of a tumult is on the mountains as of a great multitude!
 The sound of an uproar of kingdoms, of nations gathering together!
- a host for battle.

 ⁵They come from a distant land, from the end of the heavens,
- the LORD and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. [67]

6Wail, for the day of the LORD is near;
as destruction from the Almighty it will come!

 ⁷Therefore all hands will be feeble, and every human heart will melt.
 ⁸They will be dismayed:

pangs and agony will seize them;
they will be in anguish like a woman in labor.
They will look aghast at one another;
their faces will be aflame.

⁹Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy its sinners from it.

10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be dark at its rising, and the moon will not shed its light.

¹¹I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; 12 will make people more rare than fine gold, and mankind than the gold of Ophir. ¹³Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place.

I will put an end to the pomp of the arrogant, and lay low the pompous pride of the ruthless.

at the wrath of the LORD of hosts in the day of his fierce anger. ¹⁴And like a hunted gazelle, or like sheep with none to gather them, each will turn to his own people, and each will flee to his own land. ¹⁵Whoever is found will be thrust through, and whoever is caught will fall by the sword. ¹⁶Their infants will be dashed in pieces before their eyes:

their houses will be plundered and their wives ravished. ¹⁷Behold, I am stirring up the Medes against them, and do not delight in gold. ¹⁸Their bows will slaughter the young men; who have no regard for silver they will have no mercy on the fruit of the womb; their eyes will not pity children.

19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the splendor and nome of the Chaldeans the splendor and pomp of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them.

²⁰It will never be inhabited or lived in for all generations; no Arab will pitch his tent there; no shepherds will make their flocks lie down there.

²¹But wild animals will lie down there, and their houses will be full of howling creatures; there ostriches^[70] will dwell.

and there wild goats will dance.

22Hyenas^[71] will cry in its towers, and jackals in the pleasant palaces;

and jackals in the pleasant palaces its time is close at hand and its days will not be prolonged.

The Restoration of Jacob

14:1 For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob and will again choose Israel, and will set them in their own land, and sojourners will join them and will attach themselves to the house of Jacob. ²And the peoples will take them and bring them to their place, and the house of Israel will possess them in the LORD's land as male and female slaves. They will take captive those who were their captors, and rule over those who oppressed them.

Israel's Remnant Taunts Babylon

³When the LORD has given you rest from your pain and turmoil and the hard service with which you were made to serve, ⁴you will take up this taunt against the king of Babylon:

"How the oppressor has ceased, the insolent fury^[72] ceased!

⁵The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of rulers, 6that struck the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the nations in anger with unrelenting persecution.

⁷The whole earth is at rest and quiet; they break forth into singing.

⁸The cypresses rejoice at you, the cedars of Lebanon, saying, 'Since you were laid low, no woodcutter comes up against us.'

⁹Sheol beneath is stirred up it rouses the shades to greet you, all who were leaders of the earth: it raises from their thrones all who were kings of the nations. 10 All of them will answer and say to you: 'You too have become as weak as we! You have become like us!' ¹¹Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, the sound of your harps; maggots are laid as a bed beneath you, and worms are your covers.

12"How you are fallen from heaven,
O Day Star, son of Dawn!
How you are cut down to the ground,
you who laid the nations low!

13You said in your heart,

'I will ascend to heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high;

I will sit on the mount of assembly to meet you when you come;

- in the far reaches of the north; [73]

 14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds;
 I will make myself like the Most High.'

 15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the far reaches of the pit.
- and ponder over you:

 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble,
 who shook kingdoms,

 17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities,
 who did not let his prisoners go home?'

¹⁶Those who see you will stare at you

- who did not let his prisoners go home?'

 18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb; [74]

 19 but you are cast out, away from your grave, like a loathed branch,
 clothed with the slain, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit,
 like a dead body trampled underfoot.

An Oracle Concerning Assyria

- ²⁴The LORD of hosts has sworn:
- "As I have planned, so shall it be.
- and as I have purposed, so shall it stand.
- ²⁵that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and on my mountains trample him underfoot; and his yoke shall depart from them, and his burden from their shoulder."
- ²⁶This is the purpose that is purposed concerning the whole earth, and this is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations.
- 27 For the LORD of hosts has purposed, and who will annul it?
 His hand is stretched out, and who will turn it back?

An Oracle Concerning Philistia

- ²⁸In the year that King Ahaz died came this oracle:
- ²⁹Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you, that the rod that struck you is broken, for from the serpent's root will come forth an adder, and its fruit will be a flying fiery serpent.
- ³⁰And the firstborn of the poor will graze, and the needy lie down in safety; but I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant it will slay.
 - ³¹Wail, O gate; cry out, O city; melt in fear, O Philistia, all of you! For smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks.
 - 32What will one answer the messengers of the nation?
 - "The LORD has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people find refuge."

An Oracle Concerning Moab

15:1 An oracle concerning Moab.

Because Ar of Moab is laid waste in a night, Moab is undone; because Kir of Moab is laid waste in a night, Moab is undone.

²He has gone up to the temple, ^[76] and to Dibon, to the high places ^[77] to weep; over Nebo and over Medeba

Moab wails.
On every head is baldness;
every beard is shorn:

³in the streets they wear sackcloth; on the housetops and in the squares everyone wails and melts in tears.

⁴Heshbon and Elealeh cry out; their voice is heard as far as Jahaz; therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembles.

⁵My heart cries out for Moab; her fugitives flee to Zoar, For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; on the road to Horonaim they raise a cry of destruction; 6the waters of Nimrim are a desolation: the grass is withered, the vegetation fails, the greenery is no more. ⁷Therefore the abundance they have gained and what they have laid up they carry away over the Brook of the Willows. ⁸For a cry has gone around the land of Moab: her wailing reaches to Eglaim; her wailing reaches to Beer-elim. ⁹For the waters of Dibon^[78] are full of blood: for I will bring upon Dibon even more, a lion for those of Moab who escape. for the remnant of the land.

16:1 Send the lamb to the ruler of the land, from Sela, by way of the desert, to Eglath-shelishiyah.

²Like fleeing birds, like a scattered nest, so are the daughters of Moab at the fords of the Arnon.

to the mount of the daughter of Zion.

³"Give counsel; grant justice;

make your shade like night at the height of noon; shelter the outcasts; do not reveal the fugitive; ⁴let the outcasts of Moab sojourn among you; be a shelter to them^[79] from the destroyer.

When the oppressor is no more, and destruction has ceased, and he who tramples underfoot has vanished from the land, 5then a throne will be established in steadfast love, other a throne will be established in steadfas and on it will sit in faithfulness in the tent of David

- one who judges and seeks justice and is swift to do righteousness."
- ⁶We have heard of the pride of Moab how proud he is! of his arrogance, his pride, and his insolence; in his idle boasting he is not right.
- ⁷Therefore let Moab wail for Moab, let everyone wail. Mourn, utterly stricken, for the raisin cakes of Kir-hareseth.
- ⁸For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah:

have struck down its branches.

the lords of the nations

- which reached to Jazer and strayed to the desert;
 its shoots spread abroad
 and passed over the sea.
- ⁹Therefore I weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah; I drench you with my tears, for over your summer fruit and your harvest the shout has ceased.

10 And joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field, and in the vineyards no songs are sung,

O Heshbon and Elealeh:

no cheers are raised;
no treader treads out wine in the presses;
I have put an end to the shouting.

¹¹Therefore my inner parts moan like a lyre for

Moab,
and my inmost self for Kir-hareseth.

And when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, when he comes to his sanctuary to pray, he will not prevail.

13This is the word that the LORD spoke concerning

Moab in the past. ¹⁴But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "In three years, like the years of a hired worker, the glory of Moab will be brought into contempt, in spite of all his great multitude, and those who remain will be very few and feeble."

An Oracle Concerning Damascus

17:1 An oracle concerning Damascus.

and the kingdom from Damascus;

Behold, Damascus will cease to be a city and will become a heap of ruins.

The cities of Aroer are deserted:

they will be for flocks, which will lie down, and none will make them afraid.

The fortress will disappear from Ephraim, and the remnant of Syria will be like the glory of the children of Israel, declares the LORD of hosts.

And in that day the glory of Jacob will be brought low, and the fat of his flesh will grow lean.
 And it shall be as when the reaper gathers standing grain and his arm harvests the ears, and as when one gleans the ears of grain

Ah, the roar of nations; they roar like the roaring of mighty waters!

13The nations roar like the roaring of many waters, but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far away, chased like chaff on the mountains before the wind they thunder like the thundering of the sea!

An Oracle Concerning Cush

- 18:1 Ah, land of whirring wings that is beyond the rivers of Cush, [82]
- ²which sends ambassadors by the sea, in vessels of papyrus on the waters!
- Go, you swift messengers, to a nation, tall and smooth, to a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide.
- ³All you inhabitants of the world, you who dwell on the earth, when a signal is raised on the mountains, look! When a trumpet is blown, hear!
- ⁴For thus the LORD said to me: "I will quietly look from my dwelling
- like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest."

 5For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape,
 he cuts off the shoots with pruning hooks,

and the spreading branches he lops off and clears away.

⁶They shall all of them be left

And the birds of prey will summer on them, and all the beasts of the earth will winter on them.

to the birds of prey of the mountains and to the beasts of the earth

⁷At that time tribute will be brought to the LORD of hosts from a people tall and smooth, from a people feared near and far, a nation mighty and conquering, whose land the rivers divide, to Mount Zion, the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

An Oracle Concerning Egypt

19:1 An oracle concerning Egypt.

Behold, the LORD is riding on a swift cloud and comes to Egypt;

and the idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence, and the heart of the Egyptians will melt within them.

And I will stir up Egyptians against Egyptians, and they will fight, each against another and each against his neighbor, city against city, kingdom against kingdom;

and the spirit of the Egyptians within them will be emptied out.

and I will confound [83] their counsel; and they will inquire of the idols and the sorcerers, and the mediums and the necromancers; ⁴and I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a hard master, and a fierce king will rule over them,

⁵And the waters of the sea will be dried up,

declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

 ⁶ and its canals will become foul, and the branches of Egypt's Nile will diminish and dry up, reeds and rushes will rot away.
 ⁷ There will be bare places by the Nile, on the brink of the Nile.

and the river will be dry and parched, and all that is sown by the Nile will be parched, will be driven away, and will be no more.

8The fishermen will mourn and lament, all who cast a hook in the Nile:

who spread nets on the water.

The workers in combed flax will be in despair, and the weavers of white cotton.

10 Those who are the pillars of the land will be crushed, and all who work for pay will be grieved.

11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the wisest counselors of Pharaoh give stupid counsel.

How can you say to Pharaoh, and they will languish

a son of ancient kings"? 12Where then are your wise men?

"I am a son of the wise.

Let them tell you that they might know what the LORD of hosts has purposed against Egypt.

¹³The princes of Zoan have become fools, and the princes of Memphis are deluded; those who are the cornerstones of her tribes have made Egypt stagger. 14 The LORD has mingled within her a spirit of confusion.

and they will make Egypt stagger in all its deeds. as a drunken man staggers in his vomit. ¹⁵And there will be nothing for Egypt that head or tail, palm branch or reed, may do.

Egypt, Assyria, Israel Blessed

¹⁶In that day the Egyptians will be like women, and tremble with fear before the hand that the LORD of hosts shakes over them. ¹⁷And the land of Judah will become a terror to the Egyptians. Everyone to whom it is mentioned will fear because of the purpose that the LORD of hosts has purposed against them.

¹⁸In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One of these will be called the City of Destruction. [84]

¹⁹In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. ²⁰It will be a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt. When they cry to the LORD because of oppressors, he will send them a savior and defender, and deliver them. ²¹And the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day and worship with sacrifice and offering, and they will the LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing, and they will return to the LORD, and he will listen to their pleas for mercy and heal them.

²³In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and Assyria will come into Egypt, and Egypt make vows to the LORD and perform them. 22 And into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

24In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and

²⁴In that day Israel will be the third with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth, ²⁵whom the LORD of hosts has blessed, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

A Sign Against Egypt and Cush

20:1 In the year that the commander in chief, who was sent by Sargon the king of Assyria, came to Ashdod and fought against it and captured it— ²at that time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loose the sackcloth from your waist and take off your sandals from your feet," and he did so, walking naked and barefoot.

³Then the LORD said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Cush, [85] 4so shall the king of Assyria lead away the Egyptian captives and the Cushite exiles, both the young and the old, naked and barefoot, with buttocks uncovered, the nakedness of Egypt. ⁵Then they shall be dismayed and ashamed because of Cush their hope and of Egypt their boast. ⁶And the inhabitants of this coastland will say in that day, 'Behold, this is what has happened to those in whom we hoped and to whom we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria! And we, how shall we escape?"

Fallen, Fallen Is Babylon

21:1 The oracle concerning the wilderness of the sea.

As whirlwinds in the Negeb sweep on, it comes from the wilderness, from a terrible land.

A stern vision is told to me; the traitor betrays,

Go up, O Elam;

lay siege, O Media; all the sighing she has caused I bring to an end.

and the destroyer destroys.

³Therefore my loins are filled with anguish; pangs have seized me, like the pangs of a woman in labor; I am bowed down so that I cannot hear;

I am dismayed so that I cannot see.

My heart staggers; horror has appalled me; the twilight I longed for has been turned for me into trembling.

⁵They prepare the table, they spread the rugs.[86] they eat, they drink. Arise, O princes: oil the shield! ⁶For thus the Lord said to me: "Go. set a watchman: let him announce what he sees. ⁷When he sees riders, horsemen in pairs, riders on donkevs, riders on camels. let him listen diligently, very diligently." ⁸Then he who saw cried out: [87] "Upon a watchtower I stand, O Lord, continually by day, and at my post I am stationed whole nights. ⁹And behold, here come riders, horsemen in pairs!" And he answered. "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the carved images of her gods he has shattered to the ground."

- ¹⁰O mv threshed and winnowed one, what I have heard from the LORD of hosts. the God of Israel. I announce to you.
- ¹¹The oracle concerning Dumah.

One is calling to me from Seir,

12The watchman says:

- "Watchman, what time of the night? Watchman, what time of the night?"
- "Morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire: come back again."
- ¹³The oracle concerning Arabia.
- In the thickets in Arabia you will lodge,
- O caravans of Dedanites. 14 To the thirsty bring water;
- meet the fugitive with bread, O inhabitants of the land of Tema.
- ¹⁵For they have fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the press of battle.

16For thus the Lord said to me, "Within a year, according to the years of a hired worker, all the glory of Kedar will come to an end. ¹⁷And the remainder of the archers of the mighty men of the sons of Kedar will be few, for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken."

An Oracle Concerning Jerusalem

22:1 The oracle concerning the valley of vision.

What do you mean that you have gone up.

all of you, to the housetops, let me weep bitter tears; do not labor to comfort me people."

 ²you who are full of shoutings, tumultuous city, exultant town?
 Your slain are not slain with the sword or dead in battle.
 ³All your leaders have fled together; without the bow they were captured.
 All of you who were found were captured, though they had fled far away.
 ⁴Therefore I said: "Look away from me; concerning the destruction of the daughter of my

in the valley of vision,

⁷Your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen took their stand at the gates. ⁸He has taken away the covering of Judah.

In that day you looked to the weapons of the House of the Forest, ⁹and you saw that the breaches of the city of David were many. You collected the waters of the lower pool, ¹⁰and you counted the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. ¹¹You made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you did not look to him who did it, or see him who planned it long ago.

12 In that day the Lord GOD of hosts called for weeping and mourning, for baldness and wearing sackcloth; eating flesh and drinking wine.

"Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

14The LORD of hosts has revealed himself in my ears:

"Surely this iniquity will not be atoned for you until you ¹³and behold, joy and gladness, killing oxen and slaughtering sheep, die,"

says the Lord GOD of hosts.

15Thus says the Lord GOD of hosts, "Come, go to this steward, to Shebna, who is over the household, and say to him: ¹⁶What have you to do here, and whom have you here, that you have cut out here a tomb for yourself, you who cut out a tomb on the height and carve a dwelling for yourself in the rock? ¹⁷Behold, the LORD will harl you away violently, O

¹⁷Behold, the LORD will hurl you away violently, O you strong man. He will seize firm hold on you ¹⁸and whirl you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a wide land. There you shall die, and there shall be your glorious chariots, you shame of your master's house. ¹⁹I will thrust you from your office, that day I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, ²¹and I will clothe him with your robe, and will bind your sash on him, and will commit your authority to his hand. And he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. ²²And I will place on his shoulder the key of the vessel, from the cups to all the flagons. ²In that day declares the LORD of hosts, the peg that was fastened in a secure place will give way, and it will be cut down and fall, and the load that was on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken."

An Oracle Concerning Tyre and Sidon

23:1 The oracle concerning Tyre.

it is revealed to them.

Wail, O ships of Tarshish, for Tyre is laid waste, without house or harbor! From the land of Cyprus^[88]

²Be still, O inhabitants of the coast; the merchants of Sidon, who cross the sea, have filled you.

³And on many waters your revenue was the grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile;

you were the merchant of the nations.

⁴Be ashamed, O Sidon, for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saving:

"I have neither labored nor given birth, I have neither reared young men nor brought up young women."

5When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish over the report about Tvre.

to settle far away?

8Who has purposed this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants were princes, whose traders were the honored of the earth?

⁹The LORD of hosts has purposed it,

⁶Cross over to Tarshish;

⁷Is this your exultant city whose feet carried her wail, O inhabitants of the coast!

whose origin is from days of old,

to defile the pompous pride of all glory, ^[90]
to dishonor all the honored of the earth.

10 Cross over your land like the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish;

there is no restraint anymore.

11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea;
he has shaken the kingdoms;
the LORD has given command concerning Canaan to destroy its strongholds.

12 And he said:

"You will no more exult,

O oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon; arise, cross over to Cyprus, even there you will have no rest."

¹³Behold the land of the Chaldeans! This is the people that was not; ^[91] Assyria destined it for wild beasts. They erected their siege towers, they stripped her palaces bare, they made her a ruin.

for your stronghold is laid waste.

15 In that day Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the days^[92] of one king. At the end of seventy years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of the prostitute:

go about the city,
O forgotten prostitute!
Make sweet melody;
sing many songs,

16"Take a harp;

14Wail. O ships of Tarshish, that you may be remembered."

¹⁷At the end of seventy years, the LORD will visit Tyre, and she will return to her wages and will prostitute herself with all the kingdoms of the world on the face of the earth. ¹⁸Her merchandise and her wages will be holy to the LORD. It will not be stored or hoarded, but her merchandise will supply abundant food and fine clothing for those who dwell before the LORD.

Judgment on the Whole Earth

24:1 Behold, the LORD will empty the earth and make it desolate, and he will twist its surface and scatter its inhabitants

²And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest;
as with the slave, so with his master;

as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor.

³The earth shall be utterly empty and utterly plundered; for the LORD has spoken this word.

⁴The earth mourns and withers; the world languishes and withers; the highest people of the earth languish.

The earth lies defiled under its inhabitants; for they have transgressed the laws, broken the everlasting covenant.

Therefore a curse devours the earth, and its inhabitants suffer for their guilt; therefore the inhabitants of the earth are scorched, violated the statutes.

all the merry-hearted sigh.

- and few men are left.

 7The wine mourns,
 the vine languishes,
- ⁸The mirth of the tambourines is stilled, the noise of the jubilant has ceased, the mirth of the lyre is stilled.
- No more do they drink wine with singing;
 strong drink is bitter to those who drink it.
 The wasted city is broken down;
- every house is shut up so that none can enter.

 11 There is an outcry in the streets for lack of wine;
- all joy has grown dark; the gladness of the earth is banished.
- 12 Desolation is left in the city; the gates are battered into ruins.
- 13For thus it shall be in the midst of the earth

as when an olive tree is beaten, as at the gleaning when the grape harvest is done.

among the nations,

14They lift up their voices, they sing for joy; over the majesty of the LORD they shout from the west. [94]
15Therefore in the east [95] give glory to the LORD; in the coastlands of the sea, give glory to the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

16From the ends of the earth we hear songs of praise, of glory to the Righteous One.

But I say, "I waste away,
I waste away. Woe is me!
For the traitors have betrayed

For the traitors have betrayed, with betrayal the traitors have betrayed."

17Terror and the pit and the snare [96] are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth!
18He who flees at the sound of the terror shall fall into the pit, and he who climbs out of the pit

For the windows of heaven are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.

19 The earth is utterly broken, the earth is split apart, the earth is violently shaken.

20 The earth staggers like a drunken man; it sways like a hut; its transgression lies heavy upon it, and it falls, and will not rise again.

shall be caught in the snare.

21On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven, in heaven, and the kings of the earth, on the earth.
22They will be gathered together as prisoners in a pit;

as prisoners in a pit;
they will be shut up in a prison,
and after many days they will be punished.

23Then the moon will be confounded

²³Then the moon will be confounded and the sun ashamed, for the LORD of hosts reigns on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and his glory will be before his elders.

God Will Swallow Up Death Forever

I will exalt you; I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, plans formed of old, faithful and sure.

25:1 O LORD, you are my God;

it will never be rebuilt.

²For you have made the city a heap, the fortified city a ruin; the foreigners' palace is a city no more;

Therefore strong peoples will glorify you;
 cities of ruthless nations will fear you.
 For you have been a stronghold to the poor,

a stronghold to the needy in his distress.

as heat by the shade of a cloud, so the song of the ruthless is put down.

a shelter from the storm and a shade from the heat; for the breath of the ruthless is like a storm against a wall,

Slike heat in a dry place.

You subdue the noise of the foreigners;

⁶On this mountain the LORD of hosts will make for all a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wine, of rich food full of marrow, of aged wine well refined.

And he will swallow up on this mountain the covering that is cast over all peoples, the veil that is spread over all nations. ⁸He will swallow up death forever;

peoples

and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces, and the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth.

for the LORD has spoken.

9It will be said on that day.

"Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us.

This is the LORD; we have waited for him;

let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation."

10 For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain, and Moab shall be trampled down in his place, as straw is trampled down in a dunghill. [97]

¹¹And he will spread out his hands in the midst of it but the LORD will lay low his pompous pride together with the skill of his hands. ¹²And the high fortifications of his walls he will bring as a swimmer spreads his hands out to swim, lay low, and cast to the ground, to the dust.

You Keep Him in Perfect Peace

26:1 In that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city; he sets up salvation as walls and bulwarks.

²Open the gates, that the righteous nation that keeps faith may enter in.

³You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you.

⁵For he has humbled

the feet of the poor.

⁴Trust in the LORD forever, for the LORD GOD is an everlasting rock.

the inhabitants of the height, the lofty city.

casts it to the dust. ⁶The foot tramples it,

He lavs it low, lavs it low to the ground.

⁷The path of the righteous is level; you make level the way of the righteous.

⁸In the path of your judgments, O LORD, we wait for you; your name and remembrance are the desire of our soul.

⁹Mv soul yearns for you in the night;

the steps of the needy."

my spirit within me earnestly seeks you. For when your judgments are in the earth,

- the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.

 10 If favor is shown to the wicked,
- he does not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness he deals corruptly and does not see the majesty of the LORD.
- ¹¹O LORD, your hand is lifted up, but they do not see it. Let them see your zeal for your people, and be ashamed.

Let the fire for your adversaries consume them.

¹²O LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for you have indeed done for us all our works.

other lords besides you have ruled over us, but your name alone we bring to remembrance. ¹⁴They are dead, they will not live;

¹³O LORD our God,

they are shades, they will not arise: to that end you have visited them with destruction and wiped out all remembrance of them. ¹⁵But you have increased the nation, O LORD, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land. ¹⁶O LORD, in distress they sought you;

they poured out a whispered prayer when your discipline was upon them. 17Like a pregnant woman who writhes and cries out in her pangs when she is near to giving birth, so were we because of you, O LORD; ¹⁸we were pregnant, we writhed, but we have given birth to wind.

We have accomplished no deliverance in the earth, and the inhabitants of the world have not fallen.

19 Your dead shall live; their bodies shall rise.

You who dwell in the dust, awake and sing for joy! For your dew is a dew of light, and the earth will give birth to the dead.

20 Come. my people, enter your chambers, and shut your doors behind you; hide yourselves for a little while until the fury has passed by. ²¹For behold, the LORD is coming out from his place

to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity, and the earth will disclose the blood shed on it, and will no more cover its slain.

The Redemption of Israel

27:1 In that day the LORD with his hard and great and strong sword will punish Leviathan the fleeing serpent, Leviathan the twisting serpent, and he will slay the dragon that is in the sea.

serpent, Leviathan the twisting serpent, and he will slay the dragon that is in the sea.

In that day,

A pleasant vineyard, [99] sing of it!

I, the LORD, am its keeper;

every moment I water it.
```

Lest anyone punish it, I keep it night and day;

⁴I have no wrath.
Would that I had thorns and briers to battle!

I would march against them,
I would burn them up together.

Or let them lay hold of my protection,
let them make peace with me,
let them make peace with me."

⁶In days to come^[100] Jacob shall take root, Israel shall blossom and put forth shoots

⁷Has he struck them as he struck those who struck and fill the whole world with fruit

them?
Or have they been slain as their slayers were slain?

⁸Measure by measure, [101] by exile you contended with them;
he removed them with his fierce breath [102] in the day of the east wind.

9
Therefore by this the guilt of Jacob will be atoned for, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin:[103]

when he makes all the stones of the altars like chalkstones crushed to pieces, no Asherim or incense altars will remain standing.

10 Asilem of incerise alias will remain standing 10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness; there the calf grazes;

there it lies down and strips its branches.

11When its boughs are dry, they are broken;

For this is a people without discernment; therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them; he who formed them will show them no favor.

women come and make a fire of them

¹²In that day from the river Euphrates to the Brook of Egypt the LORD will thresh out the grain, and you will be gleaned one by one, O people of Israel. ¹³And in that day a great trumpet will be blown, and those who were lost in the land of Assyria and those who were driven out to the land of Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

Judgment on Ephraim and Jerusalem

28:1 Ah, the proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim, and the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of the rich valley of those overcome with wine!

²Behold, the Lord has one who is mighty and strong; like a storm of hail, a destroying tempest, like a storm of mighty, overflowing waters, he casts down to the earth with his hand.

will be trodden underfoot;

4and the fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is on the head of the rich valley, will be like a first-ripe fig before the summer: when someone sees it, he swallows it

³The proud crown of the drunkards of Ephraim as soon as it is in his hand.

5In that day the LORD of hosts will be a crown of glory, [104] and a diadem of beauty, to the remnant of his people,

- ⁶and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate.
- and stagger with strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, they are swallowed by [105] wine, they stagger with strong drink, they reel in vision, they stumble in giving judgment.
- For all tables are full of filthy vomit, with no space left.

 9 "To whom will he teach knowledge, here a little, there a little,"

⁷These also reel with wine and to whom will he explain the message?

Those who are weaned from the milk, those taken from the breast?

10 For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line,

11For by people of strange lips and with a foreign tongue
the LORD will speak to this people, 12to whom he has said,

give rest to the weary:

"This is rest:

and this is repose";
yet they would not hear.

13And the word of the LORD will be to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept, precept upon precept, precept upon precept line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little, that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

A Cornerstone in Zion

- 14Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers,
- who rule this people in Jerusalem!

 15Because you have said, "We have made a
- covenant with death,
 and with Sheol we have an agreement,
- when the overwhelming whip passes through it will not come to us, for we have made lies our refuge,
- and in falsehood we have taken shelter"; ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I am the one who has laid^[106] as a
- foundation in Zion, a stone, a tested stone,
- a precious cornerstone, of a sure foundation: 'Whoever believes will not be in haste.'
- And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plumb line; and hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the shelter."
- ¹⁸Then your covenant with death will be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand; when the overwhelming scourge passes through, you will be beaten down by it.

19 As often as it passes through it will take you;

for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be sheer terror to understand the message.

20 For the bed is too short to stretch oneself on, and the covering too narrow to wrap oneself in.

²¹For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim; as in the Valley of Gibeon he will be roused; to do his deed—strange is his deed! and to work his work—alien is his work!
²²Now therefore do not scoff, lest your bonds be made strong;

for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord GOD of hosts against the whole land.

23 Give ear, and hear my voice;

give attention, and hear my speech.

24Does he who plows for sowing plow continually?

and put in wheat in rows and barley in its proper place, and emmer [107] as the border?

26For he is rightly instructed;

25When he has leveled its surface, does he not scatter dill, sow cumin.

his God teaches him

Does he continually open and harrow his ground?

²⁷Dill is not threshed with a threshing sledge, nor is a cart wheel rolled over cumin, but dill is beaten out with a stick, and cumin with a rod.

²⁸Does one crush grain for bread? No, he does not thresh it forever; [108] when he drives his cart wheel over it with his horses, he does not crush it.

²⁹This also comes from the LORD of hosts; he is wonderful in counsel and excellent in wisdom.

The Siege of Jerusalem

29:1 Ah, Ariel, Ariel, the city where David encamped!

Add year to year:

let the feasts run their round.

²Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be moaning and lamentation,

and she shall be to me like an Ariel. [109]

And I will encamp against you all around, and will besiege you with towers and I will raise siegeworks against you.

⁴And you will be brought low; from the earth you shall speak, and from the dust your speech will be bowed down; your voice shall come from the ground like the voice of a ghost, and from the dust your speech shall whisper.

⁵But the multitude of your foreign foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the ruthless like passing chaff.

And in an instant, suddenly,

⁶you will be visited by the LORD of hosts with thunder and with earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.
⁷And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel.

all that fight against her and her stronghold and distress her, shall be like a dream, a vision of the night.

8 As when a hungry man dreams he is eating and awakes with his hunger not satisfied, or as when a thirsty man dreams he is drinking and awakes faint, with his thirst not quenched, so shall the multitude of all the nations be that fight against Mount Zion.

9Astonish yourselves [110] and be astonished; blind yourselves and be blind!

Be drunk, but not with wine; stagger, but not with strong drink!

10For the LORD has poured out upon you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes (the prophets),

- and covered your heads (the seers).
- the words of a book that is sealed. When men give it to one who can read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot, for it is sealed." ¹²And when they give the book to one who cannot read, saying, "Read this," he says, "I cannot read."

¹¹And the vision of all this has become to you like

- 13And the Lord said:"Because this people draw near with their mouth and honor me with their lips,
- while their hearts are far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment taught by men,
- 14therefore, behold, I will again do wonderful things with this people, with wonder upon wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the discernment of their discerning men shall be hidden."
- ¹⁵Ah, you who hide deep from the LORD your whose deeds are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us? Who knows us?"

16 You turn things upside down!

Shall the potter be regarded as the clay, that the thing made should say of its maker, "He did not make me"; or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding"?

17 Is it not yet a very little while counsel.

until Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be regarded as a forest? ¹⁸In that day the deaf shall hear the words of a book, and out of their gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind shall see.

19The meek shall obtain fresh joy in the LORD, and the poor among mankind shall exult in the Holy

One of Israel.

20 For the ruthless shall come to nothing and the scoffer cease, and all who watch to do evil shall be cut off,

- ²¹who by a word make a man out to be an offender, and lay a snare for him who reproves in the gate, and with an empty plea turn aside him who is in the right.
- ²²Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob:
- "Jacob shall no more be ashamed, no more shall his face grow pale. ²³For when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in his midst.

- they will sanctify my name; they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. ²⁴And those who go astray in spirit will come t
- ²⁴And those who go astray in spirit will come to understanding, and those who murmur will accept instruction."

Do Not Go Down to Egypt

- 30:1 "Ah, stubborn children," declares the LORD, "who carry out a plan, but not mine, and who make an alliance, [111] but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin;
- ²who set out to go down to Egypt, without asking for my direction, to take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh and to seek shelter in the shadow of Egypt!
 ³Therefore shall the protection of Pharaoh turn to
 - your shame,
 and the shelter in the shadow of Egypt to your humiliation.
- ⁴For though his officials are at Zoan and his envoys reach Hanes,
- 5everyone comes to shame through a people that cannot profit them, that brings neither help nor profit, but shame and disgrace."
- ⁶An oracle on the beasts of the Negeb.

from where come the lioness and the lion, the adder and the flying fiery serpent, they carry their riches on the backs of donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to a people that cannot profit them.

⁷Egypt's help is worthless and empty; therefore I have called her "Rahah who sits still"

Through a land of trouble and anguish,

A Rebellious People

- And now, go, write it before them on a tablet and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come as a witness forever.

 9 For they are a repulling people.
- ⁹For they are a rebellious people, lying children, children unwilling to hear
- the instruction of the LORD;

 10 who say to the seers, "Do not see," and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us what is

- and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us what is right;
- speak to us smooth things, prophesy illusions,
- ¹¹leave the way, turn aside from the path, let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel."
- let us hear no more about the Holy One of Israel." 12Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel,
- "Because you despise this word and trust in oppression and perverseness and rely on them,
- ¹³therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach in a high wall, bulging out, and about to collapse. whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant; ¹⁴and its breaking is like that of a potter's vessel that is smashed so ruthlessly that among its fragments not a shard is found with which to take fire from the hearth. or to dip up water out of the cistern."

¹⁵For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel.

"In returning [113] and rest you shall be saved; in quietness and in trust shall be your strength." But you were unwilling, ¹⁶ and you said, "No! We will flee upon horses";

therefore you shall flee away: and, "We will ride upon swift steeds": therefore your pursuers shall be swift. ¹⁷A thousand shall flee at the threat of one;

at the threat of five you shall flee. till vou are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like a signal on a hill.

The LORD Will Be Gracious

- 18 Therefore the LORD waits to be gracious to you, and therefore he exalts himself to show mercy to you.
- For the LORD is a God of justice; blessed are all those who wait for him.
- ¹⁹For a people shall dwell in Zion, in Jerusalem; you shall weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the sound of your cry. As soon as he hears it, he answers you. ²⁰And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your Teacher will not hide himself anymore, but your eyes shall see your Teacher. ²¹And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, "This is the way, walk in it,"
- when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left. ²²Then you will defile your carved idols overlaid with silver and your gold-plated metal images. You will scatter them as unclean things. You will say to them, "Be gone!"
- ²³And he will give rain for the seed with which you your livestock will graze in large pastures, ²⁴and the oxen and the donkeys that work the ground will eat seasoned fodder, which has been winnowed with shovel and fork. ²⁵And on every lofty mountain and every high hill there will be brooks running with water, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. ²⁶Moreover, the light of the moon will be as the light sow the ground, and bread, the produce of the ground, which will be rich and plenteous. In that day wounds inflicted by his blow.

27Behold, the name of the LORD comes from afar, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke: [114]

his lips are full of fury, of the sun, and the light of the sun will be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day when the LORD binds up the brokenness of his people, and heals the

and his tongue is like a devouring fire;

28 his breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck; to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads astray.

29 You shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept, and gladness of heart, as when one sets out to the sound of the flute to go to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel. ³⁰And the LORD will cause his majestic voice to be heard and the descending blow of his arm to be seen, in furious anger and a flame of devouring fire, with a cloudburst and storm and hailstones. ³¹The Assyrians will be terror-stricken at the voice of the LORD, when he strikes with his rod. ³²And every stroke of the appointed staff that the LORD lays on them will be to the sound of tambourines and lyres. Battling with brandished arm, he will fight with them. ³³For a burning place^[115] has long been prepared; indeed, for the king it is made ready, its pyre made deep and wide, with fire and wood in abundance; the breath of the LORD, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

Woe to Those Who Go Down to Egypt

31:1 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for help and rely on horses, who trust in chariots because they are many and in horsemen because they are very strong, but do not look to the Holy One of Israel or consult the LORD!

²And yet he is wise and brings disaster; he does not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers and against the helpers of those who work iniquity.

and against the helpers of those who work iniquity ³The Egyptians are man, and not God, and their horses are flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out his hand, the helper will stumble, and he who is helped will fall.

and they will all perish together.

⁴For thus the LORD said to me, "As a lion or a young lion growls over his prey, and when a band of shepherds is called out against him so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its hill.

5 Like birds hovering, so the LORD of hosts will protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver it; he will spare and rescue it."

6 Turn to him from whom people 117 have deeply

he is not terrified by their shouting or daunted at their noise.

revolted, O children of Israel. ⁷For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold, which your hands have sinfully made for you.

8"And the Assyrian shall fall by a sword, not of man; and a sword, not of man, shall devour him; and he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be put to forced labor.

9His rock shall pass away in terror, and his officers desert the standard in panic," declares the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and whose furnace is in Jerusalem.

A King Will Reign in Righteousness

- 32:1 Behold, a king will reign in righteousness, and princes will rule in justice.
- ²Each will be like a hiding place from the wind, a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place.
- like the shade of a great rock in a weary land. ³Then the eyes of those who see will not be closed,
- and the ears of those who hear will give attention.

 The heart of the hasty will understand and know,
- and the tongue of the stammerers will hasten to speak distinctly.
- ⁵The fool will no more be called noble, nor the scoundrel said to be honorable.
- ⁶For the fool speaks folly, and his heart is busy with iniquity, to practice ungodliness,
- to utter error concerning the LORD, to leave the craving of the hungry unsatisfied, and to deprive the thirsty of drink.
- ⁷As for the scoundrel—his devices are evil;

he plans wicked schemes to ruin the poor with lying words, even when the plea of the needy is right.

⁸But he who is noble plans noble things, and on noble things he stands.

Complacent Women Warned of Disaster

⁹Rise up. vou women who are at ease, hear my voice: you complacent daughters, give ear to my speech. ¹⁰In little more than a vear vou will shudder, vou complacent women: for the grape harvest fails. the fruit harvest will not come.

¹¹Tremble, you women who are at ease, shudder, vou complacent ones: strip, and make yourselves bare, and tie sackcloth around your waist.

¹²Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.

13 for the soil of my people growing up in thorns and briers, yes, for all the joyous houses in the exultant city.

¹⁴For the palace is forsaken, the populous city deserted: the hill and the watchtower will become dens forever,

a pasture of flocks;

15 until the Spirit is poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness becomes a fruitful field, and the fruitful field is deemed a forest.

a joy of wild donkeys.

- 16Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness abide in the fruitful field.
 17And the effect of righteousness will be peace, and the result of righteousness, quietness and trust [118] forever.
- 18 My people will abide in a peaceful habitation, in secure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.
 19 And it will hail when the forest falls down,
- and the city will be utterly laid low.

 20 Happy are you who sow beside all waters, who let the feet of the ox and the donkey range free.

O LORD, Be Gracious to Us

33:1 Ah, you destroyer, who yourself have not been destroyed, you traitor, whom none has betraved!

When you have ceased to destroy, you will be destroyed; and when you have finished betraying, they will betray you.

²O LORD, be gracious to us; we wait for you. Be our arm every morning, our salvation in the time of trouble.

3At the tumultuous noise peoples flee;

when you lift yourself up, nations are scattered, ⁴and your spoil is gathered as the caterpillar gathers; as locusts leap, it is leapt upon.

5The LORD is evalted, for he dwell

The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high;
 he will fill Zion with justice and righteousness, and he will be the stability of your times,

- abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge; the fear of the LORD is Zion's [119] treasure.
- ⁷Behold, their heroes cry in the streets; the envoys of peace weep bitterly.
- ⁸The highways lie waste; the traveler ceases.
- Covenants are broken; cities [120] are despised; there is no regard for man.
- ⁹The land mourns and languishes;
- Lebanon is confounded and withers away; Sharon is like a desert.
 - and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.
- 10"Now I will arise," says the LORD, "now I will lift myself up; now I will be exalted.
- 11 You conceive chaff; you give birth to stubble; your breath is a fire that will consume you.
- ¹²And the peoples will be as if burned to lime, like thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire."

- 13Hear. you who are far off, what I have done; and you who are near, acknowledge my might. 14The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless:
- "Who among us can dwell with the consuming fire? Who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings?" ¹⁵He who walks righteously and speaks uprightly,
- who despises the gain of oppressions, who shakes his hands, lest they hold a bribe, who stops his ears from hearing of bloodshed and shuts his eyes from looking on evil,
- ¹⁶he will dwell on the heights; his place of defense will be the fortresses of rocks; his bread will be given him; his water will be sure.
- ¹⁷Your eyes will behold the king in his beauty;
- they will see a land that stretches afar. ¹⁸Your heart will muse on the terror:
- "Where is he who counted, where is he who weighed the tribute?
- Where is he who counted the towers?" ¹⁹You will see no more the insolent people, the people of an obscure speech that you cannot comprehend, stammering in a tongue that you cannot understand.

20 Behold Zion, the city of our appointed feasts!

Your eyes will see Jerusalem, an untroubled habitation, an immovable tent, whose stakes will never be plucked up, nor will any of its cords be broken. ²¹But there the LORD in majesty will be for us a place of broad rivers and streams, where no galley with oars can go, nor majestic ship can pass.

²²For the LORD is our judge; the LORD is our lawgiver; the LORD is our king; he will save us.
²³Your cords hang loose;

they cannot hold the mast firm in its place or keep the sail spread out.

Then prey and spoil in abundance will be divided; even the lame will take the prey.

²⁴And no inhabitant will say, "I am sick";

Judgment on the Nations

- 34:1 Draw near, O nations, to hear, and give attention, O peoples!

 Let the earth hear, and all that fills it; the world, and all that comes from it.
- ²For the LORD is enraged against all the nations, and furious against all their host; he has devoted them to destruction, [121] has given them over for slaughter.
- ³Their slain shall be cast out, and the stench of their corpses shall rise; the mountains shall flow with their blood.
- ⁴All the host of heaven shall rot away, and the skies roll up like a scroll.
- All their host shall fall,
 - as leaves fall from the vine, like leaves falling from the fig t
 - like leaves falling from the fig tree.
- ⁵For my sword has drunk its fill in the heavens; behold, it descends for judgment upon Edom, upon the people I have devoted to destruction.

it is gorged with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats,
with the fat of the kidneys of rams.
For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

Wild oxen shall fall with them, and young steers with the mighty bulls.
Their land shall drink its fill of blood,

⁶The LORD has a sword; it is sated with blood;

a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

⁹And the streams of Edom^[122] shall be turned into pitch, and her soil into sulfur:

her land shall become burning pitch.

10 Night and day it shall not be quenched;

and their soil shall be gorged with fat.

⁸For the LORD has a day of vengeance, its smoke shall go up forever.

From generation to generation it shall lie waste;
none shall pass through it forever and ever.

none shall pass through it forever and ever.

11But the hawk and the porcupine [123] shall possess it,

He shall stretch the line of confusion [124] over it, and the plumb line of emptiness.

12 Its nobles—there is no one there to call it a kingdom, and all its princes shall be nothing.

the owl and the raven shall dwell in it

13Thorns shall grow over its strongholds, nettles and thistles in its fortresses.

It shall be the haunt of jackals, an abode for ostriches. [125]

14And wild animals shall meet with hyenas;

the wild goat shall cry to his fellow; indeed, there the night bird settles and finds for herself a resting place.

15 There the owl nests and lays and hatches and gathers her young in her shadow.

and hatches and gathers her young in her shadow; indeed, there the hawks are gathered, each one with her mate.

16Seek and read from the book of the LORD:

Seek and read from the book of the LORD:

Not one of these shall be missing;

none shall be without her mate.

and his Spirit has gathered them. ¹⁷He has cast the lot for them;

For the mouth of the LORD has commanded.

his hand has portioned it out to them with the line; they shall possess it forever;

from generation to generation they shall dwell in it.

The Ransomed Shall Return

- 35:1 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; the desert shall rejoice and blossom like the crocus; ²it shall blossom abundantly
- and rejoice with joy and singing.

 The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.

 They shall see the glory of the LORD, the majesty of our God.
- ³Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.
 ⁴Say to those who have an anxious heart, "Be strong; fear not!
 Behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God.

He will come and save you."

⁵Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; and the tongue of the mute sing for joy.

For waters break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;

7the burning sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water;
in the haunt of iackals, where they lie down,

⁶then shall the lame man leap like a deer,

⁸And a highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Way of Holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it.

the grass shall become reeds and rushes.

It shall belong to those who walk on the way; even if they are fools, they shall not go astray. [127] No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it;

they shall not be found there, but the redeemed shall walk there. ¹⁰And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy.

and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

Sennacherib Invades Judah

⁴And the Rabshakeh said to them, "Say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: On what do you rest this trust of yours? ⁵Do you think that mere words are strategy and power for war? In whom do you now trust, that you have rebelled against me? ⁶Behold, you are trusting in Egypt, that broken reed of a staff, which will pierce the hand of any man who leans on it. Such is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. ⁷But if you say to me,

"We trust in the LORD our God," is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and to Jerusalem, "You shall worship before this altar"? ⁸Come now, make a wager with my master the king of Assyria: I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. ⁹How then can you repulse a single captain among the least of my master's servants, when you trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? ¹⁰Moreover, is it without the LORD that I have come up against this land to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it."

¹¹Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it. Do not speak to us in the language of Judah within the hearing of the people who are on the wall." ¹²But the Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me to speak these words to your master and to you, and not to the men sitting on the wall, who are doomed with you to eat their own dung and drink their own urine?"

voice in the language of Judah: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! 14Thus says the king: 'Do not let Hezekiah deceive vou, for he will not be able to deliver you. 15Do not let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD by saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us. This city will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." 16Do not listen to Hezekiah. For thus says the king of Assyria: Make your peace with me^[129] and come out to me. Then each one of you will eat of his own vine, and each one of his own fig tree, and each one of you will drink the water of his own cistern, ¹⁷until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸Beware lest Hezekiah mislead you by saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? ²⁰Who among all the gods of these lands have delivered their lands out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?" ²¹But they were silent and answered him not a word, for the king's command was, "Do not answer him." ²²Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and Joah the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of the

13 Then the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud

Hezekiah Seeks Isaiah's Help

37:1 As soon as King Hezekiah heard it, he tore his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of the LORD. ²And he sent Eliakim. who was over the household, and Shebna the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz. ³Thev said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of distress, of rebuke, and of disgrace: children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to bring them forth. 4It may be that the LORD your God will hear the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria

⁵When the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah, ⁶Isaiah said to them, "Say to your master, 'Thus says the LORD: Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the young has sent to mock the living God, and will rebuke the words that the LORD your God has heard; therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left."

I will put a spirit in him, so that he shall hear a rumor and return to his own land, and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land."

8The Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah, for he had heard that the king had left Lachish. 9Now the king heard men of the king of Assyria have reviled me. ⁷Behold.

concerning Tirhakah king of Cush, [130] "He has set out to fight against you." And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 10"Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah: 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, devoting them to destruction. And shall you be delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my fathers destroyed, Gozan, delivered? ¹²Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my fathers destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim, the king of Hena, or the king of Ivvah?"

Hezekiah's Prayer for Deliverance

¹⁴Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵And Hezekiah praved to the LORD: ¹⁶"O LORD of hosts. God of Israel, enthroned above the cherubim, you are the God, you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth. 17 Incline your ear, O LORD, and hear; open vour eyes. O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he has sent to mock the living God. ¹⁸Truly, O LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their lands, ¹⁹ and have cast their aods into the fire. For they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone. Therefore they were destroyed. ²⁰So now, O LORD our God. save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are the LORD."

Sennacherib's Fall

- ²¹Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Because you have prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, ²²this is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him:
- "She despises you, she scorns you the virgin daughter of Zion; she wags her head behind you the daughter of Jerusalem.
- 23"Whom have you mocked and reviled?
 Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes to the heights?
 Against the Holy One of Israel!
 24By your servants you have mocked the Lord, and you have said, With my many chariots
 I have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the far recesses of Lebanon, to cut down its tallest cedars,
 its choicest cypresses,

²⁵I dug wells and drank waters, to dry up with the sole of my foot all the streams of Egypt.

to come to its remotest height, its most fruitful forest

26"Have you not heard that I determined it long ago?

I planned from days of old
what now I bring to pass, that you should make fortified cities
crash into heaps of ruins,

27 while their inhabitants, shorn of strength, are dismayed and confounded, and have become like plants of the field and like tender grass, like grass on the housetops, blighted [131] before it is grown.

28"I know your sitting down and your going out and coming in, and your raging against me. ²⁹Because you have raged against me and your complacency has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.'

30"And this shall be the sign for you: this year you shall eat what grows of itself, and in the second year what springs from that. Then in the third year sow and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit.

31 And the surviving remnant of the house of Judah shall again take root downward and bear fruit upward. 32 For out of Jerusalem shall go a remnant.

of the LORD of hosts will do this.

33."Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not come into this city or shoot an arrow there or come before it with a shield or cast up a siege mound against it. 34By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come into this city, declares the LORD.

and out of Mount Zion a band of survivors. The zeal ³⁵For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake and for the sake of my servant David."

 ³⁶And the angel of the LORD went out and struck down a hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. And when people arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. ³⁷Then Sennacherib king of Assyria departed and returned home and lived at Nineveh. ³⁸And as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god.

returned nome and lived at Nineven. SANd as he was worshiping in the house of Nisroch his god, Adrammelech and Sharezer, his sons, struck him down with the sword. And after they escaped into the land of Ararat, Esarhaddon his son reigned in his place.

Hezekiah's Sickness and Recovery

at the point of death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD: Set your house in order, for you shall die, you shall not recover."[132] ²Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, ³and said, "Please, O LORD, remember how I have walked before you in faithfulness and with a whole heart, and 4Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah: 5"Go and say to Hezekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer; I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. [133] ⁶I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and will defend this city.

This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has promised:
 Behold, I will make the shadow cast by the declining sun on the dial of Ahaz turn back ten steps." So the sun turned back on the dial the ten steps by which it had declined. [134]

⁹A writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness:

10 I said, In the middle [135] of my days
I must depart;
I am consigned to the gates of Sheol

for the rest of my years.

11 said. I shall not see the LORD.

the LORD in the land of the living; I shall look on man no more among the inhabitants of the world. 12 My dwelling is plucked up and removed from me

12My dwelling is plucked up and removed fror like a shepherd's tent; like a weaver I have rolled up my life; he cuts me off from the loom;
from day to night you bring me to an end; 13I calmed myself 136 until morning;

like a lion he breaks all my bones; from day to night you bring me to an end.

I moan like a dove. My eyes are weary with looking upward.

O Lord, I am oppressed; be my pledge of safety! 15What shall I say? For he has spoken to me, and he himself has done it.

I walk slowly all my years

¹⁴Like a swallow or a crane I chirp;

behind your back.

¹⁸For Sheol does not thank you; death does not praise you; those who go down to the pit do not hope for your faithfulness. ¹⁹The living, the living, he thanks you, as I do this day: the father makes known to the children your faithfulness.

²⁰The LORD will save me, and we will play my music on stringed instruments all the days of our lives.

at the house of the LORD.

²¹Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs and apply it to the boil, that he may recover." ²²Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?"

Envoys from Babylon

39:1 At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent envoys with letters and a present to Hezekiah, for he heard that he had been sick and had recovered. ²And Hezekiah welcomed them gladly. And he showed them his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the spices, the precious oil, his whole armory, all that was found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

Then Isaiah the prophet came to King Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say? And from where did they come to you?" Hezekiah said, "They have come to me from a far country, from Babylon."

He said, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered. "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them."

⁵Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: ⁶Behold, the days are coming, when Nothing shall be left, says the LORD. ⁷And some of your own sons, who will come from you, whom you will father, shall be taken away, and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon." ⁸Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD that you have spoken is good." For he thought, "There will be peace and security in my days."

Comfort for God's People

- 40:1 Comfort, comfort my people, says your God.
- ²Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that her warfare [137] is ended, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins
- ³A voice cries: [138]
- "In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD; make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
- ⁴Every valley shall be lifted up, and every mountain and hill be made low; the uneven ground shall become level, and the rough places a plain.
- ⁵And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken."

The Word of God Stands Forever

- ⁶A voice says, "Cry!"

 And I said, [139] "What shall I cry?"

 All flesh is grass, and all its beauty [140] is like the flower of the field.

- ⁷The grass withers, the flower fades when the breath of the LORD blows on it; surely the people are grass.
- The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever.

The Greatness of God

⁹Get you up to a high mountain, O Zion, herald of good news:[141] lift up your voice with strength, O Jerusalem, herald of good news:[142] lift it up. fear not: say to the cities of Judah. "Behold your God!" ¹⁰Behold. the Lord GOD comes with might, and his arm rules for him: behold, his reward is with him. and his recompense before him. ¹¹He will tend his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms; he will carry them in his bosom, and gently lead those that are with young.

and the hills in a balance? ¹³Who has measured [143] the Spirit of the LORD. or what man shows him his counsel? 14Whom did he consult, and who made him understand? Who taught him the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and showed him the way of understanding? 15Behold, the nations are like a drop from a bucket, and are accounted as the dust on the scales: behold, he takes up the coastlands like fine dust. ¹⁶Lebanon would not suffice for fuel, nor are its beasts enough for a burnt offering. ¹⁷All the nations are as nothing before him, they are accounted by him as less than nothing and emptiness. ¹⁸To whom then will you liken God, or what likeness compare with him? 19 An idol! A craftsman casts it, and a goldsmith overlays it with gold and casts for it silver chains. ²⁰He who is too impoverished for an offering chooses wood^[144] that will not rot; he seeks out a skillful craftsman to set up an idol that will not move.

²¹Do you not know? Do you not hear?
Has it not been told you from the beginning?
Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth?

the earth?

22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to dwell in;

who brings princes to nothing, and makes the rulers of the earth as emptiness.
Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows on them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble.

²⁵To whom then will you compare me, that I should be like him? says the Holy One.

²⁶Lift up your eyes on high and see:

who created these?

He who brings out their host by number,
calling them all by name,
by the greatness of his might,
and because he is strong in power not one is missing.

Why do you say, O Jacob,
and speak, O Israel,
"My way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God"?

²⁸Have you not known? Have you not heard?
The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth.

He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. ²⁹He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength.

30 Even youths shall faint and be weary, and young men shall fall exhausted;

31 but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength;

they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint.

Fear Not, For I Am with You

41:1 Listen to me in silence,

O coastlands;

let the peoples renew their strength; let them approach, then let them speak:

let us together draw near for judgment.

²Who stirred up one from the east whom victory meets at every step? [145] He gives up nations before him, so that he tramples kings underfoot;

he makes them like dust with his sword, like driven stubble with his bow.

like driven stubble with his bow.

³He pursues them and passes on safely,

by paths his feet have not trod.

⁴Who has performed and done this, calling the generations from the beginning?

I. the LORD, the first.

and with the last; I am he.

⁵The coastlands have seen and are afraid; the ends of the earth tremble;

and says to his brother, "Be strong!"

The craftsman strengthens the goldsmith, and he who smooths with the hammer him who they have drawn near and come. ⁶Evervone helps his neighbor strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good"; and they strengthen it with nails so that it cannot be moved.

⁸But you, Israel, my servant,
Jacob, whom I have chosen,
the offspring of Abraham, my friend;

⁹you whom I took from the ends of the earth

the offspring of Abraham, my friend;

you whom I took from the ends of the earth, and called from its farthest corners, saying to you, "You are my servant,
I have chosen you and not cast you off";

10fear not, for I am with you;

be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand.

¹¹Behold, all who are incensed against you shall be as nothing and shall perish.

12 You shall seek those who contend with you, but you shall not find them; those who war against you shall be as nothing at all.

shall be put to shame and confounded;

hold your right hand; it is I who say to you, "Fear not, I am the one who helps you."

¹⁴Fear not, you worm Jacob, them away,

13 For I, the LORD your God, those who strive against you you men of Israel!

I am the one who helps you, declares the LORD; your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.

15Behold, I make of you a threshing sledge, new, sharp, and having teeth; you shall thresh the mountains and crush them, and you shall make the hills like chaff:

16 you shall winnow them, and the wind shall carry and the tempest shall scatter them.

And you shall rejoice in the LORD; in the Holy One of Israel you shall glory.

17When the poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue is parched with thirst,
I the LORD will answer them;
I the God of Israel will not forsake them.
18I will open rivers on the bare heights.

and fountains in the midst of the valleys.

I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.

19 I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle, and the olive.

I will set in the desert the cypress, the plane and the pine together, 20 that they may see and know, may consider and understand together.

the plane and the pline together,

20 that they may see and know, may consider and understand together, that the hand of the LORD has done this,
the Holy One of Israel has created it.

The Futility of Idols

²¹Set forth your case, says the LORD;
bring your proofs, says the King of Jacob.
²²Let them bring them, and tell us what is to happen.

Tell us the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, that we may know their outcome; or declare to us the things to come.

²³Tell us what is to come hereafter, that we may know that you are gods; do good, or do harm, that we may be dismayed and terrified.

²⁴Behold, you are nothing, and your work is less than nothing; an abomination is he who chooses you.

25 I stirred up one from the north, and he has come, from the rising of the sun, and he shall call upon my name;

he shall trample on rulers as on mortar, as the potter treads clay.

²⁶Who declared it from the beginning, that we might know, and beforehand, that we might say, "He is right"? There was none who declared it, none who proclaimed, none who heard your words. ²⁷I was the first to say^[147] to Zion, "Behold, here they are!"

and I give to Jerusalem a herald of good news.

28But when I look, there is no one;

among these there is no counselor who, when I ask, gives an answer. ²⁹Behold, they are all a delusion;

their works are nothing; their metal images are empty wind.

The LORD's Chosen Servant

- 42:1 Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations.
- he will bring forth justice to the nations.

 ²He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street:

³a bruised reed he will not break.

- and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice.

 He will not grow faint or be discouraged [148] till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law.
- ⁵Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people on it and spirit to those who walk in it:
- 6"I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, ⁷to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

a light for the nations,

8 I am the LORD; that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to carved idols.
9 Behold, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them."

Sing to the LORD a New Song

- 10Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise from the end of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that fills it, the coastlands and their inhabitants.
- 11Let the desert and its cities lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar inhabits; let the habitants of Sela sing for joy,
- let them shout from the top of the mountains.

 12 Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the coastlands.

 13 The LORD goes out like a mighty man, like a man of war he stirs up his zeal:
- he cries out, he shouts aloud,
 he shows himself mighty against his foes.
- 14For a long time I have held my peace; I have kept still and restrained myself; now I will cry out like a woman in labor; I will gasp and pant.
- 15 will lay waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their vegetation;

I will turn the rivers into islands. [149] and dry up the pools. 16 And I will lead the blind in a way that they do not know, in paths that they have not known I will guide them.

I will turn the darkness before them into light, the rough places into level ground. These are the things I do.

and I do not forsake them. ¹⁷They are turned back and utterly put to shame, who trust in carved idols.

who say to metal images, "You are our gods."

Israel's Failure to Hear and See

- 18 Hear, you deaf, and look, you blind, that you may see! 19Who is blind but my servant, or deaf as my messenger whom I send? Who is blind as my dedicated one [150] or blind as the servant of the LORD?
- ²⁰He sees many things, but does not observe them; his ears are open, but he does not hear.
- ²¹The LORD was pleased, for his righteousness' sake.
 - to magnify his law and make it glorious.
- ²²But this is a people plundered and looted; they are all of them trapped in holes and hidden in prisons;
- they have become plunder with none to rescue. spoil with none to say, "Restore!"
- ²³Who among you will give ear to this, will attend and listen for the time to come?
- ²⁴Who gave up Jacob to the looter, and Israel to the plunderers?

Was it not the LORD, against whom we have sinned, in whose ways they would not walk, and whose law they would not obey?

25So he poured on him the heat of his anger and the might of battle; it set him on fire all around, but he did not understand:

understand;
it burned him up, but he did not take it to heart.

Israel's Only Savior

43:1 But now thus says the LORD, he who created you, O Jacob, he who formed you, O Israel:

"Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by name, you are mine.

²When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm

you;
when you walk through fire you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you.

³For I am the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.

I give Egypt as your ransom,
Cush and Seba in exchange for you.

⁴Because you are precious in my eyes, and honored, and I love you, I give men in return for you, peoples in exchange for your life.

⁵Fear not, for I am with you; I will bring your offspring from the east, and from the west I will gather you. ⁶I will say to the north. Give up. and to the south. Do not withhold: bring my sons from afar and my daughters from the end of the earth, ⁷everyone who is called by my name, whom I created for my glory, whom I formed and made." ⁸Bring out the people who are blind, yet have eyes, who are deaf, yet have ears! ⁹All the nations gather together, and the peoples assemble. Who among them can declare this. and show us the former things?

and show us the former things?
Let them bring their witnesses to prove them right, and let them hear and say, It is true.

10"You are my witnesses," declares the LORD, "and my servant whom I have chosen, that you may know and believe me

Before me no god was formed, nor shall there be any after me.

and understand that I am he.

and besides me there is no savior.

12 declared and saved and proclaimed, when there was no strange god among you;
and you are my witnesses," declares the LORD,
"and I am God.

13 Also henceforth I am he;
there is none who can deliver from my hand:

¹¹I. I am the LORD,

14Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For your sake I send to Babylon and bring them all down as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships in which they

I work, and who can turn it back?"

- rejoice.

 15I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."
- 16Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters,
- a path in the mighty waters, ¹⁷who brings forth chariot and horse, they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: ¹⁸"Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. ¹⁹Behold, I am doing a new thing;

army and warrior;

now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. ²⁰The wild beasts will honor me.

for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert. to give drink to my chosen people, ²¹the people whom I formed for myself the iackals and the ostriches, that they might declare my praise. 22"Yet vou did not call upon me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel! ²³You have not brought me your sheep for burnt offerings, or honored me with your sacrifices.

I have not burdened you with offerings, or wearied you with frankincense. ²⁴You have not bought me sweet cane with money, or satisfied me with the fat of your sacrifices. But you have burdened me with your sins; you have wearied me with your iniquities.

who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins. ²⁶Put me in remembrance; let us argue together;

set forth your case, that you may be proved right. ²⁷Your first father sinned.

and your mediators transgressed against me. ²⁸Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary, and deliver Jacob to utter destruction and Israel to reviling.

25"LIam he

Israel the LORD's Chosen

- 44:1 "But now hear, O Jacob my servant, Israel whom I have chosen!
- ²Thus says the LORD who made you, who formed you from the womb and will help you: Fear not, O Jacob my servant,
- Jeshurun whom I have chosen.
- ³For I will pour water on the thirsty land, and streams on the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your offspring,
 - and my blessing on your descendants.
- ⁴They shall spring up among the grass like willows by flowing streams.
- ⁵This one will say, 'I am the LORD's,' another will call on the name of Jacob, and another will write on his hand, 'The LORD's,' and name himself by the name of Israel."

Besides Me There Is No God

- Thus says the LORD, the King of Israel and his Redeemer, the LORD of hosts:
 am the first and I am the last; besides me there is no god.
 Who is like me? Let him proclaim it. [151]
- ⁷Who is like me? Let him proclaim it.^[151]
 Let him declare and set it before me, since I appointed an ancient people.
 Let them declare what is to come, and what will happen.
- ⁸Fear not, nor be afraid; have I not told you from of old and declared it? And you are my witnesses!
- Is there a God besides me?
 There is no Rock; I know not anv."

The Folly of Idolatry

⁹All who fashion idols are nothing, and the things they delight in do not profit. Their witnesses neither see nor know, that they may be put to shame. ¹⁰Who fashions a god or casts an idol that is profitable for nothing? ¹¹Behold, all his companions shall be put to shame, and the craftsmen are only human. Let them all assemble, let them stand forth. They shall be terrified; they shall be put to shame together.

12The ironsmith takes a cutting tool and works it over the coals. He fashions it with hammers and works it with his strong arm. He becomes hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water and is faint. ¹³The carpenter stretches a line; he marks it out with a pencil. He shapes it with planes and marks it with a compass. He shapes it into the figure of a man, with compass. He shapes it with planes and marks it with a compass. He shapes it into the figure of a man, with the beauty of a man, to dwell in a house. ¹⁴He cuts down cedars, or he chooses a cypress tree or an oak and lets it grow strong among the trees of the forest. He plants a cedar and the rain nourishes it. ¹⁵Then it becomes fuel for a man. He takes a part of bread. Also he makes a god and worships it; he makes it an idol and falls down before it. ¹⁶Half of it he burns in the fire. Over the half he eats meat; he roasts it and is satisfied. Also he warms himself and says, "Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire!" ¹⁷And the rest of it he makes into a god, his idol, and falls down to it and worships it. He prays to it and says, "Deliver me, for you are my god!"

¹⁸They know not, nor do they discern, for he has shut

it and warms himself; he kindles a fire and bakes their eyes, so that they cannot see, and their hearts, so that they cannot understand. ¹⁹No one considers, nor is there knowledge or discernment to say, "Half of it I burned in the fire; I also baked bread on its coals; I roasted meat and have eaten. And shall I make the rest of it an abomination? Shall I fall down before a block of wood?" ²⁰He feeds on ashes; a deluded heart has led him astray, and he cannot deliver himself or say, "Is there not a lie in my right hand?"

The LORD Redeems Israel

²¹Remember these things, O Jacob, return to me, for I have redeemed you.

and Israel, for you are my servant;
I formed you; you are my servant;
O Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

22I have blotted out your transgressions like a cloud and your sins like mist;

²³Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done it; shout, O depths of the earth; break forth into singing, O mountains, O forest, and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob, and will be glorified [152] in Israel.

Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, who formed you from the womb:
am the LORD, who made all things, who alone stretched out the heavens, who spread out the earth by myself, the property of the pro who turns wise men back and makes their knowledge foolish. ²⁶who confirms the word of his servant and makes fools of diviners, and fulfills the counsel of his messengers, who savs of Jerusalem, 'She shall be inhabited,' and of the cities of Judah, 'They shall be built, and I will raise up their ruins'; ²⁷who says to the deep, 'Be dry; I will dry up your rivers';

²⁸who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, and he shall fulfill all my purpose'; saying of Jerusalem, 'She shall be built,' and of the temple, 'Your foundation shall be laid.'"

Cyrus, God's Instrument

- 45:1 Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped, to subdue nations before him and to loose the belts of kings, to open doors before him
- ²"I will go before you and level the exalted places, [153] that gates may not be closed:

I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron,

³I will give you the treasures of darkness and the hoards in secret places, that you may know that it is I, the LORD, the God of Israel, who call you by your name. ⁴For the sake of my servant Jacob, and Israel my chosen,

I call you by your name, I name you, though you do not know me.

⁵I am the LORD, and there is no other, besides me there is no God:

6that people may know, from the rising of the sun and from the west, that there is none besides me;
 I am the LORD, and there is no other.
 7I form light and create darkness,

I equip you, though you do not know me,

I make well-being and create calamity,

I am the LORD, who does all these things.

8"Shower, O heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain down righteousness; let the earth open, that salvation and righteousness may bear fruit; let the earth cause them both to sprout;

I the LORD have created it.

9"Woe to him who strives with him who formed him, a pot among earthen pots! Does the clay say to him who forms it, 'What are you making?'

or 'Your work has no handles'?

10 Woe to him who says to a father, 'What are you begetting?'
or to a woman, 'With what are you in labor?'"

- 11 Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and the one who formed him:
- "Ask me of things to come; will you command me concerning my children and the work of my hands? [154]
- ¹²I made the earth and created man on it; it was my hands that stretched out the heavens, and I commanded all their host.
- ¹³I have stirred him up in righteousness, and I will make all his ways level; he shall build my city and set my exiles free, not for price or reward," says the LORD of hosts.

The LORD, the Only Savior

- 14Thus says the LORD:
- "The wealth of Egypt and the merchandise of Cush, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to you and be yours;
- they shall follow you; they shall come over in chains and bow down to you.
- They will plead with you, saying:
 - 'Surely God is in you, and there is no other, no god besides him."
- ¹⁵Truly, you are a God who hides himself, O God of Israel, the Savior.
- 16 All of them are put to shame and confounded; the makers of idols go in confusion together.
- ¹⁷But Israel is saved by the LORD with everlasting salvation; you shall not be put to shame or confounded to all eternity.
- ¹⁸For thus says the LORD,

(he is God!). who formed the earth and made it (he established it: he did not create it empty. he formed it to be inhabited!): "I am the LORD, and there is no other. ¹⁹I did not speak in secret, in a land of darkness: I did not say to the offspring of Jacob, 'Seek me in vain.'[155] I the LORD speak the truth; I declare what is right.

who created the heavens

20"Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, you survivors of the nations!

They have no knowledge who carry about their wooden idols, and keep on praying to a god that cannot save.

21 Declare and present your case; let them take counsel together! Who declared it of old?
Was it not I, the LORD?
And there is no other god besides me, a righteous God and a Savior;

Who told this long ago?

there is none besides me

22"Turn to me and be saved,

²³By myself I have sworn;

all the ends of the earth!

For I am God, and there is no other.

a word that shall not return: 'To me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear allegiance.' [156]

from my mouth has gone out in righteousness

24"Only in the LORD, it shall be said of me, are righteousness and strength; to him shall come and be ashamed all who were incensed against him.

²⁵In the LORD all the offspring of Israel shall be justified and shall glory."

The Idols of Babylon and the One True God

- 46:1 Bel bows down; Nebo stoops; their idols are on beasts and livestock; these things you carry are borne as burdens on weary beasts.
- ²They stoop; they bow down together; they cannot save the burden, but themselves go into captivity.
- 3"Listen to me, O house of Jacob, all the remnant of the house of Israel, who have been borne by me from before your birth, carried from the womb:
- ⁴even to your old age I am he, and to gray hairs I will carry you. I have made, and I will bear; I will carry and will save.
 - 5"To whom will you liken me and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be alike?

⁶Those who lavish gold from the purse, and weigh out silver in the scales. hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god: then they fall down and worship! ⁷They lift it to their shoulders, they carry it, they set it in its place, and it stands there: it cannot move from its place. If one cries to it, it does not answer or save him from his trouble. ⁸"Remember this and stand firm, recall it to mind, you transgressors, ⁹remember the former things of old; for I am God, and there is no other: I am God, and there is none like me, ¹⁰declaring the end from the beginning and from ancient times things not yet done, saying, 'My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose,' ¹¹calling a bird of prey from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country. I have spoken, and I will bring it to pass; I have purposed, and I will do it.

you who are far from righteousness:

13 I bring near my righteousness; it is not far off, and my salvation will not delay:

12"Listen to me, you stubborn of heart, and my salvation will not delay;

I will put salvation in Zion, for Israel my glory."

The Humiliation of Babylon

47:1 Come down and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon;
sit on the ground without a throne,
O daughter of the Chaldeans!
For you shall no more be called tender and delicate.

²Take the millstones and grind flour, put off your veil, strip off your robe, uncover your legs, pass through the rivers.
³Your nakedness shall be uncovered, and your disgrace shall be seen.

I will take vengeance,

and I will spare no one.

4Our Redeemer—the LORD of hosts is his name—is the Holy One of Israel.

⁵Sit in silence, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms. I profaned my heritage;
I gave them into your hand;
you showed them no mercy;
on the aged you made your yoke exceedingly heavy.

7You said, "I shall be mistress forever," so that you did not lay these things to heart or remember their end

⁶I was angry with my people;

- ⁸Now therefore hear this, you lover of pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me;
- I shall not sit as a widow or know the loss of children":

 These two things shall come to you in a moment, in one day; the loss of children and widowhood shall come upon you in full measure, in spite of your many sorceries and the great power of your enchantments.
- ¹⁰You felt secure in your wickedness, you said, "No one sees me"; your wisdom and your knowledge led you astray, and you said in your heart, "I am, and there is no one besides me." 11 But evil shall come upon you, which you will not know how to charm away; disaster shall fall upon you, for which you will not be able to atone; and ruin shall come upon you suddenly, of which you know nothing.

12 Stand fast in your enchantments and your many sorceries, with which you have labored from your youth; perhaps you may be able to succeed; perhaps you may inspire terror.

13 You are wearied with your many counsels; let them stand forth and save you, those who divide the heavens.

who at the new moons make known what shall come upon you.

who gaze at the stars,

the fire consumes them; they cannot deliver themselves from the power of the flame. No coal for warming oneself is this, no fire to sit before!

14Behold, they are like stubble;

15Such to you are those with whom you have labored, who have done business with you from your youth; they wander about, each in his own direction; there is no one to save you.

Israel Refined for God's Glory

48:1 Hear this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and who came from the waters of Judah, who swear by the name of the LORD and confess the God of Israel, but not in truth or right. ²For they call themselves after the holy city, and stay themselves on the God of Israel:

the LORD of hosts is his name. ³"The former things I declared of old; they went out from my mouth, and I announced them: then suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.

⁴Because I know that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead brass, ⁵I declared them to you from of old, before they came to pass I announced them to you, lest you should say, 'My idol did them, my carved image and my metal image 6"You have heard; now see all this;

commanded them '

- and will you not declare it?
 From this time forth I announce to you new things, hidden things that you have not known.

 They are created now, not long ago;
- before today you have never heard of them, lest you should say, 'Behold, I knew them.'

 8 You have never heard, you have never known,
- from of old your ear has not been opened.
 For I knew that you would surely deal treacherously, and that from before birth you were called a rebel.
- ⁹"For my name's sake I defer my anger, for the sake of my praise I restrain it for you, that I may not cut you off.
- 10 Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have tried [157] you in the furnace of affliction.
- 11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I do it, for how should my name [158] be profaned? My glory I will not give to another.

The LORD's Call to Israel

- 12"Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I called! I am he; I am the first, and I am the last.
- and my right hand spread out the heavens; when I call to them,
- they stand forth together.
- 14"Assemble, all of you, and listen!
 Who among them has declared these things?
- The LORD loves him:
 - he shall perform his purpose on Babylon, and his arm shall be against the Chaldeans.
- ¹⁵I, even I, have spoken and called him; I have brought him, and he will prosper in his way.
- ¹⁶Draw near to me, hear this:

from the beginning I have not spoken in secret, from the time it came to be I have been there."

And now the Lord GOD has sent me, and his Spirit.

your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
"I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit,
who leads you in the way you should go.

18Oh that you had paid attention to my

Jacob!"

21 They did not thirst when he led them through the deserts;

he made water flow for them from the rock; he split the rock and the water gushed out.

The Servant of the LORD

- 49:1 Listen to me, O coastlands, and give attention, you peoples from afar. The LORD called me from the womb, from the body of my mother he named my name.
- ²He made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
- in his quiver he hid me away.

 3And he said to me, "You are my servant,
- Israel, in whom I will be glorified." [159]

 But I said, "I have labored in vain;
- I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely my right is with the LORD, and my recompense with my God."

he made me a polished arrow:

- ⁵And now the LORD says, he who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him;
- and that Israel might be gathered to him—for I am honored in the eyes of the LORD, and my God has become my strength— ⁶he says: "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel; I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

⁷Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nation, the servant of rulers:

"Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall prostrate themselves; because of the LORD, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

The Restoration of Israel

⁸Thus savs the LORD: "In a time of favor I have answered you: in a day of salvation I have helped you: I will keep you and give you as a covenant to the people, to establish the land. to apportion the desolate heritages, ⁹saving to the prisoners, 'Come out,' to those who are in darkness, 'Appear.' They shall feed along the ways; on all bare heights shall be their pasture; 10thev shall not hunger or thirst, neither scorching wind nor sun shall strike them, for he who has pity on them will lead them, and by springs of water will guide them. ¹¹And I will make all my mountains a road, and my highways shall be raised up.

12Behold, these shall come from afar, and behold, these from the north and from the west. [160]

- and these from the land of Syene."[161]

 13Sing for joy, O heavens, and exult, O earth; break forth, O mountains, into singing!
- break forth, O mountains, into singing!
 For the LORD has comforted his people and will have compassion on his afflicted.

¹⁴But Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me;

- my Lord has forgotten me."

 15"Can a woman forget her nursing child,
- that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, yet I will not forget you.
- ¹⁶Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands;

they all gather, they come to you.

- your walls are continually before me.

 17 Your builders make haste, [162] your destroyers and those who laid you waste go
- your destroyers and those who laid you waste go out from you.

 18 Lift up your eyes around and see;

As I live, declares the LORD, you shall put them all on as an ornament; you shall bind them on as a bride does.

19 Surely your waste and your desolate places and your devastated land—surely now you will be too narrow for your inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up will be far away.

will yet say in your ears:
'The place is too narrow for me;
make room for me to dwell in.'

²⁰The children of your bereavement

²¹Then you will say in your heart: 'Who has borne me these?'
I was bereaved and barren.

exiled and put away, but who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; from where have these come?"

²²Thus says the Lord GOD:
"Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and raise my signal to the peoples;

and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders.

23Kings shall be your foster fathers, and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and their gueens your nursing mothers.

With their faces to the ground they shall bow down to you, and lick the dust of your feet.

Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for me shall not be put to shame."

²⁴Can the prey be taken from the mighty, or the captives of a tyrant [163] be rescued?

25 For thus says the LORD:
 "Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken, and the prev of the tyrant be rescued.

50:1 Thus says the LORD: "Where is your mother's certificate of divorce, with which I sent her away?

Or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you?

to whom I have sold you?

Behold, for your iniquities you were sold, and for your transgressions your mother was sent away.

²Why, when I came, was there no man; why, when I called, was there no one to answer? Is my hand shortened, that it cannot redeem?

Is my hand shortened, that it cannot redeem?

Or have I no power to deliver?

Behold, by my rebuke I dry up the sea,

I make the rivers a desert; their fish stink for lack of water and die of thirst.

³I clothe the heavens with blackness and make sackcloth their covering."

⁴The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of those who are taught, him who is weary.

Morning by morning he awakens;
he awakens my ear
to hear as those who are taught.

The Lord GOD has opened my ear,
and I was not rebellious;
I turned not backward.

that I may know how to sustain with a word

⁶I gave my back to those who strike, and my cheeks to those who pull out the beard;

I hid not my face from disgrace and spitting.

⁷But the Lord GOD helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame.

⁸He who vindicates me is near.
Who will contend with me?
Let us stand up together.

Who is my adversary?

Let him come near to me.

Let nim come near to me.

⁹Behold, the Lord GOD helps me;

who will declare me quilty? Behold, all of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

10Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of his servant? Let him who walks in darkness and has no light trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God. ¹¹Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who equip vourselves with burning torches!

Walk by the light of your fire, and by the torches that you have kindled! This you have from my hand: you shall lie down in torment.

The LORD's Comfort for Zion

51:1 "Listen to me, you who pursue righteousness, you who seek the LORD:

look to the rock from which you were hewn look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. ²Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you;

for he was but one when I called him, that I might bless him and multiply him.

³For the LORD comforts Zion;
he comforts all her waste places and makes her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song.

4"Give attention to me, my people, and give ear to me, my nation; for a law^[164] will go out from me, and I will set my justice for a light to the peoples.

My righteousness draws near, my salvation has gone out, and for my arm they wait.

⁶Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath;
for the heavens vanish like smoke,
the earth will wear out like a garment.

and my arms will judge the peoples;

the coastlands hope for me, and they who dwell in it will die in like manner; [165] but my salvation will be forever, and my righteousness will never be dismayed.

7"Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear not the reproach of man, nor be dismayed at their revilings.

8 For the moth will eat them up like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool; but my righteousness will be forever, and my salvation to all generations."

⁹Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in days of old, the generations of long ago. Was it not you who cut Rahab in pieces. who pierced the dragon? ¹⁰Was it not you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep, who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? ¹¹And the ransomed of the LORD shall return and come to Zion with singing;

everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away. 12"I, I am he who comforts you; who are you that you are afraid of man who dies, of the son of man who is made like grass, ¹³and have forgotten the LORD, your Maker, who stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. and you fear continually all the day because of the wrath of the oppressor, when he sets himself to destroy? And where is the wrath of the oppressor?

- 14He who is bowed down shall speedily be released; he shall not die and go down to the pit, neither shall his bread be lacking.
 15I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar—
- the LORD of hosts is his name.

 16 And I have put my words in your mouth and covered you in the shadow of my hand,
- establishing^[166] the heavens and laying the foundations of the earth, and saying to Zion, 'You are my people.'"
- 17Wake yourself, wake yourself, stand up, O Jerusalem,
- you who have drunk from the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath, who have drunk to the dregs
- the bowl, the cup of staggering.

 18 There is none to guide her among all the sons she has borne;
- there is none to take her by the hand among all the sons she has brought up.

¹⁹These two things have happened to you—who will console you?— devastation and destruction, famine and sword; who will comfort you?[167] 20Your sons have fainted:

they lie at the head of every street like an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God.

21 Therefore hear this, you who are afflicted, who are drunk, but not with wine:

"Behold, I have taken from your hand the cup of staggering; the bowl of my wrath you shall drink no more;

²³and I will put it into the hand of your tormentors, who have said to you, 'Bow down, that we may pass over';

and you have made your back like the ground and like the street for them to pass over."

The LORD's Coming Salvation

52:1 Awake, awake,

put on your strength, O Zion; put on your beautiful garments,

O Jerusalem, the holy city;
for there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean.

Shake yourself from the dust and arise;
be seated, O Jerusalem;
loose the bonds from your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion.

³For thus says the LORD: "You were sold for nothing, and you shall be redeemed without money." ⁴For thus says the Lord GOD: "My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there, and the Assyrian oppressed them for nothing. ⁵Now therefore what have I here," declares the LORD, "seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Their rulers wail," declares the LORD, "and continually all the day my name is despised. ⁶Therefore my people shall know my name. Therefore in that day they shall know for eye to eye they see you waste places of Jerusalem, for the LORD has comforted his people; he has redeemed Jerusalem.

⁹Break forth together into singing,

10 The LORD has bared his holy arm before the eyes of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 Depart, depart, go out from there; touch no unclean thing;

go out from the midst of her; purify yourselves. you who bear the vessels of the LORD.

¹²For you shall not go out in haste, and you shall not go in flight,

and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

for the LORD will go before you,

He Was Wounded for Our Transgressions

- 13Behold, my servant shall act wisely; [168]
 he shall be high and lifted up, and shall be exalted.
 14As many were astonished at you—
- his appearance was so marred, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of the children of mankind
- and his form beyond that of the children of manking —
- 15so shall he sprinkle [169] many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which has not been told them they see, and that which they have not heard they understand.
 53:1 Who has believed what he has heard from
- us?^[170]
 And to whom has the arm of the LORD been

 For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground;
- he had no form or majesty that we should look at a man of sorrows, [172] and acquainted with [173]

him.

and as one from whom men hide their faces^[175] he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

⁴Surely he has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows;

yet we esteemed him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.

5But he was wounded for our transgressions;
he was crushed for our iniquities;
upon him was the chastisement that brought us
peace,
and with his stripes we are healed.

6All we like sheep have gone astray;
we have turned—every one—to his own way;
and the LORD has laid on him

⁷He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, the iniquity of us all.

like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth.

8By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people?

yet he opened not his mouth;

⁹And they made his grave with the wicked and with a rich man in his death, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth.
¹⁰Yet it was the will of the LORD to crush him; he has put him to grief:

when his soul makes^[177] an offering for guilt, he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

¹¹Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see^[178] and be satisfied; by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant.

The Compassion of the LORD

- 55:1 "Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat!

 Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

Salvation for Foreigners

- 56:1 Thus says the LORD:
- "Keep justice, and do righteousness, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed.
- ²Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast, who keeps the Sabbath, not profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil."
- ³Let not the foreigner who has joined himself to the LORD say,
- "The LORD will surely separate me from his people";
- and let not the eunuch say, "Behold, I am a dry tree."
- ⁴For thus says the LORD:
- "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, who choose the things that please me and hold fast my covenant.
- ⁵I will give in my house and within my walls a monument and a name better than sons and daughters; I will give them an everlasting name that shall not be cut off.

6"And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath and does not profane it, and holds fast my covenant—

7these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."

⁸The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, declares,

"I will gather yet others to him besides those already gathered."

Israel's Irresponsible Leaders

- ⁹All you beasts of the field, come to devour all you beasts in the forest.
- 10His watchmen are blind; they are all without knowledge;
- they are all without knowledge; they are all silent dogs:
- they cannot bark,
- dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.
- 11 The dogs have a mighty appetite; they never have enough.
- But they are shepherds who have no understanding; they have all turned to their own way,
 - each to his own gain, one and all.
- 12"Come," they say, "let me get wine;
- let us fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow will be like this day,
- great beyond measure."

Israel's Futile Idolatry

57:1 The righteous man perishes, and no one lays it to heart; devout men are taken away, while no one understands. For the righteous man is taken away from calamity; ²he enters into peace: they rest in their beds who walk in their uprightness. ³But you, draw near, sons of the sorceress, offspring of the adulterer and the loose woman. ⁴Whom are you mocking? Against whom do you open your mouth wide and stick out your tongue? Are you not children of transgression, the offspring of deceit, ⁵you who burn with lust among the oaks, [186] under every green tree, who slaughter your children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?

⁶Amona the smooth stones of the valley is your portion: thev. thev. are your lot: to them you have poured out a drink offering, you have brought a grain offering. Shall I relent for these things? ⁷On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed. and there you went up to offer sacrifice. ⁸Behind the door and the doorpost vou have set up your memorial; for, deserting me, you have uncovered your bed, you have gone up to it, vou have made it wide: and you have made a covenant for yourself with them. you have loved their bed, you have looked on nakedness.[187] ⁹You journeyed to the king with oil and multiplied your perfumes; you sent your envoys far off, and sent down even to Sheol. ¹⁰You were wearied with the length of your way, but you did not say, "It is hopeless"; you found new life for your strength, and so you were not faint.[188]

¹¹Whom did you dread and fear, so that you lied,

and did not remember me,
did not lay it to heart?

Have I not held my peace, even for a long time, and you do not fear me?

The wind will carry them off,

The wind will carry them off,

But he who takes refuge in me shall possess the land and shall inherit my holy mountain.

Comfort for the Contrite

- ¹⁴And it shall be said,
- "Build up, build up, prepare the way, remove every obstruction from my people's way."
- 15For thus says the One who is high and lifted up, who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy:
 "I dwell in the high and holy place, and also with him who is of a contrite and lowly spirit,
- to revive the spirit of the lowly, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

¹⁶For I will not contend forever.

- nor will I always be angry; for the spirit would grow faint before me,
 - and the breath of life that I made.
- ¹⁷Because of the iniquity of his unjust gain I was angry,
- I struck him; I hid my face and was angry, but he went on backsliding in the way of his own heart.
- ¹⁸I have seen his ways, but I will heal him; I will lead him and restore comfort to him and his

True and False Fasting

- 58:1 "Cry aloud; do not hold back; lift up vour voice like a trumpet; declare to my people their transgression, to the house of Jacob their sins.
- ²Yet they seek me daily and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that did righteousness and did not forsake the judgment of their God:

Evil and Oppression

- 59:1 Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save,
- or his ear dull, that it cannot hear;
- ²but your iniquities have made a separation between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you
- so that he does not hear.

 For your hands are defiled with blood and your fingers with iniquity;
- your lips have spoken lies; your tongue mutters wickedness.
- ⁴No one enters suit justly;

no one goes to law honestly; they rely on empty pleas, they speak lies,

they conceive mischief and give birth to iniquity.

 they weave the spider's y
- they weave the spider's web; he who eats their eggs dies,
- and from one that is crushed a viper is hatched.
- ⁶Their webs will not serve as clothing;

Their works are works of iniquity, and deeds of violence are in their hands.

⁷Their feet run to evil.

men will not cover themselves with what they make.

and they are swift to shed innocent blood; their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their highways.

they have made their roads crooked; no one who treads on them knows peace.

9Therefore justice is far from us,

⁸The way of peace they do not know, and there is no justice in their paths:

we hope for light, and behold, darkness, and for brightness, but we walk in gloom.

10We grope for the wall like the blind;

we grope like those who have no eves:

and righteousness does not overtake us:

we grope like those who have no eyes; we stumble at noon as in the twilight, among those in full vigor we are like dead men.

11We all growl like bears; we moan and moan like doves; we hope for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and we know our iniquities:

speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart lying words.

14 Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands far away; for truth has stumbled in the public squares.

¹³transgressing, and denying the LORD, and turning back from following our God, and uprightness cannot enter.

15Truth is lacking, and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey.

Judgment and Redemption

The LORD saw it, and it displeased him [195] that there was no justice. ¹⁶He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no one to intercede: then his own arm brought him salvation.

and his righteousness upheld him.

¹⁷He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head:

he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and wrapped himself in zeal as a cloak.

¹⁸According to their deeds, so will he repay, wrath to his adversaries, repayment to his enemies:

to the coastlands he will render repayment. ¹⁹So they shall fear the name of the LORD from the west. and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come like a rushing stream. [196] which the wind of the LORD drives.

²⁰"And a Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from transgression," declares the LORD.

²¹"And as for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD: "My Spirit that is upon you, and my words that I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, or out of the mouth of your offspring, or out of the mouth of your children's offspring," says the LORD, "from this time forth and forevermore."

The Future Glory of Israel

- 60:1 Arise, shine, for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.
- ²For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise upon you, and his glory will be seen upon you.
- ³And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.
- ⁴Lift up your eyes all around, and see; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried on the hip.
- ⁵Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and exult,^[197] because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to
- you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.
- ⁶A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah;

all those from Sheba shall come.
They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall bring good news, the praises of the LORD.

⁷All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered to you; the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on my altar, and I will beautify my beautiful house.

Who are these that fly like a cloud, and like doves to their windows?

For the coastlands shall hope for me, the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your children from afar, their silver and gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has made you beautiful.

10 Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you; for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor I have had mercy on you.

11 Your gates shall be open continually; day and night they shall not be shut. that people may bring to you the wealth of the nations. with their kings led in procession. ¹²For the nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish;

those nations shall be utterly laid waste. ¹³The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the cypress, the plane, and the pine, to beautify the place of my sanctuary. and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons of those who afflicted you shall come bending low to you, and all who despised you shall bow down at your feet; they shall call you the City of the LORD, the Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

¹⁵Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through,

I will make you majestic forever, a joy from age to age.

16 You shall suck the milk of nations; you shall nurse at the breast of kings; and you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

¹⁷Instead of bronze I will bring gold, and instead of iron I will bring silver;

instead of wood, bronze, instead of stones, iron. I will make your overseers peace and your taskmasters righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, devastation or destruction within your borders; you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.

19 The sun shall be no more your light by day, nor for brightness shall the moon give you light; [198]

but the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory. [199] 20 Your sun shall no more go down, for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and your days of mourning shall be ended. ²¹Your people shall all be righteous;

nor your moon withdraw itself;

in its time I will hasten it.

they shall possess the land forever. the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I might be glorified.[200]

22The least one shall become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation; I am the LORD:

The Year of the LORD's Favor

- 61:1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor; [201] he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound: [202]
- ²to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn:
- ³to grant to those who mourn in Zion to give them a beautiful headdress instead of ashes.
- the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the garment of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.^[203]
- They shall build up the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former devastations;

they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

Strangers shall stand and tend your flocks; foreigners shall be your plowmen and vinedressers;
 but you shall be called the priests of the LORD; they shall speak of you as the ministers of our God; you shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory you shall boast.

⁷Instead of your shame there shall be a double portion; instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their lot; therefore in their land they shall possess a double portion; they shall have everlasting joy.

I hate robbery and wrong; [204]
I will faithfully give them their recompense, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

⁸For I the LORD love justice;

and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

Their offspring shall be known among the nations, and their descendants in the midst of the peoples;

that they are an offspring the LORD has blessed.

10 I will greatly reioice in the LORD;

all who see them shall acknowledge them,

my soul shall exult in my God,

- for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation; he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself like a priest with a
- beautiful headdress, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.

 11For as the earth brings forth its sprouts,
- and as a garden causes what is sown in it to sprout up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.

Zion's Coming Salvation

- 62:1 For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a burning torch.
- ²The nations shall see your righteousness, and all the kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the LORD will give.
- ³You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the
- LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
- ⁴You shall no more be termed Forsaken, [205] and your land shall no more be termed

Desolate, [206]

- but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her, [207] and your land Married; [208]
- for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married.
- ⁵For as a young man marries a young woman, so shall your sons marry you.

- and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.
- ⁶On your walls, O Jerusalem, I have set watchmen;
- all the day and all the night they shall never be silent.
- You who put the LORD in remembrance, take no rest.
- ⁷and give him no rest until he establishes Jerusalem and makes it a praise in the earth.
- 8The LORD has sworn by his right hand and by his mighty arm:
- "I will not again give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners shall not drink your wine for which you have labored;
- ⁹but those who garner it shall eat it and praise the LORD, and those who gather it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary."[209]

¹⁰Go through, go through the gates; prepare the way for the people: build up, build up the highway: clear it of stones:

lift up a signal over the peoples.

¹¹Behold, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth:

Say to the daughter of Zion, "Behold, your salvation comes;

behold, his reward is with him.

and his recompense before him." ¹²And they shall be called The Holy People, The Redeemed of the LORD: and you shall be called Sought Out.

A City Not Forsaken.

The LORD's Day of Vengeance

63:1 Who is this who comes from Edom, in crimsoned garments from Bozrah, he who is splendid in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? "It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save."

²Why is your apparel red, and your garments like his who treads in the winepress?

3"I have trodden the winepress alone, and from the peoples no one was with me; I trod them in my anger and trampled them in my wrath; their lifeblood [210] spattered on my garments, and stained all my apparel.
 4For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and my year of redemption [211] had come.

⁵I looked, but there was no one to help; I was appalled, but there was no one to uphold; so my own arm brought me salvation, and my wrath upheld me.

and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."

⁶I trampled down the peoples in my anger;

I made them drunk in my wrath,

The LORD's Mercy Remembered

⁷I will recount the steadfast love of the LORD, the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has granted us, and the great goodness to the house of Israel that he has granted them according to his compassion, according to the abundance of his steadfast love.

For he said, "Surely they are my people, children who will not deal falsely."

And he became their Savior.

⁹In all their affliction he was afflicted, [212] and the angel of his presence saved them; in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of ¹⁰But they rebelled and grieved his Holy Spirit; therefore he turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them.

¹¹Then he remembered the days of old,

of Moses and his people. [213]
Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?
Where is he who put in the midst of them his Holy Spirit, ¹²who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses, who divided the waters before them to make for himself an everlasting name, ¹³who led them through the depths?

Like a horse in the desert.

they did not stumble.

14Like livestock that go down into the valley,

¹⁴Like livestock that go down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest. So you led your people, to make for yourself a glorious name.

to make for yourself a glorious name.

Prayer for Mercy

- ¹⁵Look down from heaven and see, from your holy and beautiful^[214] habitation. Where are your zeal and your might? The stirring of your inner parts and your compassion are held back from me.
- 16For you are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us;
- you, O LORD, are our Father, our Redeemer from of old is your name.
- ¹⁷O LORD, why do you make us wander from your ways
- and harden our heart, so that we fear you not?
- Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage.
- ¹⁸Your holy people held possession for a little while: [215]
- our adversaries have trampled down your sanctuary.

- ¹⁹We have become like those over whom you have never ruled, like those who are not called by your name.
- 64:1 Oh that you would rend the heavens and come down,
- that the mountains might quake at your presence—

 2[216] as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil—to make your name known to your adversaries.
- and that the nations might tremble at your presence!

 3When you did awesome things that we did not look for,
- you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.

 From of old no one has heard or perceived by the ear, no eye has seen a God besides you,
- no eye has seen a God besides you, who acts for those who wait for him.

 5You meet him who joyfully works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways.

Behold, you were angry, and we sinned;

be saved?[217] ⁶We have all become like one who is unclean. and all our righteous deeds are like a polluted garment.

in our sins we have been a long time, and shall we and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. ⁷There is no one who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have made us melt in [218] the hand of our iniquities.

⁸But now, O LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand.

⁹Be not so terribly angry, O LORD, and remember not iniquity forever. Behold, please look, we are all your people.

10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness; Zion has become a wilderness. Jerusalem a desolation.

We all fade like a leaf.

¹¹Our holy and beautiful^[219] house.

where our fathers praised you,
has been burned by fire,
and all our pleasant places have become ruins.

12Will you restrain yourself at these things OLORD?

12Will you restrain yourself at these things, O LORD? Will you keep silent, and afflict us so terribly?

Judgment and Salvation

65:1 I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me;

I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me.

I said, "Here am I, here am I," to a nation that was not called by [220] my name.

²I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good.

who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices;

³a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens and making offerings on bricks;

⁴who sit in tombs, and spend the night in secret places;

who eat pig's flesh, and broth of tainted meat is in their vessels:

⁵who say, "Keep to yourself, do not come near me, for I am too holy for you."

a fire that burns all the day. ⁶Behold. it is written before me: "I will not keep silent, but I will repay; I will indeed repay into their bosom ⁷both your iniquities and your fathers' iniquities together, says the LORD; because they made offerings on the mountains and insulted me on the hills. I will measure into their bosom payment for their former deeds."[221] ⁸Thus says the LORD:

These are a smoke in my nostrils.

"As the new wine is found in the cluster, and they say, 'Do not destroy it, for there is a blessing in it,' so I will do for my servants' sake, and not destroy them all.

9I will bring forth offspring from Jacob, and from Judah possessors of my mountains; my chosen shall possess it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 Sharon shall become a pasture for flocks, and the Valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down, for my people who have sought me.
11 But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain.

who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny,

12 will destine you to the sword, and all of you shall bow down to the slaughter, because, when I called, you did not answer;
when I spoke, you did not listen, when I spoke, you did not listen, but you did what was evil in my eyes and chose what I did not delight in."

13Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:
"Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink,

but you shall be thirsty;
behold, my servants shall rejoice,
but you shall be put to shame; 14hobold, my convents shall sing for gladgess of heart.

and the Lord GOD will put you to death, but his servants he will call by another name.

So that he who blesses himself in the land shall bless himself by the God of truth, and he who takes an oath in the land shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten and are hidden from my eyes.

New Heavens and a New Earth

- 17"For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth, and the former things shall not be remembered or come into mind.
- ¹⁸But be glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for behold, I create Jerusalem to be a joy, and her people to be a gladness.
- ¹⁹I will rejoice in Jerusalem and be glad in my people; no more shall be heard in it the sound of weeping
- ²⁰No more shall there be in it an infant who lives but a few days, or an old man who does not fill out his days, for the young man shall die a hundred years old, and the sinner a hundred years old shall be

and the cry of distress.

accursed.

- 21 They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit.
- ²²They shall not build and another inhabit;

they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy^[222] the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labor in vain or bear children for calamity. [223]

for they shall be the offspring of the blessed of the LORD, and their descendants with them.

while they are yet speaking I will hear.

25The wolf and the lamb shall graze together; the lion shall eat straw like the ox, and dust shall be the serpent's food.

They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain."

²⁴Before they call I will answer;

says the LORD.

The Humble and Contrite in Spirit

- 66:1 Thus says the LORD: "Heaven is my throne,
- and the earth is my footstool; what is the house that you would build for me,
- and what is the place of my rest?

 ²All these things my hand has made, and so all these things came to be.
- But this is the one to whom I will look: he who is humble and contrite in spirit and trembles at my word.

declares the LORD.

- ³"He who slaughters an ox is like one who kills a man;
- he who sacrifices a lamb, like one who breaks a dog's neck; he who presents a grain offering, like one who offers pig's blood;
- he who makes a memorial offering of frankincense, like one who blesses an idol.

These have chosen their own ways,

⁴I also will choose harsh treatment for them and bring their fears upon them, because when I called, no one answered, when I spoke, they did not listen:

and their soul delights in their abominations;

when I spoke, they did not listen; but they did what was evil in my eyes and chose that in which I did not delight."

⁵Hear the word of the LORD,

- you who tremble at his word:
 "Your brothers who hate you and cast you out for my name's sake have said, 'Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy';
 but it is they who shall be put to shame.
- 6"The sound of an uproar from the city!

 A sound from the temple!

The sound of the LORD, rendering recompense to his enemies!

Rejoice with Jerusalem

7"Before she was in labor she gave birth; before her pain came upon her she delivered a son.
8Who has heard such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Shall a land be born in one day?

For as soon as Zion was in labor she brought forth her children.

says your God.

⁹Shall I bring to the point of birth and not cause to bring forth?" says the LORD; "shall I, who cause to bring forth, shut the womb?"

Shall a nation be brought forth in one moment?

10"Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her;
rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her; 11that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious abundance." [224]

¹²For thus says the LORD:

"Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse, you shall be carried upon her hip, and bounced upon her knees.

¹³As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you;

so I will comfort you

you shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice;

your bones shall flourish like the grass; and the hand of the LORD shall be known to his servants, and he shall show his indignation against his enemies.

Final Judgment and Glory of the LORD

15"For behold, the LORD will come in fire, and his chariots like the whirlwind, to render his anger in fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.
16For by fire will the LORD enter into judgment, and by his sword, with all flesh; and those slain by the LORD shall be many.

17"Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, following one in the midst, eating pig's flesh and the abomination and mice, shall come to an end together, declares the LORD.

18"For I know [225] their works and their thoughts, and the time is coming [226] to gather all nations and tongues. And they shall come and shall see my glory, 19 and I will set a sign among them. And from them I will send survivors to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the coastlands far away, that have not heard my fame or seen my glory. And they shall declare my mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, just as the Israelites bring their grain offering in a clean vessel to the house of the LORD. ²¹And some of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says the LORD.

²²"For as the new heavens and the new earth that I make shall remain before me, says the LORD, glory among the nations. ²⁰And they shall bring all your brothers from all the nations as an offering to the LORD, on horses and in chariots and in litters and on mules and on dromedaries, to my holy and from Sabbath to Sabbath, all flesh shall come to worship before me, declares the LORD.

24"And they shall go out and look on the dead bodies so shall your offspring and your name remain.

²³From new moon to new moon, of the men who have rebelled against me. For their worm shall not die, their fire shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abhorrence to all flesh."

1:1 The words of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah, one of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, ²to whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. ³It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, and until the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, until the captivity of Jerusalem in the fifth month.

The Call of Jeremiah

- ⁴Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying,
- 5"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations."
- ⁶Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth." ⁷But the LORD said to me,
- "Do not say, 'I am only a youth'; for to all to whom I send you, you shall go, and whatever I command you, you shall speak. Bo not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you, declares the LORD."
- ⁹Then the LORD put out his hand and touched my mouth. And the LORD said to me,
- "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth.

10 See, I have set you this day over nations and over kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant."
11 And the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?" And I said, "I see an almond branch."
12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to perform it."

13The word of the LORD came to me a second time, saying, "What do you see?" And I said, "I see a boiling pot, facing away from the north." ¹⁴Then the LORD said to me, "Out of the north disaster^[2] shall be let loose upon all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵For behold, I am calling all the tribes of the kingdoms of the north, declares the LORD, and they shall come, and every one shall set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, against all its walls all around and against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁶And I will declare my judgments against them, for all their hands. ¹⁷But you, dress yourself for work; ^[3] arise, and say to them everything that I command you. Do not be dismayed by them, lest I dismay you before them. ¹⁸And I, behold, I make you this day a fortified city, an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, its officials, its priests, and the people of the land. ¹⁹They will fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you, for I am with you, declares the LORD, to deliver you."

evil in forsaking me. They have made offerings to other gods and worshiped the works of their own

Israel Forsakes the LORD

in a land not sown.

³Israel was holy to the LORD,

- 2:1 The word of the LORD came to me, saying, ²"Go and proclaim in the hearing of Jerusalem, Thus says the LORD,
- "I remember the devotion of your youth, your love as a bride, how you followed me in the wilderness,
- the firstfruits of his harvest.

 All who ate of it incurred guilt;
 disaster came upon them,
 declares the LORD."

 4Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and

⁴Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the clans of the house of Israel. ⁵Thus says the LORD:

"What wrong did your fathers find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthlessness, and became They did not say, 'Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that none passes through, where no man dwells?'
And I brought you into a plentiful land to enjoy its fruits and its good things.

worthless?

But when you came in, you defiled my land and made my heritage an abomination.

8The priests did not say, 'Where is the LORD?'
Those who handle the law did not know me;
the shepherds transgressed against me:

the shepherds [4] transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal and went after things that do not profit.

⁹"Therefore I still contend with you, declares the LORD, and with your children's children I will contend.

¹⁰For cross to the coasts of Cyprus and see,

or send to Kedar and examine with care;

even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit. 12Be appalled, O heavens, at this; be shocked, be utterly desolate, declares the LORD. ¹³for my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves. broken cisterns that can hold no water. 14" Is Israel a slave? Is he a homeborn servant? Why then has he become a prey? ¹⁵The lions have roared against him; they have roared loudly. They have made his land a waste: his cities are in ruins, without inhabitant.

11 Has a nation changed its gods, have shaved^[5] the crown of your head.

17 Have you not brought this upon yourself

when he led you in the way?

18 And now what do you gain by going to Egypt to drink the waters of the Nile?

Or what do you gain by going to Assyria to drink the waters of the Euphrates?

by forsaking the LORD your God.

19 Your evil will chastise you, and your apostasy will reprove you.
Know and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the LORD your God; the fear of me is not in you, declares the Lord GOD of hosts.

20"For long ago I broke your yoke and burst your bonds; but you said, 'I will not serve.' Yes, on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed down like a whore. ²¹Yet I planted you a choice vine, wholly of pure seed.

How then have you turned degenerate and become a wild vine?

and use much soap. the stain of your quilt is still before me. declares the Lord GOD ²³How can you say, 'I am not unclean, in her heat sniffing the wind! Who can restrain her lust? None who seek her need weary themselves; in her month they will find her.

²⁵Keep your feet from going unshod and your throat from thirst. But you said, 'It is hopeless, for I have loved foreigners, and after them I will go.'

²⁶"As a thief is shamed when caught,

so the house of Israel shall be shamed:

they, their kings, their officials, and to a stone, 'You gave me birth.' For they have turned their back to me, and not their face. But in the time of their trouble they say, 'Arise and save us!'

their priests, and their prophets, ²⁷who say to a tree, 'You are my father,' ²⁸But where are your gods that you made for yourself? Let them arise, if they can save you. in your time of trouble; for as many as your cities are your gods, O Judah.

²⁹"Why do you contend with me? You have all transgressed against me, declares the LORD.

³⁰In vain have I struck your children; they took no correction: your own sword devoured your prophets like a ravening lion. ³¹And you, O generation, behold the word of the

LORD.

Have I been a wilderness to Israel. or a land of thick darkness? Why then do my people say, 'We are free, we will come no more to you'? 32Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me days without number. 33"How well you direct your course to seek love! So that even to wicked women you have taught your ways. ³⁴Also on your skirts is found the lifeblood of the guiltless poor: you did not find them breaking in.

Yet in spite of all these things surely his anger has turned from me.'

for saying, 'I have not sinned.'

35 you say, 'I am innocent; Behold, I will bring you to judgment

36 How much you go about, changing your way!

- You shall be put to shame by Egypt as you were put to shame by Assyria.

 37 From it too you will come away with your hands on your head,
- with your hands on your head, for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you will not prosper by them.

 3:1 "If^[6] a man divorces his wife
- and becomes another man's wife, will he return to her?
 Would not that land be greatly polluted?
 You have played the where with many lover.

and she goes from him

- You have played the whore with many lovers; and would you return to me?

 declares the LORD.
- ²Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see! Where have you not been ravished? By the waysides you have sat awaiting lovers
- like an Arab in the wilderness.

 You have polluted the land
- with your vile whoredom.

 Therefore the showers have been withheld, and the spring rain has not come;

yet you have the forehead of a whore; you refuse to be ashamed.

⁴Have you not just now called to me,

'My father, you are the friend of my youth—

5will he be angry forever, will he be angry lotever, will he be indignant to the end?'

Behold, you have spoken, but you have done all the evil that you could."

Faithless Israel Called to Repentance

⁶The LORD said to me in the days of King Josiah: "Have you seen what she did, that faithless one. Israel, how she went up on every high hill and under every green tree, and there played the whore? ⁷And I thought, 'After she has done all this she will return to me,' but she did not return, and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. 8She saw that for all the adulteries of that faithless one. Israel, I had sent her away with a decree of divorce. Yet her treacherous sister Judah did not fear, but she too went and played the whore. ⁹Because she took her whoredom lightly, she polluted the land, committing adultery with stone and tree. ¹⁰Yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah did not return to me with her whole heart, but in pretense, declares the LORD."

¹¹And the LORD said to me, "Faithless Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. ¹²Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say,

I will not look on you in anger,
for I am merciful,
declares the LORD;
I will not be angry forever.

13Only acknowledge your guilt,

"Return, faithless Israel, declares the LORD

14 Return, O faithless children, declares the LORD:

and scattered your favors among foreigners under every green tree, and that you have not obeyed my voice, declares the LORD.

that you rebelled against the LORD your God for I am your master; I will take you, one from a city and two from a family, and I will bring you to Zion.

15 "And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

who will feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And when you have multiplied and increased in the land in those days declares the LORD, they shall no land, in those days, declares the LORD, they shall no more say, "The ark of the covenant of the LORD." It missed; it shall not be made again. ¹⁷At that time Jerusalem shall be called the throne of the LORD, and all nations shall gather to it, to the presence of the LORD in Jerusalem, and they shall no more stubbornly follow their own evil heart. ¹⁸In those days the house of Judah shall join the house of Israel, and together they shall come from the land of the north to shall not come to mind or be remembered or and give you a pleasant land, a heritage most beautiful of all nations. And I thought you would call me, My Father, the land that I gave your fathers for a heritage.

and would not turn from following me.

20 Surely, as a treacherous wife leaves her husband, so have you been treacherous to me, O house of Israel.

declares the LORD."

²¹A voice on the bare heights is heard, the weeping and pleading of Israel's sons

- they have forgotten the LORD their God. 22"Return, O faithless sons; I will heal your faithlessness."
- "Behold, we come to you, for you are the LORD our God. ²³Truly the hills are a delusion, the orgies \square on the mountains.

because they have perverted their way;

- Truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.
- ²⁴"But from our youth the shameful thing has devoured all for which our fathers labored, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. ²⁵Let us lie down in our shame, and let our dishonor cover us. For we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day, and we have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

4:1 "If you return, O Israel,
declares the LORD,
to me you should return.

If you remove your detestable things from my presence, and do not waver.

and do not waver,

²and if you swear, 'As the LORD lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness, then nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory."

³For thus says the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem:

"Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.

4Circumcise yourselves to the LORD; remove the foreskin of your hearts, O men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn with none to quench it, because of the evil of your deeds."

Disaster from the North

- ⁵Declare in Judah, and proclaim in Jerusalem, and say,
- "Blow the trumpet through the land;
- cry aloud and say, 'Assemble, and let us go
- into the fortified cities!'

 6Raise a standard toward Zion,
- flee for safety, stay not, for I bring disaster from the north,
- and great destruction.

 A lion has gone up from his thicket,
 - a destroyer of nations has set out; he has gone out from his place to make your land a waste:
- to make your land a waste; your cities will be ruins without inhabitant.
- ⁸For this put on sackcloth, lament and wail, for the fierce anger of the LORD
- for the fierce anger of the LORD has not turned back from us."

⁹"In that day, declares the LORD, courage shall fail both king and officials. The priests shall be appalled and the prophets astounded." ¹⁰Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD, surely you have utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'It shall be well with you,' whereas the sword has reached their very life."

¹¹At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the desert toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow or cleanse, ¹²a wind too full for this comes for me. Now it is I who speak in judgment upon them."

his chariots like the whirlwind; his horses are swifter than eagles woe to us, for we are ruined! ¹⁴O Jerusalem, wash your heart from evil, that you may be saved.

¹³Behold, he comes up like clouds;

that you may be saved.

How long shall your wicked thoughts lodge within you?

and proclaims trouble from Mount Ephraim.

16Warn the nations that he is coming:

"Besiegers come from a distant land; they shout against the cities of Judah. ¹⁷Like keepers of a field are they against her all around, around,

because she has rebelled against me,
declares the LORD.

18 Your ways and your deeds have brought this upon you.

This is your doom, and it is bitter; it has reached your very heart."

¹⁵For a voice declares from Dan announce to Jerusalem.

it has reached your very heart."

Anguish over Judah's Desolation

19My anguish, my anguish! I writhe in pain!
Oh the walls of my heart!
My heart is beating wildly;
I cannot keep silent,
for I hear the sound of the trumpet,

the alarm of war.

20 Crash follows hard on crash;

the whole land is laid waste.

Suddenly my tents are laid waste, my curtains in a moment. ²¹How long must I see the standard 21 How long must I see the standard and hear the sound of the trumpet?

22"For my people are foolish;
they know me not;
they are stupid children;
they have no understanding.
They are 'wise'—in doing evil!
But how to do good they know not."

²³I looked on the earth, and behold, it was without and to the heavens, and they had no light.

24 looked on the mountains, and behold, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro.

²⁵I looked, and behold, there was no man,

form and void:

and all the birds of the air had fled.

26 looked, and behold, the fruitful land was a desert, and all its cities were laid in ruins before the LORD, before his fierce anger.

²⁷For thus says the LORD, "The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.
²⁸"For this the earth shall mourn, and the heavens above be dark; for I have spoken; I have purposed; I have not relented, nor will I turn back."

29At the noise of horseman and archer every city takes to flight; they enter thickets; they climb among rocks; all the cities are forsaken, and no man dwells in them ³⁰And you, O desolate one, what do you mean that you dress in scarlet, that you adorn yourself with ornaments of gold. that you enlarge your eyes with paint? In vain you beautify yourself. Your lovers despise you;

they seek your life. 31 For I heard a cry as of a woman in labor, anguish as of one giving birth to her first child, the cry of the daughter of Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands,

"Woe is me! I am fainting before murderers."

Jerusalem Refused to Repent

5:1 Run to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, look and take note!

Search her squares to see if you can find a man, one who does justice and seeks truth.

that I may pardon her.

Though they say, "As the LORD lives," yet they swear falsely.

3O LORD, do not your eyes look for truth?

You have struck them down.

but they felt no anguish; you have consumed them, but they refused to take correction. They have made their faces harder than rock; they have refused to repent.

⁴Then I said, "These are only the poor; they have no sense; for they do not know the way of the LORD, the justice of their God.

and will speak to them, for they know the way of the LORD, the justice of their God." But they all alike had broken the yoke; they had burst the bonds.

⁶Therefore a lion from the forest shall strike them down;

a wolf from the desert shall devastate them

A leopard is watching their cities; everyone who goes out of them shall be torn in pieces, because their transgressions are many.

their apostasies are great.

⁵I will go to the great

7"How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me and have sworn by those who are no gods. When I fed them to the full.

they committed adultery and trooped to the houses of whores.

⁸They were well-fed, lusty stallions,

⁹Shall I not punish them for these things? declares the LORD: and shall I not avenge myself on a nation such as this?

each neighing for his neighbor's wife.

- ¹⁰"Go up through her vine rows and destroy, but make not a full end: strip away her branches. for they are not the LORD's.
- ¹¹For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have been utterly treacherous to me, declares the LORD ¹²They have spoken falsely of the LORD
- and have said, 'He will do nothing; no disaster will come upon us, nor shall we see sword or famine.
- ¹³The prophets will become wind; the word is not in them
- Thus shall it be done to them!"

The LORD Proclaims Judgment

- 14Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts: "Because you have spoken this word, behold, I am making my words in your mouth a fire, and this people wood, and the fire shall consume them.
- ¹⁵Behold, I am bringing against you a nation from afar, O house of Israel, declares the LORD.
- It is an enduring nation;
 - it is an ancient nation,
- a nation whose language you do not know, nor can you understand what they say.
- 16Their quiver is like an open tomb; they are all mighty warriors.
- 17 They shall eat up your harvest and your food; they shall eat up your sons and your daughters; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig trees; your fortified cities in which you trust they shall beat down with the sword."

Impending Disaster for Jerusalem

- 6:1 Flee for safety, O people of Benjamin, from the midst of Jerusalem!

 Blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise a signal on Beth-haccherem, for disaster looms out of the north, and great destruction.
- ²The lovely and delicately bred I will destroy, the daughter of Zion. ^[9]

- 4"Prepare war against her; arise, and let us attack at noon!
 Woe to us, for the day declines, for the shadows of evening lengthen!
 5Arise, and let us attack by night and destroy her palaces!"
- ⁶For thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Cut down her trees;

cast up a siege mound against Jerusalem.
This is the city that must be punished;
there is nothing but oppression within her.

 As a well keeps its water fresh, so she keeps fresh her evil;
 violence and destruction are heard within her; sickness and wounds are ever before me.
 Be warned. O Jerusalem.

The Broken Covenant

- 11:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ³You shall say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed be the man who does not hear the words of this covenant 4that I commanded your fathers when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Listen to my voice, and do all that I command you. So shall you be my people, and I will be your God, ⁵that I may confirm the oath that I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day." Then I answered, "So be it, LORD."
- ⁶And the LORD said to me, "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: Hear the words of this covenant and do them. ⁷For I solemnly warned your fathers when I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, warning

The LORD Will Restore Israel

14"Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when it shall no longer be said, 'As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt,' 15but 'As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.' For I will bring them back to their own land that I gave to their fathers.

The Potter and the Clay

18:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will let you hear my words." ³So I went down to the potter's house, and there he was working at his wheel. ⁴And the vessel he was making of clay was spoiled in the potter's hand, and he reworked it into another vessel, as it seemed good to the potter to do.

Then they shall dwell in their own land."

Lying Prophets

⁹Concerning the prophets:

My heart is broken within me; all my bones shake;

I am like a drunken man, like a man overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of his holy words.

15Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets:

"Behold, I will feed them with bitter food and give them poisoned water to drink, for from the prophets of Jerusalem ungodliness has gone out into all the land."

The Good Figs and the Bad Figs

24:1 After Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had taken into exile from Jerusalem Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, together with the officials of Judah, the craftsmen, and the metal workers, and had brought them to Babylon, the LORD showed me this vision: behold, two baskets of figs placed before the temple of the LORD. ²One basket had very good figs, like first-ripe figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they could not be eaten. ³And the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?" I said, "Figs, the good figs very good, and the bad figs very bad, so bad that they cannot be eaten."

⁴Then the word of the LORD came to me: ⁵"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard as good the exiles from Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans. ⁶I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them back to this land. I will build them up, and not tear them down; I will plant them, and not uproot them. ⁷I will give them a heart to know that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people and I will be their God, for they shall return to me with their whole heart.

⁸"But thus says the LORD: Like the bad figs that are so bad they cannot be eaten, so will I treat Zedekiah the king of Judah, his officials, the remnant of Jerusalem who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt. ⁹I will make them a horror ^[33] to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a reproach, a byword, a taunt, and a curse in all the places where I shall drive them. ¹⁰And I will send sword, famine, and pestilence upon them, until they shall be utterly destroyed from the land that I gave to them and their fathers."

Seventy Years of Captivity

25:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), ²which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem: ³"For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, to this day, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken persistently to you, but you have not listened. 4You have neither listened nor inclined your ears to hear, although the LORD persistently sent to you all his servants the prophets, ⁵saying, 'Turn now, every one of you, from his evil way and evil deeds, and dwell upon the land that the LORD has given to you and your fathers from of old and forever. ⁶Do not go after other gods to serve and worship them, or provoke me to anger with the work of your hands. Then I will do you no harm.' ⁷Yet you have not listened to me, declares the LORD, that you might provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own harm.

8"Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: Because you have not obeyed my words, 9behold, I will send and I will bring them against this land and its inhabitants, and against all these surrounding nations. I will devote them to destruction, and make them a horror, a hissing, and an everlasting desolation. ¹⁰Moreover, I will banish from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the grinding of the millstones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹This whole land shall become a ruin and a waste, and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. ¹²Then after seventy years are and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. ¹²Then after seventy years are completed, I will punish the king of Babylon and that nation, the land of the Chaldeans, for their iniquity, declares the LORD, making the land an everlasting waste. ¹³I will bring upon that land all the words that I have uttered against it, everything written in this book, which Jeremiah prophesied against all the nations. 14 For many nations and great kings shall make slaves even of them, and I will recompense them according to their deeds and the work of their hands."

The Cup of the LORD's Wrath

15 Thus the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from my hand this cup of the wine of wrath, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. 16 They shall drink and stagger and be crazed because of the sword that I am sending among them."

¹⁷So I took the cup from the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink it: 18 Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, its kings and officials, to make them a desolation and a waste, a hissing and a curse, as at this day; ¹⁹Pharaoh king of Egypt, his servants, his officials, all his people, ²⁰ and all the mixed tribes among them; all the kings of the land of Uz and all the kings of the land of the Philistines (Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod); 21 Edom, Moab, and the sons of Ammon; 22 all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the coastland across the sea: 23 Dedan, Tema, Buz, and all who cut the

Jeremiah Threatened with Death

26:1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came from the LORD: 2"Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah that come to worship in the house of the LORD all the words that I command you to speak to them; do not hold back a word. 3lt may be they will listen, and every one turn from his evil way, that I may relent of the disaster that Lintend to do to them because of their evil deeds. 4You shall say to them, 'Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law that I have set before you, 5 and to listen to the words of my servants the prophets whom I send to you urgently, though you have not listened, ⁶then I will make this house like Shiloh, and I will make this city a curse for all the nations of the

they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD and took their seat in the entry of the New Gate of the house of the LORD. ¹¹Then the priests and the prophets said to the officials and to all the people, "This man deserves the sentence of death, because he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your own ears."

¹⁰When the officials of Judah heard these things,

¹²Then Jeremiah spoke to all the officials and all the people, saying, "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and this city all the words you have heard. ¹³Now therefore mend your ways and God, and the LORD will relent of the disaster that he has pronounced against you. ¹⁴But as for me, behold, I am in your hands. The Yoke of Nebuchadnezzar 27:1 In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah [35] the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD. ²Thus the LORD said to me: "Make yourself straps and yoke-bars, and put them on your neck. ³Send word to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the sons of Ammon, the king of Tyre, and the king of Sidon by the hand of the envoys who have come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah. ⁴Give them this charge for their masters: 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: This is what you shall say to your masters: 5"It is I who by my great power and my outstretched arm have made the earth, with the men and animals that are on the earth, and I give it to whomever it seems right to me. ⁶Now I have given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, my servant, and I have given him also the beasts of the field to serve him. 7All the nations shall serve him and his son and his grandson, until the time of his own land comes. of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fifth month of the fourth year, Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet from Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people, saying, ²"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: I have broken the voke of the king of Babylon.

Jeremiah's Letter to the Exiles

29:1 These are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the surviving elders of the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets. and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. ²This was after King Jeconiah and the gueen mother, the eunuchs, the officials of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the metal workers had departed from Jerusalem. ³The letter was sent by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. It said: 4"Thus savs the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat their produce. ⁶Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there. and do not decrease. ⁷But seek the welfare of the 10 Then fear not, O Jacob my servant, declares the LORD, nor be dismayed, O Israel; for behold, I will save you from far away, for behold, I will save you from far away, and your offspring from the land of their captivity. Jacob shall return and have quiet and ease, and none shall make him afraid.

11For I am with you to save you, declares the LORD; I will make a full end of all the nations among whom I scattered you, but of you I will not make a full end. I will discipline you in just measure, and I will by no means leave you unpunished.

The New Covenant

31"Behold. the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah, 32 not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt, my covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, declares the LORD. 33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, declares the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts. And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ³⁴And no longer shall each one teach his neighbor and each his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the

Jeremiah Buys a Field During the Siege

32:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. ²At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah. ³For Zedekiah king of Judah had imprisoned him, saying, "Why do you prophesy and say, 'Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall capture it; ⁴Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye. ⁵And he shall take Zedekiah to Babylon, and there he shall remain until I visit him, declares the LORD. Though you fight against the Chaldeans, you shall not succeed'?"

⁶Jeremiah said, "The word of the LORD came to Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.' ⁸Then Hanamel my cousin came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

Jeremiah Prays for Understanding

16"After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying: 17'Ah. Lord GOD! It is you who have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm! Nothing is too hard for you. ¹⁸You show steadfast love to thousands, but you repay the guilt of fathers to their children after them, O great and mighty God, whose name is the LORD of hosts, ¹⁹great in counsel and mighty in deed, whose eyes are open to all the ways of the children of man, rewarding each one according to his ways and according to the fruit of his deeds. 20 You have shown signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, and to this day in Israel and among all mankind, and have made a name for yourself, as at this day. 21 You brought your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a strong hand and outstretched arm, and with great terror. 22And you gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey.

they did not obey your voice or walk in your law. They did nothing of all you commanded them to do. Therefore you have made all this disaster come upon them. ²⁴Behold, the siege mounds have come up to the city to take it, and because of sword and

²⁶The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

²⁷"Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh. Is anything too hard for me? ²⁸Therefore, thus says the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hands of the Chaldeans and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall capture it. ²⁹The Chaldeans who are fighting against this city shall

They Shall Be My People; I Will Be Their God

36"Now therefore thus savs the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city of which you say, 'It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by sword, by famine, and by pestilence': ³⁷Behold, I will gather them from all the countries to which I drove them in my anger and my wrath and in great indignation. I will bring them back to this place, and I will make them dwell in safety. ³⁸And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their own good and the good of their children after them. 40I will make with them an everlasting covenant, that I will not turn away from doing good to them. And I will put the fear of me in their hearts, that they may not turn from me. 41 will rejoice in doing them good, and I will plant them in this land in faithfulness, with all my heart and all my soul.

42"For thus says the LORD: Just as I have brought all upon them all the good that I promise them. ⁴³Fields shall be bought in this land of which you are saying, 'It is a desolation, without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.' ⁴⁴Fields shall be bought for money, and deeds shall be signed and sealed and witnessed, in the land of Benjamin, in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the

The LORD Promises Peace

33:1 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still shut up in the court of the guard: 2"Thus says the LORD who made the earth. [42] the LORD who formed it to establish it—the LORD is his name: ³Call to me and I will answer you, and will tell you great and hidden things that you have not known. ⁴For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that were torn down to make a defense against the siege mounds and against the sword: ⁵They are coming in to fight against the Chaldeans and to fill them [43] with the dead bodies of men whom I shall strike down in my anger and my wrath, for I have hidden my face from this city because of all their evil. ⁶Behold, I will bring to it health and healing, and I will heal them and reveal to them abundance of prosperity and security.

⁷I will restore the fortunes of Judah and the fortunes of Israel, and rebuild them as they were at first. 8 will cleanse them from all the guilt of their sin against me, and I will forgive all the guilt of their sin and rebellion against me. ⁹And this city^[44] shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and a glory before all the nations of the earth who shall hear of all the good that I do for them. They shall fear and tremble because of all the good and all the prosperity I provide for it.

10 Thus save the LORD: In this place of which you say, 'It is a waste without man or beast,' in the cities of Judah and the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man or inhabitant or beast, there shall be heard again ¹¹the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voices of those who sing, as they bring thank offerings to the house of the LORD:

"Give thanks to the LORD of hosts, for the LORD is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!"

For I will restore the fortunes of the land as at first, says the LORD.

there shall again be habitations of shepherds resting their flocks. ¹³In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the Shephelah, and in the cities of the Negeb, in the land of Benjamin, the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, flocks shall again pass under the hands of the one who counts them, says the LORD.

12"Thus says the LORD of hosts: In this place that is waste, without man or beast, and in all of its cities,

The LORD's Eternal Covenant with David

14"Behold. the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will fulfill the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. ¹⁵In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David, and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. ¹⁶In those days Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will dwell securely. And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The LORD is our righteousness.'

¹⁷"For thus says the LORD: David shall never lack a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel, ¹⁸ and the Levitical priests shall never lack a man in my presence to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain offerings, and to make sacrifices forever."

19 The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 20 "Thus says the LORD: If you can break my covenant with the day and my covenant with the night, so that day and night will not come at their appointed time, ²¹then also my covenant with David my servant may be broken, so that he shall not have a son to reign on me."

23The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: 24"Have you not observed that these people are saying, 'The LORD has rejected the two clans that he chose'? Thus they have despised my people so that they are no longer a nation in their sight. 25Thus says the LORD: If I have not established my covenant with day and night and the fixed order of heaven and earth, ²⁶then I will reject the offspring of Jacob and David my servant and will not choose one of his offspring to rule over the offspring of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will restore their fortunes and will have mercy on them."

Zedekiah to Die in Babylon

34:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion and all the peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and all of its cities: 2"Thus savs the LORD, the God of Israel: Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah and sav to him. 'Thus savs the LORD: Behold, I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ³You shall not escape from his hand but shall surely be captured and delivered into his hand. You shall see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face. And you shall go to Babylon.' 4Yet hear the word of the LORD. O Zedekiah king of Judah! Thus says the LORD concerning you: 'You shall not die by the sword. ⁵You shall die in peace. And as spices were burned for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so people shall burn spices for you and lament for you, saying, "Alas, lord!" For I have spoken the word, declares the LORD."

⁶Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah, in Jerusalem, ⁷when the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left, Lachish and Azekah, for these were the only fortified cities of Judah that remained.

⁸The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after King Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to make a proclamation of liberty to them, ⁹that everyone should set free his Hebrew slaves, male and female, so that no one should enslave a Jew, his brother. ¹⁰And they obeyed, all the officials and all the people who had entered into the covenant that everyone would set free his slave, male or female, so that they would not be enslaved again. They obeyed and set them free. ¹¹But afterward they turned around and took back the male and female slaves they had set free, and brought them into subjection as slaves. ¹²The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 13"Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I myself them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, ¹⁴'At the end of seven years each of you must set free the fellow Hebrew who has been sold to you and has served you six years; you must set him free from your service.' But your fathers did not listen to me or incline their ears to me. ¹⁵You recently repented and did what was right in my eyes by proclaiming liberty, each to his neighbor, and you made a covenant with your fathers when I brought 17"Therefore, thus says the LORD: You have not obeyed me by proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother and to his neighbor; behold, I proclaim to you liberty to the sword, to pestilence, and to famine, declares the LORD. 22Behold. I will command, declares the LORD, and will bring them back to this city. And they will fight against it and take it and burn it with fire. I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without inhabitant."

The Obedience of the Rechabites

35:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: 2"Go to the house of the Rechabites and speak with them and bring them to the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers; then offer them wine to drink." ³So I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, son of Habazziniah and his brothers and all his sons and the whole house of the Rechabites. ⁴I brought them to the house of the LORD into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was near the chamber of the officials, above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, keeper of the threshold. ⁵Then I set before the Rechabites pitchers full of wine, and cups, and I said to them. "Drink wine." ⁶But they answered. "We will drink no wine, for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, 'You shall not drink wine, neither you nor your sons forever. ⁷You shall not build a house; you shall not sow seed; you shall not plant or have a vineyard; but you shall live in tents all your

We have no vineyard or field or seed, ¹⁰but we have lived in tents and have obeyed and done all that Jonadab our father commanded us. ¹¹But when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against the land, we said, 'Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans and the army of the Syrians.'

So we are living in Jerusalem."

12 Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah:

13"Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Go and say to the people of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction and listen to my words? declares the LORD. ¹⁴The command that Jonadab the son of Rechab gave to his sons, to drink no wine, has been kept, and they drink none to this day, for they have obeyed their father's command. I have spoken to you from his evil way, and amend your deeds, and do not go after other gods to serve them, and then you shall dwell in the land that I gave to you and your fathers.' But you did not incline your ear or listen to me. ¹⁶The sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have kept the command that their father gave them, but this people has not obeyed me. ¹⁷Therefore, thus says the ¹⁸But to the house of the Rechabites Jeremiah said, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah's Scroll 36:1 In the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ²"Take a scroll and write on it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah and all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah until today. ³It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the disaster that I intend to do to them, so that every one may turn from his evil way, and that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin."

⁴Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah, and Baruch wrote on a scroll at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD that he had spoken to him. ⁵And Jeremiah ordered Baruch, saying, "I am banned from going to the house of the LORD, ⁶so you are to go, and on a day of fasting in the hearing of all the people in the LORD's house you shall read the words of the LORD from the scroll that you have written at my dictation. You shall read them also in the hearing of all the men of Judah who come out of their cities. ⁷It may be that their plea for mercy will come before the LORD, and that every one will turn from his evil way, for great is the anger and wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people." ⁸And Baruch the son of Neriah did all that Jeremiah the prophet ordered him about reading from the scroll the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

⁹In the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD. ¹⁰Then, in the hearing of all the people, Baruch read the words of Jeremiah from the scroll, in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the secretary, which was in the upper court, at the entry of the New Gate of the LORD's house.

11When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, son of Shaphan, heard all the words of the LORD from the scroll, 12he went down to the king's house, into the secretary's chamber, and all the officials were sitting there: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan the son of Achbor, Gemariah the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the officials. 13And Micaiah told them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the scroll in the hearing of the people. ¹⁴Then all the officials sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah, son of Cushi, to say to Baruch, "Take in your hand the scroll that you read in the hearing of the people, and come." So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand and came to them. 15And they said to him, "Sit down and read it." So Baruch read it to them. 16When they heard all the words. they turned one to another in fear. And they said to Baruch, "We must report all these words to the king." ¹⁷Then they asked Baruch, "Tell us, please, how did you write all these words? Was it at his dictation?" ¹⁸Baruch answered them, "He dictated all these words to me, while I wrote them with ink on the scroll." 19 Then the officials said to Baruch, "Go and hide, you and Jeremiah, and let no one know where you are."

20 So they went into the court to the king, having put the scroll in the chamber of Elishama the secretary, and they reported all the words to the king. ²¹Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he took it from the chamber of Elishama the secretary. And Jehudi read it to the king and all the officials who stood beside the king. 22 It was the ninth month, and the king was sitting in the winter house, and there was a fire burning in the fire pot before him. ²³As Jehudi read three or four columns, the king would cut them off with a knife and throw them into the fire in the fire pot, until the entire scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the fire pot. ²⁴Yet neither the king nor any of his servants who heard all these words was afraid, nor did they tear their garments. ²⁵Even when Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. ²⁶And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son and Seraiah the son of Azriel and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel to seize Baruch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet, but the LORD hid them.

of Judah you shall say, 'Thus says the LORD, You have burned this scroll, saying, "Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land, and will cut off from it man and beast?" ³⁰Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have none to sit on the throne of David, and his dead body shall be cast out to the heat by day and the frost by night. ³¹And I will punish him and his offspring and ²⁷Now after the king had burned the scroll with the words that Baruch wrote at Jeremiah's dictation, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁸"Take another scroll and write on it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. ²⁹And concerning Jehoiakim king his servants for their iniquity. I will bring upon them and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem and upon the people of Judah all the disaster that I have pronounced against them, but they would not hear."

³²Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote on it at the dictation of Jeremiah all the words of the scroll that Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire. And many similar words were added to them.

Jeremiah Warns Zedekiah 37:1 Zedekiah the son of Josiah, whom and Zephaniah the priest, the son of Maaseiah, to Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Please pray for us to the LORD our God." ⁴Now Jeremiah was still going in and out among the people, for he had not yet been put in prison. ⁵The army of Pharaoh had come out of Egypt. And when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard news about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem.

⁶Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: ⁷"Thus says the LORD, God of Israel: Thus shall you say to the king of Judah who sent you to me to inquire of me, 'Behold, Pharaoh's army that came

They shall capture it and burn it with fire. ⁹Thus says the LORD, Do not deceive yourselves, saying, "The Chaldeans will surely go away from us," for they will not go away. ¹⁰For even if you should defeat the whole army of Chaldeans who are fighting against you, and there remained of them only wounded men, every man in his tent, they would rise up and burn this city with fire."

Jeremiah Imprisoned

11 Now when the Chaldean army had withdrawn from Jerusalem at the approach of Pharaoh's army, 12 Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to receive his portion there among the people.
 13 When he was at the Benjamin Gate, a sentry there named Irijah the son of Shelemiah, son of Hananiah, seized Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans." ¹⁴And Jeremiah said, "It is a lie; I am not deserting to the Chaldeans." But Irijah would not listen to him, and seized Jeremiah and brought him to the officials.

15And the officials were enraged at Jeremiah, and they beat him and imprisoned him in the house of Jonathan the secretary, for it had been made a prison.
 16When Jeremiah had come to the dungeon cells and remained there many days, 17King Zedekiah sent for him and received him. The king questioned him secretly in his house and said, "Is there any word

O my lord the king: let my humble plea come before you and do not send me back to the house of Jonathan the secretary, lest I die there." ²¹So King Zedekiah gave orders, and they committed Jeremiah to the court of the guard. Jeremiah Cast into the Cistern

38:1 Now Shephatiah the son of Mattan, Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashbur the son of Malchiah heard the words that Jeremiah was saying to all the people, ²"Thus says the LORD: He who stays in this city shall die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence, but he who goes out to the Chaldeans shall live. He shall have his life as a prize of war, and live. ³Thus says the LORD: This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon and be taken." ⁴Then the officials said to the king, "Let this man be put to death, for he is weakening the hands of the soldiers who are left in this city, and the hands of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man is not seeking the welfare of this people, but their harm." ⁵King Zedekiah said, "Behold, he is in your hands, for the king can do nothing against you." ⁶So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern

⁶So they took Jeremiah and cast him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the court of the guard, letting Jeremiah down by ropes. And there was no water in the cistern, but only mud, and Jeremiah sank in the mud.

Jeremiah Rescued from the Cistern

 7 When Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern—the king was sitting in the Benjamin Gate— ⁸Ebed-melech went from the king's house and said to the king, 9"My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they did to Jeremiah the prophet by casting him into the cistern, and he will die there of hunger, for there is no bread left in the city." 10 Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, "Take thirty men with you from here, and lift Jeremiah the prophet out of the cistern before he dies." 11So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went to the house of the king, to a wardrobe in the storehouse, and took from there old rags and worn-out clothes, which he let down to Jeremiah in the cistern by ropes. ¹²Then Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, "Put the rags and clothes between your armpits and the ropes." Jeremiah did so. ¹³Then they drew Jeremiah up with ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah received him at the third entrance of the temple of the LORD. The king said to Jeremiah, "I will ask you a question; hide nothing from me." ¹⁵Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "If I tell you, will you not surely put me to death? And if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me." ¹⁶Then King Zedekiah swore secretly to Jeremiah. "As the LORD lives, who made our souls. I will not put you to death or deliver you into the hand of these men who seek your life."

¹⁴King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah the prophet and ¹⁷Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If you will surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then your life shall be spared, and this city shall not be burned with fire, and you and your house shall live.

The LORD Delivers Jeremiah

¹¹Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon gave command concerning Jeremiah through Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, saying, ¹²"Take him, look after him well, and do him no harm, but deal with him as he tells you." ¹³So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, Nebushazban the Rab-saris, Nergal-sar-ezer the Rab-mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon ¹⁴sent and took Jeremiah from the court of the guard. They entrusted him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, that he should take him home. So he lived among the people.

¹⁵The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah while he was shut up in the court of the guard: ¹⁶"Go, and say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will fulfill my words against this city for harm and not for good, and they shall be accomplished before you on that day. ¹⁷But I will deliver you on that day, declares the LORD, and you shall not be given into the hand of

Jeremiah Remains in Judah

40:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he took him bound in chains along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being exiled to Babylon. ²The captain of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him, "The LORD your God pronounced this disaster against this place. ³The LORD has brought it about, and has done as he said. Because you sinned against the LORD and did not obey his voice, this thing has come upon you. ⁴Now, behold, I release you today from the chains on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you well, but if it seems wrong to you to come with me to Babylon, do not come. See, the whole land is before you; go wherever you think it good and right to go. ⁵lf you remain, [46] then return to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon appointed governor of the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people. Or go wherever you think it right to go." So the captain Nethaniah, Johanan the son of Kareah, Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. ⁹Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, swore to them and their men, saying, "Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans. But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan

Gedaliah Murdered

41:1 In the seventh month, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, son of Elishama, of the royal family, one of the chief officers of the king, came with ten men to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah. As they ate bread together there at Mizpah, ²Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the ten men with him rose up and struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, with the sword, and killed him, whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor in the land.

3 Ishmael also struck down all the Judeans who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, and the Chaldean soldiers who happened to be there.

⁴On the day after the murder of Gedaliah, before anyone knew of it, ⁵eighty men arrived from Shechem and Shiloh and Samaria, with their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and their bodies gashed, bringing grain offerings and incense to present at the temple of the LORD. ⁶And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah came out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he came. As he met them, he said

⁷When they came into the city, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah and the men with him slaughtered them and cast them into a cistern. ⁸But there were ten men among them who said to Ishmael, "Do not put us to death, for we have stores of wheat, barley, oil, and honey hidden in the fields." So he refrained and did not put them to death with their companions.

to them, "Come in to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam."

⁹Now the cistern into which Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men whom he had struck down along with [47] Gedaliah was the large cistern that King Asa had made for defense against Baasha king of Israel; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with the slain. 10 Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the people who were left at Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah took them captive and set out to cross over to the Ammonites.

¹¹But when Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done. 12thev took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael the son of Nethaniah. They came upon him at the great pool that is in Gibeon. 13And when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him. they rejoiced. 14So all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah. 15But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. ¹⁶Then Johanan the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him took from Mizpah all the rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, after he had struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam—soldiers. women, children, and eunuchs, whom Johanan brought back from Gibeon. 17 And they went and stayed at Geruth Chimham near Bethlehem, intending to go to Egypt ¹⁸because of the Chaldeans. For they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had struck down Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.

Warning Against Going to Egypt

42:1 Then all the commanders of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least to the greatest, came near ²and said to Jeremiah the prophet, "Let our plea for mercy come before you, and pray to the LORD your God for us, for all this remnant—because we are left with but a few, as your eves see us— ³that the LORD your God may show

Behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your request, and whatever the LORD answers you I will tell you. I will keep nothing back from you." ⁵Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not act according to all the word with which the LORD your God sends you to us. 6Whether it is good or bad, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God to whom we are sending you, that it may be well with us when we obey the voice of the LORD our

Jeremiah Taken to Egypt

43:1 When Jeremiah finished speaking to all the people all these words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them, 2 Azariah the son of Hoshaiah and Johanan the son of Kareah and all the insolent men said to Jeremiah. "You are telling a lie. The LORD our God did not send you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to live there,' ³but Baruch the son of Neriah has set you against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may kill us or take us into exile in Babvlon." 4So Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces and all the people did not obey the voice of the LORD, to remain in the land of Judah. ⁵But Johanan the son of Kareah and all the commanders of the forces took all the remnant of Judah who had returned to live in the land of Judah from all the nations to which they had been driven— ⁶the men. the women, the children, the princesses, and every person whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan; also Jeremiah the prophet and Baruch the son of Neriah. ⁷And they came into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of the LORD. And they arrived at Tahpanhes.

Behold, this day they are a desolation, and no one dwells in them, ³because of the evil that they committed, provoking me to anger, in that they went to make offerings and serve other gods that they knew not, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. 4Yet I persistently sent to you all my servants the prophets, saying, 'Oh, do not do this abomination that I hate!' ⁵But they did not listen or incline their ear, to turn from their evil and make no offerings to other gods. ⁶Therefore my wrath and my anger were poured out and kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, and they became a waste and a desolation, as at this day. ⁷And now thus says the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you from you man and woman, infant and child, from the midst of Judah, leaving you no remnant? ⁸Why do you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, making offerings to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have come to live, so that you may be cut off and become a curse and a taunt among all the nations of the earth? ⁹Have you forgotten the evil of your fathers, the evil of the kings of Judah, the evil of their ^[48] wives, your own evil, and the evil of your wives, which they committed in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰They have not greatest, they shall die by the sword and by famine,

15Then all the men who knew that their wives had made offerings to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, all the people who lived in Pathros in the land of Egypt, answered

Jeremiah: 16"As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you.

17But we will do everything that we have vowed, make offerings to the queen of heaven and pour out drink offerings to her, as we did, both we and our fathers, our kings and our officials, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For then we had plenty of food, and prospered, and saw no disaster. ¹⁸But since we left off making offerings to her, was it without our husbands' approval that we made cakes for her bearing her image and poured out drink offerings to her?"

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, men and women, all the people who had given him this answer: 21"As for the offerings that you offered in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your officials, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them? Did it not come into his mind? ²²The LORD could no longer bear your evil deeds and the abominations that you committed. Therefore your land has become a desolation and a waste and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. ²³It is because you made offerings and because you sinned against the LORD and did not obey the voice of the LORD or walk in his law and in his statutes and in his testimonies that this disaster has happened to you, as at this day."

Jeremiah said to all the people and all the women,

"Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. ²⁵Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: You and your wives have declared with your mouths, and have fulfilled it with your hands, saying, 'We will surely perform our vows that we have made, to make offerings to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink offerings to her.'

Then confirm your vows and perform your vows! ²⁶Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no more be invoked by the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, 'As the Lord GOD lives.' ²⁷Behold, I am watching over them for disaster and not for good. All the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by famine, until there is an end of Seek them not, for behold, I am bringing disaster upon all flesh, declares the LORD. But I will give you your life as a prize of war in all places to which you may go."

Judgment on Egypt

46:1 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations.

²About Egypt. Concerning the army of Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates at Carchemish and which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah:

 ³"Prepare buckler and shield, and advance for battle!
 ⁴Harness the horses; mount, O horsemen!
 Take your stations with your helmets, polish your spears, put on your armor!
 ⁵Why have I seen it?
 They are dismayed

and have turned backward. Their warriors are beaten down and have fled in haste; they look not back terror on every side! declares the LORD.

⁶"The swift cannot flee away, nor the warrior escape; in the north by the river Euphrates they have stumbled and fallen.

like rivers whose waters surge.

He said, 'I will rise, I will cover the earth, I will destroy cities and their inhabitants.'

⁹Advance, O horses, and rage, O chariots!

Let the warriors go out:

men of Cush and Put who handle the shield, men of Lud, skilled in handling the bow.

10 That day is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, The sword shall devour and be sated and drink its fill of their blood.

For the Lord GOD of hosts holds a sacrifice

Judgment on the Philistines 47:1 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah

- the prophet concerning the Philistines, before Pharaoh struck down Gaza.
- ²"Thus says the LORD:
- Behold, waters are rising out of the north, and shall become an overflowing torrent; they shall overflow the land and all that fills it, the city and those who dwell in it.

 Men shall cry out,

Judgment on Moab

48:1 Concerning Moab.

"Woe to Nebo, for it is laid waste!

Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken;

Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

the fortress is put to shame and broken down;

²the renown of Moab is no more.

In Heshbon they planned disaster against her:

'Come, let us cut her off from being a nation!'

You also, O Madmen, shall be brought to silence;
the sword shall pursue you.

3"A voice! A cry from Horonaim, 'Desolation and great destruction!'
4Moab is destroyed; her little ones have made a cry.
5For at the ascent of Luhith they go up weeping; [52] for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distressed cry.

You will be like a juniper in the desert!

For, because you trusted in your works and your 28"Leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, O inhabitants of Moab! Be like the dove that nests in the sides of the mouth of a gorge. ²⁹We have heard of the pride of Moab he is very proud—of his loftiness, his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. ³⁰I know his insolence, declares the LORD;

his boasts are false. his deeds are false. 31Therefore I wail for Moab; for the men of Kir-hareseth I mourn.

For I will bring these things upon Moab, the year of their punishment, declares the LORD.

45"In the shadow of Heshbon fugitives stop without strength, for fire came out from Heshbon, flame from the house of Sihon:

it has destroyed the forehead of Moab, the crown of the sons of tumult.

46Woe to you, O Moab!
The people of Chemosh are undone, for your sons have been taken captive, and your daughters into captivity.

47Yet I will restore the fortunes of Moab in the latter days, declares the LORD." Thus far is the judgment on Moab.

Judgment on Ammon

49:1 Concerning the Ammonites.

Thus says the LORD:

"Has Israel no sons?
Has he no heir?
Why then has Milcom dispossessed Gad, and his people settled in its cities?

²Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will cause the battle cry to be heard against Rabbah of the Ammonites; it shall become a desolate mound, and its villages shall be burned with fire;

then Israel shall dispossess those who dispossessed him, savs the LORD.

³"Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste! Cry out, O daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth. lament, and run to and fro among the hedges!
For Milcom shall go into exile, with his priests and his officials.

O faithless daughter, who trusted in her treasures, saying, 'Who will come against me?'

⁵Behold, I will bring terror upon you, declares the Lord GOD of hosts, from all who are around you, and you shall be driven out, every man straight before him, with none to gather the fugitives.

⁶"But afterward I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites, declares the LORD."

Judgment on Edom

⁷Concerning Edom.

Thus says the LORD of hosts:

"Is wisdom no more in Teman?
Has counsel perished from the prudent?
Has their wisdom vanished?

Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths,
 O inhabitants of Dedan!
 For I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him,
 the time when I punish him.

⁹If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave gleanings? If thieves came by night,

¹⁰But I have stripped Esau bare;

would they not destroy only enough for themselves?

I have uncovered his hiding places, and he is not able to conceal himself. His children are destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more. ¹¹Leave your fatherless children; I will keep them alive: and let your widows trust in me." ¹²For thus savs the LORD: "If those who did not deserve to drink the cup must drink it, will you go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you must drink. ¹³For I have sworn by myself, declares the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a horror, a taunt, a waste, and a curse, and all her cities shall be perpetual wastes." ¹⁴I have heard a message from the LORD, and an envoy has been sent among the nations: "Gather yourselves together and come against her, and rise up for battle! ¹⁵For behold, I will make you small among the nations.

despised among mankind. ¹⁶The horror you inspire has deceived you, who hold the height of the hill.

and the pride of your heart, you who live in the clefts of the rock. [56] I will bring you down from there, declares the LORD.

17"Edom shall become a horror. Everyone who passes by it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its disasters. 18 As when Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring cities were overthrown, says the LORD, no man shall dwell there, no man shall sojourn in her. ¹⁹Behold, like a lion coming up from the jungle of the Jordan against a perennial pasture, I will suddenly make him^[57] run away from her. And I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is

Though you make your nest as high as the eagle's, away. Surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate.

At the sound of their fall the earth shall tremble; the sound of their cry shall be heard at the Red Sea.
 Behold, one shall mount up and fly swiftly like an eagle and spread his wings against Bozrah, and the heart of the warriors of Edom shall be in that day like the heart of a woman in her birth pains."

Judgment on Damascus

²³Concerning Damascus:

- "Hamath and Arpad are confounded, for they have heard bad news; they melt in fear,
- they are troubled like the sea that cannot be quiet.
- ²⁴Damascus has become feeble, she turned to flee, and panic seized her;
- anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in labor.
- 25 How is the famous city not forsaken, the city of my joy?
- 26Therefore her young men shall fall in her squares, and all her soldiers shall be destroyed in that day, declares the LORD of hosts.
- ²⁷And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-hadad."

Judgment on Kedar and Hazor

²⁸Concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck down.

Thus says the LORD:

"Rise up, advance against Kedar!
Destroy the people of the east!

29 Their tents and their flocks shall be taken, their curtains and all their goods; their camels shall be led away from them, and men shall cry to them: 'Terror on every side!'

30 Flee, wander far away, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor!
declares the LORD.

For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has made a plan against you and formed a purpose against you.

31"Rise up, advance against a nation at ease, that dwells securely, declares the LORD, that has no gates or bars, ³²Their camels shall become plunder, their herds of livestock a spoil.

that dwells alone

I will scatter to every wind those who cut the corners of their hair, and I will bring their calamity from every side of them,

declares the LORD.

33Hazor shall become a haunt of jackals, an everlasting waste;
no man shall dwell there;
no man shall sojourn in her."

Judgment on Elam

- ³⁴The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah.
- ³⁵Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the mainstay of their might. ³⁶And I will bring upon Elam the four winds from the four quarters of heaven. And I will scatter them to all those winds, and there shall be no nation to which those driven out of Elam shall not come. ³⁷I will terrify Elam before their enemies and before those who seek their life. I will bring disaster upon them, my fierce anger, declares the LORD. I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them, ³⁸and I will set my throne in Elam and destroy their king and

Judgment on Babylon

- 50:1 The word that the LORD spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet:
- ²"Declare among the nations and proclaim, set up a banner and proclaim, conceal it not, and say:
 'Babylon is taken,
 - Bel is put to shame,
 - Merodach is dismayed.
- Her images are put to shame, her idols are dismayed.'
- ³"For out of the north a nation has come up against her, which shall make her land a desolation, and none shall dwell in it; both man and beast shall flee away.
- 4"In those days and in that time, declares the LORD, the people of Israel and the people of Judah shall come together, weeping as they come, and they shall seek the LORD their God. ⁵They shall ask the way to Zion, with faces turned toward it, saying, 'Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that will never be forgotten.'

6"My people have been lost sheep. Their shepherds have led them astray, turning them away on the mountains. From mountain to hill they have gone. They have forgotten their fold. ⁷All who found them have devoured them, and their enemies have said, 'We are not guilty, for they have sinned against the LORD, their habitation of righteousness, the LORD, the hope of their fathers.'

⁸"Flee from the midst of Babylon, and go out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as male goats before the flock. ⁹For behold, I am stirring up and bringing against Babylon a gathering of great nations, from the north country. And they shall array themselves against her. From there she shall be taken. Their arrows are like a skilled warrior who does not return empty-handed. ¹⁰Chaldea shall be plundered; all who plunder her shall be sated, declares the LORD.

11"Though you rejoice, though you exult, O plunderers of my heritage, though you frolic like a heifer in the pasture. and neigh like stallions,

12 your mother shall be utterly shamed, and she who bore you shall be disgraced. Behold, she shall be the last of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. ¹³Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited but shall be an utter desolation: everyone who passes by Babylon shall be appalled.

³⁷A sword against her horses and against her

³⁸A drought against her waters, that they may be dried up!

For it is a land of images, and they are mad over idols. 39"Therefore wild beasts shall dwell with hyenas in

Babylon, and ostriches shall dwell in her. She shall never again have people, nor be inhabited for all generations. 40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring cities, declares the LORD, so no man shall dwell there, and no son of man shall sojourn in her. 41"Behold, a people comes from the north; a mighty nation and many kings are stirring from the farthest parts of the earth.

42They lay hold of bow and spear;

they are cruel and have no mercy.

The sound of them is like the roaring of the sea; they ride on horses, arrayed as a man for battle against you, O daughter of Babylon!

43"The king of Babylon heard the report of them, and his hands fell helpless; anguish seized him, pain as of a woman in labor.

44"Behold, like a lion coming up from the thicket of the Jordan against a perennial pasture, I will suddenly make them run away from her, and I will appoint over her whomever I choose. For who is like me? Who will summon me? What shepherd can stand before me? 45Therefore hear the plan that the stand before me? ⁴⁵Therefore hear the plan that the LORD has made against Babylon, and the purposes that he has formed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the little ones of their flock shall be dragged away; surely their fold shall be appalled at their fate. ⁴⁶At the sound of the capture of Babylon the earth shall tremble, and her cry shall be heard

The Utter Destruction of Babylon

51:1 Thus says the LORD:

on the day of trouble.

- "Behold, I will stir up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon,
- against the inhabitants of Leb-kamai,^[61]
- ²and I will send to Babylon winnowers, and they shall winnow her, and they shall empty her land, when they come against her from every side
- ³Let not the archer bend his bow, and let him not stand up in his armor.
- Spare not her young men; devote to destruction [62] all her army.
- ⁴They shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans,
- and wounded in her streets.

 For Israel and Judah have not been forsaken
- by their God, the LORD of hosts, but the land of the Chaldeans^[63] is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

- 6"Flee from the midst of Babylon; let every one save his life! Be not cut off in her punishment, for this is the time of the LORD's vengeance, the repayment he is rendering her.
- ⁷Babylon was a golden cup in the LORD's hand, making all the earth drunken; the nations drank of her wine;
- therefore the nations went mad.

 8Suddenly Babylon has fallen and been broken; wail for her!

 Take balm for her pain;
- perhaps she may be healed.

 9We would have healed Babylon, but she was not healed.

 Forsake her, and let us go
- each to his own country, for her judgment has reached up to heaven and has been lifted up even to the skies.
- 10 The LORD has brought about our vindication; come, let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11"Sharpen the arrows! Take up the shields!

The LORD has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes, because his purpose concerning Babylon is to destroy it, for that is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance for his temple.

12"Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon; make the watch strong; set up watchmen;

prepare the ambushes; for the LORD has both planned and done what he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.

¹³O you who dwell by many waters, rich in treasures, your end has come; the thread of your life is cut.

14 The LORD of hosts has sworn by himself:

Surely I will fill you with men, as many as locusts, and they shall raise the shout of victory over you.

who established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding stretched out the heavens.

16When he utters his voice there is a tumult of waters in the heavens.

15"It is he who made the earth by his power, and he makes the mist rise from the ends of the earth.

He makes lightning for the rain, and he brings forth the wind from his storehouses. ¹⁷Every man is stupid and without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his idols, for his images are false, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are worthless, a work of delusion; at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

at the time of their punishment they shall perish.

19 Not like these is he who is the portion of Jacob, for he is the one who formed all things.

for he is the one who formed all things, and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance; the LORD of hosts is his name.

the LORD of hosts is his name.

20"You are my hammer and weapon of war:

20"You are my hammer and weapon of war: with you I break nations in pieces;

with you I break nations in pied with you I destroy kingdoms;

- with you I break in pieces the horse and his rider; with you I break in pieces the chariot and the charioteer; with you I break in pieces man and woman; with you I break in pieces the old man and the
- with you I break in pieces the young man and the young woman;

 23 with you I break in pieces the shepherd and his vouth:

- flock; with you I break in pieces the farmer and his team; with you I break in pieces governors and
- commanders.

 24"I will repay Babylon and all the inhabitants of
- Chaldea before your very eyes for all the evil that they have done in Zion, declares the LORD.
- 25"Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, declares the LORD, which destroys the whole earth;
- I will stretch out my hand against you, and roll you down from the crags, ²⁶No stone shall be taken from you for a corner and no stone for a foundation, but you shall be a perpetual waste, declares the LORD.

and make you a burnt mountain.

27"Set up a standard on the earth; blow the trumpet among the nations; prepare the nations for war against her; summon against her the kingdoms, Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz; appoint a marshal against her; bring up horses like bristling locusts.

28 Prepare the nations for war against her, the kings of the Medes, with their governors and deputies, and every land under their dominion.

29 The land trembles and writhes in pain,

for the LORD's purposes against Babylon stand,

³⁰The warriors of Babylon have ceased fighting;

to make the land of Babylon a desolation.

they remain in their strongholds;

without inhabitant.

they have become women;
her dwellings are on fire;
her bars are broken.

31 One runner runs to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to tell the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every side;

32the fords have been seized,

their strength has failed;

and the soldiers are in panic.

33For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:
The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden:

yet a little while and the time of her harvest will come."

the marshes are burned with fire.

34"Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me; he has crushed me;

he has made me an empty vessel; he has swallowed me like a monster; he has filled his stomach with my delicacies; he has rinsed me out. [64] 35The violence done to me and to my kinsmen be upon Babylon," let the inhabitant of Zion say.

"My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea," let Jerusalem say.

36Therefore thus says the LORD:
"Behold, I will plead your cause

I will dry up her sea and make her fountain dry, ³⁷and Babylon shall become a heap of ruins, the haunt of jackals.

without inhabitant.

38"They shall roar together like lions; they shall growl like lions' cubs.

and not wake, declares the LORD.

and take vengeance for you.

a horror and a hissing,

³⁹While they are inflamed I will prepare them a feast and make them drunk, that they may become merry, then sleep a perpetual sleep

- 40 will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and male goats.
 41 "How Babylon 65 is taken,"
- the praise of the whole earth seized! How Babylon has become
- a horror among the nations!

 42The sea has come up on Babylon;
- she is covered with its tumultuous waves.

 43Her cities have become a horror, a land of drought and a desert,
- a land in which no one dwells, and through which no son of man passes.
- and through which no son of man passes.
 And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and take out of his mouth what he has swallowed.
- and take out of his mouth what he has swallowed. The nations shall no longer flow to him; the wall of Babylon has fallen.
- 45"Go out of the midst of her, my people!
- Let every one save his life from the fierce anger of the LORD!

 46Let not your heart faint, and be not fearful at the report heard in the land.

when a report comes in one year and afterward a report in another year, and violence is in the land, and ruler is against ruler.

47"Therefore, behold, the days are coming when I will punish the images of Babylon; her whole land shall be put to shame, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.
48Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is in them, shall sing for joy over Babylon, for the destroyers shall come against them out of the north, declares the LORD.

49 Babylon must fall for the slain of Israel, just as for Babylon have fallen the slain of all the earth.

50"You who have escaped from the sword, go, do not stand still!

Remember the LORD from far away,

and let Jerusalem come into your mind:

reproach; dishonor has covered our face, for foreigners have come into the holy places of the LORD's house.'

52"Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares

⁵¹'We are put to shame, for we have heard the LORD, when I will execute judgment upon her images, and through all her land

the wounded shall groan.

53Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify her strong height, yet destroyers would come from me against her,
declares the LORD.

54"A voice! A cry from Babylon!The noise of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!

55For the LORD is laying Babylon waste and stilling her mighty voice.

Their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is raised, upon Babylon;

her warriors are taken;
their bows are broken in pieces, for the LORD is a God of recompense;
he will surely repay.

⁵⁶for a destroyer has come upon her,

58"Thus says the LORD of hosts: The broad wall of Babylon

⁵⁷I will make drunk her officials and her wise men, her governors, her commanders, and her warriors; they shall sleep a perpetual sleep and not wake, declares the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

shall be leveled to the ground, and her high gates shall be burned with fire. The peoples labor for nothing, and the nations weary themselves only for fire."

⁵⁹The word that Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah king of Judah to Babylon, in disaster that should come upon Babylon, all these words that are written concerning Babylon. ⁶¹And Jeremiah said to Seraiah: "When you come to Babylon, see that you read all these words, ⁶²and say, 'O LORD, you have said concerning this place the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah was the quartermaster. ⁶⁰Jeremiah wrote in a book all the

that you will cut it off, so that nothing shall dwell in it, neither man nor beast, and it shall be desolate forever.' ⁶³When you finish reading this book, tie a stone to it and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates, ⁶⁴and say, 'Thus shall Babylon sink, to rise no more, because of the disaster that I am bringing upon her, and they shall become exhausted.'"

Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

The Fall of Jerusalem Recounted

52:1 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ²And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³For because of the anger of the LORD things came to the point in Jerusalem and Judah that he cast them out from his presence.

And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴And in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem, and laid siege to it. And they built siegeworks all around it. ⁵So the city was besieged till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. ⁶On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the people of the land. ⁷Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled and went out from the city by the city. And they went in the direction of the Arabah. ⁸But the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And all his army was scattered from him. ⁹Then they captured the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath, and he passed sentence on him. ¹⁰The king of Babylon slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and also slaughtered all the officials of Judah at Riblah. ¹¹He put out the eyes of Zedekiah. and bound him in chains, and the king of Babylon took him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.

The Temple Burned

¹²In the fifth month. on the tenth day of the month—

that was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon—Nebuzaradan the captain of the bodyquard, who served the king of Babylon, entered Jerusalem. ¹³And he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem; every great house he burned down. 14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls around Jerusalem. 15And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive some of the poorest of the people and the rest of the people who were left in the city and the deserters who had deserted to the king of Babylon, together with the rest of the artisans. ¹⁶But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and plowmen. ¹⁷And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of ¹⁷And the pillars of bronze that were in the house of the LORD, and the stands and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans Babylon. ¹⁸And they took away the pots and the shovels and the snuffers and the basins and the dishes for incense and all the vessels of bronze used in the temple service; ¹⁹also the small bowls and the fire pans and the basins and the pots and the lampstands and the dishes for incense and the bowls for drink offerings. What was of gold the captain of the guard took away as gold, and what was of silver, as silver. ²⁰As for the two pillars, the these things was beyond weight. ²¹As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, ^[67] its circumference was twelve cubits, and its thickness was four fingers, and it was hollow. ²²On it was a capital of bronze. The height of the one capital was five cubits. A network and pomegranates, all of bronze, were around the capital. And the second pillar had the same, with pomegranates. ²³There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the

The People Exiled to Babylon

²⁴And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold; ²⁵and from the city he took an officer who had been in command of the men of war, and seven men of the king's council.

who were found in the city; and the secretary of the commander of the army who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. ²⁶And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27 And the king of Babylon struck them down, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath, So Judah was taken into exile out of its land. ²⁸This is the number of the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year, 3,023 Judeans; ²⁹in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem 832 persons; 30 in the twenty-third year of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Judeans 745 persons; all the persons were 4,600.

Jehoiachin Released from Prison

³¹And in the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-fifth day of the month. Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he became king, graciously freed[68] Jehoiachin king of Judah and brought him out of prison, ³²And he spoke kindly to him, and gave him a seat above the seats of the kings who were with him in Babylon. 33So Jehoiachin put off his prison garments. And every day of his life he dined regularly at the king's table, ³⁴ and for his allowance, a regular allowance was given him by the king according to his daily need, until the day of his death, as long as he lived.

Chapter 3

Chapter 4
Chapter 5

How Lonely Sits the City

- 1:1 How lonely sits the city
 that was full of people!
 How like a widow has she become,
 she who was great among the nations!
 She who was a princess among the provinces has become a slave.
- ²She weeps bitterly in the night, with tears on her cheeks; among all her lovers she has none to comfort her; all her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they have become her enemies.
- ³Judah has gone into exile because of affliction and hard servitude; she dwells now among the nations, but finds no resting place; her pursuers have all overtaken her in the midst of her distress [1]

all her gates are desolate;
her priests groan;
her virgins have been afflicted, [2] and she herself suffers bitterly.

5Her foes have become the head:

⁴The roads to Zion mourn, for none come to the festival:

her enemies prosper.

that find no pasture; they fled without strength

because the LORD has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions; her children have gone away, captives before the foe.

6From the daughter of Zion all her majesty has departed.

Her princes have become like deer before the pursuer.

7 Jerusalem remembers
in the days of her affliction and wandering that were hers from days of old. When her people fell into the hand of the foe. and there was none to help her. her foes gloated over her;

they mocked at her downfall. ⁸Jerusalem sinned grievously;

therefore she became filthy:

all the precious things

all who honored her despise her, for they have seen her nakedness; she herself groans and turns her face away.

⁹Her uncleanness was in her skirts;

she took no thought of her future 3 therefore her fall is terrible:

she has no comforter. "O LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy has triumphed!"

¹⁰The enemy has stretched out his hands over all her precious things; for she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary, those whom you forbade to enter your congregation.

¹¹All her people groan

for I am despised."

- as they search for bread; they trade their treasures for food to revive their strength. "Look, O LORD, and see,
- 12"Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by? Look and see
- if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which was brought upon me, which the LORD inflicted on the day of his fierce anger.
- 13"From on high he sent fire; into my bones [4] he made it descend; he spread a net for my feet; he turned me back; he has left me stunned, 14"My transgressions were bound^[5] into a yoke; by his hand they were fastened together; they were set upon my neck;

faint all the day long.

15"The Lord rejected

- they were set upon my neck;
 he caused my strength to fail;
 the Lord gave me into the hands of those whom I cannot withstand.
- all my mighty men in my midst; he summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men; the Lord has trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.
- 16"For these things I weep; my eyes flow with tears; for a comforter is far from me, one to revive my spirit; my children are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed."
- ¹⁷Zion stretches out her hands, but there is none to comfort her; the LORD has commanded against Jacob that his neighbors should be his foes: Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

for I have rebelled against his word; but hear, all you peoples, and see my suffering; my young women and my young men

18"The LORD is in the right, have gone into captivity. but they deceived me:

19"I called to my lovers, my priests and elders perished in the city, while they sought food to revive their strenath.

20"Look, O LORD, for I am in distress; my stomach churns;

my heart is wrung within me, because I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword bereaves; in the house it is like death.

and my heart is faint."

21"They heard of my groaning, yet there is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it.

You have brought^[7] the day you announced; now let them be as I am.

22"Let all their evildoing come before you, and deal with them as you have dealt with me because of all my transgressions; for my groans are many,

The Lord Has Destroyed Without Pity

- 2:1 How the Lord in his anger has set the daughter of Zion under a cloud!
 He has cast down from heaven to earth
 the splendor of Israel;
 he has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.
- ²The Lord has swallowed up without mercy all the habitations of Jacob; in his wrath he has broken down the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; he has brought down to the ground in dishonor the kingdom and its rulers.
- ³He has cut down in fierce anger all the might of Israel; he has withdrawn from them his right hand in the face of the enemy; he has burned like a flaming fire in Jacob, consuming all around.

- ⁴He has bent his bow like an enemy, with his right hand set like a foe; and he has killed all who were delightful in our eyes in the tent of the daughter of Zion; he has poured out his fury like fire.
- ⁵The Lord has become like an enemy; he has swallowed up Israel; he has swallowed up all its palaces; he has laid in ruins its strongholds, and he has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.
- ⁶He has laid waste his booth like a garden, laid in ruins his meeting place; the LORD has made Zion forget festival and Sabbath, and in his fierce indignation has spurned king and priest.
- ⁷The Lord has scorned his altar, disowned his sanctuary; he has delivered into the hand of the enemy

the walls of her palaces;
they raised a clamor in the house of the LORD as on the day of festival.

8The LORD determined to lay in ruins

the wall of the daughter of Zion;
he stretched out the measuring line;
he did not restrain his hand from destroying;
he caused rampart and wall to lament;
they languished together.

9Her gates have sunk into the ground;

her gates have sunk into the ground;
he has ruined and broken her bars;
her king and princes are among the nations;
the law is no more,
and her prophets find no vision from the LORD.

10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground in silence; they have thrown dust on their heads and put on sackcloth;

the young women of Jerusalem have bowed their heads to the ground.

¹¹My eyes are spent with weeping; my stomach churns; my bile is poured out to the ground because of the destruction of the daughter of my people,

¹³What can I say for you, to what compare you,

What can I liken to you, that I may comfort you,

"Where is bread and wine?"
as they faint like a wounded man in the streets of the city, as their life is poured out on their mothers' bosom.

O daughter of Jerusalem?

O virgin daughter of Zion? For your ruin is vast as the sea;

12 They cry to their mothers, because infants and babies faint in the streets of the city.

who can heal you?

14

Your prophets have seen for you they have not exposed your iniquity to restore your fortunes, but have seen for you oracles that are false and misleading.

15 All who pass along the way clap their hands at you; they hiss and wag their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem: "Is this the city that was called false and deceptive visions:

the perfection of beauty, the joy of all the earth?"

16All your enemies rail against you;
they hiss, they gnash their teeth,
they cry: "We have swallowed her!

they hiss, they gnash their teeth, they cry: "We have swallowed her! Ah, this is the day we longed for; now we have it; we see it!"

which he commanded long ago;

now we have it; we see it!"

17The LORD has done what he purposed; he has carried out his word.

- he has thrown down without pity; he has made the enemy rejoice over you and exalted the might of your foes.
- ¹⁸Their heart cried to the Lord. O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears stream down like a torrent day and night! Give yourself no rest, your eyes no respite!
- 19"Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the night watches! Pour out your heart like water before the presence of the Lord! Lift your hands to him for the lives of your children, who faint for hunger
- ²⁰Look, O LORD, and see! With whom have you dealt thus? Should women eat the fruit of their womb.

at the head of every street."

the children of their tender care? Should priest and prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

²¹In the dust of the streets lie the young and the old; my young women and my young men have fallen by the sword; you have killed them in the day of your anger, slaughtering without pity.

22You summoned as if to a festival day my terrors on every side, and on the day of the anger of the LORD no one escaped or survived; those whom I held and raised my enemy destroyed.

Great Is Your Faithfulness

- 3:1 Lam the man who has seen affliction under the rod of his wrath:
- ²he has driven and brought me into darkness without any light;

The Holy Stones Lie Scattered

- 4:1 How the gold has grown dim, how the pure gold is changed! The holy stones lie scattered at the head of every street.
- ²The precious sons of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold, how they are regarded as earthen pots, the work of a potter's hands!
- ³Even jackals offer the breast; they nurse their young, but the daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
- ⁴The tongue of the nursing infant sticks to the roof of its mouth for thirst; the children beg for food, but no one gives to them.
- ⁵Those who once feasted on delicacies

 those who were brought up in purple than the punishment of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, and no hands were wrung for her.

- ⁷Her princes were purer than snow, whiter than milk; their bodies were more ruddy than coral, the beauty of their form^[18] was like sapphire.^[19]
 - ⁸Now their face is blacker than soot; they are not recognized in the streets; their skin has shriveled on their bones; it has become as dry as wood.

and he kindled a fire in Zion that consumed its foundations.

12 The kings of the earth did not believe, nor any of the inhabitants of the world.

11 The LORD gave full vent to his wrath; he poured out his hot anger, the gates of Jerusalem.

 13This was for the sins of her prophets and the iniquities of her priests, who shed in the midst of her that foe or enemy could enter the blood of the righteous.

¹⁴They wandered, blind, through the streets;

their garments.

15"Away! Unclean!" people cried at them.
"Away! Away! Do not touch!"
So they became fugitives and wanderers;
people said among the nations,

they were so defiled with blood that no one was able to touch

"They shall stay with us no longer."

16 The LORD himself [20] has scattered them; he will regard them no more; no honor was shown to the priests, no favor to the elders.

17Our eyes failed, ever watching vainly for help;

in our watching we watched for a nation which could not save.

18 They dogged our steps

so that we could not walk in our streets; our end drew near; our days were numbered, for our end had come.

- ¹⁹Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles in the heavens; they chased us on the mountains; they lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
- ²⁰The breath of our nostrils, the LORD's anointed, was captured in their pits, of whom we said, "Under his shadow we shall live among the nations."
- ²¹Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, you who dwell in the land of Uz; but to you also the cup shall pass; you shall become drunk and strip yourself bare.
- 22The punishment of your iniquity, O daughter of Zion, is accomplished;
- he will keep you in exile no longer;[21] but your iniquity, O daughter of Edom, he will punish; he will uncover your sins.

Restore Us to Yourself, O LORD

- 5:1 Remember, O LORD, what has befallen us;
 look, and see our disgrace!
 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,

- We must pay for the water we drink; the wood we get must be bought.

 Our pursuers are at our necks: [22]
- we are weary; we are given no rest.

 ⁶We have given the hand to Egypt, and to Assyria,
- to get bread enough.

 Our fathers sinned, and are no more;
 and we bear their iniquities.

Ezekiel in Babylon

1:1 In the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I was among the exiles by the Chebar canal, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. On the fifth day of the month (it was the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin), the word of the LORD came to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the Chebar canal, and the hand of the LORD was upon him there.

The Glory of the LORD

⁴As I looked. behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, and a great cloud, with brightness around it. and fire flashing forth continually, and in the midst of the fire, as it were gleaming metal. [2] 5And from the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had a human likeness, ⁶but each had four faces, and each of them had four wings. ⁷Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calf's foot. And they sparkled like burnished bronze. ⁸Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. And the four had their faces and their wings thus: 9their wings touched one another. Each one of them went straight forward, without turning as they went. 10 As for the likeness of their faces, each had a human face. The four had the face of a lion on the right side, the four had the face of an ox on the left side, and the four had the face of an eagle, ¹¹Such were their faces. And their wings were spread out above. Each creature had two wings, each of which touched the wing of another, while two covered their bodies. 12 And each went straight forward. Wherever the spirit would go, they went, without turning as they went. ¹³As for the likeness of the living creatures. their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches moving to and fro among the living creatures. And the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. ¹⁴And the living creatures darted to and fro, like the appearance of a flash of lightning. 15 Now as I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, one for each of the four of them. [3] 16 As for the appearance of the wheels and their construction: their appearance was like the gleaming of beryl. And the four had the same likeness, their appearance and construction being as it were a wheel within a wheel. ¹⁷When they went, they went in any of their four directions [4] without turning as they went. 18 And their rims were tall and awesome, and the rims of all four were full of eyes all around. 19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them;

and when the living creatures rose from the earth, the wheels rose. ²⁰Wherever the spirit wanted to go, they went, and the wheels rose along with them, for the spirit of the living creatures [5] was in the wheels. ²¹When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those rose from the earth, the wheels rose along with them, for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.

²²Over the heads of the living creatures there was the likeness of an expanse, shining like aweinspiring crystal, spread out above their heads. ²³And under the expanse their wings were stretched out straight, one toward another. And each creature had two wings covering its body. ²⁴And when they went, I heard the sound of their wings like the sound of many waters, like the sound of the Almighty, a sound of tumult like the sound of an army. When they stood still, they let down their wings, ²⁵And there came a voice from above the expanse over their heads. When they stood still, they let down their wings.

was the likeness of a throne, in appearance like sapphire; and seated above the likeness of a throne was a likeness with a human appearance.

27 And upward from what had the appearance of his waist I saw as it were gleaming metal, like the appearance of fire enclosed all around. And downward from what had the appearance of his waist I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. 28 Like the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud on the day

²⁶And above the expanse over their heads there of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around.

Such was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard the voice of one speaking.

Ezekiel's Call

2:1 And he said to me, "Son of man, B stand on your feet, and I will speak with you," ²And as he spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard him speaking to me. ³And he said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel, to nations of rebels, who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have descendants also are impudent and stubborn: I send that a prophet has been among them. ⁶And you, son transgressed against me to this very day. 4The you to them, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' 5And whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house) they will know of man, be not afraid of them, nor be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you and you sit on scorpions. 9 Be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house. ⁷And you shall speak my words to them. whether they hear or refuse to hear, for they are a rebellious house.

rebellious like that rebellious house; open your mouth and eat what I give you." ⁹And when I looked, behold, a hand was stretched out to me, and behold, a scroll of a book was in it. ¹⁰And he spread it before me. And it had writing on the front and on the back, and there were written on it words of lamentation and mourning and woe.

⁸"But vou. son of man, hear what I say to you. Be not you find here. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel." ²So I opened my mouth, and he gave me this scroll to eat. ³And he said to me, "Son of man, feed your belly with this scroll that I give you and fill your stomach with it." Then I ate it, and it was in my mouth as sweet as honey.

3:1 And he said to me, "Son of man, eat whatever

⁴And he said to me, "Son of man, go to the house of Israel and speak with my words to them. ⁵For you are not sent to a people of foreign speech and a hard language, but to the house of Israel— ⁶not to many peoples of foreign speech and a hard

⁷But the house of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, for they are not willing to listen to me: because all the house of Israel have a hard forehead and a stubborn heart. ⁸Behold, I have made your face as made your forehead. Fear them not, nor be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house." ¹⁰Moreover, he said to me, "Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. ¹¹And go to the exiles, to your people, and speak to them and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD,' whether they hear ¹²Then the Spirit^[10] lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice^[11] of a great earthquake: "Blessed be the glory of the LORD from its place!" ¹³It was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the sound of the wheels beside them, and the sound of a great earthquake.

went in bitterness in the heat of my spirit, the hand of the LORD being strong upon me. ¹⁵And I came to the exiles at Tel-abib, who were dwelling by the Chebar canal, and I sat where they were dwelling. [12] And I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.

¹⁴The Spirit lifted me up and took me away, and I

A Watchman for Israel

¹⁶And at the end of seven days, the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷"Son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Israel. Whenever you hear a word from my mouth, you shall give them warning from me. ¹⁸If I say to the wicked, 'You shall surely die,' and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, in order to save his life, that wicked person shall die for ^[13] his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand. ¹⁹But if you warn the wicked, and he does not turn from his wickedness, or from his wicked way, he shall die for his iniquity, but you will have delivered your soul. ²⁰Again, if a righteous person turns from his righteousness and commits injustice, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die. Because you have not warned him, he shall die for his sin, and his righteous deeds that he has done shall not be remembered, but his blood I will require at your hand. ²¹But if you warn the righteous person not to sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning, and you will have delivered your soul."

22 And the hand of the LORD was upon me there.

And he said to me, "Arise, go out into the valley. [14]

And he said to me, "Arise, go out into the vallev [14] and there I will speak with you." 23So I arose and went out into the valley, and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory that I had seen by the Chebar canal, and I fell on my face. 24But the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and he spoke with me and said to me, "Go, shut yourself within your house. ²⁵And you, O son of man, behold, cords will be placed upon you, and you shall be bound with them, so that you cannot go out among the people. ²⁶And I will make your tongue cling to the roof of your mouth, so that you shall be mute and unable to reprove them, for they are a rebellious house. ²⁷But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD.' He who will hear, let him hear; and he who will refuse to hear, let him refuse, for they are a rebellious house.

The Siege of Jerusalem Symbolized

4:1 "And you, son of man, take a brick and lay it before you, and engrave on it a city, even Jerusalem. ²And put siegeworks against it, and build a siege wall against it, and cast up a mound against it. Set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it all around. ³And you, take an iron griddle, and place it as an iron wall between you and the city; and set your face toward it, and let it be in a state of siege, and press the siege against it. This is a sign for the house of Israel.

⁴"Then lie on your left side, and place the punishment of the house of Israel upon it. For the number of the days that you lie on it, you shall bear their punishment. ⁵For I assign to you a number of days, 390 days, equal to the number of the years of their punishment. So long shall you bear the punishment of the house of Israel. ⁶And when you have completed these, you shall lie down a second time, but on your right side, and bear the punishment the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm bared, and you shall prophesy against the city. ⁸And behold, I will place cords upon you, so that you cannot turn from one side to the other, till you have completed the days of your siege.

During the number of days that you lie on your side, 390 days, you shall eat it. ¹⁰And your food that you eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels [17] a day; from day to day [18] you shall eat it. ¹¹And water you shall drink by day^[18] you shall eat it. ¹¹And water you shall drink by measure, the sixth part of a hin;^[19] from day to day you shall drink. ¹²And you shall eat it as a barley cake, baking it in their sight on human dung." ¹³And the LORD said, "Thus shall the people of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them." ¹⁴Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Behold, I have never defiled myself.^[20] From my youth up till mouth." ¹⁵Then he said to me, "See, I assign to you cow's dung instead of human dung, on which you may prepare your bread." ¹⁶Moreover, he said to me, "Son of man, behold, I will break the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They shall eat bread by weight and with anxiety, and they shall drink water by measure and in dismay. ¹⁷I will do this that they may lack bread and water, and look at one another in dismay, and rot away because of their punishment.

Then take balances for weighing and divide the hair. ²A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are completed. And a third part you shall take and strike with the sword all around the city. Judgment Against Idolatry

6:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, ³ and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD! Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, to the ravines and the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. 4Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken, and I will cast down your slain before your idols. ⁵And I will lay the dead bodies of the people of Israel before their idols, and I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶Wherever you dwell, the cities shall be waste and the high places ruined, so that your altars will be waste and ruined. The Day of the Wrath of the LORD

7:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"And you, O son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to the land of Israel: An end! The end has come upon the four corners of the land. ^[30] Now the end is upon you, and I will send my anger upon you; I will judge you according to your ways, and I will punish you for all your abominations. ⁴And my eye will not spare you, nor will I have pity, but I will punish you for your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵"Thus says the Lord GOD: Disaster after disaster!^[31] Behold, it comes. ⁶An end has come; the end has come; it has awakened against you. Behold, it comes. ⁷Your doom^[32] has come to you, O inhabitant of the land. The time has come; the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting on the mountains. ⁸Now I will soon pour out my wrath upon you, and spend my anger against you, and judge you according to your ways, and I will punish spare, nor will I have pity. I will punish you according to your ways, while your abominations are in your midst. Then you will know that I am the LORD, who strikes.

10 Behold, the day! Behold, it comes! Your doom has come; the rod has blossomed; pride has vou for all your abominations. ⁹And my eve will not budded. ¹¹Violence has grown up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor their abundance, nor their wealth; neither shall there be preeminence among them. ^[33] ¹²The time has come; the day has arrived. Let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn, for wrath is upon all their multitude. ^[34] ¹³For the seller shall not return to what he has sold, while they live. For the vision concerns all their

the sword, and him who is in the city famine and pestilence devour. ¹⁶And if any survivors escape, they will be on the mountains, like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, each one over his iniquity. ¹⁷All hands are feeble, and all knees turn to water. ¹⁸They put on sackcloth, and horror covers them. Shame is on all faces, and baldness on all their heads. ¹⁹They cast their silver into the streets, and their gold is like an unclean thing. Their silver and gold are not able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD. They cannot satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs with it. For it was the stumbling block of their iniquity. ²⁰His beautiful ornament they used for pride, and they made their abominable images and their detestable things of it. Therefore I make it an unclean thing to them. ²¹And I will give it into the hands of foreigners for prey, and to the wicked of the earth for spoil, and they shall profane it. 22 will turn my face from them, and they shall profane my treasured[36] place. They seek a vision from the prophet, while the law^[39] perishes from the priest and counsel from the elders. ²⁷The king mourns, the prince is wrapped in despair, and the hands of the people of the land are paralyzed by terror. According to their way I will do to them, and according to their judgments I will judge them, and they shall know that I am the LORD."

Abominations in the Temple

8:1 In the sixth year, in the sixth month, on the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, with the elders of Judah sitting before me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell upon me there. ²Then Hooked, and behold, a form that had the appearance of a man. [40] Below what appeared to be his waist was fire, and above his waist was something like the appearance of brightness, like gleaming metal. [41] ³He put out the form of a hand and took me by a lock of my head, and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the gateway of the inner court that faces north, where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. ⁴And behold.

⁵Then he said to me, "Son of man, lift up your eyes now toward the north." So I lifted up my eyes toward the north, and behold, north of the altar gate, in the

to me, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel are committing here, to drive me far from my sanctuary? But you will see still greater abominations." ⁷And he brought me to the entrance of the court, and when I looked, behold, there was a hole in the wall.

⁸Then he said to me. "Son of man, dig in the wall." So I dug in the wall, and behold, there was an entrance. ⁹And he said to me, "Go in, and see the vile abominations that they are committing here." ¹⁰So I went in and saw. And there, engraved on the wall all around, was every form of creeping things and loathsome beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel. 11 And before them stood seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel, with Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan standing among them. Each had his censer in his hand, and the smoke of the cloud of incense went up. 12 Then he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the dark, each in his room of pictures?

For they say, 'The LORD does not see us, the LORD has forsaken the land." ¹³He said also to me, "You will see still greater abominations that they commit." ¹⁴Then he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of the LORD, and behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. ¹⁵Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? You will see still greater abominations than these." ¹⁶And he brought me into the inner court of the house of the LORD. And behold, at the entrance of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs to the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east, worshiping the sun toward the east. ¹⁷Then he said to me, "Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it too light a thing for the house of Judah to commit the abominations that they commit here, that they should fill the land with violence and provoke me still further to anger? Behold, they put the branch to their [42] nose. 18 Therefore I will act in wrath. My eye will not spare, nor will I have pity. And though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, I will not hear them."

³Now the glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub on which it rested to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writing case at his waist. ⁴And the LORD said to him, "Pass through the city, through Jerusalem, and put a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan over all the abominations that are committed in it." ⁵And to the others he said in my hearing, "Pass through the city after him, and strike. Israel in the outpouring of your wrath on Jerusalem?"

⁹Then he said to me, "The guilt of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great. The land is full of blood, and the city full of injustice. For they say, 'The

The Glory of the LORD Leaves the Temple

10:1 Then I looked, and behold, on the expanse that was over the heads of the cherubim there appeared above them something like a sapphire, [43] in appearance like a throne. ²And he said to the man clothed in linen, "Go in among the whirling wheels underneath the cherubim. Fill your hands with burning coals from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city."

were standing on the south side of the house, when the man went in, and a cloud filled the inner court.

⁴And the glory of the LORD went up from the cherub to the threshold of the house, and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was filled with the brightness of the glory of the LORD. ⁵And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court, like the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.

And he went in before my eyes. ³Now the cherubim hands of the man clothed in linen, who took it and went out. ⁸The cherubim appeared to have the form of a human hand under their wings. ⁹And Hooked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the cherubim, one beside each cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like sparkling beryl. ¹⁰And as for their appearance, the four had the same likeness, as if a wheel were within a wheel. ¹¹When they went, they went in any of their four directions[44] without turning as they went, but in whatever direction the front wheel [45] faced. the others followed without turning as they went. 12 And their whole body, their rims, and their spokes, their wings, [46] and the wheels were full of eyes all around —the wheels that the four of them had. ¹³As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing "the whirling wheels." ¹⁴And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was a human face, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

¹⁵And the cherubim mounted up. These were the living creatures that I saw by the Chebar canal.

¹⁶And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them. And when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels did not turn from beside them. ¹⁷When they stood still, these stood still, and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them, for the spirit of the living creatures ^[47] was in them.

¹⁸Then the glory of the LORD went out from the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.

whose appearance I had seen by the Chebar canal. Each one of them went straight forward.

Judgment on Wicked Counselors

- 11:1 The Spirit lifted me up and brought me to the east gate of the house of the LORD, which faces east. And behold, at the entrance of the gateway there were twenty-five men. And I saw among them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people. ²And he said to me,
- "Son of man, these are the men who devise iniquity and who give wicked counsel in this city; ³who say, 'The time is not near^[48] to build houses. This city is the cauldron, and we are the meat.' ⁴Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man."

 ⁵And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and he
- said to me, "Say, Thus says the LORD: So you think, O house of Israel. For I know the things that come into your mind. ⁶You have multiplied your slain in this city and have filled its streets with the slain. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Your slain whom you have laid in the midst of it, they are the meat, and this city is the cauldron, but you shall be of it, and give you into the hands of foreigners, and execute judgments upon you. ¹⁰You shall fall by the sword. I will judge you at the border of Israel, and you shall know that I am the LORD. ¹¹This city shall not ¹³And it came to pass, while I was prophesying, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then I fell down on my face and cried out with a loud voice and said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?"

Israel's New Heart and Spirit

¹⁴And the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁵ Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, your kinsmen. [49] the whole house of Israel, all of them, are those of whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, 'Go far from the LORD; to us this land is given for a possession, 16Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Though I removed them far off among the nations, and though I scattered them among the countries, yet I have been a sanctuary to them for a while [50] in the countries where they have gone. ¹⁷Therefore say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.' 18 And when they come there, they will remove from it all its detestable things and all its abominations. ¹⁹And I will give them one heart, and a new spirit I will put within them. I will remove the heart of stone from their flesh and give them a heart of flesh, ²⁰that they may walk in my statutes and keep my rules and obey them. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. ²¹But as for those whose heart goes after their detestable things and their abominations, I will^[51] bring their deeds upon their own heads, declares the Lord GOD."

wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel was over them. ²³And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city and stood on the mountain that is on the east side of the city. ²⁴And the Spirit lifted me up and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to the exiles. Then the vision that I had seen went up from me. ²⁵And I told the exiles all the things that the LORD had shown me.

12:1 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, you dwell in the midst of a rebellious house. who have eyes to see, but see not, who have ears to hear, but hear not, for they are a rebellious house. 3 As for you, son of man, prepare for yourself an exile's baggage, and go into exile by day in their sight. You shall go like an exile from your place to another place in their sight. Perhaps they will understand, though [52] they are a rebellious house. ⁴You shall bring out your baggage by day in their sight, as baggage for exile, and you shall go out yourself at evening in their sight, as those do who must go into exile. ⁵In their sight dig through the wall, and bring your baggage out through it. ⁶In their sight you shall lift the baggage upon your shoulder and

False Prophets Condemned

13:1 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, who are prophesying, and say to those who prophesy from their own hearts: 'Hear the word of the LORD!' ³Thus says the Lord GOD, Woe to the foolish prophets who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! ⁴Your prophets have been like jackals among ruins. O Israel. ⁵You have not gone up into the breaches, or built up a wall for the house of Israel, that it might stand in battle in the day of the LORD. ⁶They have seen false visions and lying divinations. They say, 'Declares the LORD,' when the LORD has not sent them, and yet they expect him to fulfill their word. ⁷Have you not seen a false vision and uttered a lying divination, whenever you have said, 'Declares the LORD,' although I have not spoken?"

⁸Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "Because you have uttered falsehood and seen lying visions, therefore behold, I am against you, declares the Lord GOD. 9Mv hand will be against the prophets who see false visions and who give lying divinations. They shall not be in the council of my people, nor be enrolled in the register of the house of Israel, nor shall they enter the land of Israel. And you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. 10 Precisely because they have misled my people, saying, 'Peace,' when there is no peace, and because, when the people build a wall, these prophets smear it with whitewash. [57] ¹¹sav to those who smear it with whitewash that it shall fall! There will be a deluge of rain, and you, O great hailstones, will fall, and a stormy wind break out. 12 And when the wall falls, will it not be said to you, 'Where is the coating with which you smeared it?' 13Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will make a stormy wind break out in my wrath, and there shall be a deluge of rain in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to make a full end. 14 And I will break down the wall that you have smeared with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be laid bare. Will you hunt down souls belonging to my people and keep your own souls alive? ¹⁹You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, putting to death souls who should not die and keeping alive souls who should not live, by your lying to my people, who listen to lies.

Idolatrous Elders Condemned

- 14:1 Then certain of the elders of Israel came to me and sat before me. ²And the word of the LORD came to me: 3"Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their hearts, and set the stumbling block of their iniquity before their faces. Should I indeed let myself be consulted by them? 4Therefore speak to them and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Any one of the house of Israel who takes his idols into his heart and sets the stumbling block of his iniquity before his face, and yet comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him as he comes with the multitude of his idols, 5that I may lay hold of the hearts of the house of Israel, who are all

Jerusalem Will Not Be Spared

¹²And the word of the LORD came to me: ¹³"Son of man, when a land sins against me by acting faithlessly, and I stretch out my hand against it and break its supply^[59] of bread and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast, ¹⁴even if these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they would deliver but their own lives by their righteousness, declares the Lord GOD.

15"If I cause wild beasts to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no one may pass through because of the beasts, 16 even if these three men were in it, as I live, declares the Lord GOD, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters. They alone would be delivered, but the land would be desolate.

17"Or if I bring a sword upon that land and say, Let a sword pass through the land, and I cut off from it man and beast, ¹⁸though these three men were in it, as I live, declares the Lord GOD, they would deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they alone would be delivered.

19"Or if I send a pestilence into that land and pour out my wrath upon it with blood, to cut off from it man and beast, 20 even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live. declares the Lord GOD, they would deliver

²¹"For thus says the Lord GOD: How much more when I send upon Jerusalem my four disastrous acts of judgment, sword, famine, wild beasts, and pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast! 22But behold, some survivors will be left in it, sons and daughters who will be brought out; behold, when they come out to you, and you see their ways and their deeds, you will be consoled for the disaster that I have brought upon Jerusalem, for all that I have brought upon it. ²³They will console you, when you see their ways and their deeds, and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done

Jerusalem, a Useless Vine

15:1 And the word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, how does the wood of the vine surpass any wood, the vine branch that is among the trees of the forest? 3 Is wood taken from it to make anything? Do people take a peg from it to hang any vessel on it? ⁴Behold, it is given to the fire for fuel. When the fire has consumed both ends of it, and the middle of it is charred, is it useful for anything? ⁵Behold, when it was whole, it was used for nothing. How much less. when the fire has consumed it and it is charred, can it ever be used for anything! ⁶Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Like the wood of the vine among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so have I given up the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ⁷And I will set my face against them. Though they escape from the fire, the fire shall yet consume them, and you will know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. 8And I will make the land desolate, because they have acted faithlessly, declares the Lord GOD."

The LORD's Faithless Bride

- 16:1 Again the word of the LORD came to me:
- ²"Son of man, make known to Jerusalem her abominations, ³and say, Thus says the Lord GOD to Jerusalem: Your origin and your birth are of the land of the Canaanites: your father was an Amorite and vour mother a Hittite. ⁴And as for your birth, on the day you were born your cord was not cut, nor were you washed with water to cleanse you, nor rubbed with salt, nor wrapped in swaddling cloths. ⁵No eve pitied you, to do any of these things to you out of compassion for you, but you were cast out on the open field, for you were abhorred, on the day that vou were born.

6"And when I passed by you and saw you wallowing in your blood, I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' I said to you in your blood, 'Live!' I made you flourish like a plant of the field. And you grew up and became tall and arrived at full adornment. Your breasts were formed, and your hair had grown; yet you were naked and bare.

8"When I passed by you again and saw you, behold, you were at the age for love, and I spread the corner of my garment over you and covered your nakedness; I made my vow to you and entered into a covenant with you, declares the Lord GOD, and you became mine.

9 Then I bathed you with water and washed off your blood from you and anointed you with oil.

10 I clothed you also with embroidered cloth and shod you with fine leather. I wrapped you in fine and shod you with fine leather. I wrapped you in fine linen and covered you with silk. [60] 11 And I adorned you with ornaments and put bracelets on your wrists and a chain on your neck. ¹²And I put a ring on your nose and earrings in your ears and a beautiful crown on your head. 13Thus you were adorned with gold and silver, and your clothing was of fine linen and silk and embroidered cloth. You ate fine flour and honey and oil. You grew exceedingly beautiful and advanced to royalty. ¹⁴And your renown went forth among the nations because of your beauty, for it was perfect through the splendor that I had bestowed on you, declares the Lord GOD.

15"But you trusted in your beauty and played the whore [61] because of your renown and lavished your whorings [62] on any passerby; your beauty [63] became his. 16 You took some of your garments and made for yourself colorful shrines, and on them played the whore. The like has never been, nor ever shall be [64] 17 you also took your beautiful iewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and with them played the whore. ¹⁸And you took your embroidered garments to cover them, and set my oil and my incense before them. ¹⁹Also my bread that I gave you—I fed you with fine flour and oil and honey—you set before them for a pleasing aroma; and so it was, declares the Lord GOD. 20 And you took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to me, and these you sacrificed to them to be devoured. you gave your gifts to all your lovers, bribing them to come to you from every side with your whorings.

34So you were different from other women in your whorings. No one solicited you to play the whore, and you gave payment, while no payment was given to you; therefore you were different.

³⁵"Therefore, O prostitute, hear the word of the LORD: ³⁶Thus says the Lord GOD, Because your lust was poured out and your nakedness uncovered in your whorings with your lovers, and with all your abominable idols, and because of the blood of your children that you gave to them, ³⁷therefore, behold, I

They shall strip you of your clothes and take your beautiful jewels and leave you naked and bare. 40 They shall bring up a crowd against you, and they shall stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords. 41 And they shall burn your houses and execute judgments upon you in the sight of many women. I will make you stop playing the whore, and you shall also give payment no more. 42So will I satisfy my wrath on you, and my jealousy shall depart from you. I will be calm and will no more be angry. 43Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have enraged me with all these things, therefore, behold, I have returned your deeds upon your head, declares the Lord GOD. younger sister, who lived to the south of you, is Sodom with her daughters. ⁴⁷Not only did you walk in their ways and do according to their abominations; within a very little time you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. ⁴⁸As I live, declares the Lord GOD, your sister Sodom and her daughters have not done as you and your daughters have done. ⁴⁹Behold, this was the guilt of your sister Sodom; she and her daughters had pride, excess of food, and prosperous ease, but did not aid the poor and needy. ⁵⁰They were haughty and did an abomination before me. So I removed them, when I saw it. ⁵¹Samaria has not committed half your sins.

You have committed more abominations than thev. and have made your sisters appear righteous by all the abominations that you have committed. 52Bear your disgrace, you also, for you have intervened on behalf of your sisters. Because of your sins in which you acted more abominably than they, they are more in the right than you. So be ashamed, you also, and bear your disgrace, for you have made your sisters appear righteous. 53"I will restore their fortunes, both the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters, and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters, and I will restore your own fortunes in their midst, ⁵⁴that you may bear your disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have done, becoming a consolation to them. 55As for your sisters. Sodom and her daughters shall return to their former state, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former state, and you and your daughters shall return to your former state. 56Was not your sister Sodom a byword in your mouth in the day of your pride, ⁵⁷before your wickedness was uncovered? Now you have become an object of reproach for the daughters of Syria^[67] and all those around her, and for the daughters of the Philistines, those all around who despise you. ⁵⁸You bear the penalty of your lewdness and your abominations, declares the LORD.

The LORD's Everlasting Covenant

59"For thus says the Lord GOD: I will deal with you as you have done, you who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant, ⁶⁰yet I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish for you an everlasting covenant. 61Then you will remember your ways and be ashamed when you take your sisters, both your elder and your younger, and I give them to you as daughters, but not on account of the covenant with you. 62 will establish my covenant with you, and you shall know that I am the LORD, ⁶³that you may remember and be confounded, and never open your mouth again because of your shame, when I atone for you for all that you have done, declares the Lord GOD."

Parable of Two Eagles and a Vine

17:1 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, propound a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; ³say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, rich in plumage of many colors, came to Lebanon and took the top of the cedar. ⁴He broke off the topmost of its young twigs and carried it to a land of trade and set it in a city of merchants. 5Then he took of the seed of the land and planted it in fertile soil. [69] He placed it beside abundant waters. He set it like a willow twig, ⁶and it sprouted and became a low spreading vine, and its branches turned toward him, and its roots remained where it stood. So it became a vine and produced branches and put out boughs.

7"And there was another great eagle with great wings and much plumage, and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him and shot forth its branches toward him from the bed where it was planted, that he might water it. ⁸It had been planted on good soil 9"Say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Will it thrive? Will he not pull up its roots and cut off its fruit, so that it withers, so that all its fresh sprouting leaves wither? It will not take a strong arm or many people to pull it by abundant waters, that it might produce branches from its roots. ¹⁰Behold, it is planted; will it thrive?

Will it not utterly wither when the east wind strikes it —wither away on the bed where it sprouted?"

11Then the word of the LORD came to me: ¹²"Say now to the rebellious house, Do you not know what these things mean? Tell them, behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took her king and her princes and brought them to him to Babylon.

13 And he took one of the royal offspring [70] and her princes and brought them to him to Babylon.

13And he took one of the royal offspring [70] and made a covenant with him, putting him under oath (the chief men of the land he had taken away), 14that

Egypt, that they might give him horses and a large army. Will he thrive? Can one escape who does such things? Can he break the covenant and yet escape?

16"As I live, declares the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant with him he broke, in Babylon he shall die. ¹⁷Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company will not help him in war, when mounds are cast up and siege walls built to cut off many lives. ¹⁸He despised the oath in breaking the covenant, and behold, he gave his hand and did all these things; he shall not escape. ¹⁹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely it is my oath that he despised, and my covenant that he broke. I will return it upon his head. ²⁰I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken ²⁰I will spread my net over him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon and enter into judgment with him there for the treachery he has committed against me. ²¹And all the pick^[71] of his troops shall fall by the sword, and the survivors shall be scattered to every wind, and you shall know that I am the LORD; I have spoken."

Is it not your ways that are not just? ²⁶When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and does injustice, he shall die for it; for the injustice that he has done he shall die. 27 Again, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness he has committed and does what is just and right, he shall they were stripped off and withered. As for its strong stem, fire consumed it.

A Lament for the Princes of Israel

13Now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.
14And fire has gone out from the stem of its shoots, has consumed its fruit, so that there remains in it no strong stem, no scepter for ruling.

This is a lamentation and has become a lamentation.

Israel's Continuing Rebellion

20:1 In the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. ²And the word of the LORD came to me: ³ "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD, Is it to inquire of me that vou come? Oholah and Oholibah

23:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother. ³They played the whore in Egypt; they played the whore in their youth; there their breasts were pressed and their virgin bosoms^[96] handled. ⁴Oholah was the name of the elder and Oholibah the name of her sister. They became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Oholah is Samaria, and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

⁵"Oholah played the whore while she was mine, and she lusted after her lovers the Assyrians, warriors ⁶clothed in purple, governors and commanders, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. ⁷She bestowed her whoring upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them, and she defiled herself with all the idols of everyone after whom she lusted. ⁸She did not give up her whoring that she had begun in Egypt; for in her youth men had lain with her and handled her virgin bosom and poured out their

the hands of her lovers, into the hands of the Assyrians, after whom she lusted. ¹⁰These uncovered her nakedness; they seized her sons and her daughters; and as for her, they killed her with the sword; and she became a byword among women, when judgment had been executed on her.

11"Her sister Oholibah saw this, and she became more corrupt than her sister.
12She lusted after the Assyrians, governors and commanders, warriors clothed in full armor, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. ¹³And I saw that she was defiled; they both took the same way. ¹⁴But she carried her whoring further. She saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed in vermilion, ¹⁵wearing belts on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them having the appearance of officers, a likeness of Babylonians whose native land was Chaldea. ¹⁶When she saw them, she lusted love, and they defiled her with their whoring lust. And after she was defiled by them, she turned from them in disgust. ¹⁸When she carried on her whoring so openly and flaunted her nakedness, I turned in disgust from her, as I had turned in disgust from her sister. ¹⁹Yet she increased her whoring, remembering the days of her youth, when she played after them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea.

¹⁷And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of the whore in the land of Egypt ²⁰ and lusted after her paramours there, whose members were like those of donkeys, and whose issue was like that of horses. ²¹Thus you longed for the lewdness of your youth, when the Egyptians handled your bosom and pressed ^[98] your young breasts."

²²Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: "Behold, I will stir up against you your lovers from whom you turned in disgust, and I will bring them against you from every side: ²³the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them, desirable young men, governors and commanders all of them, officers and chariots and wagons and a host of peoples. They shall set themselves against you on every side with buckler, shield, and helmet; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. ²⁵And I will direct my jealousy against you, that they may deal with you in fury. They shall cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors shall fall by the sword. They shall seize your sons and your daughters, and your survivors shall be devoured by fire. ²⁶They shall also strip you of your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels. 27 Thus I will put an end to your lewdness and your whoring begun in the land of Egypt, so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them or remember Egypt anymore. ²⁸"For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will deliver men of renown, all of them riding on horses. ²⁴And they shall come against you from the north with you into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those whom you hate, into the hands of those from whom you turned in disgust, ²⁹ and they shall deal with you in hatred and take away all the fruit of your labor and leave you naked and bare, and the nakedness of your whoring shall ³⁶The LORD said to me: "Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Declare to them their abominations. ³⁷For they have committed adultery, and blood is on their hands. With their idols they have committed adultery, and they have even offered up^[100] to them for food the children whom they had borne to me. ³⁸Moreover, this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary on the same day and profaned my Sabbaths. 39 For when they had slaughtered their children in sacrifice to their idols. on the same day they came into my sanctuary to profane it. And behold, this is what they did in my house. 40 They even sent for men to come from afar, to whom a messenger was sent; and behold, they came. For them you bathed yourself, painted your eyes, and adorned yourself with ornaments. 41 You sat on a stately couch, with a table spread before it on which you had placed my incense and my oil. ⁴²The sound of a carefree multitude was with her; and with men of the common sort, drunkards[101] were brought from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on the hands of the women, and beautiful

⁴⁶For thus says the Lord GOD: "Bring up a vast host against them, and make them an object of terror and a plunder. ⁴⁷And the host shall stone them and cut them down with their swords. They shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses. ⁴⁸Thus will I put an end to lewdness in the land, that all women may take warning and not commit lewdness as you have done. ⁴⁹And they shall return your lewdness upon you, and you shall bear the penalty for your sinful idolatry, and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD."

day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has laid siege to Jerusalem this very day. ³And utter a parable to the rebellious house and say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD:

I also will make the pile great. ¹⁰Heap on the logs, kindle the fire, boil the meat well, mix in the spices, [105] and let the bones be burned up. ¹¹Then set it empty upon the coals, that it may become hot, and its copper may burn, that its uncleanness may be melted in it, its corrosion consumed. ¹²She has wearied herself with toil: [106] its abundant corrosion

Ezekiel's Wife Dies

15 The word of the LORD came to me: 16 Son of man, behold, I am about to take the delight of your eyes away from you at a stroke; yet you shall not mourn or weep, nor shall your tears run down.
17 Sigh, but not aloud; make no mourning for the dead. Bind on your turban, and put your shoes on your feet; do not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men." 18 So I spoke to the people in the morning, and at evening my wife died. And on the next morning I did as I was commanded.

¹⁹And the people said to me, "Will you not tell us what these things mean for us, that you are acting thus?" ²⁰Then I said to them, "The word of the LORD came to me: ²¹'Say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the delight of your eyes, and the yearning of your soul, and your sons and your daughters whom you left behind shall fall by the sword. ²²And you shall do as I have done; you shall

Prophecy Against Ammon

25:1 The word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, set your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them. ³Say to the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Because you said, 'Aha!' over my sanctuary when it was profaned, and over the land of Israel when it was made desolate, and over the house of Judah when they went into exile, 4therefore behold, I am handing you over to the people of the East for a possession, and they shall set their encampments among you and make their dwellings in your midst. They shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk. 5 will make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon[107] a fold for flocks. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶For thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have clapped your hands and stamped your feet and rejoiced with all the malice within your soul against the land of Israel, ⁷therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand against you, and will hand you over as plunder to the nations. And I will cut you off from the peoples and will make you perish out of the countries; I will destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Prophecy Against Moab and Seir

⁸"Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Moab and Seir^[108] said, 'Behold, the house of Judah is like all the other nations,' ⁹therefore I will lay open the flank of Moab from the cities, from its cities on its frontier, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim. ¹⁰I will give it along with the Ammonites to the people of the East as a possession, that the Ammonites may be remembered no more among the nations, ¹¹and I will execute judgments upon Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Prophecy Against Edom

12"Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Edom acted revengefully against the house of Judah and has grievously offended in taking vengeance on them, 13therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand against Edom and cut off from it man and beast. And I will make it desolate; from Teman even to Dedan they shall fall by the sword. 14And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel, and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath, and they shall know my vengeance, declares the Lord GOD.

Prophecy Against Philistia

15"Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines acted revengefully and took vengeance with malice of soul to destroy in never-ending enmity, ¹⁶therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out my hand against the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites and destroy the rest of the seacoast. ¹⁷I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I lay my vengeance upon them."

Prophecy Against Tyre

26:1 In the eleventh year, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: 2"Son of man, because Tyre said concerning Jerusalem. 'Aha, the gate of the peoples is broken; it has swung open to me. I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste.' 3therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will bring up many nations against you, as the sea brings up its waves. ⁴They shall destroy the walls of Tyre and break down her towers, and I will scrape her soil from her and make her a bare rock. ⁵She shall be in the midst of the sea a place for the spreading of nets, for I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD. And she shall become plunder for the nations. ⁶ and her daughters on the mainland shall be killed by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

chariots, and with horsemen and a host of many soldiers. ⁸He will kill with the sword your daughters on the mainland. He will set up a siege wall against you and throw up a mound against you, and raise a roof of shields against you. ⁹He will direct the shock of his battering rams against your walls, and with his axes he will break down your towers. 10 His horses will be so many that their dust will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of the horsemen and wagons and chariots, when he enters your gates as men enter a city that has been breached. 11 With the hoofs of his horses he will trample all your streets. He will kill your people with the sword, and your mighty pillars will fall to the ground. 12 They will plunder your riches and loot your merchandise. They will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. Your stones and timber and soil they will cast into the midst of the waters. ¹³And I will stop the music of your songs, and the sound of your lyres shall be heard no more. 14 will make you a bare rock. You shall be a place for the spreading of nets. You shall never be rebuilt, for I am the LORD; I have spoken, declares the Lord GOD.

15 Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: Will not the coastlands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when slaughter is made in your midst? 16 Then all the princes of the sea will step down from their thrones and remove their robes and themselves with trembling; they will sit on the ground and tremble every moment and be appalled at you. ¹⁷And they will raise a lamentation over you and say to you, strip off their embroidered garments. They will clothe you who were inhabited from the seas, O city renowned,

who was mighty on the sea;
she and her inhabitants imposed their terror on all her inhabitants!

Egypt Shall Fall to Babylon

²⁰In the eleventh year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: 21"Son of man. I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and behold, it has not been bound up, to heal it by binding it with a bandage, so that it may become strong to wield the sword. 22 Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt and will break his arms, both the strong arm and the one that was broken, and I will make the sword fall from his hand. ²³I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations and disperse them through the countries. ²⁴And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon and put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan before him like a man mortally wounded. ²⁵I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh shall fall. Then they shall know that I am the LORD, when I put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt. ²⁶And I will

Pharaoh to Be Slain

31:1 In the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his multitude:

to his multitude: "Whom are you like in your greatness? ³Behold. Assvria was a cedar in Lebanon. with beautiful branches and forest shade, and of towering height, its top among the clouds.[130] ⁴The waters nourished it: the deep made it grow tall, making its rivers flow around the place of its planting,

So it towered high

Ezekiel Is Israel's Watchman

33:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, speak to your people and say to them, If I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and make him their watchman, ³and if he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people. 4then if anyone who hears the sound of the trumpet does not take warning, and the sword comes and takes him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the trumpet and did not take warning; his blood shall be upon himself. But if he had taken warning, he would have saved his life. ⁶But if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow the trumpet, so that the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any one of them, that person is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.

Jerusalem Struck Down

on the fifth day of the month, a fugitive from Jerusalem came to me and said, "The city has been struck down." ²²Now the hand of the LORD had been upon me the evening before the fugitive came; and he had opened my mouth by the time the man came to me in the morning, so my mouth was opened, and I was no longer mute.

²³The word of the LORD came to me: ²⁴ Son of ²¹In the twelfth year of our exile, in the tenth month, man, the inhabitants of these waste places in the land of Israel keep saying, 'Abraham was only one man, yet he got possession of the land; but we are many; the land is surely given us to possess.'

25Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat flesh with the blood and lift up your eyes to your idols and shed blood; shall you then possess the land? ²⁶You rely on the sword, you commit abominations, and each of you defiles his neighbor's wife; shall you then possess the land? ²⁷Say this to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword, and whoever is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured, and those who are in strongholds and in caves shall die by pestilence. ²⁸And I will make the land a desolation and a waste, and her proud might shall come to an end, and the mountains of Israel shall be so desolate that none will pass through. ²⁹Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and a waste because of all their abominations that they have committed. 30"As for you, son of man, your people who talk together about you by the walls and at the doors of the houses, say to one another, each to his brother, 'Come, and hear what the word is that comes from the LORD.' 31 And they come to you as people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear what you say but they will not do it; for with lustful talk in their mouths they act; their heart is set on their gain. 32 And behold, you are to them like one who sings lustful songs with a beautiful voice and plays [139] well on an instrument, for they hear what you say, but they will not do it. 33When this comes and come it will!—then they will know that a prophet has been among them."

Prophecy Against the Shepherds of Israel

34:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel; prophesy, and say to them, even to the shepherds. Thus says the Lord GOD: Ah, shepherds of Israel who have been feeding yourselves! Should not shepherds feed the sheep? ³You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, you slaughter the fat ones, but you do not feed the sheep. 4The weak vou have not strengthened, the sick you have not healed, the injured you have not bound up, the straved you have not brought back, the lost you have not sought, and with force and harshness you have ruled them. ⁵So they were scattered, because there was no shepherd, and they became food for all the wild beasts. ⁶My sheep were scattered; they wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. My sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, with none to search or seek for them.

⁷"Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the sheep have become food for all the wild beasts, since there was no shepherd, and because my shepherds have not searched for my sheep, but the shepherds have fed themselves, and have not fed my sheep, ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word

LORD: ⁸As I live, declares the Lord GOD, surely because my sheep have become a prev. and my my sheep, ⁹therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: ¹⁰Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against the shepherds, and I will require my sheep at their hand and put a stop to their feeding the sheep. No longer shall the shepherds feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouths, that they may not be food for them.

The Lord GOD Will Seek Them Out

11"For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, I myself will search for my sheep and will seek them out. 12As a shepherd seeks out his flock when he is among his sheep that have been scattered, so will I seek out my sheep, and I will rescue them from all places where they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. ¹³And I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land. And I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the ravines, and in all the inhabited places of the country. 14 will feed them with good pasture, and on the mountain heights of Israel shall be their grazing land. There they shall lie down in good grazing land, and on rich pasture they shall feed on the mountains of Israel. 15 myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I myself will make them lie down, declares the Lord GOD. 16 will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, and the fat and the strong I will destroy.[140] I will feed feed on the good pasture, that you must tread down with your feet the rest of your pasture; and to drink of clear water, that you must muddy the rest of the water with your feet? ¹⁹And must my sheep eat what you have trodden with your feet, and drink what you have muddied with your feet?

²⁰ Therefore, thus says the Lord GOD to them:

Behold, I, I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹Because you push with side and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak with your horns, till you have scattered them abroad, ²²I will rescue^[141] my flock; they shall no longer be a prey. And I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³And I will set up over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he shall feed them: he shall feed them and be their shepherd. ²⁴And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David shall be prince among them. I am the LORD; I have spoken.

The LORD's Covenant of Peace

25"I will make with them a covenant of peace and banish wild beasts from the land, so that they may dwell securely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. ²⁶And I will make them and the places all around my hill a blessing, and I will send down the showers in their season; they shall be showers of blessing, ²⁷And the trees of the field shall yield their fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I break the bars of their yoke, and deliver them from the hand of those who enslaved them. ²⁸They shall no more be a prey to the nations, nor shall the beasts of the land devour them. They shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. ²⁹And I will provide for them renowned plantations so that they shall no more be consumed with hunger in the land, and no longer suffer the reproach of the nations. 30 And they shall know that I am the LORD their God with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, declares the Lord

GOD. ³¹And you are my sheep, human sheep of my pasture, and I am your God, declares the Lord GOD."

Prophecy Against Mount Seir

35:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir, and prophesy against it, ³ and say to it, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, Mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and a waste. ⁴I will lay your cities waste, and you shall become a desolation, and you shall know that I am the LORD. 5Because you cherished perpetual enmity and gave over the people of Israel to the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment, ⁶therefore, as I live, declares the Lord GOD, I will prepare you for blood, and blood shall pursue you; because you did not hate bloodshed, therefore blood shall pursue vou. 7 will make Mount Seir a waste and a desolation, and I will cut off from it all who come and go. ⁸And I will fill its mountains with the slain. On your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines those slain with the sword shall fall. 9I

And I will make myself known among them, when I judge you. ¹²And you shall know that I am the LORD. desolate; they are given us to devour.' ¹³And you magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and multiplied your words against me; I heard it. ¹⁴Thus says the Lord GOD: While the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. ¹⁵As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will deal with you; you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Prophecy to the Mountains of Israel

36:1 "And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. ²Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy said of you, 'Aha!' and, 'The ancient heights have become our possession,' 3 therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Precisely because they made you desolate and crushed you from all sides, so that you became the possession of the rest of the nations, and you became the talk and evil gossip of the people, 4therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and the hills, the ravines and the valleys, the desolate wastes and the deserted cities, which have become a prey and derision to the rest of the nations all around, 5therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Surely I have spoken in my hot jealousy against the rest of the nations and against all Edom, who gave my land to themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and utter contempt, that they might make its pasturelands a prev. ⁶Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and hills, to the ravines and vallevs. Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I have spoken in my jealous wrath, because you have suffered the reproach of the nations. ⁷Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I swear that the nations that are all around you shall themselves suffer reproach. ⁸"But vou. O mountains of Israel, shall shoot forth your branches and yield your fruit to my people Israel, for they will soon come home. ⁹For behold, I am for you, and I will turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown. ¹⁰And I will multiply people on you, the whole house of Israel, all of it. The cities shall be inhabited and the waste places rebuilt. 11 And I will multiply on you man and beast, and they shall multiply and be fruitful. And I will cause you to be inhabited as in your former times, and will do more good to you than ever before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹²I will let people walk on you, even my people Israel. And they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no longer

you shall no longer devour people and no longer bereave your nation of children, declares the Lord GOD. ¹⁵And I will not let you hear anymore the reproach of the nations, and you shall no longer bear the disgrace of the peoples and no longer cause

The LORD's Concern for His Holy Name

¹⁶The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁷ Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land. they defiled it by their ways and their deeds. Their ways before me were like the uncleanness of a woman in her menstrual impurity. 18So I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood that they had shed in the land, for the idols with which they had defiled it. ¹⁹I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries. In accordance with their ways and their deeds I judged them. ²⁰But when they came to the nations, wherever they came, they profaned my holy name, in that people said of them. 'These are the people of the LORD, and yet they had to go out of his land.' 21 But I had concern for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations to which they came.

I Will Put My Spirit Within You

22"Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: It is not for your sake, O house of Israel, that I am about to act, but for the sake of my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations to which you came. ²³And I will vindicate the holiness of my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, and which you have profaned among them. And the nations will know that I am the LORD, declares the Lord GOD, when through you I vindicate my holiness before their eyes. 24 will take you from the nations and gather you from all the countries and bring you into your own land. ²⁵I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. 26 And I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. And I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. ²⁷And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes and be careful to obey my rules. [142] 28 You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers, and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹And I will deliver you from all your uncleannesses. And I will summon the grain and make it abundant and lav no famine upon vou. 30 will make the fruit of the tree and the increase of the field abundant, that you may never again suffer the disgrace of famine among the nations. 31 Then you will remember your evil ways, and your deeds that were not good, and you will loathe yourselves for vour iniquities and vour abominations. 32 lt is not for vour sake that I will act, declares the Lord GOD; let that be known to you. Be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel. ³³"Thus says the Lord GOD: On the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be rebuilt. 34And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, instead of being the desolation that it was in the sight of all who passed by. ³⁵And they will say. 'This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden, and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are now fortified and inhabited.' 36Then

I am the LORD; I have rebuilt the ruined places and replanted that which was desolate. I am the LORD; I have spoken, and I will do it.

37"Thus says the Lord GOD: This also I will let the the nations that are left all around you shall know that house of Israel ask me to do for them: to increase their people like a flock. ³⁸Like the flock for sacrifices, ^[143] like the flock at Jerusalem during her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The Valley of Dry Bones

37:1 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD and set me down in the middle of the valley; [144] it was full of bones. ²And he led me around among them, and behold, there were very many on the surface of the valley, and behold, they were very dry, ³And he said to me, "Son of man, can these bones live?" And I answered, "O Lord GOD, you know." 4Then he said to me, "Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, O dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. ⁵Thus savs the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath 145 to enter you, and you shall live. And I will lay sinews upon you, and will cause flesh to come upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live, and you shall know that I am the LORD."

7So I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a sound, and behold, a rattling, [146] and the bones came together, bone to them. ⁹Then he said to me, "Prophesy to the breath; prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath. Thus savs the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds. O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live." 10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived and stood on their feet, an exceedingly great army. ¹¹Then he said to me, "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel, Behold, they say, 'Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are indeed cut off.' 12 Therefore prophesy, and say to them. Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves and raise you from your graves, O my people. And I will bring you into the land of Israel. ¹³And you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves, and raise you from your graves, O my people. ¹⁴And I will put my Spirit within you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land. Then you shall know that I am the LORD; I have its bone. ⁸And I looked, and behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh had come upon them, and skin had covered them. But there was no breath in spoken, and I will do it, declares the LORD."

I Will Be Their God, They Shall Be My People

¹⁵The word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁶"Son of man, take a stick^[147] and write on it, 'For Judah, and the people of Israel associated with him'; then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph (the stick of Ephraim) and all the house of Israel associated with him.' ¹⁷And join them one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. ¹⁸And when your people say to you, 'Will you not tell us what you mean by these?' ¹⁹say to them, Thus says the Lord that they may become one in your hand. ¹⁸And when your people say to you, 'Will you not tell us what you mean by these?' ¹⁹say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am about to take the stick of Joseph (that is in the hand of Ephraim) and the tribes of Israel associated with him. And I will join with it the stick of Judah, ^[148] and make them one stick, that they may be one in my hand. ²⁰When the sticks on which you write are in your hand before their eyes, ²¹then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD:

21then say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD:
Behold, I will take the people of Israel from the nations among which they have gone, and will gather them from all around, and bring them to their own on the mountains of Israel. And one king shall be king over them all, and they shall be no longer two nations, and no longer divided into two kingdoms.

23 They shall not defile themselves anymore with their idols and their detestable things, or with any of their transgressions. But I will save them from all the backslidings [149] in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

24 My servant David shall be king over them, and shall dwell in the land that I gave to my servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They and their children and their children's children shall dwell there forever, and David my servant shall be their prince forever. ²⁶I will make a covenant of peace with them.

they shall all have one shepherd. They shall walk in my rules and be careful to obey my statutes. ²⁵They

It shall be an everlasting covenant with them. And I will set them in their land [150] and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. ²⁷My dwelling place shall be with them, and I will be their

God, and they shall be my people. ²⁸Then the nations will know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary is in their midst forevermore."

Prophecy Against Gog

38:1 The word of the LORD came to me: ²"Son of man, set your face toward Gog, of the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech[151] and Tubal. and prophesy against him ³ and say. Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, chief prince of Meshech[152] and Tubal. ⁴And I will turn you about and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you out, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great host, all of them with buckler and shield, wielding swords. ⁵Persia. Cush, and Put are with them, all of them with shield and helmet: ⁶Gomer and all his hordes: Bethtogarmah from the uttermost parts of the north with all his hordes—many peoples are with you.

7"Be ready and keep ready, you and all your hosts that are assembled about you, and be a guard for them. ⁸After many days you will be mustered. In the latter years you will go against the land that is restored from war, the land whose people were gathered from many peoples upon the mountains of Israel, which had been a continual waste. Its people were brought out from the peoples and now dwell securely, all of them. ⁹You will advance, coming on like a storm. You will be like a cloud covering the land, you and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.

10"Thus says the Lord GOD: On that day, thoughts will come into your mind, and you will devise an evil scheme ¹¹and say, 'I will go up against the land of unwalled villages. I will fall upon the guiet people who dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having no bars or gates, 12 to seize spoil and carry off plunder, to turn your hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and the people who were gathered from the nations, who have acquired livestock and goods, who dwell at the center of the earth. 13Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish and all its leaders [153] will say to you, 'Have you come to seize spoil? Have you assembled your hosts to carry off plunder, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to seize

In the latter days I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when through you, O Gog, I vindicate my holiness before their eyes.

⁹"Then those who dwell in the cities of Israel will go out and make fires of the weapons and burn them, shields and bucklers, bow and arrows, clubs^[156] and spears; and they will make fires of them for seven years. ¹⁰so that they will not need to take wood out of [157] 12 For seven months the house of Israel will be burying them, in order to cleanse the land. 13 All the people of the land will bury them, and it will bring them renown on the day that I show my glory, declares the Lord GOD. 14 They will set apart men to travel through the land regularly and bury those travelers remaining on the face of the land, so as to cleanse it. At 158 the end of seven months they will make their search. 15 And when these travel through the land and anyone sees a human bone, then he shall set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon-gog.

17"As for you, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every sort and to all beasts of the field, 'Assemble and come, gather from all around to the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you, a great sacrificial feast on the mountains of Israel, and you shall eat flesh and drink blood. 18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth—of rams, of lambs, and of he-goats, of bulls, all of them fat beasts of Bashan. ¹⁹And you shall eat fat till you are filled, and drink blood till you are drunk, at the sacrificial feast that I am preparing for you. 20 And you shall be filled at my table with horses and charioteers, with mighty men and all kinds of warriors,' declares the Lord GOD. ²¹"And I will set my glory among the nations, and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them.

The LORD Will Restore Israel

25"Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now I will restore the fortunes of Jacob and have mercy on the whole house of Israel, and I will be jealous for my holy name. ²⁶Thev shall forget their shame and all the treachery they have practiced against me, when they dwell securely in their land with none to make them afraid. 27 when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them from their enemies' lands, and through them have vindicated my holiness in the sight of many nations. ²⁸Then they shall know that I am the LORD their God, because I sent them into exile among the nations and then assembled them into their own land. I will leave none of them remaining among the nations anymore. ²⁹And I will not hide my face anymore from them, when I pour out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, declares the Lord GOD."

Vision of the New Temple

40:1 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was struck down, on that very day, the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me to the city. [160] 2 In visions of God he brought me to the land of Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, on which was a structure like a city to the south. 3When he brought me there, behold, there was a man whose appearance was like bronze, with a linen cord and a measuring reed in his hand. And he was standing in the gateway. ⁴And the man said to me, "Son of man, look with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set vour heart upon all that I shall show you, for you were brought here in order that I might show it to you. Declare all that you see to the house of Israel."

The East Gate to the Outer Court

⁵And behold, there was a wall all around the outside of the temple area, and the length of the measuring reed in the man's hand was six long cubits, each being a cubit and a handbreadth in length. So he measured the thickness of the wall, one reed; and the height, one reed. ⁶Then he went into the gateway facing east, going up its steps, and measured the threshold of the gate, one reed deep. [162] ⁷And the side rooms, one reed long and one reed broad; and the space between the side rooms, five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the vestibule of the gate at the inner end, one reed. 8Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, on the inside, one reed. ⁹Then he measured the vestibule of the gateway, eight cubits; and its jambs, two cubits; and the vestibule of the gate was at the inner end. 10 And there were three side rooms on either side of the east gate. The three were of the same size, and the jambs on either side were of the same size. ¹¹Then he measured the width of the opening of the rooms, one cubit on either side. And the side rooms were six cubits on either side. ¹³Then he measured the gate from the ceiling of the one side room to the ceiling of the other, a breadth of twenty-five cubits; the openings faced each other. ¹⁴He measured also the vestibule, twenty cubits. And around the vestibule of the gateway was the court [163] ¹⁵From the front of gateway, ten cubits; and the length of the gateway, thirteen cubits. ¹²There was a barrier before the side

the openings faced each other. ¹⁴He measured also the vestibule, twenty cubits. And around the vestibule of the gateway was the court. ¹⁶³ ¹⁵From the front of the gate at the entrance to the front of the inner vestibule of the gate was fifty cubits. ¹⁶And the gateway had windows all around, narrowing inwards toward the side rooms and toward their jambs, and likewise the vestibule had windows all around inside, and on the jambs were palm trees.

The Outer Court

¹⁷Then he brought me into the outer court. And behold, there were chambers and a pavement, all around the court. Thirty chambers faced the pavement. ¹⁸And the pavement ran along the side of the gates, corresponding to the length of the gates. This was the lower pavement. ¹⁹Then he measured the distance from the inner front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court, ^[164] a hundred cubits on the east side and on the north side. ^[165]

The North Gate

²⁰As for the gate that faced toward the north, belonging to the outer court, he measured its length and its breadth. 21 Its side rooms, three on either side, and its jambs and its vestibule were of the same size as those of the first gate. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. 22 And its windows, its vestibule, and its palm trees were of the same size as those of the gate that faced toward the east. And by seven steps people would go up to it, and find its vestibule before them. ²³And opposite the gate on the north, as on the east, was a gate to the inner court. And he measured from gate to gate.

a hundred cubits.

The South Gate

²⁴And he led me toward the south, and behold, there was a gate on the south. And he measured its jambs and its vestibule: they had the same size as the others. ²⁵Both it and its vestibule had windows all around, like the windows of the others. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. 26And there were seven steps leading up to it, and its vestibule was before them, and it had palm trees on its jambs, one on either side. ²⁷And there was a gate on the south of the inner court. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south, a hundred cubits.

The Inner Court

28 Then he brought me to the inner court through the south gate, and he measured the south gate. It was of the same size as the others. ²⁹Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others, and both it and its vestibule had windows all around. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. ³⁰And there were vestibules all around, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits broad. ³¹Its vestibule faced the outer court, and palm trees were on its jambs, and its stairway had eight steps.

³²Then he brought me to the inner court on the east side, and he measured the gate. It was of the same size as the others. ³³Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others, and both it and its vestibule had windows all around. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. ³⁴Its vestibule faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its jambs, on either side, and its stairway had eight steps.

measured it. It had the same size as the others. ³⁶Its side rooms, its jambs, and its vestibule were of the same size as the others, ¹⁶⁶ and it had windows all around. Its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth twenty-five cubits. ³⁷Its vestibule ¹⁶⁷ faced the outer court, and it had palm trees on its jambs, on either side, and its stairway had eight steps.

35Then he brought me to the north gate, and he

³⁸There was a chamber with its door in the vestibule of the gate, [168] where the burnt offering was to be washed. 39 And in the vestibule of the gate were two tables on either side, on which the burnt offering and the sin offering and the guilt offering were to be slaughtered. 40 And off to the side, on the outside as one goes up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables; and off to the other side of the vestibule of the gate were two tables. 41 Four tables were on either side of the gate, eight tables, on which to slaughter. 42 And there were four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high, on which the instruments were to be laid with which the burnt offerings and the sacrifices were slaughtered. ⁴³And hooks, ^[169] a handbreadth long, were fastened all around within. And on the tables the flesh of the offering was to be laid.

Chambers for the Priests

⁴⁴On the outside of the inner gateway there were two chambers^[170] in the inner court, one^[171] at the side of the north gate facing south, the other at the side of the south^[172] gate facing north. ⁴⁵And he said to me, This chamber that faces south is for the priests who have charge of the temple, ⁴⁶and the chamber that faces north is for the priests who have charge of the altar. These are the sons of Zadok, who alone^[173] among the sons of Levi may come near to the LORD to minister to him. ⁴⁷And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits broad, a square. And the altar was in front of the temple.

The Vestibule of the Temple

⁴⁸Then he brought me to the vestibule of the temple and measured the jambs of the vestibule, five cubits on either side. And the breadth of the gate was fourteen cubits, and the sidewalls of the gate [174] were three cubits on either side. ⁴⁹The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the breadth were three cubits on either side. ⁴⁹The length of the vestibule was twenty cubits, and the breadth twelve [175] cubits, and people would go up to it by ten steps. [176] And there were pillars beside the jambs, one on either side.

The Inner Temple

41:1 Then he brought me to the nave and measured the jambs. On each side six cubits [177] was the breadth of the jambs. [178] ² And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits, and the sidewalls of the entrance were five cubits on either side. And he measured the length of the nave, [179] forty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits. ³ Then he went into the inner room and measured the jambs of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the sidewalls on either side [180] of the entrance, seven cubits. ⁴ And he measured the length of the room.

⁵Then he measured the wall of the temple, six cubits thick, and the breadth of the side chambers, four cubits, all around the temple. ⁶And the side chambers were in three stories, one over another, thirty in each story. There were offsets [181] all around twenty cubits, and its breadth, twenty cubits, across the nave. And he said to me, "This is the Most Holy it wound upward to the side chambers, because the temple was enclosed upward all around the temple. Thus the temple had a broad area upward, and so one went up from the lowest story to the top story through the middle story. ⁸I saw also that the temple had a raised platform all around; the foundations of the side chambers measured a full reed of six long cubits. ⁹The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. The free space between the side chambers of the temple and the ¹⁰other the wall of the temple to serve as supports for the side chambers, so that they should not be supported by the wall of the temple. ⁷And it became broader as cubits. The thickness of the outer wall of the side chambers was five cubits. The free space between the side chambers of the temple and the ¹⁰other chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits all around the temple on every side. ¹¹And the doors of the side chambers opened on the free space, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south. And the breadth of the free space was five cubits all around.

12The building that was facing the separate yard on the west side was governty within broad, and the west

the building that was facing the separate yard on the west side was seventy cubits broad, and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its ¹³Then he measured the temple, a hundred cubits long; and the yard and the building with its walls, a hundred cubits long; ¹⁴also the breadth of the east 15Then he measured the length of the building facing the yard that was at the back and its galleries on either side, a hundred cubits.

court, ¹⁶the thresholds and the narrow windows and the galleries all around the three of them, opposite the threshold, were paneled with wood all around, from the floor up to the windows (now the windows were covered), ¹⁷to the space above the door, even to the inner room, and on the outside. And on all the

The inside of the nave and the vestibules of the walls all around, inside and outside, was a measured pattern. [183] 18 It was carved of cherubim and palm trees, a palm tree between cherub and cherub. Every cherub had two faces: 19 a human face toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved on the whole temple all around. ²⁰From the floor to above the door, cherubim and palm trees were carved; similarly the wall of the nave.

²¹The doorposts of the nave were squared, and in front of the Holy Place was something resembling ²²an altar of wood, three cubits high, two cubits long, and two cubits broad. [184] Its corners, its base. [185] and its walls were of wood. He said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD." 23The nave and the Holy Place had each a double door. ²⁴The double doors had two leaves apiece, two swinging leaves for each door. ²⁵And on the doors of the nave were carved cherubim and palm trees, such as were carved on the walls. And there was a canopy of wood in front of the vestibule outside. ²⁶And there were narrow windows and palm trees on either side, on the sidewalls of the vestibule, the side chambers of the temple, and the canopies.

The Temple's Chambers

42:1 Then he led me out into the outer court, toward the north, and he brought me to the chambers that were opposite the separate vard and opposite the building on the north. ²The length of the building whose door faced north was a hundred cubits. [187] and the breadth fifty cubits. ³Facing the twenty cubits that belonged to the inner court, and facing the pavement that belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. ⁴And before the chambers was a passage inward, ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long. [189] and their doors were on the north. ⁵Now the upper chambers were narrower, for the galleries took more away from them than from the lower and middle chambers of the building. ⁶For they were in three stories, and they had no pillars like the pillars of the courts. Thus the upper chambers were set back from the ground more than the lower and the middle ones. ⁷And there was a wall outside parallel to the chambers, toward the outer court, opposite the chambers, fifty cubits cubits long, while those opposite the nave^[190] were a hundred cubits long. ⁹Below these chambers was an entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer court.

10 In the thickness of the wall of the court, on the south [191] also, opposite the vard and opposite the long. ⁸For the chambers on the outer court were fifty building, there were chambers ¹¹with a passage in front of them. They were similar to the chambers on the north, of the same length and breadth, with the same exits^[192] and arrangements and doors, ¹²as were the entrances of the chambers on the south. There was an entrance at the beginning of the passage, the passage before the corresponding wall on the east as one enters them. ^[193]

13Then he said to me, "The north chambers and the south chambers opposite the yard are the holy chambers, where the priests who approach the LORD shall eat the most holy offerings. There they shall put the most holy offerings—the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering—for the place shall not go out of it into the outer court without laying there the garments in which they minister, for these are holy. They shall put on other garments before they go near to that which is for the people."

15 Now when he had finished measuring the interior of the temple area, he led me out by the gate that faced east, and measured the temple area all around. 16He measured the east side with the measuring reed, 500 cubits by the measuring reed all around. ¹⁷He measured the north side, 500 cubits by the measuring reed all around. ¹⁸He measured the south side, 500 cubits by the measuring reed. ¹⁹Then he turned to the west side and measured. 500 cubits by the measuring reed. ²⁰He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall around it, 500 cubits long and 500 cubits broad, to make a separation between the holy and the common.

The Glory of the LORD Fills the Temple

43:1 Then he led me to the gate, the gate facing east. ²And behold, the glory of the God of Israel was coming from the east. And the sound of his coming was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone with his glory. ³And the vision I saw was just like the vision that I had seen when he [194] came to destroy the city, and just like the vision that I had seen by the Chebar canal. And I fell on my face. 4As the glory of the LORD entered the temple by the gate facing east, 5the Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner court; and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple.

⁶While the man was standing beside me, I heard one speaking to me out of the temple, ⁷and he said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the people of Israel forever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoring threshold and their doorposts beside my doorposts, with only a wall between me and them. They have defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed, so I have consumed them in my anger. ⁹Now let them put away their whoring and the dead bodies of their kings far from me, and I will and by the dead bodies [195] of their kings at their high places. [196] 8 by setting their threshold by my

The Altar

13"These are the measurements of the altar by cubits (the cubit being a cubit and a handbreadth):[197] its base shall be one cubit high [198] and one cubit broad, with a rim of one span[199] around its edge. And this shall be the height of the altar: 14 from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits. with a breadth of one cubit; and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge, four cubits, with a breadth of one cubit: 15 and the altar hearth, four cubits: and from the altar hearth projecting upward, four horns. ¹⁶The altar hearth shall be square, twelve cubits long by twelve broad. ¹⁷The ledge also shall be square, for the altar and cleanse it, and so consecrate it. [200] 27 And when they have completed these days, then from the eighth day onward the priests shall offer on the altar your burnt offerings and your peace offerings, and I will accept you, declares the Lord GOD."

The Gate for the Prince

44:1 Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the sanctuary, which faces east. And it was shut.

²And the LORD said to me, "This gate shall remain shut; it shall not be opened, and no one shall enter by it, for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered by it. Therefore it shall remain shut. ³Only the prince may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. He shall enter by way of the vestibule of the gate, and shall go out by the same way."

⁴Then he brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the temple, and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the temple of the LORD. And I fell on my face. ⁵And the LORD said to me, "Son of man, mark well, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I shall tell you concerning all the statutes of the temple of the LORD and all its laws. They shall have nothing of wool on them, while they minister at the gates of the inner court, and within, 18 They shall have linen turbans on their heads, and linen undergarments around their waists. They shall not bind themselves with anything that causes sweat. ¹⁹And when they go out into the outer court to the people, they shall put off the garments in which they have been ministering and lay them in the holy chambers. The Holy District

45:1 "When you allot the land as an inheritance, you shall set apart for the LORD a portion of the land as a holy district, 25,000 cubits [204] long and 20,000 [205] cubits broad. It shall be holy throughout its whole extent. ²Of this a square plot of 500 by 500 cubits shall be for the sanctuary, with fifty cubits for an open space around it. ³And from this measured district you shall measure off a section 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 broad, in which shall be the sanctuary, the Most Holy Place. 4It shall be the holy portion of the land. It shall be for the priests, who minister in the sanctuary and approach the LORD to minister to him, and it shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary. ⁵Another section, 25.000 cubits long and 10.000 cubits broad, shall be for the Levites who minister at the temple, as their

The Portion for the Prince

⁷"And to the prince shall belong the land on both sides of the holy district and the property of the city, alongside the holy district and the property of the city, on the west and on the east, corresponding in length to one of the tribal portions, and extending from the western to the eastern boundary ⁸ of the land. It is to be his property in Israel. And my princes shall no more oppress my people, but they shall let the house of Israel have the land according to their tribes.

10 "You shall have just balances, a just ephah, and a just bath. [207] 11 The ephah and the bath shall be of the same measure, the bath containing one tenth of a homer, [208] and the ephah one tenth of a homer; the homer shall be the standard measure. 12 The

[212] 15 And one sheep from every flock of two hundred, from the watering places of Israel for grain offering, burnt offering, and peace offerings, to make atonement for them, declares the Lord GOD. ¹⁶All the people of the land shall be obliged to give this offering to the prince in Israel. 17 It shall be the prince's duty to furnish the burnt offerings, grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the feasts, the new moons, and the Sabbaths, all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall provide the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings, to make atonement on behalf of the house of Israel.

The priests shall offer his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate. Then he shall go out, but the gate shall not be shut until evening. ³The people of the land shall bow down at the entrance of that gate before the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the new moons. ⁴The burnt offering that the prince offers to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish. ⁵And the grain offering with the ram shall be an ephah, [214] and the grain offering with the lambs shall be as much as he is able, together with a hin 215 of oil to each ephah. ⁶On the day of the new moon he shall offer a bull from the herd without blemish, and

Boiling Places for Offerings

¹⁹Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, to the north row of the holy chambers for the priests, and behold, a place was there at the extreme western end of them. ²⁰And he said to me, "This is the place where the priests shall boil the guilt offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the grain offering, in order not to bring them out into the outer court and so transmit holiness to the people."

²¹Then he brought me out to the outer court and led me around to the four corners of the court. And behold, in each corner of the court there was another court— ²²in the four corners of the court were small^[216] courts, forty cubits^[217] long and thirty broad; the four were of the same size. ²³On the inside, around each of the four courts was a row of masonry, with hearths made at the bottom of the rows all around. ²⁴Then he said to me, "These are the kitchens where those who minister at the temple shall boil the sacrifices of the people."

Water Flowing from the Temple

47:1 Then he brought me back to the door of the temple, and behold, water was issuing from below the threshold of the temple toward the east (for the temple faced east). The water was flowing down from below the south end of the threshold of the temple, south of the altar. ²Then he brought me out by way of the north gate and led me around on the outside to the outer gate that faces toward the east; and behold, the water was trickling out on the south side.

Again he measured a thousand, and led me through the water, and it was waist-deep. ⁵Again he measured a thousand, and it was a river that I could not pass through, for the water had risen. It was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be passed through.

⁶And he said to me, "Son of man, have you seen this?" Then he led me back to the bank of the river. ⁷As I went back, I saw on the bank of the river very many trees on the one side and on the other. 8And he said to me, "This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah, and enters the sea: [219] when the water flows into the sea, the water will become fresh. [220] 9And wherever the river goes.[221] every living creature that swarms will live, and there will be very many fish. For this water goes there, that the waters of the sea [222] may become fresh; so everything will live where the river goes.

¹⁰Fishermen will stand beside the sea. From Engedi to Eneglaim it will be a place for the spreading of nets. Its fish will be of very many kinds, like the fish of the Great Sea. [223] 11 But its swamps and marshes will not become fresh; they are to be left for salt. ¹²And on the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food. Their leaves will not wither, nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary. Their fruit will be for food, and their leaves for healing."

Division of the Land

¹³Thus says the Lord GOD: "This is the boundary by which you shall divide the land for inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph shall have two portions. ¹⁴And you shall divide equally what I swore to give to your fathers. This land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

15"This shall be the boundary of the land: On the north side, from the Great Sea by way of Hethlon to Lebo-hamath, and on to Zedad, [225] 16 Berothah, Sibraim (which lies on the border between Damascus and Hamath), as far as Hazer-hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. 17 So the boundary shall run from the sea to Hazar-enan, which is on the northern border of Damascus, with the border of Hamath to the north. Daniel Taken to Babylon

1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it. ²And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, with some of the vessels of the house of God. And he brought them to the land of Shinar, to the house of his god, and placed the vessels in the treasury of his god. ³Then the king commanded Ashpenaz, his chief eunuch, to bring some of the people of Israel, both of the royal family and of the nobility, 4 youths without blemish, of good appearance and skillful in all wisdom, endowed with knowledge, understanding learning, and competent to stand in the king's palace, and to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. ⁵The king assigned them a daily portion of the food that the king ate, and of the wine that he drank. They were to be educated for three years, and at the end of that time they were to stand before the king. ⁶Among these were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah of the tribe of Judah. ⁷And the chief of the eunuchs gave them names: Daniel he called Belteshazzar, Hananiah he called Shadrach, Mishael he called Meshach, and Azariah he called Abednego.

Daniel's Faithfulness

⁸But Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the king's food, or with the wine that he drank. Therefore he asked the chief of the eunuchs to allow him not to defile himself. ⁹And God gave Daniel favor and compassion in the sight of the chief of the eunuchs, 10 and the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel, "I fear my lord the king, who assigned your food and your drink: for why should he see that you were in worse condition than the youths who are of your own age? So you would endanger my head with the king." 11Then Daniel said to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had assigned over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Test your servants for ten days; let us be given vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³Then let our appearance and the appearance of the youths who eat the king's food be observed by you, and deal with your servants according to what you see." 14So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them for ten days. 15 At the end of ten days it was seen that steward took away their food and the wine they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

17As for these four youths, God gave them learning and skill in all literature and wisdom, and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.
18At the

they were better in appearance and fatter in flesh than all the youths who ate the king's food. ¹⁶So the end of the time, when the king had commanded that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹And the king spoke with them, and among all of them none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. Therefore they stood before the king. 20 And in every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his kingdom. ²¹And Daniel was there until the first year of King Cvrus.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

2:1 In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; his spirit was troubled, and his sleep left him. ²Then the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be summoned to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. ³And the king said to them, "I had a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream." 4Then the Chaldeans said to the king in Aramaic. [2] "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation." ⁵The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The word from me is firm: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation. you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins. ⁶But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation." ⁷They answered a second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants king answered and said, "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see that the word from me is firm—⁹if you do not make the dream known to me, there is but one sentence for you. You have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the times change. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation." 10 The Chaldeans answered the king and said. "There is not a man on earth who can meet the king's demand, for no great and powerful king has asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean. 11 The thing that the king asks is difficult, and no one can show it to the dream, and we will show its interpretation," 8The matter known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions, ¹⁸ and told them to seek mercy from the God of heaven concerning this mystery, so that Daniel and his companions might not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. 19 Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. ²⁰Daniel answered and said:

haste and said thus to him: "I have found among the exiles from Judah a man who will make known to the king the interpretation." ²⁶The king declared to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream that I have seen and its interpretation?" ²⁷Daniel answered the king and said, "No wise men, enchanters, magicians, or astrologers can show to the king the 31"You saw, O king, and behold, a great image. This image, mighty and of exceeding brightness, stood before you, and its appearance was frightening. 32The head of this image was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its middle and thighs of bronze. 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. 34 As you looked, a stone was cut out by no human hand, and it struck the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. 35Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold, all together were broken in pieces, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the image became a great mountain and filled the whole earth.

Daniel Interprets the Dream

36"This was the dream. Now we will tell the king its interpretation. ³⁷You, O king, the king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the might, and the glory, ³⁸and into whose hand he has given, wherever they dwell, the children of man, the beasts of the field, and the birds of the heavens, making you rule over them all—you are the head of gold. ³⁹Another kingdom inferior to you shall arise after you, and yet a third kingdom of bronze, which shall rule over all the earth, 40 And there shall be a fourth kingdom, strong as iron. because iron breaks to pieces and shatters all things. And like iron that crushes, it shall break and crush all these. 41 And as you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom, but some of the firmness of iron shall be in it, just as you saw iron mixed with the soft clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were partly iron and partly clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly brittle. 43As you saw the iron mixed with soft clay, so they will mix with one another in marriage, [4] but they will not hold together, just as iron does not mix with clay. 44And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall the kingdom be left to another people. It shall break in pieces all these kingdoms and bring them to an end, and it shall stand forever, ⁴⁵just as you saw that a stone was cut from a mountain by no human hand, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold. A great God has made known to the king what shall be after this. The dream is certain, and its interpretation sure."

Daniel Is Promoted

⁴⁶Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face and paid homage to Daniel, and commanded that an offering and incense be offered up to him. 47The king answered and said to Daniel, "Truly, your God is God of gods and Lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery." 48 Then the king gave Daniel high honors and many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon, But Daniel remained at the king's court.

Nebuchadnezzar's Golden Image

3:1 King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon, ²Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to gather the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ³Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. And they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. 4And the herald proclaimed aloud, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, ⁵that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up. ⁶And whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace." ⁷Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

The Fiery Furnace

⁸Therefore at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and maliciously accused the Jews. 9Thev declared to King Nebuchadnezzar, "O king, live forever! 10 You. O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe. lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image. 11 And whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into a burning fiery furnace. 12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon; Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no attention to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

¹³Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. So they brought these men before the king.

So they brought these men before the king.

14 Nebuchadnezzar answered and said to them, "Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you that I have set up? ¹⁵Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image that I have made, well and good. ^[7] But if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you out of my hands?"

¹⁶Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered

do not serve my gods or worship the golden image and said to the king, "O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. ¹⁷If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. ^[8] ¹⁸But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up."

19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He ordered the furnace heated seven times more than it was usually heated. ²⁰And he ordered some of the mighty men furnace. ²¹Then these men were bound in their cloaks, their tunics, ⁹ their hats, and their other garments, and they were thrown into the burning fiery furnace. ²²Because the king's order was urgent and the furnace overheated, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³And these three men. Shadrach.

Meshach, and Abednego, fell bound into the burning fiery furnace.

24Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up in haste. He declared to his counselors, "Did we not cast three men bound into the fire?" They

we not cast three men bound into the fire?" They answered and said to the king, "True, O king." ²⁵He answered and said, "But I see four men unbound, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

²⁶Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace; he declared, "Shadrach,

God, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire. ²⁷And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men. The hair of their heads was not singed, their cloaks were not harmed, and no smell of fire had come upon them. ²⁸Nebuchadnezzar answered and said. "Blessed be the God of Shadrach.

Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High

Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set aside [10] the king's command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God. ²⁹Therefore I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins, for there is no other god who is able to rescue in this way." 30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Nebuchadnezzar Praises God

His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion endures from generation to generation.

Nebuchadnezzar's Second Dream

^{4[12]} I. Nebuchadnezzar, was at ease in my house and prospering in my palace. ⁵I saw a dream that made me afraid. As I lay in bed the fancies and the visions of my head alarmed me. ⁶So I made a decree that all the wise men of Babylon should be brought before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers came in, and I told them the dream, but they could not make known to me its interpretation. ⁸At last Daniel came in before me—he who was named Belteshazzar after the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods [13]—and I told him the dream, saying, 9"O Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too difficult for you, tell me the visions of my dream that I saw and their interpretation. ¹⁰The visions of my head as I lay in bed were these: I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height was great. 11The tree grew and became strong, and its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth. 12 Its leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the heavens lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. 13"I saw in the visions of my head as I lay in bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, came down from heaven. 14He proclaimed aloud and said thus: 'Chop down the tree and lop off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts flee from under it and the birds from its branches. 15But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, amid the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven. Let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth. ¹⁶Let his mind be changed from a man's, and let a beast's mind be given to him; and let seven periods of time pass over him. ¹⁷The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, the decision by the word of the holy ones, to the end that the living may know that to whom he will and sets over it the lowliest of men.'

18This dream I, King Nebuchadnezzar, saw. And you, O Belteshazzar, tell me the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation, but you are able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in you."

Daniel Interprets the Second Dream

¹⁹Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was dismayed for a while, and his thoughts alarmed him. The king answered and said, "Belteshazzar, let not the dream or the interpretation alarm you." Belteshazzar answered and said, "My lord, may the dream be for those who hate you and its interpretation for your enemies! ²⁰The tree you saw, which grew and became strong, so that its top reached to heaven, and it was visible to the end of the whole earth, ²¹ whose leaves were beautiful and its fruit abundant, and in which was food for all, under which beasts of the field found shade, and in whose branches the birds of the heavens lived—22it is vou. O king, who have grown and become strong. Your greatness has grown and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the ends of the earth. ²³And because the king saw a watcher, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, 'Chop down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field, and let him be wet with the of the field, till seven periods of time pass over him,' ²⁴this is the interpretation, O king: It is a decree of the Most High, which has come upon my lord the king, ²⁵that you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. You shall be made to eat grass like an ox, and you shall be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven periods of dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts time shall pass over you, till you know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he will. ²⁶And as it was commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree, your kingdom shall be confirmed for you from the time that you know that Heaven rules. ²⁷Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you: break off your sins by practicing righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the oppressed, that there may perhaps be a lengthening of your prosperity."

Nebuchadnezzar's Humiliation

²⁸All this came upon King Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹At the end of twelve months he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon, 30 and the king answered and said, "Is not this great Babylon, which I have built by my mighty power as a royal residence and for the glory of my majesty?" 31 While the words were still in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, "O King Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you, ³² and you shall be driven from among men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field. And you shall be made to eat grass like an ox, and seven periods of time shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he will." 33 Immediately the word was fulfilled against Nebuchadnezzar. He was driven from among men and ate grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven till his hair grew as long as eagles' feathers, and his nails were like birds' claws.

Nebuchadnezzar Restored

34At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to heaven, and my reason returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and praised and honored him who lives forever, for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom endures from generation to generation; ³⁵all the inhabitants of the earth are accounted as nothing, and he does according to his will among the host of heaven and among the inhabitants of the earth:

and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand or say to him, "What have you done?"

³⁶At the same time my reason returned to me, and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and splendor returned to me. My counselors and my lords sought me, and I was established in my kingdom, and still more greatness was added to me.

³⁷Now I. Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven, for all his works are right he is able to humble.

and his ways are just; and those who walk in pride

The Handwriting on the Wall

5:1 King Belshazzar made a great feast for a thousand of his lords and drank wine in front of the thousand.

²Belshazzar, when he tasted the wine, commanded that the vessels of gold and of silver that Nebuchadnezzar his father [14] had taken out of the temple in Jerusalem be brought, that the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines might drink from them. ³Then they brought in the golden vessels that had been taken out of the temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his lords, his wives, and his concubines drank from them. ⁴They drank wine and praised the gods of gold and silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

5Immediately the fingers of a human hand appeared and wrote on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, opposite the lampstand. And the king saw the hand as it wrote. 6Then the king's color changed, and his thoughts alarmed him; his limbs gave way, loudly to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the astrologers. The king declared [15] to the wise men of Babylon, "Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around his neck and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom." ⁸Then all the king's wise men came in, but they could not read the writing or make known to the king the interpretation.

10 The queen, [16] because of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banqueting hall, and the queen declared, "O king, live forever! Let not your thoughts alarm you or your color change. 11 There is a man in your kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods. [17] In the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods were found in him, and King Nebuchadnezzar, your father—your father the king—made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and knowledge, and understanding to interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve problems were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation."

Daniel Interprets the Handwriting

¹³Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king answered and said to Daniel. "You are that Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom the king my father brought from Judah. 14 have heard of you that the spirit of the gods [18] is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in vou. ¹⁵Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me to read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they could not show the interpretation of the matter. ¹⁶But I have heard that you can give interpretations and solve problems. Now if you can read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple and have a chain of gold around your neck and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

neck and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom."

¹⁷Then Daniel answered and said before the king, "Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another. Nevertheless, I will read the writing to the king and make known to him the interpretation. ¹⁸O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your ¹⁹And because of the greatness that he gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whom he would, he killed, and whom he would, he kept alive; whom he would, he raised up, and whom he would, he humbled. ²⁰But when his heart was lifted up and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was brought down from his kingly throne, and his glory was taken from him. ²¹He was driven from among the children of mankind, and his mind was made like that of a of mankind, and his mind was made like that of a beast, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was fed grass like an ox, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, until he knew that the Most High God rules the kingdom of mankind and sets over it whom he will. 22 And you his son, [19] Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, ²³but you have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven. And the vessels of his house have been brought in before you, and you and your lords, your wives, and your concubines have drunk wine from them. And you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone, which do not see or hear or know, but the God in whose hand is your breath, and whose are all your ways, you have not honored.

24"Then from his presence the hand was sent, and this writing was inscribed. ²⁵And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN. ²⁶This is the interpretation of the matter: MENE, God has numbered [20] the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end; ²⁷TEKEL, you have been weighed^[21] in the balances and found wanting; ²⁸PERES, your kingdom is divided and given to the Medes and Persians."^[22]

29 Then Belshazzar gave the command, and Daniel was clothed with purple, a chain of gold was put around his neck, and a proclamation was made about him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 That very night Belshazzar the Chaldean king was killed. 31[23] And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Daniel and the Lions' Den

6:1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom 120 satraps, to be throughout the whole kinddom: ²and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one, to whom these satraps should give account, so that the king might suffer no loss. ³Then this Daniel became distinguished above all the other presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom. ⁴Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find a ground for complaint against Daniel with regard to the kingdom, but they could find no ground for complaint or any fault, because he was faithful, and no error or fault was found in him. ⁵Then these men said, "We shall not find any ground for counselors and the governors are agreed that the king should establish an ordinance and enforce an injunction, that whoever makes petition to any god or man for thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions. 8Now. O king, establish the injunction and sign the document, so that it cannot be in his upper chamber open toward Jerusalem. He got down on his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his God, as he had done previously. 11 Then these men came by agreement and found Daniel making petition and plea before his God. 12 Then they came near and said before the king, concerning the injunction, "O king! Did you not sign an injunction, that anyone who makes petition to any god or man within thirty days except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked." ¹³Then they answered and said before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or the injunction you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

14Then the king, when he heard these words, was answered and said, "The thing stands fast, much distressed and set his mind to deliver Daniel. And he labored till the sun went down to rescue him. ¹⁵Then these men came by agreement to the king and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or ordinance that the king establishes can be changed."

¹⁶Then the king commanded, and Daniel was brought and cast into the den of lions. The king declared ^[25] to Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve continually, deliver you!" ¹⁷And a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. ¹⁸Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; no diversions were brought to him, and sleep fled from him.

¹⁹Then, at break of day, the king arose and went in haste to the den of lions. ²⁰As he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish. The king declared to Daniel. "O Daniel. servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?" 21 Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever! 22My God sent his angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not harmed me, because I was found blameless before him; and also before you, O king, I have done no harm." ²³Then the kina was exceedingly glad, and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. 24And the king commanded, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and cast into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives. And before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

²⁵Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: "Peace be multiplied to you. ²⁶I make a decree, that in all my royal dominion people are to tremble and fear before the God of Daniel, and his dominion shall be to the end.

27He delivers and rescues;
he works signs and wonders in heaven and on earth.

his kingdom shall never be destroyed.

for he is the living God, enduring forever;

in heaven and on earth, he who has saved Daniel from the power of the lions."

²⁸So this Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Daniel's Vision of the Four Beasts

7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon. Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay in his bed. Then he wrote down the dream and told the sum of the matter. ²Daniel declared. [26] "I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of heaven were stirring up the great sea. ³And four great beasts came up out of the sea, different from one another. ⁴The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings. Then as I looked its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the ground and made to stand on two feet like a man, and the mind of a man was given to it. 5And behold, another beast, a second one, like a bear, it was raised up on one side. It had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, 'Arise, devour much flesh.' ⁶After this I looked, and behold, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back. And the beast had four heads, and dominion was given to it. ⁷After this I saw in the night visions, and behold, a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and was left with its feet. It was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns. ⁸I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots. And behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.

exceedingly strong. It had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what

The Son of Man Is Given Dominion

13"I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days and was presented before him.

14 And to him was given dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve him; his dominion is an everlasting dominion, his dominion is an everlasting dominion which shall not pass away, and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.

Daniel's Vision Interpreted

- 15"As for me, Daniel, my spirit within me^[27] was anxious, and the visions of my head alarmed me. ¹⁶I approached one of those who stood there and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me and made known to me the interpretation of the things. ¹⁷ These four great beasts are four kings who shall arise out of the earth. ¹⁸But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom and possess the kingdom forever, forever and ever.'
- 19"Then I desired to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the rest, exceedingly terrifying, with its teeth of iron and claws of bronze, and which devoured and broke in pieces and stamped what was left with its feet, ²⁰ and about the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn that came up and before which three of them fell, the horn that had eyes and a mouth that spoke great things, and that seemed greater than its companions. ²¹As I looked, this horn made war with the saints and prevailed over them, ²²until the Ancient of Days came, and judgment was given for the saints of the Most High, and the time came when the saints possessed the kingdom.

23"Thus he said: 'As for the fourth beast, there shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be different from all the kingdoms, and it shall devour the whole earth, and trample it down, and break it to pieces.

24As for the ten horns.

out of this kingdom ten kings shall arise, and another shall arise after them; he shall be different from the former ones, and shall put down three kings.

for a time, times, and half a time.

²⁷And the kingdom and the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; their kingdom shall be an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obev them.'[28]

²⁸"Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my color changed, but I kept the matter in my heart."

Daniel's Vision of the Ram and the Goat

- 8:1 In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. ²And I saw in the vision; and when I saw. I was in Susa the capital. [29] which is in the province of Elam. And I saw in the vision, and I was at the Ulai canal. ³I raised my eyes and saw. and behold, a ram standing on the bank of the canal. It had two horns, and both horns were high, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last. 4 saw the ram charging westward and northward and southward. No beast could stand before him, and there was no one who could rescue from his power. He did as he pleased and became great.
- ⁵As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west across the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground. And the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. ⁶He came to the ram with the two horns, which I had seen ram, and he was enraged against him and struck the ram and broke his two horns. And the ram had no power to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled on him. And there was no one who could rescue the ram from his power. ⁸Then the goat became exceedingly great, but when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and instead of it there came up four conspicuous horns toward ⁹Out of one of them came a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the glorious land. ¹⁰It grew great, even to the host of heaven. And some of the host and some [30] of the stars it threw down to the ground and trampled on them. ¹¹It became great, even as great as the Prince of the host. And the regular burnt offering was taken away from him, and the place of his sanctuary was overthrown. ¹²And a host will be given over to it together with the regular burnt

The Interpretation of the Vision

¹⁵When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. And behold, there stood before me one having the appearance of a man. ¹⁶And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, and it called, "Gabriel, make this man understand the vision." ¹⁷So he came near where I stood. And when he came, I was frightened and fell on my face. But he said to me, "Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end."

But he touched me and made me stand up. ¹⁹He said, "Behold, I will make known to you what shall be at the latter end of the indignation, for it refers to the appointed time of the end. ²⁰As for the ram that you saw with the two horns, these are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹And the goat [33] is the king of Greece. And the great horn between his eyes is the first king. ²²As for the horn that was broken, in place of which four

Daniel's Prayer for His People

9:1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, by descent a Mede, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans—²in the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, perceived in the books the number of years that, according to the word of the LORD to Jeremiah the prophet, must pass before the end of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, seventy years.

³Then I turned my face to the Lord God, seeking him by prayer and pleas for mercy with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. ⁴I prayed to the LORD my God and made confession, saying, "O Lord, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁵we have sinned and done wrong awesome God, who keeps covenant and steadfast love with those who love him and keep his commandments, ⁵we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled, turning aside from your commandments and rules. ⁶We have not listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. ⁷To you, O Lord, this day, to the men of Judah, to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, those who are near and those who are far away, in all the lands to which you have driven them, because of the treachery that they have committed against you, ⁸To us, O LORD. belongs open shame, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. 9To the Lord our God belong mercy and forgiveness, for we have rebelled against him 10 and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God by walking in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. 11 All Israel has transgressed your law and turned aside, refusing to obey your voice. And the curse and oath that are written in the Law of Moses the servant of God have been poured out upon us, because we have sinned against him. ¹²He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us and against our rulers who ruled us.[35] by bringing upon us a great calamity. For under the whole heaven there has not been done anything like what has been done against Jerusalem. ¹³As it is written in the Law of Moses, all this calamity has belongs righteousness, but to us open shame, as at the LORD our God, turning from our iniquities and gaining insight by your truth. ¹⁴Therefore the LORD has kept ready the calamity and has brought it upon us. for the LORD our God is righteous in all the works that he has done, and we have not obeyed his voice. ¹⁵And now, O Lord our God, who brought your people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand. and have made a name for yourself, as at this day, we have sinned, we have done wickedly. 16"O Lord, according to all your righteous acts, let your anger and your wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy hill, because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a byword among all who are around us. 17 Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your servant and to his pleas for mercy, and for your own sake, O Lord, [36] make your face to shine upon your sanctuary, which is desolate. ¹⁸O my God, incline your ear and hear. Open your eyes and see our desolations, and the city that is called by your name. For we do not present our pleas before come upon us; vet we have not entreated the favor of you because of our righteousness, but because of your great mercy. ¹⁹O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive. O Lord, pay attention and act. Delay not, for your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people are called by your name."

Gabriel Brings an Answer

20 While I was speaking and praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my plea before the LORD my God for the holy hill of my God. ²¹while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the first. came to me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice. 22He made me understand, speaking with me and saying, "O Daniel, I have now come out to give you insight and understanding. ²³At the beginning of your pleas for mercy a word went out, and I have come to tell it to you, for you are greatly loved. Therefore consider the word and understand the vision.

The Seventy Weeks

24"Seventy weeks[37] are decreed about your people and your holy city, to finish the transgression, to put an end to sin, and to atone for iniquity, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal both vision and prophet, and to anoint a most holv place. [38] 25 Know therefore and understand that from the going out of the word to restore and build Jerusalem to the coming of an anointed one, a prince, there shall be seven weeks. Then for sixty-two weeks it shall be built again with squares and moat, but in a troubled time. ²⁶And after the sixty-two weeks, an anointed one shall be cut off and shall have nothing. And the people of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. Its [39] end shall come with a flood, and to the end there shall be war. Desolations are decreed. ²⁷And he shall make a strong covenant with many for one week. [40] and for half of the week he shall put an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate, until the decreed end is poured out on the desolator."

Daniel's Terrifying Vision of a Man

10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a word was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar. And the word was true, and it was a great conflict. And he understood the word and had understanding of the vision.

²In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three weeks. ³I ate no delicacies, no meat or wine entered my mouth, nor did I anoint myself at all, for the full three weeks. 4On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was standing on the bank of the great river (that is, the Tigris) ⁵I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, with a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around his waist. ⁶His body was like beryl, his face like the appearance of lightning, his eyes like flaming torches, his arms and legs like the gleam of burnished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a multitude. ⁷And I. Daniel, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision, but a great themselves. ⁸So I was left alone and saw this great vision, and no strength was left in me. My radiant appearance was fearfully changed, ^[42] and I retained no strength. ⁹Then I heard the sound of his words, and as I heard the sound of his words, I fell on my face in deep sleep with my face to the ground.

trembling fell upon them, and they fled to hide

¹⁰And behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my hands and knees. ¹¹And he said to me, "O Daniel, man greatly loved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for now I have been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up trembling. ¹²Then he said to me, "Fear not, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and humbled yourself before your God, your words have been heard, and I have come because of your words.

13 The prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days, but Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I was left there with the kings of Persia, 14 and came to make you understand what is to happen to your people in the 15When he had spoken to me according to these words, I turned my face toward the ground and was mute. 16And behold, one in the likeness of the children of man touched my lips. Then I opened my mouth and spoke. I said to him who stood before me, "O my lord, by reason of the vision pains have come upon me, and I retain no strength. 17How can my lord's servant talk with my lord? For now no latter days. For the vision is for days vet to come."

¹⁸Again one having the appearance of a man touched me and strengthened me. ¹⁹And he said, "O man greatly loved, fear not, peace be with you; be strong and of good courage." And as he spoke to me, I was strengthened and said, "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me." ²⁰Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? But now I will return to fight against the prince of Persia; and strength remains in me, and no breath is left in me."

when I go out, behold, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹But I will tell you what is inscribed in the book of truth: there is none who contends by my side

The Kings of the South and the North 11:1 "And as for me, in the first year of Darius the

- Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.

 2"And now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings shall arise in Persia, and a fourth shall
- be far richer than all of them. And when he has become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece. ³Then a mighty king shall arise, who shall rule with great dominion and do as he wills. ⁴And as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom shall be broken and divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to the authority with which he ruled, for his kingdom shall be plucked up and go to others
- 5"Then the king of the south shall be strong, but one of his princes shall be stronger than he and shall rule, and his authority shall be a great authority. ⁶After some years they shall make an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement. But she shall not retain the strength of her arm, and he and his arm shall not endure, but she shall be given up, and her attendants, he who fathered her, and he who supported her in those times.

7"And from a branch from her roots one shall arise in his place. He shall come against the army and enter the fortress of the king of the north, and he shall deal with them and shall prevail. ⁸He shall also carry off to Egypt their gods with their metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold, and for some years he shall refrain from attacking the king of the north. ⁹Then the latter shall come into the realm of the king of the south but shall return to his own land.

10"His sons shall wage war and assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall keep coming and overflow and pass through, and again shall carry the war as far as his fortress. ¹¹Then the king of the south, moved with rage, shall come out and fight against the king of the north. And he shall raise a great multitude, but it shall be given into his hand.

¹²And when the multitude is taken away, his heart shall be exalted, and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. ¹³For the king of the north shall again raise a multitude, greater than the first. And after some years [44] he shall come on with a great army and abundant supplies.

14"In those times many shall rise against the king of the south, and the violent among your own people shall lift themselves up in order to fulfill the vision, but they shall fail. ¹⁵Then the king of the north shall come and throw up siegeworks and take a well-fortified city. And the forces of the south shall not stand, or even his best troops, for there shall be no strength to stand. 16But he who comes against him shall do as he wills, and none shall stand before him. And he shall stand in the glorious land, with destruction in his hand. ¹⁷He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and he shall bring terms of an agreement and perform them. He shall give him the daughter of women to destroy the kingdom.[45] but it shall not stand or be to his advantage. ¹⁸Afterward he shall turn his face to the coastlands and shall capture many of them, but a commander shall put an end to his insolence. Indeed, ^[46] he shall turn his insolence back upon him. ¹⁹Then he shall turn his face back toward the fortresses of his own land, but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.

20"Then shall arise in his place one who shall send an exactor of tribute for the glory of the kingdom. But within a few days he shall be broken, neither in anger nor in battle. ²¹In his place shall arise a contemptible person to whom royal majesty has not been given. He shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²²Armies shall be utterly swept away before him and broken, even the prince of the covenant. ²³And from the time that an alliance is made with him he shall act deceitfully, and he shall become strong with a small people. ²⁴Without warning he shall come into the richest parts [47] of the province, and he shall do what neither his fathers nor his fathers' fathers have done, scattering among the south shall wage war with an exceedingly great and mighty army, but he shall not stand, for plots shall be devised against him. ²⁶Even those who eat his food shall break him. His army shall be swept away, and many shall fall down slain. ²⁷And as for the two kings, their hearts shall be bent on doing evil. They shall speak lies at the same table, but to no avail, for the end is yet to be at the time appointed. ²⁸And he shall return to his land with great wealth, but his heart shall be set against the holy covenant. And he shall work his will and return to his own land.

And they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate. ³²He shall seduce with flattery those who violate the covenant, but the people who know their God shall stand firm and take action. ³³And the wise among the people shall make many understand, though for some days they shall stumble 34When they stumble, they shall receive a little help.

And many shall join themselves to them with flattery,

35and some of the wise shall stumble, so that they may be refined, purified, and made white, until the time of the end, for it still awaits the appointed time.

36"And the king shall do as he wills. He shall exalt himself and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak astonishing things against the God of gods. He shall prosper till the indignation is accomplished; for what is decreed shall be done.

37He shall pay no attention to the gods of his fathers, or to the one beloved by women. He shall not pay attention to any other god, for he shall magnify did not know he shall honor with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts. 39He shall deal with the strongest fortresses with the help of a foreign god. Those who acknowledge him he shall load with honor. He shall make them rulers over many and shall divide the land for a price.[48] 40"At the time of the end, the king of the south shall attack[49] him, but the king of the north shall rush upon him like a whirlwind, with chariots and horsemen, and with many ships. And he shall come into countries and shall overflow and pass through.

himself above all. ³⁸He shall honor the god of fortresses instead of these. A god whom his fathers norsemen, and with many snips. And he shall come into countries and shall overflow and pass through. ⁴¹He shall come into the glorious land. And tens of thousands shall fall, but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom and Moab and the main part of the Ammonites. ⁴²He shall stretch out his hand against the countries, and the land of Egypt shall not escape. ⁴³He shall become ruler of the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the precious things of Egypt, and the Libyans and the Cushites shall follow in his train. ⁴⁴But news from the east and the north shall alarm him, and he shall go out with great fury to destroy and devote many to destruction. ⁴⁵And he shall pitch his palatial tents between the sea and the glorious holy mountain. Yet he shall come to his end, with none to help him.

The Time of the End

- 12:1 "At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone whose name shall be found written in the book. ²And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. ³And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky above: [50] and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. ⁴But you, Daniel, shut up the words and seal the book, until the time of the end. Many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall increase."
- ⁵Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on this bank of the stream and one on that bank of the stream. ⁶And someone said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream. [51] "How long shall it be till the end of these wonders?" ⁷And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the stream; he raised his right hand and his left hand toward heaven and swore by him who lives forever that it would be for a time, times, and half a time, and that when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end all these things would be finished. 8 heard. but I did not understand. Then I said, "O my lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?" ⁹He said. "Go your way, Daniel, for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. 10 Many shall purify themselves and make themselves white and he refined, but the wicked shall act wickedly. And none of the wicked shall understand, but those who are wise shall understand. 11 And from the time that the regular burnt offering is taken away and the abomination that makes desolate is set up, there shall be 1,290 days. 12 Blessed is he who waits and arrives at the 1,335 days. 13 But go your way till the end. And you shall rest and shall stand in your allotted place at the end of the days."

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

Hosea's Wife and Children

²When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, "Go, take to yourself a wife of whoredom and have children of whoredom, for the land commits great whoredom by forsaking the LORD." ³So he went and took Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

⁴And the LORD said to him, "Call his name Jezreel, for in just a little while I will punish the house of Jehu for the blood of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel. ⁵And on that day I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley of Jezreel."

⁶She conceived again and bore a daughter. And the LORD said to him, "Call her name No Mercy,^[1] for I will no more have mercy on the house of Israel, to forgive them at all. ⁷But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and I will save them by the LORD their God. I will not save them by bow or by sword or by war or by horses or by horsemen."

and bore a son. ⁹And the LORD said. "Call his name Not My People. [2] for you are not my people, and I am not your God."[3]

⁸When she had weaned No Mercy, she conceived

10[4] Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be like the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered. And in the place where it was said to them, "You are not my people," it shall be said to them, "Children of the living God," 11 And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint for themselves one head. And they shall go up from the land, for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Israel's Unfaithfulness Punished

- 2:1 Say to your brothers, "You are my people," and to your sisters, "You have received mercy."
- ²"Plead with your mother, plead for she is not my wife, and I am not her husband that she put away her whoring from her face, and her adultery from between her breasts;
 ³lest I strip her naked and make her as in the day she was born, and make her like a wilderness.

and make her like a parched land,

- and kill her with thirst.

 4Upon her children also I will have no mercy, because they are children of whoredom.
- ⁵For their mother has played the whore; she who conceived them has acted shamefully.
- For she said, 'I will go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'

⁶Therefore I will hedge up her ⁹ way with thorns. and I will build a wall against her. so that she cannot find her paths. ⁷She shall pursue her lovers but not overtake them. and she shall seek them but shall not find them Then she shall say, 'I will go and return to my first husband, for it was better for me then than now." ⁸And she did not know that it was I who gave her the grain, the wine, and the oil, and who lavished on her silver and gold, and who lavished on her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.

Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my wine in its season,

and I will take away my wool and my flax, which were to cover her nakedness.

10 Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one shall rescue her out of my hand.

- 11 And I will put an end to all her mirth, her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her appointed feasts.
- 12 And I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, of which she said,
 'These are my wages,
 which my lover have given me.'
- 'These are my wages,
 which my lovers have given me.'
 I will make them a forest,
- I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall devour them. ¹³And I will punish her for the feast days of the Baals when she burned offerings to them and adorned herself with her ring and jewelry, and forgot me, declares the LORD.

and went after her lovers

The LORD's Mercy on Israel

- 14"Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak tenderly to her.
- ¹⁵And there I will give her her vineyards and make the Valley of Achor^[10] a door of hope. And there she shall answer as in the days of her youth, as at the time when she came out of the land of - Egypt.
- 16"And in that day, declares the LORD, you will call me 'My Husband,' and no longer will you call me 'My Baal.' 17 For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth, and they shall be remembered by name no more. 18 And I will make for them a covenant on that day with the beasts of the field, the birds of the heavens, and the creeping things of the ground. And I will abolish [11] the bow, the sword, and war from the land, and I will make you lie down in safety. 19 And I will betroth you to me forever. I will steadfast love and in mercy. ²⁰I will betroth you to me in faithfulness. And you shall know the LORD.

²¹"And in that day I will answer, declares the LORD,

I will answer the heavens.

betroth you to me in righteousness and in justice, in and they shall answer the earth,

22 and the earth shall answer the grain, the wine, and the oil, and they shall answer Jezreel,

[12]

²³and I will sow her for myself in the land.

And I will have mercy on No Mercy, [13] and I will say to Not My People, [14] 'You are my people':

and I will say to Not My People, [14] 'You are my people'; and he shall say, 'You are my God.'"

Hosea Redeems His Wife

3:1 And the LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and is an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love cakes of raisins." ²So I bought her for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a lethech of barley. 3And I said to her. "You must dwell as mine for many days. You shall not play the whore, or belong to another man; so will I also be to you." ⁴For the children of Israel shall dwell many days without king or prince, without sacrifice or pillar, without ephod or household gods. ⁵Afterward the children of Israel shall return and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and they shall come in fear to the LORD and to his goodness in the latter days.

The LORD Accuses Israel

- 4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, O children of Israel, for the LORD has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land.
- There is no faithfulness or steadfast love, and no knowledge of God in the land;
- ²there is swearing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery; they break all bounds, and bloodshed follows bloodshed.

 ³Therefore the land mourns,
- and all who dwell in it languish, and also the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and even the fish of the sea are taken away.
- ⁴Yet let no one contend, and let none accuse, for with you is my contention, O priest. [16]
 ⁵You shall stumble by day; the prophet also shall stumble with you by night; and I will destroy your mother.

- ⁶Mv people are destroyed for lack of knowledge; because you have rejected knowledge. I reject you from being a priest to me. And since you have forgotten the law of your God. I also will forget your children.
- ⁷The more they increased, the more they sinned against me:
- I will change their glory into shame. ⁸They feed on the sin^[17] of my people: they are greedy for their iniquity.
- ⁹And it shall be like people, like priest; I will punish them for their ways and repay them for their deeds.
- 10 They shall eat, but not be satisfied; they shall play the whore, but not multiply. because they have forsaken the LORD
- to cherish 11 whoredom, wine, and new wine.
- which take away the understanding.
- ¹²Mv people inquire of a piece of wood, and their walking staff gives them oracles.

For a spirit of whoredom has led them astray, and they have left their God to play the whore.

- 13They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains and burn offerings on the hills, under oak, poplar, and terebinth, because their shade is good.

 Therefore your daughters play the whore,
- ¹⁴I will not punish your daughters when they play the whore, nor your brides when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go aside with prostitutes
- for the men themselves go aside with prostitutes and sacrifice with cult prostitutes, and a people without understanding shall come to ruin.

 15Though you play the whore, O Israel,
- Enter not into Gilgal, nor go up to Beth-aven, and your brides commit adultery.

- and swear not, "As the LORD lives."

 16Like a stubborn heifer,
- Israel is stubborn; can the LORD now feed them

let not Judah become guilty.

like a lamb in a broad pasture?

leave him alone.

18When their drink is gone, they give themselves to whoring; their rulers^[18] dearly love shame.

¹⁹A wind has wrapped them^[19] in its wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

¹⁷Ephraim is joined to idols;

Punishment Coming for Israel and Judah

Pay attention, O house of Israel! Give ear, O house of the king!

5:1 Hear this, O priests!

- For the judgment is for you; for you have been a snare at Mizpah and a net spread upon Tabor.
- ²And the revolters have gone deep into slaughter, but I will discipline all of them.
- ³I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from me:
- for now, O Ephraim, you have played the whore; lsrael is defiled.

 ⁴Their deeds do not permit them
- to return to their God.

 For the spirit of whoredom is within them, and they know not the LORD.
- ⁵The pride of Israel testifies to his face; [20] Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in his guilt; Judah also shall stumble with them.

to seek the LORD,
but they will not find him;
he has withdrawn from them.

7They have dealt faithlessly with the LORD;
for they have borne alien children.
Now the new moon shall devour them with their fields.

8Blow the horn in Gibeah,
the trumpet in Ramah.

⁶With their flocks and herds they shall go

⁹Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of punishment; among the tribes of Israel I make known what is sure.

Sound the alarm at Beth-aven; we follow you. [21] O Benjamin!

10 The princes of Judah have become like those who move the landmark; upon them I will pour out my wrath like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because he was determined to go after filth. [22]

- ¹²But I am like a moth to Ephraim, and like dry rot to the house of Judah.
- ¹³When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah his wound, then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to the great king. [23]
- But he is not able to cure you or heal your wound.

 14For I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
- and like a young lion to the house of Judah. I, even I, will tear and go away;
 I will carry off, and no one shall rescue.
- ¹⁵I will return again to my place, until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face, and in their distress earnestly seek me.

Israel and Judah Are Unrepentant

- 6:1 "Come, let us return to the LORD; for he has torn us, that he may heal us; he has struck us down, and he will bind us up.
- After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him.
 Let us know; let us press on to know the LOF
- ³Let us know; let us press on to know the LORD; his going out is sure as the dawn; he will come to us as the showers, as the spring rains that water the earth."
- What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes early away.
- ⁵Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light.
- ⁶For I desire steadfast love ^[24] and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

- ⁷But like Adam thev transgressed the covenant; there they dealt faithlessly with me. ⁸Gilead is a city of evildoers, tracked with blood. ⁹As robbers lie in wait for a man. so the priests band together: they murder on the way to Shechem;
- they commit villainy. ¹⁰In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing; Ephraim's whoredom is there; Israel is defiled.
- ¹¹For you also, O Judah, a harvest is appointed, when I restore the fortunes of my people.
- 7:1 When I would heal Israel,
 - the iniquity of Ephraim is revealed. and the evil deeds of Samaria;
- for they deal falsely;
 - the thief breaks in.
 - and the bandits raid outside.

²But they do not consider that I remember all their evil.

Now their deeds surround them; they are before my face.

 ³By their evil they make the king glad, and the princes by their treachery.
 ⁴They are all adulterers; they are like a heated oven whose baker ceases to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.

5On the day of our king, the princes became sick with the heat of wine;

he stretched out his hand with mockers.

⁶For with hearts like an oven they approach their intrigue;

in the morning it blazes like a flaming fire.

All of them are hot as an oven, and they devour their rulers.

all night their anger smolders;

All their kings have fallen, and none of them calls upon me.

⁸Ephraim mixes himself with the peoples;

Ephraim is a cake not turned.

⁹Strangers devour his strength, and he knows it not; and he knows it not.

10 The pride of Israel testifies to his face; [25] yet they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him, for all this.

gray hairs are sprinkled upon him.

¹¹Ephraim is like a dove, silly and without sense, calling to Egypt, going to Assyria.

12As they go, I will spread over them my net;
I will bring them down like birds of the heavens;
I will discipline them according to the report made to their congregation.

13Woe to them, for they have strayed from me!
 Destruction to them, for they have rebelled against me!
 I would redeem them.

but they speak lies against me.

14They do not cry to me from the heart, but they wail upon their beds; for grain and wine they gash themselves; they rebel against me. ¹⁵Although I trained and strengthened their arms, yet they devise evil against me. 16They return, but not upward: [26] they are like a treacherous bow; because of the insolence of their tongue.

their princes shall fall by the sword This shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

Israel Will Reap the Whirlwind

8:1 Set the trumpet to your lips!

One like a vulture is over the house of the LORD. because they have transgressed my covenant and rebelled against my law.

²To me they cry.

"My God, we-Israel-know you."

³Israel has spurned the good; the enemy shall pursue him.

⁴They made kings, but not through me. They set up princes, but I knew it not. With their silver and gold they made idols for their own destruction. ⁵I have ^[27] spurned your calf. O Samaria.

My anger burns against them.

How long will they be incapable of innocence?

⁶For it is from Israel:

a craftsman made it: it is not God.

The calf of Samaria

⁷For they sow the wind,

shall be broken to pieces.[28]

and they shall reap the whirlwind.
The standing grain has no heads;

it shall yield no flour; if it were to yield, strangers would devour it.

⁸Israel is swallowed up; already they are among the nations as a useless vessel.

⁹For they have gone up to Assyria, a wild donkey wandering alone;

 Ephraim has hired lovers.

 ¹⁰Though they hire allies among the nations,

I will soon gather them up.
And the king and princes shall soon writhe

because of the tribute.

11Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, they have become to him altars for sinning.
 12Were I to write for him my laws by the ten thousands.

they would be regarded as a strange thing.

13 As for my sacrificial offerings, they sacrifice meat and eat it,

Now he will remember their iniquity and punish their sins; they shall return to Egypt.

but the LORD does not accept them.

14For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces, and Judah has multiplied fortified cities; so I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour her strongholds.

The LORD Will Punish Israel

9:1 Rejoice not, O Israel!

Exult not like the peoples; for you have played the whore, forsaking your God.

You have loved a prostitute's wages on all threshing floors.

Threshing floor and wine vat shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail them.
 They shall not remain in the land of the LORD, but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria.

⁴They shall not pour drink offerings of wine to the LORD, and their sacrifices shall not please him. It shall be like mourners' bread to them:

all who eat of it shall be defiled; for their bread shall be for their hunger only; it shall not come to the house of the LORD.

⁵What will you do on the day of the appointed festival,

- and on the day of the feast of the LORD?

 ⁶For behold, they are going away from destruction; but Egypt shall gather them;
- Memphis shall bury them. Nettles shall possess their precious things of silver; thorns shall be in their tents.
- the days of recompense have come; Israel shall know it. The prophet is a fool;

⁷The days of punishment have come;

- the man of the spirit is mad, because of your great iniquity and great hatred.
- ⁸The prophet is the watchman of Ephraim with my God; yet a fowler's snare is on all his ways,
- and hatred in the house of his God.

 They have deeply corrupted themselves
- as in the days of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity; he will punish their sins.

I found Israel.

Like the first fruit on the fig tree in its first season,
I saw your fathers.

and consecrated themselves to the thing of shame, and became detestable like the thing they loved.

11 Ephraim's glory shall fly away like a bird—

no birth, no pregnancy, no conception!

12 Even if they bring up children,
I will bereave them till none is left.

Woe to them

when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I have seen, was like a young palm planted in a meadow;
but Ephraim must lead his children out to slaughter. [30]

14Give them, O LORD—what will you give?

Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

¹⁰Like grapes in the wilderness,

But they came to Baal-peor

there I began to hate them.

Because of the wickedness of their deeds
I will drive them out of my house.

¹⁵Everv evil of theirs is in Gilgal;

¹⁶Ephraim is stricken;

- I will love them no more; all their princes are rebels.
- their root is dried up;
 they shall bear no fruit.
 Even though they give birth,
 I will put their beloved children to death.
- 17My God will reject them because they have not listened to him;
- they shall be wanderers among the nations.
- 10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine that yields its fruit.
 The more his fruit increased,
- the more his truit increased, the more altars he built; as his country improved, he improved his pillars.
- ²Their heart is false;

- now they must bear their guilt.

 The LORD [31] will break down their altars and destroy their pillars.
- ³For now they will say:

"We have no king, for we do not fear the LORD:

and a king-what could he do for us?"

- ⁴They utter mere words; with empty oaths they make covenants;
- so judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.
- ⁵The inhabitants of Samaria tremble for the calf^[32] of Beth-aven.

Its people mourn for it, and so do its idolatrous priests—those who rejoiced over it and over its glory—for it has departed [33] from them.

⁶The thing itself shall be carried to Assyria as tribute to the great king. [34] Ephraim shall be put to shame,

Ephraim shall be put to shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his idol. [35] like a twig on the face of the waters.

The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed.

Thorn and thistle shall grow up

⁷Samaria's king shall perish

- on their altars, and they shall say to the mountains, "Cover us," and to the hills, "Fall on us."

 9From the days of Gibeah, you have sinned, O Israel;
- there they have continued.

 Shall not the war against the unjust [36] overtake them in Gibeah?

 10When I please, I will discipline them, and nations shall be gathered against them.
- 10When I please, I will discipline them, and nations shall be gathered against them when they are bound up for their double iniquity.
 11Enhraim was a trained calf
- ¹¹Ephraim was a trained calf that loved to thresh, and I spared her fair neck;
- and I spared her fair neck; but I will put Ephraim to the yoke; Judah must plow;
 - Judan must plow; Jacob must harrow for himself.

- 12 Sow for yourselves righteousness; reap steadfast love: break up vour fallow ground. for it is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come and rain righteousness upon you.
- you have reaped injustice; you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your own way
- and in the multitude of your warriors, 14therefore the tumult of war shall arise among your
- people. and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle:

mothers were dashed in pieces with their children. ¹⁵Thus it shall be done to you, O Bethel, because of your great evil. At dawn the king of Israel

13 You have plowed iniquity;

shall be utterly cut off.

The LORD's Love for Israel

11:1 When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son.
2The more they were called, the more they went away;

³Yet it was I who taught Ephraim to walk; I took them up by their arms, but they did not know that I healed them. ⁴I led them with cords of kindness. [37]

they kept sacrificing to the Baals and burning offerings to idols.

with the bands of love.

and I became to them as one who eases the yoke on their jaws, and I bent down to them and fed them.

⁵They shall not^[38] return to the land of Egypt, but Assyria shall be their king, because they have refused to return to me.

⁶The sword shall rage against their cities, consume the bars of their gates, and devour them because of their own counsels.

My people are bent on turning away from me, and though they call out to the Most High, he shall not raise them up at all.

How can I give you up, O Ephraim?

How can I hand you over, O Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I treat you like Zeboiim?
My heart recoils within me;
my compassion grows warm and tender.

9I will not execute my burning anger;
I will not again destroy Ephraim;
for I am God and not a man,
the Holy One in your midst,
and I will not come in wrath.

[39]

10 They shall go after the LORD; he will roar like a lion; when he roars, his children shall come trembling from the west;
11 they shall come trembling like birds from Egypt, and like doves from the land of Assyria.

and I will return them to their homes, declares the LORD.

12[40] Ephraim has surrounded me with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit, but Judah still walks with God and is faithful to the Holy One.

12:1 Ephraim feeds on the wind and pursues the east wind all day long; they multiply falsehood and violence; they make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried to Egypt.

The LORD's Indictment of Israel and Judah

- ²The LORD has an indictment against Judah and will punish Jacob according to his ways; he will repay him according to his deeds.
- ³In the womb he took his brother by the heel, and in his manhood he strove with God.
- ⁴He strove with the angel and prevailed; he wept and sought his favor.
- He met God^[41] at Bethel, and there God spoke with us— ⁵the LORD, the God of hosts.
- the LORD is his memorial name:
- 6"So you, by the help of your God, return, hold fast to love and justice, and wait continually for your God."
- ⁷A merchant, in whose hands are false balances, he loves to oppress.
- ⁸Ephraim has said, "Ah, but I am rich; I have found wealth for myself;

in all my labors they cannot find in me iniquity or sin." ⁹I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; I will again make you dwell in tents, as in the days of the appointed feast. ¹⁰I spoke to the prophets; it was I who multiplied visions, and through the prophets gave parables. ¹¹If there is iniquity in Gilead, they shall surely come to nothing: in Gilgal they sacrifice bulls; their altars also are like stone heaps on the furrows of the field. ¹²Jacob fled to the land of Aram; there Israel served for a wife. and for a wife he guarded sheep. ¹³Bv a prophet the LORD brought Israel up from Egypt, and by a prophet he was guarded. ¹⁴Ephraim has given bitter provocation;

so his Lord will leave his bloodguilt on him and will repay him for his disgraceful deeds.

The LORD's Relentless Judgment on Israel

- 13:1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling; he was exalted in Israel. but he incurred guilt through Baal and died.
- ²And now they sin more and more, and make for themselves metal images. idols skillfully made of their silver. all of them the work of craftsmen. It is said of them,

 - "Those who offer human sacrifice kiss calves!" ³Therefore they shall be like the morning mist
- or like the dew that goes early away. like the chaff that swirls from the threshing floor or like smoke from a window.
- ⁴But I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt; you know no God but me, and besides me there is no savior.
- ⁵It was I who knew you in the wilderness, they were filled, and their heart was lifted up; therefore they forgot me.

7So I am to them like a lion; like a leopard I will lurk beside the way.

8I will fall upon them like a bear robbed of her cubs;

⁶but when they had grazed. [42] they became full.

in the land of drought;

I will tear open their breast, and there I will devour them like a lion, as a wild beast would rip them open.

9He destroys 43 vou. O Israel.

for you are against me, against your helper.

10 Where now is your king, to save you in all your cities?

Where are all your rulers—

those of whom you said,
"Give me a king and princes"?

11 gave you a king in my anger, and I took him away in my wrath.

12The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is kept in store.

- ¹³The pangs of childbirth come for him, but he is an unwise son, for at the right time he does not present himself at the opening of the womb.
- Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol?Shall I redeem them from Death?O Death, where are your plagues?
- O Sheol, where is your sting? Compassion is hidden from my eyes.
- 15 Though he may flourish among his brothers, the east wind, the wind of the LORD, shall come, rising from the wilderness, and his fountain shall dry up; his spring shall be parched;
- it shall strip his treasury of every precious thing. 16[44] Samaria shall bear her guilt,
- because she has rebelled against her God; they shall fall by the sword; their little ones shall be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women ripped open.

A Plea to Return to the LORD

- 14:1 Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for you have stumbled because of your iniquity.

 ²Take with you words
- and return to the LORD;
 say to him,
 "Take away all iniquity;
- accept what is good, and we will pay with bulls
- the vows^[45] of our lips.

 ³Assyria shall not save us;
- we will not ride on horses; and we will say no more, 'Our God,' to the work of our hands. In you the orphan finds mercy."
- 4I will heal their apostasy;
 I will love them freely,
 for my anger has turned from them.
- ⁵I will be like the dew to Israel; he shall blossom like the lily;
 - he shall take root like the trees of Lebanon;

his beauty shall be like the olive, and his fragrance like Lebanon.

⁷They shall return and dwell beneath my^[46] shadow; they shall flourish like the grain;

⁶his shoots shall spread out;

they shall flourish like the grain;
they shall blossom like the vine;
their fame shall be like the wine of Lebanon.

8O Ephraim, what have I to do with idols?

It is I who answer and look after you. [47]
I am like an evergreen cypress;
from me comes your fruit.

Whoever is wise, let him understand these things; whoever is discerning, let him know them; for the ways of the LORD are right, and the upright walk in them, but transgressors stumble in them.

JOEL

Cl	ha	pter	1

Chapter 2

Chapter 3

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Joel, the son of Pethuel:

An Invasion of Locusts

²Hear this, you elders; give ear, all inhabitants of the land! Has such a thing happened in your days, or in the days of your fathers?

³Tell your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children to another generation.

the swarming locust has eaten. What the swarming locust left, the hopping locust has eaten, and what the hopping locust left, the destroying locust has eaten.

What the cutting locust left,

⁵Awake, you drunkards, and weep, and wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine, for it is cut off from your mouth for it is cut off from your mouth.

⁶For a nation has come up against my land, powerful and beyond number;

⁷It has laid waste my vine and splintered my fig tree; it has stripped off their bark and thrown it down; their branches are made white.

8 Lament like a virgin^[1] wearing sackcloth for the bridegroom of her youth.
 9 The grain offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of the LORD.

the ministers of the LORD.

10 The fields are destroyed,

The priests mourn,

its teeth are lions' teeth.

and it has the fangs of a lioness.

the ground mourns, because the grain is destroyed, the wine dries up, the oil languishes.

¹¹Be ashamed, ^[2] O tillers of the soil; wail, O vinedressers, for the wheat and the barley, because the harvest of the field has perished. 12The vine dries up; the fig tree languishes. Pomegranate, palm, and apple, all the trees of the field are dried up, and gladness dries up from the children of man.

A Call to Repentance

- ¹³Put on sackcloth and lament, O priests; wail, O ministers of the altar.
 Go in, pass the night in sackcloth,
 O ministers of my God!
 Because grain offering and drink offering are withheld from the house of your God.
- 14Consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly. Gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of the LORD your God, and cry out to the LORD.
- For the day of the LORD is near, and as destruction from the Almighty it comes.
- 16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes,

joy and gladness from the house of our God?

15 Alas for the day!

17The seed shrivels under the clods; [4] the storehouses are desolate; the granaries are torn down because the grain has dried up.
18How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle are perplexed

The herds of cattle are perplexed because there is no pasture for them; even the flocks of sheep suffer. [5]

19To you, O LORD, I call.

For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and flame has burned all the trees of the field.

20 Even the beasts of the field pant for you because the water brooks are dried up, and fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

The Day of the LORD

- 2:1 Blow a trumpet in Zion;
 sound an alarm on my holy mountain!
 Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming; it is near, ²a day of darkness and gloom,
 a day of clouds and thick darkness!
 Like blackness there is spread upon the mountains
 a great and powerful people; their like has never been before, nor will be again after them through the years of all generations.
- ³Fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns. The land is like the garden of Eden before them, but behind them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.
- ⁴Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like war horses they run.
- ⁵As with the rumbling of chariots, like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

they leap on the tops of the mountains,

⁶Before them peoples are in anguish; all faces grow pale.

⁷Like warriors they charge;

like soldiers they scale the wall. They march each on his way;

they do not swerve from their paths. ⁸They do not jostle one another;

each marches in his path; they burst through the weapons and are not halted.

⁹They leap upon the city, they run upon the walls, they climb up into the bourses they run upon the walls, they climb up into the houses, they enter through the windows like a thief.

10 The earth quakes before them; the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

11The LORD utters his voice before his army, for his camp is exceedingly great; he who executes his word is powerful.

For the day of the LORD is great and very awesome; who can endure it?

Return to the LORD

- 12"Yet even now," declares the LORD,
 "return to me with all your heart,
 with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;
 13 and rend your hearts and not your garments."
- Return to the LORD your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster.
- 14Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God?
- ¹⁵Blow the trumpet in Zion; consecrate a fast;
- call a solemn assembly;

 16 gather the people.

 Consecrate the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants.

and the bride her chamber ¹⁷Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, "Spare your people, O LORD, and make not your heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations. 6 Why should they say among the peoples.

'Where is their God?'"

Let the bridegroom leave his room,

The LORD Had Pity

18 Then the LORD became jealous for his land and had pity on his people.
 19 The LORD answered and said to his people,

"Behold, I am sending to you grain, wine, and oil, and you will be satisfied; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations.

20"I will remove the northerner far from you, and drive him into a parched and desolate land, his vanguard^[7] into the eastern sea, and his rear guard^[8] into the western sea; the stench and foul smell of him will rise, for he has done great things.

21"Fear not, O land;
be glad and rejoice,
for the LORD has done great things!
22Fear not, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness are green;

the tree bears its fruit; the fig tree and vine give their full yield.

23"Be glad, O children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God, for he has given the early rain for your vindication; he has poured down for you abundant rain, the early and the latter rain, as before.

24 The threshing floors shall be full of grain;

the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the hopper, the destroyer, and the cutter,

my great army, which I sent among you.

²⁶"You shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, who has dealt wondrously with you.

And my people shall never again be put to shame.

27You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel.

27 You shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God and there is none else.

The LORD Will Pour Out His Spirit

- ²⁸ "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions.
- ²⁹Even on the male and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit.
- ³⁰"And I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and columns of smoke. ³¹The sun shall be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood, before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes. ³²And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved. For in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those who escape, as the LORD has said, and among the survivors shall be those whom the LORD calls.

The LORD Judges the Nations

3:1 [10] "For behold, in those days and at that time, when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem, ²I will gather all the nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat. And I will enter into judgment with them there, on behalf of my people and my heritage Israel, because they have scattered them among the nations and have divided up my land, ³and have cast lots for my people, and have traded a boy for a prostitute, and have sold a girl for wine and have drunk it.

4"What are you to me, O Tyre and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you paying me back for something? If you are paying me back, I will return your payment on your own head swiftly and speedily. ⁵For you have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried my rich treasures into your temples. [11] ⁶You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks in order to remove them far from their own border. ⁷Behold, I will stir them up from the place to payment on your own head. ⁸I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far away, for the LORD has spoken."

which you have sold them, and I will return your ⁹Proclaim this among the nations: Consecrate for war;^[12]

stir up the mighty men.

Let all the men of war draw near; let them come up.

10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears; let the weak say, "I am a warrior."

11 Hasten and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather yourselves there.
Bring down your warriors, O LORD.
12 Let the nations stir themselves up and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations. ¹³Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Go in, tread, for the winepress is full. The vats overflow, for their evil is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes,

in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near
in the valley of decision.

15The sun and the moon are darkened,

⁵The sun and the moon are darkened and the stars withdraw their shining.

¹⁶The LORD roars from Zion, and utters his voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth quake. But the LORD is a refuge to his people, a stronghold to the people of Israel.

The Glorious Future of Judah

- 17"So you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who dwells in Zion, my holy mountain.
 And Jerusalem shall be holy, and strangers shall never again pass through it.
- 18"And in that day
 the mountains shall drip sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the streambeds of Judah shall flow with water;
 and a fountain shall come forth from the house of the
 and water the Valley of Shittim.
- 19"Egypt shall become a desolation and Edom a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the people of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

²⁰But Judah shall be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem to all generations. ²¹I will avenge their blood, blood I have not avenged, [13] for the LORD dwells in Zion."

Judgment on Israel's Neighbors

²And he said:

"The LORD roars from Zion and utters his voice from Jerusalem; the pastures of the shepherds mourn, and the top of Carmel withers."

³Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because they have threshed Gilead with threshing sledges of iron.

⁴So I will send a fire upon the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the strongholds of Ben-hadad.

⁵I will break the gate-bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitants from the Valley of Aven, [4] and him who holds the scepter from Beth-eden; and the people of Syria shall go into exile to Kir," says the LORD.

- "For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment,
- because they carried into exile a whole people to deliver them up to Edom.

 7So I will send a fire upon the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour her strongholds.

 8I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod,
- and it shall devour her strongholds.

 8I will cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod,
 and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;
 I will turn my hand against Ekron, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish," says the Lord GOD.
- ⁹Thus says the LORD:

⁶Thus says the LORD:

- "For three transgressions of Tyre, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because they delivered up a whole people to Edom, and did not remember the covenant of brotherhood.
- 10 So I will send a fire upon the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour her strongholds."

11 Thus says the LORD:"For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because he pursued his brother with the sword and cast off all pity, and his anger tore perpetually, and he kept his wrath forever.

12So I will send a fire upon Teman, and it shall devour the strongholds of Bozrah."

¹³Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of the Ammonites, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because they have ripped open pregnant women in Gilead, that they might enlarge their border.

and it shall devour her strongholds, with shouting on the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind;

14So I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah,

¹⁵and their king shall go into exile,

- he and his princes^[5] together," says the LORD.
- 2:1 Thus says the LORD:
- "For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because he burned to lime the bones of the king of Edom. 2So I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the strongholds of Kerioth,
 - and Moab shall die amid uproar, amid shouting and the sound of the trumpet;
- amid shouting and the sound of the trumpet; 3I will cut off the ruler from its midst,
- and will kill all its princes with him," says the LORD.

Judgment on Judah

⁴Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Judah, and for four, I will not revoke the punishment, because they have rejected the law of the LORD, and have not kept his statutes, but their lies have led them astray, those after which their fathers walked ⁵So I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the strongholds of Jerusalem."

Judgment on Israel

⁶Thus says the LORD:

"For three transgressions of Israel, and for four. I will not revoke the punishment. because they sell the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals— ⁷those who trample the head of the poor into the dust of the earth and turn aside the way of the afflicted; a man and his father go in to the same girl, so that my holy name is profaned; ⁸thev lav themselves down beside every altar on garments taken in pledge, and in the house of their God they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

9"Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars and who was as strong as the oaks; I destroyed his fruit above Also it was I who brought you up out of the land of Egypt and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

¹¹And I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and his roots beneath

and some of your young men for Nazirites.
Is it not indeed so, O people of Israel?"
declares the LORD.

12"But you made the Nazirites drink wine, and commanded the prophets,

13"Behold, I will press you down in your place, as a cart full of sheaves presses down.
14Flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not retain his strength, nor shall the mighty save his life;

saying, 'You shall not prophesy.'

and the strong shall not retain his strength, nor shall the mighty save his life;

15he who handles the bow shall not stand, and he who is swift of foot shall not save himself, nor shall he who rides the horse save his life;

16and he who is stout of heart among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day," declares the LORD.

Israel's Guilt and Punishment

- 3:1 Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of the land of Egypt:
- 2"You only have I known of all the families of the earth; therefore I will punish you
- for all your iniquities.

 3"Do two walk together,
- unless they have agreed to meet?

 *Does a lion roar in the forest.
- when he has no prey?

 Does a young lion cry out from his den,
- if he has taken nothing?
 Does a bird fall in a snare on the earth, when there is no trap for it?
- Does a snare spring up from the ground, when it has taken nothing?
- ⁶Is a trumpet blown in a city, and the people are not afraid?

unless the LORD has done it?

7"For the Lord GOD does nothing

Does disaster come to a city, without revealing his secret to his servants the prophets.

The lion has roared; who will not fear?

The Lord GOD has spoken; who can but prophesy?"

⁹Proclaim to the strongholds in Ashdod and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and to the strongholds in the land of Egypt, and say, "Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see the great tumults within her, and the oppressed in her midst."

10"They do not know how to do right," declares the LORD.

"those who store up violence and robbery in their strongholds."

¹¹Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

- "An adversary shall surround the land and bring down^[8] your defenses from you, and your strongholds shall be plundered."
- ¹²Thus says the LORD: "As the shepherd rescues from the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the people of Israel who dwell in Samaria be rescued, with the corner of a couch and part^[9] of a bed.
- 13"Hear, and testify against the house of Jacob," declares the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14"that on the day I punish Israel for his transgressions,

I will punish the altars of Bethel,

- and the horns of the altar shall be cut off and fall to the ground.
- ¹⁵I will strike the winter house along with the summer house,
- and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses [10] shall come to an end," declares the LORD.

- 4:1 "Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who say to your husbands, 'Bring, that we may drink!'

 2The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness
- that, behold, the days are coming upon you, when they shall take you away with hooks, even the last of you with fishhooks.

 3And you shall go out through the breaches, each one straight ahead;

and you shall be cast out into Harmon,"

declares the LORD.

4"Come to Bethel, and transgress;
to Gilgal, and multiply transgression;
bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tithes every three days;

5offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill offerings, publish them; for so you love to do, O people of Israel!" declares the Lord GOD.

Israel Has Not Returned to the LORD

- 6"I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places, yet you did not return to me,"

 declares the LORD.
- 7"I also withheld the rain from you when there were yet three months to the harvest; I would send rain on one city, and send no rain on another city; one field would have rain, and the field on which it did not rain would wither; 8so two or three cities would wander to another city to drink water, and would not be satisfied; yet you did not return to me."
- 9"I struck you with blight and mildew; your many gardens and your vineyards, your fig trees and your olive trees the locust devoured; yet you did not return to me,"

declares the LORD.

10"I sent among you a pestilence after the manner of Egypt;

declares the LORD

declares the LORD.

declares the LORD.

I killed your young men with the sword, and carried away your horses, [11] and I made the stench of your camp go up into your nostrils; yet you did not return to me,"

11"I overthrew some of you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were as a brand [12] plucked out of the burning; yet you did not return to me,"

12"Therefore thus I will do to you, O Israel; because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel!"

¹³For behold, he who forms the mountains and creates the wind, and declares to man what is his thought, who makes the morning darkness, and treads on the heights of the earth the LORD, the God of hosts, is his name!

Seek the LORD and Live

- 5:1 Hear this word that I take up over you in lamentation, O house of Israel:
- ²"Fallen, no more to rise, is the virgin Israel; forsaken on her land, with none to raise her up."
- ³For thus says the Lord GOD:
- "The city that went out a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went out a hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel."
- ⁴For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel:
- "Seek me and live;

 5but do not seek Bethel, and do not enter into Gilgal or cross over to Beersheba; for Gilgal shall surely go into exile, and Bethel shall come to nothing."

⁶Seek the LORD and live, strong,

lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, with none to quench it for Bethel, ⁷O you who turn justice to wormwood [13] and cast down righteousness to the earth!

8He who made the Pleiades and Orion, and darkens the day into night, who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the surface of the earth, the LORD is his name;

9 who makes destruction flash forth against the and turns deep darkness into the morning

so that destruction comes upon the fortress.

¹¹Therefore because you trample on [14] the poor and you exact taxes of grain from him, you have built houses of hewn stone, but you shall not dwell in them; you have planted pleasant vineyards, but you shall not drink their wine.

12For I know how many are your transgressions a time.

and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the righteous, who take a bribe, and turn aside the needy in the gate.

13Therefore he who is prudent will keep silent in such for it is an evil time.

14Seek good, and not evil, that you may live;

that you may live; and so the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, as you have said. 15Hate evil, and love good, and establish justice in the gate; it may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.

¹⁶Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of hosts,

"In all the squares there shall be wailing, and in all the streets they shall say, 'Alas! Alas!' They shall call the farmers to mourning and to wailing those who are skilled in lamentation. ¹⁷and in all vineyards there shall be wailing, for I will pass through your midst."

says the LORD.

the Lord:

Let Justice Roll Down

Woe to you who desire the day of the LORD!
Why would you have the day of the LORD?
It is darkness, and not light, 19 as if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him.

or went into the house and leaned his hand against the wall, and a serpent bit him.

and gloom with no brightness in it?

21"I hate, I despise your feasts,

²⁰ls not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light,

- and I take no delight in your solemn assemblies.

 22 Even though you offer me your burnt offerings and
- grain offerings,
 I will not accept them;
 and the peace offerings of your fattened animals,
- I will not look upon them.

 23 Take away from me the noise of your songs; to the melody of your harps I will not listen.

²⁴But let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

²⁵"Did vou bring to me sacrifices and offerings

during the forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel? ²⁶You shall take up Sikkuth your king, and Kiyyun your star-god—your images that you made for vourselves. ²⁷ and I will send you into exile beyond Damascus," says the LORD, whose name is the God of hosts.

Woe to Those at Ease in Zion

6:1 "Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the first of the nations, to whom the house of Israel comes!

and from there go to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines.

²Pass over to Calneh, and see,

Are you better than these kingdoms?

Or is their territory greater than your territory,

³O you who put far away the day of disaster and bring near the seat of violence?

4"Woe to those who lie on beds of ivory and stretch themselves out on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall, 5who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp and like David invent for themselves instruments of music, who drink wine in bowls

- and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph! ⁷Therefore they shall now be the first of those who go
- into exile, and the revelry of those who stretch themselves out shall pass away."
- ⁸The Lord GOD has sworn by himself, declares the LORD, the God of hosts:

"I abhor the pride of Jacob and hate his strongholds,

LORD."

- and I will deliver up the city and all that is in it."

 9 And if ten men remain in one house, they shall die.
- ¹⁰And when one's relative, the one who anoints him for burial, shall take him up to bring the bones out of the house, and shall say to him who is in the innermost parts of the house, "Is there still anyone with you?" he shall say, "No"; and he shall say, "Silence! We must not mention the name of the hosts: "and they shall oppress you from Lebo-hamath to the Brook of the Arabah."

Warning Visions

"O Lord GOD, please forgive! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!"

7:1 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: behold, he was forming locusts when the latter growth was just beginning to sprout, and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings. ²When they had finished eating the grass of the land, I said,

- The LORD relented concerning this:

 "It shall not be," said the LORD.

 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: behold, the
- Lord GOD was calling for a judgment by fire, and it devoured the great deep and was eating up the land. ⁵Then I said,
- "O Lord GOD, please cease! How can Jacob stand? He is so small!"
- ⁶The LORD relented concerning this:

"This also shall not be," said the Lord GOD.

⁷This is what he showed me: behold, the Lord was standing beside a wall built with a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. ⁸And the LORD said to me. "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said. "Behold, I am setting a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel;

I will never again pass by them; and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste.

⁹the high places of Isaac shall be made desolate, and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword "

Amos Accused

- ¹⁰Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words.
 ¹¹For thus Amos has said,
- "'Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel must go into exile away from his land.'"
- 12And Amaziah said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there, ¹³but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom."
- ¹⁴Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I was [19] no prophet, nor a prophet's son, but I was a herdsman and a dresser of sycamore figs. ¹⁵But the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people and your land shall be divided up with a measuring line;

you yourself shall die in an unclean land, and Israel shall surely go into exile away from its land."

The Coming Day of Bitter Mourning

8:1 This is what the Lord GOD showed me: behold, a basket of summer fruit. ²And he said, "Amos, what do you see?" And I said, "A basket of summer fruit." Then the LORD said to me.

"The end^[20] has come upon my people Israel;
I will never again pass by them.

The songs of the temple^[21] shall become

And the Sabbath.

⁴Hear this, you who trample on the needy and bring the poor of the land to an end, ⁵saying, "When will the new moon be over, that we may sell grain?

that we may offer wheat for sale, that we may make the ephah small and the shekel[23] great and deal deceitfully with false balances,

6that we may buy the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and sell the chaff of the wheat?"

⁷The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:

"Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

8 Shall not the land tremble on this account, and everyone mourn who dwells in it,
and all of it rise like the Nile, and be tossed about and sink again, like the Nile of Egypt?"

⁹"And on that day," declares the Lord GOD,
"I will make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight.
¹⁰I will turn your feasts into mourning and all your songs into lamentation;

I will bring sackcloth on every waist and baldness on every head;
I will make it like the mourning for an only son and the end of it like a bitter day.

11"Behold, the days are coming," declares the Lord GOD. "when I will send a famine on the land—not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD. 12Thev shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east: they shall run to and fro, to seek the word of the LORD. but they shall not find it.

13"In that day the lovely virgins and the young men shall faint for thirst. 14Those who swear by the Guilt of Samaria, and sav. 'As your god lives, O Dan,' and, 'As the Way of Beersheba lives,' they shall fall, and never rise again."

The Destruction of Israel

- 9:1 I saw the Lord standing beside^[24] the altar, and he said:
- "Strike the capitals until the thresholds shake, and shatter them on the heads of all the people; and those who are left of them I will kill with the sword; not one of them shall flee away;
- ²"If they dig into Sheol, from there shall my hand take them; if they climb up to heaven, from there I will bring them down.

 ³If they hide themselves on the top of Carmel not one of them shall escape.

³If they hide themselves on the top of Carmel, from there I will search them out and take them; and if they hide from my sight at the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them.

them;
and I will fix my eyes upon them for evil and not for good."

he who touches the earth and it melts, and all who dwell in it mourn, and all of it rises like the Nile, and sinks again, like the Nile of Egypt;

6who builds his upper chambers in the heavens and founds his vault upon the earth; who calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out upon the surface of the earth—the LORD is his name.

7"Are you not like the Cushites to me,

14I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine.

and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit.

15I will plant them on their land, and they shall never again be uprooted out of the land that I have given them," says the LORD your God.

1 The vision of Obadiah.

Edom Will Be Humbled

Thus says the Lord GOD concerning Edom: We have heard a report from the LORD, and a messenger has been sent among the nations:

"Rise up! Let us rise against her for battle!"

²Behold, I will make you small among the nations; you shall be utterly despised. [1]

³The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rock, ^[2] in your lofty dwelling, who say in your heart, "Who will bring me down to the ground?"

⁴Though you soar aloft like the eagle, though your nest is set among the stars, from there I will bring you down,

declares the LORD.

5If thieves came to you, if plunderers came by night—
how you have been destroyed!—
would they not steal only enough for themselves?

would they not leave gleanings?

⁶How Esau has been pillaged, his treasures sought out!

those at peace with you have deceived you;
they have prevailed against you;
those who eat your bread [3] have set a trap

⁸Will I not on that day, declares the LORD, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of Mount Esau?

And your mighty men shall be dismayed, O Teman, so that every man from Mount Esau will be cut off by slaughter.

Edom's Violence Against Jacob

10 Because of the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off forever.
11 On the day that you stood aloof, on the day that strangers carried off his wealth and foreigners entered his gates you were like one of them.

12But do not gloat over the day of your brother in the day of his misfortune;
do not rejoice over the people of Judah

in the day of their ruin;

14Do not stand at the crossroads to cut off his fugitives; do not hand over his survivors in the day of distress.

The Day of the LORD Is Near

¹⁵For the day of the LORD is near upon all the nations.

As you have done, it shall be done to you; your deeds shall return on your own head.

16For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so all the nations shall drink continually:

they shall drink and swallow, and shall be as though they had never been.

¹⁷But in Mount Zion there shall be those who escape, and it shall be holy,

and the house of Jacob shall possess their own possessions.

18The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor for the house of Esau,

for the LORD has spoken.

The Kingdom of the LORD

- ¹⁹Those of the Negeb shall possess Mount Esau, and those of the Shephelah shall possess the land of the Philistines;
- they shall possess the land of Ephraim and the land of Samaria,
 - and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
- ²⁰The exiles of this host of the people of Israel shall possess the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath,
- and the exiles of Jerusalem who are in Sepharad shall possess the cities of the Negeb.
- ²¹Saviors shall go up to Mount Zion to rule Mount Esau, and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

Chapter 3 Chapter 4

Jonah Flees the Presence of the LORD

1:1 Now the word of the LORD came to Jonah the son of Amittai, saying, ²"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it, for their evil^[1] has come up before me." ³But Jonah rose to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare and went on board, to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of the LORD.

⁴But the LORD hurled a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest on the sea, so that the ship threatened to break up. ⁵Then the mariners were afraid, and each cried out to his god. And they hurled the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten it for them. But Jonah had gone down into the inner part of the ship and had lain down and was fast asleep. ⁶So the captain came and said to him, "What do you mean, you sleeper? Arise, call out to your god! Perhaps the god will give a thought to us,

Jonah Is Thrown into the Sea

⁷And they said to one another, "Come, let us cast lots, that we may know on whose account this evil has come upon us." So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. ⁸Then they said to him, "Tell us on whose account this evil has come upon us. What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?" ⁹And he said to them. "I am a Hebrew, and I fear the LORD.

the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land." ¹⁰Then the men were exceedingly afraid and said to him, "What is this that you have done!" For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

¹¹Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, that the sea may quiet down for us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous. ¹²He said to them, "Pick me up and hurl me into the sea; then the sea will quiet down for you, for I know it is because of me that this great tempest has come upon you."

13 Nevertheless, the men rowed hard [2] to get back to perish for this man's life, and lay not on us innocent blood, for you, O LORD, have done as it pleased you." ¹⁵So they picked up Jonah and hurled him into the sea, and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made yows.

dry land, but they could not, for the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them. ¹⁴Therefore they called out to the LORD. "O LORD, let us not

Jonah's Prayer

- 2:1 Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from the belly of the fish, ²saying,
- "I called out to the LORD, out of my distress, and he answered me;
- out of the belly of Sheol I cried, and you heard my voice. ³For you cast me into the deep,
 - into the heart of the seas, and the flood surrounded me:
- all your waves and your billows passed over me.

- ⁵The waters closed in over me to take my life; the deep surrounded me:
- weeds were wrapped about my head

I went down to the land whose bars closed upon me forever: yet you brought up my life from the pit, O LORD my God.

⁷When my life was fainting away, I remembered the LORD, and my prayer came to you, into your holy temple.

⁸Those who pay regard to vain idols forsake their hope of steadfast love. ⁹But I with the voice of thanksgiving will sacrifice to you; what I have vowed I will pay. Salvation belongs to the LORD!"

¹⁰And the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited

Jonah out upon the dry land.

Jonah Goes to Nineveh

3:1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying, ²"Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and call out against it the message that I tell you." ³So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, ^[5] three days' journey in breadth. ^[6] ⁴Jonah began to go into the city, going a day's journey. And he called out, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown!" ⁵And the people of Nineveh believed God. They called for a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them

The People of Nineveh Repent

⁶The word reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes, ⁷And he issued a proclamation and published through Nineveh, "By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything. Let them not feed or drink water. 8but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and let them call out mightily to God. Let everyone turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands. 9Who knows? God may turn and relent and turn from his fierce anger, so that we may not perish."

10When God saw what they did, how they turned from their evil way, God relented of the disaster that he had said he would do to them, and he did not do it.

Jonah's Anger and the LORD's Compassion

- 4:1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, ^[8] and he was angry. ²And he prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and relenting from disaster. ³Therefore now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live." ⁴And the LORD said, "Do you do
- ⁵Jonah went out of the city and sat to the east of the city and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, till he should see what would become of the city. ⁶Now the LORD God appointed a plant^[9] and made it come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort.^[10] So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the plant. ⁷But when dawn came up the down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint. And he asked that he might die and said, "It is better for me to die than to live." ⁹But God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry for the plant?" And he said, "Yes, I do well to be angry, angry enough to die." ¹⁰And the LORD said, "You pity the plant, for which you did not labor, nor did you make it grow, which 11 And should not I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than 120,000 persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?"

Chapter 7

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Micah of Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

The Coming Destruction

- ²Hear, you peoples, all of you;^[1] pay attention, O earth, and all that is in it, and let the Lord GOD be a witness against you,
 the Lord from his holy temple.
- ³For behold, the LORD is coming out of his place, and will come down and tread upon the high places of the earth.
- ⁴And the mountains will melt under him, and the valleys will split open,
- like wax before the fire, like waters poured down a steep place. ⁵All this is for the transgression of Jacob
- and for the sins of the house of Israel.
 What is the transgression of Jacob?
- Is it not Samaria?
 And what is the high place of Judah?
- Is it not Jerusalem?

 6Therefore I will make Samaria a heap in the open country,

a place for planting vineyards, and I will pour down her stones into the valley

⁷All her carved images shall be beaten to pieces, all her wages shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay waste, for from the fee of a prostitute she gathered them, and to the fee of a prostitute they shall return.

and uncover her foundations.

⁸For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will make lamentation like the jackals, and mourning like the ostriches. ⁹For her wound is incurable, and it has come to Judah:

to Jerusalem.

10 Tell it not in Gath;
weep not at all;

it has reached to the gate of my people,

in Beth-le-aphrah roll yourselves in the dust.

11Pass on your way, inhabitants of Shaphir inhabitants of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame;

wait anxiously for good, because disaster has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 Harness the steeds to the chariots, inhabitants of Lachish;
it was the beginning of sin shall take away from you its standing place.

the inhabitants of Zaanan do not come out; the lamentation of Beth-ezel

the transgressions of Israel.

¹⁴Therefore you shall give parting gifts [2]

the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful thing

¹⁵I will again bring a conqueror to you, inhabitants of Mareshah; the glory of Israel shall come to Adullam.

¹⁶Make yourselves bald and cut off your hair, for the children of your delight; make yourselves as bald as the eagle, for they shall go from you into exile.

Woe to the Oppressors

- 2:1 Woe to those who devise wickedness and work evil on their beds! When the morning dawns, they perform it, because it is in the power of their hand.
- ²They covet fields and seize them, and houses, and take them away; they oppress a man and his house, a man and his inheritance.
- ³Therefore thus says the LORD:
- behold, against this family I am devising disaster, from which you cannot remove your necks,
- and you shall not walk haughtily, for it will be a time of disaster.
- ⁴In that day they shall take up a taunt song against you
- and moan bitterly,
- and say, "We are utterly ruined;
- he changes the portion of my people; how he removes it from me!
 - To an apostate he allots our fields."

⁵Therefore you will have none to cast the line by lot in the assembly of the LORD. 6"Do not preach"—thus they preach—disgrace will not overtake us." ⁷Should this be said, O house of Jacob? Has the LORD grown impatient?[4]

"one should not preach of such things;

Are these his deeds? Do not my words do good to him who walks uprightly? ⁸But lately my people have risen up as an enemy;

you strip the rich robe from those who pass by trustingly with no thought of war. [5]

⁹The women of my people you drive out from their delightful houses; from their young children you take away my splendor forever.

¹⁰Arise and go,

for this is no place to rest, because of uncleanness that destroys with a grievous destruction.

11 If a man should go about and utter wind and lies, saying, "I will preach to you of wine and strong drink," he would be the preacher for this people!

12 will surely assemble all of you, O Jacob;
I will gather the remnant of Israel;

I will set them together like sheep in a fold, like a flock in its pasture,

a noisy multitude of men.

13He who opens the breach goes up before them;
they break through and pass the gate

they break through and pass the gate, going out by it.
Their king passes on before them,

the LORD at their head.

Rulers and Prophets Denounced

3:1 And I said:

Hear, you heads of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel! Is it not for you to know justice?—

²you who hate the good and love the evil, who tear the skin from off my people^[6] and their flesh from off their bones.

³who eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones in pieces and chop them up like meat in a pot, like flesh in a cauldron.

⁴Then they will cry to the LORD, but he will not answer them; he will hide his face from them at that time, because they have made their deeds evil.

⁵Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray, who cry "Peace"

but declare war against him who puts nothing into their mouths. ⁶Therefore it shall be night to you, without vision, and darkness to you, without divination. The sun shall go down on the prophets.

when they have something to eat, and the day shall be black over them; ⁷the seers shall be disgraced, and the diviners put to shame:

they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer from God. ⁸But as for me. I am filled with power.

with the Spirit of the LORD, and with justice and might, to declare to Jacob his transgression and to Israel his sin.

⁹Hear this, you heads of the house of Jacob and rulers of the house of Israel.

and make crooked all that is straight,

who detest justice

¹⁰who build Zion with blood and Jerusalem with iniquity. ¹¹Its heads give judgment for a bribe; its priests teach for a price: its prophets practice divination for money: yet they lean on the LORD and say, "Is not the LORD in the midst of us?

No disaster shall come upon us."

¹²Therefore because of you Zion shall be plowed as a field; Jerusalem shall become a heap of ruins, and the mountain of the house a wooded height.

The Mountain of the LORD

4:1 It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and it shall be lifted up above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it,

²and many nations shall come, and say:
"Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob, that he may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths."

For out of Zion shall go forth the law,
and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

³He shall judge between many peoples, and shall decide for strong nations far away; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks;

nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore; ⁴but they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree, and no one shall make them afraid.

for the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken. ⁵For all the peoples walk each in the name of its god, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God forever and ever.

The LORD Shall Rescue Zion

- In that day, declares the LORD,

 I will assemble the lame and gather those who have been driven away and those whom I have afflicted; and the lame I will make the remnant, and those who were cast off, a strong nation; and the LORD will reign over them in Mount Zion from this time forth and forevermore.

- ⁸And you, O tower of the flock, hill of the daughter of Zion, to you shall it come, the former dominion shall come, kingship for the daughter of Jerusalem.
- ⁹Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no king in you? Has your counselor perished,
- that pain seized you like a woman in labor?

 10 Writhe and groan, 8 O daughter of Zion,
 - like a woman in labor, and dwell in the open country; you shall go to Babylon. There you shall be rescued; there the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

for now you shall go out from the city

¹¹Now many nations are assembled against you, saving, "Let her be defiled, and let our eyes gaze upon Zion." ¹²But they do not know the thoughts of the LORD; they do not understand his plan, that he has gathered them as sheaves to the threshing floor. ¹³Arise and thresh. O daughter of Zion, for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs bronze;

you shall beat in pieces many peoples; and shall devote^[9] their gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

The Ruler to Be Born in Bethlehem

5:1 [10] Now muster your troops, O daughter [11] of troops; siege is laid against us; with a rod they strike the judge of Israel on the cheek.

2[12] But vou. O Bethlehem Ephrathah, who are too little to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel, whose coming forth is from of old, from ancient days.

³Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has given birth; then the rest of his brothers shall return to the people of Israel.

⁴And he shall stand and shepherd his flock in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.

And they shall dwell secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth.

⁵And he shall be their peace.

When the Assyrian comes into our land and treads in our palaces, then we will raise against him seven shepherds and eight princes of men;

⁶they shall shepherd the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod at its entrances;

and the land of Nimrod at its entrances; and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian when he comes into our land and treads within our border.

A Remnant Shall Be Delivered

⁷Then the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples like dew from the LORD, like showers on the grass, which delay not for a man nor wait for the children of man.

⁸And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples,

- like a lion among the beasts of the forest, like a young lion among the flocks of sheep, which, when it goes through, treads down
- and tears in pieces, and there is none to deliver.

 9Your hand shall be lifted up over your adversaries, and all your enemies shall be cut off.
- ¹⁰And in that day, declares the LORD, I will cut off your horses from among you and will destroy your chariots;
- ¹¹and I will cut off the cities of your land and throw down all your strongholds;

and you shall have no more tellers of fortunes;

13 and I will cut off your carved images and your pillars from among you, and you shall bow down no more

¹²and I will cut off sorceries from your hand, to the work of your hands;

14 and I will root out your Asherah images from among you and destroy your cities.

15 And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance

¹⁵And in anger and wrath I will execute vengeance on the nations that did not obey.

The Indictment of the LORD

6:1 Hear what the LORD says:

- Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.
- ²Hear, you mountains, the indictment of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth, for the LORD has an indictment against his people, and he will contend with Israel.
- 3"O my people, what have I done to you? How have I wearied you? Answer me!
 4For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, Aaron, and Miriam.

and I sent before you Moses,

- ⁵O my people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised,
- and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the LORD."

What Does the LORD Require?

6"With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?
7Will the LORD be pleased with [13] thousands of the company of the compan ⁷Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil?

the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

⁸He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, [14] and to walk humbly with your God?

Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,

Destruction of the Wicked

- ⁹The voice of the LORD cries to the city—and it is sound wisdom to fear your name:
 "Hear of the rod and of him who appointed it!^[15]

 ¹⁰Can I forget any longer the treasures^[16] of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accursed?
- 11 Shall I acquit the man with wicked scales and with a bag of deceitful weights?
- 12 Your 177 rich men are full of violence; your inhabitants speak lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
- 13 Therefore I strike you with a grievous blow, making you desolate because of your sins.

14You shall eat, but not be satisfied, and there shall be hunger within you;

you shall put away, but not preserve, and what you preserve I will give to the sword.

15 You shall sow, but not reap; you shall tread olives, but not anoint yourselves with oil: you shall tread grapes, but not drink wine.

16For you have kept the statutes of Omri, [18] and all the works of the house of Ahab;
and you have walked in their counsels, that I may make you a desolation, and your [19] inhabitants a hissing;
so you shall bear the scorn of my people."

Wait for the God of Salvation

7:1 Woe is me! For I have become as when the summer fruit has been gathered, as when the grapes have been gleaned: there is no cluster to eat, no first-ripe fig that my soul desires.

The godly has perished from the earth, and there is no one upright among mankind; they all lie in wait for blood, and each hunts the other with a net.

Their hands are on what is evil, to do it well;

Their hands are on what is evil, to do it well; the prince and the judge ask for a bribe, and the great man utters the evil desire of his soul; thus they weave it together.
The best of them is like a brier,

the most upright of them a thorn hedge.

The day of your watchmen, of your punishment, has come;

now their confusion is at hand.

⁵Put no trust in a neighbor; have no confidence in a friend; guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your arms;[20] ⁶ for the son treats the father with contempt, the daughter rises up against her mother. the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. ⁷But as for me, I will look to the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation; my God will hear me. ⁸Reioice not over me, O my enemy; when I fall. I shall rise: when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.

the LORD will be a light to me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD because I have sinned against him, until he pleads my cause and executes judgment for me.

He will bring me out to the light;
I shall look upon his vindication.

10 Then my enemy will see,

"Where is the LORD your God?" My eyes will look upon her;

and shame will cover her who said to me,

11A day for the building of your walls!
In that day the boundary shall be far extended.

now she will be trampled down like the mire of the streets

¹³But the earth will be desolate because of its inhabitants, for the fruit of their deeds

¹²In that day they^[21] will come to you, from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt to the River, from sea to sea and from mountain to mountain.

- 14Shepherd your people with your staff, the flock of your inheritance, who dwell alone in a forest in the midst of a garden land: [22]
- let them graze in Bashan and Gilead as in the days of old.

 15As in the days when you came out of the land of Egypt,

 I will show them [23] marvelous things.
- ¹⁶The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their they shall lay their hands on their mouths; their ears shall be deaf; 17they shall lick the dust like a serpent, like the crawling things of the earth;

might;

like the crawling things of the earth; they shall come trembling out of their strongholds; they shall turn in dread to the LORD our God, and they shall be in fear of you.

God's Steadfast Love and Compassion

18Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression for the remnant of his inheritance?
He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in steadfast love.
19He will again have compassion on us;

he will tread our iniquities underfoot. You will cast all our^[24] sins into the depths of the sea.

20 You will show faithfulness to Jacob and steadfast love to Abraham, as you have sworn to our fathers as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Chapter 3

1:1 An oracle concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum of Elkosh.

God's Wrath Against Nineveh

- ²The LORD is a jealous and avenging God; the LORD is avenging and wrathful; the LORD takes vengeance on his adversaries and keeps wrath for his enemies.
- ³The LORD is slow to anger and great in power, and the LORD will by no means clear the guilty.
- His way is in whirlwind and storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
- ⁴He rebukes the sea and makes it dry;
- he dries up all the rivers; Bashan and Carmel wither;
 - the bloom of Lebanon withers.
- ⁵The mountains quake before him; the hills melt:
- the earth heaves before him,
- the world and all who dwell in it.
- Who can endure the heat of his anger?
 His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken into pieces by him.

⁶Who can stand before his indignation?

a stronghold in the day of trouble: he knows those who take refuge in him. ⁸But with an overflowing flood he will make a complete end of the adversaries.[1] and will pursue his enemies into darkness. ⁹What do you plot against the LORD? He will make a complete end; trouble will not rise up a second time. ¹⁰For they are like entangled thorns, like drunkards as they drink; they are consumed like stubble fully dried. ¹¹From you came one who plotted evil against the LORD, a worthless counselor.

⁷The LORD is good,

12Thus says the LORD,

they will be cut down and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more. ¹³And now I will break his yoke from off you and will burst your bonds apart."

"Though they are at full strength and many,

14The LORD has given commandment about you: "No more shall your name be perpetuated; from the house of your gods I will cut off the carved image and the metal image. I will make your grave, for you are vile."

The Destruction of Nineveh

Man the ramparts: watch the road:

dress for battle:[3] collect all your strength.

²For the LORD is restoring the majesty of Jacob as the majesty of Israel, for plunderers have plundered them and ruined their branches his soldiers are clothed in scarlet. The chariots come with flashing metal on the day he musters them;

³The shield of his mighty men is red;

the cypress spears are brandished. ⁴The chariots race madly through the streets; they rush to and fro through the squares; they gleam like torches;

they dart like lightning.

⁵He remembers his officers:

they stumble as they go, they hasten to the wall; the siege tower [4] is set up. ⁶The river gates are opened; the palace melts away: ⁷its mistress^[5] is stripped; ^[6] she is carried off, her slave girls lamenting, moaning like doves and beating their breasts. ⁸Nineveh is like a pool whose waters run awav. 7 "Halt! Halt!" they cry, but none turns back. ⁹Plunder the silver. plunder the gold! There is no end of the treasure or of the wealth of all precious things.

10 Desolate! Desolation and ruin!

Hearts melt and knees tremble: anguish is in all loins;

all faces grow pale! ¹¹Where is the lions' den, where the lion and lioness went, where his cubs were, with none to disturb?

12The lion tore enough for his cubs and strangled prey for his lionesses; he filled his caves with prey and his dens with torn flesh.

hosts, and I will burn your [8] chariots in smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions. I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall no longer be heard.

Woe to Nineveh

- 3:1 Woe to the bloody city, all full of lies and plunder—no end to the prey!
- ²The crack of the whip, and rumble of the wheel, galloping horse and bounding chariot!

 ³Horsemen charging.
- flashing sword and glittering spear, hosts of slain,
- heaps of corpses, dead bodies without end they stumble over the bodies!
- ⁴And all for the countless whorings of the prostitute, graceful and of deadly charms, who betrays nations with her whorings, and peoples with her charms.
- ⁵Behold, I am against you, declares the LORD of hosts, and will lift up your skirts over your face; and I will make nations look at your nakedness and kingdoms at your shame.

- and treat you with contempt and make you a spectacle.

 And all who look at you will shrink from you and say, Wasted is Nineveh; who will grieve for her? Where shall I seek comforters for you?
- ⁸Are you better than Thebes^[9] that sat by the Nile, with water around her, her rampart a sea,
- and water her wall?

 Gush was her strength;

⁶I will throw filth at you

- Egypt too, and that without limit;
 Put and the Libyans were her [10] helpers.
- 10 Yet she became an exile; she went into captivity; her infants were dashed in pieces
- she went into captivity; her infants were dashed in pieces
 at the head of every street;
 for her honored men lots were cast, and all her great men were bound in chains.

 You also will be drunken:

you will seek a refuge from the enemy. ¹²All your fortresses are like fig trees with first-ripe figs if shaken they fall into the mouth of the eater. ¹³Behold, your troops are women in your midst. The gates of your land are wide open to your enemies; fire has devoured your bars. ¹⁴Draw water for the siege;

you will go into hiding;

strengthen your forts;
go into the clay;
tread the mortar;
take hold of the brick mold!

15 There will the fire devour you; the sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the locust. Multiply yourselves like the locust; multiply like the grasshopper!

16 You increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens.

The locust spreads its wings and flies away.

17Your princes are like grasshoppers, your scribes^[11] like clouds of locusts settling on the fences in a day of cold when the sun rises, they fly away; no one knows where they are.

18 Your shepherds are asleep,
 O king of Assyria;
 your nobles slumber.
 Your people are scattered on the mountains with none to gather them.

¹⁹There is no easing your hurt; your wound is grievous.

All who hear the news about you clap their hands over you.

For upon whom has not come

For upon whom has not come your unceasing evil?

Chapter 2

Chapter 3

1:1 The oracle that Habakkuk the prophet saw.

Habakkuk's Complaint

- ²O LORD, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not hear?
- Or crv to you "Violence!" and you will not save?
- ³Why do you make me see iniquity,
- and why do you idly look at wrong? Destruction and violence are before me: strife and contention arise.
- ⁴So the law is paralyzed,
 - and justice never goes forth.
- For the wicked surround the righteous; so justice goes forth perverted.

The LORD's Answer

- 5"Look among the nations, and see; wonder and be astounded.
 For I am doing a work in your days
- that you would not believe if told.

 ⁶For behold, I am raising up the Chaldeans,
- that bitter and hasty nation,
 who march through the breadth of the earth,
- to seize dwellings not their own.

 7They are dreaded and fearsome;
- their justice and dignity go forth from themselves. ⁸Their horses are swifter than leopards,
 - more fierce than the evening wolves; their horsemen press proudly on.
- Their horsemen come from afar; they fly like an eagle swift to devour.
- ⁹They all come for violence, all their faces forward.
- They gather captives like sand.
- 10 At kings they scoff, and at rulers they laugh.
- They laugh at every fortress,

for they pile up earth and take it.

11 Then they sweep by like the wind and go on, guilty men, whose own might is their god!"

Habakkuk's Second Complaint

- 12 Are you not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? We shall not die.
- O LORD, you have ordained them as a judgment, and you, O Rock, have established them for reproof.
- reproof.

 13
 You who are of purer eyes than to see evil and cannot look at wrong, why do you idly look at traitors and remain silent when the wicked swallows up
 - the man more righteous than he?
- 14You make mankind like the fish of the sea, like crawling things that have no ruler.
- 15 He brings all of them up with a hook; he drags them out with his net;
- he gathers them in his dragnet; so he rejoices and is glad.

and his food is rich.

16Therefore he sacrifices to his net and makes offerings to his dragnet; for by them he lives in luxury, [1]

- 17 Is he then to keep on emptying his net and mercilessly killing nations forever?
- 2:1 I will take my stand at my watchpost and station myself on the tower, and look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

The Righteous Shall Live by His Faith

- ²And the LORD answered me:
- "Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so he may run who reads it.
- ³For still the vision awaits its appointed time; it hastens to the end—it will not lie. If it seems slow, wait for it; it will surely come; it will not delay.
- 4"Behold, his soul is puffed up; it is not upright within him, but the righteous shall live by his faith.[2]
- 5"Moreover, wine 3 is a traitor, an arrogant man who is never at rest. 4! His greed is as wide as Sheol; like death he has never enough.
 - He gathers for himself all nations and collects as his own all peoples."

Woe to the Chaldeans

⁶Shall not all these take up their taunt against him, with scoffing and riddles for him, and say,

"Woe to him who heaps up what is not his ownfor how long? and loads himself with pledges!"

7Will not your debtors suddenly arise, and those awake who will make you tremble?

Then you will be spoil for them.

Because you have plundered many nations,
all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder you,

9"Woe to him who gets evil gain for his house, to set his nest on high,

for the blood of man and violence to the earth,

to cities and all who dwell in them.

to be safe from the reach of harm!

10 You have devised shame for your house by cutting off many peoples;
you have forfeited your life.

¹¹For the stone will cry out from the wall,

12"Woe to him who builds a town with blood and founds a city on iniquity!

and the beam from the woodwork respond.

- ¹³Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts that peoples labor merely for fire, and nations weary themselves for nothing?
 ¹⁴For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.
- 15 Woe to him who makes his neighbors drink—you pour out your wrath and make them drunk, in order to gaze at their nakedness!
- 16 You will have your fill of shame instead of glory.
 Drink, yourself, and show your uncircumcision!
 The cup in the LORD's right hand will come around to you.

will come around to you,
and utter shame will come upon your glory!

17The violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you,
as will the destruction of the beasts that terrified them,

for the blood of man and violence to the earth.

to cities and all who dwell in them.

18"What profit is an idol when its maker has shaped it, a metal image, a teacher of lies?
For its maker trusts in his own creation.

when he makes speechless idols!

19 Woe to him who says to a wooden thing, Awake; to a silent stone, Arise!

Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in it.

Can this teach?

²⁰But the LORD is in his holy temple;

let all the earth keep silence before him."

Habakkuk's Prayer

- 3:1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, according to Shigionoth.
- ²O LORD, I have heard the report of you, and your work, O LORD, do I fear. In the midst of the years revive it; in the midst of the years make it known; in wrath remember mercy.
- ³God came from Teman, and the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Yet I will quietly wait for the day of trouble to come upon people who invade us.

Habakkuk Rejoices in the LORD

17 Though the fig tree should not blossom, nor fruit be on the vines, the produce of the olive fail and the fields yield no food, the flock be cut off from the fold and there be no herd in the stalls,

Chapter 3

1:1 The word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.

The Coming Judgment on Judah

- ²"I will utterly sweep away everything from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.
- 3"I will sweep away man and beast;
 I will sweep away the birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea.
- and the rubble [1] with the wicked.

I will cut off mankind from the face of the earth," declares the LORD.

- 4"I will stretch out my hand against Judah and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off from this place the remnant of Baal and the name of the idolatrous priests along with the priests.
- the priests,

 5those who bow down on the roofs to the host of the heavens, those who bow down and swear to the LORD
- and yet swear by Milcom, ⁶those who have turned back from following the
- LORD, who do not seek the LORD or inquire of him."

The Day of the LORD Is Near

- ⁷Be silent before the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is near; the LORD has prepared a sacrifice and consecrated his guests.
- ⁸And on the day of the LORD's sacrifice—
 "I will punish the officials and the king's sons and all who array themselves in foreign attire.
- ⁹On that day I will punish everyone who leaps over the threshold, and those who fill their master's labeled house with violence and fraud.
- 10"On that day," declares the LORD, "a cry will be heard from the Fish Gate, a wail from the Second Quarter, a loud crash from the hills.
- ¹¹Wail, O inhabitants of the Mortar! For all the traders^[3] are no more; all who weigh out silver are cut off.
- ¹²At that time I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are complacent.[4] those who say in their hearts, 'The LORD will not do good, nor will he do ill.' ¹³Their goods shall be plundered, and their houses laid waste. Though they build houses. they shall not inhabit them; though they plant vineyards, they shall not drink wine from them." ¹⁴The great day of the LORD is near, near and hastening fast; the sound of the day of the LORD is bitter; the mighty man cries aloud there. ¹⁵A day of wrath is that day, a day of distress and anguish. a day of ruin and devastation, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, ¹⁶a day of trumpet blast and battle cry against the fortified cities and against the lofty battlements. ¹⁷I will bring distress on mankind, so that they shall walk like the blind. because they have sinned against the LORD; their blood shall be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. ¹⁸Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. In the fire of his jealousy. all the earth shall be consumed: for a full and sudden end he will make of all the inhabitants of the earth

Judgment on Judah's Enemies

2:1 Gather together, yes, gather, O shameless nation,

²before the decree takes effect^[5]
—before the day passes away like chaff—before there comes upon you the burning anger of the LORD, the burning anger of the LORD, before there comes upon you the day of the anger of the LORD.

³Seek the LORD, all you humble of the land, who do his just commands;^[6] seek righteousness; seek humility; perhaps you may be hidden on the day of the anger of the LORD.

For Gaza shall be deserted,

and Ashkelon shall become a desolation:

and Ashkelon shall become a desolation;
Ashdod's people shall be driven out at noon, and Ekron shall be uprooted.

⁵Woe to you inhabitants of the seacoast, you nation of the Cherethites!

The word of the LORD is against you,

- O Canaan, land of the Philistines; and I will destroy you until no inhabitant is left.

 ⁶And you, O seacoast, shall be pastures, with meadows [7] for shepherds
- ⁷The seacoast shall become the possession of the remnant of the house of Judah, on which they shall graze, and folds for flocks.

- and in the houses of Ashkelon they shall lie down at evening.

 For the LORD their God will be mindful of them and restore their fortunes.
- 8"I have heard the taunts of Moab and the revilings of the Ammonites,
- how they have taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.
- Therefore, as I live," declares the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, "Moab shall become like Sodom, and the Ammonites like Gomorrah, a land possessed by nettles and salt pits, and a waste forever.

The remnant of my people shall plunder them, and the survivors of my nation shall possess them."

10 This shall be their lot in return for their pride, because they taunted and boasted against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be awesome against them; for he will famish all the gods of the earth, each in its place,

all the lands of the nations.

12You also, O Cushites, shall be slain by my sword.

13And he will stretch out his hand against the north and he will make Nineveh a desolation.

and to him shall bow down.

and destroy Assyria,

a dry waste like the desert.

14 Herds shall lie down in her midst, all kinds of beasts; [8] even the owl and the hedgehog [9] shall lodge in her capitals;
a voice shall hoot in the window:

devastation will be on the threshold; for her cedar work will be laid bare. 15This is the exultant city that lived securely, that said in her heart.

"I am. and there is no one else." What a desolation she has become. a lair for wild beasts!

Everyone who passes by her hisses and shakes his fist

Judgment on Jerusalem and the Nations

²She listens to no voice; she accepts no correction. She does not trust in the LORD;

3:1 Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled.

she does not draw near to her God. ³Her officials within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves that leave nothing till the morning. ⁴Her prophets are fickle, treacherous men; her priests profane what is holy: they do violence to the law. ⁵The LORD within her is righteous; he does no injustice; every morning he shows forth his justice; each dawn he does not fail: but the unjust knows no shame.

6"I have cut off nations;

the oppressing city!

I have laid waste their streets so that no one walks in them; their cities have been made desolate, without a man, without an inhabitant.

7 I said, 'Surely you will fear me;

their battlements are in ruins:

But all the more they were eager you will accept correction.

Then your [10] dwelling would not be cut off according to all that I have appointed against you. [11] to make all their deeds corrupt.

8"Therefore wait for me," declares the LORD,

"for the day when I rise up to seize the prey.

For my decision is to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms, to pour out upon them my indignation, all my burning anger; for in the fire of my jealousy all the earth shall be consumed.

The Conversion of the Nations

9"For at that time I will change the speech of the peoples to a pure speech, that all of them may call upon the name of the LORD and serve him with one accord.

10 From beyond the rivers of Cush my worshipers, the daughter of my dispersed ones, shall bring my offering.

11"On that day you shall not be put to shame because of the deeds by which you have rebelled against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proudly exultant ones, and you shall no longer be haughty in my holy mountain.

¹²But I will leave in your midst a people humble and lowly.

They shall seek refuge in the name of the LORD,

13those who are left in Israel;

they shall do no injustice and speak no lies, nor shall there be found in their mouth a deceitful tongue.

For they shall graze and lie down, and none shall make them afraid."

Israel's Joy and Restoration

14Sing aloud, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel!
Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter of Jerusalem!
15The LORD has taken away the judgments against

you;
he has cleared away your enemies.

The King of Israel, the LORD, is in your midst; you shall never again fear evil.

¹⁶On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: "Fear not. O Zion;

let not your hands grow weak.

¹⁷The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save;

a mighty one who will save;

he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love;

he will exult over you with loud singing.

¹⁸I will gather those of you who mourn for the festival, so that you will no longer suffer reproach.

19Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast. and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth ²⁰At that time I will bring you in.

at the time when I gather you together; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes," says the LORD.

HAGGAI

Chapter 1 Chapter 2

The Command to Rebuild the Temple

1:1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the hand of Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest: ² Thus savs the LORD of hosts: These people say the time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD." ³Then the word of the LORD came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, 4"ls it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins? ⁵Now, therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. ⁶You have sown much, and harvested little. You eat, but you never have enough; you drink, but you never have your fill. You clothe yourselves, but no one is warm. And he who earns wages does so to put them into a bag with holes.

⁷"Thus says the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways.

⁸Go up to the hills and bring wood and build the glorified, says the LORD. ⁹You looked for much, and behold, it came to little. And when you brought it home, I blew it away. Why? declares the LORD of hosts. Because of my house that lies in ruins, while each of you busies himself with his own house.

10 Therefore the heavens above you have withheld house, that I may take pleasure in it and that I may be the dew, and the earth has withheld its produce. ¹¹And I have called for a drought on the land and the hills, on the grain, the new wine, the oil, on what the ground brings forth, on man and beast, and on all their labors."

The People Obey the LORD

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people feared the LORD. ¹³Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, spoke to the people with the LORD's message, "I am with you, declares the LORD." 14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

The Coming Glory of the Temple

2:1 In the seventh month, on the twenty-first day of the month, the word of the LORD came by the hand of Haggai the prophet, ² "Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the remnant of the people, and say, 3. Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Is it not as nothing in your eves? ⁴Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, declares the LORD. Be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land, declares the LORD. Work, for I am with you, declares the LORD of hosts, 5 according to the covenant that I made with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains in your midst. Fear not. ⁶For thus says the LORD of hosts: Yet once more, in a little while, I will shake the heavens and the earth and the sea and the dry land. ⁷And I will shake all nations, so that the treasures of all nations shall come in, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of hosts. ⁸The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, declares the LORD of hosts. ⁹The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says the LORD of hosts. And in this place I will give peace, declares the LORD of hosts."

Blessings for a Defiled People

¹⁰On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, 11"Thus says the LORD of hosts: Ask the priests about the law: 12 f someone carries holy meat in the fold of his garment and touches with his fold bread or stew or wine or oil or any kind of food, does it become holy?" The priests answered and said, "No." 13Then Haggai said, "If someone who is unclean by contact with a dead body touches any of these, does it become unclean?" The priests answered and said, "It does become unclean." 14Then Haggai answered and said, "So is it with this people, and with this nation before me, declares the LORD, and so with every work of their hands. And what they offer there is unclean. 15 Now then, consider from this day onward.[1] Before stone was placed upon stone in the temple of the LORD, ¹⁶how did you fare? When one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten. When one came to the wine vat and with mildew and with hail, yet you did not turn to me, declares the LORD. ¹⁸Consider from this day onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month. Since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider: ¹⁹Is the seed yet in the barn? Indeed. the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree have yielded nothing. But from this day on I will bless you."

to draw fifty measures, there were but twenty. ¹⁷I struck you and all the products of your toil with blight

Zerubbabel Chosen as a Signet

²⁰The word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, ²¹ Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saving, I am about to shake the heavens and the earth, 22 and to overthrow the throne of kingdoms. I am about to destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. and overthrow the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall go down, every one by the sword of his brother. ²³On that day, declares the LORD of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel my servant, the son of Shealtiel, declares the LORD, and make you like a signet ring, for I have chosen vou, declares the LORD of hosts."

A Call to Return to the LORD

1:1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, saying, ²"The LORD was very angry with your fathers.

³Therefore say to them. Thus declares the LORD of hosts: Return to me, says the LORD of hosts, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. ⁴Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried out, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, Return from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.' But they did not hear or pay attention to me, declares the LORD. ⁵Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever? ⁶But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? So they repented and said, As the LORD of hosts purposed to deal with us for our ways and deeds, so has he dealt with us."

A Vision of a Horseman

⁷On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, son of Iddo, saying, 8"I saw in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse! He was standing among the myrtle trees in the glen, and behind him were red, sorrel, and white horses. ⁹Then I said, 'What are these, my lord?' The angel who talked with me said to me, 'I will show you what they are. ¹⁰So the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, 'These are they whom the LORD has sent to patrol the earth.' 11 And they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, and said. 'We have patrolled the earth, and behold, all the earth remains at rest.' 12 Then the angel of the LORD said, 'O LORD of hosts, how long will you have no mercy on Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, against which you have been angry these seventy years?' ¹³And the LORD answered gracious and comforting says the LORD of hosts: I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion. ¹⁵And I am exceedingly angry with the nations that are at ease; for while I was angry but a little, they furthered the disaster. ¹⁶Therefore, thus says the LORD, I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy; my house shall be built in it, declares the LORD of hosts, and the measuring line

A Vision of Horns and Craftsmen

^{18[1]} And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four horns! ¹⁹And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these?" And he said to me, "These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem." ²⁰Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. ²¹And I said, "What are these coming to do?" He said, "These are the horns that scattered Judah, so that no one raised his head. And these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations who lifted up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it."

A Vision of a Man with a Measuring Line

2:1 And I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand! ²Then I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its width and what is its length." ³And behold, the angel who talked with me came forward, and another angel came forward to meet him ⁴and said to him, "Run, say to that young man, 'Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of people and livestock in it. ⁵And I will be to her a wall

Is not this a brand plucked from the fire?" ³Now Joshua was standing before the angel, clothed with filthy garments. ⁴And the angel said to those who were standing before him, "Remove the filthy garments from him." And to him he said, "Behold, I have taken your iniquity away from you, and I will clothe you with pure vestments." ⁵And I said, "Let them put a clean turban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD was standing by.

A Vision of a Golden Lampstand

I said, "I see, and behold, a lampstand all of gold, with a bowl on the top of it, and seven lamps on it, with seven lips on each of the lamps that are on the top of it. ³And there are two olive trees by it, one on the right of the bowl and the other on its left." 4And I said to the angel who talked with me, "What are these, my lord?" ⁵Then the angel who talked with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ⁶Then he said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel: Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts.

by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts ⁷Who are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain. And he shall bring forward the top stone amid shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'"

8Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, of this house; his hands shall also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. ¹⁰For whoever has despised the day of small things shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel.

"These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which 9"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation range through the whole earth." ¹¹Then I said to him, "What are these two olive trees on the right and the left of the lampstand?" ¹²And a second time I answered and said to him, "What are these two branches of the olive trees, which are beside the two colden pines from which the golden oil. The poured golden pipes from which the golden oil is poured out?" ¹³He said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" I said, "No, my lord." ¹⁴Then he said, "These are the two anointed ones ^[8] who stand by the Lord of the whole earth."

A Vision of a Flying Scroll

5:1 Again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, a flying scroll! ²And he said to me, "What do you see?" I answered, "I see a flying scroll. Its length is twenty cubits, and its width ten cubits." Then he said to me. "This is the curse that goes out over the face of the whole land. For everyone who steals shall be cleaned out according to what is on one side, and everyone who swears falsely [10] shall be cleaned out according to what is on the other side. 4 will send it out, declares the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter the house of the thief, and the house of him who swears falsely by my name. And it shall remain in his house and consume it, both timber and stones."

A Vision of a Woman in a Basket

⁵Then the angel who talked with me came forward and said to me, "Lift your eyes and see what this is that is going out." ⁶And I said, "What is it?" He said, "This is the basket^[11] that is going out." And he said, "This is their iniquity^[12] in all the land." ⁷And behold, the leaden cover was lifted, and there was a woman sitting in the basket! ⁸And he said, "This is Wickedness." And he thrust her back into the basket.

⁹Then I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, two women coming forward! The wind was in their wings. They had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the basket between earth and heaven.

¹⁰Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are they taking the basket?" ¹¹He said to me, "To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it.

And when this is prepared, they will set the basket down there on its base."

and thrust down the leaden weight on its opening.

A Vision of Four Chariots

6:1 Again I lifted my eyes and saw, and behold, four chariots came out from between two mountains. And the mountains were mountains of bronze. ²The first chariot had red horses, the second black horses. ³the third white horses, and the fourth chariot dappled horses—all of them strong.[13] 4Then I answered and said to the angel who talked with me. "What are these, my lord?" ⁵And the angel answered and said to me, "These are going out to the four winds of heaven, after presenting themselves before the LORD of all the earth. ⁶The chariot with the black horses goes toward the north country, the white ones go after them, and the dappled ones go toward the south country." ⁷When the strong horses came out, they were impatient to go and patrol the earth. And he said, "Go, patrol the earth." So they patrolled the earth. ⁸Then he cried to me, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have set my Spirit at rest in the north country."

The Crown and the Temple

⁹And the word of the LORD came to me: ¹⁰"Take from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon, and go the same day to the house of Josiah, the son of Zephaniah. 11 Take from them silver and gold, and make a crown, and set it on the head of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest. 12 And say to him, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts. "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: for he shall branch out from his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD. ¹³It is he who shall build the temple of the LORD and shall bear royal honor, and shall sit and rule on his throne. And there shall be a priest on his throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between them both." 14And the crown shall be in the temple of the LORD as a reminder to Helem. [14] Tobijah, Jedajah, and Hen the son of Zephaniah.

15"And those who are far off shall come and help to build the temple of the LORD. And you shall know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God."

A Call for Justice and Mercy

7:1 In the fourth year of King Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev. ²Now the people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech and their men to entreat the favor of the LORD, ³saying to the priests of the house of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, "Should I weep and abstain in the fifth month, as I have done for so many years?"

⁴Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me: ⁵"Say to all the people of the land and the priests, When you fasted and mourned in the fifth month and in the seventh, for these seventy years, was it for me that you fasted? ⁶And when you eat and when you drink, do you not eat for yourselves and drink for yourselves? ⁷Were not these the words that the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and prosperous, with her cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?" saying, ⁹"Thus says the LORD of hosts, Render true judgments, show kindness and mercy to one another, ¹⁰do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the sojourner, or the poor, and let none of you devise evil against another in your heart." ¹¹But they refused to pay attention and turned a stubborn shoulder and stopped their ears that they might not hear. [15] 12 They made their hearts diamond-hard lest they should hear the law and the words that the LORD of hosts had sent by his Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great anger came from the LORD of hosts. 13"As | 160 called, and they would not hear, so they called, and I would not hear," says the LORD of hosts, 14 and I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations that they had not known. Thus the land they left was desolate, so that no one went to and fro, and the pleasant land was made desolate."

And I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. ¹³And as you have been a byword of cursing among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong." ¹⁴For thus says the LORD of hosts: "As I purposed to bring disaster to you when your fathers provoked

Judgment on Israel's Enemies

9:1 The burden of the word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and Damascus is its resting place. For the LORD has an eye on mankind and on all the tribes of Israel, [17]

and on Hamath also, which borders on it,

Time and Siden, though they are very vision

Tyre and Sidon, though they are very wise. ³Tyre has built herself a rampart and heaped up silver like dust, and fine gold like the mud of the streets. ⁴But behold, the Lord will strip her of her possessions and strike down her power on the sea, and she shall be devoured by fire.

⁵Ashkelon shall see it, and be afraid; Gaza too, and shall writhe in anguish; Ekron also, because its hopes are confounded. The king shall perish from Gaza;

Ashkelon shall be uninhabited;

⁶a mixed people^[18] shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of Philistia.
 ⁷I will take away its blood from its mouth, and its abominations from between its teeth; it too shall be a remnant for our God; it shall be like a clan in Judah, and Ekron shall be like the Jebusites.

⁸Then I will encamp at my house as a guard, so that none shall march to and fro; no oppressor shall again march over them, for now I see with my own eyes.

The Coming King of Zion

⁹Reioice greatly, O daughter of Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, your king is coming to you: righteous and having salvation is he, humble and mounted on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. ¹⁰I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the war horse from Jerusalem: and the battle bow shall be cut off. and he shall speak peace to the nations: his rule shall be from sea to sea. and from the River to the ends of the earth. ¹¹As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you, ¹²Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope;

1 As for you also, because of the blood of my covenant with you,
 I will set your prisoners free from the waterless pit.

 12 Return to your stronghold, O prisoners of hope; today I declare that I will restore to you double.
 13 For I have bent Judah as my bow;
 I have made Ephraim its arrow.

 I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece,

The LORD Will Save His People

- ¹⁴Then the LORD will appear over them, and his arrow will go forth like lightning: the Lord GOD will sound the trumpet and will march forth in the whirlwinds of the south ¹⁵The LORD of hosts will protect them, and they shall devour, and tread down the sling stones. and they shall drink and roar as if drunk with wine.
 - and be full like a bowl. drenched like the corners of the altar.
- ¹⁶On that day the LORD their God will save them, as the flock of his people; for like the jewels of a crown they shall shine on his land.
- ¹⁷For how great is his goodness, and how great his beauty!
 - Grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the young women.

For the household gods utter nonsense,

Therefore the people wander like sheep; they are afflicted for lack of a shepherd.

3"My anger is hot against the shepherds, and I will punish the leaders; [19] for the LORD of hosts cares for his flock, the house battle.

From him shall come the cornerstone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow,

6"I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph.

I will bring them back because I have compassion on them, and they shall be as though I had not rejected them, for I am the LORD their God and I will answer them.

7Then Ephraim shall become like a mighty warrior, and their hearts shall be glad as with wine.

Their children shall see it and be glad;
their hearts shall rejoice in the LORD.

8"I will whistle for them and gather them in, for I have redeemed them, and they shall be as many as they were before.

⁹Though I scattered them among the nations, yet in far countries they shall remember me, and with their children they shall live and return.

- ¹⁰I will bring them home from the land of Egypt, and gather them from Assyria, and I will bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon.

- and all the depths of the Nile shall be dried up. The pride of Assyria shall be laid low, and the scepter of Egypt shall depart.

The Flock Doomed to Slaughter

11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars!
 Wail, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, for the glorious trees are ruined!
 Wail, oaks of Bashan.

Wail, oaks of Bashan, for the thick forest has been felled!

The sound of the wail of the shepherds, for their glory is ruined!

The sound of the roar of the lions, for the thicket of the Jordan is ruined!

⁴Thus said the LORD my God: "Become shepherd of the flock doomed to slaughter. ⁵Those who buy them slaughter them and go unpunished, and those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, I have become rich,' and their own shepherds have no pity

 7So I became the shepherd of the flock doomed to be slaughtered by the sheep traders. And I took two staffs, one I named Favor, the other I named Union.

And I tended the sheep. 8In one month I destroyed the three shepherds. But I became impatient with them, and they also detested me. ⁹So I said. "I will not be your shepherd. What is to die, let it die. What is to be destroyed, let it be destroyed. And let those who are left devour the flesh of one another." 10 And I took my staff Favor, and I broke it, annulling the covenant that I had made with all the peoples. 11So it was annulled on that day, and the sheep traders, who were watching me, knew that it was the word of the LORD. 12 Then I said to them, "If it seems good to you, give me my wages; but if not, keep them." And they weighed out as my wages thirty pieces of silver.

13Then the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter"—the lordly price at which I was priced by them. So I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the house of the LORD, to the potter.

14Then I broke my second staff Union, annulling the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
15Then the LORD said to me, "Take once more the equipment of a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶For behold, I am raising up in the land a shepherd who does not care for those being destroyed, or seek the young or heal the maimed or nourish the healthy, but devours the flesh of the fat ones, tearing off even their hoofs.

Let his arm be wholly withered, his right eye utterly blinded!"

who deserts the flock!

The LORD Will Give Salvation

12:1 The burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel: Thus declares the LORD, who stretched out the heavens and founded the earth and formed the spirit of man within him: ²"Behold, I am about to make Jerusalem a cup of staggering to all the surrounding peoples. The siege of Jerusalem will also be against Judah. ³On that day I will make Jerusalem a heavy stone for all the peoples. All who lift it will surely hurt themselves. And all the nations of the earth will gather against it. ⁴On that day, declares the LORD, I will strike every horse with panic, and its rider with madness. But for the sake of the house of Judah I will keep my eyes open, when I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. ⁵Then the clans of Judah shall say to themselves, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem have strength through the LORD of hosts, their God.'

6"On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a blazing pot in the midst of wood, like a flaming torch among sheaves. And they shall devour to the right and to the left all the surrounding peoples, while Jerusalem shall again be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem.

7"And the LORD will give salvation to the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not surpass that of Judah. ⁸On that day the LORD will protect the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the feeblest among them on that day shall be like David, and the house of David shall be like God, like the angel of the LORD, going before them. ⁹And on that day I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

Him Whom They Have Pierced

10"And I will pour out on the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem a spirit of grace and pleas for mercy, so that, when they look on me, on him whom they have pierced, they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for an only child, and weep bitterly over him, as one weeps over a firstborn. ¹¹On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadad-rimmon in the plain of Megiddo.

¹²The land shall mourn, each family ^[20] by itself: the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves; ¹³the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by 13:1 "On that day there shall be a fountain opened for the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, to cleanse them from sin and uncleanness.

Idolatry Cut Off

²"And on that day, declares the LORD of hosts, I will cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they shall be remembered no more. And also I will remove from the land the prophets and the spirit of uncleanness. ³And if anyone again prophesies, his father and mother who bore him will say to him, 'You shall not live, for you speak lies in the name of the LORD.' And his father and mother who bore him shall pierce him through when he prophesies.

⁴"On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. He will not put on a hairy cloak in order to deceive, ⁵but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a worker of the soil, for a man sold me in my youth.' ^[21] ⁶And if one asks him, 'What are these wounds on your back?' ^[22] he will say, 'The wounds I received in the house of my friends.'

The Shepherd Struck

- 7"Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, against the man who stands next to me," declares the LORD of hosts.
- "Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered;
 - I will turn my hand against the little ones.
- 8In the whole land, declares the LORD, two thirds shall be cut off and perish, and one third shall be left alive.
- ⁹And I will put this third into the fire, and refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested.
- They will call upon my name, and I will answer them.
- and I will answer them.
- I will say, 'They are my people'; and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

The Coming Day of the LORD

14:1 Behold, a day is coming for the LORD, when the spoil taken from you will be divided in your midst. ²For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city shall be taken and the houses plundered and the women raped. Half of the city shall go out into exile, but the rest of the people shall not be cut off from the city. ³Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as when he fights on a day of battle. 4On that day his feet shall stand on the Mount of Olives that lies before Jerusalem on the east, and the Mount of Olives shall be split in two from east to west by a very wide valley, so that one half of the Mount shall move northward, and the other half southward. ⁵And you shall flee to the valley of my mountains, for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azal. And you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with him.

⁶On that day there shall be no light, cold, or frost. [23]

⁷And there shall be a unique^[24] day, which is known to the LORD, neither day nor night, but at evening time there shall be light.

⁸On that day living waters shall flow out from Jerusalem, half of them to the eastern sea^[25] and half of them to the western sea.^[26] It shall continue in summer as in winter.

9And the LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be one and his name one.

- 10 The whole land shall be turned into a plain from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem. But Jerusalem shall remain aloft on its site from the Gate of
- shall remain aloft on its site from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the former gate, to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹And it shall be inhabited, for
- king's winepresses. ¹¹And it shall be inhabited, fo there shall never again be a decree of utter destruction. ^[27] Jerusalem shall dwell in security.

¹²And this shall be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples that wage war against Jerusalem: their flesh will rot while they are still standing on their feet, their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths.

13 And on that day a great panic from the LORD shall fall on them, so that each will seize the hand of another, and the hand of the one will be raised against the hand of the other. ¹⁴Even Judah will fight at Jerusalem. And the wealth of all the surrounding nations shall be collected, gold, silver, and garments in great abundance. ¹⁵And a plague like this plague shall fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the donkeys, and whatever beasts may be in those camps.

¹⁶Then everyone who survives of all the nations that have come against Jerusalem shall go up year after year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to keep the Feast of Booths. ¹⁷And if any of the families of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain on them. ¹⁸And if the family of Egypt does not go up and present themselves, then on them there which the LORD afflicts the nations that do not go up to keep the Feast of Booths. ¹⁹This shall be the punishment to Egypt and the punishment to all the nations that do not go up to keep the Feast of Booths.

²⁰And on that day there shall be inscribed on the bells of the horses. "Holy to the LORD." And the pots shall be no rain: [28] there shall be the plaque with in the house of the LORD shall be as the bowls before the altar. ²¹And every pot in Jerusalem and Judah shall be holy to the LORD of hosts, so that all who sacrifice may come and take of them and boil the meat of the sacrifice in them. And there shall no longer be a trader [29] in the house of the LORD of hosts on that day.

MALACHI

Chapter 1

Chapter 2

Chapter 3 Chapter 4

1:1 The oracle of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.[1]

The LORD's Love for Israel

²"I have loved you," says the LORD. But you say, "How have you loved us?" "Is not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the LORD. "Yet I have loved Jacob ³but Esau I have hated. I have laid waste his hill country and left his heritage to jackals of the desert." ⁴If Edom says, "We are shattered but we will rebuild the ruins," the LORD of hosts says, "They may build, but I will tear down, and they will be called 'the wicked country,' and 'the people with whom the LORD is angry forever.'" ⁵Your own eyes shall see this, and you shall say, "Great is the LORD beyond the border of Israel!"

The Priests' Polluted Offerings

6"A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If then I am a father, where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is my fear? says the LORD of hosts to you, O priests, who despise my name. But you say, 'How have we despised your name?' ⁷By offering polluted food upon my altar. But you say, 'How have we polluted you?' By saving that the LORD's table may be despised. 8When you offer blind animals in sacrifice, is that not evil? And when you offer those that are lame or sick, is that not evil? Present that to your governor; will he accept you or show you favor? says the LORD of hosts. ⁹And now entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us. With such a gift from your hand, will he show favor to any of you? savs the LORD of hosts. 10Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says the LORD of hosts, and I will not accept an offering from your hand. ¹¹For from the rising of the sun to its setting my name will be [2] great among name will be great among the nations, says the LORD of hosts. ¹²But you profane it when you say that the Lord's table is polluted, and its fruit, that is, its food may be despised. ¹³But you say, 'What a weariness this is,' and you snort at it, says the LORD of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering. For my of hosts. You bring what has been taken by violence or is lame or sick, and this you bring as your offering! Shall I accept that from your hand? says the LORD.

14 Cursed be the cheat who has a male in his flock, and vows it, and yet sacrifices to the Lord what is blemished. For I am a great King, says the LORD of hosts, and my name will be feared among the nations.

The LORD Rebukes the Priests

2:1 "And now, O priests, this command is for you. 2 lf you will not listen, if you will not take it to heart to give honor to my name, says the LORD of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you do not lay it to heart. 3Behold, I will rebuke your offspring, [3] and spread dung on your faces, the dung of your offerings, and you shall be taken away with it.[4] 4So shall you know that I have sent this command to you, that my covenant with Levi may stand, says the LORD of hosts. ⁵My covenant with him was one of life and peace, and I gave them to him. It was a covenant of fear, and he feared me. He stood in awe of my name. ⁶True instruction ⁵ was in his mouth, and no wrong was found on his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and he turned many from iniquity. ⁷For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and people should seek instruction from his mouth, for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. ⁸But you have turned aside from instruction. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says the LORD of hosts, ⁹ and so I make you despised and abased before all the people, inasmuch as you do not keep my ways but show partiality in your instruction."

the way. You have caused many to stumble by your

Judah Profaned the Covenant

¹⁰Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us? Why then are we faithless to one another, profaning the covenant of our fathers?
¹¹Judah has been faithless, and abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD, which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. ¹²May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob any descendant. of the man who does this, who brings an offering to the LORD of hosts!

¹³And this second thing you do. You cover the LORD's altar with tears, with weeping and groaning because he no longer regards the offering or accepts it with favor from your hand. ¹⁴But you say, "Why does he not?" Because the LORD was witness between you and the wife of your youth, to whom you have been faithless, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant. ¹⁵Did he not make them one, with a portion of the Spirit in their union? ^[8] And offspring. So guard yourselves^[11] in your spirit, and let none of you be faithless to the wife of your youth. ¹⁶"For the man who does not love his wife but divorces her,^[12] says the LORD, the God of Israel, covers^[13] his garment with violence, says the LORD of hosts. So guard yourselves in your spirit, and do not be faithless."

what was the one God [9] seeking? [10] Godlv

The Messenger of the LORD

17You have wearied the LORD with your words. But you say, "How have we wearied him?" By saying, "Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them." Or by asking, "Where is the God of justice?"

3:1 "Behold. I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. And the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant in whom you delight, behold, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts, ²But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap. ³He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and they will bring offerings in righteousness to the LORD.[14] ⁴Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

⁵"Then I will draw near to you for judgment. I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired worker in his wages, the widow and the fatherless, against those who thrust aside the sojourner, and do not fear me, says the LORD of hosts.

Robbing God

6"For I the LORD do not change; therefore you, O children of Jacob, are not consumed. ⁷From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my statutes and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of hosts. But you say, 'How shall we return?' 8Will man rob God? Yet you are robbing me. But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In your tithes and contributions. 9You are cursed with a curse, for you are robbing me, the whole nation of you. ¹⁰Bring the full tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house. And thereby put me to the test, says the LORD of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down for you a blessing until there is no more need. 11 will rebuke the devourer [15] for you, so that it will not destroy the fruits of your soil, and your vine in the field shall not fail to bear, says the LORD of hosts. 12 Then all nations will call you blessed, for you will be a land of delight, says the LORD of hosts.

LORD. But you say, 'How have we spoken against you?' ¹⁴You have said, 'It is vain to serve God. What is the profit of our keeping his charge or of walking as in mourning before the LORD of hosts? ¹⁵And now we call the arrogant blessed. Evildoers not only 13"Your words have been hard against me, says the

The Book of Remembrance

16 Then those who feared the LORD spoke with one another. The LORD paid attention and heard them, and a book of remembrance was written before him of those who feared the LORD and esteemed his name. 17 They shall be mine, says the LORD of hosts, in the day when I make up my treasured possession, and I will spare them as a man spares his son who serves him. 18 Then once more you shall see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

The Great Day of the LORD

4:1 [16] "For behold, the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble. The day that is coming shall set them ablaze, says the LORD of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. ²But for you who fear my name, the sun of righteousness shall rise with healing in its wings. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall. ³And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the LORD of hosts.

4"Remember the law of my servant Moses, the statutes and rules [17] that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel.

⁵"Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and awesome day of the LORD comes. ⁶And he will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the land with a decree of utter destruction." ^[18]

The Genealogy of Jesus Christ

1:1 The book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

²Abraham was the father of Isaac, and Isaac the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers, ³and Judah the father of Perez and Zerah by Tamar, and Perez the father of Hezron, and Hezron the father of Ram, ^[1] ⁴and Ram the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon the father of Salmon, ⁵and Salmon the father of Boaz by Rahab, and Boaz the father of Obed by Ruth, and Obed the father of Jesse, ⁶and Jesse the father of David the king.

And David was the father of Solomon by the wife of Uriah, ⁷and Solomon the father of Rehoboam, and Rehoboam the father of Abijah, and Abijah the father of Asaph, ^[2] ⁸and Asaph the father of Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat the father of Joram, and Joram the father of Uzziah, ⁹and Uzziah the father of Jotham, of Hezekiah, ¹⁰ and Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, and Manasseh the father of Amos, ^[3] and Amos the father of Josiah, ¹¹ and Josiah the father of Jechoniah and his brothers, at the time of the deportation to Babylon.

¹²And after the deportation to Babylon: Jechoniah and Jotham the father of Ahaz, and Ahaz the father was the father of Shealtiel, and Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel, and Zerubbabel the father of Abiud, and Abiud the father of Eliakim, and Eliakim the father of Azor, and Azor the father of Zadok, and Zadok the father of Achim, and Achim the father of Eliud, and Eliud the father of Eleazar, and Eleazar the father of Matthan, and Matthan the father of Jacob, and Jacob the father of Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom Jesus was born, who is called Christ.

¹⁷So all the generations from Abraham to David were fourteen generations, and from David to the deportation to Babylon fourteen generations, and

The Birth of Jesus Christ

- ¹⁸Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. 19 And her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly. 20 But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins." 22 All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet:
- 23"Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel"

(which means, God with us). ²⁴When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord his name Jesus.

commanded him: he took his wife, ²⁵but knew her not until she had given birth to a son. And he called

The Visit of the Wise Men

2:1 Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men^[7] from the east came to Jerusalem, ²saying, "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we saw his star when it rose^[8] and have come to worship him." ³When Herod the king heard this, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him; ⁴and assembling all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. ⁵They told him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for

6""And you, O Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who will shepherd my people Israel."

so it is written by the prophet:

⁷Then Herod summoned the wise men secretly and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared. ⁸And he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, and worship him." ⁹After listening to the king, they went on their way. And behold, the star that they had seen when it rose went before them until it came to rest over the place where the child was. ¹⁰When they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly with great

"Go and search diligently for the child, and when you have found him, bring me word, that I too may come

joy. ¹¹And going into the house they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold and frankincense and myrrh. ¹²And being warned in a dream not to return to

Herod, they departed to their own country by another way.

The Flight to Egypt

¹³Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, "Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him." ¹⁴And he rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed to Egypt ¹⁵and remained there until the death of Herod. This was to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet, "Out of Egypt I called my son."

Herod Kills the Children

¹⁶Then Herod, when he saw that he had been tricked by the wise men, became furious, and he sent and killed all the male children in Bethlehem and in all that region who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had ascertained from the wise men. ¹⁷Then was fulfilled what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah:

18"A voice was heard in Ramah, weeping and loud lamentation, Rachel weeping for her children; she refused to be comforted, because they are no more."

The Return to Nazareth

¹⁹But when Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, ²⁰saying, "Rise, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who sought the child's life are dead." ²¹And he rose and took the child and his mother and went to the land of Israel. ²²But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there, and being warned in a dream he withdrew to the district of Galilee. ²³And he went and lived in a city called Nazareth, that what was spoken by the prophets might be fulfilled: "He shall be called a Nazarene."

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3:1 In those days John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness of Judea, ²"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." ³For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah when he said,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness: 'Prepare [9] the way of the Lord:

make his paths straight."

⁴Now John wore a garment of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. ⁵Then Jerusalem and all Judea and all the region about the Jordan were going out to him, ⁶and they were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

⁷But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? ⁸Bear fruit in keeping with yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father,' for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. ¹⁰Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

repentance. ⁹And do not presume to say to fire.

11"I baptize you with water for repentance, but he who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. ¹²His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor and gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire."

The Baptism of Jesus

¹³Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. ¹⁴John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" ¹⁵But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. ¹⁶And when Jesus was baptized, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, ^[10] and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; ¹⁷and behold, a voice from heaven said, "This is my beloved Son,[11] with whom I am well pleased."

The Temptation of Jesus

4:1 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²And after fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. ³And the tempter came and said to him. "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." ⁴But he answered, "It is written.

"Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God."

⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple ⁶ and said to him. "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written.

"He will command his angels concerning you," and

"On their hands they will bear you up, lest you strike your foot against a stone."

7 Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'You shall not put the Lord your God to the test." 8Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. ⁹And he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." ¹⁰Then Jesus said to him, "Be gone, Satan! For it is written, and him only shall you serve.'"

11 Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came

"You shall worship the Lord your God and were ministering to him.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

- ¹²Now when he heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee. ¹³And leaving Nazareth he went and lived in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, ¹⁴so that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:
- 15 The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles—
- 16the people dwelling in darkness have seen a great light, and for those dwelling in the region and shadow of death.

on them a light has dawned."

¹⁷From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

¹⁸While walking by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter) and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men." ²⁰Immediately they left their nets and followed him. ²¹And going on from there he saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets, and he called them. ²²Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus Ministers to Great Crowds

²³And he went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people. ²⁴So his fame spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all the sick, those afflicted with various diseases and pains, those oppressed by demons, epileptics, and paralytics, and he healed them. ²⁵And great crowds followed him from Galilee and the Decapolis, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and from beyond the Jordan.

The Sermon on the Mount

5:1 Seeing the crowds, he went up on the mountain, and when he sat down, his disciples came to him.

The Beatitudes

- ${f ^2}$ And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying:
- ³"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- 4"Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
- 5"Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
- ⁶"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
- 7"Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.
- ⁸"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
- ⁹"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons^[12] of God.

10"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11"Blessed are you when others revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. ¹²Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Salt and Light

13"You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.

14"You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

Christ Came to Fulfill the Law

17"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. ¹⁸For truly, I say to you, until heaven and earth pass away, not an iota, not a dot, will pass from the Law until all is accomplished. 19 Therefore whoever relaxes one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. ²⁰For I tell you. unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.

Anger

²¹"You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment.' 22But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother [13] will be liable to iudament: whoever insults[14] his brother will be liable to the council; and whoever says, 'You fool!' will be liable to the hell[15] of fire. 23So if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you. ²⁴leave your gift there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. ²⁵Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. ²⁶Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny.[16]

Lust

27"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' ²⁸But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart. ²⁹If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body be thrown into hell. ³⁰And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. For it is better that you lose one of your members than that your whole body go into hell.

Divorce

³¹"It was also said, 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.' ³²But I say to you that everyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of sexual immorality, makes her commit adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

Oaths

33"Again you have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform to the Lord what you have sworn.' ³⁴But I say to you, Do not take an oath at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, ³⁵or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. ³⁶And do not take an oath by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. ³⁷Let what you say be simply 'Yes' or 'No': anything more than this comes from evil [17]

Retaliation

³⁸"You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' ³⁹But I say to you, Do not resist the one who is evil. But if anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. ⁴⁰And if anyone would sue you and take your tunic, ^[18] let him have your cloak as well. ⁴¹And if anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. ⁴²Give to the one who begs from you, and do not refuse the one who would borrow from you.

Love Your Enemies

43"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' 44But I sav to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, 45 so that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun rise. on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust. 46For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? 47 And if you greet only vour brothers.[19] what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? ⁴⁸You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

Giving to the Needy

6:1 "Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.

²"Thus, when you give to the needy, sound no trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may be praised by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. ³But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

The Lord's Prayer

5"And when you pray, you must not be like the hypocrites. For they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and at the street corners, that they may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. ⁶But when you pray, go into your room and shut the door and pray to your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

⁷"And when you pray, do not heap up empty phrases as the Gentiles do, for they think that they will be heard for their many words. ⁸Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. ⁹Pray then like this:

"Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. [20]

10 Your kingdom come, your will be done, [21] on earth as it is in heaven.

¹²and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.

¹¹Give us this day our daily bread, [22]

¹³And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. [23]

¹⁴For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, ¹⁵but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Fasting

16"And when you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by others. Truly, I say to you, they have received their reward. ¹⁷But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, ¹⁸that your fasting may not be seen by others but by your Father who is in secret. And your Father who sees in secret will reward you.

Lay Up Treasures in Heaven

- ¹⁹"Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust^[24] destroy and where thieves break in and steal, ²⁰but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
- 22 "The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light, 23 but if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!
- ²⁴"No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money.^[25]

Do Not Be Anxious

25"Therefore I tell vou, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? ²⁶Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? 27 And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? [26] 28 And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, ²⁹vet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ³⁰But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 31Therefore do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' 32 For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. 33But seek first the kingdom of

be added to you.

34"Therefore do not be anxious about tomorrow, for God and his righteousness, and all these things will tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.

Judging Others

- 7:1 "Judge not, that you be not judged. ²For with the judgment you pronounce you will be judged, and with the measure you use it will be measured to you.

 ³Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's
- ³Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? ⁴Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when there is the log in your own eye? ⁵You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye.
- ⁶"Do not give dogs what is holy, and do not throw your pearls before pigs, lest they trample them underfoot and turn to attack you.

Ask, and It Will Be Given

⁷"Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ⁸For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. ⁹Or which one of you, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a serpent? ¹¹If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

The Golden Rule

12 "So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets.

13"Enter by the narrow gate. For the gate is wide and the way is easy^[27] that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. ¹⁴For the gate is narrow and the way is hard that leads to life, and those who find it are few.

A Tree and Its Fruit

15"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.
16 You will recognize them by their fruits. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes, or figs from thistles?
17 So, every healthy tree bears good fruit, but the diseased tree bears bad fruit.
18 A healthy tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a diseased tree bear good fruit.
19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
20 Thus you will recognize them by their fruits.

I Never Knew You

²¹"Not evervone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?'

²³And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me. vou workers of lawlessness.'

Build Your House on the Rock

²⁴"Everyone then who hears these words of mine and does them will be like a wise man who built his house on the rock. ²⁵And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, but it did not fall, because it had been founded on the rock. ²⁶And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. ²⁷And the rain fell, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was the fall of it."

The Authority of Jesus

²⁸And when Jesus finished these sayings, the crowds were astonished at his teaching, ²⁹for he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not as their scribes.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

8:1 When he came down from the mountain, great crowds followed him. ²And behold, a leper ^[28] came to him and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean." ³And Jesus ^[29] stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I will; be clean." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

And Jesus said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a proof to them."

The Faith of a Centurion

⁵When he entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, appealing to him, 6"Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly." ⁷And he said to him, "I will come and heal him." 8But the centurion replied, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. 9For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, [30] 'Do this,' and he does it." 10When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, "Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel[31] have I found such faith. 11 tell vou. many will come from east and west and recline at table with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, ¹²while the sons of the kingdom will be thrown into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 13And to the centurion Jesus said. "Go: let it be done for you as you have believed." And the servant was

Jesus Heals Many

¹⁴And when Jesus entered Peter's house, he saw his mother-in-law lying sick with a fever. ¹⁵He touched her hand, and the fever left her, and she rose and began to serve him. ¹⁶That evening they brought to him many who were oppressed by demons, and he cast out the spirits with a word and healed all who were sick. ¹⁷This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah: "He took our illnesses and bore our diseases."

The Cost of Following Jesus

¹⁸Now when Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave orders to go over to the other side. ¹⁹And a scribe came up and said to him, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go." ²⁰And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." ²¹Another of the disciples said to him, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." ²²And Jesus said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

Jesus Calms a Storm

²³And when he got into the boat, his disciples followed him. ²⁴And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. ²⁵And they went and woke him, saying, "Save us, Lord; we are perishing." ²⁶And he said to them, "Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?" Then he rose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. ²⁷And the men marveled, saying, "What sort of man is this, that even winds and sea obey him?"

Jesus Heals Two Men with Demons

²⁸And when he came to the other side, to the country of the Gadarenes. [32] two demon-possessed [33] men met him, coming out of the tombs, so fierce that no one could pass that way. ²⁹And behold, they cried out, "What have you to do with us, O Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" 30 Now a herd of many pigs was feeding at some distance from them. ³¹And the demons begged him. saying, "If you cast us out, send us away into the herd of pigs." 32 And he said to them. "Go." So they came out and went into the pigs, and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea and drowned in the waters. 33The herdsmen fled, and going into the city they told everything, especially what had happened to the demon-possessed men.

going into the city they told everything, especially what had happened to the demon-possessed men. ³⁴And behold, all the city came out to meet Jesus, and when they saw him, they begged him to leave their region.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

9:1 And getting into a boat he crossed over and came to his own city. ²And behold, some people brought to him a paralytic, lying on a bed. And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, my son; your sins are forgiven." ³And behold. some of the scribes said to themselves. "This man is blaspheming." ⁴But Jesus, knowing [34] their thoughts. said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? ⁵For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? ⁶But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he then said to the paralytic—"Rise, pick up your bed and go home." ⁷And he rose and went home. ⁸When the crowds saw it, they were afraid, and they glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

Jesus Calls Matthew

- ⁹As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he rose and followed him.
- ¹⁰And as Jesus ^[35] reclined at table in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and were reclining with Jesus and his disciples. ¹¹And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" ¹²But when he heard it, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ¹³Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.' For I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

A Question About Fasting

¹⁴Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast, [36] but your disciples do not fast?" ¹⁵And Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. 16No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch tears away from the garment, and a worse tear is made. ¹⁷Neither is new wine put into old wineskins. If it is, the skins burst and the wine is spilled and the skins are destroyed. But new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and so both are preserved."

A Girl Restored to Life and a Woman Healed

¹⁸While he was saving these things to them, behold, a ruler came in and knelt before him, saving, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." 19 And Jesus rose and followed him, with his disciples. ²⁰And behold, a woman who had suffered from a discharge of blood for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, ²¹ for she said to herself, "If I only touch his garment, I will be made well." ²²Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly[37] the woman was made well. 23And when Jesus came to the ruler's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, ²⁴he said, "Go away, for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. ²⁵But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose. ²⁶And the report of this went through all that district.

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

²⁷And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed him, crying aloud, "Have mercy on us, Son of David." ²⁸When he entered the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to him, "Yes, Lord." ²⁹Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." ³⁰And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one knows about it." ³¹But they went away and spread his fame through all that district.

Jesus Heals a Man Unable to Speak

³²As they were going away, behold, a demonoppressed man who was mute was brought to him.
³³And when the demon had been cast out, the mute man spoke. And the crowds marveled, saying, "Never was anything like this seen in Israel." ³⁴But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons by the prince of demons."

The Harvest Is Plentiful, the Laborers Few ³⁵And Jesus went throughout all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction. ³⁶When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. ³⁷Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; ³⁸therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest."

The Twelve Apostles

10:1 And he called to him his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every affliction. ²The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; ³Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; ^[38] ⁴Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Apostles These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them, "Go nowhere among the Gentiles and enter no town of the Samaritans, ⁶but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. ⁷And proclaim as you go, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' 8Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers. [39] cast out demons. You received without paying; give without pay. ⁹Acquire no gold nor silver nor copper for your belts, ¹⁰no bag for your journey, nor two tunics^[40] nor sandals nor a staff, for the laborer deserves his food. ¹¹And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it and stay there until you depart. ¹²As you enter the house, greet it. ¹³And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴And if anyone is worthy, let your peace come upon it, but if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. ¹⁴And if anyone will not receive you or listen to your words, shake off the dust from your feet when you leave that house or town. ¹⁵Truly, I say to you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town.

Persecution Will Come

16"Behold. I am sending you out as sheep in the midst of wolves, so be wise as serpents and innocent as doves. ¹⁷Beware of men, for they will deliver you over to courts and flog you in their synagogues, ¹⁸ and you will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them and the Gentiles. 19When they deliver you over, do not be anxious how you are to speak or what you are to say, for what you are to say will be given to you in that hour. ²⁰ For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through vou. ²¹Brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death, 22 and you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved. 23When they persecute you in one town, flee to the next, for truly, I say to you, you will not have gone through all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

²⁴"A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant^[41] above his master. ²⁵It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and the servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebul, how much more will they malign^[42] those of his household

Have No Fear

²⁶ So have no fear of them, for nothing is covered that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. 27 What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. ²⁸And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell. [43] 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny?[44] And not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. 30 But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. ³¹Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows. 32So everyone who acknowledges me before men, I also will acknowledge before my Father who is in heaven, ³³but whoever denies me before men. I also will deny before my Father who is in heaven.

Not Peace, but a Sword

34"Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword. ³⁵For I have come to set a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. ³⁶And a person's enemies will be those of his own household. ³⁷Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. ³⁸And whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. ³⁹Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.

Rewards

40."Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. ⁴¹The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward. ⁴²And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Messengers from John the Baptist

11:1 When Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.

²Now when John heard in prison about the deeds of the Christ, he sent word by his disciples ³and said to him, "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" ⁴And Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John what you hear and see: ⁵the blind receive their sight and the lame walk, lepers ^[45] are cleansed and the deaf hear, and the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. ⁶And blessed is the one who is not offended by me."

⁷As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds concerning John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? ⁸What then did you go out to see? A man [46] dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. ⁹What then did you written,

"Behold, I send my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way before you."

11

Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has arisen no one greater than John the Baptist. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. ¹²From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has go out to see? A prophet?^[47] Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. ¹⁰This is he of whom it is suffered violence, [48] and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John, 14 and if you are willing to accept it, he is Elijah who is to come. 15 He who has ears to hear, [49] let him hear.

16 "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling to 17"We played the flute for you, and you did not their playmates,

we sang a dirge, and you did not mourn.'

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and dance:

they say, 'He has a demon.' ¹⁹The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Look at him! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' Yet wisdom is justified by her deeds." [50]

Woe to Unrepentant Cities

²⁰Then he began to denounce the cities where most of his mighty works had been done, because they did not repent. ²¹"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. ²²But I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment Capernaum, will you be exalted to heaven? You will be brought down to Hades. For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. ²⁴But I tell you that it will be more tolerable on the day of judgment for the land of Sodom than for you."

for Tyre and Sidon than for you. ²³And you,

Come to Me, and I Will Give You Rest

²⁵At that time Jesus declared, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; ²⁶yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. ^[51] ²⁷All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. ²⁸Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

the Father except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. ²⁸Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. ²⁹Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

12:1 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. ²But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him. "Look. vour disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath," ³He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: 4how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? ⁵Or have you not read in the Law how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath and are quiltless? ⁶I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. ⁷And if you had known what this means, 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,' you would not have condemned the quiltless. 8For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."

A Man with a Withered Hand

⁹He went on from there and entered their synagogue. 10 And a man was there with a withered hand. And they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—so that they might accuse him. 11He said to them, "Which one of you who has a sheep. if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? 12Of how much more value is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath." 13Then he said to the man. "Stretch out your hand." And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, healthy like the other. ¹⁴But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him.

God's Chosen Servant

- ¹⁵Jesus, aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed him, and he healed them all ¹⁶and ordered them not to make him known. ¹⁷This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah:
- 18"Behold, my servant whom I have chosen,
 my beloved with whom my soul is well pleased.
 I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the Gentiles.
- ¹⁹He will not quarrel or cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets;
- ²⁰a bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not quench,
- until he brings justice to victory;
- ²¹ and in his name the Gentiles will hope."

Blasphemy Against the Holy Spirit

²²Then a demon-oppressed man who was blind and mute was brought to him, and he healed him, so that the man spoke and saw. ²³And all the people were amazed, and said, "Can this be the Son of David?" ²⁴But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man casts out demons." 25 Knowing their thoughts, he said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and no city or house divided against itself will stand. ²⁶And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? 27 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. ²⁸But if it is by the Spirit of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon vou. 29Or how can someone enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? Then indeed he may plunder his house. ³⁰Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven.

32And whoever speaks a word against the Son of gather with me scatters. 31 Therefore I tell you, every Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

A Tree Is Known by Its Fruit

³³"Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or make the tree bad and its fruit bad, for the tree is known by its fruit. ³⁴You brood of vipers! How can you speak good, when you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. ³⁵The good person out of his good treasure brings forth good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure brings forth evil. ³⁶I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak. ³⁷for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned."

The Sign of Jonah

³⁸Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered him, saying, "Teacher, we wish to see a sign from you." 39But he answered them, "An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40 For just as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the great fish, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. 41The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. 42The queen of the South will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon.

and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

Return of an Unclean Spirit

⁴³"When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, but finds none. ⁴⁴Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when it comes, it finds the house empty, swept, and put in order. ⁴⁵Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there, and the last state of that person is worse than the first. So also will it be with this evil generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

46While he was still speaking to the people, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. [52] 48 But he replied to the man who told him, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" 49 And stretching out his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! ⁵⁰For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

13:1 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat beside the sea. ²And great crowds gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat down. And the whole crowd stood on the beach. ³And he told them many things in parables, saving: "A sower went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. ⁵Other seeds fell on rocky ground, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, since they had no depth of soil, ⁶but when the sun rose they were scorched. And since they had no root, they withered away, ⁷Other seeds fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. ⁸Other seeds fell on good soil and produced grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. ⁹He who has ears. [53] let him hear."

The Purpose of the Parables

you speak to them in parables?" ¹¹And he answered them, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. ¹²For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. ¹³This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand. ¹⁴Indeed, in their case the ¹⁰Then the disciples came and said to him, "Why do prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says:

"You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive.

15For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.'

¹⁶But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear. ¹⁷For truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

The Parable of the Sower Explained

¹⁸"Hear then the parable of the sower: ¹⁹When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown along the path. ²⁰As for what was sown on rocky ground, this is the one who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, ²¹vet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while, and when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately he falls away. [54] 22 As for what was sown among thorns, this is the one who hears the word, but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. ²³As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it.

He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

The Parable of the Weeds

²⁴He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field, 25 but while his men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds^[55] among the wheat and went away. ²⁶So when the plants came up and bore grain, then the weeds appeared also. ²⁷And the servants ^[56] of the master of the house came and said to him. 'Master. did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?' 28He said to them. 'An enemy has done this.' So the servants said to him, 'Then do you want us to go and gather them?' 29But he said. 'No, lest in gathering the weeds you root up the wheat along with them. ³⁰Let both grow together until the harvest, and at harvest time I will tell the reapers. Gather the weeds first and bind them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn."

The Mustard Seed and the Leaven

³¹He put another parable before them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. ³²It is the smallest of all seeds, but when it has grown it is larger than all the garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches."

³³He told them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, till it was all leavened."

Prophecy and Parables

³⁴All these things Jesus said to the crowds in parables; indeed, he said nothing to them without a parable. ³⁵This was to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet: [57]

"I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter what has been hidden since the foundation of the world."

The Parable of the Weeds Explained

³⁶Then he left the crowds and went into the house. And his disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds of the field." ³⁷He answered, "The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. ³⁸The field is the world, and the good seed is the sons of the kingdom. The weeds are the sons of the evil one, ³⁹ and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. The harvest is the close of the age, and the reapers are angels. 40 Just as the weeds are gathered and burned with fire, so will it be at the close of the age. 41The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will gather out of his kingdom all causes of sin and all law-breakers. 42 and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. ⁴³Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father.

He who has ears, let him hear.

The Parable of the Hidden Treasure

44"The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

The Parable of the Pearl of Great Value

45"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls, ⁴⁶who, on finding one pearl of great value, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

⁴⁷"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was thrown into the sea and gathered fish of every kind. ⁴⁸When it was full, men drew it ashore and sat down and sorted the good into containers but threw away the bad. ⁴⁹So it will be at the close of the age. The angels will come out and separate the evil from the righteous ⁵⁰and throw them into the fiery furnace. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

New and Old Treasures

⁵¹"Have you understood all these things?" They said to him, "Yes." ⁵²And he said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has been trained for the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old."

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

⁵³And when Jesus had finished these parables, he went away from there, ⁵⁴ and coming to his hometown he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these mighty works? 55 ls not this the carpenter's son? Is not his mother called Mary? And are not his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas? ⁵⁶And are not all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?" ⁵⁷And they took offense at him. But Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his hometown and in his own household." 58 And he did not do many mighty works there, because of their unbelief.

The Death of John the Baptist

14:1 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard about the fame of Jesus. ² and he said to his servants, "This is John the Baptist. He has been raised from the dead: that is why these miraculous powers are at work in him." ³For Herod had seized John and bound him and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. [58] 4 because John had been saying to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." ⁵And though he wanted to put him to death, he feared the people, because they held him to be a prophet. ⁶But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced before the company and pleased Herod, ⁷so that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask. 8 Prompted by her mother, she said, "Give me the head of John the Baptist here on a platter." ⁹And the king was sorry, but because of his oaths and his guests he commanded it to be given. ¹⁰He sent and had John beheaded in the prison, ¹¹ and his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. ¹²And his disciples came and took the body and buried it, and they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

¹³Now when Jesus heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat to a desolate place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. 14When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick. ¹⁵Now when it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." 16But Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." 17 They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." ¹⁸And he said, "Bring them here to me," ¹⁹Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. ²⁰And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. ²¹And those who

²²Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. 23And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, ²⁴but the boat by this time was a long way [59] from the land, [60] beaten by the waves, for the wind was against them. ²⁵And in the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. ²⁶But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, and said, "It is a ghost!" and they cried out in fear. ²⁷But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid."

²⁸And Peter answered him, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." ²⁹He said, "Come." So Peter got out of the boat and walked on the water and came to Jesus. ³⁰But when he saw the wind, ^[61] he was afraid, and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me." ³¹Jesus immediately reached out his hand and took hold of him, saying to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" ³²And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. ³³And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, "Truly you are the Son of God."

Jesus Heals the Sick in Gennesaret

³⁴And when they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret. ³⁵And when the men of that place recognized him, they sent around to all that region and brought to him all who were sick ³⁶and implored him that they might only touch the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched it were made well.

Traditions and Commandments

- 15:1 Then Pharisees and scribes came to Jesus from Jerusalem and said, 2"Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat." ³He answered them, "And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? ⁴For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.' 5But vou sav, 'If anyone tells his father or his mother, "What you would have gained from me is given to God," 62 6he need not honor his father.' So for the sake of your tradition you have made void the word of God. You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said:
- 8"This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; 9in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men."

What Defiles a Person

¹⁰And he called the people to him and said to them,

"Hear and understand: 11 it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but what comes out of the mouth: this defiles a person." 12 Then the disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this saying?" ¹³He answered, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. ¹⁴Let them alone; they are blind guides. [64] And if the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit." 15But Peter said to him, "Explain the parable to us." 16And he said, "Are you also still without understanding? ¹⁷Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and is expelled? [65] 18 But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this defiles a person. ¹⁹ For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false witness, slander. 20 These are what defile a person. But to eat with unwashed hands does not defile anyone."

The Faith of a Canaanite Woman

²¹And Jesus went away from there and withdrew to the district of Tyre and Sidon. 22 And behold, a Canaanite woman from that region came out and was crying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is severely oppressed by a demon." 23But he did not answer her a word. And his disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away, for she is crying out after us." ²⁴He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." ²⁵But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." ²⁶And he answered, "It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁷She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." 28Then

Jesus answered her, "O woman, great is your faith! Be it done for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed instantly. [66]

Jesus Heals Many

²⁹Jesus went on from there and walked beside the Sea of Galilee. And he went up on the mountain and sat down there. ³⁰And great crowds came to him, bringing with them the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute, and many others, and they put them at his feet, and he healed them, ³¹so that the crowd wondered, when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled healthy, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they glorified the God of Israel.

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

32Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said, "I have compassion on the crowd because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat. And I am unwilling to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way." 33And the disciples said to him, "Where are we to get enough bread in such a desolate place to feed so great a crowd?" 34And Jesus said to them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven, and a few small fish." ³⁵And directing the crowd to sit down on the ground, ³⁶he took the seven loaves and the fish, and having given thanks he broke them and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. 37 And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces left over. ³⁸Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. ³⁹And after sending away the crowds, he got into the boat and went to the region of Magadan.

The Pharisees and Sadducees Demand Signs

16:1 And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and to test him they asked him to show them a sign from heaven. ²He answered them. ^[67] "When it is evening. you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' ³And in the morning, 'It will be stormy today, for the sky is red and threatening.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the times. ⁴An evil and adulterous generation seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah." So he left them and departed.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees

⁵When the disciples reached the other side, they had forgotten to bring any bread. ⁶Jesus said to them, "Watch and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." ⁷And they began discussing it among themselves, saving, "We brought no bread." 8But Jesus, aware of this, said, "O you of little faith, why are you discussing among yourselves the fact that you have no bread? ⁹Do you not vet perceive? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? 10Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you gathered? ¹¹How is it that you fail to understand that I did not speak about bread? Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." 12 Then they understood that he did not tell them to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

¹³Now when Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" 14 And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" 16Simon Peter replied, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." 17 And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon Bar-Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. ¹⁸And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock[68] I will build my church, and the gates of hell[69] shall not prevail against it. 19 will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed [70] in heaven." 20 Then he strictly charged the disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

²¹From that time Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. ²²And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! ^[71] This shall never happen to you." ²³But he turned and said to Reter "Cet took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! [71] This shall never happe to you." ²³But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a hindrance [72] to me. For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Jesus

²⁴Then Jesus told his disciples, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. ²⁵For whoever would save his life^[73] will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. ²⁶For what will it profit a man if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what shall a man give in return for his soul? ²⁷For the Son of Man is going to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay each person according to what he has done. ²⁸Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."

The Transfiguration

17:1 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. ²And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light, ³And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴And Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." ⁵He was still speaking when, behold. a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my beloved Son, $\frac{74}{}$ with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." ⁶When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified. ⁷But Jesus came and touched them, saving, "Rise, and have no fear," 8And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only. ⁹And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, "Tell no one the vision, until that first Elijah must come?" ¹¹He answered, "Elijah does come, and he will restore all things. ¹²But I tell you that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did to him whatever they pleased. So also the Son of Man will certainly suffer at their hands." ¹³Then the disciples understood that he was speaking to them of John the Baptist.

the Son of Man is raised from the dead." ¹⁰And the disciples asked him, "Then why do the scribes say

Jesus Heals a Boy with a Demon

¹⁴And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to him and, kneeling before him, 15 said, "Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and he suffers terribly. For often he falls into the fire. and often into the water. ¹⁶And I brought him to vour disciples, and they could not heal him." 17 And Jesus answered, "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with vou? Bring him here to me." 18 And Jesus rebuked the demon. [75] and it [76] came out of him, and the boy was healed instantly. 77 19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" ²⁰He said to them. "Because of your little faith. For truly, I say to you, if you have faith like a grain of mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you." [78]

Jesus Again Foretells Death, Resurrection

²²As they were gathering in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men, ²³and they will kill him, and he will be raised on the third day." And they were greatly distressed.

The Temple Tax

24When they came to Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma tax went up to Peter and said, "Does your teacher not pay the tax?" ²⁵He said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do kings of the earth take toll or tax? From their sons or from others?" ²⁶And when he said, "From others," Jesus said to him, "Then the sons are free. ²⁷However, not to give offense to them, go to the sea and cast a hook and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find a shekel. [80] Take that and give it to them for me and for vourself."

Who Is the Greatest?

18:1 At that time the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" ²And calling to him a child, he put him in the midst of them ³and said, "Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. ⁴Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5"Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, 6but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin,[81] it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.

Temptations to Sin

⁷"Woe to the world for temptations to sin! [82] For it is necessary that temptations come, but woe to the one by whom the temptation comes! ⁸And if your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life crippled or lame than with two hands or two feet to be thrown into the eternal fire. ⁹And if your eve causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into the hell^[83] of fire

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

10"See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.
12What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray?
13And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he reigices over it more than over the

and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one that went astray? ¹³And if he finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray. ¹⁴So it is not the will of my. Father who is in heaven that one of these little ones should perish.

If Your Brother Sins Against You

15" If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother. ¹⁶But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. ¹⁷If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. ¹⁸Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. ¹⁸Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed ^[86] in heaven. ¹⁹Again I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything they ask, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. ²⁰For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

The Parable of the Unforgiving Servant 21 Then Peter came up and said to him, "Lord, how often will my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? As many as seven times?" ²²Jesus said to him, "I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.^[87]

²³ Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. [88] 24 When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. [89] 25 And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. ²⁶So the servant [90] fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything." ²⁷And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. ²⁸But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. [91] and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, will pay you.' ³⁰He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. ³¹When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. ³²Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. ³³And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on vou?' ³⁴And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, [92] until he should pay all his debt. ³⁵So also mv heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

'Pay what you owe.' ²⁹So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I

Teaching About Divorce

19:1 Now when Jesus had finished these sayings, he went away from Galilee and entered the region of Judea beyond the Jordan. ²And large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

³And Pharisees came up to him and tested him by asking, "Is it lawful to divorce one's wife for any cause?" ⁴He answered, "Have you not read that he who created them from the beginning made them male and female, ⁵and said, 'Therefore a man shall leave his father and his mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? 6So thev are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate." ⁷Thev said to him, "Why then did Moses command one to give a certificate of divorce and to send her away?" ⁸He said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so. ⁹And I say to you: whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual adultery."^[93]

10 The disciples said to him, "If such is the case of a immorality, and marries another, commits man with his wife, it is better not to marry." ¹¹But he said to them, "Not everyone can receive this saying, but only those to whom it is given. ¹²For there are eunuchs who have been so from birth, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let the one who is able to receive this receive it."

Let the Children Come to Me

¹³Then children were brought to him that he might lay his hands on them and pray. The disciples rebuked the people, ¹⁴but Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." ¹⁵And he laid his hands on them and went away.

The Rich Young Man

¹⁶And behold, a man came up to him, saying, "Teacher, what good deed must I do to have eternal life?" ¹⁷And he said to him, "Why do you ask me about what is good? There is only one who is good. If you would enter life, keep the commandments." ¹⁸He said to him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said, "You shall not murder, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness. ¹⁹Honor your father and mother, and, You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ²⁰The young man said to him, "All these I have kept. What do I still lack?" ²¹Jesus said to him. "If you would be perfect, go, sell what you possess and give to the poor, and you will sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

23And Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly, I say to you, only with difficulty will a rich person enter the kingdom of heaven. 24Again I tell you, it is easier for rich person to enter the kingdom of God." ²⁵When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?" ²⁶But Jesus looked at them and said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." ²⁷Then Peter said in reply, "See, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?" ²⁸Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, ^[94] when the Son of Man will sit on his

a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a everything and followed you. What then will we have?" ²⁸Jesus said to them. "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, [94] when the Son of Man will sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands, for my name's sake, will receive a hundredfold and will inherit eternal life. 30 But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

Laborers in the Vineyard

20:1 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a master of a house who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. ²After agreeing with the laborers for a denarius [96] a day, he sent them into his vineyard. ³And going out about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the marketplace. 4 and to them he said, 'You go into the vineyard too, and whatever is right I will give you.' 5So they went. Going out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour, he did the same. ⁶And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing. And he said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' ⁷They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You go into the vineyard too.' 8And when evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last, up to the first.' 9And when those hired about the eleventh hour came, each of them received a denarius. 10 Now when those hired first came, they thought they would only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' ¹³But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a denarius? ¹⁴Take what belongs to you and go. I choose to give to this last worker as I give to you. ¹⁵Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity? ^[97] ¹⁶So the last will be first, and the first

Jesus Foretells His Death a Third Time

¹⁷And as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, ¹⁸"See, we are going up to Jerusalem. And the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death ¹⁹and deliver him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified, and he will be raised on the third day."

A Mother's Request

²⁰Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came up to him with her sons, and kneeling before him she asked him for something. ²¹And he said to her, "What do you want?" She said to him, "Say that these two sons of mine are to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom." 22 Jesus answered, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am to drink?" They said to him, "We are able." ²³He said to them, "You will drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father." 24And when the ten heard it, they were indignant at the two brothers. ²⁵But Jesus called them to him and said, "You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. ²⁶It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant. [98] ²⁷and whoever would be first among you must be

²⁹And as they went out of Jericho, a great crowd followed him. 30 And behold, there were two blind men sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was passing by, they cried out. "Lord. [100] have mercy on us. Son of David!" 31 The crowd rebuked them, telling them to be silent, but they cried out all the more, "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" 32And stopping, Jesus called them and said, "What do you want me to do for you?" 33 They said to him, "Lord, let our eyes be opened." 34And Jesus in pity touched their eyes, and immediately they recovered their sight and followed him.

The Triumphal Entry

21:1 Now when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, ²saying to them, "Go into the village in front of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. ³If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will send them at once." ⁴This took place to fulfill what was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5"Say to the daughter of Zion,
'Behold, your king is coming to you, humble, and mounted on a donkey, and [101] on a colt. the foal of a beast of burden."

⁶The disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. ⁷They brought the donkey and the colt and put on them their cloaks, and he sat on them. ⁸Most of the crowd spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹And the crowds that went before him and that followed him were shouting, "Hosanna to the

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

- ¹²And Jesus entered the temple [102] and drove out all who sold and bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. ¹³He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer,' but you make it a den of robbers."
- ¹⁴And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. ¹⁵But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying out in the temple, "Hosanna to the Son of David!" they were indignant, ¹⁶and they said to him, "Do you hear what these are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read.
- "Out of the mouth of infants and nursing babies you have prepared praise'?"
- ¹⁷And leaving them, he went out of the city to Bethany and lodged there.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

¹⁸In the morning, as he was returning to the city, he became hungry. ¹⁹And seeing a fig tree by the wayside, he went to it and found nothing on it but only leaves. And he said to it, "May no fruit ever come from you again!" And the fig tree withered at once.

²⁰When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, "How did the fig tree wither at once?" ²¹And Jesus answered them, "Truly, I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, you will not only do what has been done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen. ²²And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith."

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

²³And when he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" ²⁴Jesus answered them, "I also will ask you one question, and if you tell me the answer, then I also will tell you by what authority I do these things. ²⁵The baptism of John, from where did it come? From heaven or from man?" And they discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 26But if we say, 'From man,' we are afraid of the crowd, for they all hold that John was a prophet." 27So they answered Jesus. "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

²⁸"What do vou think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' 29And he answered, 'I will not,' but afterward he changed his mind and went. 30 And he went to the other son and said the same. And he answered, 'I go, sir,' but did not go, 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said. "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes go into the kingdom of God before you. ³²For John came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him. And even when you saw it, you did not afterward change your minds and believe him.

The Parable of the Tenants

33"Hear another parable. There was a master of a house who planted a vinevard and put a fence around it and dug a winepress in it and built a tower and leased it to tenants, and went into another country. 34When the season for fruit drew near, he sent his servants [103] to the tenants to get his fruit. ³⁵And the tenants took his servants and beat one. killed another, and stoned another. ³⁶Again he sent other servants, more than the first. And they did the same to them. ³⁷Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son,' 38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and have his inheritance.' 39 And they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. 40When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?" 41 They said to him. "He will put those wretches to a miserable death and let out the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in their seasons."

- ⁴²Jesus said to them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures:
- "'The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; [104] this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?
- ⁴³Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people producing its fruits. ⁴⁴And the one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him." [105]
- 45When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he was speaking about them. ⁴⁶And although they were seeking to arrest him, they feared the crowds, because they held him to be a prophet.

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

22:1 And again Jesus spoke to them in parables.

saying, 2"The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son, ³and sent his servants [106] to call those who were invited to the wedding feast, but they would not come. ⁴Again he sent other servants, saving, 'Tell those who are invited, See, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.' ⁵But they paid no attention and went off, one to his farm, another to his business. ⁶while the rest seized his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. ⁷The king was angry, and he sent his troops and destroyed those murderers and burned their city. 8Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy. 9Go therefore to the main roads and invite to the wedding feast as many as you find. 10 And those servants went out into the roads and gathered all whom they found, both bad and good. So the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11"But when the king came in to look at the guests, he saw there a man who had no wedding garment. ¹²And he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?' And he was speechless. ¹³Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot and cast him into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' ¹⁴For many are called, but few are chosen."

Paying Taxes to Caesar

¹⁵Then the Pharisees went and plotted how to entangle him in his words. ¹⁶And they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are true and teach the way of God truthfully, and you do not care about anyone's opinion, for you are not swayed by appearances.[107] 17Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?" 18 But Jesus. aware of their malice, said, "Why put me to the test, you hypocrites? ¹⁹Show me the coin for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. [108] 20 And Jesus said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" 21 They said, "Caesar's." Then he said to them, "Therefore render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." 22 When they heard it, they marveled. And they left him and went away.

Sadducees Ask About the Resurrection

²³The same day Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection, and they asked him a question, ²⁴saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies having no children, his brother must marry the widow and raise up children for his brother.' ²⁵Now there were seven brothers among us. The first married and died, and having no children left his wife to his brother. ²⁶So too the second and third, down to the seventh. ²⁷After them all, the woman died. ²⁸In the resurrection, therefore, of the seven, whose wife ²⁹But Jesus answered them, "You are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God. ³⁰For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ³¹And as for the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was said to you by God: ³²'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? He is not God of the dead, but of will she be? For they all had her."

The Great Commandment

³⁴But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. ³⁵And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him. ³⁶"Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?" ³⁷And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. ³⁸This is the great and first commandment. ³⁹And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. ⁴⁰On

these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets."

Whose Son Is the Christ?

- ⁴¹Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question, ⁴²saying, "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him, "The son of David." ⁴³He said to them, "How is it then that David, in the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying,
- 44"The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet'?
- ⁴⁵If then David calls him Lord, how is he his son?"
 ⁴⁶And no one was able to answer him a word, nor from that day did anyone dare to ask him any more questions.

Seven Woes to the Scribes and Pharisees

23:1 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples. 2"The scribes and the Pharisees sit on Moses' seat. 3so practice and observe whatever they tell you—but not what they do. For they preach, but do not practice. ⁴They tie up heavy burdens, hard to bear, [109] and lay them on people's shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to move them with their finger. ⁵They do all their deeds to be seen by others. For they make their phylacteries broad and their fringes long, ⁶ and they love the place of honor at feasts and the best seats in the synagogues ⁷ and greetings in the marketplaces and being called rabbi[110] by others. 8But you are not to be called rabbi, for you have one teacher, and you are all brothers.[111] 9And call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven. ¹⁰Neither be called instructors, for you have one instructor, the Christ. ¹¹The greatest among you shall be your servant. 12Whoever exalts himself will be humbled.

13"But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you shut the kingdom of heaven in and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.

people's faces. For you neither enter yourselves nor allow those who would enter to go in. [112] 15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel across sea and land to make a single proselyte, and when he becomes a proselyte, you make him twice as much a child of hell [113] as yourselves.

16"Woe to you, blind guides, who say, 'If anyone swears by the temple, it is nothing, but if anyone swears by the gold of the temple, he is bound by his oath.' ¹⁷You blind fools! For which is greater, the gold or the temple that has made the gold sacred? ¹⁸And you say, 'If anyone swears by the altar, it is nothing, but if anyone swears by the gift that is on the altar, he is bound by his oath.' ¹⁹You blind men! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift sacred? ²⁰So whoever swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. ²¹And whoever swears by the temple swears by it and by him who dwells in it. ²²And whoever swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by him who sits upon it.

²³"Woe to vou, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!

For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. ²⁴You blind guides, straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel!

²⁵"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
For you clean the outside of the cup and the plate, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence.

²⁶You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and the plate, that the outside also may be

27"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
For you are like whitewashed tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but within are full of dead people's bones and all uncleanness. ²⁸So you also outwardly appear righteous to others, but within you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous. 30saving.

'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.' 31 Thus you witness against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. ³²Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. ³³You serpents, you brood of vipers, how are vou to escape being sentenced to hell? 34Therefore I send you prophets and wise men and scribes, some of whom you will kill and crucify, and some you will flog in your synagogues and persecute from town to town, 35 so that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of innocent Abel to the blood of Zechariah the son of Barachiah. [114] whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. 36 Truly, I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation.

Lament over Jerusalem

³⁷"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not! ³⁸See, your house is left to you desolate. ³⁹For I tell you, you will not see me again, until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Jesus Foretells Destruction of the Temple

24:1 Jesus left the temple and was going away, when his disciples came to point out to him the buildings of the temple. ²But he answered them, "You see all these, do you not? Truly, I say to you, there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down."

Signs of the Close of the Age

³As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the close of the age?" ⁴And Jesus answered them, "See that no one leads you astray. ⁵For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will lead many astray. ⁶And you will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for this must take place, but the end is not yet. ⁷For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. ⁸All these are but many false prophets will arise and lead many astray. ¹²And because lawlessness will be increased, the love of many will grow cold. ¹³But the one who endures to the end will be saved. ¹⁴And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

⁹"Then they will deliver you up to tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for my name's sake. ¹⁰And then many will fall away [115] and betray one another and hate one another. ¹¹And

The Abomination of Desolation

15 So when you see the abomination of desolation spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing in the holy place (let the reader understand), ¹⁶then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. 17Let the one who is on the housetop not go down to take what is in his house, ¹⁸ and let the one who is in the field not turn back to take his cloak. 19 And alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! ²⁰Pray that your flight may not be in winter or on a Sabbath. 21 For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be. 22 And if those days had not been cut short, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short. ²³Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There he is!' do not believe it. 24For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. ²⁵See, I have told you beforehand. ²⁶So, if not go out. If they say, 'Look, he is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it. ²⁷For as the lightning comes from the east and shines as far as the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ²⁸Wherever the corpse is, there the vultures will gather.

they say to you, 'Look, he is in the wilderness,' do

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁹"Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ³⁰Then will appear in heaven the sign of the Son of Man, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory. ³¹And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

³²"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. ³³So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. ³⁴Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. ³⁵Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

No One Knows That Day and Hour

36"But concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son.[116] but the Father only. 37 For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ³⁸For as in those days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark. ³⁹ and they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. ⁴⁰Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken and one left. 41 Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and one left. 42Therefore, stav awake, for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming. 43But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief would not have let his house be broken into.

44Therefore you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.

was coming, he would have stayed awake and whom his master has set over his household, to give them their food at the proper time? 46Blessed is that servant whom his master will find so doing when he comes. 47 Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. 48But if that wicked servant says to himself, 'My master is delayed,' 49 and begins to beat his fellow servants [118] and eats and drinks with drunkards. 50the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know ⁵¹ and will cut him in pieces and put him with the hypocrites. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

45"Who then is the faithful and wise servant.[117]

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

25:1 "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps[119] and went to meet the bridegroom. [120] ² Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. ³For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them, 4but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. ⁵As the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and slept. ⁶But at midnight there was a cry, 'Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' ⁷Then all those virgins rose and trimmed their lamps. ⁸And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9But the wise answered, saying, 'Since there will not be enough for us and for you, go rather to the dealers and buy for yourselves.' 10 And while they were going to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. 11 Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' 12 But he answered, 'Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.' 13 Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.

The Parable of the Talents

14"For it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants [121] and entrusted to them his property. 15 To one he gave five talents, [122] to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. 16He who had received the five talents went at once and traded with them. and he made five talents more. 17So also he who had the two talents made two talents more. ¹⁸But he who had received the one talent went and dug in the ground and hid his master's money. 19 Now after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. 20 And he who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five talents more, saving, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents; here I have made five talents more.' ²¹His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.[123] You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' 22 And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me

²³His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little: I will set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.' 24He also who had received the one talent came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed. ²⁵so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' 26But his master answered him. 'You wicked and slothful servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather where I scattered no seed? ²⁷Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and at my two talents; here I have made two talents more.'

coming I should have received what was my own with interest. ²⁸So take the talent from him and give it to him who has the ten talents. ²⁹For to everyone who has will more be given, and he will have an abundance. But from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. ³⁰And cast the worthless servant into the outer darkness. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The Final Judgment

31"When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. ³²Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33And he will place the sheep on his right, but the goats on the left. 34Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. ³⁵For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me. 36 was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' ³⁷Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? 38 And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? ³⁹And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' 40 And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I my brothers,^[124] you did it to me.'

41"Then he will say to those on his left, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴²For I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink. ⁴³I was a stranger and you did not welcome say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' ⁴⁴Then they also will answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' ⁴⁵Then he will answer them, saying, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me.' ⁴⁶And these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

26:1 When Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said to his disciples, ²"You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

gathered in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, ⁴and plotted together in order to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him. ⁵But they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar among the people."

³Then the chief priests and the elders of the people

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

⁶Now when Jesus was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, ^[125] ⁷a woman came up to him with an alabaster flask of very expensive ointment, and she poured it on his head as he reclined at table. ⁸And when the disciples saw it, they were indignant, saying, "Why this waste? ⁹For this could have been sold for a large sum and given to the poor." ¹⁰But saving, "Why this waste? 9For this could have been sold for a large sum and given to the poor." 10But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a beautiful thing to me. ¹¹For you always have the poor with you, but you will not always have me. 12 In pouring this ointment on my body, she has done it to prepare me for burial. ¹³Truly, I say to you, wherever this gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will also be told in memory of her."

Judas to Betray Jesus

¹⁴Then one of the twelve, whose name was Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests ¹⁵and said, "What will you give me if I deliver him over to you?" And they paid him thirty pieces of silver. ¹⁶And from that moment he sought an opportunity to betray him.

The Passover with the Disciples

¹⁷Now on the first day of Unleavened Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where will you have us prepare for you to eat the Passover?" ¹⁸He said, "Go into the city to a certain man and say to him, 'The Teacher says, My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'" ¹⁹And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them, and they prepared the Passover.

twelve. [126] 21 And as they were eating, he said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me." 22 And they were very sorrowful and began to say to him one after another, "Is it I, Lord?" 23 He answered, "He who has dipped his hand in the dish with me will betray me. 24 The Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born." 25 Judas, who would betray him, answered. "Is it I. Rabbi?" He said to him. "You have

²⁶Now as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." ²⁷And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, saying, "Drink of it, all of you, ²⁸for this is my blood of the [127] covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. ²⁹I tell you I will not drink again of this fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom."

Jesus Foretells Peter's Denial

³⁰And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. 31 Then Jesus said to them. "You will all fall away because of me this night. For it is up, I will go before you to Galilee." 33Peter answered never fall away." 34 Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' 32 But after I am raised him, "Though they all fall away because of you, I will this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." 35Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you!" And all the disciples said the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

³⁶Then Jesus went with them to a place called

Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go over there and pray." 37 And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled. ³⁸Then he said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch^[128] with me." ³⁹And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will." 40 And he came to the disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter, "So, could you not watch with me one hour? 41 Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." 42 Again, for the second time, he went away and prayed, "My Father, if this cannot pass unless I drink it, your will be done." 43 And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44So, leaving them again, he went away and prayed for the third time, saying the same words them, "Sleep and take your rest later on. [129] See, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴⁶Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand."

again. 45Then he came to the disciples and said to

Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

47While he was still speaking, Judas came, one of the twelve, and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the elders of the people. ⁴⁸Now the betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "The one I will kiss is the man; seize him." 49 And he came up to Jesus at once and said, "Greetings, Rabbi!" And he kissed him. 50 Jesus said to him, "Friend, do what you came to do." [130] Then they came up and laid hands on Jesus and seized him. 51 And behold, one of those who were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear. 52Then Jesus said to him, "Put your sword back into its place. For all who take the sword will perish by the sword. ⁵³Do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father, and he will at once send me more than twelve legions of angels? 54But how then should the Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must be so?" ⁵⁵At that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs

Jesus Before Caiaphas and the Council Then those who had seized Jesus led him to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders had gathered. 58And Peter was following him at a distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and going inside he sat with the guards to see the end. ⁵⁹Now the chief priests and the whole Council were seeking false testimony against Jesus that they might put him to death. 60 but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. At last two came forward 61 and said. "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to rebuild it in three days." 62 And the high priest stood up and said, "Have you no answer to make? What is it that these men testify against you?"[133] ⁶³But Jesus remained silent. And the high priest said to him, "I adjure you by the living God, tell us if vou are the Christ, the Son of God." 64 Jesus said to him, "You have said so. But I tell you, from now on you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power and coming on the clouds of heaven."

⁶⁵Then the high priest tore his robes and said, "He has uttered blasphemy. What further witnesses do we need? You have now heard his blasphemy. ⁶⁶What is your judgment?" They answered, "He deserves death." ⁶⁷Then they spit in his face and struck him. And some slapped him, ⁶⁸saying, "Prophesy to us, you Christ! Who is it that struck you?"

Peter Denies Jesus

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came up to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean." ⁷⁰But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you mean." ⁷¹And when he went out to the entrance, another servant girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth." ⁷²And again be denied it with an oath: "I do not know

⁷²And again he denied it with an oath: "I do not know the man." ⁷³After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Certainly you too are one of them, for your accent betrays you." ⁷⁴Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know the man." And immediately the rooster crowed. ⁷⁵And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus,

"Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Delivered to Pilate

27:1 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death. ²And they bound him and led him away and delivered him over to Pilate the governor.

Judas Hangs Himself

³Then when Judas, his betraver, saw that Jesus^[134] was condemned, he changed his mind and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders. 4 saving, "I have sinned by betraving innocent blood." They said. "What is that to us? See to it yourself." ⁵And throwing down the pieces of silver into the temple, he departed, and he went and hanged himself. ⁶But the chief priests, taking the pieces of silver, said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is blood money." 7So they took counsel and bought with them the potter's field as a burial place for strangers. 8Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day. 9Then was fulfilled what had been spoken by the prophet Jeremiah, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price had been set by some of the sons of Israel, ¹⁰ and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord directed me."

Jesus Before Pilate

¹¹Now Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus said, "You have said so." ¹²But when he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he gave no answer. ¹³Then Pilate said to him, "Do you not hear how many things they testify against you?" ¹⁴But he gave him no answer, not even to a single charge, so that the governor was greatly amazed.

The Crowd Chooses Barabbas

¹⁵Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the crowd any one prisoner whom they wanted. ¹⁶And they had then a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. ¹⁷So when they had gathered, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you: Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" 18 For he knew that it was out of envy that they had delivered him up. 19 Besides, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much because of him today in a dream." 20 Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and destroy Jesus. ²¹The governor again said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas." 22 Pilate said to them, "Then what shall I do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said, "Let him be crucified!" 23 And he said, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Let him be crucified!"

Pilate Delivers Jesus to Be Crucified

²⁴So when Pilate saw that he was gaining nothing, but rather that a riot was beginning, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of this man's blood; [135] see to it yourselves." ²⁵And all the people answered, "His blood be on us and on our children!" ²⁶Then he released for them Barabbas, and having scourged [136] Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

²⁷Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's headquarters, [137] and they gathered the whole battalion [138] before him. 28 And they stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, 29 and twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on his head and put a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" 30 And they spit on him and took the reed and struck him on the head. 31 And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the robe and put his own clothes on him and led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion

³²As they went out, they found a man of Cyrene,

Simon by name. They compelled this man to carry his cross. 33And when they came to a place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull). 34they offered him wine to drink, mixed with gall, but when he tasted it, he would not drink it, 35 And when they had crucified him, they divided his garments among them by casting lots. ³⁶Then they sat down and kept watch over him there. ³⁷And over his head they put the charge against him, which read, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." 38Then two robbers were crucified with him, one on the right and one on the left. ³⁹And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads ⁴⁰ and saving, "You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save yourself! If you are the Son of God, come down from the cross." 41So also the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocked him, saying, 42"He saved others: he cannot save himself. He is the King of Israel; let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. ⁴³He trusts in God; let God deliver him now, if he desires him. For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" ⁴⁴And the robbers who were crucified with him also reviled him in the same way.

The Death of Jesus

45 Now from the sixth hour [139] there was darkness over all the land [140] until the ninth hour. [141] 46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saving, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" ⁴⁷And some of the bystanders, hearing it, said, "This man is calling Elijah." 48 And one of them at once ran and took a sponge, filled it with sour wine, and put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink. 49But the others said, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him." 50 And Jesus cried out again with a loud voice and vielded up his spirit.

⁵¹And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. And the earth shook, and the rocks were split. ⁵²The tombs also were opened. And many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised, ⁵³and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection they went into the holy city and appeared to many. ⁵⁴When the centurion and those who were with him, keeping watch over Jesus, saw the earthquake and what took place, they were filled with awe and said, "Truly this was the Son [142] of God!"

from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to him, ⁵⁶among whom were Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Joseph and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.

⁵⁵There were also many women there, looking on

Jesus Is Buried

⁵⁷When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who also was a disciple of Jesus. ⁵⁸He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given to him. ⁵⁹And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen shroud ⁶⁰and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock. And he rolled a great stone to the entrance of the tomb and went away. ⁶¹Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

The Guard at the Tomb

⁶²The next day, that is, after the day of Preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered before Pilate ⁶³and said, "Sir, we remember how that impostor said, while he was still alive, 'After three days I will rise.' ⁶⁴Therefore order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, lest his disciples go and steal him away and tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last fraud will be worse than the first." ⁶⁵Pilate said to them, "You have a guard of soldiers. Go, make it as secure as you can." ⁶⁶So they went and made the tomb secure by sealing the stone and setting a guard.

The Resurrection

28:1 Now after the Sabbath, toward the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. ²And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. ³His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. ⁴And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. ⁵But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. ⁶He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he [144] lay. ⁷Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you." ⁸So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. ⁹And behold. Jesus met them and said. "Greetings!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshiped him. ¹⁰Then Jesus said to them. "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."

The Report of the Guard

¹¹While they were going, behold, some of the guard went into the city and told the chief priests all that had taken place. ¹²And when they had assembled with the elders and taken counsel, they gave a sufficient sum of money to the soldiers ¹³and said, "Tell people, 'His disciples came by night and stole him away while we were asleep.' ¹⁴And if this comes to the governor's ears, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble." ¹⁵So they took the money and did as they were directed. And this story has been spread among the Jews to this day.

The Great Commission

¹⁶Now the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. ¹⁷And when they saw him they worshiped him, but some doubted. ¹⁸And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in [145] the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

1:1 The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. [1]

"Behold, I send my messenger before your face,

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

²As it is written in Isaiah the prophet, [2]

³the voice of one crying in the wilderness:

who will prepare your way.

'Prepare^[3] the way of the Lord, make his paths straight,'"

⁴John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁵And all the country of Judea and all Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing and wore a leather belt around his waist and ate locusts and wild honey. ⁷And he preached, saying, "After me comes he who is mightier than I, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and their sins. 6Now John was clothed with camel's hair untie. ⁸I have baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

The Baptism of Jesus

⁹In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. ¹⁰And when he came up out of the water, immediately he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. ¹¹And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; [4] with you I am well pleased."

The Temptation of Jesus

¹²The Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness. ¹³And he was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan. And he was with the wild animals, and the angels were ministering to him.

Jesus Begins His Ministry

¹⁴Now after John was arrested, Jesus came into Galilee, proclaiming the gospel of God, ¹⁵and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel."

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

¹⁶Passing alongside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. ¹⁷And Jesus said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you become fishers of men." ¹⁸And immediately they left their nets and followed him. ¹⁹And going on a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, who were in their boat mending the nets.

²⁰And immediately he called them, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and followed him.

Jesus Heals a Man with an Unclean Spirit

²¹And they went into Capernaum, and immediately on the Sabbath he entered the synagogue and was teaching. 22 And they were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one who had authority, and not as the scribes. ²³And immediately there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit. And he cried out, 24 What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God." ²⁵But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" ²⁶And the unclean spirit. convulsing him and crying out with a loud voice, came out of him. ²⁷And they were all amazed, so that they questioned among themselves, saving, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." ²⁸And at once his fame spread everywhere throughout all the surrounding region of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many

²⁹And immediately he^[5] left the synagogue and entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. ³⁰Now Simon's mother-in-law lay ill with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. ³¹And he came and took her by the hand and lifted her up, and the fever left her, and she began to serve them.

³²That evening at sundown they brought to him all who were sick or oppressed by demons. ³³And the whole city was gathered together at the door. ³⁴And he healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. And he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Jesus Preaches in Galilee

³⁵And rising very early in the morning, while it was still dark, he departed and went out to a desolate place, and there he prayed. ³⁶And Simon and those who were with him searched for him, ³⁷and they found him and said to him, "Everyone is looking for you." ³⁸And he said to them, "Let us go on to the next towns, that I may preach there also, for that is why I came out." ³⁹And he went throughout all Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

⁴⁰And a leper came to him, imploring him, and kneeling said to him, "If you will, you can make me clean." 41 Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand and touched him and said to him, "I will; be clean." 42 And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. 43And Jesus sternly charged him and sent him away at once, 44 and said to him, "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a proof to them." 45But he went out and began to talk freely about it, and to spread the news, so that Jesus could no longer openly enter a town, but was out in desolate places, and people were coming to him from every quarter.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

2:1 And when he returned to Capernaum after some days, it was reported that he was at home. ²And many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even at the door. And he was preaching the word to them. ³And they came, bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. ⁴And when they could not get near him because of the crowd, they removed the roof above him, and when they had made an opening, they let down the bed on which the paralytic lay. ⁵And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven." ⁶Now some of the scribes were sitting there, questioning in their hearts, 7"Why does this man speak like that? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?" 8And immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they thus questioned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you question these things in your hearts? 9Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, take up your bed and has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralytic— ¹¹"I say to you, rise, pick up your bed, and go home." ¹²And he rose and immediately picked up his bed and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

walk'? 10 But that you may know that the Son of Man

Jesus Calls Levi

¹³He went out again beside the sea, and all the crowd was coming to him, and he was teaching them. ¹⁴And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the tax booth, and he said to him. "Follow me." And he rose and followed him.

15And as he reclined at table in his house, many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many who followed him.

16And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" 17And when Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."

A Question About Fasting

¹⁸Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting. And people came and said to him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?" 19 And Jesus said to them, "Can the wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. ²⁰The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day. 21 No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. If he does, the patch tears away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear is made. 22And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins—and the wine is destroyed, and so are the skins. But new wine is for fresh wineskins."[10]

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

²³One Sabbath he was going through the grainfields, and as they made their way, his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. ²⁴And the Pharisees were saying to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?" ²⁵And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he was in need and was hungry, he and those who were with him: ²⁶how he entered the house of God, in the time of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those who were with him?" ²⁷And he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. ²⁸So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath."

A Man with a Withered Hand

3:1 Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there with a withered hand. ²And they watched Jesus.[11] to see whether he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him. ³And he said to the man with the withered hand, "Come here." ⁴And he said to them. "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. ⁵And he looked around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. ⁶The Pharisees went out and immediately held counsel with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

A Great Crowd Follows Jesus

⁷Jesus withdrew with his disciples to the sea, and a great crowd followed, from Galilee and Judea 8 and Jerusalem and Idumea and from beyond the Jordan and from around Tyre and Sidon. When the great crowd heard all that he was doing, they came to him. ⁹And he told his disciples to have a boat ready for him because of the crowd, lest they crush him. 10 for he had healed many, so that all who had diseases pressed around him to touch him. ¹¹And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, "You are the Son of God." 12 And he strictly ordered them not to make him known.

The Twelve Apostles

¹³And he went up on the mountain and called to him those whom he desired, and they came to him. ¹⁴And he appointed twelve (whom he also named apostles) so that they might be with him and he might send them out to preach 15 and have authority to cast out demons. ¹⁶He appointed the twelve: Simon (to whom he gave the name Peter): 17 James the son of Zebedee and John the brother of James (to whom he gave the name Boanerges, that is, Sons of Thunder); 18 Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Cananaean, ¹⁹ and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

²⁰Then he went home, and the crowd gathered again, so that they could not even eat. ²¹And when his family heard it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying, "He is out of his mind."

Blasphemy Against the Holy Spirit

²²And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saving, "He is possessed by Beelzebul," and "by the prince of demons he casts out the demons." ²³And he called them to him and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? 24If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. 25 And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. ²⁶And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but is coming to an end. ²⁷But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man. Then indeed he may plunder his house.

²⁸"Truly, I say to you, all sins will be forgiven the children of man, and whatever blasphemies they utter, ²⁹but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"— ³⁰for they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

³¹And his mother and his brothers came, and standing outside they sent to him and called him. 32 And a crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers[12] are outside, seeking you." ³³And he answered them. "Who are my mother and my brothers?" 34And looking about at those who sat around him, he said. "Here are my mother and my brothers! 35For whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother."

The Parable of the Sower

4:1 Again he began to teach beside the sea. And a very large crowd gathered about him, so that he got into a boat and sat in it on the sea, and the whole crowd was beside the sea on the land. ²And he was teaching them many things in parables, and in his teaching he said to them: 3"Listen! A sower went out to sow. ⁴And as he sowed, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it. 5Other seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil, and immediately it sprang up, since it had no depth of soil. ⁶And when the sun rose, it was scorched, and since it had no root, it withered away. ⁷Other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it vielded no grain. ⁸And other seeds fell into good soil and produced grain. growing up and increasing and yielding thirtyfold and sixtvfold and a hundredfold." ⁹And he said, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear,"

The Purpose of the Parables

¹⁰And when he was alone, those around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. ¹¹And he said to them, "To you has been given the secret of the kingdom of God, but for those outside everything is in parables, ¹²so that "they may indeed see but not perceive, and may indeed hear but not understand, lest they should turn and be forgiven."

¹³And he said to them, "Do you not understand this parable? How then will you understand all the parables? ¹⁴The sower sows the word. ¹⁵And these are the ones along the path, where the word is sown: when they hear, Satan immediately comes and takes away the word that is sown in them. ¹⁶And these are the ones sown on rocky ground: the ones who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy. ¹⁷And they have no root in themselves, but endure for a while; then, when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the word, immediately they fall away.^[13] ¹⁸And others are the ones sown among thorns. They are those who hear the word, ¹⁹but the cares of the world and the deceitfulness of riches and the desires for other things enter in and choke the word, and it proves unfruitful. ²⁰But those that were sown on the good soil are the ones who hear the word and accept it and bear fruit, thirtyfold and sixtyfold and a hundredfold."

A Lamp Under a Basket

²¹And he said to them, "Is a lamp brought in to be put under a basket, or under a bed, and not on a stand? ²²For nothing is hidden except to be made manifest; nor is anything secret except to come to light. ²³If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear." ²⁴And he said to them, "Pay attention to what you hear: with the measure you use, it will be measured to you, and still more will be added to you. ²⁵For to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away."

The Parable of the Seed Growing

²⁶And he said, "The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground. ²⁷He sleeps and rises night and day, and the seed sprouts and grows; he knows not how. ²⁸The earth produces by itself, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. ²⁹But when the grain is ripe, at once he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come."

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

³⁰And he said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable shall we use for it? ³¹It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when sown on the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth, ³²yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes larger than all the garden plants and puts out large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

³³With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. ³⁴He did not speak to them without a parable, but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

Jesus Calms a Storm

³⁵On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side." 36And leaving the crowd, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. And other boats were with him. ³⁷And a great windstorm arose, and the waves were breaking into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. 38 But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion. And they woke him and said to him. "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" ³⁹And he awoke and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. 40He said to them. "Why are you so afraid? Have you still no faith?" 41 And they were filled with great fear and said to one another,

"Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obev him?"

Jesus Heals a Man with a Demon

5:1 They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes. [14] ²And when Jesus [15] had stepped out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit.

³He lived among the tombs. And no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain, ⁴for he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but he wrenched the chains apart, and he broke the shackles in pieces. No one had the strength to subdue him. ⁵Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always crying out and cutting himself with stones. ⁶And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and fell down before him. ⁷And crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me." ⁸For he was saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!" ⁹And Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

He replied, "My name is Legion, for we are many." ¹⁰And he begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country. ¹¹Now a great herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, ¹²and they begged him, saying, "Send us to the pigs; let us enter them." ¹³So he gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out, and entered the pigs, and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea and were drowned in the sea.

14 The herdsmen fled and told it in the city and in the country. And people came to see what it was that had happened. ¹⁵And they came to Jesus and saw the demon-possessed [16] man, the one who had had the legion, sitting there, clothed and in his right mind.

described to them what had happened to the demon-possessed man and to the pigs. ¹⁷And they began to beg Jesus^[17] to depart from their region. ¹⁸As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed with demons begged him that he might be with him. ¹⁹And he did not permit him but said to him, "Go home to your friends and tell them and they were afraid. 16And those who had seen it how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you." ²⁰And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and everyone marveled.

Jesus Heals a Woman and Jairus's Daughter

21And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered about him, and he was beside the sea. ²²Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and seeing him, he fell at his feet ²³and implored him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live." ²⁴And he went with him.

And a great crowd followed him and thronged about him. ²⁵And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, ²⁶and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. ²⁷She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. ²⁸For she said, "If I touch even his garments, I will be made well." ²⁹And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt

30 And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him, immediately turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my garments?"
 31 And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, 'Who touched in her body that she was healed of her disease.

me?'" ³²And he looked around to see who had done it. ³³But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. ³⁴And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

ruler's house some who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" ³⁶But overhearing [18] what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." ³⁷And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. ³⁸They came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and Jesus [19] saw a commotion, people weeping and

But he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was. ⁴¹Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise." ⁴²And immediately the girl got up and began walking (for she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. ⁴³And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

6:1 He went away from there and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. ²And on the Sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished, saving, "Where did this man get these things? What is the wisdom given to him? How are such mighty works done by his hands? 3 Is not this the carpenter. the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. ⁴And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his hometown and among his relatives and in his own household." ⁵And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve Apostles

⁷And he called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff—no bread, no bag, no money in their belts— 9but to wear sandals and not "Whenever you enter a house, stay there until you you and they will not listen to you, when you leave.

[20] 10 And he said to them. depart from there. 11 And if any place will not receive shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." 12 So they went out and proclaimed that people should repent. 13 And they cast out many demons and anointed with oil many who were sick and healed them.

The Death of John the Baptist

¹⁴King Herod heard of it, for Jesus'[21] name had become known, Some [22] said, "John the Baptist [23] has been raised from the dead. That is why these miraculous powers are at work in him." 15But others said, "He is Elijah." And others said, "He is a prophet, like one of the prophets of old." 16But when Herod heard of it, he said, "John, whom I beheaded, has been raised." 17 For it was Herod who had sent and seized John and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, because he had married her. ¹⁸For John had been saving to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." 19 And Herodias had a grudge against him and wanted to put him to death. But she could not. 20 for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and he kept him safe. When he heard him, he was greatly perplexed, and yet he heard him gladly.

²¹But an opportunity came when Herod on his commanders and the leading men of Galilee. 22For when Herodias's daughter came in and danced. she pleased Herod and his guests. And the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you wish, and I will give it to you." ²³And he vowed to her, "Whatever you ask me, I will give you, up to half of mv kinadom." 24And she went out and said to her mother. "For what should I ask?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist." ²⁵And she came in immediately with haste to the king and asked, saving, "I want you to give me at once the head of John the Baptist on a platter." ²⁶And the king was exceedingly sorry, but because of his oaths and his guests he did not want to break his word to her. ²⁷And immediately the king sent an executioner with orders to bring John's [24] head. He went and beheaded him in the prison ²⁸ and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

30 The apostles returned to Jesus and told him all that they had done and taught. ³¹And he said to them. "Come away by yourselves to a desolate place and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. 32 And they went away in the boat to a desolate place by themselves. ³³Now many saw them going and recognized them, and they ran there on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. ³⁴When he went ashore he saw a great crowd, and he had compassion on them. because they were like sheep without a shepherd. And he began to teach them many things. 35And when it grew late, his disciples came to him and said, "This is a desolate place, and the hour is now late. ³⁶Send them away to go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat." ³⁷But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." And they said to him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii[25] worth of bread and give it to them to eat?" 38 And he said to two fish." ³⁹Then he commanded them all to sit down in groups on the green grass. ⁴⁰So they sat down in groups, by hundreds and by fifties. ⁴¹And taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven and said a blessing and broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples to set before the people. And he divided the two fish among them all. ⁴²And they all ate and were satisfied. ⁴³And they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. ⁴⁴And

45 Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat and go before him to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he dismissed the crowd, 46And after he had taken leave of them, he went up on the mountain to pray. 47 And when evening came, the boat was out on the sea, and he was alone on the land. 48 And he saw that they were making headway painfully, for the wind was against them. And about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea. He meant to pass by them, ⁴⁹but when they saw him walking on the sea they thought it was a ghost, and cried out, ⁵⁰ for they all saw him and were terrified. But immediately he spoke to them and said, "Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid." ⁵¹And he got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased. And they were utterly astounded. 52 for they did not understand about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

Jesus Heals the Sick in Gennesaret

⁵³When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret and moored to the shore. ⁵⁴And when they got out of the boat, the people immediately recognized him ⁵⁵and ran about the whole region and began to bring the sick people on their beds to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶And wherever he came, in villages, cities, or countryside, they laid the sick in the marketplaces and implored him that they might touch even the fringe of his garment. And as many as touched it were made well.

Traditions and Commandments

7:1 Now when the Pharisees gathered to him, with some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem. ²they saw that some of his disciples ate with hands that were defiled, that is, unwashed, ³(For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash [27] their hands, holding to the tradition of the elders, ⁴ and when they come from the marketplace, they do not eat unless they wash. [28] And there are many other traditions that they observe, such as the washing of cups and pots and copper vessels and dining couches. [29]) 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why do your disciples not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat with defiled hands?" ⁶And he said to them. "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

"'This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me; ⁷in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'

⁸You leave the commandment of God and hold to the tradition of men."

⁹And he said to them, "You have a fine way of rejecting the commandment of God in order to establish your tradition! ¹⁰For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'Whoever reviles father or mother must surely die.' ¹¹But you say, 'If a man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever you would have gained from me is Corban" (that is.

man tells his father or his mother, "Whatever you would have gained from me is Corban" (that is, given to God) 12 then you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or mother, 13 thus making void the word of God by your tradition that you have handed down. And many such things you do."

What Defiles a Person

¹⁴And he called the people to him again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand: 15There is nothing outside a person that by going into him can defile him, but the things that come out of a person are what defile him."[31] 17 And when he had entered the house and left the people, his disciples asked him about the parable. ¹⁸And he said to them, "Then are you also without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into a person from outside cannot defile him, 19 since it enters not his heart but his stomach, and is expelled?"[32] (Thus he declared all foods clean.) 20 And he said, "What comes out of a person is what defiles him. ²¹For from within, out of the heart of man, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, adultery, ²²coveting, wickedness, deceit, sensuality, envy, slander, pride, foolishness. ²³All these evil things come from within, and they defile a person."

The Syrophoenician Woman's Faith

²⁴And from there he arose and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon.[33] And he entered a house and did not want anyone to know, yet he could not be hidden. ²⁵But immediately a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him and came and fell down at his feet. ²⁶Now the woman was a Gentile, a Syrophoenician by birth. And she begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. ²⁷And he said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." ²⁸But she answered him. "Yes. Lord: yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." ²⁹And he said to her. "For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter." 30 And she went home and found the child lying in bed and the demon gone.

Jesus Heals a Deaf Man

³¹Then he returned from the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis. 32 And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him. 33And taking him aside from the crowd privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting touched his tongue. 34And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha." that is, "Be opened." 35 And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly. ³⁶And Jesus [34] charged them to tell no one. But the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it. ³⁷And they were astonished beyond measure, saving, "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

8:1 In those days, when again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat, he called his disciples to him and said to them. 2"I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat. ³And if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way. And some of them have come from far away." ⁴And his disciples answered him. "How can one feed these people with bread here in this desolate place?" ⁵And he asked them. "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven," ⁶And he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and they set them before the crowd. ⁷And they had a few small fish. And having blessed them, he said that these also should be set before them. ⁸And they ate and were satisfied. And they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full. ⁹And there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away. ¹⁰And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. ^[35]

The Pharisees Demand a Sign

¹¹The Pharisees came and began to argue with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven to test him. ¹²And he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly, I say to you, no sign will be given to this generation." ¹³And he left them, got into the boat again, and went to the other side.

The Leaven of the Pharisees and Herod

¹⁴Now they had forgotten to bring bread, and they had only one loaf with them in the boat. ¹⁵And he cautioned them, saying, "Watch out; beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."[36] ¹⁶And they began discussing with one another the fact that they had no bread. 17 And Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why are you discussing the fact that you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive or understand? Are your hearts hardened? ¹⁸Having eyes do you not see, and having ears do you not hear? And do you not remember? 19When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They said to him, "Twelve." 20"And the seven for the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" And they said to him, "Seven."

²¹And he said to them, "Do you not yet understand?"

Jesus Heals a Blind Man at Bethsaida

²²And thev came to Bethsaida. And some people brought to him a blind man and begged him to touch him. ²³And he took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village, and when he had spit on his eves and laid his hands on him, he asked him. "Do you see anything?" 24And he looked up and said, "I see men, but they look like trees, walking." ²⁵Then Jesus [37] laid his hands on his eyes again; and he opened his eyes, his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly. ²⁶And he sent him to his home, saying, "Do not even enter the village."

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

²⁷And Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the way he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that I am?" ²⁸And they told him, "John the Baptist; and others say, Elijah; and others, one of the prophets." ²⁹And he asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered him, "You are the Christ." ³⁰And he strictly charged them to tell no one about him.

Jesus Foretells His Death and Resurrection

³¹And he began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed, and after three days rise again. ³²And he said this plainly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. ³³But turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of man."
³⁴And calling the crowd to him with his disciples, he said to them, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. ³⁵For whoever would save his life ^[38] will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it. ³⁶For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world and forfeit his soul? ³⁷For what can a man give in return for his soul? ³⁸For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous

- and sinful generation, of him will the Son of Man also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."
- are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power."

The Transfiguration

²And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, ³ and his clothes became radiant, intensely white, as no one one on earth could bleach them. ⁴And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus. ⁵And Peter said to Jesus. "Rabbi, [40] it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." ⁶For he did not know what to say, for they were terrified. ⁷And a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son:[41] listen to him." 8And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them it is written of him."

Jesus Heals a Boy with an Unclean Spirit ¹⁴And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great crowd around them, and scribes arguing with them. ¹⁵And immediately all the crowd, when they saw him, were greatly amazed and ran up to him and greeted him. 16 And he asked them, "What are you arguing about with them?" 17And someone from the crowd answered him, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, for he has a spirit that makes him mute. ¹⁸And whenever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid. So I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they were not able." 19 And he answered them. "O faithless generation, how long am I to be with you? How long am I to bear with you? Bring him to me." 20 And they brought the boy to him. And when the spirit saw him, immediately it convulsed the boy, and he fell on the ground and rolled about, foaming at the mouth. ²¹And Jesus asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood. 22 And it has often cast him into fire and said to him, "'If you can'! All things are possible for one who believes." ²⁴Immediately the father of the child cried out [42] and said, "I believe; help my unbelief!" ²⁵And when Jesus saw that a crowd came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him and never enter him again."

²⁶And after crying out and convulsing him terribly, it came out, and the boy was like a corpse, so that into water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us and help us." ²³And Jesus

most of them said, "He is dead." ²⁷But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. ²⁸And when he had entered the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why could we not cast it out?" ²⁹And he said to them, "This kind cannot be driven out by anything but prayer." ^[43]

Jesus Again Foretells Death, Resurrection 30 They went on from there and passed through Galilee. And he did not want anyone to know, ³¹for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him. And when he is killed, after three days he will rise." ³²But they did not understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

Who Is the Greatest?

³³And thev came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you discussing on the way?" 34But they kept silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. ³⁵And he sat down and called the twelve. And he said to them, "If anyone would be first, he must be last of all and servant of all." 36 And he took a child and put him in the midst of them. and taking him in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷ "Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me. and whoever receives me, receives not me but him who sent me."

Anyone Not Against Us Is for Us

³⁸John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, [44] and we tried to stop him, because he was not following us." ³⁹But Jesus said, "Do not stop him, for no one who does a mighty work in my name will be able soon afterward to speak evil of me. ⁴⁰For the one who is not against us is for us. ⁴¹For truly, I say to you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ will by no means lose his reward.

Temptations to Sin

42"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin. [45] it would be better for him if a great millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. ⁴³And if your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life crippled than with two hands to go to hell. [46] to the unquenchable fire. [47] 45 And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter life lame than with two feet to be thrown into hell. 47 And if your eve causes you to sin, tear it out. It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into hell, 48' where their worm does not die and the fire is not quenched.' 49 For evervone will be salted with fire. [48] 50 Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, how will you make it salty again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Teaching About Divorce

- 10:1 And he left there and went to the region of Judea and beyond the Jordan, and crowds gathered to him again. And again, as was his custom, he taught them.
- ²And Pharisees came up and in order to test him asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?" ³He answered them, "What did Moses command vou?" ⁴They said. "Moses allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce and to send her away." 5And Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment. ⁶But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 7'Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, [49] 8 and the two shall become one flesh.' So they are no longer two but one flesh. ⁹What therefore God has joined together, let not man separate."
- ¹⁰And in the house the disciples asked him again about this matter. ¹¹And he said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her, ¹²and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Let the Children Come to Me

¹³And they were bringing children to him that he might touch them, and the disciples rebuked them.
¹⁴But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God.
¹⁵Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it." ¹⁶And he took them in his arms and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

The Rich Young Man

¹⁷And as he was setting out on his journey, a man ran up and knelt before him and asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" 18 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. 19 You know the commandments: 'Do not murder, Do not commit adultery, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Do not defraud, Honor your father and mother." 20 And he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have kept from my youth." ²¹And Jesus, looking at him, loved him. and said to him, "You lack one thing: go, sell all that you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me."

²²Disheartened by the saying, he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions.

²³And Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How difficult it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" ²⁴And the disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus said enter the kingdom of God." ²⁶And they were exceedingly astonished, and said to him, ^[51] "Then who can be saved?" ²⁷Jesus looked at them and said, "With man it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God." ²⁸Peter began to say to him, "See, we have left everything and followed you." ²⁹Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands, for my sake and to them again, "Children, how difficult it is [50] to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to

Jesus Foretells His Death a Third Time

³²And they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. And they were amazed, and those who followed were afraid. And taking the twelve again, he began to tell them what was to happen to him, ³³saying, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and deliver him over to the Gentiles. ³⁴And they will mock him and spit on him, and flog him and kill him. And after three days he will rise."

The Request of James and John

³⁵And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came up to him and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." 36And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?" 37 And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." 38 Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" ³⁹And they said to him, "We are able." And Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized, 40 but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." 41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be indignant at James and John. 42And Jesus called them to him and said to them, "You know that those who are considered rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. ⁴³But it shall not be so must be your servant, [52] 44 and whoever would be first among you must be slave [53] of all. 45 For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

Jesus Heals Blind Bartimaeus

⁴⁶And they came to Jericho. And as he was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a great crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the roadside. ⁴⁷And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁸And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" ⁴⁹And Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart. Get up; he is calling you." ⁵⁰And throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. ⁵¹And Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" And the blind man said to him, "Rabbi, let me recover my sight." ⁵²And Jesus said to him, "Go your way; your faith has made you well." And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him on the way.

The Triumphal Entry

11:1 Now when they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus [54] sent two of his disciples ² and said to them. "Go into the village in front of you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Until it and bring it. 3 If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say. 'The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately." ⁴And they went away and found a colt tied at a door outside in the street, and they untied it. ⁵And some of those standing there said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" ⁶And they told them what Jesus had said, and they let them go. ⁷And they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it. 8And many spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut from the fields. 9And those who went before and those who followed were shouting, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! 10 Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!"

11 And he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple. And when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Jesus Curses the Fig Tree

¹²On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. ¹³And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. ¹⁴And he said to it. "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

¹⁵And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. ¹⁶And he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple. ¹⁷And he was teaching them and saving to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers." 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and were seeking a way to destroy him, for they feared him, because all the crowd was astonished at his teaching. ¹⁹And when evening came thev[55] went out of the city.

The Lesson from the Withered Fig Tree

²⁰As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. 21 And Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered." 22 And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God. 23Truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Be taken up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says will come to pass, it will be done for him. ²⁴Therefore I tell vou. whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received[56] it, and it will be yours. ²⁵And whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone, so that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses."[57]

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

²⁷And they came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came to him, ²⁸ and they said to him, "By what authority are you doing these things, or who gave you this authority to do them?" 29 Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question; answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 Was the baptism of John from heaven or from man? Answer me." 31 And they discussed it with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why then did you not believe him?' 32But shall we say, 'From man'?"—they were afraid of the people, for they all held that John really was a prophet. 33So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

man planted a vineyard and put a fence around it and dug a pit for the winepress and built a tower, and leased it to tenants and went into another country. ²When the season came, he sent a servant^[58] to the tenants to get from them some of the fruit of the vineyard. ³And they took him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ⁴Again he sent to them another servant, and they struck him on the head and treated him shamefully. ⁵And he sent another, and him they killed. And so with many others: some they beat, and some they killed. ⁶He had still one other, a beloved son. Finally he sent him to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' ⁷But those tenants said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' ⁸And they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard. ⁹What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the tenants and give the vineyard to others. ¹⁰Have you not read

"The stone that the builders rejected

this Scripture:

has become the cornerstone; ^[59]

11 this was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"

¹²And they were seeking to arrest him but feared the people, for they perceived that he had told the parable against them. So they left him and went away.

Paying Taxes to Caesar

¹³And thev sent to him some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians, to trap him in his talk. 14And they came and said to him, "Teacher, we know that you are true and do not care about anyone's opinion. For you are not swayed by appearances. [60] but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? Should we pay them, or should we not?" 15But. knowing their hypocrisy, he said to them, "Why put me to the test? Bring me a denarius [61] and let me look at it." 16 And they brought one. And he said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?" They said to him, "Caesar's." 17 Jesus said to them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they marveled at him.

The Sadducees Ask About the Resurrection

¹⁸And Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no resurrection. And they asked him a question, saying, 19"Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves a wife, but leaves no child. the man^[62] must take the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁰There were seven brothers; the first took a wife, and when he died left no offspring. ²¹And the second took her, and died, leaving no offspring. And the third likewise. 22And the seven left no offspring. Last of all the woman also died. ²³In the resurrection, when they rise again, whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as being raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'? ²⁷He is not God of the dead, but of the living. You are quite wrona."

²⁴Jesus said to them, "Is this not the reason you are wrong, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God? ²⁵For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. ²⁶And as for the dead

The Great Commandment

²⁸And one of the scribes came up and heard them

disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?" ²⁹Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. ³⁰And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' 31The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 And the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher. You have truly said that he is one, and there is no other besides him. 33And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." 34And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him. "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And after that no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Christ?

³⁵And as Jesus taught in the temple, he said, "How can the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? ³⁶David himself, in the Holy Spirit, declared,

Sit at my right hand, until I put your enemies under your feet.'

"The Lord said to my Lord,

³⁷David himself calls him Lord. So how is he his son?" And the great throng heard him gladly.

Beware of the Scribes

³⁸And in his teaching he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes and like greetings in the marketplaces ³⁹and have the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, ⁴⁰who devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

The Widow's Offering

⁴¹And he sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the offering box. Many rich people put in large sums. ⁴²And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which make a penny. ^[63] ⁴³And he called his disciples to him and said to them, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the offering box. ⁴⁴For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

Jesus Foretells Destruction of the Temple

13:1 And as he came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what wonderful stones and what wonderful buildings!"

2And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down."

Signs of the Close of the Age

³And as he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, 4"Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are about to be accomplished?" ⁵And Jesus began to say to them, "See that no one leads you astray. ⁶Many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. ⁷And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. This must take place, but the end is not vet. 8For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places: there will be famines. These are but the beginning of the birth pains.

⁹"But be on your guard. For they will deliver you over to councils, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them. ¹⁰And the gospel must first be proclaimed to all nations. ¹¹And when whatever is given you in that hour, for it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit. ¹²And brother will deliver brother over to death, and the father his child, and children will rise against parents and have them put to death. ¹³And you will be hated by all for my name's sake. But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

they bring you to trial and deliver you over, do not be anxious beforehand what you are to say, but say

The Abomination of Desolation

14"But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not to be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. ¹⁵Let the one who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter his house, to take anything out, 16 and let the one who is in the field not turn back to take his cloak. 17 And alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! 18 Pray that it may not happen in winter. ¹⁹For in those days there will be such tribulation as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, and never will be. ²⁰And if the Lord had not cut short the days, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he shortened the days. 21 And then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'Look, there he is!' do not believe it. 22 For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect. ²³But be on guard; I have told you all things

The Coming of the Son of Man

²⁴"But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, ²⁵and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. ²⁶And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. ²⁷And then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

²⁸"From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts out its leaves, you know that summer is near. ²⁹So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. ³⁰Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things take place. ³¹Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

No One Knows That Day or Hour

32"But concerning that day or that hour, no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. ³³Be on guard, keep awake. [64] For you do not know when the time will come. 34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his servants [65] in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to stay awake. 35Therefore stay awake—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows. 66 or in the morning— 36 lest he come suddenly and find you asleep. ³⁷And what I say to you I say to all: Stay awake."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

14:1 It was now two days before the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to arrest him by stealth and kill him, ²for they said, "Not during the feast, lest there be an uproar from the people."

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

³And while he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper. [67] as he was reclining at table, a woman came with an alabaster flask of ointment of pure nard, very costly, and she broke the flask and poured it over his head. ⁴There were some who said to themselves indignantly, "Why was the ointment wasted like that? ⁵For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii [68] and given to the poor." And they scolded her. ⁶But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. ⁷For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want, you can do good for them. But you will not always have me. 8She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for burial. 9And truly, I say to you, wherever the gospel is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in memory of her."

Judas to Betray Jesus

10 Then Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went to the chief priests in order to betray him to them. ¹¹And when they heard it, they were glad and promised to give him money. And he sought an opportunity to betray him.

The Passover with the Disciples

¹²And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, his disciples said to him, "Where will you have us go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" ¹³And he sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him, ¹⁴and wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?'
¹⁵And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready; there prepare for us." ¹⁶And the disciples

¹⁷And when it was evening, he came with the twelve.
¹⁸And as they were reclining at table and eating,
Jesus said, "Truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me, one who is eating with me." ¹⁹They began to be sorrowful and to say to him one after another, "Is it I?"
²⁰He said to them. "It is one of the twelve, one who is dipping bread into the dish with me. ²¹For the Son of Man goes as it is written of him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

Institution of the Lord's Supper

²²And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." 23And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. 24 And he said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. 25 Truly, I say to you, I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Jesus Foretells Peter's Denial

²⁶And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. ²⁷And Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' ²⁸But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee." ²⁹Peter said to him, "Even though they all fall away, I will not." ³⁰And Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." ³¹But he said emphatically, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." And they all said the same.

Jesus Prays in Gethsemane

32 And they went to a place called Gethsemane. And he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." 33 And he took with him Peter and James and John, and began to be greatly distressed and troubled. 34And he said to them, "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death. Remain here and watch." [70] 35 And going a little farther, he fell on the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. ³⁶And he said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will." 37And he came and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Could you not watch one hour? 38Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." 39 And again he went away and prayed, saying the same words. 40 And again he came and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they did not know what to answer him. 41 And he came the third time and said to them, "Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? It is enough; the hour has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. ⁴²Rise, let us be going; see, my betrayer is at hand."

Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

⁴³And immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas came, one of the twelve, and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. 44Now the betraver had given them a sign, saving, "The one I will kiss is the man. Seize him and lead him away under guard." 45 And when he came, he went up to him at once and said, "Rabbi!" And he kissed him. 46 And they laid hands on him and seized him. 47But one of those who stood by drew his sword and struck the servant^[71] of the high priest and cut off his ear. 48 And Jesus said to them, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs to capture me? 49 Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching, and you did not seize me. But let the Scriptures be fulfilled." 50 And they all left him and fled.

A Young Man Flees

And a young man followed him, with nothing but a linen cloth about his body. And they seized him, but he left the linen cloth and ran away naked.

Jesus Before the Council

⁵³And thev led Jesus to the high priest. And all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes came together. 54 And Peter had followed him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the high priest. And he was sitting with the guards and warming himself at the fire. 55 Now the chief priests and the whole Council were seeking testimony against Jesus to put him to death, but they found none. ⁵⁶For many bore false witness against him, but their testimony did not agree. ⁵⁷And some stood up and bore false witness against him, saying, 58"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another, not made with hands." 59Yet even about this their testimony did not agree. 60 And the high priest stood up in the midst and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer to make? What is it that these men testify against you?"[73] 61 But he remained silent and made no answer. Again the high priest asked him, "Are vou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?" 62 And the clouds of heaven." ⁶³And the high priest tore his garments and said, "What further witnesses do we need? ⁶⁴You have heard his blasphemy. What is your decision?" And they all condemned him as deserving death. ⁶⁵And some began to spit on him and to cover his face and to strike him, saying to him, "Prophesy!" And the guards received him with blows.

Jesus said, "I am, and you will see the Son of Man seated at the right hand of Power, and coming with

Peter Denies Jesus

⁶⁶And as Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came. ⁶⁷ and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him and said, "You also were with the Nazarene, Jesus." ⁶⁸But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you mean." And he went out into the gateway and the rooster crowed. [75] 69 And the servant girl saw him and began again to say to the bystanders, "This man is one of them." 70 But again he denied it. And after a little while the bystanders again said to Peter, "Certainly you are one of them, for you are a Galilean." 71But he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know this man of whom you speak." 72 And immediately the rooster crowed a second time. And Peter remembered how Jesus had said to him. "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." And he broke down and wept. [76]

Jesus Delivered to Pilate

15:1 And as soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole Council. And they bound Jesus and led him away and delivered him over to Pilate. ²And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so." ³And the chief priests accused him of many things. ⁴And Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer to make? See how many charges they bring things. ⁴And Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer to make? See how many charges they bring against you." ⁵But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed.

Pilate Delivers Jesus to Be Crucified

⁶Now at the feast he used to release for them one prisoner for whom they asked. ⁷And among the rebels in prison, who had committed murder in the insurrection, there was a man called Barabbas. ⁸And the crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do as he usually did for them. ⁹And he answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?" 10 For he perceived that it was out of envy that the chief priests had delivered him up. ¹¹But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release for them Barabbas instead. 12And Pilate again said to them, "Then what shall I do with the man you call the King of the Jews?" 13 And they cried out again, "Crucify him." 14 And Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they shouted all the more, "Crucify him." 15 So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released for them Barabbas, and having scourged [77] Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

Jesus Is Mocked

¹⁶And the soldiers led him away inside the palace (that is, the governor's headquarters), ^[78] and they called together the whole battalion. ^[79] ¹⁷And they clothed him in a purple cloak, and twisting together a crown of thorns, they put it on him. ¹⁸And they began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" ¹⁹And they were striking his head with a reed and spitting on him and kneeling down in homage to him. ²⁰And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple cloak and put his own clothes on him. And they led him out to crucify him.

who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. 22 And they brought him to the place called Golgotha (which means Place of a Skull). 23And they offered him wine mixed with myrrh, but he did not take it. 24And they crucified him and divided his garments among them, casting lots for them, to decide what each should take. ²⁵And it was the third hour when they crucified him. ²⁶And the inscription of the charge against him read, "The King of the Jews." 27 And with him they crucified two robbers, one on his right and one on his left. [81] 29 And those who passed by derided him, wagging their heads and saying, "Aha! You who would destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, ³⁰ save yourself, and come down from the cross!" 31So also the chief priests with the scribes mocked him to one another, saying, "He saved others; he cannot save himself. 32Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross that

The Death of Jesus

³³And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. [83] ³⁴And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice. "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" 35And some of the bystanders hearing it said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah." 36 And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down." 37 And Jesus uttered a loud cry and breathed his last. ³⁸And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. 39And when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that

Jesus Is Buried

42 And when evening had come, since it was the day of Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 Joseph of Arimathea, a respected member of the Council, who was also himself looking for the kingdom of God, took courage and went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 44Pilate was surprised to hear that he should have already died. [86] And summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he was already dead. 45And when he learned from the centurion that he was dead, he granted the corpse to Joseph. 46And Joseph [87] bought a linen shroud, and taking him down. wrapped him in the linen shroud and laid him in a tomb that had been cut out of the rock. And he rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb. 47 Marv Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw where he was laid.

The Resurrection

16:1 When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. ²And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb, ³And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?" ⁴And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. ⁵And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. ⁶And he said to them, "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. ⁷But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you." ⁸And they went out and fled from the tomb, for

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

⁹[[Now when he rose early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. ¹⁰She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. ¹¹But when they heard that he was alive and had been seen by her, they would not believe it.

The Great Commission

14 Afterward he appeared to the eleven themselves as they were reclining at table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who saw him after he had risen. 15 And he said to them, "Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. ¹⁶Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned. ¹⁷And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak in new tongues; 18they will pick up serpents with their hands; and if they drink any deadly poison, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will recover."

19So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. ²⁰And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs.]]

Dedication to Theophilus

1:1 Inasmuch as many have undertaken to compile a narrative of the things that have been accomplished among us, ²just as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word have delivered them to us, ³it seemed good to me also, having followed all things closely for some time past, to write an orderly account for you, most excellent Theophilus, ⁴that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught.

Birth of John the Baptist Foretold

⁵In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah, ^[1] of the division of Abijah. And he had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. ⁶And they were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and statutes of the Lord. ⁷But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and both were advanced in years.

⁸Now while he was serving as priest before God when his division was on duty, ⁹according to the custom of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense. ¹⁰And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. ¹¹And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. ¹²And Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. ¹³But the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zechariah, for your prayer has been heard, gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, ¹⁵for he will be great before the Lord. And he must not drink wine or strong drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. ¹⁶And he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God, ¹⁷and he will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready for the Lord a people prepared."

¹⁸And Zechariah said to the angel, "How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. ¹⁴And you will have joy and in years." ¹⁹And the angel answered him, "I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I was sent to speak to you and to bring you this good news. ²⁰And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak until the day that these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time." ²¹And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and they were wondering at his delay

Birth of Jesus Foretold

²⁶In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee named Nazareth, 27 to a virgin betrothed [2] to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. And the virgin's name was Marv. ²⁸And he came to her and said. "Greetings, O favored one, the Lord is with you!" [3] ²⁹But she was greatly troubled at the saying, and tried to discern what sort of greeting this might be. 30 And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31 And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. 32He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, 33 and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

³⁴And Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I am a virgin?" [4]

Mary Visits Elizabeth

³⁹In those days Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town in Judah, 40 and she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹And when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the baby leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, 42 and she exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! 43And why is this granted to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? 44For behold, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy. 45 And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her from the Lord."

Mary's Song of Praise: The Magnificat

- ⁴⁶And Mary said,
- "My soul magnifies the Lord,

 47 and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior,
- ⁴⁸for he has looked on the humble estate of his servant
- For behold, from now on all generations will call me blessed:

The Birth of John the Baptist

⁵⁷Now the time came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she bore a son. ⁵⁸And her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her. and they rejoiced with her. ⁵⁹And on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child. And they would have called him Zechariah after his father. 60 but his mother answered. "No: he shall be called John." ⁶¹And they said to her, "None of your relatives is called by this name." 62 And they made signs to his father, inquiring what he wanted him to be called. ⁶³And he asked for a writing tablet and wrote, "His name is John." And they all wondered. 64And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, blessing God. 65And fear came on all their neighbors. And all these things were talked about through all the hill country of Judea, ⁶⁶ and all who heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, "What then will this child be?" For the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zechariah's Prophecy

- ⁶⁷And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied, saying,
- for he has visited and redeemed his people 69 and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,
- ⁷⁰as he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets from of old.
- 71 that we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us:

The Birth of Jesus Christ

2:1 In those days a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration when ^[9] Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³And all went to be registered. each to his own town. ⁴And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the town of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, ⁵to be registered with Mary, his betrothed. [10] who was with child. ⁶And while they were there, the time came for her to give birth. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in swaddling cloths and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

- ⁸And in the same region there were shepherds out in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹And an angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were filled with fear. ¹⁰And the angel said to them, "Fear not, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. ¹¹For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. 12 And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger." 13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and them in her heart. ²⁰And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

21 And at the end of eight days, when he was circumcised, he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Jesus Presented at the Temple

²²And when the time came for their purification according to the Law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord 23(as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every male who first opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord") ²⁴and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons." ²⁵Now there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon, and this man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. ²⁶And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ. 27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple, and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him according to the custom of the Law, ²⁸he took him up in his arms and blessed God and said,

²⁹"Lord, now you are letting your servant^[12] depart in peace.

³³And his father and his mother marveled at what was said about him. ³⁴And Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, "Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed ³⁵(and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed."

³⁶And there was a prophetess, Anna, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with her husband seven years from when she was a virgin, ³⁷and then as a widow until she was eighty-four. ^[13] She did not depart from the temple, worshiping with fasting and prayer night and day. ³⁸And coming up at that very hour she began to give thanks to God and to speak of him to all who were waiting for the redemption of Jerusalem.

The Return to Nazareth

³⁹And when they had performed everything according to the Law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. ⁴⁰And the child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom. And the favor of God was upon him.

The Boy Jesus in the Temple

⁴¹Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover. 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up according to custom. 43 And when the feast was ended, as they were returning, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents did not know it, 44but supposing him to be in the group they went a day's journey, but then they began to search for him among their relatives and acquaintances, 45 and when they did not find him, they returned to Jerusalem, searching for him. ⁴⁶After three days they found him in the temple, sitting among the teachers, listening to them and asking them guestions. 47 And all who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. ⁴⁸And when his parents^[14] saw him, they were astonished. And his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us so? Behold, your father and I have been searching for you in great distress." ⁴⁹And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's repentance for the forgiveness of sins. ⁴As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, you to flee from the wrath to come? 8Bear fruits in keeping with repentance. And do not begin to say to vourselves. 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children for Abraham. ⁹Even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. The Temptation of Jesus

- 4:1 And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness ²for forty days, being tempted by the devil. And he ate nothing during those days. And when they were ended, he was hungry. ³The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread." ⁴And Jesus answered him "It is written. 'Man shall not live by bread alone."

Jesus Begins His Ministry

14And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and a report about him went out through all the surrounding country. ¹⁵And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

- ¹⁶And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. And as was his custom, he went to the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and he stood up to read. ¹⁷And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written,
- 18"The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
 He has sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives
- and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, ¹⁹to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."
- ²⁰And he rolled up the scroll and gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹And he began to say to them, "Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing." ²²And all spoke well of him and marveled at the gracious words that were coming

What we have heard you did at Capernaum, do here in your hometown as well." ²⁴And he said, "Truly, I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. ²⁵But in truth, I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heavens were shut up three years and six months, and a great famine came over all the land, ²⁶and Elijah was sent to none of them but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. ²⁷And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, and none of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." ²⁸When they heard these things, all in the synagogue were filled with wrath. ²⁹And they rose up and drove him out of the town and brought him to the brow of the hill on which their town was built, so that they could throw him down the cliff. ³⁰But passing through their midst, he went away.

Jesus Heals a Man with an Unclean Demon

³¹And he went down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. And he was teaching them on the Sabbath, 32 and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word possessed authority. ³³And in the synagogue there was a man who had the spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice. 34"Ha! [23] What have you to do with us. Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God." 35But Jesus rebuked him, saving, "Be silent and come out of him!" And when the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm, ³⁶And they were all amazed and said to one another. "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" ³⁷And reports about him went out into every place in the surrounding region.

Jesus Heals Many

³⁸And he arose and left the synagogue and entered Simon's house. Now Simon's mother-in-law was ill with a high fever, and they appealed to him on her behalf. ³⁹And he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her, and immediately she rose and began to serve them.

⁴⁰Now when the sun was setting, all those who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to him, and he laid his hands on every one of them and healed them. ⁴¹And demons also came out of many, crying, "You are the Son of God!" But he rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.

Jesus Preaches in Synagogues

⁴²And when it was day, he departed and went into a desolate place. And the people sought him and came to him, and would have kept him from leaving them, ⁴³but he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other towns as well; for I was sent for this purpose." ⁴⁴And he was preaching in the synagogues of Judea. ^[24]

Jesus Calls the First Disciples 5:1 On one occasion, while the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret, ²and he saw two boats by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³Getting into one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from the land. And he sat down and taught the people from the boat. ⁴And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch." ⁵And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and took nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets."

⁶And when they had done this, they enclosed a large number of fish, and their nets were breaking. ⁷They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." ⁹For

he and all who were with him were astonished at the James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." ¹¹And when they had brought their boats to land, they left everything and followed him.

Jesus Cleanses a Leper

12While he was in one of the cities, there came a man full of leprosy. [25] And when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged him, "Lord, if you will, you can make me clean." 13And Jesus 26 stretched out his hand and touched him, saying, "I will; be clean." And immediately the leprosy left him. ¹⁴And he charged him to tell no one, but "go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as Moses commanded, for a proof to them." 15 But now even more the report about him went abroad, and great crowds gathered to hear him and to be healed of their infirmities. ¹⁶But he would withdraw to desolate places and pray.

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

¹⁷On one of those days, as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there. who had come from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was with him to heal. [27] 18 And behold, some men were bringing on a bed a man who was paralyzed, and they were seeking to bring him in and lay him before Jesus, ¹⁹but finding no way to bring him in, because of the crowd, they went up on the roof and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before Jesus. ²⁰And when he saw their faith, he said, "Man, your sins are forgiven you." ²¹And the scribes and the Pharisees began to question, saving, "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?" ²²When Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answered them, "Why do you question in your hearts? 23Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'? 24But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on

Jesus Calls Levi

- ²⁷After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. And he said to him, "Follow me." ²⁸And leaving everything, he rose and followed him.
- ²⁹And Levi made him a great feast in his house, and there was a large company of tax collectors and others reclining at table with them. ³⁰And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled at his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" ³¹And Jesus answered them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. ³²I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."

A Question About Fasting

³³And they said to him, "The disciples of John fast often and offer prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink." 34And Jesus said to them, "Can you make wedding guests fast while the bridegroom is with them? ³⁵The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in those days." 36He also told them a parable: "No one tears a piece from a new garment and puts it on an old garment. If he does, he will tear the new, and the piece from the new will not match the old. ³⁷And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the skins and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. ³⁸But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins. ³⁹And no one after drinking old wine desires new, for he says, 'The old is good." [28]

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

6:1 On a Sabbath, ^[29] while he was going through the grainfields, his disciples plucked and ate some heads of grain, rubbing them in their hands. ²But some of the Pharisees said, "Why are you doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?" ³And Jesus answered them, "Have you not read what David did answered them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him: ⁴how he entered the house of God and took and ate the bread of the Presence, which is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and also gave it to those with him?" ⁵And he said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."

A Man with a Withered Hand

⁶On another Sabbath, he entered the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was withered. ⁷And the scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, so that they might find a reason to accuse him. ⁸But he knew their thoughts, and he said to the man with the withered hand, "Come and stand here." And he rose and stood there. 9And Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save life or to destroy it?" 10 And after looking around at them all he said to him, "Stretch out your hand." And he did so, and his hand was restored. 11 But they were filled with fury and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

¹²In these days he went out to the mountain to pray, and all night he continued in prayer to God. ¹³And when day came, he called his disciples and chose from them twelve, whom he named apostles: ¹⁴Simon, whom he named Peter, and Andrew his brother, and James and John, and Philip, and Bartholomew, ¹⁵and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon who was called the Zealot, ¹⁶ and Judas the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Jesus Ministers to a Great Multitude

¹⁷And he came down with them and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, ¹⁸who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. And those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. ¹⁹And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came out from him and healed them all.

The Beatitudes

²⁰And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said:

"Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the

- kingdom of God.

 21"Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you shall
- be satisfied.
- "Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh.
- ²²"Blessed are you when people hate you and when they exclude you and revile you and spurn your name as evil, on account of the Son of Man! ²³Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets.

Jesus Pronounces Woes

Love Your Enemies

²⁷"But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, ²⁸bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. ²⁹To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic ^[30] either. ³⁰Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. ³¹And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them.

³²"If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
³³And if you do good to those who do good to you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
³⁴And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to get back the same amount.
³⁵But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return, and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High, for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil. ³⁶Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

Judging Others

37"Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; ³⁸give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you."

³⁹He also told them a parable: "Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? ⁴⁰A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. 41Whv do you see the speck that is in your brother's eve. but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? 42 How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,' when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye. and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eve.

A Tree and Its Fruit

43"For no good tree bears bad fruit, nor again does a bad tree bear good fruit. 44 for each tree is known by its own fruit. For figs are not gathered from thornbushes, nor are grapes picked from a bramble bush. 45The good person out of the good treasure of his heart produces good, and the evil person out of his evil treasure produces evil, for out of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaks.

Build Your House on the Rock

46"Why do you call me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do what I tell vou? ⁴⁷Evervone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what he is like: 48 he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid the foundation on the rock. And when a flood arose, the stream broke against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built.[31] 49But the one who hears and does not do them is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the stream broke against it, immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

a centurion had a servant[32] who was sick and at the point of death, who was highly valued by him. ³When the centurion[33] heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and heal his servant. ⁴And when they came to Jesus, they pleaded with him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy to have you do this for him. ⁵ for he loves our nation, and he is the one who built us our synagogue." ⁶And Jesus went with them. When he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to him, "Lord, do not trouble yourself, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof. ⁷Therefore I did not presume to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. 8For I too am a man set under authority, with soldiers under me: and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

9When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turning to the crowd that followed him, said, "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found such faith."

10 And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the servant well.

Jesus Raises a Widow's Son

¹¹Soon afterward ^[34] he went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a great crowd went with him. ¹²As he drew near to the gate of the town, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow, and a considerable crowd from the town was with her. ¹³And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." 14 Then he came up and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." 15 And the dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus [35] gave him to his mother. 16 Fear seized them all, and they glorified God, saving, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited his people!" ¹⁷And this report about him spread through the whole of Judea and all the surrounding country.

¹⁸The disciples of John reported all these things to him. And John, ¹⁹calling two of his disciples to him. sent them to the Lord, saying, "Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" 20 And when the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you the one who is to come, or shall we look for another?" 21 In that hour he healed many people of diseases and plagues and evil spirits, and on many who were blind he bestowed sight. 22 And he answered them. "Go and tell John what you have seen and heard: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers [36] are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up.

A Sinful Woman Forgiven

³⁶One of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went into the Pharisee's house and took his place at the table. ³⁷And behold, a woman of the city, who was a sinner, when she learned that he was reclining at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster flask of ointment, ³⁸and standing behind him at his feet, weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head and kissed his feet and anointed them with the ointment. ³⁹Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would have known who and what sort of sinner." ⁴⁰And Jesus answering said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he answered, "Say it, Teacher."

But he who is forgiven little, loves little." ⁴⁸And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven." ⁴⁹Then those who were at table with him began to say among^[39] themselves, "Who is this, who even forgives sins?" ⁵⁰And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Women Accompanying Jesus

8:1 Soon afterward he went on through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God. And the twelve were with him, ² and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, ³ and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's household manager, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them [40] out of their means.

The Parable of the Sower

⁴And when a great crowd was gathering and people from town after town came to him, he said in a parable: ⁵"A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the air devoured it. ⁶And some fell on the rock, and as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. ⁷And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. ⁸And some fell into good soil and grew and yielded a hundredfold." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

The Purpose of the Parables

⁹And when his disciples asked him what this parable meant. 10 he said. "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of God, but for others they are in parables, so that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand. 11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. ¹²The ones along the path are those who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not believe and be saved. 13 And the ones on the rock are those who, when they hear the word, receive it with iov. But these have no root; they believe for a while, and in time of testing fall away. 14 And as for what fell among the thorns, they are those who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not mature. 15 As for that in the good soil, they are those who, hearing the word, hold it fast in an honest and good heart, and bear fruit with patience.

A Lamp Under a Jar

16"No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. ¹⁷For nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come to light. ¹⁸Take care then how you hear, for to the one who has, more will be given, and from the one who has not, even what he thinks that he has will be taken awav."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

¹⁹Then his mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not reach him because of the crowd.
²⁰And he was told, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, desiring to see you." ²¹But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who hear the word of God and do it."

Jesus Calms a Storm

²²One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, "Let us go across to the other side of the lake." So they set out, 23 and as they sailed he fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling with water and were in danger. ²⁴And they went and woke him, saying, "Master, Master, we are perishing!" And he awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging waves, and they ceased, and there was a calm. ²⁵He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were afraid, and they marveled, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that he commands even winds and water, and they obev him?"

Jesus Heals a Man with a Demon

²⁶Then they sailed to the country of the

Gerasenes. [41] which is opposite Galilee. 27When Jesus [42] had stepped out on land, there met him a man from the city who had demons. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he had not lived in a house but among the tombs. ²⁸When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him and said with a loud voice. "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me." ²⁹ For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many a time it had seized him. He was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the desert.) 30 Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Legion," for many demons had entered him. 31 And they begged him not to command them to depart into the abyss. 32 Now a large herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to let them enter these. So he gave them permission.

34When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and in the country. ³⁵Then people went out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had gone, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. ³⁶And those who had seen it told them how the demon-possessed[43] man had been healed. 37Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked him to depart from them, for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. 38 The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39"Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." And he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city how much Jesus had done for him.

Jesus Heals a Woman and Jairus's Daughter

⁴⁰Now when Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. ⁴¹And there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler of the synagogue. And falling at Jesus' feet, he implored him to come to his house, ⁴²for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying.

As Jesus went, the people pressed around him.

⁴³And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, and though she had spent all her living on physicians, ^[44] she could not be healed by anyone. ⁴⁴She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his garment, and immediately her discharge of blood ceased. ⁴⁵And Jesus said, "Who was it that touched me?" When all denied it, Peter ^[45] said, "Master, the crowds surround you and are pressing in on you!" ⁴⁶But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I perceive that power has gone out from me." ⁴⁷And when the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. ⁴⁸And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace."

49While he was still speaking, someone from the ruler's house came and said, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the Teacher any more." 50But Jesus on hearing this answered him, "Do not fear; only believe, and she will be well." 51 And when he came to the house, he allowed no one to enter with him, except Peter and John and James, and the father and mother of the child. 52 And all were weeping and mourning for her, but he said, "Do not weep, for she is not dead but sleeping." 53And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead, ⁵⁴But taking her by the hand he called, saying, "Child, arise." 55 And her spirit returned, and she got up at once. And he directed that something should be

9:1 And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, ² and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. ³ And he said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor maney, and do not have two tunies. ^[46]

"Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics. [46]

And whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them." And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere.

Herod Is Perplexed by Jesus

⁷Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening, and he was perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead. 8by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the prophets of old had risen. ⁹Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this about whom I hear such things?" And he sought to see him.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

¹⁰On their return the apostles told him all that they had done. And he took them and withdrew apart to a town called Bethsaida. 11When the crowds learned it, they followed him, and he welcomed them and spoke to them of the kingdom of God and cured those who had need of healing. 12 Now the day began to wear away, and the twelve came and said to him. "Send the crowd away to go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find lodging and get provisions, for we are here in a desolate place." 13But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said. "We have no more than five loaves and two fish-unless we are to go and buy food for all these people." 14 For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, "Have them sit down in groups of about fifty each." 15 And they did so, and had them all sit down. 16 And taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing over them. Then he broke the loaves and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. ¹⁷And they all ate and were satisfied. And what was left over was

Peter Confesses Jesus as the Christ

¹⁸Now it happened that as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him. And he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" ¹⁹And they answered, "John the Baptist. But others say, Elijah, and others, that one of the prophets of old has risen." ²⁰Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered. "The Christ of God."

Jesus Foretells His Death

²¹And he strictly charged and commanded them to tell this to no one, ²²saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised."

Take Up Your Cross and Follow Jesus 23 And he said to all, "If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. ²⁴For whoever would save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

²⁵For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses or forfeits himself? ²⁶For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. ²⁷But I tell you truly, there are some standing here who will not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

²⁸Now about eight days after these sayings he took with him Peter and John and James and went up on the mountain to pray. ²⁹And as he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became dazzling white. 30 And behold, two men were talking with him, Moses and Elijah, 31 who appeared in glory and spoke of his departure, 47 which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they became fully awake they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. 33And as the men were parting from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here. Let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah"—not knowing what he said. 34As he was saying these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered the cloud. 35 And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my Son, my Chosen One: [48] listen to him!" ³⁶And when the voice had spoken.

Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen.

Jesus Heals a Boy with an Unclean Spirit

³⁷On the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, a great crowd met him. ³⁸And behold. a man from the crowd cried out, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. 39 And behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out. It convulses him so that he foams at the mouth, and shatters him, and will hardly leave him. 40 And I begged your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." 41 Jesus answered. "O faithless and twisted generation, how long am I to be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here." 42While he was coming, the demon threw him to the ground and convulsed him. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. ⁴³And all were astonished at the majesty of God.

Jesus Again Foretells His Death

But while they were all marveling at everything he was doing, Jesus [49] said to his disciples, 44"Let these words sink into your ears: The Son of Man is about to be delivered into the hands of men." 45But they did not understand this saying, and it was concealed from them, so that they might not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

Who Is the Greatest?

⁴⁶An argument arose among them as to which of them was the greatest. ⁴⁷But Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a child and put him by his side ⁴⁸and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For he who is least among you all is the one who is great."

Anyone Not Against Us Is For Us

⁴⁹John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we tried to stop him, because he does not follow with us." ⁵⁰But Jesus said to him, "Do not stop him, for the one who is not against you is for you."

A Samaritan Village Rejects Jesus

⁵¹When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. ⁵²And he sent messengers ahead of him, who went and entered a village of the Samaritans, to make preparations for him. ⁵³But the people did not receive him, because his face was set toward Jerusalem. ⁵⁴And when his disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to tell fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" ^[50] ⁵⁵But he turned and rebuked them. ^[51] ⁵⁶And they went on to another village.

The Cost of Following Jesus

⁵⁷As they were going along the road, someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." 58 And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." ⁵⁹To another he said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, let me first go and bury my father." 60 And Jesus 52 said to him. "Leave the dead to bury their own dead. But as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God," 61 Yet another said. "I will follow you, Lord, but let me first say farewell to those at my home." 62 Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-Two

10:1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two^[53]

others and sent them on ahead of him, two by two. into every town and place where he himself was about to go. ²And he said to them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest. ³Go your way; behold, I am sending you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. ⁴Carry no moneybag, no knapsack, no sandals, and greet no one on the road. 5Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house!' ⁶And if a son of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if not, it will return to you. ⁷And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they provide, for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. 8Whenever you enter a town and they receive you, eat what is set before you. ⁹Heal the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' 10 But whenever you enter a town and they do not receive you, go into its streets and say, ¹¹ Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near.' ¹²I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.

Woe to Unrepentant Cities

13"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. ¹⁴But it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you. ¹⁵And you, Capernaum, will you be exalted to

¹⁶"The one who hears you hears me, and the one who rejects you rejects me, and the one who rejects me rejects him who sent me."

heaven? You shall be brought down to Hades.

The Return of the Seventy-Two

¹⁷The seventy-two returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!" ¹⁸And he said to them, "I saw Satan fall like lightning from heaven. ¹⁹Behold. I have given you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall hurt you. ²⁰Nevertheless. do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

Jesus Rejoices in the Father's Will

²¹In that same hour he rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding and revealed them to little children; yes, Father, for such was your gracious will. [54] ²²All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, or who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son chooses to reveal him."

²³Then turning to the disciples he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! ²⁴For I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

²⁵And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" ²⁶He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How do you read it?" ²⁷And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."
²⁸And he said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live."

²⁹But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" ³⁰Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. ³¹Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. ³²So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵And the next day he took out two denarii [55] and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, 'Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.' ³⁶Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?" ³⁷He said, "The one who showed him mercy." And Jesus said to him, "You go. and do likewise."

and when he saw him, he had compassion. ³⁴He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and

Martha and Mary

³⁸Now as they went on their way, Jesus^[56] entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. ³⁹And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. ⁴⁰But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me." ⁴¹But the Lord answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, ⁴²but one thing is necessary. ^[57] Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

The Lord's Prayer

- 11:1 Now Jesus^[58] was praying in a certain place, and when he finished, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his disciples." ²And he said to them, "When you pray, say:
- Your kingdom come.

 ³Give us each day our daily bread, [59]
- ⁴and forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone who is indebted to us.
- And lead us not into temptation."

"Father, hallowed be your name.

⁵And he said to them, "Which of you who has a friend will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, ⁶for a friend of mine has arrived on a journey, and I have nothing to set before him'; ⁷and he will answer from within, 'Do not bother me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you give him anything because he is his friend. vet because of his impudence [60] he will rise and give him whatever he needs. ⁹And I tell you, ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. ¹⁰For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. 11What father among you, if his son asks for [61] a fish, will instead of a fish give him a serpent; 12 or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? 13 If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holv Spirit to those who ask him!"

Jesus and Beelzebul

14 Now he was casting out a demon that was mute. When the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke, and the people marveled. 15But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of demons," 16 while others, to test him. kept seeking from him a sign from heaven. ¹⁷But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is laid waste, and a divided household falls. 18 And if Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. 19 And if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore they will be your iudges. 20 But if it is by the finger of God that I cast out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. ²¹When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are safe; ²²but when one stronger than he attacks him and overcomes him, he takes away his armor in which he trusted and divides his spoil. ²³Whoever is not with me is against me,

Return of an Unclean Spirit

24. When the unclean spirit has gone out of a person, it passes through waterless places seeking rest, and finding none it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' 25 And when it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order. 26 Then it goes and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last state of that person is worse than the first."

True Blessedness

²⁷As he said these things, a woman in the crowd raised her voice and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts at which you nursed!" ²⁸But he said, "Blessed rather are those who hear the word of God and keep it!"

The Sign of Jonah

²⁹When the crowds were increasing, he began to say, "This generation is an evil generation. It seeks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jonah. 30 For as Jonah became a sign to the people of Nineveh, so will the Son of Man be to this generation. 31The gueen of the South will rise up at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold. something greater than Solomon is here. 32The men of Nineveh will rise up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

The Light in You

³³"No one after lighting a lamp puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light. ³⁴Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light, but when it is bad, your body is full of darkness. ³⁵Therefore be careful lest the light in you be darkness. ³⁶If then your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly bright, as when a lamp with its rays gives you light."

Woes to the Pharisees and Lawyers

³⁷While Jesus [62] was speaking, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him, so he went in and reclined at table. ³⁸The Pharisee was astonished to see that he did not first wash before dinner. ³⁹And the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside you are full of greed and wickedness. ⁴⁰You fools! Did not he who made the outside make the inside also? ⁴¹But give as alms those things that are within, and behold, everything is clean for you.

⁴²"But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and neglect justice and the love of God. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others. ⁴³Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seat in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴Woe to you! For you are like unmarked graves, and people walk over them without knowing it."

saying these things you insult us also." ⁴⁶And he said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load people with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers. ⁴⁷Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets whom your fathers killed. ⁴⁸So you are witnesses and you consent to the deeds of your fathers, for they killed

⁴⁵One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, in them, and you build their tombs. 49Therefore also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send them prophets and apostles, some of whom they will kill and persecute,' 50 so that the blood of all the prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation. 51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. 52 Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You did not enter yourselves, and you hindered those who were enterina."

⁵³As he went away from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to press him hard and to provoke him to speak about many things, ⁵⁴lying in wait for him, to catch him in something he might say.

Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees

12:1 In the meantime, when so many thousands of the people had gathered together that they were trampling one another, he began to say to his disciples first, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. ²Nothing is covered known. 3Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops.

Have No Fear

⁴"I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. ⁵But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. ^[63] Yes, I tell you, fear him! ⁶Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? ^[64] And not one of them is forgotten before God. ⁷Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

Acknowledge Christ Before Men

⁸"And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before men, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God, ⁹but the one who denies me before men will be denied before the angels of God. ¹⁰And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but the one who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. ¹¹And when they bring you before the synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not be anxious about how you should defend yourself or what you should say, ¹²for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

The Parable of the Rich Fool

¹³Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me." 14But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or arbitrator over you?" 15 And he said to them, "Take care, and be on your quard against all covetousness, for one's life does not consist in the abundance of his possessions." ¹⁶And he told them a parable, saying, "The land of a rich man produced plentifully, ¹⁷and he thought to himself, 'What shall I do, for I have nowhere to store my crops?' 18 And he said, 'I will do this: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' 20 But God said to him. 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you, and the things you have prepared, whose will they be? 21So is the one who lavs up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

Do Not Be Anxious

²²And he said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat, nor about your body, what you will put on. ²³For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. ²⁴Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! ²⁵And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?[65] 26 If then you are not able to do as small a thing as that, why are vou anxious about the rest? ²⁷Consider the lilies. how they grow: they neither toil nor spin. [66] vet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. ²⁸But if God so clothes the grass, which is alive in the field today, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith! ²⁹And do not seek what you are to eat and what you are to drink, nor be worried. ³⁰For all the nations of the world seek after these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

be added to you. 32"Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good ³¹Instead. seek his [67] kingdom, and these things will pleasure to give you the kingdom. 33Sell your possessions, and give to the needy. Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old, with a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches and no moth destroys. ³⁴For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

You Must Be Ready

35"Stay dressed for action and keep your lamps burning, ³⁶ and be like men who are waiting for their master to come home from the wedding feast, so that they may open the door to him at once when he comes and knocks. ³⁷Blessed are those servants [69] whom the master finds awake when he comes. Truly, I say to you, he will dress himself for service and have them recline at table, and he will come and serve them. ³⁸If he comes in the second watch, or in the third, and finds them awake, blessed are those servants! 39But know this, that if the master of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, coming at an hour you do not expect."

41Peter said, "Lord, are you telling this parable for us or for all?"

42And the Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom his master will set over his household, to give them their portion of food

he^[70] would not have left his house to be broken into. ⁴⁰You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is whom his master will find so doing when he comes.

44Truly, I say to you, he will set him over all his possessions. 45But if that servant says to himself.

at the proper time? 43Blessed is that servant [71]

'My master is delayed in coming,' and begins to beat the male and female servants, and to eat and drink and get drunk, 46the master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he does not know, and will cut him in pieces and put him with the unfaithful. 47 And that servant who knew his master's will but did not get ready or act according to his will, will receive a severe beating. 48But the one who did not know, and did what deserved a beating, will receive a light beating. Everyone to whom much was given, of him much will be required, and from him to whom they entrusted much, they will demand the more.

Not Peace, but Division

⁴⁹"I came to cast fire on the earth, and would that it were already kindled! ⁵⁰I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how great is my distress until it is accomplished! ⁵¹Do you think that I have come to give peace on earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. ⁵²For from now on in one house there will be five divided, three against two and two against three. ⁵³They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against mother-daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."

Interpreting the Time

⁵⁴He also said to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, 'A shower is coming.' And so it happens. ⁵⁵And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'There will be scorching heat,' and it happens. ⁵⁶You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

Settle with Your Accuser

⁵⁷"And why do you not judge for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸As you go with your accuser before the magistrate, make an effort to settle with him on the way, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer put you in prison. ⁵⁹I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the very last penny." ^[72]

Repent or Perish

13:1 There were some present at that very time who told him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. ²And he answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered in this way? ³No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. ⁴Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them: do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others who lived in Jerusalem? ⁵No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

The Parable of the Barren Fig Tree

⁶And he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none. ⁷And he said to the vinedresser, 'Look, for three years now I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down. Why should it use up the ground?' ⁸And he answered him, 'Sir, let it alone this year also, until I dig around it and put on manure. ⁹Then if it should bear fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

A Woman with a Disabling Spirit

¹⁰Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. ¹¹And there was a woman who had had a disabling spirit for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not fully straighten herself. ¹²When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your disability." ¹³And he laid his hands on her, and immediately she was made straight, and she glorified God. ¹⁴But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the people, "There are six days in which work ought to be done. Come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day." 15Then the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it away to water it? ¹⁶And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?" ¹⁷As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the people

¹⁸He said therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what shall I compare it? ¹⁹It is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches."

²⁰And again he said, "To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? ²¹It is like leaven that a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened."

The Narrow Door

²²He went on his way through towns and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. ²³And someone said to him, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" And he said to them. 24"Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. 25When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door. and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us,' then he will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.' 26Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' 27 But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil!' 28 In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves cast out. ²⁹And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God. ³⁰And behold, some

Lament over Jerusalem

³¹At that very hour some Pharisees came and said to him, "Get away from here, for Herod wants to kill you." 32 And he said to them, "Go and tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I finish my course. ³³Nevertheless. I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the day following, for it cannot be that a prophet should perish away from Jerusalem.' 340 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones those who are sent to it! How often would I have gathered your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings, and you would not! ³⁵Behold, your house is forsaken. And I tell you, you will not see me until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"

Healing of a Man on the Sabbath

14:1 One Sabbath, when he went to dine at the house of a ruler of the Pharisees, they were watching him carefully. ²And behold, there was a man before him who had dropsy. ³And Jesus responded to the lawyers and Pharisees, saving, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" ⁴But they remained silent. Then he took him and healed him and sent him

awav. ⁵And he said to them, "Which of you, having a son 73 or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?" ⁶And they could not reply to these things.

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

⁷Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the places of honor, saying to them, 8"When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him, ⁹ and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give your place to this person,' and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

The Parable of the Great Banquet

¹²He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers^[74] or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. ¹³But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

15When one of those who reclined at table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is everyone who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"
16But he said to him, "A man once gave a great banquet and invited many. ¹⁷And at the time for the banquet he sent his servant. [75] to say to those who had been invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.' ¹⁸But they all alike began to make excuses. The first said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I must go out and see it. Please have me excused.' ¹⁹And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I ²⁰And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' ²¹So the servant came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became anary and said to his servant.

go to examine them. Please have me excused."

'Go out quickly to the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' ²²And the servant said, 'Sir, what you commanded has been done, and still there is room.' ²³And the master said to the servant, 'Go out to the highways and hedges and compel people to come in, that my house may be filled. ²⁴For I tell you, ^[76] none of those men who were invited shall taste my banquet.'"

The Cost of Discipleship

²⁵Now great crowds accompanied him, and he turned and said to them, ²⁶ If anyone comes to me and does not hate his own father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple.
²⁷Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. ²⁸For which of you, desiring to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it? ²⁹Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, is not able to finish, all who see it begin to mock him, ³⁰saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish.' ³¹Or what king, going out to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and deliberate whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? ³²And if not, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends a delegation and asks for terms of peace. ³³So therefore, any one of you who does not renounce all that he has cannot be my disciple.

Salt Without Taste Is Worthless

³⁴"Salt is good, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? ³⁵It is of no use either for the soil or for the manure pile. It is thrown away. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

- 15:1 Now the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear him. ²And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them."
- ³So he told them this parable: ⁴"What man of you. having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them. does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country. and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? ⁵And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. ⁶And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' ⁷Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

⁸"Or what woman, having ten silver coins, ^[77] if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it? ⁹And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' ¹⁰Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

The Parable of the Prodigal Son

¹¹And he said, "There was a man who had two sons. ¹²And the vounger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me. And he divided his property between them. ¹³Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country, and there he squandered his property in reckless living. ¹⁴And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. ¹⁵So he went and hired himself out to ^[78] one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. ¹⁶And he was longing to be fed with the pods that the pigs ate, and no one gave him

17"But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have more than enough bread, but I perish here with hunger! ¹⁸I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. ¹⁹I am no anything.

father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. ²¹And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'^[79] ²²But the father said to his servants, ^[80] 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. ²³And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. ²⁴For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to celebrate.

25"Now his older son was in the field, and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. ²⁶And he called one of the servants and asked what these things meant. ²⁷And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has years I have served you, and I never disobeyed your command, yet you never gave me a young goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. ³⁰But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him!' ³¹And he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. ³²It was fitting to celebrate and be glad, for this your brother was dead, and is alive; he was lost, and is found."

refused to go in. His father came out and entreated him. ²⁹but he answered his father, 'Look, these many

The Parable of the Dishonest Manager

16:1 He also said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was wasting his possessions. ²And he called him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Turn in the account of your management, for you can no longer be manager.' ³And the manager said to himself, 'What shall I do, since my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. 4I have decided what to do, so that when I am removed from management, people may receive me into their houses.' 5So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' ⁶He said, 'A hundred measures [81] of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' ⁷Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred measures [82] of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.' 8The master commended the

10"One who is faithful in a very little is also faithful in much, and one who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. ¹¹If then you have not been faithful in the unrighteous wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? ¹²And if you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? ¹³No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and money."

The Law and the Kingdom of God

14The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they ridiculed him. ¹⁵And he said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

16"The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it.^[85]
17But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void.

Divorce and Remarriage

¹⁸"Everyone who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery, and he who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19"There was a rich man who was clothed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. 20 And at his gate was laid a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores. ²¹who desired to be fed with what fell from the rich man's table. Moreover. even the dogs came and licked his sores. 22The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side. [86] The rich man also died and was buried, ²³and in Hades, being in torment, he lifted up his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. 24 And he called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the end of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this flame.' 25But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that you in your lifetime received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner bad things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in anguish. ²⁶And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been fixed, in order that those who would pass from here to you may not be able, father's house— ²⁸for I have five brothers [87]—so that he may warn them, lest they also come into this place of torment.' ²⁹But Abraham said, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them hear them.' ³⁰And he said, 'No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.' ³¹He said to him, 'If they do not hear Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be convinced if someone should rise from the dead.'" and none may cross from there to us.' ²⁷And he said, 'Then I beg you, father, to send him to my

Temptations to Sin

17:1 And he said to his disciples, "Temptations to sin^[88] are sure to come, but woe to the one through whom they come! ²It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were cast into the sea than that he should cause one of these little ones to sin.^[89] ³Pay attention to yourselves! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him, ⁴and if he sins against you saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."

Increase Our Faith

⁵The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith!" ⁶And the Lord said, "If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

Unworthy Servants

⁷"Will any one of you who has a servant^[90] plowing or keeping sheep say to him when he has come in from the field, 'Come at once and recline at table'? ⁸Will he not rather say to him, 'Prepare supper for me, and dress properly, ^[91] and serve me while I eat and drink, and afterward you will eat and drink'? ⁹Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded? ¹⁰So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, 'We are unworthy servants; ^[92] we have only done what was our dutv.'"

Jesus Cleanses Ten Lepers

¹¹On the way to Jerusalem he was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. 12And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, [93] who stood at a distance ¹³ and lifted up their voices, saving. "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." 14When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. 15Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; ¹⁶and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. 17Then Jesus answered, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? 18 Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" ¹⁹And he said to him. "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."[94]

The Coming of the Kingdom

²⁰Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming with signs to be observed, ²¹nor will they say, 'Look, here it is!' or 'There!' for behold, the kingdom of God is in the midst of you."^[95]

²²And he said to the disciples, "The days are coming when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. 23 And they will say to you, 'Look, there!' or 'Look, here!' Do not go out or follow them. ²⁴For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one side to the other, so will the Son of Man be in his day. 96 25 But first he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. ²⁶ Just as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the days of the Son of Man. 27 They were eating and drinking and marrying and being given in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark. and the flood came and destroyed them all.

corpse^[98] is, there the vultures^[99] will gather."

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

18:1 And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. ²He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. ³And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.' 4For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor respect man. 5vet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming." ⁶And the Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷And will not God give iustice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? 8 tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

The Pharisee and the Tax Collector

⁹He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt: 10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. ¹¹The Pharisee, standing by himself, praved[100] thus: 'God. I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. 12 fast twice a week: I give tithes of all that I get.' 13But the tax collector, standing far off, would not even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' 14 tell vou, this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Let the Children Come to Me

¹⁵Now they were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them. And when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. ¹⁶But Jesus called them to him, saying, "Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of God. ¹⁷Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

The Rich Ruler

do to inherit eternal life?" ¹⁹And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except God alone. ²⁰You know the commandments: 'Do not ¹⁸And a ruler asked him, "Good Teacher, what must I

God alone. ²⁰You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor your father and mother.'"

²¹And he said, "All these I have kept from my youth."

When Jesus heard this, he said to him, "One thing you still lack. Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." ²³But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was extremely rich.
²⁴Jesus, seeing that he had become sad, said,

²⁴Jesus, seeing that he had become sad, said, "How difficult it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! ²⁵For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God." ²⁶Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?" ²⁷But he said.

"What is impossible with men is possible with God." ²⁸And Peter said, "See, we have left our homes and followed you." ²⁹And he said to them, "Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers^[101] or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, ³⁰who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life."

Jesus Foretells His Death a Third Time

³¹And taking the twelve, he said to them, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished. ³²For he will be delivered over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and shamefully treated and spit upon. ³³And after flogging him, they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise." ³⁴But they understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they did not grasp what was said.

Jesus Heals a Blind Beggar

35 As he drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging. ³⁶And hearing a crowd going by, he inquired what this meant. 37Thev told him. "Jesus of Nazareth is passing by." 38 And he cried out, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" ³⁹And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" 40 And Jesus stopped and commanded him to be brought to him. And when he came near, he asked him, 41"What do you want me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, let me recover my sight." 42 And Jesus said to him. "Recover your sight; your faith has made you well." ⁴³And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

Jesus and Zacchaeus

- 19:1 He entered Jericho and was passing through. $^{f 2}$ And there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and was rich. 3And he was seeking to see who Jesus was, but on account of the crowd he could not, because he was small of stature. ⁴So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was about to pass that way. ⁵And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." 6So he hurried and came down and received him joyfully. ⁷And when they saw it, they all grumbled, "He has gone in to be the guest of a man who is a sinner." ⁸And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor, And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." ⁹And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation
- has come to this house, since he also is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

The Parable of the Ten Minas

¹¹As they heard these things, he proceeded to tell a parable, because he was near to Jerusalem, and because they supposed that the kingdom of God was to appear immediately. 12He said therefore, "A nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. 13 Calling ten of his servants. [102] he gave them ten minas. [103] and said to them, 'Engage in business until I come.' ¹⁴But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.' 15When he returned, having received the kingdom, he ordered these servants to whom he had given the money to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by doing business. ¹⁶The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your mina has made ten minas more.' 17 And he said to him.

¹⁶The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your minhas made ten minas more.' ¹⁷And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant! [104] Because you have been faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.' ¹⁸And the second came, saying, 'Lord, your mina has made five minas.' ¹⁹And he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.'

20 Then another came, saying, 'Lord, here is your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief; 21 for I was afraid of you, because you are a severe man. You take what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.' 22 He said to him, 'I will condemn you with your own words, you wicked servant! You knew that I was a severe man, taking what I did not knew that I was a severe man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow? ²³Why then did you not put my money in the bank, and at my coming I might have collected it with interest?' 24And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina from him, and give it to the one who has the ten minas." ²⁵And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas!' ²⁶'I tell you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. ²⁷But as for these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slaughter them before me."

The Triumphal Entry

²⁸And when he had said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. ²⁹When he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount that is called Olivet, he sent two of the disciples. 30 saving. "Go into the village in front of you, where on entering you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever yet sat. Until it and bring it here. 31 If anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you shall say this: 'The Lord has need of it." 32So those who were sent went away and found it just as he had told them. 33And as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 And they said, "The Lord has need of it." ³⁵And they brought it to Jesus, and throwing their cloaks on the colt, they set Jesus on it. 36And as he rode along, they spread their cloaks on the road. ³⁷As he was drawing near already on the way down the Mount of Olives—the whole multitude of his disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen, ³⁸saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven and glory in the highest!" ³⁹And some of the Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples." ⁴⁰He answered, "I tell you, if these were silent, the very stones would cry out."

Jesus Weeps over Jerusalem

⁴¹And when he drew near and saw the city, he wept over it, ⁴²saying, "Would that you, even you, had known on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. ⁴³For the days will come upon you, when your enemies will set up a barricade around you and surround you and hem you in on every side ⁴⁴and tear you down to the ground, you and your children within you. And they will not leave one stone upon another in you, because you did not know the time of your visitation."

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

⁴⁵And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold, ⁴⁶saying to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be a house of prayer,' but you have made it a den of robbers."

⁴⁷And he was teaching daily in the temple. The chief priests and the scribes and the principal men of the people were seeking to destroy him, ⁴⁸but they did not find anything they could do, for all the people were hanging on his words.

The Authority of Jesus Challenged

20:1 One day, as Jesus [105] was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came up ² and said to him, "Tell us by what authority you do these things, or who it is that gave you this authority."

³He answered them, "I also will ask you a question. Now tell me, ⁴was the baptism of John from heaven or from man?" ⁵And they discussed it with one another, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why did you not believe him?' ⁶But if we say, 'From man,' all the people will stone us to death, for they are convinced that John was a prophet." ⁷So they answered that they did not know where it came from. ⁸And Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

⁹And he began to tell the people this parable: "A man planted a vineyard and let it out to tenants and went into another country for a long while. 10When the time came, he sent a servant [106] to the tenants. so that they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. ¹¹And he sent another servant. But they also beat and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed. 12 And he sent yet a third. This one also they wounded and cast out. ¹³Then the owner of the vineyard said, 'What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.' 14But when the tenants saw him. they said to themselves, 'This is the heir, Let us kill him, so that the inheritance may be ours.' 15 And they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? ¹⁶He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others." When they heard this, they said, "Surely not!" 17But he looked directly at them and said, "What then is this that is written:

"The stone that the builders rejected

has become the cornerstone'?[107]

¹⁸Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and when it falls on anyone, it will crush him."

Paying Taxes to Caesar

¹⁹The scribes and the chief priests sought to lay hands on him at that very hour, for they perceived that he had told this parable against them, but they feared the people. ²⁰So they watched him and sent spies, who pretended to be sincere, that they might catch him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the authority and jurisdiction of the governor. ²¹So they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you speak and teach rightly, and show no partiality. [108] but truly teach the way of God. 22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Caesar, or not?" 23But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, 24 Show me a denarius. [109] Whose likeness and inscription does it have?" They said. "Caesar's." 25He said to them. "Then render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." ²⁶And they were not able in the presence of the people to catch him in what he said, but marveling at his answer they became silent.

Sadducees Ask About the Resurrection

²⁷There came to him some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, ²⁸ and they asked him a question, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, having a wife but no children, the man[110] must take the widow and raise up offspring for his brother. ²⁹Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died without children. ³⁰And the second ³¹and the third took her. and likewise all seven left no children and died. 32 Afterward the woman also died. 33 In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife."

³⁴And Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage, ³⁵but those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and to the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage, ³⁶for they cannot die anymore, because they are equal to angels and are sons of God, being sons^[111] of the resurrection. ³⁷But that God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. ³⁸Now he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for all live to him." ³⁹Then some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you have spoken well." ⁴⁰For they no longer dared to ask him any question.

Whose Son Is the Christ?

⁴¹But he said to them, "How can they say that the Christ is David's son? ⁴²For David himself says in the Book of Psalms,

"The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,

⁴³until I make your enemies your footstool.'

⁴⁴David thus calls him Lord, so how is he his son?"

Beware of the Scribes

⁴⁵And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples, ⁴⁶"Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces and the best seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at feasts, ⁴⁷who devour widows' houses and for a pretense make long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

The Widow's Offering

21:1 Jesus^[112] looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the offering box, ²and he saw a poor widow put in two small copper coins. ^[113] ³And he said, "Truly, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all of them. ⁴For they all contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty put in all she had to live on."

Jesus Foretells Destruction of the Temple 5And while some were speaking of the temple, how it was adorned with noble stones and offerings, he said. 6"As for these things that you see, the days will come when there will not be left here one stone upon another that will not be thrown down." ⁷And they asked him, "Teacher, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when these things are about to take place?" ⁸And he said, "See that you are not led astray. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is at hand!' Do not go after them. ⁹And when vou hear of wars and tumults, do not be terrified, for these things must first take place, but the end will not be at once."

Jesus Foretells Wars and Persecution

¹⁰Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. ¹¹There will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and pestilences. And there will be terrors and great signs from heaven. ¹²But before all this they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors for my name's brought before kings and governors for my name's sake. ¹³This will be your opportunity to bear witness. ¹⁴Settle it therefore in your minds not to meditate beforehand how to answer, ¹⁵for I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which none of your adversaries will be able to withstand or contradict. ¹⁶You will be delivered up even by parents and brothers [114] and relatives and friends, and some of you they will put to death. ¹⁷You will be hated by all for my name's sake. ¹⁸But not a hair of your head will perish. ¹⁹By your endurance you will gain your lives.

Jesus Foretells Destruction of Jerusalem 20"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation has come near. ²¹Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains, and let those who are inside the city depart, and let not those who are out in the country enter it. 22 for these are days of vengeance, to fulfill all that is written. ²³Alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days! For there will be great distress upon the earth and wrath against this people. ²⁴They will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive among all nations. and Jerusalem will be trampled underfoot by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The Coming of the Son of Man

25"And there will be signs in sun and moon and stars, and on the earth distress of nations in perplexity because of the roaring of the sea and the waves, ²⁶people fainting with fear and with foreboding of what is coming on the world. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken. ²⁷And then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸Now when these things begin to take place, straighten up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

The Lesson of the Fig Tree

²⁹And he told them a parable: "Look at the fig tree, and all the trees. ³⁰As soon as they come out in leaf, you see for yourselves and know that the summer is already near. ³¹So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. ³²Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all has taken place. ³³Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Watch Yourselves

34"But watch yourselves lest your hearts be weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and cares of this life, and that day come upon you suddenly like a trap. ³⁵For it will come upon all who dwell on the face of the whole earth. ³⁶But stay awake at all times, praying that you may have strength to escape all these things that are going to take place, and to stand before the Son of Man."

³⁷And every day he was teaching in the temple, but at night he went out and lodged on the mount called Olivet. ³⁸And early in the morning all the people came to him in the temple to hear him.

The Plot to Kill Jesus

22:1 Now the Feast of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called the Passover. ²And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to put him to death, for they feared the people.

Judas to Betray Jesus

³Then Satan entered into Judas called Iscariot, who was of the number of the twelve. ⁴He went away and conferred with the chief priests and officers how he might betray him to them. ⁵And they were glad, and agreed to give him money. ⁶So he consented and sought an opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of a crowd.

The Passover with the Disciples

⁷Then came the day of Unleavened Bread, on which the Passover lamb had to be sacrificed. 8So. Jesus [115] sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it." ⁹They said to him, "Where will you have us prepare it?" 10He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters ¹¹and tell the master of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' 12 And he will show you a large upper room furnished; prepare it there." 13 And they went and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.

Institution of the Lord's Supper

¹⁴And when the hour came, he reclined at table, and the apostles with him. ¹⁵And he said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. ¹⁶For I tell you I will not eat it [116] until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God." 17 And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, "Take this, and divide it among yourselves. ¹⁸For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes." 19 And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ²⁰And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood. [117] 21 But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. ²²For the Son of Man goes as it has been determined, but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!" 23And they began to question one another, which of them it could be who was going to do this.

Who Is the Greatest?

²⁴A dispute also arose among them, as to which of them was to be regarded as the greatest. ²⁵And he said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them, and those in authority over them are called benefactors. ²⁶But not so with you. Rather, let the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves. ²⁷For who is the greater, one who reclines at table or one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at table? But I am among you as the one who serves.

²⁸"You are those who have stayed with me in my trials, ²⁹and I assign to you, as my Father assigned to me, a kingdom, ³⁰that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus Foretells Peter's Denial

³¹"Simon, Simon, behold, Satan demanded to have you, [118] that he might sift you like wheat, ³²but I have prayed for you that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned again, strengthen your brothers." ³³Peter [119] said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death." ³⁴Jesus [120] said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow this day, until you deny three times that you know me."

Scripture Must Be Fulfilled in Jesus

³⁵And he said to them, "When I sent you out with no moneybag or knapsack or sandals, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing." ³⁶He said to them, "But now let the one who has a moneybag take it, and likewise a knapsack. And let the one who has no sword sell his cloak and buy one. ³⁷For I tell you that this Scripture must be fulfilled in me: 'And he was numbered with the transgressors.' For what is written about me has its fulfillment." ³⁸And they said, "Look, Lord, here are two swords." And he said to them, "It is enough."

Jesus Prays on the Mount of Olives

³⁹And he came out and went, as was his custom, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples followed him. ⁴⁰And when he came to the place, he said to them, "Pray that you may not enter into temptation." 41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and knelt down and prayed, 42 saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done." 43And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him. 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground. [121] 45 And when he rose from prayer, he came to the disciples and found them sleeping for sorrow. 46 and he said to them. "Why are you sleeping? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

⁴⁷While he was still speaking, there came a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the twelve, was leading them. He drew near to Jesus to kiss him, 48but Jesus said to him, "Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?" 49 And when those who were around him saw what would follow, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" 50 And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. ⁵¹But Jesus said, "No more of this!" And he touched his ear and healed him. 52Then Jesus said to the chief priests and officers of the temple and elders, who had come out against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? 53When I was with you day after day in the temple, you did not lay hands on me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

Peter Denies Jesus

⁵⁴Then thev seized him and led him away, bringing him into the high priest's house, and Peter was following at a distance. 55And when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter sat down among them. ⁵⁶Then a servant girl, seeing him as he sat in the light and looking closely at him, said, "This man also was with him." 57But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know him." 58 And a little later someone else saw him and said, "You also are one of them." But Peter said, "Man. I am not." 59 And after an interval of about an hour still another insisted, saying, "Certainly this man also was with him, for he too is a Galilean." 60But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed. 61 And the Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the saying of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the rooster crows today, you will deny me three times."

62 And he went out and wept bitterly.

Jesus Is Mocked

⁶³Now the men who were holding Jesus in custody were mocking him as they beat him. ⁶⁴They also blindfolded him and kept asking him, "Prophesy! Who is it that struck you?" ⁶⁵And they said many other things against him, blaspheming him.

Jesus Before the Council

⁶⁶When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people gathered together, both chief priests and scribes. And they led him away to their council, and they said, 67" If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe, 68 and if I ask you, you will not answer. 69But from now on the Son of Man shall be seated at the right hand of the power of God." 70 So they all said. "Are you the Son of God. then?" And he said to them, "You say that I am." ⁷¹Then they said, "What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips."

Jesus Before Pilate

23:1 Then the whole company of them arose and brought him before Pilate. ²And they began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man misleading our nation and forbidding us to give tribute to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king." ³And Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" And he answered him, "You have said so."

⁴Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no guilt in this man." ⁵But they were urgent, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee even to this place."

Jesus Before Herod

⁶When Pilate heard this, he asked whether the man was a Galilean. ⁷And when he learned that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him over to Herod, who was himself in Jerusalem at that time. ⁸When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, for he had long desired to see him, because he had heard about him, and he was hoping to see some sign done by him. ⁹So he questioned him at some length, but he made no answer. 10 The chief priests and the scribes stood by, vehemently accusing him. 11 And Herod with his soldiers treated him with contempt and mocked him. Then, arraying him in splendid clothing, he sent him back to Pilate. 12 And Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before this they had been at enmity with each other.

¹³Pilate then called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, ¹⁴and said to them, "You brought me this man as one who was misleading the I did not find this man guilty of any of your charges against him. ¹⁵Neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us. Look, nothing deserving death has been done by him. ¹⁶I will therefore punish and release him."^[123] people. And after examining him before you, behold,

Pilate Delivers Jesus to Be Crucified

¹⁸But they all cried out together, "Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas"— 19 a man who had been thrown into prison for an insurrection started in the city and for murder. ²⁰Pilate addressed them once more, desiring to release Jesus. 21 but they kept shouting, "Crucify, crucify him!" 22A third time he said to them, "Why, what evil has he done? I have found in him no guilt deserving death. I will therefore punish and release him." 23But they were urgent. demanding with loud cries that he should be crucified. And their voices prevailed. 24So Pilate decided that their demand should be granted. ²⁵He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked.

but he delivered Jesus over to their will.

The Crucifixion

²⁶And as they led him away, they seized one Simon of Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it behind Jesus. 27 And there followed him a great multitude of the people and of women who were mourning and lamenting for him. ²⁸But turning to them Jesus said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. ²⁹For behold, the days are coming when they will say, 'Blessed are the barren and the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed!' 30 Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.' 31 For if they do these things when the wood is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

³²Two others, who were criminals, were led away to be put to death with him. ³³And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁴And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!" ³⁶The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine ³⁷and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" ³⁸There was also an inscription over him, [125] "This is the King of the Jews."

³⁹One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, [126] saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" ⁴⁰But the other rebuked him.

they know not what they do."[124] And they cast lots to divide his garments. ³⁵And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at him, saving, "He saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? ⁴¹And we indeed justly, for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." ⁴²And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." ⁴³And he said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

The Death of Jesus

44 It was now about the sixth hour, [127] and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. [128] ⁴⁵while the sun's light failed. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. 46Then Jesus, calling out with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" And having said this he breathed his last. ⁴⁷Now when the centurion saw what had taken place, he praised God, saying, "Certainly this man was innocent!" 48 And all the crowds that had assembled for this spectacle, when they saw what had taken place, returned home beating their breasts. 49 And all his acquaintances and the women who had followed him from Galilee stood at a distance watching these things.

Jesus Is Buried

⁵⁰Now there was a man named Joseph, from the Jewish town of Arimathea. He was a member of the council, a good and righteous man, 51 who had not consented to their decision and action; and he was looking for the kingdom of God. 52This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 53Then he took it down and wrapped it in a linen shroud and laid him in a tomb cut in stone, where no one had ever yet been laid. 54 It was the day of Preparation. and the Sabbath was beginning. [129] 55The women who had come with him from Galilee followed and saw the tomb and how his body was laid. 56Then they returned and prepared spices and ointments.

On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

The Resurrection

24:1 But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. ²And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb. 3but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel. ⁵And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise." 8And they

⁶He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee. 7that the Son of remembered his words. ⁹ and returning from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. 10 Now it was Mary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James and the other women with them who told these things to the apostles. 11 but these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. ¹²But Peter rose and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; and he went home marveling at what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

13 That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles[130] from Jerusalem, ¹⁴ and they were talking with each other about all these things that had happened. 15While they were talking and discussing together. Jesus himself drew near and went with them. 16But their eves were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷And he said to them, "What is this conversation that you are holding with each other as you walk?" And they stood still, looking sad. 18 Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?" 19 And he said to them, "What things?" And they said to him. "Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰ and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. ²¹But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is ²²Moreover, some women of our company amazed us. They were at the tomb early in the morning, ²³and when they did not find his body, they came back saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of those who

who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see." ²⁵And he said to them, "O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" ²⁷And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

²⁸So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He acted as if he were going farther, ²⁹but they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent." So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke from their sight. ³²They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?" ³³And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, ³⁴saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" ³⁵Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

it and gave it to them. ³¹And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he vanished himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace to you!" ³⁷But they were startled and frightened and thought they saw a spirit. ³⁸And he said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? 39See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me, and see. For a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." 40 And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 And while they still disbelieved for joy and were marveling, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" 42 They gave him a piece of broiled fish. [131] 43 and he took it and ate before them. 44Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled." ⁴⁵Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, ⁴⁷and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. ⁴⁸You are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And behold, I am sending the promise of my Father upon you. But stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high."

⁴⁶and said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Christ should suffer and on the third day rise from the dead.

The Ascension

⁵⁰Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. ⁵¹While he blessed them, he parted from them and was carried up into heaven. ⁵²And they worshiped him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, ⁵³and were continually in the temple blessing God.

The Word Became Flesh

1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ²He was in the beginning with God. ³All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made. ⁴In him was life, ^[1] and the life was the light of men. ⁵The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

John. ⁷He came as a witness, to bear witness about the light, that all might believe through him. ⁸He was not the light, but came to bear witness about the light.

⁶There was a man sent from God, whose name was ⁹The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world. ¹⁰He was in the world, and the world was made through him, yet the world did not know him. ¹¹He came to his own, ²² and his own people ³³ did not receive him. ¹²But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the

The Testimony of John the Baptist

¹⁹And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?" ²⁰He confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, "I am not the Christ." ²¹And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" And he answered, "No." ²²So they said to him, "Who are you? We need to give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" ²³He said, "I am the voice of one crying out in the wilderness, 'Make straight^[6] the way of the Lord," as the prophet Isaiah said."

²⁴(Now they had been sent from the Pharisees.)
²⁵They asked him, "Then why are you baptizing, if you are neither the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"
²⁶John answered them, "I baptize with water, but among you stands one you do not know, ²⁷even he who comes after me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie." ²⁸These things took place in Bethany across the Jordan, where John was

Behold, the Lamb of God

²⁹The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! 30 This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me.' 31 myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptizing with water, that he might be revealed to Israel." 32 And John bore witness: "I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. 33 myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' 34 And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God."

Jesus Calls the First Disciples

35The next day again John was standing with two of his disciples, ³⁶ and he looked at Jesus as he walked by and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" ³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus, 38 Jesus turned and saw them following and said to them, "What are you seeking?" And they said to him, "Rabbi" (which means Teacher), "where are you staying?" ³⁹He said to them, "Come and you will see," So they came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day, for it was about the tenth hour. 40 One of the two who heard John speak and followed Jesus [8] was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. 41He first found his own brother Simon and said to him, "We have found the Messiah" (which means Christ). 42He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said. "So you are Simon the son of John? You shall be called Cephas" (which means Peter 9).

Jesus Calls Philip and Nathanael

⁴³The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." 44 Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter, 45 Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the Law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." 46 Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no deceit!" 48 Nathanael said to him. "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." 49 Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" 50 Jesus answered him, "Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these." 51 And he said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, [10] you will see heaven opened, and the angels

The Wedding at Cana

2:1 On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ²Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. ³When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." ⁴And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." ⁵His mother said to the servants. "Do whatever he tells you."

⁶Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. [11] 7 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸And he said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. 9When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom 10 and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and

But you have kept the good wine until now." ¹¹This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine.

mother and his brothers [12] and his disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.

¹²After this he went down to Capernaum, with his

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

¹³The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴In the temple he found those who were selling oxen and sheep and pigeons, and the money-changers sitting there. ¹⁵And making a whip of cords, he drove them all out of the temple. with the sheep and oxen. And he poured out the coins of the money-changers and overturned their tables. ¹⁶And he told those who sold the pigeons, "Take these things away; do not make my Father's house a house of trade." ¹⁷His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will consume me."

¹⁸So the Jews said to him, "What sign do you show us for doing these things?" ¹⁹Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up." ²⁰The Jews then said, "It has taken forty-six years to build this temple, and will you raise it up in three days?" ²¹But he was speaking about the temple of his body. ²²When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken.

Jesus Knows What Is in Man

²³Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many believed in his name when they saw the signs that he was doing. ²⁴But Jesus on his part did not entrust himself to them, because he knew all people ²⁵and needed no one to bear witness about man, for he himself knew what was in man.

You Must Be Born Again

3:1 Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews, ²This man came to Jesus [13] by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do unless God is with him." ³Jesus answered him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again [14] he cannot see the kingdom of God." 4Nicodemus said to him. "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born?" ⁵Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. ⁶That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.[15] 7Do not marvel that I said to you. 'You[16] must be born again.' 8The wind 177 blows where it wishes, and you hear its sound, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit."

¹⁰Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel and yet you do not understand these things? ¹¹Truly, truly, I say to you, we speak of what we know, and bear witness to what we have seen, but you^[18] do not receive our testimony. ¹²If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you heavenly things? ¹³No one has ascended into heaven except he who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. ^[19] ¹⁴And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up. ¹⁵that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.[20]

⁹Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?"

For God So Loved the World

16"For God so loved the world. [21] that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. 17 For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him. ¹⁸Whoever believes in him is not condemned, but whoever does not believe is condemned already. because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God. ¹⁹And this is the judgment: the light has come into the world, and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works were evil. ²⁰For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed. ²¹But whoever does what is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his works have been carried out in God."

John the Baptist Exalts Christ

²²After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean countryside, and he remained there with them and was baptizing. ²³John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because water was plentiful there, and people were coming and being baptized ²⁴(for John had not yet been put in prison).

²⁵Now a discussion arose between some of John's disciples and a Jew over purification. ²⁶And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you across the Jordan, to whom you bore witness—look, he is baptizing, and all are going to him." ²⁷John answered, "A person cannot receive even one thing unless it is given him from heaven. ²⁸You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, 'I am not the Christ, but I have been sent before him.'

²⁹The one who has the bride is the bridegroom. The friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly at the bridegroom's voice. Therefore this joy of mine is now complete. ³⁰He must increase, but I must decrease."[22]

31He who comes from above is above all. He who is of the earth belongs to the earth and speaks in an earthly way. He who comes from heaven is above all. ³²He bears witness to what he has seen and heard, yet no one receives his testimony. 33Whoever receives his testimony sets his seal to this, that God is true. 34For he whom God has sent utters the words of God, for he gives the Spirit without measure. 35The Father loves the Son and has given all things into his hand. ³⁶Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him.

Jesus and the Woman of Samaria heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John ²(although Jesus himself did not baptize, but only his disciples), ³he left Judea and departed again for Galilee. ⁴And he had to pass through Samaria. ⁵So he came to a town of Samaria

4:1 Now when Jesus learned that the Pharisees had called Sychar, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. ⁶Jacob's well was there; so Jesus, wearied as he was from his journey, was sitting beside the well. It was about the sixth hour. ^[23]

⁷A woman from Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." ⁸(For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.) ⁹The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a had gone away into the city to buy food.) ⁹The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a woman of Samaria?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.) ¹⁰Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given greater than our father Jacob? He gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did his sons and his livestock." ¹³Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never be thirsty again. ^[24] The water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." ¹⁵The woman said to him. "Sir. give me this you living water." ¹¹The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? ¹²Are you water, so that I will not be thirsty or have to come here to draw water."

16 Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered him, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You are right in saying, 'I have no husband'; 18 for you have had five husbands, and the one you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true." ¹⁹The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. ²⁰Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but you believe me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. ²²You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. ²³But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father is seeking such people say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship." ²¹Jesus said to her, "Woman, to worship him. ²⁴God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth." ²⁵The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah is coming (he who is called Christ). When he comes, he will tell us all things." ²⁶Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am he."

²⁷Just then his disciples came back. They marveled that he was talking with a woman, but no one said, "What do you seek?" or, "Why are you talking with her?" ²⁸So the woman left her water jar and went away into town and said to the people, ²⁹"Come, see a man who told me all that I ever did. Can this be coming to him.

31 Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying,

"Rabbi eat" 32 But he said to them "I have food to the Christ?" 30 They went out of the town and were

"Rabbi, eat." ³²But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about." ³³So the disciples said to one another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?" ³⁴Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work. ³⁵Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, then comes the harvest'? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest. ³⁶Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. ³⁷For here the saying holds true, 'One sows and another reaps.' ³⁸I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

³⁹Many Samaritans from that town believed in him because of the woman's testimony, "He told me all there two days. ⁴¹And many more believed because of his word. ⁴²They said to the woman, "It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is indeed the Savior of the world."

that I ever did." ⁴⁰So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed Jesus himself had testified that a prophet has no honor in his own hometown.) ⁴⁵So when he came to Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him, having seen all that he had done in Jerusalem at the feast. For they too had gone to the feast.

⁴³After the two days he departed for Galilee. ⁴⁴(For

Jesus Heals an Official's Son

⁴⁶So he came again to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And at Capernaum there was an official whose son was ill. 47When this man heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee. he went to him and asked him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. 48So Jesus said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders you will not believe." 49The official said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." 50 Jesus said to him. "Go: your son will live." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him and went on his way. ⁵¹As he was going down, his servants [25] met him and told him that his son was recovering. ⁵²So he asked them the hour when he began to get better, and they said to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him." 53The father knew that was the hour when Jesus had said to him, "Your son will live." And he himself believed, and all his household. 54This was now the second sign that Jesus did when he had come from Judea to Galilee.

The Healing at the Pool on the Sabbath

5:1 After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

²Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, in Aramaic^[27] called Bethesda.^[28] which has five roofed colonnades. ³In these lay a multitude of invalids—blind, lame, and paralyzed. [29] 5One man was there who had been an invalid for thirty-eight vears. ⁶When Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been there a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be healed?" ⁷The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, and while I am going another steps down before me." 8Jesus said to him, "Get up, take up your bed, and walk." 9And at once the man was healed, and he took up his bed and walked.

Now that day was the Sabbath. ¹⁰So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath, he answered them, "The man who healed me, that man said to me, 'Take up your bed, and walk."

12 They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your bed and walk'?"

13 Now the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, as there was a crowd in the place.

and it is not lawful for you to take up your bed." 11But

¹⁴Afterward Jesus found him in the temple and said to him, "See, you are well! Sin no more, that nothing worse may happen to you." ¹⁵The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him. ¹⁶And this was why the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. ¹⁷But Jesus answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I am working."

Jesus Is Equal with God

¹⁸This was why the Jews were seeking all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was even calling God his own Father, making himself equal with God.

The Authority of the Son

¹⁹So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever the Father does, that the Son does likewise, 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all that he himself is doing. And greater works than these will he show him, so that you may marvel. ²¹For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. 22 The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, ²³that all may honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. 24 Truly, truly, I say to 25"Truly, truly, I say to you, an hour is coming, and is now here, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. ²⁶For as you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man. ²⁸Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice ²⁹and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.

the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself. ²⁷And he has given

Witnesses to Jesus

30"I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me. 31 If I alone bear witness about myself, my testimony is not deemed true. 32 There is another who bears witness about me. and I know that the testimony that he bears about me is true. 33 You sent to John, and he has borne witness to the truth. 34Not that the testimonv that I receive is from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. 35He was a burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. ³⁶But the testimony that I have is greater than that of John. For the works that the Father has given me to accomplish, the very works that I am doing, bear witness about me that the Father has sent me. ³⁷And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me. His voice you have never heard, his form you have never seen, 38 and you do not have his word abiding in you, for you do not believe the one whom he has sent. 39You you have eternal life; and it is they that bear witness about me. 40 yet you refuse to come to me that you may have life. 41 do not receive glory from people. 42 But I know that you do not have the love of God within you. 43I have come in my Father's name, and you do not receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. 44How can you believe, when you receive glory from one another and do not seek the glory that comes from the only God? 45Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Moses, on whom you have set your hope. 46For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote of me. ⁴⁷But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

6:1 After this Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. ²And a large crowd was following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing on the sick. ³Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. ⁴Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand. ⁵Lifting up his eyes, then, and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward him. Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, so that these people may eat?" ⁶He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he would do. ⁷Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii[31] would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." ⁸One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, ⁹"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they for so many?" ¹⁰Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, about five thousand in number. ¹¹Jesus then took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, they had eaten their fill, he told his disciples, "Gather up the leftover fragments, that nothing may be lost." ¹³So they gathered them up and filled twelve baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves left by those who had eaten. ¹⁴When the people saw the sign that he had done, they said, "This is indeed he distributed them to those who were seated. So also the fish, as much as they wanted. ¹²And when the Prophet who is to come into the world!"

Jesus Walks on Water

¹⁶When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, ¹⁷got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. ¹⁸The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. ¹⁹When they had rowed about three or four miles, ^[32] they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were frightened. ²⁰But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." ²¹Then they were glad to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

I Am the Bread of Life

²²On the next day the crowd that remained on the other side of the sea saw that there had been only one boat there, and that Jesus had not entered the boat with his disciples, but that his disciples had gone away alone. ²³Other boats from Tiberias came near the place where they had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. ²⁴So when the crowd saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

²⁵When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" ²⁶Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you are seeking me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. ²⁷Do not labor for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For on him God the Father has set his seal."

²⁸Then they said to him, "What must we do, to be

"This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." 30 So they said to him, "Then what sign do you do, that we may see and believe you? What work do you perform? ³¹Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written. 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat." 32 Jesus then said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not doing the works of God?" ²⁹Jesus answered them.

Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33For the bread of God is he who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34 They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." ³⁵Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life;

whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. 36But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. 37All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. 39And this is the will that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. ⁴⁰For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day." ⁴¹So the Jews grumbled about him, because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." ⁴²They said, "Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How does he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" ⁴³Jesus answered them, "Do not grumble among yourselves.

of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all 44No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him. And I will raise him up on the last day. 45 It is written in the Prophets, 'And they will all be taught by God.' Everyone who has heard and learned from the Father comes to me— 46 not that anyone has seen the Father except he who is from God: he has seen the Father. 47 Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. 48 am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. 50 This is the bread that and not die. ⁵¹I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. And the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

⁵²The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

comes down from heaven, so that one may eat of it

⁵³So Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you, ⁵⁴Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. 55For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. ⁵⁶Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever feeds on me, he also will live because of me. 58This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like the bread [33] the fathers ate and died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever." 59 Jesus [34] said these things in the synagogue, as he taught at Capernaum.

The Words of Eternal Life

60When many of his disciples heard it, they said, "This is a hard saying; who can listen to it?" 61 But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, said to them, "Do you take offense at this? 62Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? 63lt is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh is no help at all. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. ⁶⁴But there are some of you who do not believe." (For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe, and who it was who would betray him.) 65 And he said, "This is why I told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father."

⁶⁶After this many of his disciples turned back and no longer walked with him. ⁶⁷So Jesus said to the Twelve, "Do you want to go away as well?" ⁶⁸Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, ⁶⁹and we have Holy One of God." ⁷⁰Jesus answered them, "Did I not choose you, the Twelve? And yet one of you is a devil." ⁷¹He spoke of Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.

Jesus at the Feast of Booths

7:1 After this Jesus went about in Galilee. He would not go about in Judea, because the Jews [35] were seeking to kill him. ²Now the Jews' Feast of Booths was at hand. ³So his brothers [36] said to him. "Leave here and go to Judea, that your disciples also may see the works you are doing. ⁴For no one works in secret if he seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, show yourself to the world," ⁵For not even his brothers believed in him. ⁶Jesus said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always here. ⁷The world cannot hate you, but it hates me because I testify about it that its works are evil. ⁸You go up to the feast. I am not^[37] going up to this feast, for my time has not yet fully come." 9After said, "He is a good man," others said, "No, he is leading the people astray." ¹³Yet for fear of the Jews no one spoke openly of him.

¹⁴About the middle of the feast Jesus went up into muttering about him among the people. While some the temple and began teaching. ¹⁵The Jews therefore marveled, saying, "How is it that this man has learning, [38] when he has never studied?" 16So Jesus answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me. ¹⁷If anyone's will is to do God's [39] will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority. ¹⁸The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood. ¹⁹Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me?" 20 The 19 Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you keeps the law. Why do you seek to kill me?"

20 The crowd answered, "You have a demon! Who is seeking to kill you?"

21 Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel at it.

22 Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers), and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.

Can This Be the Christ?

²⁵Some of the people of Jerusalem therefore said, "Is not this the man whom they seek to kill? ²⁶And here he is, speaking openly, and they say nothing to him! Can it be that the authorities really know that this is the Christ? ²⁷But we know where this man comes from, and when the Christ appears, no one will know where he comes from." 28 So Jesus proclaimed, as he taught in the temple, "You know me, and you know where I come from? But I have not come of my own accord. He who sent me is true, and him you do not know. 29 know him, for I come from him, and he sent me." 30 So they were seeking to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him. because his hour had not vet come. 31Yet many of the people believed in him. They said, "When the Christ appears, will he do more signs than this man has done?"

Officers Sent to Arrest Jesus

32The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these things about him, and the chief priests and Pharisees sent officers to arrest him. 33 Jesus then said, "I will be with you a little longer, and then I am going to him who sent me. 34You will seek me and you will not find me. Where I am you cannot come." 35The Jews said to one another, "Where does this man intend to go that we will not find him? Does he intend to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? 36What does he mean by saying, 'You will seek me and you will not find me,' and, 'Where I am you cannot come'?"

Rivers of Living Water

³⁷On the last day of the feast, the great day, Jesus stood up and cried out, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to me and drink. ³⁸Whoever believes in me, as ^[40] the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" ³⁹Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Division Among the People

40When they heard these words, some of the people said, "This really is the Prophet." 41Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "Is the Christ to come from Galilee? 42Has not the Scripture said that the Christ comes from the offspring of David, and comes from Bethlehem, the village where David was?" 43So there was a division among the people over him. 44Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid hands on him.

⁴⁵The officers then came to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, "Why did you not bring him?" ⁴⁶The officers answered, "No one ever spoke like this man!" ⁴⁷The Pharisees answered them, "Have you also been deceived? ⁴⁸Have any of the authorities or the Pharisees believed in him? ⁴⁹But this crowd that does not know the law is accursed." ⁵⁰Nicodemus, who had gone to him before, and who was one of them, said to them, ⁵¹"Does our law judge a man without first giving him a hearing and learning what he does?" ⁵²They replied, "Are you from Galilee too? Search and see that no prophet arises from Galilee."

The Woman Caught in Adultery

⁵³[[They went each to his own house, 8:1 but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ²Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him, and he sat down and taught them. ³The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery, and placing her in the midst 4they said to him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in the act of adultery. ⁵Now in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such women. So what do you say?" ⁶This they said to test him, that they might have some charge to bring against him. Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. ⁷And as they continued to ask him, he stood up and said to them, "Let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw a stone at her." ⁸And once more he bent down and wrote on the ground. 9But when they heard it, they went away one by one, beginning with the older ones, and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him. 10 Jesus stood up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" ¹¹She said, "No one, Lord." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you; go, and from now on sin no more."]]

I Am the Light of the World

¹²Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." 13So the Pharisees said to him, "You are bearing witness about yourself; your testimony is not true." 14 Jesus answered, "Even if I do bear witness about myself. my testimony is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going, but you do not know where I come from or where I am going. 15 You judge according to the flesh; I judge no one. ¹⁶Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for it is not I alone who judge, but I and the Father 42 who sent me. 17 In your Law it is written that the testimony of two people is true. 18 am the one who bears witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me." 19 They said to him therefore, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also." ²⁰These words he spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple; but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. ²¹So he said to them again, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come." ²²So the Jews said.

"Will he kill himself, since he says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come'?" 23He said to them, "You are from below; I am from above. You are of this world; I am not of this world. 24I told you that you would die in your sins, for unless you believe that I am he you will die in your sins." 25 So they said to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been telling you from the beginning. ²⁶I have much to say about you and much to judge, but he who sent me is true, and I declare to the world what I have heard from him." 27 They did not understand that he had been speaking to them about the Father. ²⁸So Jesus said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and that I do nothing on my own authority, but speak just as the Father taught me. ²⁹And he who sent me is with me. He has not left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him." 30 As he was saying these things, many believed in him.

The Truth Will Set You Free

³¹So Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." ³³They answered him, "We are offspring of Abraham and have never been enslaved to anyone. How is it that you say, 'You will become free'?"

³⁴Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone who commits sin is a slave [43] to sin. ³⁵The slave does not remain in the house forever; the son remains forever. ³⁶So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. ³⁷I know that you are offspring of Abraham; yet you seek to kill me because my word finds no place in you. ³⁸I speak of what I have seen with my Father, and you do what you have heard from your father."

You Are of Your Father the Devil

³⁹They answered him, "Abraham is our father."
Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham's children, you would be doing the works Abraham did, ⁴⁰but now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God. This is not what Abraham did. ⁴¹You are doing the works your father did." They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father—even God." 42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and I am here. I came not of my own accord, but he sent me. 43Why do you not understand what I say? It is because you cannot bear to hear my word. 44 You are of your father the devil. and your will is to do your father's desires. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has nothing to do with the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks out of his own character, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45But because I tell the truth, you do not believe me. 46Which one of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? 47Whoever is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear them is that you are not of God."

Before Abraham Was, I Am

⁴⁸The Jews answered him, "Are we not right in saying that you are a Samaritan and have a demon?" 49 Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. 50 Yet I do not seek my own glory; there is One who seeks it, and he is the judge. ⁵¹Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death." 52The Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon! Abraham died, as did the prophets, vet you say, 'If anyone keeps my word, he will never taste death.' 53Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself out to be?" 54 Jesus answered.

taste death.' ⁵³Are you greater than our father Abraham, who died? And the prophets died! Who do you make yourself out to be?" ⁵⁴Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say, 'He is our God.' ^[44] ⁵⁵But you have not known him. I know him. If I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and I keep his word. ⁵⁶Your father Abraham rejoiced that he would see my day. He saw it and was glad." ⁵⁷So the Jews said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?" [45] 58 Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham was, I am." 59 So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself and went out of the temple.

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9:1 As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. ²And his disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?" ³Jesus answered. "It was not that this man sinned. or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. 4We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. ⁵As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." ⁶Having said these things, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud ⁷and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.

⁸The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar were saying, "Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?" ⁹Some said, "It is he." Others said, "No, but he is like him." He kept saying, "I am the man." ¹⁰So they said to him, "Then how were ¹³They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. ¹⁴Now it was a Sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. ¹⁵So the Pharisees again asked him how he had received his sight. And he said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and I see." ¹⁶Some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" And since he has opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."

18 The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight, until they called the

there was a division among them. ¹⁷So they said again to the blind man, "What do you say about him, blind? How then does he now see?" ²⁰His parents answered, "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. ²¹But how he now sees we do not know, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself." ²²(His parents said these things because they feared the Jews, for the Jews had already agreed that if anyone should confess Jesus ^[46] to be Christ, he was to be 24So for the second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

25He answered, "Whether he is a sinner I do not know. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see."

26They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open

You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God does not listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does his will, God listens to him. ³²Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." ³⁴They answered him, "You were born in utter sin, and would 35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and having found him he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" ^[47] ³⁶He answered, "And who is he, sir, that I may believe in him?" ³⁷Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and it is he who is speaking to you." ³⁸He said, "Lord, I believe," and he worshiped him.

³⁹Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world,

I Am the Good Shepherd

10:1 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter the sheepfold by the door but climbs in by another way, that man is a thief and a robber. ²But he who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. ³To him the gatekeeper opens. The sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4When he has brought out all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. ⁵A stranger they will not follow, but they will flee from him, for they do not know the voice of strangers." ⁶This figure of speech Jesus used with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

⁷So Jesus again said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. ⁸All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. ⁹I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture. ¹⁰The thief comes only to steal and who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. ¹³He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. 14 am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, ¹⁵just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep. 16And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. ¹⁷For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life that I may take it up again. ¹⁸No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. This charge I have received from my Father."

¹⁹There was again a division among the Jews because of these words. ²⁰Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane; why listen to him?"

²¹Others said, "These are not the words of one who is oppressed by a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

I and the Father Are One

²²At that time the Feast of Dedication took place at Jerusalem. It was winter, ²³and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the colonnade of Solomon. ²⁴So the Jews gathered around him and said to him. "How long will you keep us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." 25 Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in my Father's name bear witness about me. ²⁶but you do not believe because you are not part of my flock. ²⁷My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. ²⁹My Father, who has given them to me. [49] is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of the Father's hand. ³⁰I and the Father are one."

³¹The Jews picked up stones again to stone him.
³²Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you going to stone me?" ³³The Jews answered him, not written in your Law, 'I said, you are gods'? 35 lf he called them gods to whom the word of God came and Scripture cannot be broken— 36do vou sav of him whom the Father consecrated and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because I said, 'I am the Son of God'? ³⁷If I am not doing the works of my Father, then do not believe me; ³⁸but if I do them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father." ³⁹Again they sought to arrest him, but he escaped from their hands.

"It is not for a good work that we are going to stone you but for blasphemy, because you, being a man, make yourself God." ³⁴Jesus answered them, "Is it ⁴⁰He went away again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptizing at first, and there he remained. ⁴¹And many came to him. And they said, "John did no sign, but everything that John said about this man was true." ⁴²And many believed in him there.

The Death of Lazarus

11:1 Now a certain man was ill, Lazarus of Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. ²It was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was ill. ³So the sisters sent to him, saying, "Lord, he whom you love is ill." ⁴But when Jesus heard it he said, "This illness does not lead to death. It is for the glory of God, so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

⁵Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. ⁶So, when he heard that Lazarus ^[50] was ill, he stayed two days longer in the place where he was. ⁷Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let us go to Judea again." ⁸The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking to stone you, and are you going there again?" ⁹Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. ¹⁰But if said to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I go to awaken him." ¹²The disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover." ¹³Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he meant taking rest in sleep. ¹⁴Then Jesus told them plainly, "Lazarus has died, ¹⁵and for your sake I am glad that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." ¹⁶So Thomas, called the Twin. ^[51] said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with him."

anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." ¹¹After saving these things, he

I Am the Resurrection and the Life

¹⁷Now when Jesus came, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb four days. ¹⁸Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles[52] off, 19 and many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. ²⁰So when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went and met him, but Mary remained seated in the house. ²¹Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But even now I know that whatever you ask from God, God will give you." ²³Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." 24 Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." 25 Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. [53] Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, ²⁶ and everyone who lives and believes in me shall never die. Do you believe this?" 27 She said to him, "Yes, Lord; I believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who is coming into the world."

Jesus Weeps

²⁸When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary, saying in private, "The Teacher is here and is calling for you." ²⁹And when she heard it, she rose quickly and went to him. 30 Now Jesus had not vet come into the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him. 31 When the Jews who were with her in the house, consoling her, saw Mary rise quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to weep there. ³²Now when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." 33When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in his spirit and greatly troubled. ³⁴And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus wept. 36 So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" ³⁷But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man also have kept this man from dying?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus

³⁸Then Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. ³⁹Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days." 40 Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?" 41So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 knew that you always hear me. but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent me." 43When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice. "Lazarus, come out." 44The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them,

"Unbind him, and let him go."

The Plot to Kill Jesus

⁴⁵Manv of the Jews therefore, who had come with Mary and had seen what he did, believed in him, 46 but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. ⁴⁷So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the Council and said, "What are we to do? For this man performs many sians. 48 If we let him go on like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation." 49But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them. "You know nothing at all. ⁵⁰Nor do you understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people, not that the whole nation should perish." 51He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, ⁵²and not for the nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. ⁵³So from that day on they made plans to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore no longer walked openly among the Jews, but went from there to the region near the wilderness, to a town called Ephraim, and there he stayed with the disciples.
 55 Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover to purify themselves. ⁵⁶They were looking for ^[54] Jesus and saying to one another as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? That he will not come to the feast at all?" ⁵⁷Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone knew where he was, he should let them know, so that they might arrest him.

Mary Anoints Jesus at Bethany

12:1 Six days before the Passover, Jesus therefore came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. ²So they gave a dinner for him there. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those reclining with him at table. ³Mary therefore took a pound[55] of expensive ointment made from pure nard, and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. ⁴But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was about to betray him), said, 5"Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii [56] and given to the poor?" ⁶He said this, not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief, and having charge of the moneybag he used to help himself to what was put into it. ⁷Jesus said. "Leave her alone, so that she may keep it [57] for the day of my burial. 8For the poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

The Plot to Kill Lazarus

⁹When the large crowd of the Jews learned that Jesus ^[58] was there, they came, not only on account of him but also to see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. ¹⁰So the chief priests made plans to put Lazarus to death as well, ¹¹because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

¹²The next day the large crowd that had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.
¹³So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!"
¹⁴And Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, just as it is written.

- 15"Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!"
 16His disciples did not understand these things at
- first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written about him and had been done to him. ¹⁷The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb and raised him from the dead continued to bear witness. ¹⁸The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign. ¹⁹So the Pharisees said to one another, "You see gone after him."

that you are gaining nothing. Look, the world has

Some Greeks Seek Jesus

²⁰Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. ²¹So these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." ²²Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. ²³And Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. ²⁴Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. ²⁵Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever fruit. ²⁵Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. ²⁶If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

The Son of Man Must Be Lifted Up 27"Now is my soul troubled. And what shall I say?

'Father, save me from this hour'? But for this purpose I have come to this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify your name." Then a voice came from heaven: "I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again." ²⁹The crowd that stood there and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him." 30 Jesus answered, "This voice has come for your sake, not mine. 31 Now is the judgment of this world; now will the ruler of this world be cast out. 32 And I, when I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself." 33He said this to show by what kind of death he was going to die. 34So the crowd answered him, "We have heard from the Law that the Christ remains forever. How can you say that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of Man?" 35So Jesus said to them, "The light is among you for a little while longer. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. The one who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. ³⁶While you have

When Jesus had said these things, he departed and 39 Therefore they could not believe. For again Isaiah

Jesus Came to Save the World

44 And Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me but in him who sent me. ⁴⁵And whoever sees me sees him who sent me. ⁴⁶I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. 47 lf anyone hears my words and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I did not come to judge the world but to save the world. ⁴⁸The one who rejects me and does not receive my words has a judge; the word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day. 49 For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment-what to say and what to speak. ⁵⁰And I know that his commandment is eternal life.

What I say, therefore, I say as the Father has told me."

Jesus Washes the Disciples' Feet

13:1 Now before the Feast of the Passover, when Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ²During supper, when the devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him, ³Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going back to God, ⁴rose from supper. He laid aside his outer garments, and taking a towel, tied it around his waist. ⁵Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. ⁶He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?" 7Jesus answered him. "What I am doing you do not understand now, but afterward you will understand." 8Peter said to him, "You shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered him, "If I do not wash you, you have no share with me." 9Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" ¹⁰Jesus said to him, "The one who has bathed does not need to wash, except for his feet, ^[59] but is completely clean. And you^[60] are clean, but not every one of you." ¹¹For he knew who was to betray him; that was why he said, "Not all of you are clean."

12When he had washed their feet and put on his outer garments and resumed his place, he said to them, "Do you understand what I have done to you? ¹³You call me Teacher and Lord, and you are right, for so I am. ¹⁴If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵For I have given you an example, that you also should do just as I have done to you. ¹⁶Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. ¹⁷If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. ¹⁸I am not speaking of all of you; I know whom I have chosen. But the Scripture will be fulfilled, ^[62] 'He who ate my bread has lifted his heel against me.' ¹⁹I am telling you this now, before it takes place, that when it does take place you may believe that I am he. 20 Trulv. trulv. I say to you, whoever receives the one I send receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me."

One of You Will Betray Me

²¹After saving these things, Jesus was troubled in his spirit, and testified, "Truly, truly, I say to you, one of you will betray me." 22The disciples looked at one another, uncertain of whom he spoke. ²³One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was reclining at table close to Jesus, [63] 24 so Simon Peter motioned to him to ask Jesus 64 of whom he was speaking. 25 So that disciple, leaning back against Jesus, said to him, "Lord, who is it?" ²⁶Jesus answered, "It is he to whom I will give this morsel of bread when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. 27Then after he had taken the morsel, Satan entered into him. Jesus said to him, "What you are going to do, do guickly." ²⁸Now no one at the table knew why he said this to him. ²⁹Some thought that, because Judas had the moneybag. Jesus was telling him. "Buy what we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor. 30 So, after receiving the morsel of bread, he immediately went out. And it

A New Commandment

³¹When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. ³²If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and glorify him at once. ³³Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me, and just as I said to the Jews, so now I also say to you, 'Where I am going you cannot come.' ³⁴A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another. ³⁵By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Jesus Foretells Peter's Denial

³⁶Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered him, "Where I am going you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterward."

³⁷Peter said to him, "Lord, why can I not follow you cannot follow me now, but you will follow afterward."

37Peter said to him, "Lord, why can I not follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

38 Jesus answered, "Will you lay down your life for me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the rooster will not crow till you have denied me three times.

I Am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life

14:1 "Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; ^[65] believe also in me. ²In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? ^[66] ³And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. ⁴And you know the way to where I am going." ^[67] ⁵Thomas said to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?" ⁶Jesus said to him, "I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. ⁷If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. ^[68] From now on you do know him and have seen him."

⁸Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us." ⁹Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? ¹⁰Do you in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. ¹¹Believe me that I am in the Father not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is does his works. ''Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.

12"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. ¹³Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. ¹⁴If you ask me^[69] anything in my name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

15"ff you love me, you will keep my commandments.

16And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, [70] to be with you forever, 17 even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.

¹⁸"I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you. 19 Yet a little while and the world will see me no more, but you will see me. Because I live, you also will live. ²⁰In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and vou in me. and I in vou. ²¹Whoever has my commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves me. And he who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and manifest myself to him." ²²Judas (not lscariot) said to him, "Lord, how is it that you will manifest yourself to us, and not to the world?" ²³Jesus answered him, "If anyone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. ²⁴Whoever does not love me does not keep my words. And the word that you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me.

25"These things I have spoken to you while I am still with vou. ²⁶But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. ²⁷Peace I leave with you: my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. ²⁸You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. ²⁹And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place you may believe. 30 will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no claim on me. 31 but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go from here.

I Am the True Vine

15:1 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. ²Every branch in me that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ³Alreadv vou are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. ⁷If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples. ⁹As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Abide in my love. ¹⁰ If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I his love. ¹¹These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full. ¹²"This is my commandment, that you love one have kept my Father's commandments and abide in another as I have loved you. ¹³Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. ¹⁴You are my friends if you do what I command you. ¹⁵No longer do I call you servants, ^[71] for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from my Father I have made known to you. ¹⁶You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit and that your fruit should abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you. ¹⁷These things I command you, so that you will love one another.

The Hatred of the World

18"If the world hates you, know that it has hated me before it hated you. ¹⁹If you were of the world, the world would love you as its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. ²⁰Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will also keep yours. 21 But all these things they will do to you on account of my name, because they do not know him who sent me. ²²If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have been guilty of sin. [73] but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³Whoever hates me hates my Father also. 24 lf I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin, but now they have seen and hated both me and my Father. ²⁵But the word that is written in their Law must be fulfilled: 'They hated me without a cause.'

- ²⁶"But when the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about me.
 ²⁷And you also will bear witness, because you have
- 16:1 "I have said all these things to you to keep you from falling away. ²They will put you out of the
- synagogues. Indeed, the hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God. ³And they will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me. ⁴But I have said these things to you, that when their hour comes you may remember that I told them to you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

"I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. ⁵But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. ⁷Nevertheless. I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away. for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. ⁸And when he comes, he will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: ⁹concerning sin. because they do not believe in me: 10 concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see me no longer; 11 concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

12"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴He will glorify me, for he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵All that the Father has is mine; therefore I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Your Sorrow Will Turn into Joy

16"A little while, and you will see me no longer; and again a little while, and you will see me." 17So some of his disciples said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you will not see me, and again a little while, and you will see me'; and, 'because I am going to the Father'?" 18 So they were saying, "What does he mean by 'a little while'? We do not know what he is talking about." 19 Jesus knew that they wanted to ask him, so he said to them, "Is this what you are asking yourselves, what I meant by saying, 'A little while and you will not see me, and again a little while and you will see me'? 20 Truly, truly, I say to you, you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will turn into joy. ²¹When a woman is giving birth, she has sorrow because her hour has come, but when she has delivered the baby, she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world. 22 So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy from you.

²³In that day you will ask nothing of me. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you.

²⁴Until now you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive.

that your joy may be full.

I Have Overcome the World

²⁵"I have said these things to you in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in figures of speech but will tell you plainly about the Father. ²⁶In that day you will ask in my name, and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father on your behalf; ²⁷for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. ^[74] ²⁸I came from the Father and have come into the world, and now I am leaving the world and going to the Father."

²⁹His disciples said, "Ah, now you are speaking plainly and not using figurative speech! ³⁰Now we know that you know all things and do not need anyone to question you; this is why we believe that you came from God." ³¹Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe? ³²Behold, the hour is coming, indeed it has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, for the Father is with me. ³³I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation. But take heart; I have overcome the world."

The High Priestly Prayer

17:1 When Jesus had spoken these words, he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, "Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, ²since you have given him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. ³And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. ⁴I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work that you gave me to do. ⁵And now, Father,

⁶"I have manifested your name to the people whom you gave me out of the world. Yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. ⁷Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you. ⁸For I have given them the words that you gave me, and they have received them and have come to know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you sent me. ⁹I am praying glorify me in your own presence with the glory that I had with you before the world existed.

for them. I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. ¹⁰All mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. ¹¹And I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. 12While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. 13 But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. ¹⁴I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 15I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. ^[75] ¹⁶They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17 Sanctify them^[76] in the truth; your word is truth. ¹⁸As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

¹⁹And for their sake I consecrate myself, ^[77] that they also may be sanctified [78] in truth.

20"I do not ask for these only, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, 21 that they may all be one, just as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one, ²³I in them and you in me. that they may become perfectly one, so that the world may know that you sent me and loved them even as you loved me. ²⁴Father. I desire that they also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory that you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world. ²⁵O righteous Father, even though the world does not know you, I know you, and these know that vou have sent me. ²⁶I made known to them your name, and I will continue to make it known, that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and Lin them."

Betrayal and Arrest of Jesus

out with his disciples across the Kidron Valley. where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. ²Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples. ³So Judas, having procured a band of soldiers and some officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, went there with lanterns and torches and weapons. ⁴Then Jesus, knowing all that would happen to him, came forward and said to them. "Whom do you seek?" ⁵They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am he." [79] Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. ⁶When Jesus [80] said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground. 7So he asked them again, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." 8Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. So, if you seek me, let these men go." ⁹This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken: "Of those whom you gave me I have lost not one." 10 Then Simon priest's servant^[81] and cut off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) ¹¹So Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword into its sheath; shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"

Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the high

Jesus Faces Annas and Caiaphas

12 So the band of soldiers and their captain and the officers of the Jews arrested Jesus and bound him. 13First they led him to Annas, for he was the fatherin-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. 14 It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews that it would be expedient that one man should die for the people.

Peter Denies Jesus

¹⁵Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he entered with Jesus into the court of the high priest. 16 but Peter stood outside at the door. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest. went out and spoke to the servant girl who kept watch at the door, and brought Peter in. ¹⁷The servant girl at the door said to Peter, "You also are not one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said, "I am not." 18 Now the servants [82] and officers had made a charcoal fire, because it was cold, and they were standing and warming themselves. Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

¹⁹The high priest then questioned Jesus about his disciples and his teaching. ²⁰Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret.

²¹Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them; they know what I said."

²²When he had said these things, one of the officers standing by struck Jesus with his hand, saying, "Is that how you answer the high priest?"

²³Jesus answered him, "If what I said is wrong, bear witness about the wrong; but if what I said is right, why do you strike me?"

²⁴Annas then sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.

Peter Denies Jesus Again

²⁵Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. So they said to him, "You also are not one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said, "I am not." ²⁶One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, "Did I not see you in the garden with him?" ²⁷Peter again denied it, and at once a rooster

Jesus Before Pilate

²⁸Then thev led Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the governor's headquarters. [83] It was early morning. They themselves did not enter the governor's headquarters, so that they would not be defiled, but could eat the Passover. ²⁹So Pilate went outside to them and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" ³⁰They answered him, "If this man were not doing evil, we would not have delivered him over to you." ³¹Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law." The Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death." ³²This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to show by what kind of death he was going to die.

My Kingdom Is Not of This World 33So Pilate entered his headquarters again and called Jesus and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" 34 Jesus answered, "Do you say this of vour own accord, or did others say it to you about me?" 35Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered you over to me. What have you done?" ³⁶Jesus answered, "My kinadom is not of this world. If my kinadom were that I might not be delivered over to the Jews. But my kingdom is not from the world." 37 Then Pilate said to him, "So you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. For this purpose I was born and for of this world, my servants would have been fighting, this purpose I have come into the world—to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice." ³⁸Pilate said to him. "What is truth?"

After he had said this, he went back outside to the Jews and told them, "I find no guilt in him. 39But you have a custom that I should release one man for you at the Passover. So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?" ⁴⁰They cried out again, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber [84]

the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him in a purple robe.

They came up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and struck him with their hands. ⁴Pilate went out again and said to them, "See, I am bringing him out to you that you may know that I find no guilt in him." ⁵So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Behold the man!" ⁶When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him." ⁷The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has made himself the Son of God." ⁸When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid. ⁹He entered his headquarters again and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. ¹⁰So Pilate said to him, "You will not speak to me? Do you authority to crucify you?" ¹¹Jesus answered him, "You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin."

¹²From then on Pilate sought to release him, but the not know that I have authority to release you and Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar." ¹³So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Stone Pavement, and in Aramaic [85] Gabbatha. ¹⁴Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour. [86] He said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" ¹⁵They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." ¹⁶So he delivered him over to them to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

So they took Jesus, ¹⁷ and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called The Place of a Skull. which in Aramaic is called Golgotha. 18 There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. ¹⁹Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." 20 Many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek, 21 So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered. "What I have written I have written."

²³When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his garments and divided them into four parts, one part for each soldier; also his tunic. [87] But the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom, ²⁴so they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be." This was to fulfill the Scripture which says,

So the soldiers did these things, ²⁵but standing by

"They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots."

the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" ²⁷Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

The Death of Jesus

²⁸After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), "I thirst." ²⁹A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. ³⁰When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Jesus' Side Is Pierced

³¹Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. 32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. ³³But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. 34But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. 35He who saw it has borne witness —his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe. ³⁶For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken." 37 And again another Scripture says. "They will look on him whom they have pierced."

Jesus Is Buried

³⁸After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews. asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. 39 Nicodemus also, who earlier had come to Jesus [88] by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventyfive pounds [89] in weight. 40 So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. 41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. 42 So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

The Resurrection

20:1 Now on the first day of the week Mary Magdalene came to the tomb early, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. ²So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." 3So Peter went out with the other disciple, and they were going toward the tomb. ⁴Both of them were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵And stooping to look in, he saw the linen cloths lying there, but he did not go in. ⁶Then Simon Peter came, following him. and went into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying there, ⁷and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus'[90] head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself. 8Then the other disciple, who had reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; ⁹ for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. ¹⁰Then the disciples went back to their homes.

¹¹But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb, and as she wept she stooped to look into the tomb. ¹²And she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had lain, one at the head and one at the feet. ¹³They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." ¹⁴Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. ¹⁵Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." ¹⁶Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, [91] "Rabboni!" (which means Teacher). ¹⁷Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God." ¹⁸Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"and that he had said these things to her.

Jesus Appears to the Disciples

¹⁹On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." ²⁰When he had said this. he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." ²²And when he had said this. he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³lf you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld."

Jesus and Thomas

²⁴Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, ^[92] was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe."

²⁶Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe." ²⁸Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" ²⁹Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

The Purpose of This Book

³⁰Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; ³¹but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

Jesus Appears to Seven Disciples

21:1 After this Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias, and he revealed himself in this way. ²Simon Peter, Thomas (called the Twin), Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. ³Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

shore; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. ⁵Jesus said to them, "Children, do you have any fish?" They answered him, "No." ⁶He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in, because of the quantity of fish. ⁷That disciple whom Jesus loved therefore said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his outer garment, for ⁴Just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the sea. ⁸The other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, but about a hundred yards^[93] off.

⁹When they got out on land, they saw a charcoal fire he was stripped for work, and threw himself into the in place, with fish laid out on it, and bread. ¹⁰Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." ¹¹So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, 153 of them. And although there were so many, the net was not torn. ¹²Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. ¹³Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish. ¹⁴This was now the third time that Jesus was revealed to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

Jesus and Peter

¹⁵When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him. "Yes. Lord: you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." 16He said to him a second time. "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." ¹⁷He said to him the third time. "Simon. son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. 18 Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you used to dress yourself and walk wherever you wanted, but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you and carry you where you do not want to go." 19 (This he said to show by what kind of death he was to glorify God.) And after saying this he said to him, "Follow me."

Jesus and the Beloved Apostle

²⁰Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them, the one who had been reclining at table close to him and had said, "Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?" ²¹When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?" ²²Jesus said to him, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me!" ²³So the saying spread abroad among the brothers ^[94] that this disciple was not to die; yet ²⁴This is the disciple who is bearing witness about these things, and who has written these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?"

25 Now there are also many other things that Jesus did. Were every one of them to be written, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

1:1 In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, ²until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles

when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. ³He presented himself alive to them after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.

⁴And while staying^[1] with them he ordered them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, which, he said, "you heard from me; ⁵for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with^[2] the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

The Ascension

⁶So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" ⁷He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." ⁹And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. ¹⁰And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, 11 and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

Matthias Chosen to Replace Judas

- 12Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. ¹³And when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of James. ¹⁴All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers. ^[3]
- ¹⁵In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (the company of persons was in all about 120) and said, ¹⁶"Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. ¹⁷For he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry." ¹⁸(Now this man acquired a field with the reward of

2:1 When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. ²And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³And

it filled the entire house where they were sitting. ³And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. ⁴And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

⁵Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. ⁶And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. ⁷And they were amazed and astonished, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? ⁸And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? ⁹Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia. 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." ¹²And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" ¹³But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine."

Peter's Sermon at Pentecost

14But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them: "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. ¹⁵For these people are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day. ^[6] ¹⁶But this is what was uttered through the prophet Joel:

and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams;

18 even on my male servants and female servants in those days I will pour out my Spirit, and they shall prophesy.

17"And in the last days it shall be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh,

¹⁹And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke; ²⁰the sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood.

magnificent day.

21 And it shall come to pass that everyone who calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

22"Men of Israel. hear these words: Jesus of before the day of the Lord comes, the great and

Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with mighty works and wonders and signs that God did through him in your midst, as you yourselves know— ²³this Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. ²⁴God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it. ²⁵For David says concerning him.

"I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand that I may not be shaken; ²⁶therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; my flesh also will dwell in hope.

²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One see corruption. 28 You have made known to me the paths of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.

²⁹"Brothers, I may say to you with confidence about the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Being therefore a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants on his throne, ³¹he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that he was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh see corruption. 32This Jesus God raised up, and of that we all are witnesses. 33Being therefore exalted at the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this that you yourselves are seeing and hearing. 34 For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself savs.

"The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand,

³⁵until I make your enemies your footstool.'

³⁶Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."

³⁷Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles. "Brothers, what shall we do?" 38 And Peter said to them. "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself." 40 And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them. saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation." 41 So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

The Fellowship of the Believers

42 And they devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and the fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. 43And awe [8] came upon every soul. and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. 44And all who believed were together and had all things in common. 45And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need. ⁴⁶And day by day, attending the temple together and breaking bread in their homes, they received their food with glad and generous hearts, 47 praising God and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to their number day by day those who were being saved.

The Lame Beggar Healed

3:1 Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. 92And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms of those entering the temple. ³Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. ⁴And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, "Look at us." 5And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. ⁶But Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!" ⁷And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. ⁸And leaping up he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. ⁹And all the people saw him walking and praising God. ¹⁰and recognized him as the one who sat at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, asking for alms.

Peter Speaks in Solomon's Portico

¹¹While he clung to Peter and John, all the people, utterly astounded, ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's. 12 And when Peter saw it he addressed the people: "Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we have made him walk? 13The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, glorified his servant[10] Jesus, whom you delivered over and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release him. ¹⁴But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, ¹⁵ and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. ¹⁶And his name—by faith in his name has made this man strong whom you see and know, and the faith that is through Jesus [11] has given the man this perfect health in the presence of you all.

¹⁷"And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. 18 But what God foretold by the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer, he thus fulfilled. ¹⁹Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out. 20 that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord, and that he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus, ²¹whom heaven must receive until the time for restoring all the things about which God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets long ago. 22 Moses said, 'The Lord God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers. You shall listen to him in whatever he tells you. ²³And it shall be that every soul who does not listen to that prophet shall be destroyed from the people.' 24 And all the prophets who have spoken. from Samuel and those who came after him, also proclaimed these days. ²⁵You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And in your offspring shall all the families of the earth be blessed.' 26God, having raised up his servant, sent him to you first, to bless you by turning every one of

Peter and John Before the Council

4:1 And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, ²greatly annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. ³And they arrested them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. ⁴But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand.

⁵On the next day their rulers and elders and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem, ⁶with Annas the high priest and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. ⁷And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" ⁸Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, ⁹if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. ¹¹This Jesus ^[12] is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. ^[13] ¹²And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

¹³Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated, common men, they were astonished. And they healed, ¹⁰let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of common men, they were astonished. And they recognized that they had been with Jesus. ¹⁴But seeing the man who was healed standing beside them, they had nothing to say in opposition. ¹⁵But when they had commanded them to leave the council, they conferred with one another, ¹⁶saying, "What shall we do with these men? For that a notable sign has been performed through them is evident to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. ¹⁷But in order that it may spread no them and charged them not to speak or teach at all in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, you must judge, ²⁰for we cannot but speak of what we have seen and heard." ²¹And when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people, for all were praising God for what had happened. ²²For the man on whom this sign of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

further among the people, let us warn them to speak no more to anyone in this name." ¹⁸So they called

The Believers Pray for Boldness

²³When they were released, they went to their friends and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴And when they heard it, they lifted their voices together to God and said, "Sovereign Lord, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and everything in them, ²⁵who through the mouth of our father David, your servant. ^[14] said by the Holy Spirit,

"'Why did the Gentiles rage, and the peoples plot in vain? ²⁶The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers were gathered together, against the Lord and against his Anointed'[15]

²⁷for truly in this city there were gathered together against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, ²⁸to do whatever your hand and your plan had predestined to take grant to your servants^[16] to continue to speak your word with all boldness, ³⁰while you stretch out your hand to heal, and signs and wonders are performed through the name of your holy servant Jesus." ³¹And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the word of God with boldness.

place. ²⁹And now, Lord, look upon their threats and

They Had Everything in Common

³²Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. ³³And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. ³⁴There was not a needy person among them, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold ³⁵ and laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need. 36Thus Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Barnabas (which means son of encouragement), a Levite, a native of Cyprus, ³⁷ sold a field that belonged to him and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet.

Ananias and Sapphira

5:1 But a man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property, ²and with his wife's knowledge he kept back for himself some of the proceeds and brought only a part of it and laid it at the apostles' feet. ³But Peter said, "Ananias, why at the apostles' feet. ³But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and to keep back for yourself part of the proceeds of the land? ⁴While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? Why is it that you have contrived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to God." ⁵When Ananias heard these words, he fell down and breathed his last. And great fear came upon all who heard of it. ⁶The young men rose and wrapped him up and carried him out and buried him.

⁷After an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. ⁸And Peter said to her, "Tell me whether you^[17] sold the land for so much." And she said, "Yes, for so much." ⁹But Peter those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." ¹⁰Immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. When the young men came in they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹And great fear came upon the whole church and upon all who heard of these things.

Many Signs and Wonders Done

¹²Now many signs and wonders were regularly done among the people by the hands of the apostles. And they were all together in Solomon's Portico. ¹³None of the rest dared join them, but the people held them in high esteem. ¹⁴And more than ever believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women, ¹⁵so that they even carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. ¹⁶The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

The Apostles Arrested and Freed

¹⁷But the high priest rose up, and all who were with him (that is, the party of the Sadducees), and filled with jealousy ¹⁸they arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison. ¹⁹But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out, and said, ²⁰"Go and stand in the temple and speak to the people all the words of this Life." ²¹And when they heard this, they entered the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest came, and those who were with him, they called together the council and all the senate of the people of Israel and sent to the prison to have them brought. ²²But when the officers came, they did not find them in the prison, so they returned and reported, ²³"We found the prison securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but when we opened them we found no one inside." ²⁴Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly the people.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest questioned them, ²⁸saying, "We strictly charged you not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you intend to bring this man's perplexed about them, wondering what this would come to. ²⁵And someone came and told them, "Look! The men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people." ²⁶Then the captain with the officers went and brought them, but not by force, for they were afraid of being stoned by blood upon us." ²⁹But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. ³⁰The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. ³¹God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. ³²And

³³When they heard this, they were enraged and we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

wanted to kill them. ³⁴But a Pharisee in the council named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in honor by all the people, stood up and gave orders to put the men outside for a little while. ³⁵And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you are about to do with these men. ³⁶For before these days Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing. 37 After him Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away some of the people after him. He too perished, and all who followed him were scattered. 38So in the present case I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or this undertaking is of man, it will fail; 39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God!" So they took his advice, 40 and when they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. ⁴¹Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name. ⁴²And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Seven Chosen to Serve

6:1 Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists [18] arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. ²And the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. ³Therefore, brothers. [19] pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this dutv. ⁴But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." ⁵And what they said pleased the whole gathering, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch.

⁶These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands on them.

⁷And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

Stephen Is Seized

⁸And Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. 9Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia, rose up and disputed with Stephen. 10 But they could not withstand the wisdom and the Spirit with which he was speaking. 11 Then they secretly instigated men who said. "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." 12 And they stirred up the people and the elders and the scribes, and they came upon him and seized him and brought him before the council, ¹³ and they set up false witnesses who said, "This man never ceases to speak words against this holy place and the law, ¹⁴ for we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place and will change the customs that Moses delivered to us." ¹⁵And gazing at him, all who sat in the council saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech

7:1 And the high priest said, "Are these things so?" ²And Stephen said:

"Brothers and fathers, hear me. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. ³and said to him, 'Go out from your land and from your kindred and go into the land that I will show you.' 4Then he went out from the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran. And after his father died. God removed him from there into this land in which you are now living. ⁵Yet he gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot's length, but promised to give it to him as a possession and to his offspring after him, though he had no child. ⁶And God spoke to this effect—that his offspring would be sojourners in a land belonging to others, who would enslave them and afflict them four hundred years. 7'But I will judge the nation that they serve,' said God, 'and after that they shall come out and worship me in this place.' 8And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac became the father of Jacob. and Jacob of the twelve patriarchs. ⁹"And the patriarchs, jealous of Joseph, sold him into Egypt; but God was with him 10 and rescued him out of all his afflictions and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him ruler over Egypt and over all his household. 11 Now there came a famine throughout all Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, and our fathers could find no food. 12But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers on their first visit. ¹³And on the second visit Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family became known to Pharaoh. 14 And Joseph sent and summoned Jacob his father and all his kindred. seventy-five persons in all. 15And Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, he and our fathers. 16 and they were carried back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

And he was brought up for three months in his father's house, ²¹and when he was exposed, Pharaoh's daughter adopted him and brought him up as her own son. ²²And Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. ³¹When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight, and as he drew near to look, there came the voice of the Lord: ³²'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.' And Moses trembled and did not dare to look. ³³Then the Lord said to him, 'Take off the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. ³⁴I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their groaning, and I have come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send you to Egypt.' 35"This Moses. whom they rejected, saying, 'Who made you a ruler and a judge?'—this man God sent as both ruler and redeemer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. ³⁶This man led them out, performing wonders and signs in Egypt and at the Red Sea and in the wilderness for forty vears. ³⁷This is the Moses who said to the Israelites, 'God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brothers.' 38This is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness with the angel who

30"Now when forty years had passed, an angel

He received living oracles to give to us. ³⁹Our fathers refused to obey him, but thrust him aside, and in their hearts they turned to Egypt, ⁴⁰saying to Aaron, 'Make for us gods who will go before us. As for this Moses who led us out from the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him.' ⁴¹And they made a calf in those days, and offered a sacrifice to the idol and were rejoicing in the works of their

So it was until the days of David, ⁴⁶who found favor in the sight of God and asked to find a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. ^[20] ⁴⁷But it was Solomon who built a house for him. ⁴⁸Yet the Most High does not dwell in houses made by hands, as the prophet says,

The Stoning of Stephen

⁵⁴Now when they heard these things they were enraged, and they ground their teeth at him. 55But he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the voice and stopped their ears and rushed together [21]

hand of God. ⁵⁶And he said, "Behold. I see the right hand of God." 57But they cried out with a loud at him. 58Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹And as they were stoning Stephen, he called out, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit," 60 And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Saul Ravages the Church

8:1 And Saul approved of his execution.

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles. ²Devout men buried Stephen and made great lamentation over him. ³But Saul was ravaging the church, and entering house after house, he dragged off men and women and committed them to prison.

Philip Proclaims Christ in Samaria

⁴Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word. ⁵Philip went down to the city of Samaria and proclaimed to them the Christ. ⁶And the crowds with one accord paid attention to what was being said by Philip when they heard him and saw the signs that he did. ⁷For unclean spirits, crying out with a loud voice, came out of many who had them, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. ⁸So there was much joy in that city.

Simon the Magician Believes

⁹But there was a man named Simon, who had previously practiced magic in the city and amazed the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was somebody great. ¹⁰They all paid attention to him, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is the power of God that is called Great." 11 And thev paid attention to him because for a long time he had amazed them with his magic. 12But when they believed Philip as he preached good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women, ¹³Even Simon himself believed, and after being baptized he continued with Philip. And seeing signs and great

Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch

²⁶Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Rise and go toward the south^[25] to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is a desert place.

²⁷And he rose and went. And there was an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was returning, seated in his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over and join this chariot." ³⁰So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³²Now the passage of the Scripture that he was reading was this:

"Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter and like a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he opens not his mouth. ³³In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth."

34And the eunuch said to Philip, "About whom, I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" 35Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus. ³⁶And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?" [26] 38 And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. ³⁹And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. 40But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he preached the gospel to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

The Conversion of Saul

9:1 But Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest ² and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any belonging to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. ³Now as he went on his way, he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. ⁴And falling to the ground he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" ⁵And he said. "Who are you, Lord?" And he said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. ⁶But rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." ⁷The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. 8Saul rose from the ground. and although his eyes were opened, he saw nothing. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. ⁹And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

¹⁰Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision. "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." 11 And the Lord said to him, "Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, 12 and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." 13But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. ¹⁴And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name." 15But the Lord said to him, "Go. for he is a chosen instrument of mine to carry my name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. 16For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." 17So Ananias departed appeared to you on the road by which you came has and entered the house. And laving his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus who sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." 18 And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he rose and was baptized; ¹⁹and taking food, he was strengthened.

Saul Proclaims Jesus in Synagogues

For some days he was with the disciples at Damascus. ²⁰And immediately he proclaimed Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God." ²¹And all who heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this the man who made havoc in Jerusalem of those who called upon this name? And has he not come here for this purpose, to bring them bound before the chief priests?" ²²But Saul increased all the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived in Damascus by proving that Jesus was the Christ.

Saul Escapes from Damascus

²³When many days had passed, the Jews plotted to kill him, ²⁴but their plot became known to Saul. They were watching the gates day and night in order to kill him, ²⁵but his disciples took him by night and let him him, ²⁵but his disciples took him by night and let him down through an opening in the wall, ^[27] lowering him in a basket.

Saul in Jerusalem

²⁶And when he had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples. And they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple. ²⁷But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen the Lord, who spoke to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. ²⁸So he went in and out among them at Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. ²⁹And he spoke and disputed against the Hellenists. ^[28] But they were seeking to kill him.

³¹So the church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was being built up. And walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it multiplied.

³⁰And when the brothers learned this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him off to Tarsus.

The Healing of Aeneas

³²Now as Peter went here and there among them all, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda. ³³There he found a man named Aeneas, bedridden for eight years, who was paralyzed. ³⁴And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; rise and make your bed." And immediately he rose.

and make your bed." And immediately he rose.

35And all the residents of Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

Dorcas Restored to Life

³⁶Now there was in Joppa a disciple named Tabitha, which, translated, means Dorcas. [29] She was full of good works and acts of charity. 37 In those days she became ill and died, and when they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. 38Since Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, urging him, "Please come to us without delay." 39 So Peter rose and went with them. And when he arrived, they took him to the upper room. All the widows stood beside him weeping and showing tunics[30] and other garments that Dorcas made while she was with them. 40But Peter put them all outside, and knelt down and prayed; and turning to the body he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. 41 And he gave her his hand and raised her up. Then calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive. 42 And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³And he stayed in Joppa for

Peter and Cornelius

10:1 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion of what was known as the Italian Cohort. ²a devout man who feared God with all his household, gave alms generously to the people, and prayed continually to God. ³About the ninth hour of the day[31] he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God come in and say to him, "Cornelius." ⁴And he stared at him in terror and said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have ascended as a memorial before God. ⁵And now send men to Joppa and bring one Simon who is called Peter. ⁶He is lodging with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea." ⁷When the angel who spoke to him had departed, he called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among those who attended him, ⁸ and having related everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.

Peter's Vision

⁹The next day, as they were on their journey and approaching the city, Peter went up on the housetop about the sixth hour to pray. 10 And he became hungry and wanted something to eat, but while they were preparing it, he fell into a trance ¹¹ and saw the heavens opened and something like a great sheet descending, being let down by its four corners upon the earth. 12 In it were all kinds of animals and reptiles and birds of the air. 13 And there came a voice to him: "Rise. Peter: kill and eat." 14 But Peter said, "By no means, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean." ¹⁵And the voice came to him again a second time, "What God has made clean, do not call common." 16 This happened three times, and the thing was taken up at once to called Peter was lodging there. ¹⁹And while Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you. ²⁰Rise and go down and accompany them without hesitation, for I have sent them." ²¹And Peter went down to the men and said, "I am the one you are looking for. What is the reason for your coming?" ²²And they said, "Cornelius, a centurion, an upright and God-fearing man, who is well spoken of by the whole Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to send for you made inquiry for Simon's house, stood at the gate

18 and called out to ask whether Simon who was to come to his house and to hear what you have to say." ²³So he invited them in to be his guests.

The next day he rose and went away with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. ²⁴And on the following day they entered Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. ²⁵When

Peter entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and worshiped him. ²⁶But Peter lifted him up, saying, "Stand up; I too am a man." ²⁷And as he talked with him, he went in and found many persons gathered. ²⁸And he said to them, "You yourselves and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing ³¹and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your alms have been remembered before God. ³²Send therefore to Joppa and ask for Simon who is called Peter. He is lodging in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.' ³³So I sent for you at once, and you have been kind enough to come. Now therefore we are all here in the presence of God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord."

Gentiles Hear the Good News

³⁴So Peter opened his mouth and said: "Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, 35 but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. ³⁶As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all). 37 you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: 38 how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. 39And

we are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, 40 but God raised him on the third day and made him to appear. 41 not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42 And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. ⁴³To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

The Holy Spirit Falls on the Gentiles

44While Peter was still saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell on all who heard the word. 45And the believers from among the circumcised who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out even on the Gentiles. ⁴⁶For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter declared, 47"Can anyone withhold water for baptizing these people. who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" ⁴⁸And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to remain for some days.

Peter Reports to the Church

11:1 Now the apostles and the brothers [34] who were throughout Judea heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God. ²So when Peter went up to Jerusalem, the circumcision party criticized him, saying, 3"You went to uncircumcised men and ate with them." 4But Peter began and explained it to them in order: 5"I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, something like a great sheet descending, being let down from heaven by its four corners, and it came down to me. ⁶Looking at it closely, I observed animals and beasts of prey and reptiles and birds of the air. ⁷And I heard a voice reptiles and birds of the air. ⁷And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter; kill and eat.' ⁸But I said, 'By no means, Lord; for nothing common or unclean has ever entered my mouth.' ⁹But the voice answered a second time from heaven, 'What God has made clean, do not call common.' ¹⁰This happened three times, and all was drawn up again into heaven. ¹¹And behold, at that very moment three men arrived at the house in which we were, sent to also accompanied me, and we entered the man's house. ¹³And he told us how he had seen the angel stand in his house and say, 'Send to Joppa and bring Simon who is called Peter; 14he will declare to you a message by which you will be saved, you and all your household.' 15 As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them just as on us at the beginning. ¹⁶And I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17 If then God gave the same gift to them as he gave to us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could stand in God's way?" ¹⁸When they heard these things they fell silent. And they glorified God, saying,

"Then to the Gentiles also God has granted repentance that leads to life."

me from Caesarea. ¹²And the Spirit told me to go with them, making no distinction. These six brothers

The Church in Antioch

¹⁹Now those who were scattered because of the persecution that arose over Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except Jews. ²⁰But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who on coming to Antioch spoke to the Hellenists [35] also, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number who believed turned to the Lord. 22 The report of this came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas to Antioch. 23When he came and saw the grace of God, he was glad, and he exhorted them all to remain faithful to the Lord with steadfast purpose, ²⁴for he was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great many people were added to the Lord. ²⁵So Barnabas went to Tarsus to look for Saul, ²⁶and when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. For a whole year they met with the church and taught a great many people. And in Antioch the disciples were first called Christians.

Agabus stood up and foretold by the Spirit that there would be a great famine over all the world (this took place in the days of Claudius). ²⁹So the disciples determined, everyone according to his ability, to send relief to the brothers [36] living in Judea. ³⁰And they did so, sending it to the elders by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

²⁷Now in these days prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸And one of them named

James Killed and Peter Imprisoned

12:1 About that time Herod the king laid violent hands on some who belonged to the church. ²He killed James the brother of John with the sword. 3and when he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. This was during the days of Unleavened Bread. ⁴And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after the Passover to bring him out to the people. ⁵So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church.

Peter Is Rescued

⁶Now when Herod was about to bring him out, on that very night. Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains, and sentries before the door were guarding the prison. ⁷And behold an angel of the Lord stood next to him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his hands. ⁸And the angel said to him. "Dress vourself and put on your sandals." And he did so. And he said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me." ⁹And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. 10When they had passed the first and the second quard, they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel left him. 11 When Peter came to himself, he said, "Now I am sure that the Lord has sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting."

¹²When he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose other name was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. ¹³And when he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer. ¹⁴Recognizing Peter's voice, in her joy she did not open the gate but ran in and reported that Peter was standing at the gate. ¹⁵They said to her, "You are out of your mind." But she kept insisting that it was so, and they kept saying, "It is his angel!" ¹⁶But Peter continued knocking, and when they opened, they saw him and were amazed. ¹⁷But motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, "Tell these things to James and to the brothers." Then he departed and went to another place.

18 Now when day came, there was no little disturbance among the soldiers over what had become of Peter. 19 And after Herod searched for him and did not find him, he examined the sentries and ordered that they should be put to death. Then he went down from Judea to Caesarea and spent time there.

The Death of Herod

- ²⁰Now Herod was angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon, and they came to him with one accord, and having persuaded Blastus, the king's chamberlain, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. 21On an appointed day Herod put on his royal robes, took his seat upon the throne, and delivered an oration to them. ²²And the people were shouting, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" 23 Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him down, because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and breathed his last.
- 24But the word of God increased and multiplied.
- ²⁵And Barnabas and Saul returned from [38]
 Jerusalem when they had completed their service, bringing with them John, whose other name was Mark.

Barnabas and Saul Sent Off prophets and teachers, Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, [39] Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on

Barnabas and Saul on Cyprus

⁴So. being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus. 5When they arrived at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had John to assist them. ⁶When they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they came upon a certain magician, a Jewish false prophet named Bar-Jesus. ⁷He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence, who summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God. ⁸But Elymas the magician (for that is the meaning of his name) opposed them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the faith. ⁹But Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked intently at him ¹⁰ and said. "You son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, full of all deceit and villainy, will you not stop making crooked the straight paths of the Lord? 11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind and unable to see the sun for a time." Immediately mist and darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking people to lead him by the hand. ¹²Then the proconsul believed, when he saw what had occurred, for he was astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas at Antioch in Pisidia

¹³Now Paul and his companions set sail from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John left them and returned to Jerusalem. 14 but they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. And on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. ¹⁵After the reading from the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent a message to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, say it." 16So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand said: "Men of Israel and you who fear God, listen. 17The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made the people israel chose our fathers and made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with uplifted arm he led them out of it.

18 And for about forty years he put up with [40] them in the wilderness. 19 And after destroying seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance. 20 All this took about 450 years. And after that he gave them judges until Samuel the removed him, he raised up David to be their king, of whom he testified and said, 'I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' ²³Of this man's offspring God has brought to Israel a Savior, Jesus, as he promised. ²⁴Before his coming, John had proclaimed a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel. ²⁵And as John was finishing his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. No, but behold, after me one is coming, the sandals of whose feet I am

"I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David."

³⁵Therefore he says also in another psalm,

"'You will not let your Holy One see corruption.'

36For David, after he had served the purpose of God in his own generation, fell asleep and was laid with his fathers and saw corruption, ³⁷but he whom God raised up did not see corruption. ³⁸Let it be known to 41"Look, you scoffers, be astounded and perish;

for I am doing a work in your days,

a work that you will not believe, even if one tells it to you."

⁴²As they went out, the people begged that these things might be told them the next Sabbath. ⁴³And after the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who, as they spoke with them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.

44The next Sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began to contradict what was spoken by Paul, reviling him. ⁴⁶And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, saying, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken first to you. Since you thrust it aside and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we are turning to the Gentiles. 47 For so the Lord has commanded us, saying,

- "I have made you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring salvation to the ends of the earth."
- ⁴⁸And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying the word of the Lord, and as many as were appointed to eternal life believed.

many as were appointed to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was spreading throughout the whole region. 50 But the Jews incited men of the city, stirred up persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their district.

51But they shook off the dust from their feet against the devout women of high standing and the leading them and went to Iconium. ⁵²And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Paul and Barnabas at Iconium

14:1 Now at Iconium they entered together into the Jewish synagogue and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Jews and Greeks believed. ²But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the brothers. [42] 3So they remained for a long time, speaking boldly for the Lord, who bore witness to the word of his grace. granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. ⁴But the people of the city were divided; some sided with the Jews and some with the apostles. 5When an attempt was made by both Gentiles and Jews, with their rulers, to mistreat them and to stone them. 6they learned of it and fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding country, ⁷ and there they continued to preach the gospel.

Paul and Barnabas at Lystra

⁸Now at Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet. He was crippled from birth and had never walked. ⁹He listened to Paul speaking, And Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well, [43] 10 said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And he sprang up and began walking. 11 And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in Lycaonian, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!" 12 Barnabas they called Zeus. and Paul, Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. ¹³And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was at the entrance to the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates and wanted to offer sacrifice with the crowds. ¹⁴But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their garments and rushed out into the crowd, crying out, ¹⁵"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men, of like nature with you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to a living God, who made the people from offering sacrifice to them.

Paul Stoned at Lystra

¹⁹But Jews came from Antioch and Iconium, and having persuaded the crowds, they stoned Paul and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead. ²⁰But when the disciples gathered about him, he rose up and entered the city, and on the next day he went on with Barnabas to Derbe. ²¹When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, 22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God. ²³And when they had appointed elders for them in every church, with prayer and fasting they committed them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

Paul and Barnabas Return to Antioch in Syria

²⁴Then they passed through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. ²⁵And when they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia, ²⁶and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work that they had fulfilled. ²⁷And when they arrived and gathered the church together, they declared all that God had done with them, and how he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles. ²⁸And they remained no little time with the disciples.

The Jerusalem Council

15:1 But some men came down from Judea and were teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." ²And after Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and debate with them, Paul and Barnabas and some of the others were appointed to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and the elders about this question. ³So, being sent on their way by the church, they passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, describing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and brought great joy to all the brothers. [44] 4When they came to Jerusalem, they were welcomed by the church and the apostles and the elders, and they declared all that God had done with them. ⁵But some believers who belonged to the party of the Pharisees rose up and said, "It is necessary to circumcise them and to order them to keep the law of Moses."

⁶The apostles and the elders were gathered

"Brothers, you know that in the early days God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel and believe.

8 And God, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Holy Spirit just as he did to us, ⁹and he made no distinction between us and together to consider this matter. ⁷And after there had been much debate. Peter stood up and said to them.

them, having cleansed their hearts by faith. ¹⁰Now, therefore, why are you putting God to the test by placing a yoke on the neck of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? ¹¹But we believe that we will be saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they will." ¹²And all the assembly fell silent, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul as they related what signs and wonders God had done through them among the

Barnabas and Paul as they related what signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles. ¹³After they finished speaking, James replied, "Brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴Simeon has related how God first visited the Gentiles, to take from them a people for his name. ¹⁵And with this the

and I will restore it,

17 that the remnant of mankind may seek the Lord, and all the Gentiles who are called by my name, says the Lord, who makes these things 18 known from of old.

¹⁹Therefore my judgment is that we should not trouble those of the Gentiles who turn to God, ²⁰but should write to them to abstain from the things polluted by idols, and from sexual immorality, and from what has been strangled, and from blood. ²¹For from ancient generations Moses has had in every city those who proclaim him, for he is read every Sabbath in the synagogues."

The Council's Letter to Gentile Believers

²²Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas. They sent Judas called Barsabbas. and

Silas, leading men among the brothers, 23with the following letter: "The brothers, both the apostles and the elders, to the brothers [46] who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, greetings. 24Since we have heard that some persons have gone out from us and troubled you [47] with words, unsettling your minds, although we gave them no instructions, ²⁵it has seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, ²⁶men who have risked their lives for the sake of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷We have therefore sent Judas and Silas, who themselves will tell you the same things by word of mouth. ²⁸For it has seemed good to the Holv Spirit and to us to lay on you no greater burden than these requirements: ²⁹that you abstain from what has been sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from what has been strangled, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell."

30 So when they were sent off, they went down to Antioch, and having gathered the congregation together, they delivered the letter. ³¹And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of its encouragement. ³²And Judas and Silas, who were themselves prophets, encouraged and strengthened the brothers with many words. ³³And after they had spent some time, they were sent off in peace by the brothers to those who had sent them. ^[48] ³⁵But Paul and Barnabas remained in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

Paul and Barnabas Separate

³⁶And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let us return and visit the brothers in every city where we proclaimed the word of the Lord, and see how they are." ³⁷Now Barnabas wanted to take with them John called Mark. ³⁸But Paul thought best not to take with them one who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work. ³⁹And there arose a sharp disagreement, so that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus, ⁴⁰but Paul chose Silas and departed, having been commended by the brothers to the grace of the Lord. ⁴¹And he went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

Timothy Joins Paul and Silas

16:1 Paul^[49] came also to Derbe and to Lystra. A disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who was a believer, but his father was a Greek. ²He was well spoken of by the brothers[50] at Lystra and Iconium. ³Paul wanted Timothy to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was a Greek. ⁴As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered to them for observance the decisions that had been reached by the apostles and elders who were in Jerusalem. ⁵So the churches were strengthened in the faith, and they increased in numbers daily.

The Macedonian Call

⁶And they went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. ⁷And when they had come up to Mysia, they attempted to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them. 8So, passing by Mysia, they went down to Troas, ⁹And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; a man of Macedonia was standing there, urging him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." 10 And when Paul 51 had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go on into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

The Conversion of Lydia

¹¹So, setting sail from Troas, we made a direct voyage to Samothrace, and the following day to Neapolis. 12 and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the 52 district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city some days. ¹³And on the Sabbath day we went outside the gate to the riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had come together. ¹⁴One who heard us was a woman named Lydia, from the city of Thyatira, a seller of purple goods, who was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what was said by Paul. 15 And after she was baptized, and her household as well, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come to my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

Paul and Silas in Prison

¹⁶As we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a slave girl who had a spirit of divination and brought her owners much gain by fortune-telling.
¹⁷She followed Paul and us, crying out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to you the way of salvation." ¹⁸And this she kept doing for many days. Paul, having become greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her."

And it came out that very hour.

¹⁹But when her owners saw that their hope of gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. ²⁰And when they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men are Jews, and they are disturbing our city. ²¹They advocate customs that are not lawful for us as Romans to accept or practice." ²²The crowd joined in attacking them, and the magistrates tore the garments off them and gave orders to beat blows upon them, they threw them into prison, ordering the jailer to keep them safely. ²⁴Having received this order, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

them with rods. ²³And when they had inflicted many

The Philippian Jailer Converted

²⁵About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them, ²⁶ and suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. And immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were unfastened. ²⁷When the jailer woke and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. 28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, "Do not harm yourself, for we are all here." 29 And the jailer 54 called for lights and rushed in, and trembling with fear he fell down before Paul and Silas. 30 Then he brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" 31 And they said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household." 32 And they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. ³³And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their wounds; and he was baptized at once, he and all his family. ³⁴Then he brought them up into his house and set food before them. And he rejoiced along with his entire household that he had believed in God.

35But when it was day, the magistrates sent the police, saying, "Let those men go." ³⁶And the jailer reported these words to Paul, saving. "The magistrates have sent to let you go. Therefore come out now and go in peace." 37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, men who are Roman citizens, and have thrown us into prison; and do they now throw us out secretly? No! Let them come themselves and take us out." 38The police reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Roman citizens. 39 So they came and apologized to them. And they took them out and asked them to leave the city. 40 So they went out of the prison and visited Lydia. And when they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them and departed.

Paul and Silas in Thessalonica

17:1 Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. ²And Paul went in, as was his custom, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the Scriptures. ³explaining and proving that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ." ⁴And some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the leading women. ⁵But the Jews were jealous, and taking some wicked men of the rabble, they formed a mob, set the city in an uproar, and attacked the house of Jason, seeking to bring them out to the crowd. ⁶And when they could not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers before the city authorities, shouting, "These men who have turned the world upside down have come here also, ⁷and Jason has received them, and they are all acting against the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus." ⁸And the people and the city authorities were disturbed when they heard these things. ⁹And when they had taken money as security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

Paul and Silas in Berea

¹⁰The brothers^[55] immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea, and when they arrived they went into the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹Now these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica; they received the word with all eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so. ¹²Manv of them therefore believed, with not a few Greek women of high standing as well as men. ¹³But when the Jews from Thessalonica learned that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Berea also. they came there too, agitating and stirring up the crowds. 14Then the brothers immediately sent Paul off on his way to the sea, but Silas and Timothy remained there. ¹⁵Those who conducted Paul brought him as far as Athens, and after receiving a command for Silas and Timothy to come to him as soon as possible, they departed.

Paul in Athens

¹⁶Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there. ¹⁸Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also conversed with him. And some said, "What does this babbler wish to sav?" Others said, "He seems to be a preacher of foreign divinities"—because he was preaching Jesus and the resurrection. ¹⁹And they took him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting? ²⁰For you bring some strange things to our ears. We wish to know therefore what these things mean." 21 Now all the Athenians and the foreigners who lived there would spend their time in nothing except telling or hearing something new.

Paul Addresses the Areopagus

²²So Paul. standing in the midst of the Areopagus, said: "Men of Athens, I perceive that in every way you are very religious. ²³For as I passed along and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription, 'To the unknown god.' What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to vou. ²⁴The God who made the world and everything in it, being Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in temples made by man, 56 25 nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mankind life and breath and everything. ²⁶And he made from one man every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth. having determined allotted periods and the boundaries of their dwelling place, ²⁷that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel their way toward him and find him. Yet he is actually not far from each one of us, ²⁸for

"In him we live and move and have our being'; [57]

as even some of your own poets have said,

"For we are indeed his offspring.' [58]

by raising him from the dead."

²⁹Being then God's offspring, we ought not to think that the divine being is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of man. ³⁰The times of ignorance God overlooked, but now he commands all people everywhere to repent, ³¹because he has fixed a day on which he will judge the world in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed; and of this he has given assurance to all

³²Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked. But others said, "We will hear you again about this." ³³So Paul went out from their midst. ³⁴But some men joined him and believed, among whom also were Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

Paul in Corinth

18:1 After this Paul^[59] left Athens and went to Corinth. ²And he found a Jew named Aquila, a native of Pontus, recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. And he went to see them, ³and because he was of the same trade he stayed with them and worked, for they were tentmakers by trade. ⁴And he reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and tried to persuade Jews and Greeks.

⁵When Silas and Timothy arrived from Macedonia, Paul was occupied with the word, testifying to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus. ⁶And when they opposed and reviled him, he shook out his garments and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I will go to the Gentiles." ⁷And he left there and went to the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshiper of God. His house was next door to the synagogue. ⁸Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, together with hearing Paul believed and were baptized. ⁹And the Lord said to Paul one night in a vision, "Do not be afraid, but go on speaking and do not be silent, ¹⁰for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many in this city who are my people."

¹¹And he stayed a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

¹²But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews made a united attack on Paul and brought him before the tribunal, ¹³saying, "This man is persuading people to worship God contrary to the law." ¹⁴But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews. "If it were a matter of persuading people to worship God contrary to the law." ¹⁴But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If it were a matter of wrongdoing or vicious crime, O Jews, I would have reason to accept your complaint. ¹⁵But since it is a matter of questions about words and names and your own law, see to it yourselves. I refuse to be a judge of these things." ¹⁶And he drove them from the tribunal. ¹⁷And they all seized Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him in front of the tribunal.

Paul Returns to Antioch

¹⁸After this, Paul stayed many days longer and then took leave of the brothers^[60] and set sail for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. At Cenchreae he had cut his hair, for he was under a vow. ¹⁹And they came to Ephesus, and he left them there, but he himself went into the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews. ²⁰When they asked him to stay for a longer period, he declined. ²¹But on taking leave of them he said. "I will return to you if God wills." and he set sail ²²When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and then went down to Antioch.

²³After spending some time there, he departed and went from one place to the next through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

from Ephesus.

Apollos Speaks Boldly in Ephesus

²⁴Now a Jew named Apollos, a native of Alexandria, came to Ephesus. He was an eloquent man, competent in the Scriptures. ²⁵He had been instructed in the way of the Lord. And being fervent in spirit, ^[61] he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John. ²⁶He began to speak boldly in the synagogue, but when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him and explained to him the way of God concerning Jesus, though he knew only the baptism of John. ²⁶He began to speak boldly in the they took him and explained to him the way of God more accurately. ²⁷And when he wished to cross to Achaia, the brothers encouraged him and wrote to the disciples to welcome him. When he arrived, he greatly helped those who through grace had believed, ²⁸ for he powerfully refuted the Jews in public, showing by the Scriptures that the Christ was Jesus.

Paul in Ephesus

19:1 And it happened that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the inland [62] country and came to Ephesus. There he found some disciples. ²And he said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" And they said, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

3And he said, "Into what then were you baptized?"
They said, "Into John's baptism."

4And Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, Jesus."

5On hearing this, they were baptized in [63] the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶And when Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began speaking in tongues and prophesying.

⁷There were about twelve men in all.

⁸And he entered the synagogue and for three months spoke boldly, reasoning and persuading them about the kingdom of God. ⁹But when some hands of Paul. 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were carried away to the sick, and their diseases left them and the evil spirits came out of them. 13Then some of the itinerant Jewish exorcists undertook to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, "I adjure you by the Jesus whom Paul proclaims." 14 Seven sons of a Jewish high priest named Sceva were doing this. 15 But the evil spirit answered them, "Jesus I know, and Paul I recognize, but who are you?" 16 And the man in whom was the evil spirit leaped on them, mastered all of them and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. 17 And this became known to all the residents of Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks. And fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was extolled. 18 Also many of those who were now believers came, confessing and divulging their practices. ¹⁹And a number of

A Riot at Ephesus

²¹Now after these events Paul resolved in the Spirit to pass through Macedonia and Achaia and go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome." ²²And having sent into Macedonia two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

²³About that time there arose no little disturbance concerning the Way. ²⁴For a man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis. brought no little business to the craftsmen. ²⁵These he gathered together, with the workmen in similar trades, and said, "Men, you know that from this business we have our wealth. ²⁶And you see and hear that not only in Ephesus but in almost all of Asia this Paul has persuaded and turned away a great many people, saying that gods made with hands are not gods. ²⁷And there is danger not only that this trade of ours may come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis may be counted as nothing, and that she may even be deposed from her magnificence, she whom all Asia and the world worship."

²⁸When they heard this they were enraged and were crying out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" 29So the city was filled with the confusion, and they rushed together into the theater, dragging with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonians who were Paul's companions in travel. 30 But when Paul wished to go in among the crowd, the disciples would not let him. ³¹And even some of the Asiarchs. [66] who were friends of his, sent to him and were urging him not to venture into the theater. 32 Now some cried out one thing, some another, for the assembly was in confusion, and most of them did not know why they had come together. ³³Some of the crowd prompted Alexander, whom the Jews had put forward, And Alexander, motioning with his hand, wanted to make a defense to the crowd. ³⁴But when they recognized that he was a Jew, for about two hours they all cried out with one voice, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

35 And when the town clerk had guieted the crowd, he said, "Men of Ephesus, who is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great Artemis, and of the sacred stone that fell from the sky?[67] 36Seeing then that these things cannot be denied, you ought to be guiet and do nothing rash. ³⁷For you have brought these men here who are neither sacrilegious nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen with him have a complaint against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another. 39 But if you seek anything further. [68] it shall be settled in the regular assembly. 40 For we really are in danger of being charged with rioting today, since there is no cause that we can give to justify this commotion." ⁴¹And when he had said these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Paul in Macedonia and Greece

20:1 After the uproar ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, and after encouraging them, he said farewell and departed for Macedonia. ²When he had gone through those regions and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece. ³There

he spent three months, and when a plot was made against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. ⁴Sopater the Berean, son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him: and of the Thessalonians. Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and the Asians, Tychicus and Trophimus. ⁵These went on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas. 6but we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we came to them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days.

Eutychus Raised from the Dead

⁷On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread. Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight. 8There were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered. ⁹And a young man named Eutychus, sitting at the window, sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked still longer. And being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. ¹⁰But Paul went down and bent over him, and taking him in his arms, said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him." 11 And when Paul had gone up and had broken bread and eaten, he conversed with them a long while, until daybreak, and so departed. 12 And they took the youth away alive, and were not a little

Paul Speaks to the Ephesian Elders

¹⁷Now from Miletus he sent to Ephesus and called the elders of the church to come to him. ¹⁸And when they came to him, he said to them:

"You yourselves know how I lived among you the whole time from the first day that I set foot in Asia, ¹⁹serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and with trials that happened to me through the plots of the Jews; ²⁰how I did not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you in public and from house to house, ²¹testifying both to Jews and to Greeks of repentance toward God and of faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. 22 And now, behold, I am going to Jerusalem, constrained by the Spirit, not knowing what will happen to me there. ²³except that the Holy Spirit testifies to me in every city that imprisonment and afflictions await me. 24But I do not account my life of any value nor as precious to myself, if only I may finish my course and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to testify to the

Paul Goes to Jerusalem

21:1 And when we had parted from them and set sail, we came by a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara [73] ²And having found a ship crossing to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail. 3When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left we sailed to Syria and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload its cargo. ⁴And having sought out the disciples, we stayed there for seven days. And through the Spirit they were telling Paul not to go on to Jerusalem. 5When our days there were ended, we departed and went on our journey, and they all, with wives and children, accompanied us until we were outside the city. And kneeling down on the beach, we prayed ⁶ and said farewell to one another. Then we went on board the ship, and they returned home.

⁷When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais, and we greeted the brothers [74] and stayed with them for one day. ⁸On the next day entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. ⁹He had four unmarried daughters, who prophesied. 10 While we were staying for many days, a prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. 11 And coming to us, he took Paul's belt and bound his own feet and hands and said. "Thus says the Holy Spirit. 'This is how the Jews at Jerusalem will bind the man who owns this belt and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles." 12When we heard this, we and the people there urged him not to go up to Jerusalem. ¹³Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be imprisoned but even to die in Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus." 14 And since he would not be persuaded, we ceased and said, "Let the will of 15 After these days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem. 16 And some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, bringing us to the house of

Paul Visits James

¹⁷When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. ¹⁸On the following day Paul went in with us to James, and all the elders were present. ¹⁹After greeting them, he related one by one the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. 20 And when they heard it, they glorified God. And they said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed. They are all zealous for the law, ²¹ and they have been told about you that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or walk according to our

Paul Arrested in the Temple

²⁷When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd and laid hands on him, ²⁸crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching everyone everywhere against the people and the law and this place. Moreover, he even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place." ²⁹For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple. 30 Then all the city was stirred up, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple, and at once the gates were shut. 31 And as they were seeking to kill him, word came to the tribune of the cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion. 32He at once took soldiers and centurions and ran down to them. And when they saw the tribune and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. 33Then the tribune came up and arrested him and ordered him to be bound with two chains. He inquired who he

And as he could not learn the facts because of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into the barracks. ³⁵And when he came to the steps, he was actually carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd, ³⁶for the mob of the people followed, crying out, "Away with him!"

Paul Speaks to the People

³⁷As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he said to the tribune, "May I say something to you?" And he said, "Do you know Greek? ³⁸Are you not the Egyptian, then, who recently stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand men of the Assassins out into the wilderness?" ³⁹Paul replied, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no obscure city. I beg you, permit me to speak to the people." ⁴⁰And when he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the steps, motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great hush, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, [76] saying:

to Jerusalem to be punished.

6"As I was on my way and drew near to Damascus, about noon a great light from heaven suddenly shone around me. ⁷And I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' ⁸And I answered, 'Who are you,

Lord?' And he said to me, 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.' ⁹Now those who were with me saw the light but did not understand [78] the voice of the one who was speaking to me. ¹⁰And I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Rise, and go into Damascus, and there you will be told all that is appointed for you to do.' ¹¹And since I could not see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus.

law, well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, ¹³came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight.' And at that very hour I received my sight and saw him. ¹⁴And he said, 'The God of our fathers appointed you to know his will, to see the Righteous One and to hear a voice from his mouth; ¹⁵for you will be a witness for him to everyone of what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶And now why do you wait? Rise and be baptized and wash away your sins, calling on his name.'

Paul and the Roman Tribune

²²Up to this word they listened to him. Then they raised their voices and said. "Away with such a fellow from the earth! For he should not be allowed to live." 23 And as they were shouting and throwing off their cloaks and flinging dust into the air. ²⁴the tribune ordered him to be brought into the barracks. saying that he should be examined by flogging, to find out why they were shouting against him like this. ²⁵But when they had stretched him out for the whips. [79] Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to flog a man who is a Roman citizen and uncondemned?" ²⁶When the centurion heard this, he went to the tribune and said to him, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman citizen." ²⁷So the tribune came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?" And he said, "Yes." ²⁸The tribune answered, "I bought this citizenship for a large sum." Paul said, "But I am a citizen by birth." 29 So those who were about to examine him withdrew from him immediately, and

Paul Before the Council

³⁰But on the next day, desiring to know the real reason why he was being accused by the Jews, he unbound him and commanded the chief priests and all the council to meet, and he brought Paul down and set him before them.

23:1 And looking intently at the council. Paul said.

"Brothers, I have lived my life before God in all good conscience up to this day." ²And the high priest Ananias commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth. ³Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall! Are you sitting to judge me according to the law, and yet contrary to the law you order me to be struck?" ⁴Those who stood by said, "Would you revile God's high priest?" ⁵And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest, for it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people."

⁶Now when Paul perceived that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in resurrection of the dead that I am on trial." ⁷And when he had said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. ⁸For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all. ⁹Then a great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees' party stood up and contended sharply, "We find nothing wrong in this man. What if a spirit or an angel spoke to him?" ¹⁰And when the dissension became violent, the tribune, afraid that Paul would be torn to pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him away from among them by force and bring him into the barracks.

11 The following night the Lord stood by him and said, "Take courage, for as you have testified to the facts about me in Jerusalem, so you must testify also in Rome."

A Plot to Kill Paul

- 12When it was day, the Jews made a plot and bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. ¹³There were more than forty who made this conspiracy. ¹⁴They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have strictly bound ourselves by an oath to taste no food till we have killed Paul. ¹⁵Now therefore you, along with the council, give notice to the tribune to bring him down to you, as though you were going to determine his case more exactly. And we are ready to kill him before he comes near."
- ¹⁶Now the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush, so he went and entered the barracks and told Paul.
 ¹⁷Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the tribune, for he has something to tell him."
 ¹⁸So he took him and brought him to the tribune and said, "Paul the prisoner called me and asked me to bring this young man to you, as he has something to say to you."
 ¹⁹The tribune took him by

"What is it that you have to tell me?" ²⁰And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though they were going to inquire somewhat more closely about him. ²¹But do not be persuaded by them, for more than forty of their men are lying in ambush for him, who have bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor drink till they have killed him. And now they are ready, waiting for your consent." ²²So the tribune dismissed the young man, charging him, "Tell no one that you have informed me of these things."

Paul Sent to Felix the Governor

²³Then he called two of the centurions and said, "Get ready two hundred soldiers, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen to go as far as Caesarea at the third hour of the night. [80] ²⁴Also provide mounts for Paul to ride and bring him safely to Felix the governor." ²⁵And he wrote a letter to this effect:

²⁶ Claudius Lysias, to his Excellency the governor Felix, greetings. ²⁷This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them when I came upon them with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman citizen. ²⁸And desiring to know the charge for which they were accusing him, I brought him down to their council. 29 found that he was being accused about questions of their law, but charged with nothing deserving death or imprisonment. 30 And when it was disclosed to me that there would be a plot against the man, I sent him to you at once, ordering his accusers also to state before you what they have against him."

31So the soldiers, according to their instructions, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And on the next day they returned to the barracks, letting the horsemen go on with him. ³³When thev had come to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they presented Paul also before him. ³⁴On reading the letter, he asked what province he was from. And when he learned that he was from Cilicia, ³⁵he said, "I will give you a hearing when your accusers arrive." And he commanded him to be guarded in Herod's praetorium.

Paul Before Felix at Caesarea

24:1 And after five days the high priest Ananias came down with some elders and a spokesman, one Tertullus. They laid before the governor their case against Paul. ²And when he had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying:

"Since through you we enjoy much peace, and since by your foresight, most excellent Felix, reforms are being made for this nation, ³in every way and everywhere we accept this with all gratitude. 4But. to detain^[81] you no further, I beg you in your kindness to hear us briefly. ⁵For we have found this man a plague, one who stirs up riots among all the Jews throughout the world and is a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. ⁶He even tried to profane the temple, but we seized him. [82] 8By examining him yourself you will be able to find out from him about everything of which we accuse him."

 9 The Jews also joined in the charge, affirming that all over this nation, I cheerfully make my defense. ¹¹You can verify that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem, ¹²and they did not find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the temple or in the synagogues or in the city. ¹³Neither can they prove to you what they now bring up against me. ¹⁴But this I confess to you, that

"Knowing that for many years you have been a judge

according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers, believing everything laid down by the Law and written in the Prophets, ¹⁵having a hope in God, which these men themselves accept, that there will be a resurrection of both the just and the unjust. ¹⁶So I always take pains to have a clear conscience toward both God and man. ¹⁷Now after several years I came to bring alms to my nation and to present offerings. ¹⁸While I was doing this, they found me purified in the temple.

without any crowd or tumult. But some Jews from

Paul Kept in Custody

²²But Felix, having a rather accurate knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the tribune comes down, I will decide your case." ²³Then he gave orders to the centurion that he should be kept in custody but have some liberty, and that none of his friends should be prevented from attending to his needs.

²⁴After some days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was Jewish, and he sent for Paul and heard him speak about faith in Christ Jesus. 25 And as he reasoned about righteousness and self-control and the coming judgment, Felix was alarmed and said, "Go away for the present. When I get an opportunity I will summon you." ²⁶At the same time he hoped that money would be given him by Paul. So he sent for him often and conversed with him. 27When two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And desiring to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul in prison.

Paul Appeals to Caesar

25:1 Now three days after Festus had arrived in the province, he went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. ²And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews laid out their case against Paul, and they urged him, ³asking as a favor against Paul, ^[83] that he summon him to Jerusalem—because they were planning an ambush to kill him on the way. ⁴Festus replied that Paul was being kept at Caesarea and that he himself intended to go there shortly. ⁵"So," said he, "let the men of authority among you go down

⁶After he stayed among them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea. And the next day he took his seat on the tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought. ⁷When he had arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing many and serious charges against him that they could not prove. ⁸Paul argued in his defense.

temple, nor against Caesar have I committed any offense." ⁹But Festus, wishing to do the Jews a favor, said to Paul, "Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem and there be tried on these charges before me?" ¹⁰But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's tribunal, where I ought to be tried. To the Jews I have done no wrong, as you yourself know very well. ¹¹If then I am a wrongdoer and have committed anything for which I deserve to die, I do not seek to escape death. But if there is nothing to their charges against me, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar." ¹²Then Festus, when he had conferred with his council, answered, "To Caesar you have appealed; to Caesar you shall go."

"Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the

Paul Before Agrippa and Bernice

¹³Now when some days had passed, Agrippa the king and Bernice arrived at Caesarea and greeted Festus. ¹⁴And as they stayed there many days. Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a man left prisoner by Felix, 15 and when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews laid out their case against him, asking for a sentence of condemnation against him. 16I answered them that it was not the custom of the Romans to give up anyone before the accused met the accusers face to face and had opportunity to make his defense concerning the charge laid against him. ¹⁷So when they came together here, I made no delay, but on the next day took my seat on the tribunal and ordered the man to be brought. ¹⁸When the accusers stood up, they brought no charge in his case of such evils as I supposed. ¹⁹Rather they had certain points of dispute with him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus, who was dead, but whom Paul asserted to be alive.

²⁰Being at a loss how to investigate these questions, I asked whether he wanted to go to Jerusalem and be tried there regarding them. ²¹But when Paul had appealed to be kept in custody for the decision of the emperor, I ordered him to be held until I could send him to Caesar." ²²Then Agrippa said to Festus. "I would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," said he, "you will hear him."

23So on the next day Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp, and they entered the audience hall with the military tribunes and the prominent men of the city. Then, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. ²⁴And Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish people petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer. ²⁵But I found that he had done nothing deserving death. And as he himself appealed to the emperor, I decided to go ahead and send him. ²⁶But I have nothing definite to write to my lord about him. Therefore I have brought him before you all, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that, after we have examined him, I may have something to write. ²⁷For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to indicate the charges against him."

Paul's Defense Before Agrippa

- 26:1 So Agrippa said to Paul, "You have permission to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and made his defense:
- ²"I consider myself fortunate that it is before you, King Agrippa, I am going to make my defense today against all the accusations of the Jews, ³especially because you are familiar with all the customs and controversies of the Jews. Therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.
- ⁴"My manner of life from my youth, spent from the beginning among my own nation and in Jerusalem, is known by all the Jews. ⁵They have known for a long time, if they are willing to testify, that according to the strictest party of our religion I have lived as a Pharisee. ⁶And now I stand here on trial because of my hope in the promise made by God to our fathers, ⁷to which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly worship night and day. And for this hope I am accused by Jews, O king! ⁸Why is it thought incredible by any of you that God raises the dead?

⁹"I myself was convinced that I ought to do many things in opposing the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

¹⁰And I did so in Jerusalem. I not only locked up many of the saints in prison after receiving authority from the chief priests, but when they were put to death I cast my vote against them.

¹¹And I punished them often in all the synagogues and tried to make them blaspheme, and in raging fury against them I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

Paul Tells of His Conversion

12"In this connection I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests. ¹³At midday, O king, I saw on the way a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, that shone around me and those who journeyed with me. ¹⁴And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, [84] 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.' 15 And I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting. 16But rise and stand upon your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you as a servant and witness to the things in which you have seen me and to those in which I will appear to vou, ¹⁷delivering you from your people and from the Gentiles—to whom I am sending you ¹⁸to open their eyes, so that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins and a place among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

to the heavenly vision, ²⁰but declared first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all the region of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, performing deeds in keeping with their repentance. ²¹For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me. ²²To this day I have had the help that comes from

19"Therefore, O King Agrippa, I was not disobedient

God, and so I stand here testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come to pass: ²³that the Christ must suffer and that, by being the first to rise from the dead, he would proclaim light both to our people and to the Gentiles."

Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are out of your mind; your great learning is driving you out of your mind." ²⁵But Paul said, "I am not out of my mind, most excellent Festus, but I am speaking true and rational words. ²⁶For the king knows about these things, and to him I speak boldly. For I am

²⁴And as he was saying these things in his defense,

²⁷King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe." ²⁸And Agrippa said to Paul, "In a short time would you persuade me to be a Christian?" ^[85] ²⁹And Paul said, "Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am—persuaded that none of these things has escaped his notice, for this has not been done in a corner.

except for these chains."

30 Then the king rose, and the governor and Bernice and those who were sitting with them. 31 And when they had withdrawn, they said to one another, "This man is doing nothing to deserve death or imprisonment." 32 And Agrippa said to Festus. "This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Paul Sails for Rome

27:1 And when it was decided that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan Cohort named Julius. ²And embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to the ports along the coast of Asia, we put to sea, accompanied by Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica. ³The next day we put in at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul kindly and gave him leave to go to his friends and be cared for. ⁴And putting out to sea from there we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were against us. ⁵And when we had sailed across the open sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra in Lycia, ⁶There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy and put us on board. ⁷We sailed slowly for a number of days and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, and as the wind did not allow us to go farther, we sailed under the lee of Crete off Salmone. 8Coasting along it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair

Havens, near which was the city of Lasea. ⁹Since much time had passed, and the voyage was now dangerous because even the Fast[86] was already over, Paul advised them, 10 saying, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much our lives." 11 But the centurion paid more attention to suitable to spend the winter in, the majority decided loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of the pilot and to the owner of the ship than to what Paul said. 12 And because the harbor was not to put out to sea from there, on the chance that somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete, facing both southwest and northwest, and spend the winter there.

The Storm at Sea

13 Now when the south wind blew gently, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to the shore.

¹⁴But soon a tempestuous wind, called the northeaster, struck down from the land. 15And when the ship was caught and could not face the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along. ¹⁶Running under the lee of a small island called Cauda. [87] we managed with difficulty to secure the ship's boat. ¹⁷After hoisting it up, they used supports to undergird the ship. Then, fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis, they lowered the gear. [88] and thus they were driven along. ¹⁸Since we were violently storm-tossed, they began the next day to iettison the cargo. ¹⁹And on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands. ²⁰When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope of our being saved was at last abandoned.

²¹Since they had been without food for a long time, Paul stood up among them and said, "Men, you should have listened to me and not have set sail from Crete and incurred this injury and loss. ²²Yet now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. ²³For this very night there stood before me an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I worship, ²⁴and he said, 'Do not be afraid. Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' ²⁵So take heart, men, for I have faith in God that it will be exactly as I have been told.

²⁶But we must run aground on some island."

²⁷When the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven across the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were nearing land.

²⁸So they took a sounding and found twenty fathoms. ^[89] A little farther on they took a sounding again and found fifteen fathoms. ^[90] ²⁹And fearing that we might run on the rocks, they let down four anchors from the stern and prayed for day to come.

³⁰And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, and had lowered the ship's boat into the sea under pretense of laying out anchors from the bow, ³¹Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved." ³²Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the ship's boat and let it ao.

³³As day was about to dawn, Paul urged them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have continued in suspense and without food, having taken nothing. 34Therefore lurge you to take some food. For it will give you strength, for not a hair is to perish from the head of any of you." 35 And when he had said these things, he took bread, and giving thanks to God in the presence of all he broke it and began to eat. ³⁶Then they all were encouraged and ate some food themselves. 37(We were in all 276^[91] persons in the ship.) ³⁸And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.

The Shipwreck

39 Now when it was day, they did not recognize the land, but they noticed a bay with a beach, on which they planned if possible to run the ship ashore. 40So they cast off the anchors and left them in the sea. at the same time loosening the ropes that tied the rudders. Then hoisting the foresail to the wind they made for the beach. 41But striking a reef. [92] they ran the vessel aground. The bow stuck and remained immovable, and the stern was being broken up by the surf. 42 The soldiers' plan was to kill the prisoners. lest any should swim away and escape. 43But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to jump overboard first and make for the land, 44 and the rest on planks or on pieces of the ship. And so it was that all were brought safely to land.

Paul on Malta

28:1 After we were brought safely through, we then learned that the island was called Malta. ²The native people[93] showed us unusual kindness, for they kindled a fire and welcomed us all, because it had begun to rain and was cold. 3When Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and put them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened on his hand. 4When the native people saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to one another, "No doubt this man is a murderer. Though he has escaped from the sea, Justice [94] has not allowed him to live." ⁵He, however, shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm. ⁶Thev were waiting for him to swell up or suddenly fall down dead. But when they had waited a long time and saw of Publius lay sick with fever and dysentery. And Paul visited him and prayed, and putting his hands on him healed him. ⁹And when this had taken place, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also came and were cured. ¹⁰They also honored us greatly, ⁹⁵ and when we were about to sail, they put on board whatever we needed.

Paul Arrives at Rome

¹¹After three months we set sail in a ship that had wintered in the island, a ship of Alexandria, with the twin gods [96] as a figurehead. 12 Putting in at Syracuse, we stayed there for three days. ¹³And from there we made a circuit and arrived at Rhegium. And after one day a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli. 14There we found brothers [97] and were invited to stay with them for seven days. And so we came to Rome. ¹⁵And the brothers there, when they heard about us, came as far as the Forum of Appius and Three Taverns to meet us. On seeing them, Paul thanked God and took courage. ¹⁶And when we came into Rome. Paul was allowed to stay by himself, with the soldier that guarded him.

Paul in Rome

¹⁷After three days he called together the local leaders of the Jews, and when they had gathered, he said to them, "Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. 18When they had examined me, they wished to set me at liberty, because there was no reason for the death penalty in my case. ¹⁹But because the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar—though I had no charge to bring against my nation. ²⁰For this reason, therefore. I have asked to see you and speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain." ²¹And they said to him. "We have received no letters from Judea about you, and none of the brothers coming here has reported or spoken any evil about you. ²²But we desire to hear from you what your views are, for with regard to this sect we know that everywhere it is spoken against."

²³When they had appointed a day for him, they came

26 "Go to this people, and say,
You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive.
27 For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed; lest they should see with their eyes to him at his lodging in greater numbers. From morning till evening he expounded to them, testifying to the kingdom of God and trying to convince them about Jesus both from the Law of Moses and from the Prophets. ²⁴And some were convinced by what he said, but others disbelieved. ²⁵And disagreeing among themselves, they departed after Paul had made one statement: "The Holy Spirit was right in saying to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet:

Greeting

1:1 Paul, a servant^[1] of Christ Jesus, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, ²which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, ³concerning his Son, who was descended from David^[2] according to the flesh ⁴and was declared to be the Son of God in power according to the Spirit of holiness by his resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, ⁵through whom we have received grace and apostleship to bring about the obedience of faith for the sake of his

⁷To all those in Rome who are loved by God and called to be saints:

called to belong to Jesus Christ, name among all the nations, 6 including you who are

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Longing to Go to Rome

⁸First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is proclaimed in all the world. ⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I mention you 10 always in my prayers, asking that somehow by God's will I may now at last succeed in coming to you. 11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift to strengthen you— 12that is, that we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine. 13 want you to know, brothers. [3] that I have often intended to come to you (but thus far have been prevented), in order that I may reap some harvest among you as well as among the rest of the Gentiles. 14 am under obligation both to Greeks and to barbarians. [4] both to the wise and to the foolish. ¹⁵So I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

The Righteous Shall Live by Faith

¹⁶For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. ¹⁷For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith for faith, [5] as it is written, "The righteous shall live by faith." [6]

God's Wrath on Unrighteousness

¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men. who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth. ¹⁹For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them. ²⁰For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse. 21For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. ²²Claiming to be wise, they became fools. 23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds

²⁴Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves, ²⁵because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

and animals and creeping things.

26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; ²⁷and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

²⁸And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done. ²⁹They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, ³⁰slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, ³¹foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. ³²Though they know God's decree that those who practice such things deserve

God's Righteous Judgment

2:1 Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. ²We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who practice such things. ³Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? ⁴Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? ⁵But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. ⁶He will render to each one according to his works:

⁹He will render to each one according to his works: ⁷to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; ⁸but for those who are self-seeking^[7] and do not be wrath and fury. ⁹There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, ¹⁰but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. ¹¹For God shows no partiality.

obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will

God's Judgment and the Law

¹²For all who have sinned without the law will also perish without the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. ¹³For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous before God. but the doers of the law who will be justified. ¹⁴For when Gentiles, who do not have the law, by nature do what the law requires, they are a law to themselves, even though they do not have the law. 15 They show that the work of the law is written on their hearts, while their conscience also bears witness, and their conflicting thoughts accuse or even excuse them ¹⁶on that day when, according to my gospel, God judges the secrets of men by Christ Jesus.

¹⁷But if you call yourself a Jew and rely on the law and boast in God ¹⁸and know his will and approve what is excellent, because you are instructed from the law; ¹⁹and if you are sure that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, ²⁰an instructor of the foolish, a teacher of knowledge and truth— ²¹you then who teach others, do you not teach yourself? While you preach against stealing, do you steal? ²²You who say that one must not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples? ²³You who boast in the law dishonor God by breaking the law. ²⁴For, as it is written, "The name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you."

children, having in the law the embodiment of law, but if you break the law, your circumcision becomes uncircumcision. ²⁶So, if a man who is uncircumcised keeps the precepts of the law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded^[8] as circumcision? ²⁷Then he who is physically uncircumcised but keeps the law will condemn you who have the written code^[9] and circumcision but break the law. ²⁸For no one is a Jew who is merely one outwardly, nor is circumcision outward and physical. ²⁹But a Jew is one inwardly, and circumcision is a matter of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter. His praise is not ²⁵For circumcision indeed is of value if you obey the

God's Righteousness Upheld

3:1 Then what advantage has the Jew? Or what is the value of circumcision? ²Much in every way. To begin with, the Jews were entrusted with the oracles of God. ³What if some were unfaithful? Does their faithlessness nullify the faithfulness of God? ⁴By no means! Let God be true though every one were a liar, as it is written.

"That you may be justified in your words, and prevail when you are judged."

⁵But if our unrighteousness serves to show the righteousness of God, what shall we say? That God is unrighteous to inflict wrath on us? (I speak in a human way.) ⁶By no means! For then how could God judge the world? ⁷But if through my lie God's truth abounds to his glory, why am I still being condemned as a sinner? ⁸And why not do evil that good may come?—as some people slanderously charge us with saying. Their condemnation is just.

No One Is Righteous

⁹What then? Are we Jews^[10] anv better off?^[11] No. not at all. For we have already charged that all, both Jews and Greeks, are under sin. 10 as it is written:

"None is righteous, no, not one;

¹¹no one understands:

no one seeks for God.

¹²All have turned aside; together they have become worthless:

no one does good,

not even one."

13"Their throat is an open grave; they use their tongues to deceive."

"The venom of asps is under their lips."

14"Their mouth is full of curses and bitterness."

15"Their feet are swift to shed blood;

¹⁶in their paths are ruin and misery,

¹⁷and the way of peace they have not known."

18"There is no fear of God before their eyes."

19 Now we know that whatever the law says it speaks to those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and the whole world may be held accountable to God. ²⁰For by works of the law no human being [12] will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin.

The Righteousness of God Through Faith 21 But now the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law, although the Law and the Prophets bear witness to it—22the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ for all who believe. For there is no distinction: ²³for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, ²⁴and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, ²⁵whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. ²⁶lt was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus.

²⁷Then what becomes of our boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? By a law of works? No, but by the law of faith. ²⁸For we hold that one is justified by faith apart from works of the law. ²⁹Or is God the God of Jews only? Is he not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, ³⁰since God is one—who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through faith. ³¹Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Abraham Justified by Faith

4:1 What then shall we say was gained by Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to beast about but not before God. For what does to boast about, but not before God. ³For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness." ⁴Now to the one who works, his wages are not counted as a gift but as his due. ⁵And to the one who does not work but believes in [14] him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted as righteousness, ⁶just as David also speaks of the blessing of the one to whom God counts righteousness apart from works:

7"Blessed are those whose lawless deeds are forgiven, and whose sins are covered;
 8blessed is the man against whom the Lord will not count his sin."

⁹Is this blessing then only for the circumcised, or also was it counted to him? Was it before or after he had been circumcised? It was not after, but before he was circumcised. ¹¹He received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness that he had by faith while he was still uncircumcised. The purpose was to make him the father of all who for the uncircumcised? We say that faith was counted to Abraham as righteousness. ¹⁰How then believe without being circumcised, so that righteousness would be counted to them as well, ¹²and to make him the father of the circumcised who are not merely circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

The Promise Realized Through Faith 13 For the promise to Abraham and his offspring that he would be heir of the world did not come through the law but through the righteousness of faith. ¹⁴For if it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. ¹⁵For the law brings wrath, but where there is no law there is no transgression.

¹⁶That is why it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his offspring—not only to the adherent of the law but also to the one who shares the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all, ¹⁷as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations"—in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. 18 In hope he believed against hope, that he should become the father of many nations, as he had been told, "So shall your offspring be." ¹⁹He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was as good as womb. ²⁰No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, ²¹fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. ²²That is why his faith was "counted to him as righteousness." ²³But the words "it was counted to him" were not written for his sake alone, ²⁴but for ours also. It will be counted to us who believe in him who raised from the dead Jesus our Lord, ²⁵who was delivered up for our trespasses and raised for our justification.

dead (since he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's

Peace with God Through Faith

5:1 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ²Through him we have also obtained access by faith^[16] into this grace in which we stand, and we^[17] rejoice^[18] in hope of the glory of God. ³More than that, we rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, ⁴and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, ⁵and hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

⁶For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. ⁷For one will scarcely die for a righteous person—though perhaps for a good person one would dare even to die— ⁸but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. ⁹Since, therefore, we have now been justified by his blood, much more shall we be saved by him from the wrath of God.

to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life. ¹¹More than that, we also rejoice in God through our

¹⁰For if while we were enemies we were reconciled

Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

Death in Adam, Life in Christ

12Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned— 13for sin indeed was in the world before the law was given, but sin is not counted where there is no law. 14Yet death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sinning was not like the transgression of Adam, who was a type of the one who was to come.

¹⁵But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if many died through one man's trespass, much more have the grace of God and the free gift by the grace of that one man Jesus Christ abounded for many. 16And the free gift is not like the result of that one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brought justification. ¹⁷For if, because of one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man

Jesus Christ. ¹⁸Therefore. as one trespass^[19] led to condemnation for all men, so one act of righteousness^[20] leads to justification and life for all men. ¹⁹For as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. ²⁰Now the law came in to increase the trespass, but where many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous. ²⁰Now the law came in to increase the trespass, but where sin increased, grace abounded all the more, ²¹so that, as sin reigned in death, grace also might reign through righteousness leading to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin, Alive to God

6:1 What shall we say then? Are we to continue in sin that grace may abound? ²By no means! How can we who died to sin still live in it? ³Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? ⁴We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life.

his, we shall certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. ⁶We know that our old self^[21] was crucified with him in order that the body of sin might be brought to nothing, so that we would no longer be enslaved to sin. ⁷For one who has died has been set free^[22] from sin. ⁸Now if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him.

⁹We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion

⁵For if we have been united with him in a death like once for all, but the life he lives he lives to God. ¹¹So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, to over him. ¹⁰For the death he died he died to sin, make you obey its passions. ¹³Do not present your members to sin as instruments for unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness. ¹⁴For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

Slaves to Righteousness

¹⁵What then? Are we to sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! 16Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, [23] you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? 17But thanks be to God, that you who were once slaves of sin have become obedient from the heart to the standard of teaching to which you were committed, ¹⁸and, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. 19 am speaking in human terms, because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness leading to more lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to sanctification.

²⁰For when you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. ²¹But what fruit were you getting at that time from the things of which you are ²²But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. ²³For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.

Released from the Law

7:1 Or do you not know, brothers [24]—for I am speaking to those who know the law—that the law is binding on a person only as long as he lives? ²For a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he lives, but if her husband dies she is released from the law of marriage. [25] ³Accordingly, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man while her husband is alive. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law, and if she marries another man she is not an adulteress.

⁴Likewise, my brothers, you also have died to the law through the body of Christ, so that you may belong to another, to him who has been raised from the dead, in order that we may bear fruit for God. ⁵For while we were living in the flesh, our sinful passions, aroused by the law, were at work in our members to bear fruit for death. ⁶But now we are released from the law, having died to that which held us captive, so that we serve in the new way of the

The Law and Sin

⁷What then shall we say? That the law is sin? By no means! Yet if it had not been for the law. I would not have known sin. For I would not have known what it is to covet if the law had not said. "You shall not covet." ⁸But sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of covetousness. For apart from the law, sin lies dead. ⁹I was once alive apart from the law, but when the commandment came, sin came alive and I died. 10 The very commandment that promised life proved to be death to me. ¹¹For sin, seizing an opportunity through the commandment, deceived me and through it killed me. 12So the law is holv, and the 13Did that which is good, then, bring death to me? By no means! It was sin, producing death in me through what is good, in order that sin might be shown to be sin, and through the commandment might become sinful beyond measure. ¹⁴For we commandment is holy and righteous and good.

actions. For I do not do what I want, but I do the very thing I hate. ¹⁶Now if I do what I do not want, I agree with the law, that it is good. ¹⁷So now it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells within me. ¹⁸For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. ¹⁹For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. ²⁰Now if I do what I do not want, it is no longer know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin. ¹⁵For I do not understand my own

I who do it, but sin that dwells within me.

21So I find it to be a law that when I want to do right, evil lies close at hand. 22For I delight in the law of God, in my inner being, 23but I see in my members another law waging war against the law of my mind and making me captive to the law of sin that dwells in my members. ²⁴Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? ²⁵Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, I myself serve the law of God with my mind, but with my flesh I

Life in the Spirit

8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. [27] ² For the law of the Spirit of life has set you [28] free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. ³For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, [29] he condemned sin in the flesh, 4in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit. ⁵For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things of the Spirit. ⁶For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace. ⁷For the mind that is set on the flesh is hostile to God, for it does not submit to God's law: indeed, it cannot, ⁸Those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

 $^{f 9}$ You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if

him. ¹⁰But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the Spirit is life because of righteousness. ¹¹If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.

in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to 12So then, brothers, [30] we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. ¹³For if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. ¹⁴For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons [31] of God. ¹⁵For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" ¹⁶The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ.

Heirs with Christ

provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

Future Glory

¹⁸For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us. ¹⁹For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God. ²⁰For the creation was subjected to futility, not willingly, but because of him who subjected it, in hope 21 that the creation itself will be set free from its bondage to corruption and obtain the freedom of the glory of the children of God. 22 For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. ²³And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies. ²⁴For in this hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees? ²⁵But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

deep for words. ²⁷And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because [32] the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God. ²⁸And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, [33] for those who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For those we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For those whom he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, in order that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. ³⁰And those whom he predestined he also called, and those whom he called he also justified, and those whom he justified he also glorified.

God's Everlasting Love

³¹What then shall we say to these things? If God is for us, who can be ^[34] against us? ³²He who did not spare his own Son but gave him up for us all, how will he not also with him graciously give us all things? ³³Who shall bring any charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies. ³⁴Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us. ^[35] ³⁵Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or danger.

"For your sake we are being killed all the day long; we are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered."

or sword? ³⁶As it is written.

³⁷No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. ³⁸For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, ³⁹nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God's Sovereign Choice

9:1 I am speaking the truth in Christ—I am not lying; my conscience bears me witness in the Holy Spirit—

²that I have great sorrow and unceasing anguish in my heart. ³For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, ^[36] my kinsmen according to the flesh. ⁴They are Israelites, and to them belong the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises. ⁵To them belong the patriarchs, and from their race, according to the flesh, is the Christ who is God over all, blessed forever. Amen.

⁶But it is not as though the word of God has failed.

For not all who are descended from Israel belong to Israel, ⁷and not all are children of Abraham because they are his offspring, but "Through Isaac shall your offspring be named." ⁸This means that it is not the children of the flesh who are the children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as offspring.

next year I will return, and Sarah shall have a son."

¹⁰And not only so, but also when Rebekah had conceived children by one man, our forefather Isaac,

⁹For this is what the promise said: "About this time

11though they were not yet born and had done nothing either good or bad—in order that God's purpose of election might continue, not because of works but because of him who calls—¹²she was told, "The older will serve the younger." ¹³As it is written, "Jacob Hoved, but Esau I hated."

14What shall we say then? Is there injustice on God's part? By no means! ¹⁵For he says to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion." ¹⁶So then it depends not on human will or exertion, ^[37] but on God, who has mercy. ¹⁷For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth." ¹⁸So then he has mercy on whomever he wills, and he hardens whomever he wills.

¹⁹You will say to me then, "Why does he still find fault? For who can resist his will?" ²⁰But who are you, O man, to answer back to God? Will what is molded say to its molder, "Why have you made me like this?" ²¹Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one vessel for honorable use and another for dishonorable use? ²²What if

God, desiring to show his wrath and to make known his power, has endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction, ²³in order to make known the riches of his glory for vessels of mercy, which he has prepared beforehand for glory—²⁴even us whom he has called, not from the Jews only but also from the Gentiles? ²⁵As indeed he says in Hosea,

people,'
and her who was not beloved I will call 'beloved.'"

26"And in the very place where it was said to them,
'You are not my people,'

"Those who were not my people I will call 'my number of the sons of Israel ^[38] be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will be saved, ²⁸ for the Lord will carry out his sentence upon the earth fully and without delay." ²⁹ And as Isaiah predicted, ²⁷And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Though the

"If the Lord of hosts had not left us offspring, we would have been like Sodom and become like Gomorrah."

Israel's Unbelief

³⁰What shall we say, then? That Gentiles who did not pursue righteousness have attained it, that is, a righteousness that is by faith; ³¹but that Israel who pursued a law that would lead to righteousness^[39] did not succeed in reaching that law. ³²Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith, but as if it were based on works. They have stumbled over the stumbling stone, ³³as it is written.

"Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense; and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

10:1 Brothers, [40] my heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved. ²For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. ³For, being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness.

⁴For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.[41]

The Message of Salvation to All

⁵For Moses writes about the righteousness that is based on the law, that the person who does the commandments shall live by them. ⁶But the righteousness based on faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) 7 or "Who will descend into the abyss?" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). ⁸But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); 9because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. 11 For the Scripture says, "Everyone who believes in him will not be put to shame." 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, bestowing his riches on all who call on him. ¹³For "everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved."

not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? [42] And how are they to hear without someone preaching? 15 And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!" 16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed what he has heard from us?" 17 So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

¹⁴How then will they call on him in whom they have

- ¹⁸But I ask, have they not heard? Indeed they have, for
- and their words to the ends of the world."

"Their voice has gone out to all the earth.

- ¹⁹But I ask, did Israel not understand? First Moses says,
- "I will make you jealous of those who are not a nation;
 with a foolish nation I will make you angry."

"I have been found by those who did not seek me;

²⁰Then Isaiah is so bold as to say,

I have shown myself to those who did not ask for me."

²¹But of Israel he says, "All day long I have held out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."

The Remnant of Israel

11:1 I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! For I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham. [43] a member of the tribe of Benjamin. ²God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the Scripture says of Elijah, how he appeals to God against Israel? 3"Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have demolished your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life." ⁴But what is God's reply to him? "I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal." 5So too at the present time there is a remnant, chosen by grace. ⁶But if it is ⁷What then? Israel failed to obtain what it was seeking. The elect obtained it, but the rest were hardened. ⁸as it is written.

by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works; otherwise grace would no longer be grace.

"God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that would not see and ears that would not hear, down to this very day."

⁹And David says,

"Let their table become a snare and a trap, a stumbling block and a retribution for them;

a stumbling block and a retribution for them; ¹⁰let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see, and bend their backs forever."

Gentiles Grafted In

fall? By no means! Rather through their trespass salvation has come to the Gentiles, so as to make Israel jealous. ¹²Now if their trespass means riches for the world, and if their failure means riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their full inclusion [44] mean!

13Now I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch then

¹¹So I ask. did they stumble in order that they might as I am an apostle to the Gentiles, I magnify my ministry ¹⁴in order somehow to make my fellow Jews jealous, and thus save some of them. ¹⁵For if their rejection means the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance mean but life from the dead? ¹⁶If the dough offered as firstfruits is holy, so is the whole lump, and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

¹⁷But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, although a wild olive shoot, were grafted in among the others and now share in the nourishing root [45] of the olive tree, 18do not be arrogant toward the branches. If you are, remember it is not you who support the root, but the root that supports you. ¹⁹Then you will say, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in." ²⁰That is true. They were broken off because of their unbelief, but you stand fast through faith. So do not become proud, but fear. ²¹For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. ²²Note then the kindness and the severity of God: severity toward those who have fallen, but God's kindness to you, provided you continue in his kindness. Otherwise you too will be cut off. ²³And even they, if they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God has the power to graft them in again. ²⁴For if you were cut from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and grafted. contrary to nature, into a cultivated olive tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be grafted back into their own olive tree.

The Mystery of Israel's Salvation

²⁵Lest you be wise in your own sight, I want you to understand this mystery, brothers: [46] a partial hardening has come upon Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in. ²⁶And in this way all Israel will be saved, as it is written.

"The Deliverer will come from Zion, he will banish ungodliness from Jacob"; ²⁷"and this will be my covenant with them when I take away their sins."

²⁸As regards the gospel, they are enemies of God for your sake. But as regards election, they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers. ²⁹For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. ³⁰For just as you were at one time disobedient to God but now have received mercy because of their disobedience, ³¹so they too have now been disobedient in order that by the mercy shown to you they also may now. ^[47] receive mercy. ³²For God has mercy on all.

33Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of Godl How upscareholds are his consigned all to disobedience, that he may have knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways!

34"For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?" ³⁵"Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?"

36 For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

A Living Sacrifice

12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers, [48] by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. [49] ²Do not be conformed to this world, [50] but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect. [51]

Gifts of Grace

³For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. ⁴For as in one body we have many members. [52] and the members do not all have the same function. 5so we, though many, are one body in same function, ⁵so we, though many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another. ⁶Having gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, let us use them: if prophecy, in proportion to our faith; ⁷if service, in our serving; the one who teaches, in his teaching; ⁸the one who exhorts, in his exhortation; the one who contributes, in generosity; the one who leads, ^[53] with zeal; the one who does acts of mercy, with cheerfulness.

Marks of the True Christian

⁹Let love be genuine. Abhor what is evil; hold fast to what is good. ¹⁰Love one another with brotherly affection. Outdo one another in showing honor. ¹¹Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, ^[54] serve the Lord. ¹²Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer. ¹³Contribute to the needs of the saints and seek to show hospitality.

¹⁴Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. ¹⁵Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. ¹⁶Live in harmony with one another. Do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly. [55] Never be wise in your own sight. 17 Repay no one evil for evil, but give thought to do what is honorable in the sight of all. ¹⁸If possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. ¹⁹Beloved. never avenge yourselves, but leave it [56] to the wrath of God, for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." 20 To the contrary, "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him by evil, but overcome evil with good.

something to drink; for by so doing you will heap burning coals on his head." ²¹Do not be overcome

Submission to the Authorities

13:1 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God. ²Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment. ³For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good. and you will receive his approval, ⁴ for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer. ⁵Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience. ⁶For because of this you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing. ⁷Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed. revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed.

Fulfilling the Law Through Love

⁸Owe no one anything, except to love each other, for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. ⁹For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not covet," and any other commandment, are summed up in this word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁰Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

¹¹Besides this you know the time, that the hour has come for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we first believed. ¹²The night is far gone; the day is at hand. So then let us cast off the works of darkness and put on the armor of light. ¹³Let us walk properly as in the daytime, not in orgies and drunkenness, not in sexual immorality and sensuality, not in quarreling and jealousy. ¹⁴But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Do Not Pass Judgment on One Another

14:1 As for the one who is weak in faith, welcome him, but not to quarrel over opinions. ²One person believes he may eat anything, while the weak person eats only vegetables. ³Let not the one who eats despise the one who abstains, and let not the one who abstains pass judgment on the one who eats, for God has welcomed him. ⁴Who are you to pass judgment on the servant of another? It is before his own master^[57] that he stands or falls. And he will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

⁵One person esteems one day as better than another, while another esteems all days alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind. ⁶The one who observes the day, observes it in honor of the Lord. The one who eats, eats in honor of the Lord, since he gives thanks to God, while the one who abstains, abstains in honor of the Lord and gives thanks to God. ⁷For none of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. ⁸For if we live, we live then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. ⁹For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord, So 10Why do you pass judgment on your brother? Or you, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God; 11 for it is written,

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess^[58] to God."

- ¹²So then each of us will give an account of himself to God
- to God.

Do Not Cause Another to Stumble

- ¹³Therefore let us not pass judgment on one another any longer, but rather decide never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of a brother.
 ¹⁴I know and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself, but it is unclean for anyone who thinks it unclean.
 ¹⁵For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in
- anyone who thinks it unclean. ¹⁵For if your brother is grieved by what you eat, you are no longer walking in love. By what you eat, do not destroy the one for whom Christ died. ¹⁶So do not let what you regard as good be spoken of as evil. ¹⁷For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸Whoever thus serves Christ is acceptable to God and approved by men. ¹⁹So then let us pursue what makes for peace and for mutual upbuilding.
- ²⁰Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats.
- ²¹It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do

²²The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves. ²³But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, anything that causes your brother to stumble. [59] whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith. For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin. [60]

The Example of Christ

15:1 We who are strong have an obligation to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves. ²Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up. ³For Christ did not please himself, but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me." ⁴For whatever was written in former days was written for our instruction, that through endurance and through the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. ⁵May the God of endurance and encouragement grant you to live in such harmony with one another, in accord with Christ Jesus, 6that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God.

⁸For I tell vou that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to

Christ the Hope of Jews and Gentiles

- confirm the promises given to the patriarchs. ⁹ and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,
- "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles. and sing to your name."
- 10 And again it is said,
- ¹¹And again,
- "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people."
- "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples extol him."

- ¹²And again Isaiah says,
- "The root of Jesse will come,

even he who arises to rule the Gentiles:

in him will the Gentiles hope." ¹³May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Paul the Minister to the Gentiles

¹⁴I myself am satisfied about you, my brothers. [61] that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and able to instruct one another. ¹⁵But on some points I have written to you very boldly by way of reminder, because of the grace given me by God ¹⁶to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles in the priestly service of the gospel of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. 17 In Christ Jesus, then, I have reason to be proud of my work for God. ¹⁸For I will not venture to speak of anything except what Christ has accomplished through me to bring the Gentiles to obedience—by word and deed, ¹⁹by the power of signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God-so that from Jerusalem and all the way around to Illyricum I have fulfilled the ministry of the gospel of Christ; ²⁰ and thus I make it my ambition to preach the gospel, not where Christ has already been named, lest I build on someone else's foundation, ²¹but as it is written.

²²This is the reason why I have so often been hindered from coming to you. ²³But now, since I no longer have any room for work in these regions, and since I have longed for many years to come to you, ²⁴I hope to see you in passing as I go to Spain, and to be helped on my journey there by you, once I have enjoyed your company for a while. ²⁵At present. however, I am going to Jerusalem bringing aid to the saints. ²⁶For Macedonia and Achaia have been pleased to make some contribution for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem. ²⁷For they were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them. For if the Gentiles have come to share in their spiritual blessings, they ought also to be of service to them in material blessings. ²⁸When therefore I have completed this and have delivered to them what has been collected. [62] I will leave for Spain by way of you. ²⁹I know that when I come to you I will come in the fullness of the blessing [63] of Christ.

and by the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in your prayers to God on my behalf, ³¹that I may be delivered from the unbelievers in Judea, and that my service for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints, ³²so that by God's will I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company. ³³May the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Divisions in the Church

¹⁰I appeal to vou. brothers. [1] by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same judgment. ¹¹For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there is quarreling among you, my brothers. 12What I mean is that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," or "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Cephas," or "I follow Christ." 13 ls Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? 14 thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius. 15 so that no one may say that you were baptized in my name. 16(I did baptize also the household of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else.) 17 For Christ did not send me to baptize but to preach the gospel, and not with words of eloquent wisdom, lest the cross of Christ be emptied of its power.

Christ the Wisdom and Power of God

- ¹⁸For the word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written,
- "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and the discernment of the discerning I will thwart."
- Where is the one who is wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of the world? ²¹For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not know God through wisdom, it pleased God through the folly of what we preach to save those who believe. ²²For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, ²⁴but to ²²For Jews demand signs and Greeks seek wisdom, ²³but we preach Christ crucified, a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles, ²⁴but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God and the wisdom of God. ²⁵For the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

world to shame the strong; ²⁸God chose what is low and despised in the world, even things that are not, to bring to nothing things that are, ²⁹so that no human being^[3] might boast in the presence of God. ³⁰And because of him^[4] you are in Christ Jesus, who became to us wisdom from God, righteousness and sanctification and redemption, ³¹so that, as it is written, "Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord."

Proclaiming Christ Crucified

2:1 And I, when I came to you, brothers, 5 did not come proclaiming to you the testimony of God with lofty speech or wisdom. ²For I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. ³And I was with you in weakness and in fear and much trembling, ⁴ and my speech and my message were not in plausible words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. 5that your faith might not rest in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.

Wisdom from the Spirit ⁶Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom,

God decreed before the ages for our glory. ⁸None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. ⁹But, as it is written,

"What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him"—

although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. ⁷But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which ¹⁰these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. ¹¹For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. ¹²Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. ¹³And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit. interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual.[7]

14 The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. ¹⁵The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. 16"For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

Divisions in the Church

3:1 But I, brothers, could not address you as spiritual people, but as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. If fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for it. And even now you are not yet ready, for you are still of the flesh. For while there is jealousy and strife among you, are you not of the flesh and behaving only in a human way? For when one says, follow Paul, and another, follow Apollos, are you not being merely human?

⁵What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you believed, as the Lord assigned to each. ⁶I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. ⁷So neither he who plants nor he who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. ⁸He who plants and he who waters are one, and each will receive his wages according to his labor. ⁹For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field, God's building.

someone else is building upon it. Let each one take care how he builds upon it. ¹¹For no one can lay a foundation other than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. ¹²Now if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw— ¹³each one's work will become manifest, for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. ¹⁴ If the work that anyone has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a ¹⁰According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and reward. ¹⁵If anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire.

¹⁶Do you not know that you^[9] are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? ¹⁷If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

¹⁸Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you this world is folly with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," ²⁰and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile." ²¹So let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, ²²whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, ²³ and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. ¹⁹For the wisdom of

The Ministry of Apostles

4:1 This is how one should regard us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God.

²Moreover, it is required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. ³But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. ⁴For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. ⁵Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God.

⁶I have applied all these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, [10] that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another.

⁷For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it?

8 Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! And would that you did reign, so that we might share the rule with you! 9 For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. ¹⁰We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute. ¹¹To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, ¹²and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; ¹³when slandered, we entreat. We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things.

¹⁴I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. ¹⁵For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do be imitators of me. ¹⁷That is why I sent [11] you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, [12] as I teach them everywhere in every church. ¹⁸Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. ¹⁹But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power. ²⁰For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power. ²¹What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. ¹⁶I urge you, then,

Sexual Immorality Defiles the Church

5:1 It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and of a kind that is not tolerated even among pagans, for a man has his father's wife. ²And you are arrogant! Ought you not rather to mourn? Let him who has done this be removed from among you.

³For though absent in body, I am present in spirit; and as if present, I have already pronounced judgment on the one who did such a thing. ⁴When you are assembled in the name of the Lord Jesus and my spirit is present, with the power of our Lord Jesus, ⁵you are to deliver this man to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord. ^[13]

⁶Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump? ⁷Cleanse out the old leaven that you may be a new lump, as you really are unleavened. For Christ, our Passover lamb, has been sacrificed. ⁸Let us therefore celebrate the festival, not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

⁹I wrote to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people— ¹⁰not at all meaning the sexually immoral of this world, or the greedy and swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world. ¹¹But now I am writing to you not to associate with anyone who bears the name of brother if he is guilty of sexual immorality or greed, or is an idolater, reviler, drunkard, or swindler—not even to eat with such a one. ¹²For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Is it not those inside the church whom you are to judge? ¹³God judges^[14] those outside. "Purge the evil person from among you."

Lawsuits Against Believers

6:1 When one of you has a grievance against another, does he dare go to law before the unrighteous instead of the saints? ²Or do vou not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you incompetent to try trivial cases? ³Do you not know that we are to judge angels? How much more, then, matters pertaining to this life! ⁴So if you have such cases. why do you lay them before those who have no standing in the church? ⁵I say this to your shame. Can it be that there is no one among you wise enough to settle a dispute between the brothers. ⁶but brother goes to law against brother, and that before unbelievers? ⁷To have lawsuits at all with one another is already a defeat for you. Why not rather suffer wrong? Why not rather be defrauded? 8But you yourselves wrong and defraud-even your own brothers![15]

 9 Or do you not know that the unrighteous $^{[16]}$ will not neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor men who practice homosexuality,^[17] ¹⁰nor thieves, nor the greedy, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God. ¹¹And such were some of you. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived:

Flee Sexual Immorality

12"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be enslaved by anything. ¹³"Food is meant for the stomach and the stomach for food"—and God will destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴And God raised the Lord and destroy both one and the other. The body is not meant for sexual immorality, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. ¹⁴And God raised the Lord and will also raise us up by his power. ¹⁵Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ and make them members of a prostitute? Never! ¹⁶Or do you not know that he who is joined [18] to a prostitute becomes one body with her? For, as it is written,

"The two will become one flesh." ¹⁷But he who is joined to the Lord becomes one spirit with him. ¹⁸Flee from sexual immorality. Every other sin^[19] a person commits is outside the body, but the sexually immoral person sins against his own body. ¹⁹Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, ²⁰ for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body.

Principles for Marriage

7:1 Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: "It is good for a man not to have sexual relations with a woman." ²But because of the temptation to sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband. ³The husband should give to his wife her conjugal rights, and likewise the wife to her husband. ⁴For the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. Likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does. ⁵Do not deprive one another, except perhaps by agreement for a limited time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

⁶Now as a concession, not a command, I say this. ²⁰
⁷I wish that all were as I myself am. But each has his own gift from God, one of one kind and one of another.

⁸To the unmarried and the widows I say that it is good for them to remain single as I am. 9But if they cannot exercise self-control, they should marry. For it is better to marry than to burn with passion.

¹⁰To the married I give this charge (not I, but the Lord): the wife should not separate from her husband

¹¹(but if she does, she should remain unmarried or else be reconciled to her husband), and the husband should not divorce his wife. 12 To the rest I say (I, not the Lord) that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, he should not divorce her. 13 ff anv woman has a husband who is an unbeliever, and he consents to live with her, she should not divorce him. ¹⁴For the unbelieving husband is made holy because of his wife, and the unbelieving wife is made holy because of her husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but as it is, they are holy. ¹⁵But if the unbelieving partner separates, let it be so. In such cases the brother or sister is not enslaved. God has called you^[21] to peace. ¹⁶For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?

Live as You Are Called

¹⁷Only let each person lead the life that the Lord has assigned to him, and to which God has called him. This is my rule in all the churches. ¹⁸Was anyone at the time of his call already circumcised? Let him not seek to remove the marks of circumcision. Was anyone at the time of his call uncircumcised? Let him not seek circumcision. ¹⁹For neither circumcision counts for anything nor uncircumcision, but keeping the commandments of God. ²⁰Each one should remain in the condition in which he was called. ²¹Were you a slave when called? Do not be concerned about it. (But if you can gain your freedom, avail yourself of the opportunity.) 22 For he who was called in the Lord as a slave is a freedman of the Lord. Likewise he who was free when called is a slave of Christ. 23 You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men. ²⁴So. brothers. ^[23] in whatever condition each was called, there let him remain with God.

The Unmarried and the Widowed

²⁵Now concerning ^[24] the betrothed. ^[25] I have no command from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who by the Lord's mercy is trustworthy. ²⁶I think that in view of the present [26] distress it is good for a person to remain as he is. ²⁷Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be free. Are you free from a wife? Do not seek a wife. ²⁸But if you do marry, you have not sinned, and if a betrothed woman[27] marries, she has not sinned. Yet those who marry will have worldly troubles, and I would spare you that. ²⁹This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, 30 and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, 31 and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

32 want vou to be free from anxieties. The unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to please the Lord. 33But the married man is anxious about worldly things, how to please his wife. 34 and his interests are divided. And the unmarried or betrothed woman is anxious about the things of the Lord, how to be holy in body and spirit. But the married woman is anxious about worldly things, how to please her husband. 35 say this for your own benefit, not to lay any restraint upon you, but to promote good order and to secure your undivided devotion to the Lord. ³⁶If anyone thinks that he is not behaving properly toward his betrothed. [28] if his [29] passions are strong, and it has to be, let him do as he wishes: let them marry—it is no sin. ³⁷But whoever is firmly established in his heart, being under no necessity but having his desire under control, and has determined this in his heart, to keep her as his betrothed, he will do well. ³⁸So then he who marries his betrothed does well, and he who refrains from marriage will do even better.

But if her husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only in the Lord. ⁴⁰Yet in my ³⁹A wife is bound to her husband as long as he lives.

whom she wishes, only in the Lord. Yet in my judgment she is happier if she remains as she is.

And I think that I too have the Spirit of God.

Food Offered to Idols

- 8:1 Now concerning^[30] food offered to idols: we know that "all of us possess knowledge." This "knowledge" puffs up, but love builds up. ²If anyone imagines that he knows something, he does not yet know as he ought to know. ³But if anyone loves God, he is known by God. [31]
- ⁴Therefore, as to the eating of food offered to idols, we know that "an idol has no real existence," and that "there is no God but one." ⁵For although there may be so-called gods in heaven or on earth—as indeed there are many "gods" and many "lords"— ⁶yet for us there is one God, the Father, from whom are all things and for whom we exist, and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things and through whom we exist.
- ⁷However, not all possess this knowledge. But some, through former association with idols, eat food as really offered to an idol, and their commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. ⁹But take care that this right of yours does not somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. ¹⁰For if anyone sees conscience, being weak, is defiled. 8Food will not you who have knowledge eating [32] in an idol's temple, will he not be encouraged, [33] if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols?

11 And so by your knowledge this weak person is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. ¹²Thus, sinning against your brothers [34] and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. ¹³Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I will never eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

Paul Surrenders His Rights

9:1 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? ²If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

the Lord.

³This is my defense to those who would examine me. ⁴Do we not have the right to eat and drink? ⁵Do we not have the right to take along a believing wife, ^[35] as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Lord and Cephas? ⁶Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working for a living?

Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard without eating any of its fruit? Or who tends a flock without getting some of the milk?
 Do I say these things on human authority? Does not the Law say the same? For it is written in the Law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox when it treads out the grain." Is it for oxen that God is concerned?

10 Does he not speak entirely for our sake? It was written for our sake, because the plowman should plow in hope and the thresher thresh in hope of sharing in the crop. ¹¹ If we have sown spiritual things among you, is it too much if we reap material things from you? ¹² If others share this rightful claim on you, do not we even more?

Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right, but we endure anything rather than put an obstacle in the way of the gospel of Christ. ¹³Do you not know that those who are employed in the temple service get their food from the temple, and those who serve at the altar share in the sacrificial offerings? ¹⁴In the same way, the Lord commanded that those who proclaim the gospel should get their living by the 15But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing these things to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have anyone am I writing these things to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my ground for boasting. ¹⁶For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! ¹⁷For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward, but if not of my own will, I am still entrusted with a stewardship. ¹⁸What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

¹⁹For though I am free from all, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them. ²⁰To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though not being myself under the law) that I might win those under the law. ²¹To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. ²²To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that by all means I might save some. ²³I do it all for the sake of the gospel, that I may share with them in its blessings.

things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. ²⁶So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. ²⁷But I discipline my body and keep it under control, ^[36] lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. ²⁵Every athlete exercises self-control in all

Warning Against Idolatry

10:1 For I want you to know, brothers. [37] that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, ²and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, ³and all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that followed them, and the Rock was Christ. ⁵Nevertheless, with most of them God was not pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

that we might not desire evil as they did. ⁷Do not be idolaters as some of them were; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink and rose up to play." ⁸We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. ⁹We must not put Christ^[38] to the test, as some of them did and were destroyed by serpents.

¹⁰nor grumble, as some of them did and were destroyed by the Destroyer. ¹¹Now these things

⁶Now these things took place as examples for us, written down for our instruction, on whom the end of the ages has come. ¹²Therefore let anyone who thinks that he stands take heed lest he fall. ¹³No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. ¹⁴Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵I speak as to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. 16The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? ¹⁷Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread. 18 Consider the people of Israel: 39 are not those who eat the sacrifices participants in the altar? ¹⁹What do I imply then? That food offered to idols is happened to them as an example, but they were anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰No, I imply that what pagans sacrifice they offer to demons and not to God. I do not want you to be participants with demons. ²¹You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake of the table of the Lord and the table of demons. ²²Shall we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?

Do All to the Glory of God

²³"All things are lawful," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up. 24Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. ²⁵Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience. ²⁶For "the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof." ²⁷If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go. eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience. ²⁸But if someone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice." then do not eat it, for the sake of the one should my liberty be determined by someone else's conscience? ³⁰If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks? ³¹So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. ³²Give no offense to Jews who informed you, and for the sake of conscience— ²⁹I do not mean your conscience, but his. For why or to Greeks or to the church of God, ³³just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.

11:1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Head Coverings

²Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. ³But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife [40] is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. ⁴Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head. 5but every wife [41] who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, since it is the same as if her head were shaven. ⁶For if a wife will not cover her head, then she should cut her hair short. But since it is disgraceful for a wife to cut off her hair or shave her head, let her cover her head. ⁷For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God, but woman is the glory of man. 8For man was not made from woman, but woman from man. ⁹Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. 10 That is why a wife ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.[42] 11 Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not woman was made from man, so man is now born of woman. And all things are from God. ¹³Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a wife to pray to God with her head uncovered? ¹⁴Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears long hair it is a disgrace for him, ¹⁵but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering. ¹⁶If anyone is inclined to be contentious, we have no such practice, nor do the churches of God.

independent of man nor man of woman: 12 for as

The Lord's Supper

¹⁷But in the following instructions I do not commend you, because when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse. ¹⁸For, in the first place. when you come together as a church, I hear that there are divisions among you. And I believe it in part, [43] 19 for there must be factions among you in order that those who are genuine among you may be recognized. ²⁰When you come together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. ²¹For in eating, each one goes ahead with his own meal. One goes hungry, another gets drunk. 22What! Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the church of God and humiliate those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall I commend you in this? No. I will not.

²³For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, ²⁴and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "This is my body which the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes along with the world.

is for [44] you. Do this in remembrance of me." [45] 25 In ²⁷Whoever, therefore, eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty concerning the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸Let a person examine himself, then, and so eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment on himself. 30 That is why many of you are weak and ill, and some have died. 46 31 But if we judged [47] ourselves truly, we would not be judged. 32 But when we are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined [48] so that we may not be condemned

 33 So then, my brothers, $^{[49]}$ when you come together to eat, wait for one another—³⁴if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home—so that when you come together it will not be for judgment. About the other things I will give directions when I come.

Spiritual Gifts

12:1 Now concerning^[51] spiritual gifts, ^[52]

brothers, [53] I do not want you to be uninformed. ²You know that when you were pagans you were led astray to mute idols, however you were led. ³Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God ever says "Jesus is accursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except in the Holy Spirit.

⁴Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; ⁵and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; ⁶and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. ⁷To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. ⁸For to one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, ¹⁰to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the ability to distinguish between spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills.

One Body with Many Members

12For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. ¹³For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves^[54] or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

¹⁴For the body does not consist of one member but of many. 15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁶And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body," that would not make it any less a part of the body. ¹⁷If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? 18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose, ¹⁹ If all were a single member, where would the body be? ²⁰As it is, there are many parts. [55] vet one body.

you," nor again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you." ²²On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, ²³and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty. ²⁴which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the ²¹The eve cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of part that lacked it, ²⁵that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. ²⁶If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. ²⁷Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it. ²⁸And God has appointed in the church first apostles, second prophets, third teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healing, helping, administrating, and various kinds of tongues. 29 Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Do all work miracles? 30 Do all possess

The Way of Love

13:1 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. ²And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. ³If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, ^[56] but have not love, I gain nothing.

⁴Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant ⁵or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; ^[57] ⁶it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. ⁷Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all

⁸Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹For we know in part and we prophesy in part. ¹⁰but when the perfect know fully, even as I have been fully known.

Prophecy and Tongues

14:1 Pursue love, and earnestly desire the spiritual gifts, especially that you may prophesy. ²For one who speaks in a tongue speaks not to men but to God; for no one understands him, but he utters mysteries in the Spirit. ³On the other hand, the one who prophesies speaks to people for their upbuilding and encouragement and consolation. ⁴The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up the church. ⁵Now I want you all to speak in tongues, but even more to prophesy. The one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless someone interprets, so that the church may be built

⁶Now, brothers, ^[58] if I come to you speaking in tongues, how will I benefit you unless I bring you some revelation or knowledge or prophecy or teaching? ⁷If even lifeless instruments, such as the flute or the harp, do not give distinct notes, how will up.

an indistinct sound, who will get ready for battle? ⁹So with yourselves, if with your tongue you utter speech that is not intelligible, how will anyone know what is said? For you will be speaking into the air. ¹⁰There are doubtless many different languages in the world, and none is without meaning, ¹¹but if I do not know the meaning of the language, I will be a foreigner to the speaker and the speaker a foreigner to me. ¹²So with yourselves, since you are eager for anyone know what is played? ⁸And if the bugle gives manifestations of the Spirit, strive to excel in building up the church.

13Therefore, one who speaks in a tongue should pray for the power to interpret. 14For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays but my mind is unfruitful.

15What am I to do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray with my mind also; I will sing praise with my spirit, but I will sing with my mind also. ¹⁶Otherwise, if you give thanks with your spirit, how can anyone in the position of an outsider ^[59] say "Amen" to your thanksgiving when he does not know what you are but the other person is not being built up. ¹⁸I thank God that I speak in tongues more than all of you. ¹⁹Nevertheless. in church I would rather speak five words with my mind in order to instruct others, than saving? ¹⁷For you may be giving thanks well enough, ten thousand words in a tongue. ²⁰Brothers, do not be children in your thinking. Be infants in evil, but in your thinking be mature. ²¹In the Law it is written, "By people of strange tongues and by the lips of foreigners will I speak to this people, and even then they will not listen to me, says the Lord." 22 Thus tongues are a sign not for believers but for unbelievers, while prophecy is a sign[60] not for unbelievers but for believers. ²³lf, therefore, the whole church comes together and all speak in tongues, and outsiders or unbelievers enter, will they not say that you are out of your minds? 24But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or outsider enters, he is convicted by all, he is called to account by all, ²⁵the secrets of his heart are disclosed, and so, falling on his face, he will worship God and declare that God is Orderly Worship

²⁶What then, brothers? When you come together, each one has a hymn, a lesson, a revelation, a tongue, or an interpretation. Let all things be done for building up. ²⁷If any speak in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn, and let someone interpret. ²⁸But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silent in church and speak to himself and to God. ²⁹Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others weigh what is said. ³⁰If a revelation is made to another sitting there, let the first be silent, ³¹For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all be encouraged, ³² and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets. 33 For God is not a God of confusion but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, ³⁴the women should keep silent in the churches. For they are not permitted to speak, but should be in submission, as the Law also says. ³⁵If there is anything they desire ³⁶Or was it from you that the word of God came? Or are you the only ones it has reached? ³⁷If anyone to learn, let them ask their husbands at home. For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church.

thinks that he is a prophet, or spiritual, he should acknowledge that the things I am writing to you are a command of the Lord. ³⁸If anyone does not recognize this, he is not recognized. ³⁹So, my brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues. ⁴⁰But all things should be done decently and in order.

The Resurrection of Christ

15:1 Now I would remind you, brothers, ^[61] of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, ²and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

³For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures. 4that he was buried. that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁵ and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. 8Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. 9For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

The Resurrection of the Dead

12 Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. 14 And if Christ has not been raised. then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. ¹⁵We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. 16 For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. 17And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. ¹⁸Then those also who have

²⁰But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. ²¹For as by a man came death, by a man has come also most to be pitied.

Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power. ²⁵For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. ²⁶The last enemy to be destroyed is death. ²⁷For "God [63] has put all things in subjection under his feet." But when it says, "all things are put in subjection," it is plain that he is excepted who put all things in subjection under him. ²⁸When all things are subjected to him, then the Son himself will also be subjected to him who put all things in subjection under him, that God may be all in all.

the resurrection of the dead. ²²For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive. ²³But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. ²⁴Then comes the end. when he delivers the kingdom to God the ²⁹Otherwise, what do people mean by being baptized on behalf of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized on their behalf? ³⁰Why are we in danger every hour? ³¹I protest, brothers, by my pride in you, which I have in gain if, humanly speaking, I fought with beasts at Ephesus? If the dead are not raised, "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die." ³³Do not be deceived: "Bad company ruins good morals." ^[64] ³⁴Wake up from your drunken stupor, as is right, and do not go on sinning. For some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.

Christ Jesus our Lord, I die every day! 32What do I

The Resurrection Body

³⁵But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" ³⁶You foolish person! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. ³⁷And what you sow is not the body that is to be, but a bare kernel, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. ³⁸But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. ³⁹For not all flesh is the same, but there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds.

and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is of one kind, and the glory of the earthly is of another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

and another for fish. 40 There are heavenly bodies

⁴²So is it with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable; what is raised is imperishable.
⁴³It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. ⁴⁴It is sown a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵Thus it is written, "The first man Adam became a living being"; ^[65] the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶But it is not the spiritual that is first but the natural, and then the spiritual. ⁴⁷The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. ⁴⁸As was the man of dust, so also are those who are of the dust, and as is the man of heaven, so also are those who are of heaven. ⁴⁹Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall ^[66] also bear the image of the man of heaven.

natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a Mystery and Victory

⁵⁰I tell you this, brothers; flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable. ⁵¹Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed. 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. ⁵³For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality. 54When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written:

"Death is swallowed up in victory."

55"O death, where is your victory?

O death, where is your sting?"

⁵⁶The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁵⁸Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

The Collection for the Saints

16:1 Now concerning ^[67] the collection for the saints: as I directed the churches of Galatia, so you also are to do. ²On the first day of every week, each of you is to put something aside and store it up, as he may prosper, so that there will be no collecting when I come. ³And when I arrive, I will send those whom you accredit by letter to carry your gift to Jerusalem. ⁴If it seems advisable that I should go also, they will accompany me.

Plans for Travel

⁵I will visit you after passing through Macedonia, for I intend to pass through Macedonia, ⁶and perhaps I will stay with you or even spend the winter, so that you may help me on my journey, wherever I go. ⁷For I do not want to see you now just in passing. I hope to spend some time with you, if the Lord permits. ⁸But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost, ⁹for a wide door for effective work has opened to me, and there are 10When Timothy comes, see that you put him at ease among you, for he is doing the work of the Lord, as I am. ¹¹So let no one despise him. Help him on his way in peace, that he may return to me, for I am expecting him with the brothers.

many adversaries.

Final Instructions

- 12 Now concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to visit you with the other brothers, but it was not at all his will to come now. He will come when he has opportunity.
- ¹³Be watchful, stand firm in the faith, act like men, be strong. ¹⁴Let all that you do be done in love.
- ¹⁵Now I urge you, brothers^[69]—you know that the household^[70] of Stephanas were the first converts in Achaia, and that they have devoted themselves to the service of the saints— ¹⁶be subject to such as these, and to every fellow worker and laborer. ¹⁷I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus, because they have made up for your absence, ¹⁸for they refreshed my spirit as well as yours. Give recognition to such men.

Greetings

¹⁹The churches of Asia send you greetings. Aquila and Prisca, together with the church in their house, send you hearty greetings in the Lord. ²⁰All the brothers send you greetings. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

²¹I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. ²²If anyone has no love for the Lord, let him be accursed. Our Lord, come! ^[71] ²³The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you. ²⁴My love be with you all in Christ Jesus.

Amen.

2 CORINTHIANS

Greeting

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

To the church of God that is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia:

²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God of All Comfort

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort. ⁴who comforts us in all our affliction, so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. ⁵For as we share abundantly in Christ's sufferings, so through Christ we share abundantly in comfort too. [1] 6 If we are afflicted. it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which you experience when you patiently endure the same sufferings that we suffer. ⁷Our hope for you is unshaken, for we know that as you share in our sufferings, you will also share in our comfort.

⁸For we do not want you to be ignorant, brothers, ^[2] of the affliction we experienced in Asia. For we were so utterly burdened beyond our strength that we despaired of life itself. ⁹Indeed, we felt that we had received the sentence of death. But that was to make us rely not on ourselves but on God who raises peril, and he will deliver us. On him we have set our hope that he will deliver us again. ¹¹You also must help us by prayer, so that many will give thanks on our behalf for the blessing granted us through the prayers of many.

the dead. 10 He delivered us from such a deadly

Paul's Change of Plans

12For our boast is this, the testimony of our conscience, that we behaved in the world with simplicity and godly sincerity, not by earthly wisdom but by the grace of God, and supremely so toward you. ¹³For we are not writing to you anything other than what you read and acknowledge and I hope you will fully acknowledge— ¹⁴just as you did partially acknowledge us—that on the day of our Lord Jesus you will boast of us as we will boast of you.

¹⁵Because I was sure of this, I wanted to come to you first, so that you might have a second experience of grace. ¹⁶I wanted to visit you on my way to Macedonia, and to come back to you from Macedonia and have you send me on my way to Judea. ¹⁷Was I vacillating when I wanted to do this? Do I make my plans according to the flesh, ready to say "Yes, yes" and "No, no" at the same time? ¹⁸As surely as God is faithful, our word to you has not

Christ, whom we proclaimed among you, Silvanus and Timothy and I, was not Yes and No, but in him it is always Yes. ²⁰For all the promises of God find their Yes in him. That is why it is through him that we utter our Amen to God for his glory. ²¹And it is God who establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, ²²and who has also put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. ^[5] been Yes and No. 19 For the Son of God. Jesus spare you that I refrained from coming again to Corinth. ²⁴Not that we lord it over your faith, but we work with you for your joy, for you stand firm in your faith.

²³But I call God to witness against me—it was to

2:1 For I made up my mind not to make another painful visit to you. ²For if I cause you pain, who is there to make me glad but the one whom I have pained? ³And I wrote as I did, so that when I came I might not suffer pain from those who should have made me rejoice, for I felt sure of all of you, that my joy would be the joy of you all. ⁴For I wrote to you out of much affliction and anguish of heart and with many tears, not to cause you pain but to let you know the abundant love that I have for you.

Forgive the Sinner

⁵Now if anyone has caused pain, he has caused it not to me, but in some measure—not to put it too severely—to all of you. ⁶For such a one. this punishment by the majority is enough, ⁷so you should rather turn to forgive and comfort him, or he may be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. 8So I beg you to reaffirm your love for him. ⁹For this is why I wrote, that I might test you and know whether you are obedient in everything. ¹⁰Anyone whom you forgive, I also forgive. Indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, has been for your sake in the presence of Christ, 11 so that we would not be outwitted by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his designs.

Triumph in Christ

¹²When I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, even though a door was opened for me in the Lord, ¹³my spirit was not at rest because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I took leave of them and went on to Macedonia.

¹⁴But thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumphal procession, and through us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere.
¹⁵For we are the aroma of Christ to God among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing, ¹⁶to one a fragrance from death to death, to the other a fragrance from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷For we are not, like so many, peddlers of God's word, but as men of sincerity, as commissioned by God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

Ministers of the New Covenant

3:1 Are we beginning to commend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some do, letters of recommendation to you, or from you? ²You yourselves are our letter of recommendation, written on our hearts, to be known and read by all. ³And you show that you are a letter from Christ delivered by us, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. [8]

⁴Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. ⁵Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, ⁶who has made us competent^[9] to be ministers of a new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

⁷Now if the ministry of death, carved in letters on stone, came with such glory that the Israelites could was being brought to an end, ⁸will not the ministry of the Spirit have even more glory? ⁹For if there was glory in the ministry of condemnation, the ministry of righteousness must far exceed it in glory. ¹⁰Indeed, in this case, what once had glory has come to have no glory at all, because of the glory that surpasses it. ¹¹For if what was being brought to an end came with glory, much more will what is permanent have glory.

not gaze at Moses' face because of its glory, which ¹²Since we have such a hope, we are very bold, ¹³not like Moses, who would put a veil over his face so that the Israelites might not gaze at the outcome of what was being brought to an end. ¹⁴But their minds were hardened. For to this day, when they minds were hardened. For to this day, when they read the old covenant, that same veil remains unlifted, because only through Christ is it taken away. ¹⁵Yes, to this day whenever Moses is read a veil lies over their hearts. ¹⁶But when one^[10] turns to the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷Now the Lord ^[11] is the Lord, the veil is removed. ¹⁷Now the Lord [11] is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, [12] are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.

The Light of the Gospel

4:1 Therefore, having this ministry by the mercy of God.[13] we do not lose heart. ²But we have renounced disgraceful, underhanded ways. We refuse to practice cunning or to tamper with God's word, but by the open statement of the truth we would commend ourselves to everyone's conscience in the sight of God. ³And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled only to those who are perishing. 4In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. ⁵For what we proclaim is not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, with ourselves as your servants[14] for Jesus' sake. ⁶For God, who said. "Let light shine out of darkness." has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Treasure in Jars of Clay

⁷But we have this treasure in jars of clay, to show that the surpassing power belongs to God and not to us. ⁸We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; ⁹persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; ¹⁰always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be manifested in our bodies. ¹¹For we who live are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh. ¹²So death is at work in us, but life in you.

¹³Since we have the same spirit of faith according to what has been written, "I believed, and so I spoke," we also believe, and so we also speak, ¹⁴knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus and bring us with you into his presence.
¹⁵For it is all for your sake, so that as grace extends to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

¹⁶So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self^[15] is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, ¹⁸as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.

Our Heavenly Dwelling

home is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

5:1 For we know that if the tent that is our earthly ²For in this tent we groan, longing to put on our heavenly dwelling, ³if indeed by putting it on [16] we may not be found naked. ⁴For while we are still in this tent, we groan, being burdened—not that we would be unclothed, but that we would be further clothed, so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. ⁵He who has prepared us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a guarantee.

⁶So we are always of good courage. We know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, ⁷for we walk by faith, not by sight. ⁸Yes, we are of good courage, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. ⁹So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. ¹⁰For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may

The Ministry of Reconciliation

¹¹Therefore, knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade others. But what we are is known to God. and I hope it is known also to your conscience. 12We are not commending ourselves to you again but giving you cause to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast about outward appearance and not about what is in the heart. ¹³For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God: if we are in our right mind, it is for you. 14 For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died: 15 and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

¹⁶From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. ¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. ^[17] The old has passed

Christ God was reconciling^[18] the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. ²¹ For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

6:1 Working together with him, then, we appeal to you not to receive the grace of God in vain. ²For he says,

away; behold, the new has come. ¹⁸All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; ¹⁹that is. in

"In a favorable time I listened to you, and in a day of salvation I have helped you."

Behold, now is the favorable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. ³We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry,

⁴but as servants of God we commend ourselves in genuine love; ⁷by truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; ⁸through honor and dishonor, through slander and praise. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; ⁹as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and yet not killed; ¹⁰as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, yet possessing everything.

¹¹We have spoken freely to you, ^[19] Corinthians; our heart is wide open. ¹²You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections. ¹³In return (I speak as to children) widen your hearts also.

every way: by great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, ⁵beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; ⁶by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, the Holy Spirit,

The Temple of the Living God

¹⁴Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? ¹⁵What accord has Christ with Belial? Or what portion does a believer share with an unbeliever? ¹⁶What agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are the temple of the living God: as God said.

"I will make my dwelling among them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17Therefore go out from their midst, and be separate from them, says the Lord, and touch no unclean thing; then I will welcome you, ¹⁸and I will be a father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty." cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, bringing holiness to completion in the fear of God.

7:1 Since we have these promises, beloved, let us

Paul's Joy

²Make room in your hearts^[22] for us. We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one. ³I do not say this to condemn you, for I said before that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. ⁴I am acting with great boldness toward you; I have great pride in you; I am filled with comfort. In all our affliction, I am overflowing with joy.

⁵For even when we came into Macedonia, our bodies had no rest, but we were afflicted at every turn—fighting without and fear within. ⁶But God, who comforts the downcast, comforted us by the coming of Titus, ⁷and not only by his coming but also by the comfort with which he was comforted by you, as he told us of your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me, so that I rejoiced still more. ⁸For even if I made you grieve with my letter, I do not regret it—though I did regret it, for I see that that letter grieved you, though only for a while. ⁹As it is, I rejoice, not because you were grieved, but because you were grieved into repenting. For you felt a godly grief, so that you suffered no loss through us. ¹⁰For godly grief produces a repentance that leads to salvation without regret, whereas worldly grief produces death. 11 For see what earnestness this godly grief has produced in you, but also what eagerness to clear yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what longing, what zeal, what punishment! At every point you have proved yourselves innocent in the matter. 12So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of the one who did the wrong, nor for the sake of the one who suffered the wrong, but in order that your earnestness for us might be revealed to you in the sight of God. ¹³Therefore we are comforted. And besides our own comfort, we rejoiced still more at the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. 14 For whatever boasts I made to him about you, I was not put to shame. But just as everything we said to you was true, so also our boasting before Titus has proved true. 15 And his affection for you is even greater, as he remembers the obedience of you all, how you received him with fear and trembling. ¹⁶I rejoice, because I have perfect confidence in you.

Encouragement to Give Generously

8:1 We want you to know, brothers. [23] about the grace of God that has been given among the churches of Macedonia. ² for in a severe test of affliction, their abundance of joy and their extreme poverty have overflowed in a wealth of generosity on their part. ³For they gave according to their means, as I can testify, and beyond their means, of their own accord, 4begging us earnestly for the favor of taking part in the relief of the saints— ⁵and this, not as we expected, but they gave themselves first to the Lord and then by the will of God to us. ⁶Accordingly, we urged Titus that as he had started, so he should complete among you this act of grace. ⁷But as you excel in everything—in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all earnestness, and in our love for you^[25]—see that you excel in this act of grace also.

⁸I say this not as a command, but to prove by the earnestness of others that your love also is genuine. ⁹For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,

¹⁰And in this matter I give my judgment: this benefits you, who a year ago started not only to do this work but also to desire to do it. ¹¹So now finish doing it as well, so that your readiness in desiring it may be matched by your completing it out of what you have. ¹²For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what a person has, not according to what he does not have. ¹³For I do not mean that others should be eased and you burdened, but that as a matter of fairness ¹⁴your abundance at the present time should supply their need, so that their abundance may supply your need, that there may be fairness. ¹⁵As it is written, "Whoever gathered much had nothing left over, and whoever gathered little had no lack."

that though he was rich, yet for your sake he became poor, so that you by his poverty might become rich.

Commendation of Titus

¹⁶But thanks be to God, who put into the heart of Titus the same earnest care I have for vou. ¹⁷For he not only accepted our appeal, but being himself very earnest he is going [26] to you of his own accord. ¹⁸With him we are sending ^[27] the brother who is famous among all the churches for his preaching of the gospel. ¹⁹And not only that, but he has been appointed by the churches to travel with us as we carry out this act of grace that is being ministered by us, for the glory of the Lord himself and to show our good will. 20 We take this course so that no one should blame us about this generous gift that is being administered by us, ²¹ for we aim at what is honorable not only in the Lord's sight but also in the sight of man. 22 And with them we are sending our brother whom we have often tested and found earnest in many matters, but who is now more earnest than ever because of his great confidence in you. ²³As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for your benefit. And as for our brothers, they are messengers^[28] of the churches, the glory of Christ. ²⁴So give proof before the churches of your love and of our boasting about you to these men.

The Collection for Christians in Jerusalem

9:1 Now it is superfluous for me to write to you about the ministry for the saints. ² for I know your readiness. of which I boast about you to the people of Macedonia, saying that Achaia has been ready since last year. And your zeal has stirred up most of them. ³But I am sending [29] the brothers so that our boasting about you may not prove empty in this matter, so that you may be ready, as I said you would be. ⁴Otherwise, if some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not ready, we would be humiliated—to say nothing of you—for being so confident. ⁵So I thought it necessary to urge the brothers to go on ahead to you and arrange in advance for the gift[30] you have promised, so that it may be ready as a willing gift, not as an exaction [31]

The Cheerful Giver

- ⁶The point is this: whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. ⁷Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. ⁸And God is able to make all grace abound to you, so that having all sufficiency in all things at all times, you may abound in every good work. ⁹As it is written,
- "He has distributed freely, he has given to the poor; his righteousness endures forever."
- 10 He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness.
 11 You will be enriched in every way to be generous in every way, which through us will produce thanksgiving to God.
 12 For the ministry of this service is not only supplying the needs of the saints but is also overflowing in many thanksgivings to God.

¹³By their approval of this service, they [34] will glorify God because of your submission flowing from your confession of the gospel of Christ, and the generosity of your contribution for them and for all others. ¹⁴while they long for you and pray for you, because of the surpassing grace of God upon you.

15 Thanks be to God for his inexpressible gift!

Paul Defends His Ministry

- 10:1 I. Paul, myself entreat you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ—I who am humble when face to face with you, but bold toward you when I am away!— 2 beg of you that when I am present I may not have to show boldness with such confidence as I count on showing against some who suspect us of walking according to the flesh. ³For though we walk in the flesh, we are not waging war according to the flesh. ⁴For the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but have divine power to destroy strongholds. ⁵We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ. 6being ready to punish every disobedience, when your obedience is complete.
- ⁷Look at what is before your eyes. If anyone is confident that he is Christ's, let him remind himself that just as he is Christ's, so also are we. ⁸For even if I boast a little too much of our authority, which the

to be frightening you with my letters. ¹⁰For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech of no account." ¹¹Let such a person understand that what we say by letter when absent, we do when present. ¹²Not that we dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. But when

Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I will not be ashamed. ⁹I do not want to appear they measure themselves by one another and compare themselves with one another, they are without understanding.

13But we will not boast beyond limits, but will boast only with regard to the area of influence God assigned to us, to reach even to you. 14For we are not overextending ourselves, as though we did not reach you. For we were the first to come all the way to you with the gospel of Christ. ¹⁵We do not boast beyond limit in the labors of others. But our hope is that as your faith increases, our area of influence among you may be greatly enlarged, ¹⁶so that we may preach the gospel in lands beyond you, without boasting of work already done in another's area of influence. ¹⁷"Let the one who boasts, boast in the Lord." ¹⁸For it is not the one who commends himself who is approved, but the one whom the Lord commends.

Paul and the False Apostles

11:1 I wish you would bear with me in a little foolishness. Do bear with me! ²For I feel a divine iealousy for you, since I betrothed you to one husband, to present you as a pure virgin to Christ. ³But I am afraid that as the serpent deceived Eve by his cunning, your thoughts will be led astray from a sincere and pure devotion to Christ. ⁴For if someone comes and proclaims another Jesus than the one we proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit from the one you received, or if you accept a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it readily enough. ⁵Indeed, I consider that I am not in the least inferior to these super-apostles. ⁶Even if I am unskilled in speaking, I am not so in knowledge; indeed, in every way we have made this plain to you

⁷Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself so that you might be exalted, because I preached God's gospel to you free of charge? ⁸I robbed other churches by in all things.

⁹And when I was with you and was in need, I did not burden anyone, for the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied my need. So I refrained and will refrain from burdening you in any way. ¹⁰As the truth of Christ is in me, this boasting of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. ¹¹And why? Because I do not love you? God knows I do!

accepting support from them in order to serve you.

¹²And what I do I will continue to do, in order to undermine the claim of those who would like to claim that in their boasted mission they work on the same terms as we do. ¹³For such men are false apostles, deceitful workmen, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ. ¹⁴And no wonder, for even Satan disguises himself as an angel of light. ¹⁵So it is no surprise if his servants, also, disguise themselves as servants of righteousness. Their end will correspond to their deeds.

Paul's Sufferings as an Apostle

¹⁶I repeat, let no one think me foolish. But even if you do, accept me as a fool, so that I too may boast a little. ¹⁷What I am saying with this boastful confidence, I say not with the Lord's authority but as a fool. ¹⁸Since many boast according to the flesh, I too will boast. ¹⁹For you gladly bear with fools, being wise yourselves! ²⁰For you bear it if someone makes slaves of you, or devours you, or takes advantage of you, or puts on airs, or strikes you in the face. ²¹To my shame, I must say, we were too weak for that!

speaking as a fool—I also dare to boast of that.

22Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites?

So am I. Are they offspring of Abraham? So am I.

23Are they servants of Christ? I am a better one—I am talking like a madman—with far greater labors, far more imprisonments, with countless beatings, and often near death.

24Five times I received at the

But whatever anyone else dares to boast of—I am

Three times I was shipwrecked; a night and a day I was adrift at sea; ²⁶on frequent journeys, in danger from rivers, danger from robbers, danger from my own people, danger from Gentiles, danger in the city, danger in the wilderness, danger at sea, danger from false brothers; ²⁷in toil and hardship, through many a sleepless night, in hunger and thirst, often without food, [35] in cold and exposure. ²⁸And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches. ²⁹Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to fall, and I am not indignant?

³⁰If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness. ³¹The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying. ³²At Damascus, the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of Damascus in order to seize me, ³³but I was let down in a basket through a window in the wall and escaped his hands.

Paul's Visions and His Thorn

12:1 I must go on boasting. Though there is nothing to be gained by it, I will go on to visions and revelations of the Lord. ²I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven —whether in the body or out of the body I do not know. God knows. ³And I know that this man was caught up into paradise—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows— 4 and he heard things that cannot be told, which man may not utter. ⁵On behalf of this man I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. 6Though if I should wish to boast, I would not be a fool, for I would be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think more of me than he sees in me or hears from me. ⁷So to keep me from becoming conceited because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations.[36] a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to harass me, to keep me from becoming conceited. ⁸Three times I pleaded with the Lord about this, that sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Therefore I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may rest upon me. ¹⁰For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

it should leave me. ⁹But he said to me. "My grace is

Concern for the Corinthian Church

¹¹I have been a fool! You forced me to it, for I ought to have been commended by you. For I was not at all inferior to these super-apostles, even though I am nothing. ¹²The signs of a true apostle were performed among you with utmost patience, with signs and wonders and mighty works. ¹³For in what were you less favored than the rest of the churches, except that I myself did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong!

¹⁴Here for the third time I am ready to come to you. And I will not be a burden, for I seek not what is yours but you. For children are not obligated to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. ¹⁵I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more, am I to be loved less? ¹⁶But granting that I myself did not burden you, I was crafty, you say, and got the better of you by deceit. ¹⁷Did I take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you? ¹⁸I urged Titus to go, and sent the brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not act in the same spirit? Did we not take the same steps?

19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been defending ourselves to you? It is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ, and all for your upbuilding, beloved. 20 For I fear that perhaps when I come I may find you not as I wish, and that you may find me not as you wish-that perhaps there may be quarreling, jealousy, anger, hostility, slander, gossip, conceit, and disorder. 21I fear that when I come again my God may humble me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who sinned earlier and have not repented of the impurity, sexual immorality, and sensuality that they have practiced.

Final Warnings

13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. Every charge must be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses. ²I warned those who sinned before and all the others, and I warn them now while absent, as I did when present on my second visit, that if I come again I will not spare them— ³since you seek proof that Christ is speaking in me. He is not weak in dealing with you, but is powerful among you. ⁴For he was crucified in weakness, but lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but in dealing with you we will live with him by the power of God.

⁵Examine yourselves, to see whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Or do you not realize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you?— unless indeed you fail to meet the test! ⁶I hope you will find out that we have not failed the test. ⁷But we pray to God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do ⁸For we cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. ⁹For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. Your restoration is what we pray for. ¹⁰For this reason I write these things while I am away from you, that when I come I may not have to be severe in my use of the authority that the Lord has given me for building up and not for tearing down.

what is right, though we may seem to have failed.

Final Greetings

¹¹Finally, brothers, [37] rejoice. Aim for restoration, comfort one another, [38] agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. ¹²Greet one another with a holy kiss. ¹³All the saints greet you.

14The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Greeting

1:1 Paul, an apostle—not from men nor through man, but through Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised him from the dead—² and all the brothers ¹ who are with me.

To the churches of Galatia:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, ⁴who gave himself for our sins to deliver us from the present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, ⁵to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

No Other Gospel

- ⁶I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— ⁷not that there is another one, but there are some who trouble you and want to distort the gospel of Christ. ⁸But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach to you a gospel contrary to the one we preached to you, let him be accursed. ⁹As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is preaching to you a gospel contrary to the one you received, let him be accursed.
- ¹⁰For am I now seeking the approval of man, or of God? Or am I trying to please man? If I were still trying to please man, I would not be a servant^[2] of Christ.

Paul Called by God

- ¹¹For I would have you know, brothers, that the gospel that was preached by me is not man's gospel. [3] 12 For I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹³For you have heard of my former life in Judaism, how I persecuted the church of God violently and tried to destroy it. 14 And I was advancing in Judaism beyond many of my own age among my people, so extremely zealous was I for the traditions of my fathers. 15 But when he who had set me apart before I was born. [4] and who called me by his grace. 16 was pleased to reveal his Son to 5 me, in order that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with anyone: [6] 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.
- ¹⁸Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Cephas and remained with him fifteen days.

the Lord's brother. ²⁰(In what I am writing to you, before God, I do not lie!) ²¹Then I went into the regions of Syria and Cilicia. ²²And I was still unknown in person to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. ²³They only were hearing it said, "He who used to persecute us is now preaching the faith he once tried to destroy." ²⁴And they glorified God because of me.

¹⁹But I saw none of the other apostles except James

Paul Accepted by the Apostles

2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus along with me. ²I went up because of a revelation and set before them (though privately before those who seemed influential) the gospel that I proclaim among the Gentiles, in order to make sure I was not running or had not run in vain. ³But even Titus, who was with me, was not forced to be circumcised, though he was a Greek. ⁴Yet because of false brothers secretly brought in—who slipped in to spy out our freedom that we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might bring us into slavery— ⁵to them we did not yield in submission even for a moment, so that the truth of the gospel might be preserved for you. ⁶And from those who seemed to be influential (what they were makes no difference to me; God shows no partiality)—those, I say, who seemed influential added nothing to me. ⁷On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel to the uncircumcised, just as Peter had been entrusted with the gospel to also through me for mine to the Gentiles), ⁹and when James and Cephas and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave the right hand of fellowship to Barnabas and me, that we should go to the Gentiles and they to the circumcised. ¹⁰Only, they asked us to remember the poor, the very thing I was eager to do.

Paul Opposes Peter

¹¹But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face, because he stood condemned. ¹²For before certain men came from James, he was eating with the Gentiles; but when they came he drew back and separated himself, fearing the circumcision party. ¹³And the rest of the Jews acted hypocritically along with him, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴But when I saw that their conduct was not in step with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you," though a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you force the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

Justified by Faith

¹⁵We ourselves are Jews by birth and not Gentile sinners; ¹⁶yet we know that a person is not justified by works of the law but through faith in Jesus Christ, so we also have believed in Christ Jesus, in order to be justified by faith in Christ and not by works of the law, because by works of the law no one will be justified.

¹⁷But if, in our endeavor to be justified in Christ, we too were found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! 18 For if I rebuild what I tore down, I prove myself to be a transgressor. ¹⁹For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. ²⁰I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me. ²¹I do not nullify the grace of God, for if righteousness [8] were through the law, then Christ died for no purpose.

By Faith, or by Works of the Law?

3:1 O foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you? It was before your eyes that Jesus Christ was publicly portrayed as crucified. ²Let me ask you only this: Did you receive the Spirit by works of the law or by hearing with faith? ³Are you so foolish? Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by 19 the flesh? 4Did you suffer 10 so many things in vain—if indeed it was in vain? ⁵Does he who supplies the Spirit to you and works miracles among you do so by works of the law, or by hearing with faith— ⁶just as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him as righteousness"?

⁷Know then that it is those of faith who are the sons of Abraham. ⁸And the Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify^[11] the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you shall all the nations be blessed." ⁹So then, those who are of faith are blessed along with Abraham, the man of faith.

The Righteous Shall Live by Faith

10 For all who rely on works of the law are under a curse: for it is written. "Cursed be everyone who does not abide by all things written in the Book of the Law, and do them." 11 Now it is evident that no one is iustified before God by the law, for "The righteous shall live by faith." 12 But the law is not of faith, rather "The one who does them shall live by them." ¹³Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, "Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree"— 14 so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit[13] through faith.

The Law and the Promise

¹⁵To give a human example, brothers: [14] even with a man-made covenant, no one annuls it or adds to it once it has been ratified. ¹⁶Now the promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. It does not say, "And to offsprings," referring to many, but referring to one, "And to your offspring," who is Christ. ¹⁷This is what I mean: the law, which came 430 years afterward, does not annul a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. ¹⁸For if the inheritance comes by the law, it no longer comes by promise; but God gave it ¹⁹Why then the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the offspring should come to whom the promise had been made, and it was put in place through angels by an intermediary. ²⁰Now an intermediary implies more than one, but God is one.

to Abraham by a promise.

²¹Is the law then contrary to the promises of God?
Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could

law. ²²But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

²³Now before faith came, we were held captive give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the

under the law, imprisoned until the coming faith would be revealed. ²⁴So then, the law was our guardian until Christ came, in order that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian, ²⁶for in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God, through faith. ²⁷For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ. ²⁸There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave. ^[15] nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. ²⁹And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.

Sons and Heirs

4:1 I mean that the heir, as long as he is a child, is no different from a slave, [16] though he is the owner of everything. ²but he is under quardians and managers until the date set by his father. 3In the same way we also, when we were children. were enslaved to the elementary principles [17] of the world. ⁴But when the fullness of time had come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law. 5to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. ⁶And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" ⁷So you are no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through

God.

Paul's Concern for the Galatians

⁸Formerly, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those that by nature are not gods. ⁹But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how can you turn back again to the weak and worthless elementary principles of the world, whose slaves you want to be once more? ¹⁰You observe days and months and seasons and years! ¹¹I am afraid I may have labored over you in vain.

¹²Brothers, ^[18] I entreat you, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong. ¹³You know it was because of a bodily ailment that I preached the gospel to you at first, ¹⁴and though my condition was a trial to you, you did not scorn or despise me, but received me as an angel of God, as Christ Jesus. ¹⁵What then has become of the blessing you felt? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have gouged out your eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶Have I then become your enemy by that you may make much of them. ¹⁸It is always good to be made much of for a good purpose, and not only when I am present with you, ¹⁹my little children, for whom I am again in the anguish of childbirth until Christ is formed in you! ²⁰I wish I could be present with you now and change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.

telling you the truth? ^[19] ¹⁷They make much of you, but for no good purpose. They want to shut you out.

Example of Hagar and Sarah

²¹Tell me, you who desire to be under the law, do you not listen to the law? 22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by a slave woman and one by a free woman. ²³But the son of the slave was born according to the flesh, while the son of the free woman was born through promise. ²⁴Now this may be interpreted allegorically: these women are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children for slavery; she is Hagar. ²⁵Now Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia: [20] she corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children. ²⁶But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother. ²⁷For it is written.

"Rejoice, O barren one who does not bear; break forth and cry aloud, you who are not in labor! For the children of the desolate one will be more than those of the one who has a husband."

²⁸Now you,^[21] brothers, like Isaac, are children of

according to the Spirit, so also it is now. ³⁰But what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave woman and her son, for the son of the slave woman shall not inherit with the son of the free woman." ³¹So, brothers, we are not children of the slave but of the free woman.

promise. ²⁹But just as at that time he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born

Christ Has Set Us Free

5:1 For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

²Look: I, Paul, say to you that if you accept

- circumcision, Christ will be of no advantage to you. ³I testify again to every man who accepts circumcision that he is obligated to keep the whole law. ⁴You are severed from Christ, you who would be justified ^[22] by the law; you have fallen away from grace. ⁵For through the Spirit, by faith, we ourselves eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness. ⁶For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision counts for anything, but only faith working through love.

 ⁷You were running well. Who hindered you from
- ⁷You were running well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? ⁸This persuasion is not from him who calls you. ⁹A little leaven leavens the whole lump. ¹⁰I have confidence in the Lord that you will take no other view than mine, and the one who is ¹¹But if I, brothers, ^[23] still preach ^[24] circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been removed. ¹²I wish those who unsettle you would emasculate themselves!

troubling you will bear the penalty, whoever he is.

¹³For you were called to freedom, brothers. Only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. ¹⁴For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." ¹⁵But if you bite and devour one another, watch out that you are not consumed by one another.

Walk by the Spirit

¹⁶But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. ¹⁷For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. 18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. ¹⁹Now the works of the flesh are evident: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, ²⁰idolatry, sorcery, enmity, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, rivalries, dissensions, divisions, 21 envy. [25] drunkenness, orgies, and things like these. I warn you, as I warned you before, that those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God. ²²But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, 23 gentleness, self-²⁵If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

control; against such things there is no law. ²⁴And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.

²⁶Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Bear One Another's Burdens

6:1 Brothers, [26] if anyone is caught in any transgression, you who are spiritual should restore him in a spirit of gentleness. Keep watch on yourself, lest you too be tempted. ²Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ. ³For if anyone thinks he is something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself. ⁴But let each one test his own alone and not in his neighbor. ⁵For each will have to bear his own load.

⁶One who is taught the word must share all good things with the one who teaches. ⁷Do not be deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. ⁸For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption.

work, and then his reason to boast will be in himself deceived: God is not mocked, for whatever one sows, that will he also reap. ⁸For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. ⁹And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up. ¹⁰So then, as we have opportunity, let us do

Final Warning and Benediction

¹¹See with what large letters I am writing to you with my own hand. 12 It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh who would force you to be circumcised, and only in order that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. 13 For even those who are circumcised do not themselves keep the law, but they desire to have you circumcised that they may boast in your flesh. 14But far be it from me to boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. ¹⁵For neither circumcision counts for anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

¹⁷From now on let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus.

¹⁶And as for all who walk by this rule, peace and mercy be upon them, and upon the Israel of God.

¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Greeting

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God,

To the saints who are in Ephesus, and are faithful in Christ Jesus:

²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, ⁴even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. In love ⁵he predestined us^[2] for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, ⁶to the praise of his glorious grace, with which he has blessed us in the Beloved. ⁷In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our

Thanksgiving and Prayer

¹⁵For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love [6] toward all the saints. 16I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers. ¹⁷that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him. ¹⁸having the eves of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his alorious inheritance in the saints. ¹⁹ and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might ²⁰that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, ²¹ far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come. 22 And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in

By Grace Through Faith

2:1 And you were dead in the trespasses and sins

²in which vou once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air. the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience—³among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. ⁴But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, ⁵even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶ and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus. ⁷so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. 8For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹not a result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good

¹¹Therefore remember that at one time you Gentiles in the flesh, called "the uncircumcision" by what is called the circumcision, which is made in the flesh by hands— 12 remember that you were at that time separated from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. ¹³But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. ¹⁴For he himself is our peace, who has made us both one and has broken down in his flesh the dividing wall of hostility 15 by abolishing the law of commandments expressed in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man in place of the two, so making peace, ¹⁶ and might reconcile us both to God in one body through the cross, thereby killing the hostility. ¹⁷And he came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near. ¹⁸For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. 19So then you are apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the cornerstone, ²¹in whom the whole structure, being joined together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord. ²²In him you also are being built together into a dwelling place for God by the Spirit.

no longer strangers and aliens, ^[9] but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God. ²⁰built on the foundation of the

The Mystery of the Gospel Revealed

3:1 For this reason I, Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles—²assuming that you have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for you, ³how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I have written briefly. 4When you read this, you can perceive my insight into the mystery of Christ, 5which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit. ⁶This mystery is [11] that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

⁷Of this gospel I was made a minister according to the gift of God's grace, which was given me by the working of his power. ⁸To me, though I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, ⁹and to bring to light for everyone what is the plan of wisdom of God might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. ¹¹This was according to the eternal purpose that he has realized in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through our faith in him. ¹³So I ask you not to lose heart over what I am suffering for you, which is your glory.

the mystery hidden for ages in [12] God who created all things, 10so that through the church the manifold

Prayer for Spiritual Strength

¹⁴For this reason I bow my knees before the Father, ¹⁵from whom every family ^[13] in heaven and on earth is named, ¹⁶that according to the riches of his glory he may grant you to be strengthened with power through his Spirit in your inner being, ¹⁷so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, ¹⁸may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, ¹⁹and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

²⁰Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us, ²¹to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

Unity in the Body of Christ

4:1 I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, ²with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, ³eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. ⁴There is one body and one Spirit—just as you were called to the one hope that belongs to your call— ⁵one Lord, one faith, one baptism, ⁶one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all. ⁷But grace was given to each one of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. ⁸Therefore

"When he ascended on high he led a host of captives, and he gave gifts to men."

it says,

 9 (In saying, "He ascended," what does it mean but that he had also descended into the lower regions, the earth? $^{[14]}$ 10 He who descended is the one who might fill all things.) ¹¹And he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the shepherds ^[15] and teachers, ^[16] ¹²to equip the saints for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, ¹³until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, ^[17] to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, ¹⁴so that we may no longer be children. tossed to and fro also ascended far above all the heavens, that he

by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. ¹⁵Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, ¹⁶from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every joint with which it is equipped, when each part is working properly, makes the body grow so that it builds itself up in love.

The New Life

¹⁷Now this I sav and testify in the Lord, that you must no longer walk as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their minds. ¹⁸They are darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them, due to their hardness of heart. 19 They have become callous and have given themselves up to sensuality, greedy to practice every kind of impurity. ²⁰But that is not the way you learned Christ!— 21 assuming that you have heard about him and were taught in him, as the truth is in Jesus. 22 to put off your old self. [18] which belongs to your former manner of life and is corrupt through deceitful desires, ²³ and to be renewed in the spirit of your minds. 24 and to put on the new self. created after the likeness of God in true righteousness and holiness.

²⁵Therefore, having put away falsehood, let each one of you speak the truth with his neighbor, for we are members one of another. ²⁶Be angry and do not work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need. ²⁹Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up, as fits the occasion, that it may give grace to those who hear. ³⁰And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. ³¹Let all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be put away from you, along with all malice. ³²Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ forgave you.

sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger, ²⁷ and give no opportunity to the devil. ²⁸Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest

Walk in Love

5:1 Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. ²And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.

³But sexual immorality and all impurity or covetousness must not even be named among you, as is proper among saints. ⁴Let there be no filthiness nor foolish talk nor crude joking, which are out of place, but instead let there be thanksgiving. ⁵For you may be sure of this, that everyone who is sexually immoral or impure, or who is covetous (that is, an idolater), has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. ⁶Let no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the sons of disobedience. ⁷Therefore do not become partners with them: 8 for at one time you were darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk as children of light ⁹(for the fruit of light is found in all that is good and right and true), ¹⁰ and try to in the unfruitful works of darkness, but instead expose them. ¹²For it is shameful even to speak of the things that they do in secret. ¹³But when anything is exposed by the light, it becomes visible, ¹⁴for anything that becomes visible is light. Therefore it says, discern what is pleasing to the Lord. 11 Take no part and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."

15Look carefully then how you walk, not as unwise but as wise. ¹⁶making the best use of the time,

"Awake, O sleeper,

because the days are evil. ¹⁷Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. ¹⁸And do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, ¹⁹addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the spiritual songs, singing and making melody to the Lord with your heart, ²⁰giving thanks always and for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, ²¹ submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives and Husbands

²²Wives, submit to your own husbands, as to the Lord. ²³For the husband is the head of the wife even as Christ is the head of the church, his body, and is himself its Savior. ²⁴Now as the church submits to Christ, so also wives should submit in everything to their husbands.

²⁵Husbands, love your wives, as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her, ²⁶that he might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word, ²⁷so that he might present the church to himself in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. [19] 28 In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. ²⁹For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ does the church, ³⁰because we are members of his body. 31"Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh." ³²This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church. ³³However. let each one of you love his wife as himself, and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

Children and Parents

6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ²"Honor your father and mother" (this is the first commandment with a promise), 3"that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land."

⁴Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

⁵Slaves. ^[20] obey your earthly masters ^[21] with fear and trembling, with a sincere heart, as you would Christ, ⁶not by the way of eye-service, as peoplepleasers, but as servants[22] of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart. ⁷rendering service with a good will as to the Lord and not to man, 8knowing that whatever good anyone does, this he will receive back from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. ⁹Masters, do the same to them, and stop your threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master^[23] and yours is in heaven, and that there is no partiality with him.

The Whole Armor of God

¹⁰Finally be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. ¹³Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand firm. 14Stand therefore, having fastened on the belt of truth, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, ¹⁵ and, as shoes for your feet, having put on the readiness given by the gospel of peace. ¹⁶In all circumstances take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming darts of the evil one: 17 and take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God, 18 praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all ¹⁹and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, ²⁰for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.

perseverance, making supplication for all the saints,

Final Greetings

²¹So that you also may know how I am and what I am doing, Tychicus the beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord will tell you everything. ²²I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are, and that he may encourage your hearts.

Peace be to the brothers, [24] and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
 Grace be with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ with love incorruptible.

Greeting

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus,

To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers [2] and deacons: [3]

²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, ⁴alwavs in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, ⁵because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. ⁶And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. 7It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of arace.[4] both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. 8For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. ⁹And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ. 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

The Advance of the Gospel

12 want you to know, brothers, 5 that what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel, 13 so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard 6 and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. 14 And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

¹⁵Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. ¹⁶The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel. ¹⁷The former proclaim Christ out of rivalry, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment. ¹⁸What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice.

To Live Is Christ

Yes, and I will rejoice, ¹⁹ for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, 20 as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be honored in my body, whether by life or by death. ²¹For to me to live is Christ, and to die is aain. 22 If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell. 23I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. 24But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account. 25 Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, ²⁶so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

²⁷Only let your manner of life be worthy ^[8] of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you for the faith of the gospel, ²⁸ and not frightened in anything by your opponents. This is a clear sign to them of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God. ²⁹For it has been granted to you that for the sake of Christ you should not only believe in him but also suffer for his sake, ³⁰engaged in the same conflict that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side

Christ's Example of Humility

2:1 So if there is any encouragement in Christ, any comfort from love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, ²complete my joy by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. ³Do nothing from rivalry or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than vourselves. ⁴Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others. ⁵Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus. 9 6 who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the form of a servant, [10] being born in the likeness of men. ⁸And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. 9Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name. 10 so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth. 11 and every tongue confess that Jesus

Lights in the World

- 12Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, so now, not only as in my presence but much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling, ¹³for it is God who works in you, both to will and to work for his good pleasure.
- ¹⁴Do all things without grumbling or questioning,
- 15that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world, ¹⁶holding fast to the word of life, so that in the day of Christ I may be proud that I did not run in vain or labor in vain. ¹⁷Even if I am to be poured out as a drink offering upon the sacrificial offering of
- your faith, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

 18Likewise you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. ²⁰For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. ²¹For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. ²²But you know Timothy's [11] proven worth, how as a son [12]

¹⁹I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you with a father he has served with me in the gospel. ²³I hope therefore to send him just as soon as I see how it will go with me, ²⁴and I trust in the Lord that shortly I myself will come also.

²⁵I have thought it necessary to send to you

Epaphroditus my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need, ²⁶for he has been longing for you all and has been distressed because you heard that he was ill. ²⁷Indeed he was ill, near to death. But God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow. ²⁸I am the more eager to send him, therefore, that you may rejoice at seeing him again, and that I may be less anxious. ²⁹So receive him in the Lord with all joy, and honor such men, ³⁰for he nearly died for the work of Christ, risking his life to complete what was lacking in your service to me.

Righteousness Through Faith in Christ 3:1 Finally, my brothers. [13] rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you is no trouble to me and is safe for you.

²Look out for the dogs, look out for the evildoers, look out for those who mutilate the flesh. ³For we are the circumcision, who worship by the Spirit of God[14] and glory in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh— 4though I myself have reason for confidence in the flesh also. If anyone else thinks he has reason for confidence in the flesh, I have more: 5 circumcised on the eighth day, of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; ⁶as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law.[15] blameless. ⁷But whatever gain I had. I counted as loss for the sake of Christ. 8Indeed. I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things and count them found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God that depends on faith— ¹⁰that I may know him and the power of his resurrection, and may share his sufferings, becoming like him in his death, ¹¹that by any means possible I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ ⁹ and be

we have attained.

¹²Not that I have already obtained this or am already perfect, but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. ¹³Brothers, I do not consider that I have made it my own. But one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, ¹⁴I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵Let those of us who are mature think this way, and if in anything you think otherwise, God will reveal that also to you. ¹⁶Only let us hold true to what

¹⁷Brothers, join in imitating me, and keep your eyes on those who walk according to the example you have in us. ¹⁸For many, of whom I have often told you and now tell you even with tears, walk as enemies of the cross of Christ. ¹⁹Their end is destruction, their god is their belly, and they glory in their shame, with minds set on earthly things. ²⁰But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we await a Savior, the Lord

- Jesus Christ, ²¹who will transform our lowly body to be like his glorious body, by the power that enables him even to subject all things to himself.
- 4:1 Therefore, my brothers, [16] whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm thus in the Lord, my beloved.

Exhortation, Encouragement, and Prayer ²I entreat Euodia and I entreat Syntyche to agree in the Lord. ³Yes, I ask you also, true companion, [17] help these women, who have labored side by side with me in the gospel together with Clement and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.

⁴Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. ⁵Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand: ⁶do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. ⁷And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

⁸Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. ⁹What you have learned and received and heard and seen in mepractice these things, and the God of peace will be with you.

God's Provision

- ¹⁰I rejoiced in the Lord greatly that now at length you have revived your concern for me. You were indeed concerned for me, but you had no opportunity. ¹¹Not that I am speaking of being in need, for I have learned in whatever situation I am to be content. ¹²I know how to be brought low, and I know how to abound. In any and every circumstance, I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and need. ¹³I can do all things through him who strengthens me.
- ¹⁴Yet it was kind of you to share [18] my trouble.

 ¹⁵And you Philippians yourselves know that in the beginning of the gospel, when I left Macedonia, no church entered into partnership with me in giving and receiving, except you only. ¹⁶Even in Thessalonica you sent me help for my needs once and again.

 ¹⁷Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that increases to your credit. [19] ¹⁸I have received full payment, and more. I am well supplied, having fragrant offering, a sacrifice acceptable and pleasing to God. ¹⁹And my God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus. ²⁰To our God and Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

²¹Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you. ²²All the saints greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.

²³The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Greeting

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

²To the saints and faithful brothers^[1] in Christ at Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

Thanksgiving and Prayer

³We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, 4since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints. 5 because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel. ⁶which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, ⁷just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. [2] He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf 8 and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge

according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, ¹²giving thanks [4] to the Father, who has qualified you^[5] to share in the

of God. ¹¹May you be strengthened with all power.

inheritance of the saints in light. ¹³He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son. 14 in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Preeminence of Christ

¹⁵He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. 16 For by 6 him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. ¹⁷And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸And he is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. 19 For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell. ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven. making peace by the blood of his cross.

²¹And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, ²²he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, ²³if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.

Paul's Ministry to the Church

- ²⁴Now I reioice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh I am filling up what is lacking in Christ's afflictions for the sake of his body, that is, the church, ²⁵of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God that was given to me for you. to make the word of God fully known, ²⁶the mystery hidden for ages and generations but now revealed to his saints. 27To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory. ²⁸Him we proclaim, warning everyone and teaching everyone with all wisdom, that we may present everyone mature in Christ. ²⁹For this I toil. struggling with all his energy that he powerfully works within me.
- 2:1 For I want you to know how great a struggle I have for you and for those at Laodicea and for all who have not seen me face to face, ²that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, to understanding and the knowledge of God's mystery, which is Christ, ³in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. ⁴I say this in order that no one may delude you with plausible arguments. ⁵For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order reach all the riches of full assurance of and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

Alive in Christ

⁶Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, ⁷rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

⁸See to it that no one takes you captive by together with him, having forgiven us all our philosophy and empty deceit, according to human tradition, according to the elemental spirits [8] of the world, and not according to Christ. ⁹For in him the whole fullness of deity dwells bodily, 10 and vou have been filled in him, who is the head of all rule and authority. 11 In him also you were circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, ¹²having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the powerful working of God, who raised him from the dead. ¹³And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive aside, nailing it to the cross. ¹⁵He disarmed the rulers and authorities ^[9] and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him. ^[10] trespasses, ¹⁴by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set

Let No One Disqualify You

¹⁶Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. ¹⁷These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ. ¹⁸Let no one disqualify you, insisting on asceticism and worship of angels, going on in detail about visions, ^[11] puffed up without reason by his sensuous mind, ¹⁹and not holding fast to the Head, from whom the whole body, nourished and knit together through its joints and ligaments,

²⁰If with Christ you died to the elemental spirits of the world, why, as if you were still alive in the world, do you submit to regulations— ²¹"Do not handle, Do not taste, Do not touch" ²²(referring to things that all perish as they are used)—according to human precepts and teachings? ²³These have indeed an appearance of wisdom in promoting self-made religion and asceticism and severity to the body, but grows with a growth that is from God.

Put On the New Self

3:1 If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ²Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. ³For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴When Christ who is your ^[12] life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

⁵Put to death therefore what is earthly in you: [13]

sexual immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry. ⁶On account of these the wrath of God is coming. ^[14] ⁷In these you too once walked, when you were living in them. ⁸But now you must put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and obscene talk from your mouth. ⁹Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old self. ^[15] with its practices ¹⁰and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge after the image of its creator. ¹¹Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised,

¹²Put on then, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, compassionate hearts, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience, ¹³bearing with one another barbarian, Scythian, slave. [16] free: but Christ is all.

and in all.

and, if one has a complaint against another, forgiving each other; as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. ¹⁴And above all these put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. ¹⁵And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. ¹⁶Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

17And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Rules for Christian Households

¹⁸Wives, submit to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹Husbands, love your wives, and do not be

- harsh with them. ²⁰Children, obey your parents in everything, for this pleases the Lord. ²¹Fathers. do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged. ²²Slaves. [17] obey in everything those who are your earthly masters. [18] not by way of eveservice, as people-pleasers, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord. 23Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord and not for men. 24knowing that from the Lord you will receive the inheritance as your reward. You are serving the Lord Christ. ²⁵For the wrongdoer will be paid back for the wrong he has done, and there is no partiality.
- 4:1 Masters, treat your slaves [19] justly and fairly, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

Further Instructions

²Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. ³At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison— ⁴that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.

⁵Walk in wisdom toward outsiders, making the best use of the time. ⁶Let your speech always be gracious, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how you ought to answer each person.

Final Greetings

⁷Tychicus will tell you all about my activities. He is a beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow servant^[20] in the Lord. ⁸I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know how we are and that he may encourage your hearts, ⁹and with him Onesimus, our faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will tell you of everything that has taken place here.

¹⁰Aristarchus my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you have received instructions—if he comes to you, welcome him), ¹¹and Jesus who is called Justus. These are the only men of the circumcision among my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, and they have been a comfort to me. ¹²Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you, always struggling on your behalf in his prayers, that you may stand mature and fully assured in all the will of God. ¹³For I bear him witness that he has worked hard for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis.

¹⁴Luke the beloved physician greets you, as does Demas. ¹⁵Give my greetings to the brothers [21] at Laodicea, and to Nympha and the church in her house. ¹⁶And when this letter has been read among vou, have it also read in the church of the Laodiceans; and see that you also read the letter from Laodicea. 17 And say to Archippus. "See that you fulfill the ministry that you have received in the Lord."

¹⁸l. Paul. write this greeting with my own hand.

Remember my chains. Grace be with you.

Greeting

1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

The Thessalonians' Faith and Example

²We give thanks to God always for all of you, constantly mentioning you in our prayers. ³remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴For we know, brothers [2] loved by God, that he has chosen vou. 5because our gospel came to you not only in word, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction. You know what kind of men we proved to be among you for your sake. ⁶And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for you received the word in much affliction, with the joy of the Holy Spirit, 7so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. 8For not only has the word of the Lord sounded forth from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith in God has gone forth everywhere, so that we need not say anything. ⁹For they themselves report concerning us the kind of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and whom he raised from the dead, Jesus who delivers us from the wrath to come.

true God. 10 and to wait for his Son from heaven.

Paul's Ministry to the Thessalonians

2:1 For you yourselves know, brothers, [3] that our coming to you was not in vain. ²But though we had already suffered and been shamefully treated at Philippi, as you know, we had boldness in our God to declare to you the gospel of God in the midst of much conflict. ³For our appeal does not spring from error or impurity or any attempt to deceive. 4but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts. ⁵For we never came with words of flattery.[4] as you know, nor with a pretext for greed—God is witness. ⁶Nor did we seek glory from people, whether from you or from others, though we could have made demands as apostles of Christ. ⁷But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother taking care of her own children. 8So. being affectionately desirous of you, we were ready to share with you not only the gospel of God but also our own selves, because you had become very dear to us.

⁹For you remember, brothers, our labor and toil; we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you, while we proclaimed to you the gospel of God. 10 You are witnesses, and God also, how holy and righteous and blameless was our conduct toward you believers. 11 For you know how, like a father with his children, 12 we exhorted each one of you and encouraged you and charged you to walk in a manner worthy of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.

¹³And we also thank God constantly ⁶ for this, that when you received the word of God, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but as what it really is, the word of God, which is at work in you believers. 14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea. For you suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews, ¹⁵who killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out, and displease God and oppose all mankind 16 by hindering us from speaking to the Gentiles that they might be saved—so as always to fill up the measure of their sins. But God's wrath has come upon them at last!

Paul's Longing to See Them Again

¹⁷But since we were torn away from you, brothers, for a short time, in person not in heart, we endeavored the more eagerly and with great desire to see you face to face, ¹⁸because we wanted to come to you—I, Paul, again and again—but Satan hindered us. ¹⁹For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you? ²⁰For you are our glory and joy.

3:1 Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left behind at Athens alone, ² and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's coworker in the gospel of Christ, to establish and exhort you in your faith, ³ that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are destined for

For you yourselves know that we are destined for this. ⁴For when we were with you, we kept telling you beforehand that we were to suffer affliction, just as it has come to pass, and just as you know. ⁵For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to learn about your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter

Timothy's Encouraging Report

⁶But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you— ⁷ for this reason, brothers. [9] in all our distress and affliction we have been comforted about you through your faith. ⁸For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. ⁹For what thanksgiving can we return to God for you, for all the joy that we feel for your sake before our God. ¹⁰as we pray most earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith?

¹¹Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, ¹²and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, ¹³so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

A Life Pleasing to God

4:1 Finally, then, brothers, [10] we ask and urge you in the Lord Jesus, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, just as you are doing, that you do so more and more. ²For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Jesus. ³For this is the will of God, your sanctification: ^[11] that you abstain from sexual immorality; ⁴that each one of you know how to control his own body ^[12] in holiness and honor, ⁵not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God: ⁶that no one transgress and wrong his brother in this matter, because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as we told you beforehand and solemnly warned you. ⁷For God has not called us for impurity, but in holiness. ⁸Therefore whoever disregards this, disregards not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

⁹Now concerning brotherly love you have no need for anyone to write to you, for you yourselves have been

The Coming of the Lord

¹³But we do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. 14 For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁵For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, [13] that we who are alive. who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command. with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the brothers. [14] you have no need to have anything written to you. ²For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. While people are saying, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. ⁴But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. ⁵For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. ⁶So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. ⁷For those who sleep. sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. 8But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. ⁹For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. 10 who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live

Final Instructions and Benediction

¹²We ask you, brothers, to respect those who labor among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, ¹³ and to esteem them very highly in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves. ¹⁴And we urge you, brothers, admonish the idle. [16] encourage the fainthearted, help the weak, be patient with them all. ¹⁵See that no one repays anyone evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to everyone. ¹⁶Reioice always. 17 pray without ceasing, 18 give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you. ¹⁹Do not quench the Spirit. ²⁰Do not despise prophecies, ²¹but test everything; hold fast what is good. ²²Abstain from every form of evil.

²³Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁴He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it.

²⁶Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

²⁵Brothers, pray for us.

²⁷I put you under oath before the Lord to have this letter read to all the brothers.

Greeting

1:1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

²Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thanksgiving

³We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers, [1] as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. ⁴Therefore we ourselves boast about you in the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring.

The Judgment at Christ's Coming

⁵This is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering— 6since indeed God considers it just to repay with affliction those who afflict you, ⁷ and to grant relief to you who are afflicted as well as to us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels ⁸in flaming fire, inflicting vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus. 9They will suffer the punishment of eternal destruction, away from [2] the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his might. 10 when he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at among all who have believed, because our testimony to you was believed. 11To this end we always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and may fulfill every resolve for good and every work of faith by his power, 12 so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the

The Man of Lawlessness

2:1 Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, [3] 2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come. ³Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness [4] is revealed, the son of destruction. ^[5] ⁴ who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God. ⁵Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things? ⁶And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. ⁷For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way. ⁸And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders, ¹⁰and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. ¹¹Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, ¹²in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Stand Firm

- 13But we ought always to give thanks to God for you, brothers beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the firstfruits^[6] to be saved, through sanctification by the Spirit and belief in the truth.
 14To this he called you through our gospel, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
 15So then, brothers, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by our spoken word or by our letter.
- ¹⁶Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, ¹⁷comfort your hearts and establish them in every good work and word.

Pray for Us

3:1 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may speed ahead and be honored, as happened among you, and that we may be delivered from wicked and evil men. For not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful. He will establish you and guard you against the evil one. And we have confidence in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things that we command. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

Warning Against Idleness

⁶Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you keep away from any brother who is walking in idleness and not in accord with the tradition that you received from us. ⁷For you vourselves know how you ought to imitate us, because we were not idle when we were with you, ⁸nor did we eat anyone's bread without paying for it, but with toil and labor we worked night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you. 9It was not because we do not have that right, but to give you in ourselves an example to imitate. ¹⁰For even when we were with you, we would give you this command: If anyone is not willing to work, let him not eat. ¹¹For we hear that some among you walk in idleness, not busy at work, but busybodies. 12 Now such persons we command and encourage in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own livina.[10]

¹³As for you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good. ¹⁴If anyone does not obey what we say in this letter, take note of that person, and have nothing to do with him, that he may be ashamed. ¹⁵Do not regard him as an enemy, but warn him as a brother.

Benediction

- ¹⁶Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in every way. The Lord be with you all.
- ¹⁷I, Paul, write this greeting with my own hand. This is the sign of genuineness in every letter of mine; it is the way I write. ¹⁸The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Greeting

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus our hope,

²To Timothy, my true child in the faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Warning Against False Teachers

³As I urged you when I was going to Macedonia, remain at Ephesus so that you may charge certain persons not to teach any different doctrine. 4nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies, which promote speculations rather than the stewardship [1] from God that is by faith. ⁵The aim of our charge is love that issues from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. ⁶Certain persons, by swerving from these, have wandered away into vain discussion, ⁷desiring to be teachers of the law, without understanding either what they are saying or the things about which they

⁸Now we know that the law is good, if one uses it lawfully, ⁹understanding this, that the law is not laid down for the just but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for those who strike their fathers and mothers, for murderers, ¹⁰the sexually immoral, men who practice homosexuality, enslavers, [2] liars, perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound doctrine, 11 in accordance with the gospel of the glory of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted.

Christ Jesus Came to Save Sinners

- ¹²I thank him who has given me strength, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he judged me faithful, appointing me to his service, ¹³though formerly I was a blasphemer, persecutor, and insolent opponent. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, ¹⁴and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁵The saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the foremost. ¹⁶But I received mercy for this reason, that in me, as the warfare, ¹⁹holding faith and a good conscience. By rejecting this, some have made shipwreck of their faith, ²⁰among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have handed over to Satan that they may learn not to blaspheme.

Pray for All People

2:1 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people. ² for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. ³This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior. 4who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. ⁵For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man^[5] Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave himself as a ransom for all, which is the testimony given at the proper time. ⁷For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

⁸I desire then that in every place the men should pray, lifting holy hands without anger or quarreling; ⁹likewise also that women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control, not with braided hair and gold or pearls or learn quietly with all submissiveness. ¹²I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man; rather, she is to remain quiet. ¹³For Adam was formed first, then Eve; ¹⁴and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and became a transgressor. ¹⁵Yet she will be saved so that he may not fall into disgrace, into a snare of the devil.

Qualifications for Deacons

⁸Deacons likewise must be dignified, not doubletonaued. 8 not addicted to much wine, not greedy for dishonest gain. ⁹They must hold the mystery of the faith with a clear conscience. ¹⁰And let them also be tested first; then let them serve as deacons if they prove themselves blameless. 11Their wives likewise must [9] be dignified, not slanderers, but soberminded, faithful in all things. 12Let deacons each be the husband of one wife, managing their children and their own households well. ¹³For those who serve well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves and also great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

The Mystery of Godliness

14 hope to come to you soon, but I am writing these things to you so that, ¹⁵if I delay, you may know how one ought to behave in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, a pillar and buttress of the truth. ¹⁶Great indeed, we confess, is the mystery of godliness:

He^[10] was manifested in the flesh, vindicated^[11] by the Spirit,^[12] seen by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up in glory.

Some Will Depart from the Faith

4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons, ²through the insincerity of liars whose consciences are seared. 3who forbid marriage and require abstinence from foods that God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. 4For everything created by God is good, and nothing is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, ⁵ for it is made holy by the word of God and prayer.

A Good Servant of Christ Jesus

⁶If you put these things before the brothers. [13] you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, being trained in the words of the faith and of the good doctrine that vou have followed. ⁷Have nothing to do with irreverent, silly myths. Rather train vourself for godliness; 8 for while bodily training is of some value. godliness is of value in every way, as it holds promise for the present life and also for the life to come. ⁹The saving is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance. 10 For to this end we toil and strive. [14] because we have our hope set on the living God, who is the Savior of all people, especially of

False Teachers and True Contentment

Teach and urge these things. ³If anyone teaches a different doctrine and does not agree with the sound[18] words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that accords with godliness, ⁴he is puffed up with conceit and understands nothing. He has an unhealthy craving for controversy and for quarrels about words, which produce envy, dissension. slander, evil suspicions, ⁵ and constant friction among people who are depraved in mind and deprived of the truth, imagining that godliness is a means of gain. ⁶Now there is great gain in godliness with contentment, ⁷ for we brought nothing into the world, and [19] we cannot take anything out of the world. ⁸But if we have food and clothing, with these we will be content. 9But those who desire to be rich fall into temptation, into a snare, into many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. 10 For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evils. It is through this craving that some have wandered away from the faith and pierced

Fight the Good Fight of Faith

¹¹But as for you, O man of God, flee these things. Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, steadfastness, gentleness. 12 Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called and about which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. 13I charge you in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, ¹⁴to keep the commandment unstained and free from reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ. 15 which he will display at the proper time—he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of

Greeting

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God according to the promise of the life that is in Christ Jesus.

²To Timothy, my beloved child:

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Guard the Deposit Entrusted to You

³I thank God whom I serve, as did my ancestors, with a clear conscience, as I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. ⁴As I remember your tears, I long to see you, that I may be filled with joy. ⁵I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, dwells in you as well.

⁶For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laving on of my hands, ⁷for God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control.

⁸Therefore do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but share in suffering for the gospel by the power of God, ⁹who saved us and called us to^[1] a holy calling, not because of our works but because of his own purpose and grace, which he gave us in Christ Jesus before the ages began. ^[2] ¹⁰and which now has been manifested through the appearing of our gospel, ¹¹for which I was appointed a preacher and apostle and teacher, ¹²which is why I suffer as I do. But I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed, and I am convinced that he is able to guard until that Day what has been entrusted to me. ^[3] Follow the pattern of the sound words that you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴By the Holy Spirit who dwells within us, guard the good deposit entrusted to you.

Godlessness in the Last Days

3:1 But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. ²For people will be lovers of self. lovers of money, proud, arrogant. abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy. ³heartless, unappeasable, slanderous. without self-control, brutal, not loving good, ⁴treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, ⁵having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people. ⁶For among them are those who creep into households and capture weak women, burdened with sins and led astray by various passions, ⁷always learning and never able to arrive at a knowledge of the truth. 8 Just as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, men corrupted in mind and disqualified regarding the faith. 9But they will not get very far, for their folly will be plain to all, as was that of those two men.

All Scripture Is Breathed Out by God

10 You. however, have followed my teaching, my conduct, my aim in life, my faith, my patience, my love, my steadfastness, 11 my persecutions and sufferings that happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, and at Lystra—which persecutions I endured; yet from them all the Lord rescued me. ¹²Indeed. all who desire to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, ¹³while evil people and impostors will go on from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have firmly believed, knowing from whom you learned it 15 and how from childhood you have been acquainted with the sacred writings, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. 16 All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching. for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness. 17 that the man of God[10] may be competent, equipped for every good work.

Preach the Word

4:1 I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingdom: ²preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with complete patience and teaching. ³For the time is coming when people will not endure sound [11] teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, ⁴and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths. ⁵As for you, always be sober-minded, endure suffering, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry.

⁶For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his Personal Instructions

⁹Do your best to come to me soon. ¹⁰For Demas, in love with this present world, has deserted me and gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia. [12] Titus to Dalmatia. 11 Luke alone is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you, for he is very useful to me for ministry. 12 Tychicus I have sent to Ephesus. 13When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus at Troas, also the books, and above all the parchments. ¹⁴Alexander the coppersmith did me great harm; the Lord will repay him according to his deeds. ¹⁵Beware of him yourself, for he strongly opposed our message. ¹⁶At my first defense no one came to stand by me, but all deserted me. May it not be charged against them! ¹⁷But the Lord stood by me and strengthened me, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸The Lord will rescue me from every evil deed and bring me safely into his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory forever and ever.

Final Greetings

¹⁹Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus. ²⁰Erastus remained at Corinth, and I left Trophimus, who was ill, at Miletus. ²¹Do your best to come before winter. Eubulus sends greetings to you, as do Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brothers. ^[13]

²²The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you. [14]

PHILEMON

Greeting

1 Paul, a prisoner for Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother,

To Philemon our beloved fellow worker ² and Apphia our sister and Archippus our fellow soldier, and the church in your house:

³Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

⁴I thank my God always when I remember you in my prayers, ⁵because I hear of your love and of the faith that you have toward the Lord Jesus and for all the saints, ⁶and I pray that the sharing of your faith may become effective for the full knowledge of every good thing that is in us for the sake of Christ. ^[1] ⁷For I have derived much joy and comfort from your love, my brother, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you.

Paul's Plea for Onesimus

⁸Accordingly, though I am bold enough in Christ to command you to do what is required, ⁹vet for love's sake I prefer to appeal to you-I, Paul, an old man and now a prisoner also for Christ Jesus— 10_I appeal to you for my child, Onesimus. 2 whose father I became in my imprisonment. 11 (Formerly he was useless to you, but now he is indeed useful to you and to me.) ¹²I am sending him back to you, sending my very heart. 13 would have been glad to keep him with me, in order that he might serve me on your behalf during my imprisonment for the gospel. 14but I preferred to do nothing without your consent in order that your goodness might not be by compulsion but of your own accord. 15 For this perhaps is why he was parted from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, ¹⁶no longer as a slave [3] but more than a slave, as a beloved brother—especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

you would receive me. ¹⁸If he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, charge that to my account. ¹⁹I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it—to say nothing of your owing me even your own self.

¹⁷So if vou consider me your partner, receive him as 20 Yes, brother, I want some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ.

21 Confident of your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even more than I say. ²²At the same time, prepare a guest room for me, for I am hoping that through your prayers I will be graciously given to you.

Final Greetings

²³Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends greetings to you, ²⁴and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.

²⁵The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

The Supremacy of God's Son

- 1:1 Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, ²but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world. ³He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, ⁴having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.
- ⁵For to which of the angels did God ever say,
- "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"?

Or again,

"I will be to him a father, and he shall be to me a son"?

- ⁶And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says,

 "Let all God's angels worship him."
- ⁷Of the angels he says,
- "He makes his angels winds, and his ministers a flame of fire."
- ⁸But of the Son he says,
- "Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, the scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom.

 9You have loved righteousness and hated
- ⁹You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness; therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness beyond your companions."
- 10 And,"You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning, ¹¹thev will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. 12 like a robe you will roll them up, like a garment they will be changed. 11 and the heavens are the work of your hands;

But you are the same, and your years will have no end."

"Sit at my right hand

¹³And to which of the angels has he ever said, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet"?

¹⁴Are they not all ministering spirits sent out to serve for the sake of those who are to inherit salvation?

Warning Against Neglecting Salvation

2:1 Therefore we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it. ²For since the message declared by angels proved to be reliable, and every transgression or disobedience received a just retribution, ³how shall we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? It was declared at first by the Lord, and it was attested to us by those who heard, ⁴while God also bore witness by signs and wonders and various miracles and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.

The Founder of Salvation

"What is man, that you are mindful of him, or the son of man, that you care for him?

⁵Now it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. ⁶It has been testified somewhere,

⁷You made him for a little while lower than the angels;
you have crowned him with glory and honor,^[2]

⁸putting everything in subjection under his feet."

Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. ⁹But we see him who for a little while was made lower than the angels, namely Jesus, crowned with glory and honor because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

¹⁰For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should suffering. ¹¹For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. ^[3] That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, ^[4] ¹²saying, "I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise."

make the founder of their salvation perfect through

And again,

"I will put my trust in him."

"Behold, I and the children God has given me."

14Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. 16For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. ¹⁸For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

Abraham. ¹⁷Therefore he had to be made like his

Jesus Greater Than Moses

3:1 Therefore, holy brothers, ^[5] you who share in a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the apostle and high priest of our confession, ²who was faithful to him who appointed him, just as Moses also was faithful in all God's ^[6] house. ³For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as muc faithful in all God's^[6] house. ³For Jesus has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses—as much more glory as the builder of a house has more honor than the house itself. ⁴(For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is God.) ⁵Now Moses was faithful in all God's house as a servant, to testify to the things that were to be spoken later, ⁶but Christ is faithful over God's house as a son. And we are his house if indeed we hold fast our confidence and our boasting in our hope. ^[7]

A Rest for the People of God

⁷Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says,

- "Today, if you hear his voice,

 8do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
- on the day of testing in the wilderness, where your fathers put me to the test

 - where your fathers put me to the test and saw my works for forty years.
- 10 Therefore I was provoked with that generation, and said, 'They always go astray in their heart; they have not known my ways.'
- ¹¹As I swore in my wrath,
- 'They shall not enter my rest.'"
- 12 Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. ¹³But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. ¹⁴For we have come to share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. ¹⁵As it is said,

"Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? ¹⁷And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? ¹⁸And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? ¹⁹So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

¹⁶For who were those who heard and yet rebelled?

4:1 Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it. ²For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. ^[8] ³For we who have believed enter that rest, as he has said,

"As I swore in my wrath, 'They shall not enter my rest,'" of the world. ⁴For he has somewhere spoken of the seventh day in this way: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works." ⁵And again in this passage he said,
"They shall not enter my rest."

although his works were finished from the foundation

those who formerly received the good news failed to enter because of disobedience, ⁷again he appoints a certain day, "Today," saying through David so long afterward, in the words already quoted,

⁶Since therefore it remains for some to enter it, and

"Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts."

⁸For if Joshua had given them rest, God^[9] would not have spoken of another day later on. ⁹So then, there remains a Sabbath rest for the people of God, ¹⁰for whoever has entered God's rest has also rested from his works as God did from his.

the word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing to the division of soul and of spirit, of joints and of marrow, and discerning the thoughts and intentions of the heart. ¹³And no creature is hidden from his sight, but all are naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must give account.

¹¹Let us therefore strive to enter that rest, so that no one may fall by the same sort of disobedience. ¹²For

Jesus the Great High Priest

- ¹⁴Since then we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession. ¹⁵For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who in every respect has been tempted as we are, yet without sin. ¹⁶Let us then with confidence draw near to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.
- 5:1 For every high priest chosen from among men is appointed to act on behalf of men in relation to God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. ²He can deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is beset with weakness. ³Because of this he is obligated to offer sacrifice for his own sins just as he does for those of the people. ⁴And no one takes this honor for himself, but only when called by God, just as Aaron was.

- ⁵So also Christ did not exalt himself to be made a high priest, but was appointed by him who said to him,
- "You are my Son, today I have begotten you";
- ⁶as he says also in another place,
- "You are a priest forever, after the order of Melchizedek."
- and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence. ⁸Although he was a son, he learned obedience through what he suffered. ⁹And being made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation to all who obey him, ¹⁰being designated by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

⁷In the days of his flesh, Jesus^[10] offered up pravers

Warning Against Apostasy

- ¹¹About this we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.
 ¹²For though by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the basic principles of the oracles of God. You need milk, not solid food, ¹³for everyone who lives on milk is unskilled in the word of righteousness, since he is a child. ¹⁴But solid food is for the mature, for those who have their powers of discernment trained by constant practice to distinguish good from evil.
- 6:1 Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, ²and of instruction about washings, ^[11] the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment. ³And this we will do if God permits. ⁴For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holv

God and the powers of the age to come, ⁶ and then have fallen away, to restore them again to repentance, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt. ⁷For land that has drunk the rain that often falls on it, and produces a crop useful to those for whose sake it is cultivated, receives a blessing from

God. 8But if it bears thorns and thistles, it is Spirit, ⁵ and have tasted the goodness of the word of worthless and near to being cursed, and its end is to be burned.

Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things—things that belong to salvation.
To God is not unjust so as to overlook your work and the love that you have shown overlook your work and the love that you have show for his name in serving the saints, as you still do.

11 And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, 12 so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

The Certainty of God's Promise

¹³For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he had no one greater by whom to swear, he swore by himself, 14 saying, "Surely I will bless you and multiply you." 15 And thus Abraham. [12] having patiently waited, obtained the promise. ¹⁶For people swear by something greater than themselves, and in all their disputes an oath is final for confirmation. ¹⁷So when God desired to show more convincingly to the heirs of the promise the unchangeable character of his purpose, he guaranteed it with an oath. 18 so that by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to hold fast to the hope set before us. 19We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, ²⁰where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

The Priestly Order of Melchizedek

7:1 For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most High God, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, ²and to him Abraham apportioned a tenth part of everything. He is first, by translation of his name, king of righteousness, and then he is also king of Salem, that is, king of peace. ³He is without father or mother or genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God he continues a priest forever.

⁴See how great this man was to whom Abraham the patriarch gave a tenth of the spoils! ⁵And those descendants of Levi who receive the priestly office have a commandment in the law to take tithes from the people, that is, from their brothers, ^[13] though these also are descended from Abraham. ⁶But this man who does not have his descent from them received tithes from Abraham and blessed him who had the promises. ⁷It is beyond dispute that the tithes are received by mortal men, but in the other case, by one of whom it is testified that he lives.

⁹One might even say that Levi himself, who receives tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, ¹⁰for he was still inferior is blessed by the superior. 8In the one case tithes, paid tithes through Abraham, ¹⁰for he was stil in the loins of his ancestor when Melchizedek met him.

Jesus Compared to Melchizedek

- ¹¹Now if perfection had been attainable through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law), what further need would there have been for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, rather than one named after the order of Aaron? 12 For when there is a change in the priesthood, there is necessarily a change in the law as well. ¹³For the one of whom these things are spoken belonged to another tribe, from which no one has ever served at the altar. ¹⁴For it is evident that our Lord was descended from Judah, and in connection with that tribe Moses said nothing about priests.
- ¹⁵This becomes even more evident when another priest arises in the likeness of Melchizedek, ¹⁶who has become a priest, not on the basis of a legal requirement concerning bodily descent, but by the power of an indestructible life. ¹⁷For it is witnessed of him,

- ¹⁸For on the one hand, a former commandment is set aside because of its weakness and uselessness
- ¹⁹(for the law made nothing perfect); but on the other hand, a better hope is introduced, through which we draw near to God.
- ²⁰And it was not without an oath. For those who formerly became priests were made such without an oath, ²¹but this one was made a priest with an oath by the one who said to him:
- "The Lord has sworn and will not change his mind, 'You are a priest forever.'"

"You are a priest forever,

after the order of Melchizedek "

- ²²This makes Jesus the guarantor of a better covenant.
- 23 The former priests were many in number, because they were prevented by death from continuing in able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

office, ²⁴but he holds his priesthood permanently, because he continues forever. ²⁵Consequently, he is

²⁶For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. ²⁷He has no need, like those high priests, to offer sacrifices daily, first for his own sins and then for those of the people, since he did this once for all when he offered up himself. ²⁸For the law appoints men in their weakness as high priests, but the word of the oath, which came later than the law, appoints a Son who has been made perfect forever.

Jesus, High Priest of a Better Covenant

8:1 Now the point in what we are saying is this: we have such a high priest, one who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven. ²a minister in the holy places, in the true tent[15] that the Lord set up, not man. ³For every high priest is appointed to offer gifts and sacrifices; thus it is necessary for this priest also to have something to offer. 4Now if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, since there are priests who offer gifts according to the law. ⁵They serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things. For when Moses was about to erect the tent, he was instructed by God. saying, "See that you make everything according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain." ⁶But as it is, Christ has obtained a ministry that is as much more excellent than the old as the covenant he mediates is better, since it is enacted on better promises. ⁷For if that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion to look for a second.

⁸For he finds fault with them when he says: [17]

"Behold, the days are coming, declares the Lord, when I will establish a new covenant with the house and with the house of Judah,

9not like the covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt.

of Israel

For they did not continue in my covenant, and so I showed no concern for them, declares the Lord. ¹⁰For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel

after those days, declares the Lord:

and I will remember their sins no more."

13 In speaking of a new covenant, he makes the first one obsolete. And what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.

The Earthly Holy Place

9:1 Now even the first covenant had regulations for worship and an earthly place of holiness. ²For a tent^[18] was prepared, the first section, in which were the lampstand and the table and the bread of the Presence. ^[19] It is called the Holy Place. ³Behind the second curtain was a second section ^[20] called the Most Holy Place, ⁴having the golden altar of incense and the ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which was a golden urn holding the manna, and Aaron's staff that budded, and the tablets of the

⁶These preparations having thus been made, the priests go regularly into the first section, performing their ritual duties, ⁷but into the second only the high priest goes, and he but once a year, and not without taking blood, which he offers for himself and for the unintentional sins of the people. ⁸By this the Holy covenant. ⁵Above it were the cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat. Of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

Spirit indicates that the way into the holy places is not yet opened as long as the first section is still standing ⁹(which is symbolic for the present age). [21] According to this arrangement, gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the conscience of the worshiper, ¹⁰but deal only with food and drink and various washings, regulations for the body imposed until the time of reformation.

Redemption Through the Blood of Christ 11 But when Christ appeared as a high priest of the good things that have come. [22] then through the greater and more perfect tent (not made with hands, that is, not of this creation) 12 he entered once for all into the holy places, not by means of the blood of goats and calves but by means of his own blood, thus securing an eternal redemption. ¹³For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the sprinkling of defiled persons with the ashes of a heifer, sanctify for the purification of the flesh. 14 how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our [24] conscience from dead works to serve the living God.

15Therefore he is the mediator of a new covenant, so that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance, since a death has occurred that redeems them from the transgressions committed under the first covenant. [25] 16For where a will is involved, the death of the one who made it must be

since it is not in force as long as the one who made it is alive. ¹⁸Therefore not even the first covenant was inaugurated without blood. ¹⁹For when every commandment of the law had been declared by Moses to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, ²⁰saving. "This is the blood of the covenant that God established. ¹⁷For a will takes effect only at death.

commanded for you." ²¹And in the same way he sprinkled with the blood both the tent and all the vessels used in worship. ²²Indeed, under the law almost everything is purified with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sins.

²³Thus it was necessary for the copies of the heavenly things to be purified with these rites, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. ²⁴For Christ has entered, not into holy places made with hands, which are copies of the true things, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. ²⁵Nor was it to then he would have had to suffer repeatedly since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. ²⁷And just as it is appointed for man to die once, and after that comes judgment, ²⁸so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters the holy places every year with blood not his own. ²⁶ for

Christ's Sacrifice Once for All

10:1 For since the law has but a shadow of the good things to come instead of the true form of these realities, it can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered every year, make perfect those who draw near. ²Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, since the worshipers, having once been cleansed, would no longer have any consciousness of sins? ³But in these sacrifices there is a reminder of sins every year. ⁴For it is impossible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵Consequently, when Christ^[26] came into the world. he said.

"Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired,

⁶in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. ⁷Then I said. 'Behold, I have come to do your will, O but a body have you prepared for me;

God.

as it is written of me in the scroll of the book."

⁸When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), ⁹then he added, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He does away with the first in order to establish the second. ¹⁰And by that will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

- ¹¹And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But when Christ^[27] had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³waiting from that time until his enemies should be made a footstool for his feet. ¹⁴For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified.
- 15 And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, 16"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord:

I will put my laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds," 17then he adds.

"I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more."

¹⁸Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

The Full Assurance of Faith

¹⁹Therefore, brothers, ^[28] since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. ²³Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. ²⁴And let

26 For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, ²⁷ but a fearful expectation of judgment, and a fury of fire that will consume the adversaries. ²⁸ Anyone who has set aside the law of

And again, "The Lord will judge his people." ³¹It is a ³⁹But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls

By Faith

11:1 Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. ²For by it the people of old received their commendation. ³By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

⁴By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous, God commending him by accepting his gifts. And through his faith, though he died, he still speaks, ⁵By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God had taken him. Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God. ⁶And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him. ⁷By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household. By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

8Bv faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going. ⁹By faith he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living in tents with lsaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is

God. ¹¹By faith Sarah herself received power to conceive, even when she was past the age, since she considered him faithful who had promised. ¹²Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born descendants as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

¹³These all died in faith, not having received the things promised, but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they future blessings on Jacob and Esau. ²¹By faith Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff. ²²By faith Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his bones.

²⁹By faith the people crossed the Red Sea as on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned. ³⁰By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days. ³¹By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets—33who through faith conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, 34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. 35 Women received back their dead by resurrection. Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, so that they might rise again to a better life. ³⁶Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. ³⁷They were stoned, they were sawn in two. [29] they were killed with the sword. They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated— 38 of whom the world was not worthy—wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

Jesus, Founder and Perfecter of Our Faith

12:1 Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ²looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Do Not Grow Weary

³Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted. ⁴In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. ⁵And have you forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons?

"My son, do not regard lightly the discipline of the nor be weary when reproved by him.

Lord.

⁶For the Lord disciplines the one he loves, and chastises every son whom he receives."
 ⁷It is for discipline that you have to endure. God is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline?
 ⁸If you are left without treating you as sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? ⁸If you are left without discipline, in which all have participated, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. ⁹Besides this, we have had earthly fathers who disciplined us and we respected them. Shall we not much more be subject to the Father of spirits and live? ¹⁰For they them, but he disciplines us for our good, that we may share his holiness. ¹¹For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

¹²Therefore lift your drooping hands and strengthen your weak knees, ¹³and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint disciplined us for a short time as it seemed best to your weak knees, ¹³ and make straight paths for your feet, so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but rather be healed. 14Strive for peace with everyone, and for the holiness without which no one will see the Lord. 15See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no "root of bitterness" springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled: 16that no one is sexually immoral or unholv like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal. ¹⁷For you know that afterward, when he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no chance to repent, though he sought it with tears.

A Kingdom That Cannot Be Shaken

¹⁸For you have not come to what may be touched, a blazing fire and darkness and gloom and a tempest ¹⁹and the sound of a trumpet and a voice whose words made the hearers beg that no further messages be spoken to them. ²⁰For they could not endure the order that was given, "If even a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned." ²¹Indeed. so terrifying was the sight that Moses said. "I tremble with fear." 22But you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable angels in festal gathering. ²³ and to the assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, and to God, the judge of all, and to the spirits of the righteous made perfect, ²⁴ and to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the sprinkled blood that speaks a better word than the blood of Abel.

²⁵See that you do not refuse him who is speaking. For if they did not escape when they refused him that time his voice shook the earth, but now he has promised, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens." ²⁷This phrase, "Yet once more," indicates the removal of things that are shaken—that is, things that have been made—in order that the things that cannot be shaken may remain. ²⁸Therefore let us be grateful for receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, and thus let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe, ²⁹ for our God is a consuming fire.

Sacrifices Pleasing to God

13:1 Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. ³Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. ⁵Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake vou." 6So we can confidently say,

"The Lord is my helper; I will not fear; what can man do to me?"

⁷Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. ⁹Do not be them. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. ¹¹For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. ¹²So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. ¹³Therefore let us go to him led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. ¹⁴For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. ¹⁵Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. ¹⁶Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls, as those who will have to give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you.

¹⁸Pray for us, for we are sure that we have a clear conscience, desiring to act honorably in all things. ¹⁹I urge you the more earnestly to do this in order that I may be restored to you the sooner.

Benediction

²⁰Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant. ²¹equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us[31] that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

²²I appeal to you, brothers, ^[32] bear with my word of exhortation, for I have written to you briefly. ²³You should know that our brother Timothy has been released, with whom I shall see you if he comes soon. ²⁴Greet all your leaders and all the saints. Those who come from Italy send you greetings. ²⁵Grace be with all of you.

Greeting

1:1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ,

To the twelve tribes in the Dispersion:

Greetings.

Testing of Your Faith

²Count it all joy, my brothers, ² when you meet trials of various kinds, ³ for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. ⁴And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

⁵If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him. ⁶But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea that is driven and tossed by the wind. ⁷For that person must not suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; ⁸he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

⁹Let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation, ¹⁰and the rich in his humiliation, because like a flower of the grass^[3] he will pass away. ¹¹For the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the grass; its flower falls, and its beauty perishes. So also will the who love him. ¹³Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God," for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one. ¹⁴But each person is tempted when he is lured and enticed by his own desire. ¹⁵Then desire when it has conceived gives birth to sin, and sin when it is fully grown brings forth death.

creatures.

¹⁶Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. ¹⁷Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. ^[4] ¹⁸Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his

Hearing and Doing the Word

- ¹⁹Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; ²⁰for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God. ²¹Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.
- ²²But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. ²³For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks intently at his natural face in a mirror. ²⁴For he looks at himself and goes away and at once forgets what he was like. ²⁵But the one who looks into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and perseveres, being no hearer who forgets but a doer who acts, he will be blessed in his doing.
- ²⁶lf anyone thinks he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, this person's religion is worthless. ²⁷Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father, is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

The Sin of Partiality

2:1 My brothers, ^[5] show no partiality as you hold the faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory. ²For if a man wearing a gold ring and fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, ³ and if you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, "You sit here in a good place," while you say to the poor man,

"You stand over there," or, "Sit down at my feet," ⁴have you not then made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts? ⁵Listen, mv beloved brothers, has not God chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom, which he has promised to those who love him? ⁶But you have dishonored the poor man. Are not the rich the ones who oppress vou, and the ones who drag you into court? ⁷Are they not the ones who blaspheme the honorable name by which you were called?

⁸If you really fulfill the royal law according to the transgressors. ¹⁰For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable for all of it. ¹¹For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," also said, "Do not murder." If you do not commit adultery but do murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. ¹²So speak and so act as those who are to be judged under the law of liberty. ¹³For judgment is without mercy to one who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well. ⁹But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as

Faith Without Works Is Dead

14What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? ¹⁵If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, ¹⁶and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good ¹⁶I is that? ¹⁷So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

¹⁸But someone will say, "You have faith and I have works." Show me your faith apart from your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. 19 You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder! ²⁰Do you want to be shown, you foolish person, that faith apart from works is useless? ²¹Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered up his son Isaac on the altar? 22 You see that faith was active along with his works, and faith was completed by his works: 23 and the Scripture was fulfilled that says, as righteousness"—and he was called a friend of God. ²⁴You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. ²⁵And in the same way was not also Rahab the prostitute justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out by another way? ²⁶For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, so also faith apart from works is dead.

"Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him

Taming the Tongue

3:1 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. ²For we all stumble in many ways. And if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. ³If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well. ⁴Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. ⁵So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things.

How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire! ⁶And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, ^[7] and set on fire by hell. ^[8] ⁷For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by mankind, ⁸but no human being with it we curse people who are made in the likeness of God. ¹⁰From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, ^[9] these things ought not to be so. ¹¹Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and salt water? ¹²Can a fig tree.

my brothers, bear olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a salt pond yield fresh water.

can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹With it we bless our Lord and Father, and 13Who is wise and understanding among you? By his good conduct let him show his works in the meekness of wisdom. ¹⁴But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and be false to the truth. 15This is not the wisdom that comes down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, demonic. ¹⁶For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder and every vile practice. ¹⁷But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, open to reason. full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and sincere.

Wisdom from Above

¹⁸And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

Warning Against Worldliness

4:1 What causes quarrels and what causes fights

among you? Is it not this, that your passions [10] are at war within you? ^[11] ²You desire and do not have, so you murder. You covet and cannot obtain, so you fight and quarrel. You do not have, because you do not ask. ³You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions. 4You adulterous people![12] Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. 5Or do you suppose it is to no purpose that the Scripture says.

makes himself an enemy of God. Or do you suppose it is to no purpose that the Scripture says, "He yearns jealously over the spirit that he has made to dwell in us"? But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded.

Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to gloom. ¹⁰Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will exalt you.

¹¹Do not speak evil against one another, brothers. [13] The one who speaks against a brother or judges his brother, speaks evil against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law but a judge. 12 There is only one lawgiver and judge, he who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge your neighbor?

Boasting About Tomorrow

¹³Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go into such and such a town and spend a year there and trade and make a profit"— ¹⁴yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes. ¹⁵Instead you ought to say, "If the Lord" wills, we will live and do this or that." ¹⁶As it is, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is evil. ¹⁷So whoever knows the right thing to do and fails to do it, for him it is sin.

Warning to the Rich

5:1 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for the miseries that are coming upon you. ²Your riches have rotted and your garments are moth-eaten. ³Your gold and silver have corroded, and their corrosion will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure in the last days. ⁴Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you kept back by fraud, are crying out against you, and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. ⁵You have lived on the earth in luxury and in self-indulgence. You have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter. ⁶You have condemned and murdered the righteous person. He does not resist you.

Patience in Suffering

⁷Be patient, therefore, brothers. [14] until the coming of the Lord. See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient about it, until it receives the early and the late rains. 8You also, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand. ⁹Do not grumble against one another, brothers, so that you may not be judged; behold, the Judge is standing at the door. ¹⁰As an example of suffering and patience, brothers, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. ¹¹Behold, we consider those blessed who remained steadfast. You have heard of the steadfastness of Job, and you have seen the purpose of the Lord, ¹²But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath, but let your "yes" be yes and your "no" be no, so that you may not fall under condemnation.

how the Lord is compassionate and merciful.

The Prayer of Faith

- ¹³Is anyone among you suffering? Let him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise. 14 ls anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. ¹⁵And the prayer of faith will save the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. ¹⁶Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous person has great power as it is working. [15] 17 Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed fervently that it might not rain, and for three years and six months it did not rain on the earth. ¹⁸Then he praved again, and heaven gave rain, and the earth bore its fruit.
- ¹⁹My brothers, if anyone among you wanders from the truth and someone brings him back, ²⁰let him know that whoever brings back a sinner from his wandering will save his soul from death and will

Greeting

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who are elect exiles of the dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, ²according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood:

May grace and peace be multiplied to you.

Born Again to a Living Hope

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 4to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, 5who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. 6In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials. 7so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire-may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 8Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, ⁹obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

prophesied about the grace that was to be yours searched and inquired carefully, ¹¹inquiring what person or time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when he predicted the sufferings of Christ and the subsequent glories. ¹²It was revealed to them that they were serving not themselves but you, in the things that have now been announced to you through those who preached the good news to you by the Holy Spirit sent from heaven, things into which angels long to look.

¹⁰Concerning this salvation, the prophets who

Called to Be Holy

¹³Therefore, preparing your minds for action, [1] and being sober-minded, set your hope fully on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. ¹⁴As obedient children, do not be conformed to the passions of your former ignorance. ¹⁵but as he who called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct, 16 since it is written, "You shall be holy, for I am holy." 17 And if you call on him as Father who iudges impartially according to each one's deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of vour exile. ¹⁸knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, 19 but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. ²⁰He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for the sake of you ²¹ who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

A Living Stone and a Holy People

2:1 So put away all malice and all deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all slander. ²Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation— ³if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

⁴As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, ⁵you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. ⁶For it stands in Scripture:

"Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."

⁷So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe,

- "The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone," [2]
- "A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense."

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

you were not a people, but now you are God's ¹¹Beloved, I urge you as sojourners and exiles to abstain from the passions of the flesh, which wage war against your soul. ¹²Keep your conduct among the Gentiles honorable, so that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may see your good deeds and glorify God on the day of visitation.

Submission to Authority

¹³Be subject for the Lord's sake to every human institution. [3] whether it be to the emperor [4] as supreme. ¹⁴or to governors as sent by him to punish those who do evil and to praise those who do good. ¹⁵For this is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish people. ¹⁶Live as people who are free, not using your freedom as a cover-up for evil, but living as servants of God. 17 Honor everyone. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the emperor.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. ¹⁹ For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. ²⁰ For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. ²¹ For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving

Wives and Husbands

- 3:1 Likewise, wives, be subject to your own husbands, so that even if some do not obey the word, they may be won without a word by the conduct of their wives, ²when they see your respectful and pure conduct. ³Do not let your adorning be external—the braiding of hair and the putting on of gold jewelry, or the clothing you wear— ⁴but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious. ⁵For this is how the holy women who hoped in God used to adorn themselves, by submitting to their own husbands, ⁶as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord. And you are her children, if you do good and do
- ⁷Likewise, husbands, live with your wives in an understanding way, showing honor to the woman as the weaker vessel, since they are heirs with you^[6] of the grace of life, so that your prayers may not be not fear anything that is frightening.

Suffering for Righteousness' Sake ⁸Finally. all of you, have unity of mind, sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind. ⁹Do not repay evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary, bless, for to this you were called, that you may obtain a blessing. ¹⁰For "Whoever desires to love life and see good days,

let him keep his tongue from evil and his lips from speaking deceit; ¹¹let him turn away from evil and do good; let him seek peace and pursue it.

12For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayer.
But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."
13Now who is there to harm you if you are zealous for what is good? 14But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you will be blessed. Have no fear of them, nor be troubled. 15but in your hearts prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect, 16 having a good conscience, so that, when you are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame. ¹⁷For it is better to suffer for doing good, if that should be God's will, than for doing evil. ¹⁸For Christ also suffered once for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh but made alive in the spirit, ¹⁹in which [8] he went and proclaimed [9] to the spirits in prison, ²⁰because [10] they formerly did not obey, when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were brought safely through water. ²¹Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, ²²who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers having [11] arm yourselves with the same way of thinking, for whoever has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin. 2so as to live for the rest of the time in the flesh no longer for human passions but for the will of God. ³For the time that is past suffices for doing what the Gentiles want to do, living in sensuality, passions, drunkenness, orgies, drinking parties, and lawless idolatry. 4With respect to this they are surprised when you do not join them in the same flood of debauchery, and they malign you; ⁵but they will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. ⁶For this is why the gospel was preached even to those who are dead, that though judged in the flesh the way people are, they might live in the

Suffering as a Christian

¹²Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial when it comes upon you to test you, as though something strange were happening to you. ¹³But rejoice insofar as you share Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be glad when his glory is revealed. ¹⁴lf you are insulted for the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glorv and of God rests upon you. 15But let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer or as a meddler. ¹⁶Yet if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not be ashamed, but let him glorify God in that name. ¹⁷For it is time for judgment to begin at the household of God; and if it begins with us, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of

"If the righteous is scarcely saved, what will become of the ungodly and the sinner?" [13]

God? 18And

¹⁹Therefore let those who suffer according to God's will entrust their souls to a faithful Creator while doing good.

Shepherd the Flock of God

5:1 So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed: ²shepherd the flock of God that is among vou, exercising oversight.[14] not under compulsion. but willingly, as God would have you;[15] not for shameful gain, but eagerly; ³not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. ⁴And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. ⁵Likewise. you who are younger, be subject to the elders. Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

⁶Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, ⁷casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. ⁸Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion,

Final Greetings

12By Silvanus, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, exhorting and declaring that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.
 13She who is at Babylon, who is likewise chosen, sends you greetings, and so does Mark, my son.

Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

Greeting

1:1 Simeon^[1] Peter, a servant^[2] and apostle of Jesus Christ,

To those who have obtained a faith of equal standing with ours by the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ:

²May grace and peace be multiplied to you in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord.

Make Your Calling and Election Sure

³His divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to 13 his own glory and excellence. 4 by which he has granted to us his precious and very great promises, so that through them you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world because of sinful desire. 5For this verv reason, make every effort to supplement your faith with virtue, 5 and virtue with knowledge, 6 and knowledge with self-control, and self-control with steadfastness, and steadfastness with godliness, ⁷and godliness with brotherly affection, and brotherly affection with love. ⁸For if these qualities [6] are vours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹For whoever lacks these qualities is so near sighted that he is blind, having forgotten that he was cleansed from his former sins. ¹⁰Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your qualities you will never fall. 11 For in this way there will be richly provided for you an entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

calling and election sure, for if you practice these qualities, though you know them and are established in the truth that you have. ¹³I think it right, as long as I am in this body, [8] to stir you up by way of reminder,

12 Therefore I intend always to remind you of these ¹⁴since I know that the putting off of my body will be soon, as our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.

¹⁵And I will make every effort so that after my these things.

departure you may be able at any time to recall

Christ's Glory and the Prophetic Word 16 For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, 9 with whom I am well pleased," 18 we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, ²⁰knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone's own interpretation. ²¹For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

False Prophets and Teachers

2:1 But false prophets also arose among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, even denying the Master who bought them, bringing upon themselves swift destruction. ²And many will follow their sensuality, and because of them the way of truth will be blasphemed. ³And in their greed they will exploit you with false words. Their condemnation from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

⁴For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell^[10] and committed them to chains^[11] of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment; ⁵if he did not spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood upon the world of the ungodly; ⁶if by turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes he condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the wicked ⁸(for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); ⁹then the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, [13] and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, ¹⁰and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority.

They count it pleasure to revel in the daytime. They are blots and blemishes, reveling in who are barely escaping from those who live in error. ¹⁹They promise them freedom, but they themselves are slaves [15] of corruption. For whatever overcomes a person, to that he is enslaved. ²⁰For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first.

²¹For it would have been better for them never to have known the way of righteousness than after knowing it to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. ²²What the true proverb says has happened to them: "The dog returns to its own vomit, and the sow, after washing herself, returns to wallow in the mire."

The Day of the Lord Will Come

3:1 This is now the second letter that I am writing to you, beloved. In both of them I am stirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder, ²that you should remember the predictions of the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles, ³knowing this first of all, that scoffers will come in the last days with scoffing, following their own sinful desires. 4They will say, "Where is the promise of his coming? For ever since the fathers fell asleep, all things are continuing as they were from the beginning of creation." ⁵For they deliberately overlook this fact, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth was formed out of water and through water by the word of God. 6and that by means of these the world that then existed was deluged with water and perished. ⁷But by the same word the heavens and earth that now exist are stored up for fire, being kept until the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. ⁹The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, ^[16] not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance. ¹⁰But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies ^[17] will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed. ^[18]

⁸But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with ¹¹Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, ¹²waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! ¹³But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Final Words

¹⁴Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. ¹⁵And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, 16 as he does in all his letters when he speaks in them of these matters. There are some things in them that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other Scriptures. ¹⁷You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. ¹⁸But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

The Word of Life

1:1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we looked upon and have touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— ²the life was made manifest, and we have seen it, and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life, which was with the Father and was made manifest to us— ³that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; and indeed our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴And we are writing these things so that our [1] joy may be complete.

Walking in the Light

⁵This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. ⁶If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. ⁷But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰If we say we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Christ Our Advocate

2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. ²He is the propitiation for our sins, and not for ours only but also for the sins of the whole world. ³And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. ⁴Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, ⁵but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: ⁶whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked.

The New Commandment

⁷Beloved. I am writing you no new commandment, but an old commandment that you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that vou have heard. ⁸At the same time, it is a new commandment that I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, because [2] the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining. ⁹Whoever says he is in the light and hates his brother is still in darkness. 10 Whoever loves his brother abides in the light, and in him [3] there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But whoever hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the because you know the Father.

14 write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men,

I write to you, young men,
because you are strong,
and the word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

Do Not Love the World

¹⁵Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. ¹⁶For all that is in the world—the desires of the flesh and the desires of the eyes and pride in possessions—is not from the Father but is from the world. ¹⁷And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever.

Warning Concerning Antichrists

¹⁸Children, it is the last hour, and as you have heard that antichrist is coming, so now many antichrists have come. Therefore we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of us: for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us. ²⁰But you have been anointed by the Holy One, and you all have knowledge. [4] 21 write to you, not because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. ²²Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son. ²³No one who denies the Son has the Father.

Whoever confesses the Son has the Father also. ²⁴Let what you heard from the beginning abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, then you too will abide in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵And this is the promise that he made to us — eternal life.

²⁶I write these things to you about those who are trying to deceive you. ²⁷But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him.

Children of God

- ²⁸And now, little children, abide in him, so that when he appears we may have confidence and not shrink from him in shame at his coming. ²⁹If you know that he is righteous, you may be sure that everyone who practices righteousness has been born of him.
- 3:1 See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him. ²Beloved, we are God's children now, and what we will be has not yet appeared; but we know that when he appears we shall be like him, because we shall see him as he is. ³And everyone who thus hopes in him purifies himself as he is pure.
- ⁴Everyone who makes a practice of sinning also practices lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. ⁵You know that he appeared to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. ⁶No one who abides in him keeps on righteous, as he is righteous. ⁸Whoever makes a practice of sinning is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil. ⁹No one born of God makes a practice of sinning, for God's eed abides in him, and he cannot keep on sinning because he has been born of God. ¹⁰By this it is evident who are the children of God, and who are the children of the devil: whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.

sinning; no one who keeps on sinning has either seen him or known him. ⁷Little children, let no one deceive you. Whoever practices righteousness is

Love One Another

- ¹¹For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. ¹²We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous. ¹³Do not be surprised, brothers, [8] that the world hates you. 14We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. 15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.
- ¹⁶By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. ¹⁷But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him? ¹⁸Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

¹⁹By this we shall know that we are of the truth and reassure our heart before him; ²⁰for whenever our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and he knows everything. ²¹Beloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have confidence before

God; ²²and whatever we ask we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. ²³And this is his commandment, that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. ²⁴Whoever keeps his commandments abides in God. ^[9] and God ^[10] in him. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit whom he has given us.

Test the Spirits

4:1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in from God. ³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. ⁴Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. ⁵They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us: whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

God Is Love

⁷Beloved. let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. 9In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. 10 In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. 11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. 12No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

¹³By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. ¹⁴And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. ¹⁵Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. ¹⁶So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is God abides in him. ¹⁷By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and ¹⁹We love because he first loved us. ²⁰If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot [11] love God whom he has not seen.

and whoever fears has not been perfected in love.

for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot [11] love God whom he has not seen.

21 And this commandment we have from him:
whoever loves God must also love his brother.

Overcoming the World

5:1 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of him. ²By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. ³For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments.

the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. ⁴For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. ⁵Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

Testimony Concerning the Son of God

⁶This is he who came by water and blood—Jesus Christ; not by the water only but by the water and the blood. And the Spirit is the one who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth. ⁷For there are three that testify: ⁸the Spirit and the water and the blood; and these three agree. ⁹If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. ¹⁰Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. ¹¹And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹²Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

That You May Know

- ¹³I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. ¹⁴And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. ¹⁵And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him.
- ¹⁶If anyone sees his brother committing a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God^[12] will give him life—to those who commit sins that do not lead to death. There is sin that leads to death; I do not say that one should pray for that. ¹⁷All wrongdoing is sin, but there is sin that does not lead to death.
- ¹⁸We know that everyone who has been born of God does not keep on sinning, but he who was born of God protects him, and the evil one does not touch him.
- ¹⁹We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. ²⁰And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, so that we may know him who is true; and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life. ²¹Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

2 JOHN

Greeting

1 The elder to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all who know the truth, ²because of the truth that abides in us and will be with us forever:

³Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

Walking in Truth and Love

⁴I rejoiced greatly to find some of your children walking in the truth, just as we were commanded by the Father. ⁵And now I ask you, dear lady—not as though I were writing you a new commandment, but the one we have had from the beginning—that we love one another. ⁶And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments; this is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you should walk in it. ⁷For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not confess the coming of Jesus Christ in the flesh. Such a one is the deceiver and the antichrist. ⁸Watch yourselves, so that you may not lose what we^[1] have worked for, but may win a full reward. ⁹Everyone who goes on ahead and does not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. 10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or give him any greeting, ¹¹ for whoever greets

Final Greetings

3 JOHN

Greeting

1 The elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.

²Beloved, I pray that all may go well with you and that you may be in good health, as it goes well with your soul. ³For I rejoiced greatly when the brothers^[1] came and testified to your truth, as indeed you are walking in the truth. ⁴I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

Support and Opposition

⁵Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are. ⁶who testified to your love before the church. You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. ⁷For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles.

⁸Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

⁹I have written something to the church, but Diotrephes, who likes to put himself first, does not acknowledge our authority. ¹⁰So if I come, I will bring up what he is doing, talking wicked nonsense against us. And not content with that, he refuses to welcome the brothers, and also stops those who want to and puts them out of the church.

¹¹Beloved, do not imitate evil but imitate good. Whoever does good is from God; whoever does evil has not seen God. ¹²Demetrius has received a good testimony from everyone, and from the truth itself.

We also add our testimony, and you know that our testimony is true.

Final Greetings

¹³I had much to write to you, but I would rather not write with pen and ink. ¹⁴I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.

¹⁵Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends, every one of them.

JUDE

Greeting

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and brother of James,

To those who are called, beloved in God the Father and kept for [2] Jesus Christ:

²May mercy, peace, and love be multiplied to you.

Judgment on False Teachers

³Beloved, although I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I found it necessary to write appealing to you to contend for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints. ⁴For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our God into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

⁵Now I want to remind you, although you once fully knew it, that Jesus, who saved [3] a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who did not believe. ⁶And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day— ⁷just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, [4] serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

blaspheme the glorious ones. ⁹But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, "The Lord rebuke you." ¹⁰But these people blaspheme all that they do not understand, and they ⁸Yet in like manner these people also, relying on their dreams, defile the flesh, reject authority, and are destroyed by all that they, like unreasoning animals, understand instinctively. ¹¹Woe to them! For they walked in the way of Cain and abandoned themselves for the sake of gain to Balaam's error and perished in Korah's rebellion. ¹²These are hidden reefs^[5] at your love feasts, as they feast with you without fear, shepherds feeding themselves:

waterless clouds, swept along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; ¹³wild waves of the sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever.

¹⁴It was also about these that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord" execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against him." ¹⁶These are grumblers, malcontents, following their own sinful desires; they are loudmouthed boasters, showing favoritism to gain advantage.

comes with ten thousands of his holy ones. 15 to

A Call to Persevere

¹⁷But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁸They^[6] said to you, "In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions." ¹⁹It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. ²⁰But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, ²¹keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. ²²And have mercy on those who doubt; ²³save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment \square stained by the flesh.

Doxology

²⁴Now to him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you blameless before the presence of his glory with great joy, ²⁵to the only God, our Savior, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, dominion, and authority, before all time and now and forever. Amen.

Prologue

1:1 The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants^[1] the things that must soon take place. He made it known by sending his angel to his servant^[2] John, ²who bore witness to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, even to all that he saw. ³Blessed is the one who reads aloud the words of this prophecy, and blessed are those who hear, and who keep what is written in it, for the time is near.

Greeting to the Seven Churches

⁴John to the seven churches that are in Asia:

Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, ⁵ and from Jesus Christ the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of kings on earth.

To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood ⁶ and made us a kingdom, priests to his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. ⁷Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him, and all tribes of the earth will wail on account of him. Even so. Amen.

⁸"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

Vision of the Son of Man

- ⁹I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation and the kingdom and the patient endurance that are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos on account of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus. ¹⁰I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet ¹¹saying, "Write what you see in a book and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamum and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea."
- ¹²Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me, and on turning I saw seven golden lampstands, ¹³and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, clothed with a long robe and with a golden sash around his chest. ¹⁴The hairs of his head were white, like white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire, ¹⁵his feet were like burnished bronze, refined in a furnace, and his voice was like the roar of many waters. ¹⁶In his right hand he held seven stars, from his mouth came a sharp two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in full strength.

17When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead.
But he laid his right hand on me, saving, "Fear not, I am the first and the last, ¹⁸ and the living one. I died, and behold I am alive forevermore, and I have the keys of Death and Hades. ¹⁹Write therefore the things that you have seen, those that are and those that are to take place after this. ²⁰As for the mystery of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands, the seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.

To the Church in Ephesus

2:1 "To the angel of the church in Ephesus write:

'The words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks among the seven golden lampstands.

²"I know your works, your toil and your patient endurance, and how you cannot bear with those who are evil, but have tested those who call themselves apostles and are not, and found them to be false. 3I know you are enduring patiently and bearing up for my name's sake, and you have not grown weary. ⁴But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first. 5Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent, and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent. ⁶Yet this you have: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. ⁷He who has an ear. let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers I will grant to eat of the tree of

To the Church in Smyrna

⁸"And to the angel of the church in Smyrna write: 'The words of the first and the last, who died and came to life.

⁹"I know your tribulation and your poverty (but you are rich) and the slander ^[4] of those who say that they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of Satan. ¹⁰Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and for ten days you will have tribulation. Be faithful unto death, and I will give you the crown of life. ¹¹He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. The one who conquers will not be hurt by the second death.'

To the Church in Pergamum

12"And to the angel of the church in Pergamum write: 'The words of him who has the sharp two-edged sword.

13" I know where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. Yet you hold fast my name, and you did not deny my faith^[5] even in the days of Antipas my faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. 14But I have a few things against you: you have some there who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, so that they might eat food sacrificed to idols and practice sexual immorality. 15So also you have some who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans. 16Therefore repent. If not, I will come to you soon and war against them with the sword of my mouth. 17He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To the one who conquers

I will give some of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, with a new name written on the stone that no one knows except the one who

- 19"'I know your works, your love and faith and service and patient endurance, and that your latter works exceed the first. 20 But I have this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants [6] to practice sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. ²¹I gave her time to repent. but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. ²²Behold. I will throw her onto a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her I will throw into great tribulation, unless they repent of her works. ²³ and I will strike her children dead. And all the churches will this teaching, who have not learned what some call the deep things of Satan, to you I say, I do not lay on authority over the nations, ² and he will rule them with a rod of iron, as when earthen pots are broken in pieces, even as I myself have received authority from my Father. ²⁸And I will give him the morning star. ²⁹He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

To the Church in Sardis

3:1 "And to the angel of the church in Sardis write: 'The words of him who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars

"I know your works. You have the reputation of being alive, but you are dead. ²Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete in the sight of my God. ³Remember. then, what you received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If you will not wake up, I will come like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come against you. ⁴Yet you have still a few names in Sardis, people who have not soiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. ⁵The one who conquers will be clothed thus in white garments, and I will never blot his name out of the book of life. I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. ⁶He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

To the Church in Philadelphia

⁷"And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write: 'The words of the holy one, the true one, who has the key of David, who opens and no one will shut, who shuts and no one opens.

8""I know your works. Behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one is able to shut. I know that you have but little power, and yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name. ⁹Behold, I will make those of the synagogue of Satan who say that they are Jews and are not, but lie—behold, I will make them come and bow down before your feet and they will learn that I have loved vou. 10 Because you have kept my word about patient endurance, I will keep you from the hour of trial that is coming on the whole world, to try those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹I am coming soon. Hold fast what you have, so that no one may seize your crown. 12 The one who conquers. I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God. Never shall he go out of it, and I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down from my God out of heaven, and my own new name.

13He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches.'

To the Church in Laodicea

14"And to the angel of the church in Laodicea write: 'The words of the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of God's creation.

15" I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were either cold or hot! ¹⁶So. because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of my mouth, ¹⁷For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing, not realizing that you are wretched, pitiable, poor, blind, and naked. 18 counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, so that you may be rich, and white garments so that you may clothe yourself and the shame of your nakedness may not be seen, and salve to anoint your eyes, so that you may see. ¹⁹Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent. ²⁰Behold. I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me. ²¹The one who conquers. I will grant him to sit with me on my throne, as I also conquered and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²²He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches."

The Throne in Heaven

4:1 After this I looked, and behold, a door standing open in heaven! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this." ²At once I was in the Spirit, and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with one seated on the throne. ³And he who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian, and around the throne was a rainbow that had the appearance of an emerald.

⁴Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and ⁴Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders. clothed in white garments, with golden crowns on their heads. ⁵From the throne came flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and before the throne were burning seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God, ⁶ and before the throne there was as it were a sea of class. like crystal.

And around the throne, on each side of the throne, behind: ⁷the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with the face of a man, and the fourth living creature like an eagle in flight. ⁸And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and within, and day and night they never cease to say,

are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and

"Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

⁹And whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanks to him who is seated on the throne, who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders fall down before him who is seated on the throne and worship him who lives forever and ever. They cast their crowns before the throne, saying, their crowns before the throne, saying,

11"Worthy are you, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power,
for you created all things, and by your will they existed and were created."

The Scroll and the Lamb

5:1 Then I saw in the right hand of him who was seated on the throne a scroll written within and on the back, sealed with seven seals, ²And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?" 3And no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. 4 and I began to weep loudly because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it. ⁵And one of the elders said to me, "Weep no more; behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has conquered, so that he can open the scroll and its

⁶And between the throne and the four living creatures and among the elders I saw a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, with seven horns and with seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth. ⁷And he went and took the scroll from the right hand of him taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints. ⁹And they sang a new song, saying,

"Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, who was seated on the throne. 8And when he had and they shall reign on the earth."

11Then I looked, and I heard around the throne and the living creatures and the elders the voice of many angels, numbering myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, 12 saying with a loud voice,

"Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" ¹³And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!" ¹⁴And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshiped.

The Seven Seals

- 6:1 Now I watched when the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures say with a voice like thunder, "Come!" ²And I looked, and behold, a white horse! And its rider had a bow, and a crown was given to him, and he came out conquering, and to conquer.
- ³When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature say, "Come!" ⁴And out came another horse, bright red. Its rider was permitted to take peace from the earth, so that people should slay one another, and he was given a great sword.
- ⁵When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, "Come!" And I looked, and behold, a black horse! And its rider had a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶And I heard what seemed to be a voice in the midst of the four living creatures, saying, "A quart^[8] of wheat for a denarius, ^[9] and three quarts of barley for a denarius, and do not harm the oil and wine!"

of the fourth living creature say, "Come!" ⁸And I looked, and behold, a pale horse! And its rider's name was Death, and Hades followed him. And they were given authority over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword and with famine and with pestilence and by wild beasts of the earth.

 9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar

⁷When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice

the souls of those who had been slain for the word of God and for the witness they had borne. ¹⁰They cried out with a loud voice, "O Sovereign Lord, holy and true, how long before you will judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" ¹¹Then they were each given a white robe and told to rest a little longer, until the number of their fellow servants ^[10] and their brothers ^[11] should be complete, who were to be killed as they themselves as the fig tree sheds its winter fruit when shaken by a gale. ¹⁴The sky vanished like a scroll that is being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. ¹⁵Then the kings of the earth and the great ones and the generals and the rich and the powerful, and everyone, slave^[12] and free, hid became black as sackcloth, the full moon became like blood. ¹³and the stars of the sky fell to the earth themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains, ¹⁶calling to the mountains and rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the face of him who is seated on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, ¹⁷for the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?"

The 144,000 of Israel Sealed

- 7:1 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow on earth or sea or against any tree. ²Then I saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, with the seal of the living God, and he called with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to harm earth and sea, ³saving, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have sealed the servants [13] of our God on their foreheads." 4And I heard the number of the sealed, 144,000, sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:
- 512,000 from the tribe of Judah were sealed, 12,000 from the tribe of Reuben, 12,000 from the tribe of Gad, 612,000 from the tribe of Asher, 12,000 from the tribe of Naphtali, 12,000 from the tribe of Manasseh, 712,000 from the tribe of Simeon,

12,000 from the tribe of Issachar, 812,000 from the tribe of Zebulun, 12,000 from the tribe of Joseph,

12.000 from the tribe of Levi,

12,000 from the tribe of Joseph, 12,000 from the tribe of Benjamin were sealed.

A Great Multitude from Every Nation 9After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, ¹⁰ and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" ¹¹ And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹² saying, "Amen! Blessing and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

Amen."

13Then one of the elders addressed me, saying,

"Who are these, clothed in white robes, and from where have they come?" 14I said to him, "Sir, you know." And he said to me, "These are the ones coming out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and made them white in the glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and blood of the Lamb 15"Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he who sits on the throne will shelter them with his presence.

16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any scorching heat. ¹⁷For the Lamb in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd. and he will guide them to springs of living water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Seventh Seal and the Golden Censer 8:1 When the Lamb opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ²Then I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. ³And another angel came and stood at the altar with a golden censer, and he was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar before the throne. ⁴ and the smoke of the incense. with the prayers of the saints, rose before God from the hand of the angel. ⁵Then the angel took the censer and filled it with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth, and there were peals of thunder. rumblings.[14] flashes of lightning, and an earthquake.

The Seven Trumpets

⁶Now the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to blow them.

⁷The first angel blew his trumpet, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and these were thrown upon the earth. And a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.
⁸The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a great mountain, burning with fire, was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood.

⁹A third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

10 The third angel blew his trumpet, and a great star fell from heaven, blazing like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. 11 The name of the star is Wormwood. 115 A third of the waters became wormwood, and many people died from the water, because it had been made bitter.

- 12The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of their light might be darkened, and a third of the day might be kept from shining, and likewise a third of the night.
- ¹³Then I looked, and I heard an eagle crying with a loud voice as it flew directly overhead, "Woe, woe, woe to those who dwell on the earth, at the blasts of the other trumpets that the three angels are about to blow!"
- 9:1 And the fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw a star fallen from heaven to earth, and he was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit. [16] ²He opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and from the shaft rose smoke like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun and the air were darkened with the smoke from the shaft. ³Then from the smoke came locusts on the earth, and they were given power like the power of scorpions of the earth. ⁴They were told not to harm the grass of the earth or any green plant like crowns of gold; their faces were like human faces, ⁸their hair like women's hair, and their teeth like lions' teeth; ⁹they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the noise of their wings was like the noise of many chariots with horses rushing prepared for battle; on their heads were what looked or any tree, but only those people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. ⁵They were allowed to torment them for five months, but not to kill them, and their torment was like the torment of a scorpion when it stings someone. ⁶And in those days people will seek death and will not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them.

⁷In appearance the locusts were like horses into battle. ¹⁰They have tails and stings like scorpions, and their power to hurt people for five months is in their tails. ¹¹They have as king over them the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God. ¹⁴saving to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates." 15So the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour, the day, the month, and the year, were released to kill a third of mankind. ¹⁶The number of mounted troops was twice ten thousand times ten thousand; I heard their number. ¹⁷And this is how I saw the horses in my vision and those who rode them: they wore breastplates the color of fire and of sapphire [18] and of sulfur, and the heads of the horses were like lions' heads, and fire and smoke and sulfur came out of their mouths. 18Bv these three plagues a third of mankind was killed, by the fire and smoke and sulfur coming out of their mouths. ¹⁹ For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails are like serpents with heads, and by means of them they wound.

13Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard

20 The rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands nor give up worshiping demons and idols of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which cannot see or hear or walk, 21 nor did they repent of their murders or their sorceries or their sexual immorality or their thefts.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

10:1 Then I saw another mighty angel coming down from heaven, wrapped in a cloud, with a rainbow over his head, and his face was like the sun, and his legs like pillars of fire. ²He had a little scroll open in his hand. And he set his right foot on the sea, and his left foot on the land, ³ and called out with a loud voice, like a lion roaring. When he called out, the seven thunders sounded. ⁴And when the seven thunders had sounded. I was about to write, but I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up what the seven thunders have said, and do not write it down." 5And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven ⁶ and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it, that there would be no more delay. 7but that in the days of the trumpet call to be sounded by the seventh angel, the mystery of God would be fulfilled, just as he announced to his servants[19] the prophets.

in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land." ⁹So I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll. And he said to me, "Take and eat it; it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey." ¹⁰And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel and ate it. It was sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it my stomach was made bitter. ¹¹And I was told, "You must again prophesy about many peoples and nations and languages and kings."

⁸Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, saying, "Go, take the scroll that is open

The Two Witnesses

11:1 Then I was given a measuring rod like a staff, and I was told, "Rise and measure the temple of God and the altar and those who worship there, ²but do not measure the court outside the temple; leave that out, for it is given over to the nations, and they will trample the holy city for forty-two months. ³And I will grant authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days, clothed in sackcloth."

⁴These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.
⁵And if anyone would harm them, fire pours from their mouth and consumes their foes. If anyone would harm them, this is how he is doomed to be killed.
⁶They have the power to shut the sky, that no rain may fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have power over the waters to turn them into blood and to strike the earth with every kind of plague, as often as they desire. ⁷And when they have finished their testimony, the beast that rises from the bottomless pit^[20] will make war on them and conquer them and kill them, ⁸ and their dead bodies will lie in the street of the great city that symbolically^[21] is called Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was crucified. ⁹For three and a half days some from the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will gaze at their dead bodies and refuse to let them be placed in a tomb, ¹⁰ and those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and make merry and exchange presents, because these two prophets had been a torment to those who dwell on the earth. ¹¹But after the three and a half days a breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them. ¹²Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" And they went up to heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. ¹³And at that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe has passed; behold, the third woe is soon to come.

The Seventh Trumpet

15Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign forever and ever."
16And the twenty-four elders who sit on their thrones before God fell on their faces and worshiped God.

"We give thanks to you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, for you have taken your great power and begun to reign.

18The nations raged, but your wrath came,

17 saving,

and the time for the dead to be judged, and for rewarding your servants, [22] the prophets and saints, and those who fear your name, both small and great, and for destroying the destroyers of the earth."

¹⁹Then God's temple in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen within his temple. There were flashes of lightning, rumblings, [23] peals of thunder, an earthquake, and heavy hail.

The Woman and the Dragon

12:1 And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. ²She was pregnant and was crying out in birth pains and the agony of giving birth. 3And another sign appeared in heaven: behold, a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems. ⁴His tail swept down a third of the stars of heaven and cast them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she bore her child he might devour it. ⁵She gave birth to a male child, one who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron, but her child was caught up to God and to his throne. 6 and the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, in which she is to be nourished for 1,260 days.

Satan Thrown Down to Earth

⁷Now war arose in heaven, Michael and his angels fighting against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought back. 8but he was defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. ⁹And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. ¹⁰And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers [24] has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. 11 And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. 12 Therefore, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!"

given birth to the male child. ¹⁴But the woman was given the two wings of the great eagle so that she might fly from the serpent into the wilderness, to the place where she is to be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time. ¹⁵The serpent poured water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to sweep her away with a flood. ¹⁶But the earth came to the help of the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that the dragon had poured from his mouth. ¹⁷Then the dragon became furious with the woman and went off to make war on the rest of her offspring, on those who keep the commandments of God and hold to the testimony of Jesus. And he stood^[25] on the sand of the sea.

¹³And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth, he pursued the woman who had

The First Beast

13:1 And I saw a beast rising out of the sea, with ten horns and seven heads, with ten diadems on its horns and blasphemous names on its heads. ²And the beast that I saw was like a leopard; its feet were like a bear's, and its mouth was like a lion's mouth. And to it the dragon gave his power and his throne and great authority. ³One of its heads seemed to have a mortal wound, but its mortal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled as they followed the beast. ⁴And they worshiped the dragon, for he had given his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast, and who can fight against it?"

⁵And the beast was given a mouth uttering haughty and blasphemous words, and it was allowed to exercise authority for forty-two months. ⁶It opened its mouth to utter blasphemies against God, blaspheming his name and his dwelling, ^[26] that is, those who dwell in heaven. ⁷Also it was allowed to

The Second Beast

11 Then I saw another beast rising out of the earth. It had two horns like a lamb and it spoke like a dragon. 12 It exercises all the authority of the first beast in its presence. [28] and makes the earth and its inhabitants worship the first beast, whose mortal wound was healed. 13 lt performs great signs, even making fire come down from heaven to earth in front of people, ¹⁴ and by the signs that it is allowed to work in the presence of [29] the beast it deceives those who dwell on earth, telling them to make an image for the beast that was wounded by the sword and yet lived. 15 And it was allowed to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast might even speak and might cause those who would not worship the image of the beast to be slain. ¹⁶Also it causes all, both small and great, both rich and poor, both free and slave, [30] to be marked on and poor, both free and slave, [30] to be marked on the right hand or the forehead, ¹⁷so that no one can buy or sell unless he has the mark, that is, the name of the beast or the number of its name. ¹⁸This calls for wisdom: let the one who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is 666. [31]

The Lamb and the 144,000

14:1 Then I looked, and behold, on Mount Zion stood the Lamb, and with him 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. ²And I heard a voice from heaven like the roar of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder. The voice I heard was like the sound of harpists playing on their harps, ³ and they were singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and before the elders. No one could learn that song except the 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. 4It is these who have not defiled themselves with women, for they are virgins. It is these who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These have been redeemed from mankind as firstfruits for God and the Lamb. ⁵and in their mouth no lie was found, for they are blameless.

The Messages of the Three Angels ⁶Then I saw another angel flying directly overhead, with an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people. ⁷And he said with a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come, and worship him who made heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

fallen is Babylon the great, she who made all nations drink the wine of the passion[32] of her sexual immorality."

⁸Another angel, a second, followed, saying, "Fallen,

⁹And another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand, ¹⁰he also will drink the wine of God's wrath, poured full strength into the cup of his anger, and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb. ¹¹And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever, and they have no rest, day or night, these worshipers of the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name."

¹²Here is a call for the endurance of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God and their faith in Jesus. [33]

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on." "Blessed indeed," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!"

The Harvest of the Earth

14Then I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and seated on the cloud one like a son of man, with a golden crown on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand. ¹⁵And another angel came out of the temple, calling with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Put in your sickle, and reap, for the hour to reap has come, for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe." ¹⁶So he who sat on the cloud swung his sickle across the earth, and the earth was reaped.

¹⁷Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven, and he too had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸And another angel came out from the altar, the angel who has authority over the fire, and he called with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, "Put in your sickle and gather the clusters from the vine of the earth, for its grapes are ripe." ¹⁹So the angel swung his sickle across the earth and gathered the grape harvest of the earth and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. ²⁰And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood flowed from the winepress, as high as a horse's bridle, for 1,600 amazing, seven angels with seven plagues, which are the last, for with them the wrath of God is finished.

²And I saw what appeared to be a sea of glass mingled with fire—and also those who had conquered the beast and its image and the number of its name, standing beside the sea of glass with harps of God in their hands. ³And they sing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying,

"Great and amazing are your deeds, O Lord God the Almighty!

The Seven Bowls of God's Wrath

- 16:1 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple telling the seven angels, "Go and pour out on the earth the seven bowls of the wrath of God."
- ²So the first angel went and poured out his bowl on the earth, and harmful and painful sores came upon the people who bore the mark of the beast and worshiped its image.
- ³The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became like the blood of a corpse, and every living thing died that was in the sea.
- ⁴The third angel poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs of water, and they became blood. ⁵And I heard the angel in charge of the waters ^[38] say,
- "Just are you, O Holy One, who is and who was, for you brought these judgments.
- ⁶For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets,

"Yes, Lord God the Almighty, true and just are your judgments!"

8The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun,

- and it was allowed to scorch people with fire. ⁹They were scorched by the fierce heat, and they cursed the name of God who had power over these plagues. They did not repent and give him glory.
- ¹⁰The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in anguish ¹¹and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores. They did not repent of their deeds.
- 12 The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, to

The Seventh Bowl

¹⁷The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" 18 And there were flashes of lightning, rumblings, [40] peals of thunder, and a great earthquake such as there had never been since man was on the earth, so great was that earthquake. ¹⁹The great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell, and God remembered Babylon the great, to make her drain the cup of the wine of the fury of his wrath. ²⁰And every island fled away, and no mountains were to be found. 21 And great hailstones, about one hundred pounds[41] each, fell from heaven on people; and they cursed God for the plague of the hail, because the plague was so severe.

The Great Prostitute and the Beast

17:1 Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and said to me. "Come. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who is seated on many waters, ² with whom the kings of the earth have committed sexual immorality, and with the wine of whose sexual immorality the dwellers on earth have become drunk." ³And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness, and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that was full of blasphemous names, and it had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴The woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and jewels and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of her sexual immorality. ⁵And on her forehead was written a name of mystery: "Babylon the great, mother of prostitutes and of earth's abominations." ⁶And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the saints, the blood of the martyrs of Jesus.[42] said to me, "Why do you marvel? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast with seven heads and ten horns that carries her. ⁸The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to rise from the bottomless pit [43] and go to destruction. And the dwellers on earth whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel to see the beast, because it was and is not and is to come. ⁹This calls for a mind with wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains on

When I saw her, I marveled greatly, ⁷But the angel

15 And the angel [44] said to me. "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is seated, are peoples and multitudes and nations and languages. ¹⁶And the ten horns that you saw, they and the beast will hate the prostitute. They will make her desolate and naked, and devour her flesh and burn her up with fire, ¹⁷for God has put it into their hearts to carry out his purpose by being of one mind and handing over their royal power to the beast, until the words of God are fulfilled. ¹⁸And the woman that you saw is the great city that has dominion over the kings of the earth."

The Fall of Babylon

- 18:1 After this I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was made bright with his glory. ²And he called out with a mighty voice,
- "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great!
 She has become a dwelling place for demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, a haunt for every unclean bird, a haunt for every unclean and detestable beast.

 3For all nations have drunk [45]
- the wine of the passion of her sexual immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich from the power of her luxurious living."
- ⁴Then I heard another voice from heaven saying,
- "Come out of her, my people, lest you take part in her sins, and repay her double for her deeds; mix a double portion for her in the cup she mixed.

As she glorified herself and lived in luxury, so give her a like measure of torment and mourning, since in her heart she says, 'I sit as a queen, lest you share in her plagues;

I am no widow.

 ⁶Pay her back as she herself has paid back others, and mourning I shall never see.'

death and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for mighty is the Lord God who has judged her."

⁹And the kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived in luxury with her, will weep and wail over her when they see the smoke of her burning. 10 They will stand far off, in fear of her torment, and say,

¹¹And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn for her, since no one buys their cargo anymore, ¹²cargo of gold, silver, jewels, pearls, fine linen, purple cloth, silk, scarlet cloth, all kinds of scented wood, all kinds of articles of ivory, all kinds of articles of costly wood, bronze, iron and marble, ¹³cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle and sheep, horses and chariots, and slaves, that is, human souls. [46]

14"The fruit for which your soul longed has gone from you, and all your delicacies and your splendors are lost to you, never to be found again!"

¹⁵The merchants of these wares, who gained wealth from her, will stand far off, in fear of her torment, weeping and mourning aloud, in purple and scarlet,

And all shipmasters and seafaring men, sailors and all whose trade is on the sea, stood far off ¹⁸and cried out as they saw the smoke of her burning,

¹⁹And they threw dust on their heads as they wept and mourned, crying out,

"Alas, alas, for the great city where all who had ships at sea grew rich by her wealth! For in a single hour she has been laid waste.

"What city was like the great city?"

²⁰Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, for God has given judgment for you against her!"

21Then a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying,

"So will Babylon the great city be thrown down with violence, and will be found no more;

22 and the sound of harpists and musicians, of flute players and trumpeters, will be heard in you no more, and a craftsman of any craft will be found in you no more,

and the sound of the mill will be heard in you no more,

will be heard in you no more,

23 and the light of a lamp will shine in you no more,
and the voice of bridegroom and bride
will be heard in you no more,
for your merchants were the great ones of the earth, and all nations were deceived by your sorcery.

²⁴And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints,

and of all who have been slain on earth."

Rejoicing in Heaven

19:1 After this I heard what seemed to be the loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, crying out,

"Hallelujah!

Salvation and glory and power belong to our God, ²for his judgments are true and just; for he has judged the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her immorality, and has avenged on her the blood of his servants "[47]

³Once more they cried out,

"Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up forever and ever."

⁴And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who was seated on the throne, saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" ⁵And from the throne came a voice saying, all you his servants, you who fear him, small and great."

"Praise our God,

The Marriage Supper of the Lamb

⁶Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the roar of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, crying out,

"Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.

⁷Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come,

and his Bride has made herself ready;

8it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure"- for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.

⁹And the angel said^[48] to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are the true words of God." ¹⁰Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant [49] with you and your prophecy.

brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God." For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of

The Rider on a White Horse

¹¹Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. 12 His eves are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems, and he has a name written that no one knows but himself. 13He is clothed in a robe dipped in [50] blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God. 14 And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, were following him on white horses. 15 From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron. He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty. ¹⁶On his robe and on his thigh he 17Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly directly overhead, "Come, gather for the great supper of God, 18to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, riders, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, [51] both small and great." ¹⁹And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against him who was sitting on the horse and against his army. ²⁰And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who in its presence [52] had done the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹And the rest were slain by the sword that came from the mouth of him who was sitting on the horse, and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

The Thousand Years

20:1 Then I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding in his hand the key to the bottomless pit^[53] and a great chain. ²And he seized the dragon, that ancient serpent, who is the devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, ³and threw him into the pit, and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he might not deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were ended. After that he must be released for a little while.

⁴Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom the authority to judge was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. ⁵The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection. ⁶Blessed and holy is the one who shares in the first resurrection!

Over such the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and they will reign with him for a thousand years.

The Defeat of Satan

⁷And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison ⁸and will come out to deceive the nations that are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea. ⁹And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven [54] and consumed them, ¹⁰and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Judgment Before the Great White Throne

¹¹Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. From his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to what they had done. ¹³And the sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done. ¹⁴Then Death and Hades were thrown gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done. ¹⁴Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. ¹⁵And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Heaven and the New Earth

21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. ²And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. ³And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

"Behold, the dwelling place^[55] of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people,^[56] and God himself will be with them as their God.^[57] ⁴He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

⁵And he who was seated on the throne said.

"Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true." ⁶And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be my son. ⁸But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

⁹Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb." 10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. 11 having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal. 12 lt had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were inscribed — 13 on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. ¹⁴And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵And the one who spoke with me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city and its gates and walls. ¹⁶The city lies foursquare, its length the same as its width. And he measured the city with his rod, 12,000 stadia. [58] Its length and width and height are equal. ¹⁷He also measured its wall. 144 cubits ^[59] by human measurement, which is also an angel's measurement. ¹⁸The wall was built of jasper, while the city was pure gold, clear as glass. ¹⁹The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every kind of jewel. The first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald. ²⁰the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst. 21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, transparent as glass. ²²And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. ²³And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴By its light will the nations walk, and the kings of there. ²⁶They will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations. ²⁷But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

the earth will bring their glory into it, ²⁵and its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night

The River of Life

22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb 2through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life [61] with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. ³No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants [62] will worship him. ⁴They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. ⁵And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Jesus Is Coming

- ⁶And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place."
- ⁷"And behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."
- ⁸I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me, ⁹but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant^[63] with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."
- ¹⁰And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near. ¹¹Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy."

recompense with me, to repay everyone for what he has done. ¹³I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

12"Behold. I am coming soon, bringing my 14Blessed are those who wash their robes, [64] so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates. ¹⁵Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

¹⁶"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

17The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price.

18 warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book, ¹⁹and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

²⁰He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

21The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. [65] Amen.
