

What are they thinking?

What are they thinking?

Eight empty speech bubble shapes arranged vertically in the center of the page, each connected by a line to one of the images on either side. The bubbles are intended for writing the thoughts of the subjects in the images.