... Then the king of Assyria gave this order: 'Have one of the priests who had been ended from Samaria come to live in Bethel and teach them how to worship the Lord.'

King Abaz then gave these orders to Uriah the priest. 'On the large new altar, offer the morning burnt offering and the evening grain offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain offering, and the offering and his grain offering, and the offering and his grain offering...

They imitated the nations around them, although the Lord had ordered them: 'Do not do as they do,' and they did the things the Lord had forbidden them to do.

17 In the twelfth year of Abaz king of Judah, Hoshea son of Elah became king of Israel in Samaria, and he reigned nine years. He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, but not like the kings of Israel who preceded him.

Then the king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the ruins of Samaria to replace the Israelites.
